1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Ivan Sanchez (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a proposed $325,000.00 4 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendant Danco Anodizing, Inc.
5 (“Defendant”). The Settlement will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 265
6 class members. And, as set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria
7 for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive 8 investigation, formal discovery, and negotiations, which included two mediations conducted first by 9 David Phillips, Esq. and later by Hon. Amy Hogue (Ret.). After extensive negotiations and 10 discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s defenses, 11 the Parties reached a settlement that was finalized and fully executed in March 2024.

12 Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, 13 certify the proposed settlement class, approve the proposed notice, and set a final approval hearing.

14 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

15 A. Plaintiff’s Claims

16 This is a wage and hour class action and PAGA representative action. Plaintiff and 17 putative class members worked in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for 18 Defendant during the class period. Defendant has facilities in Southern California, including in 19 Arcadia and Oxnard, that provide an array of manufacturing services, including aluminum and 20 titanium anodizing, deep imaging, and precision marking, to a variety of businesses in differing 21 sectors. (Declaration of Justin F. Marquez in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary 22 Approval of Class Action Settlement [“Marquez Decl.”], ¶ 2.)

23 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant’s payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices 24 resulted in Labor Code violations. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay for all hours 25 worked. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant failed to provide employees with legally 26 compliant meal and rest periods, and Defendant failed to reimburse business expenses. Based 27 on these allegations, Plaintiff asserts related claims for failure to provide accurate wage 28 statements, failure to pay all final wages at termination, unfair business practices, and civil

1 penalties under PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 3.)

2 On March 30, 2022, Plaintiff filed a putative wage-and-hour class action complaint
3 against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages (Labor Code §§ 204, 4 1194, 1194.2, and 1197); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198); (3) 5 failure to provide meal periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (4) failure to authorize and 6 permit rest periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (5) failure to timely pay final wages at 7 termination (Labor Code §§ 201-203); (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements 8 (Labor Code § 226); (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures (Labor Code § 2802); 9 and (8) unfair business practices (Business and Professions Code 17200 et seq.). Plaintiff sent 10 a notice to Defendant and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) 11 alleging wage and hour violations pursuant to the PAGA (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) on 12 April 8, 2022. On June 22, 2022, Plaintiff separately filed a PAGA-only complaint against 13 Defendant. The matters were related on August 15, 2022. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 4.) On April 25, 14 2024, the Parties filed a stipulation to consolidate this matter with the separately filed PAGA
15 matter. (Id.)

16 B. Discovery and Investigation

17 Following the filing of the Complaint, the Parties engaged in formal and informal 18 documents in advance of mediating this action. The Parties exchanged written discovery 19 responses and Defendant produced a sample of time and pay records for class members.
20 Plaintiff also deposed Defendant’s Person Most Knowledgeable and Defendant deposed 21 Plaintiff. Defendant also provided documents of its wage and hour policies and practices during 22 the class period, and information regarding the total number of current and former employees 23 in its informal discovery responses. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

24 After reviewing documents, information, and deposition testimony regarding 25 Defendant’s wage and hour policies and practices, analyzing Defendant’s timekeeping and 26 payroll records, and interviewing Class Members, Class Counsel was able to evaluate the 27 probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendant’s maximum monetary 28 exposure for all claims. (Id. at ¶ 6.) Class Counsel also investigated the applicable law

1 regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Class Counsel reviewed these 2 records and prepared a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.)

3 C. Settlement Negotiations

4 On January 26, 2023, the parties participated in private mediation with experienced class 5 action mediator David Phillips, Esq. but were unable to resolve the matter. (Id. at ¶ 7.) On 6 October 26, 2023, the parties participated in a subsequent mediation with the well-regarded 7 former complex judge Hon. Amy Hogue (Ret.). Both mediations were conducted via Zoom.
8 The settlement negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a professional 9 manner, were adversarial. The parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential 10 for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through 11 trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and 12 discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and Defendant's 13 defenses, the Parties reached a settlement the material terms of which are encompassed within 14 the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 8, Ex. 1 [Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Class 15 Notice].)

16 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. Based 17 on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 18 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best 19 interests of the Settlement Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk 20 of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant both to certification and 21 on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Id. at ¶ 16.)

22 Indeed, the $325,000.00 Settlement represents 50.5% of the realistic maximum 23 recovery of $643,706.34. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Although Class Counsel estimated that Defendant's 24 maximum potential liability for all claims was approximately $5 million, when the risk of 25 prevailing at certification and trial are factored into the equation, Class Counsel believes that 26 Defendant's realistic exposure was $643,706.34, meaning the Settlement achieves a significant 27 recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 16-29.) Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at class 28 certification and at trial, this is an excellent result for the Class. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Indeed, because of the proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment.

D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

The Parties used the Los Angeles Superior Court's Form Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Class Notice. A document showing edits the parties made to the template in redline is attached to the Declaration of Justin F. Marquez as Exhibit 2. The Settlement's key terms include:

1. Class Definition: For settlement purposes only, the Parties agree to the certification of a class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 defined as: "all persons employed by Defendant in California and classified as hourly paid or non-exempt employee during the Class period." (Settlement, § 1.5.)

2. Class Period: "means the period from March 30, 2018 to December 31, 2023." (Settlement, § 1.12.)

3. Participating Class Members: "means a Class Member who does not submit a valid and timely Request for Exclusion from the Settlement." (Settlement, § 1.35.)

4. Aggrieved Employees: means all persons employed by Defendant in California and classified as hourly-paid or non-exempt employee during the PAGA period, from April 8, 2021 to December 31, 2023. (Settlement, §§ 1.4, 1.31.)

5. Gross Settlement Amount: This amount is $325,000.00, for all claims, including Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Counsel Fees, Class Counsel Expenses, Class Representative Service Payment, and the Administrator's Expenses. (Settlement, § 1.22.)

6. Uncashed Checks: If a settlement check is returned to the Settlement Administrator as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator shall promptly attempt to obtain a valid mailing address by performing a skip trace search and, if another address is identified, shall mail the check to the newly identified address. Any settlement checks remaining uncashed after one hundred and eighty (180) days shall be transmitted to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" subject to the requirements of

1 California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b). (Settlement, § 4.4.3.)

2 7. Release by Participating Class Members: “All class members who do not opt-out 3 will release Defendant from any and all claims asserted in the operative complaint, and any future 4 amendments to the operative complaint, including, but not limited to, state and federal wage and 5 hour claims for any and all violations of California’s Labor Code and Unfair Competition Law, 6 and Fair Labor Standards Act¹ based on Defendant’s failure to pay for all hours worked (including 7 minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods and to properly 8 provide premium pay in lieu thereof, failure to authorize and permit rest periods and to properly 9 provide premium pay in lieu thereof, failure to timely pay wages during employment, failure to 10 timely pay final wages at termination, failure to pay wages at the proper rate of pay, failure to 11 furnish accurate itemized wage statements and/or maintain accurate payroll records, failure to 12 indemnify employees for expenditures, civil penalties under PAGA based on the alleged Labor 13 Code violations, and all damages, interest, penalties, attorneys’ fees, costs, and other amounts 14 recoverable under said causes of action under California and federal law, to the extent permissible, 15 including, but not limited to, the California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders.”
16 (Settlement, § 5.2.) This Release will be deemed effective on the date when Defendant fully funds 17 the entire Gross Settlement Amount and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage 18 Portion of the Individual Class Payments. (Settlement, § 5.)

19 8. Release by Non-Participating Class Members Who Are Aggrieved Employees: “All 20 Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf 21 of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, 22 administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties 23 that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the Operative 24 Complaint and the PAGA Notice.” (Settlement, § 5.3.)

25 9. No Reversion: “None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant.”
26 (Settlement, § 3.1.)

27 10. PAGA Allocation: The settlement includes $10,000.00 allocated to Plaintiff’s
28 claims under PAGA, with 75% of which ($7,500.00) being paid to the LWDA and 25% ($2,500.00)

1 being paid to the Aggrieved Employees. (Settlement, § 1.34.) Class Counsel submitted the 2 proposed settlement to the LWDA before filing this Motion for Preliminary Approval. (Marquez 3 Decl., ¶ 10.)

4 11. Net Settlement Amount: The “Net Settlement Amount” is the amount that remains 5 and that shall be paid to Settlement Class Members after the following amounts are subtracted:
6 Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Representative Service Payment, 7 Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Administration
8 Expenses Payment. (Settlement, § 1.28.)

9 12. Distribution Formula: “An Individual Class Payment calculated by (a) dividing the 10 Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class 11 Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class 12 Member’s Workweeks.” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.) As to PAGA: “The Administrator will calculate 13 each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees’ 25% 14 share of PAGA Penalties ($2,500.00) by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by 15 all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each 16 Aggrieved Employee’s PAGA Period Pay Periods.” (Settlement, § 3.2.5.1.)

17 13. Tax Allocation: Any settlement money paid to Settlement Class Members will be 18 allocated as 25% wages, 75% to penalties and interest. (Settlement, § 3.2.4.1.)

19 14. Class Representative Service Award: Subject to Court approval, Plaintiff shall be 20 paid an enhancement award not to exceed $12,500.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.) This amount is for 21 Plaintiff’s time and effort in bringing and presenting the action, and in exchange for a general
22 release of all claims, known or unknown, pursuant to Civil Code Section 1542. (Settlement, § 5.1.)
23 If the Court approves a lesser enhancement, then the unapproved portion or portions shall revert
24 into the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed between the participating Settlement Class
25 Members on a pro-rata basis. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.)

26 15. Attorneys’ Fees and Costs: The Settlement provides that Defendant will not oppose 27 a fee application of up to 33 1/3% ($108,333.33) of the Gross Settlement Amount, plus out-of-28 pocket costs not to exceed $30,000.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.2.)

1 16. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Notice sets forth in plain terms, a 2 statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount of attorneys’ 3 fees, costs, and service award being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement allocations
4 are calculated. (Settlement, Ex. 1, Class Notice.) Class Members will be notified by first-class 5 mail of the settlement. (Settlement, § 7.4.) Apex Class Action, LLC, the proposed Settlement 6 Administrator, will undertake its best efforts to ensure that the notice is provided to the current 7 addresses of class members, including conducting a national change of address search and re-8 mailing the notice to updated addresses. (Id.; Marquez Decl., ¶ 11, Ex. 3 [Settlement Administrator 9 Bid].)

10 III. DISCUSSION

11 To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action 12 requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This 13 Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super.
14 Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached 15 through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 16 act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors
17 is small. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1800.)

18 In considering whether a settlement is reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant 19 factors, which may include the strength of plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely 20 duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount 21 offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the 22 experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of 23 the class members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., (2008) 168 24 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) In order to approve a class action settlement, the court must satisfy itself 25 that the class settlement is within the “ballpark” of reasonableness. (Id. at p. 133.) The record 26 need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca-
27 Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not 28 require “an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it

1 prevailed on all its claims”, but instead, only an “understanding of the amount that is in controversy
2 and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.”].)

3 As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold 4 required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the 5 proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

6 A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of 7 Investigation, Litigation, and Negotiation

8 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, and Informed 9 and Non-Collusive Arm’s-Length Negotiations

10 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 11 evidence to the contrary is offered; thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were 12 conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)
13 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super.
14 Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The 15 fact that a plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not 16 to approve the settlement.”].)

17 The Settlement was reached following extensive negotiations following one day of 18 mediation with experienced employment mediator, Hon. Amy Hogue (Ret.). (Marquez Decl. ¶ 7.)
19 The settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner, 20 were adversarial. (Id.) The parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a 21 settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their or its position through 22 trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and 23 discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s defenses,
24 the Parties reached an agreement. (Marquez Decl. ¶ 8.)

25 Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 26 the claims set forth in the Litigation, such as a sample of class member timekeeping and payroll 27 records, Defendant’s policies and procedures concerning the payment of wages, the provision of 28 meal and rest breaks, issuance of wage statements, and providing all wages at separation, as well

1 as information regarding the number of putative class members and the mix of current versus 2 former employees, the wage rates in effect, and the amount of meal and rest period premium wages
3 paid to class members. (Id. at ¶¶ 5-6.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, 4 Class Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the 5 litigation. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff and her counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in 6 negotiating the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

7 Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with 8 litigating wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 40-52.) Again, this supports the position that the 9 terms of the Settlement are premised on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed 10 in light of the risks, expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation of this 11 action.

12 2. The Settlement Is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties’ 13 Respective Legal Positions

14 A settlement is not judged against what might plaintiff recover had he prevailed at trial, nor 15 does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
16 (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent 17 and necessary in the settlement process . . . even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement 18 is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no 19 bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement 20 in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

21 This settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of further litigation.
22 (Marquez Decl., ¶ 27.) While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of his claims, a legitimate 23 controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at ¶ 26.) Plaintiff also recognizes that proving 24 the amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and 25 uncertain proposition. (Id.)

26 The proposed settlement of $325,000.00 therefore represents a substantial recovery when 27 compared to Plaintiff’s reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 16-29.) Because of the proposed 28 Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an

1 unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in 2 achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the probability 3 of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount of $325,000.00 is within 4 the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, 5 each Settlement Class Member is eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately 6 $581.76. (Id. at ¶ 28.)

7 3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

8 The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel.
9 Class Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are 10 experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 40-11 52.) Although Plaintiff and his counsel were prepared to litigate the claims alleged in the litigation, 12 they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interests of the class.

13 B. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

14 The proposed Notice, in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement, should be approved 15 for dissemination to the class. The Notice informs the class of the terms of the settlement and of 16 their rights to be excluded from the settlement. And if there are class members who wish to object 17 to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their objections and 18 be heard at the Final Approval Hearing. Accordingly, the proposed Notice meets all the 19 requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court.

20 C. The Proposed Attorneys’ Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

21 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agrees to pay Class
22 Counsel reasonable attorneys’ fees in amount of $108,333.33, which is 33 1/3% of the gross 23 Settlement Amount, and up to $30,000.00 in costs. These amounts are disclosed to all class 24 members in the proposed Notice and are reasonable.

25 1. Class Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the “Common Fund” 26 Method

27 California courts have long awarded attorneys’ fees as a percentage of the benefit created 28 by counsel in creating a common fund. The California Supreme Court held that “when a number

1 of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs 2 for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs 3 may be awarded attorneys' fees out of the fund." (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 4 quoting D'Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

5 Class Counsel seeks an award of attorneys' fees on the "percentage of recovery/ common 6 fund" theory. The purpose of this approach is to "spread litigation costs proportionally among all 7 the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone." (Vincent v.
8 Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 9 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated: "[O]ne who expends attorneys' fees in 10 winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits may require those passive 11 beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs." (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and 12 County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized 13 that the common fund doctrine has been applied "consistently in California when an action brought 14 by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share." (Id. at p. 110.)

15 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 16 480 that, "when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 17 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 18 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 19 fund created." (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: "The recognized advantages of the percentage 20 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 21 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 22 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—23 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts."
24 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

25 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

26 According to a leading treatise on class actions, "No general rule can be articulated on what 27 is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a 28 reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.) Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating that most cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 million].)

Here, Plaintiff requests attorneys’ fees equal to 33 1/3% of the Settlement Amount, which is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic literature and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].) Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the attorneys’ fees as negotiated by the parties and requested herein.

3. This Matter Involves A “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

Labor Code § 1194 (a) provides for the recovery of “minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.” Under this section, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover his actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. This settlement is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their decision to assume risk by taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Class Counsel. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 38-39.) Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once counsel undertook this litigation on behalf of the Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing its fiduciary duty to the Class ahead of all other concerns.

1 4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the 2 Requested Fee Award

3 As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers
4 and employees, Class Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Marquez 5 Decl., ¶¶ 40-52.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in several class
6 actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate class
7 counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Class Counsel’s requested fee 8 award is supported here.

9 Class Counsel’s experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the 10 strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the settlement.
11 Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning 12 the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class 13 action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee 14 awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested fee award 15 is reasonable and fair.

16 D. The Service Award to Named Plaintiff Is Reasonable

17 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 18 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 19 members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 86 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval 20 of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which 21 are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the 22 class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp. (9th Cir.
23 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

24 Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they 25 promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is 26 codified in California Labor Code § 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to vigorously 27 enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or permitted to 28 work under substandard unlawful conditions”). Nonetheless, the California Supreme Court

1 has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code is 2 widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct.
3 (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should be rewarded for 4 assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co.
5 (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

6 Under the settlement agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agreed to pay 7 a Service Award in the amount of $12,500.00 to Plaintiff. This amount is also in exchange for 8 Plaintiff’s general release of all claims against Defendant. Class Counsel represent that Plaintiff 9 devoted a great deal of time and work assisting counsel in the case, communicated with counsel
10 very frequently for litigation and to prepare for mediation, and was frequently in contact with Class 11 Counsel during the mediation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 30-34.) This amount is reasonable particularly 12 in light of the substantial benefits Plaintiff generated for all class members. (Id.) Indeed, in Karl 13 Adams, III, et al. v. MarketStar Corporation, et al., No. 2:14-cv-02509-TLN-DB, Class Counsel 14 Justin F. Marquez helped negotiate a $2.5 million class action settlement for 339 class members, 15 and the court approved a $25,000 class representative incentive award for each named plaintiff.
16 (Marquez Decl., ¶ 34.)

17 When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount 18 requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive 19 award given to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class 20 representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Eisenberg 21 & Miller, Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study (2006) 53 UCLA L.Rev.
22 1303, 1308.) That same study found that named plaintiffs in employment discrimination class 23 actions received an average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, while named 24 plaintiffs in other employment class actions received an average award of $12,121 and a median 25 award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the study found that higher awards in 26 employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make representative plaintiffs whole by 27 compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization 28 or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

1 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

2 A. Legal Standard

3 The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive 4 from a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the 5 reasons set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the 6 prerequisites for certification under Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 provides: “when 7 the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are 8 numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend 9 for the benefit of all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) There are two requirements to section 382: “(1) 10 There must be an ascertainable class; and (2) there must be a well-defined community of interest 11 in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v. Yellow 12 Cab Co. (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 [citations omitted].) To clarify these requirements, the 13 California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to explain that the 14 community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant questions of 15 law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class 16 representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 17 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

18 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
19 (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 20 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of 21 consumers are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to 22 the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, 23 supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

24 B. Plaintiff Maintains That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for 25 Settlement Purposes.

26 1. The Classes Are Ascertainable and Numerous

27 The proposed class that Plaintiff seeks to represent is easily ascertainable and includes 28 approximately 265 employees of Defendant.

1 Plaintiff maintains that there is an easily ascertainable class, defined by objective and 2 precise criteria. Because class members are identified using specific criteria in the regular business
3 records of Defendant, i.e., job position, the class is ascertainable. (Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co.
4 (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959-60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the 5 subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make the class ascertainable].)

6 “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a 7 class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981)
8 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action 9 may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable
10 to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a 11 class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries 12 of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 13 574; see also, Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) Therefore, 14 Plaintiff contends that numerosity is plainly satisfied.

15 2. There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

16 The Court should grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes here on the 17 grounds that questions of law and fact common to all class and subclass predominate over any 18 individual questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to 19 warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 20 Cal.App.3d 605.)

21 Here, the employment practices at issue are: whether Defendant had legally compliant 22 policies and practices to provide employees with meal periods; whether Defendant had legally 23 compliant policies and practices authorizing and permitting its employees to take rest periods; 24 whether Defendant had legally compliant policies and practices for all hours worked, including 25 overtime wages; whether Defendant reimbursed employees for business expenses; whether final 26 payment of wages was untimely and excluded unpaid wages, including meal period premium 27 wages, and rest period premium wages; and whether the wage statements were consequently non-28 compliant. Plaintiff contends that the factual and legal issues are the same for all of the identified

1 class members, including Plaintiff. Further, all class members suffered from, and seek redress for, 2 the same alleged injuries.

3 3. Plaintiff's Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

4 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 5 of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the 6 typicality of the proposed representative's claims as they relate to the defendant's conduct and 7 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 ["[t]he only requirements are that 8 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly 9 situated" vis-à-vis the class.].) A representative plaintiff's claims are typical of the class if they 10 arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal 11 theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant; as 12 such, she alleges that she was subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated 13 employees.

14 4. Plaintiff and Her Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

15 The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a 16 named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; second, 17 a named plaintiff's interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of 18 America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

19 All of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes. Plaintiff retained counsel 20 with extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that 21 previously settled. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 40-52.) Class Counsel unquestionably is "qualified, 22 experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation." (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 23 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiff has no conflicts, and Plaintiff has, with counsel, 24 litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, showing her dedication. Plaintiff's 25 willingness to serve as a representative demonstrates her serious commitment to bringing about 26 the best results possible for the class. (McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

27 5. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

28 Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class

1 action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation.
2 By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court’s use of the 3 class action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of 4 time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly-5 situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a 6 practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to 7 prosecute individual actions. (Gentry, supra, 42 Cal. 4th at p. 457-62; Leyva v. Medline Ind. (9th 8 Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the superiority concerns 9 are essentially non-existent.

10 V. THE PROPOSED NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

11 A. The Proposed Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

12 Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, 13 Rule 3.766 (e), (f).) California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an 14 appropriate notice program. (Cartt v. Super Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no 15 statutory or due process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, 16 the class members will receive direct mailed notice. As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he 17 notice given should have a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class 18 Members” (Id. at p. 974.) In this case, notice of the proposed settlement will be provided 19 by direct mailing, the best possible form of notice.

20 B. The Notice is Accurate and Informative

21 The proposed Notice should be approved. It will be disseminated through direct U.S. first 22 class mail to the last known address for each Class Member. It informs the Class Members of the 23 terms of the settlement and their right to be excluded from the Settlement. And if there are Class 24 Members who wish to object to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the 25 opportunity to file their objections and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing.

26 The Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Conte & Newberg, 27 Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 8.39.) It summarizes the proceedings to date and the 28 terms and conditions of the settlement agreement, in an informative and coherent manner. It

1 makes clear that the settlement agreement does not constitute an admission of liability by the 2 Defendant, who denies all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits 3 of the action. It also states that the final settlement approval decision has yet to be made. The 4 Notice thus complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality required of a 5 combined settlement-certification class notice.

6 VI. CONCLUSION

7 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminary 8 approval of the proposed settlement and set a Final Approval Hearing in or after September 2024.

9 Respectfully submitted,
