 COUNTY OF SAN BERNARDINO
 SAN BERNARDINO DISTRICT

MAY 27 2022

R. J. Torres

1 Plaintiff Eduardo Rivera (“Plaintiff”) on behalf of himself, on a representative basis, and 2 on behalf of others similarly situated, complains and alleges as follows.

3 I. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

4 1. Plaintiff brings this action against his former employer(s), Defendants Patriot
5 Paving, Inc., and DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, (collectively, “Defendants”) on behalf of all
6 current and former nonexempt employees employed by Defendants in California (the “Class” or 7 “Represented Employees”), for Labor Code violations stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay
8 all wages owed, including minimum, regular, and overtime wages, failure to provide meal
9 periods, failure to provide rest breaks, failure to reimburse business expenses, failure to timely
10 pay wages each period and upon separation of employment, and failure to provide accurate 11 itemized wage statements.

12 2. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants from approximately October 2020 through 13 April 2022.

14 3. Plaintiff alleges on information and belief that the Represented Employees were 15 subjected to the same policies, working conditions, and corresponding wage and hour violations
16 to which Plaintiff was subjected during employment.

17 4. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were not provided all minimum, regular,
18 and overtime wages due to Defendants’ failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours
19 worked. Because this time was spent under Defendants’ control without compensation, this 20 violates California law and led to minimum and overtime wage violations. See Troester v.
21 Starbucks Corporation (2018) 5 Cal.5th 829 (California law “do[es] not allow employers to 22 require employees to routinely work for minutes off the clock without compensation”).

23 5. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay proper overtime to Plaintiff and the 24 Represented Employees. For example, Defendants paid Plaintiff and the Represented 25 Employees on an hourly basis but also paid additional earned compensation (such as health and 26 welfare payments, paid per hour worked). However, during workweeks where the Represented
27 Employees worked overtime hours and earned additional nondiscretionary compensation, 28 Defendants failed to properly include that compensation in the calculations for the regular rate of

1 pay – violating the well-established rule that overtime must always be paid at time and one-half
2 the regular rate of pay. Additionally, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees would often work
3 at two or more base rates of pay in the same workweek. Yet, when the Represented Employees
4 worked overtime and worked at two or more base rates of pay in the same workweek,
5 Defendants illegally paid overtime at the “rate-in-effect” method rather than using the correct
6 “weighted average” method. See DLSE Manual § 49.2.6.2 (when an employee performs 7 prevailing and non prevailing jobs during the same workweek, the company is required to pay
8 overtime at the “weighted average” of the blended rate, averaging the normal base hourly rate 9 and prevailing wage rate).

10 6. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were also denied 30-minute off-duty
11 meal periods, as mandated by California law. As a result of Defendants’ policies and practices, 12 the Represented Employees were subjected to meal period violations when they were: (1) unable 13 to take a meal period due to workload, (2) forced to take an on-duty meal period while under the 14 control of the Company, (3) forced to take a shortened meal period, (4) forced to take a meal
15 period after the 5th hour of work, and (5) not provided mandated second meal periods for shifts
16 in excess of 10 hours.

17 7. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Represented Employees with 18 10 minutes of net rest break time for every 4 hours worked, or major fraction thereof, as 19 mandated by California law. Defendants did not schedule rest breaks for Plaintiff and the 20 Represented Employees, the Represented Employees were unable to leave the premises for 21 breaks, and the Represented Employees were often not authorized and/or permitted to take 22 mandated rest breaks due to being overwhelmed by their hectic workload. Furthermore, on 23 occasions when Plaintiff and the Represented Employees worked longer shifts, Defendants failed 24 to authorize and/or permit mandated third or fourth rest breaks.

25 8. Moreover, at all relevant times, Defendants required Plaintiff and the Represented 26 Employees to incur necessary business-related expenses and costs without reimbursement. For 27 example, Plaintiff was required to acquire and maintain a smart phone and monthly data plan to 28 communicate with the Company via phone, text message, and e-mail, without reimbursement.

1 9. Plaintiff also alleges that he and the Represented Employees were not paid all
2 wages due and owing each pay period (Labor Code § 204) and upon separation of employment
3 within the time required by Labor Code §§ 201 – 203. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants
4 engaged in the practice of failing to pay all wages due and owing to Plaintiff and the Represented
5 Employees at the time their employment ended with Defendants, including, but not limited to 6 minimum, regular, and overtime wages, sick pay wages, wage premiums, among others.

7 10. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants failed to provide accurate itemized wage
8 statements that fully complied with the requirements of Labor Code § 226(a).

9 11. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants’ violations of the wage and hour components of 10 the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders enabled them to decrease expenses and to increase their 11 level of productivity and profits, thereby allowing Defendants to gain an unfair advantage over 12 its competitors.

13 12. At all material times, Defendants and DOES 1 through 20 were and/or are the 14 Represented Employees’ employers or persons acting on behalf of the Represented Employees’
15 employer, within the meaning of California Labor Code § 558, who violated or caused to be 16 violated, a section of Part 2, Chapter 1 of the California Labor Code or any provision regulating
17 hours and days of work in an IWC Wage Order and, as such, are subject to penalties for each 18 underpaid employee as set forth in Labor Code § 558 and under California law.

19 13. Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking declaratory, injunctive, equitable, and 20 monetary relief against Defendants and each of them, on behalf of himself and the Represented
21 Employees to recover, among other things, unpaid wages and benefits, interest, attorneys’ fees,
22 penalties, costs and expenses pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 208, 23 210, 218.6, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 558, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, and 24 2802, among possibly other sections inadvertently omitted. Plaintiff also reserves the right to 25 name additional representatives throughout the State of California.

26 II. JURISDICTION

27 14. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims for relief of Plaintiff and the 28 Represented Employees pursuant to the Labor Code and the IWC Wage Orders.

1 III. VENUE

2 15. Venue as to each Defendant is proper in this Court pursuant to Code of Civil 3 Procedure § 395(a). Defendants transact business in San Bernardino County and the unlawful 4 acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and the Represented Employees in San
5 Bernardino County. Furthermore, Defendants employed or employ Plaintiff and Represented
6 Employees in San Bernardino County.

7 IV. PARTIES

8 Plaintiff

9 16. Plaintiff and Class Representative Eduardo Rivera was employed by Defendants
10 from approximately October 2020 through April 2022 and performed work for Defendants in 11 San Bernardino County.

12 Defendants

13 17. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant Patriot
14 Paving, Inc. is a California corporation authorized to and doing business in San Bernardino
15 County, California. Plaintiff is also informed and believes that Defendant Patriot Paving, Inc. is 16 and/or was the legal employer of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees during the applicable 17 statutory periods.

18 18. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names, capacities, relationships, and extent of 19 participation in the conduct herein alleged, of Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 20, 20 inclusive, but on information and belief alleges that those Defendants are legally responsible for 21 the payment of penalties and damages to Plaintiff and all Represented Employees by virtue of 22 Defendants' unlawful actions and practices and therefore sue these Defendants by such fictitious
23 names. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the DOE
24 Defendants when ascertained.

25 19. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that he and the Represented
26 Employees worked under the joint direction and control of Defendants and that Defendants, and 27 each of them, acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, 28 carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respect pertinent hereto, and the acts of

1 each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. On information and belief, a
2 unity of interest and ownership between each Defendant exists such that all Defendants acted as 3 a single employer of Plaintiff and other Represented Employees.

4 20. Furthermore, Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that 5 Defendants, and each of them, are an integrated enterprise and should be treated as a single 6 employer because these entities share an interrelation of operations, with common human 7 resources and personnel policies and shared common offices and facilities. Additionally,
8 Defendants also have a shared website, common management, a centralized control of labor
9 operations, and common ownership or financial control.

10 21. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, in conducting 11 themselves in the manner described herein, Defendants, and each of them, were acting in active 12 concert with one another such that the acts of each were and are fully attributable to the others in 13 all material respects. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that at all relevant times
14 Defendants and each of them are now, and at all material times herein mentioned were, the 15 agents, servants, employees, partners, affiliates, and/or representatives of each of their remaining
16 co-Defendants, and were, at all times herein mentioned, acting within the course, scope, and 17 purpose of such relationship(s) and with the knowledge, consent and/or ratification of each of 18 their remaining co-Defendants.

19 22. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that at all relevant times, Defendants
20 have been inadequately capitalized to conduct business, have failed to follow appropriate 21 corporate formalities, and have simply been a shell and instrumentality through which 22 Defendants DOES 11 through 20, inclusive, have conducted their personal affairs. Accordingly,
23 the corporate veil should be pierced, and any liability attached to Defendants should be imposed
24 jointly and severally against Defendants DOES 11 through 20. Adherence to the fiction of the 25 separate existence of these corporate entities would permit abuse of the corporate privilege, 26 thereby sanctioning fraud and promoting injustice.

1 V. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

2 23. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
3 alleged herein.

4 24. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated as 5 a class action, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

6 25. The relevant time period for this class action is defined as the period beginning
7 four years prior to the filing of this action until class certification (the “Relevant Time Period”).

8 26. The Class, also referred to as the “Represented Employees,” that Plaintiff seeks to 9 represent is defined as follows:

10 All current and former nonexempt employees employed by 11 Defendants in California during the Relevant Time Period.

12 27. Plaintiff also seeks to represent the following subclasses:

13 Meal Break Subclass

14 All Represented Employees who worked a shift in excess of 15 5 hours during the Relevant Time Period.

16 Rest Break Subclass

17 All Represented Employees who worked a shift of at least
18 3.5 hours during the Relevant Time Period.

19 Unreimbursed Expense Subclass

20 All Represented Employees who were required to incur
21 expenses to discharge their duties for Defendants without 22 reimbursement during the Relevant Time Period.

23 Waiting Time Penalties Subclass

24 All Represented Employees who separated from their
25 employment with Defendants during the period three years
26 before the filing of this action and ending when final
27 judgment is entered.

28 ///

1 Wage Statement Penalties Subclass

2 All Represented Employees during the period one year
3 before the filing of this action and ending when final
4 judgment is entered.

5 28. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend or modify the class description with greater 6 specificity or further division into subclasses or limitation to particular issues as appropriate.

7 29. Plaintiff, as Class Representative, is a member of the class and subclasses that he 8 seeks to represent.

9 30. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
10 under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there is a well-defined community of interest in the 11 litigation and the proposed class is easily ascertainable from Defendants' records.

12 31. Numerosity: The potential members of the Class as defined are so numerous that 13 a joinder of all Represented Employees is impracticable. Although the exact number is currently 14 unknown to Plaintiff, this information is easily ascertainable from Defendants' records.

15 32. Commonality: There are questions of law and fact common to the class which 16 predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the class, including 17 without limitation:

18 i. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
19 IWC Wage Order by failing to pay wages to Plaintiff and the Represented Employees for all 20 hours worked;

21 ii. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
22 IWC Wage Order by failing to pay proper overtime wages to Plaintiff and the Represented
23 Employees for hours above 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per week;

24 iii. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
25 IWC Wage Order by failing to provide compliant meal periods to Plaintiff and the Meal Break
26 Subclass and whether Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass
27 with one additional hour of wages at the regular rate of pay for each instance when a compliant
28 meal period was not provided;

1 iv. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
2 IWC Wage Order by failing to provide compliant rest breaks to Plaintiff and the Rest Break
3 Subclass and whether Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass
4 with one additional hour of wages at the regular rate of pay for each instance when a paid rest
5 break was not provided;

6 v. Whether Defendants violated the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage
7 Order by failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Unreimbursed Expense Subclass for business
8 expenses incurred discharging their duties or in obedience to the directions of their employer;

9 vi. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to 10 timely pay all wages due upon separation of employment between Defendants and Plaintiff and 11 the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass, whether such separation was voluntary or involuntary;

12 vii. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to 13 provide Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass with complete, accurate, itemized
14 wage statements;

15 viii. Whether Defendants violated California Business & Professions Code §§
16 17200 et seq. due to the: failure to pay all wages owed, failure to provide mandated paid rest 17 breaks, failure to provide mandated meal periods, failure to reimburse business expenses, and 18 failure to timely pay final wages; and

19 ix. Whether Plaintiff and Represented Employees are entitled to equitable 20 relief pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.

21 33. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims, as the Class Representative, are typical of the 22 claims of The Class. Plaintiff, like other members of The Class, was subjected to Defendants'
23 ongoing Labor Code and Wage Order violations including pertaining to the failure to pay all
24 wages owed, failure to provide mandated meal periods, failure to provide mandated paid rest 25 breaks, failure to reimburse business expenses, failure to timely pay wages upon separation of 26 employment, and failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements.

27 34. Adequacy of Representation. Plaintiff, as the Class Representative, will fairly 28 and adequately represent and protect the interests of the Class. Plaintiff's interests are not in

1 conflict with those of the Class. Class Representative's counsel are competent and experienced in 2 litigating large employment class actions and other complex litigation matters, including cases
3 like this case.

4 35. Superiority of Class Action. Class certification is appropriate because a class
5 action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this 6 controversy. Individual joinder of all Represented Employees is not practicable, and questions of 7 law and fact common to the Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual
8 members of the Class. Each Represented Employee has been damaged and is entitled to 9 recovery by reason of Defendants' illegal policies and practices set forth above. Class action 10 treatment will allow those similarly situated persons to litigate their claims in the manner that is 11 most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.

12 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

13 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

14 (Labor Code §§ 200, 1194, 1194.2, 1197; IWC Wage Order § 4)

15 Plaintiff and the Represented Employees Against All Defendants

16 36. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
17 alleged herein.

18 37. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were not exempt from the requirement
19 to be paid at least the applicable California minimum wage throughout the statutory period for 20 each hour worked.

21 38. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were not provided proper minimum and 22 regular wages due to Defendants' failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours
23 worked. As a result of this policy and practice, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were 24 required to perform off-the-clock work that Defendants either knew or should have known they 25 were performing.

26 39. As a result of this policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the 27 Represented Employees for all hours worked.

28 ///

1 40. Consequently, Defendants violated California Labor Code laws and minimum
2 wage laws, inter alia, Labor Code §§ 200, 221, 222, 223, 1197, IWC Wage Order 9, § 4, and
3 Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8, section 11090, subds. 1 and 4(B).

4 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
5 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay wages to Plaintiff and the Represented
6 Employees for each hour worked in violation of Labor Code §§ 221-223, 1194 and 1197.

7 42. Defendants' conduct was willful, as Defendants knew that Plaintiff and the 8 Represented Employees were entitled to be paid wages throughout the statutory period for each
9 hour worked, including proper minimum and regular wages, yet Defendants chose not to pay
10 them in accordance thereto.

11 43. At all material times, Defendants DOES 1 through 20 were and/or are the 12 employer of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees or were persons acting on behalf of said
13 employer(s), within the meaning of California Labor Code § 558, who violated or caused to be
14 violated Labor Code § 204 and a provision or provisions of Part 2, Chapter 1 of the California
15 Labor Code regulating hours and days of work respectively.

16 44. During employment of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees, Defendants
17 failed to pay them all wages to which they were entitled, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

18 45. As a result of the Defendants' wrongful conduct, Plaintiff and the Represented
19 Employees have been damaged in amounts to be proven at trial.

20 46. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Represented Employees, seeks recovery of 21 all unpaid minimum wages, liquidated damages, penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs of 22 suit, pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1194.2, against Defendants in an amount to be proven 23 at trial.

1 illegally paid overtime at the “rate-in-effect” method rather than using the correct “weighted

3 prevailing jobs during the same workweek, the company is required to pay overtime at the 4 “weighted average” of the blended rate, averaging the normal base hourly rate and prevailing

6 53. As a result of these policies and practices, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and 7 the Represented Employees for all overtime hours worked.

8 54. Defendants violate Labor Code §§ 204 and 510 and the applicable IWC Wage
9 Order § 3(A) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff and the Represented Employees because 10 Defendants required its employees to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per 11 week without proper overtime compensation.

12 55. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
13 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay proper overtime wages to Plaintiff and the 14 Represented Employees in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 221-223, 510, 1194 and 1197.

15 56. Defendants’ conduct was willful, as Defendants knew that Plaintiff and the 16 Represented Employees were entitled to be paid proper overtime wages throughout the statutory 17 period, yet Defendants chose not to pay them in accordance thereto.

18 57. At all material times, Defendants DOES 1 through 20 were and/or are the
19 employer of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees or were persons acting on behalf of said
20 employer(s), within the meaning of California Labor Code § 558, who violated or caused to be
21 violated Labor Code § 204 and a provision or provisions of Part 2, Chapter 1 of the California
22 Labor Code regulating hours and days of work respectively.

23 58. During the employment of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees, Defendants
24 failed to pay them all wages to which they were entitled, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

25 59. As a result of Defendants’ wrongful conduct, Plaintiff and the Represented
26 Employees have been damaged in amounts to be proven at trial.

27 ///

28 ///

1 60. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Represented Employees, seeks recovery of 3 Defendants in an amount to be proven at trial.

4 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

5 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

6 (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 11, 12)

7 Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass Against All Defendants

8 61. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
9 alleged herein.

10 62. Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass are and/or were employees of Defendants
11 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory meal
12 periods.

13 63. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide
14 employees with meal periods as mandated by the Industrial Welfare Commission.

15 64. Labor Code § 512(a), in part, provides that employers, including Defendants, may 16 not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing an
17 employee the opportunity to take an uninterrupted meal period of not less than 30 minutes,
18 except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal
19 period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee. Employers
20 may not employ an employee for a work period more than 10 hours per day without providing 21 the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes.

22 65. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 11(B),
23 Defendants shall pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 24 pay for each meal period that is missed.

25 66. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass were denied
26 the 30-minute meal periods to which they were entitled. As a result of Defendants' policies and 27 practices, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were subjected to meal period violations
28 when they were: (1) unable to take a meal period due to workload, (2) forced to take an on-duty meal period while under the control of the Company, (3) forced to take a shortened meal period, (4) forced to take a meal period after the 5th hour of work, and (5) not provided mandated second meal periods for shifts in excess of 10 hours.

67. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass were not provided with all mandatory meal periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass one additional hour of compensation at the regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

68. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass all mandated meal periods and failed to pay wage premiums in lieu of mandated meal or rest periods, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

69. On information and belief, Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass did not voluntarily or willfully waive the mandated meal periods. Any expressed or implied waivers obtained from Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass were not willfully obtained, were not voluntarily agreed to, were a condition of employment, or were a part of a contract of an unlawful adhesion. Defendants did not permit or authorize Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass to take meal periods in accordance with California law.

70. By their failure to provide Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass with meal periods as required by California law, and failing to pay one hour of additional wages in lieu of each meal period not provided, Defendants willfully violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and IWC Wage Order § 11. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for one hour of additional wages at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that a meal period was not lawfully provided in an amount to be proven at time of trial.

71. Also, as a direct result of Defendants' violations of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and IWC Wage Order § 11, Defendants, and each of them, are liable to Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass for unpaid wage premiums, penalties, costs, and interest.

1 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST BREAKS

3 (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 12)

4 Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass Against All Defendants

5 72. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
6 alleged herein.

7 73. Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass are and/or were employees of Defendants
8 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory rest breaks.

9 74. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide rest
10 breaks to its employees as mandated by Order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.

11 75. The IWC Wage Order § 12 states, in part, that every employer shall authorize and 12 permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of 13 each work period. Employees shall receive a 10-minute rest period every four hours or major
14 fraction thereof that they are required to work. Authorized rest period time shall be counted, as 15 hours worked, for which there shall be no deduction from wages.

16 76. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and Section 12(B) of the applicable Wage
17 Order, Defendants shall pay Plaintiff and the Represented Employees one additional hour of pay
18 at his regular rate of compensation for each day that the rest period is not provided.

19 77. At all relevant times, Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Rest
20 Break Subclass with 10 minutes of net rest break time for every 4 hours worked, or major
21 fraction thereof, as mandated by California law. Defendants did not schedule rest breaks for the 22 Rest Break Subclass, the Rest Break Subclass were unable to leave the premises for breaks, and 23 the Rest Break Subclass were often not authorized and/or permitted to take mandated rest breaks
24 due to being overwhelmed by their hectic workload. Furthermore, on occasions when the Rest
25 Break Subclass worked longer shifts, Defendants failed to authorize and/or permit mandated 26 third or fourth rest breaks.

27 78. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
28 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass were not provided with all

1 mandatory rest periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Represented Employees
2 one additional hour of compensation in lieu thereof.

3 79. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Rest
4 Break Subclass all mandated rest breaks and failed to pay wage premiums in lieu of mandated 5 rest periods, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

6 80. By their failure to provide Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass with rest breaks
7 as required by California law, and failing to pay one hour of additional wages in lieu of each rest
8 break not provided, Defendants willfully violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and IWC Wage
9 Order § 12. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for one hour of additional wages at the 10 employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a paid rest break was not 11 lawfully provided in an amount to be proven at time of trial.

12 81. Also, as a direct result of Defendants' violations of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512,
13 and IWC Wage Order § 12, Defendants, and each of them, are liable to Plaintiff and the Rest
14 Break Subclass for unpaid wage premiums, penalties, costs, and interest.

15 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE BUSINESS EXPENSES

17 (Labor Code § 2802)

18 Plaintiff and the Unreimbursed Expense Subclass Against All Defendants

19 82. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
20 alleged herein.

21 83. Plaintiff and the Unreimbursed Expense Subclass are and/or were employees of 22 Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing 23 reimbursement of business expenses.

24 84. Labor Code § 2802(a) requires that the employer indemnify its employees for 25 expenses and losses incurred while discharging their duties or in obedience to the directions of 26 their employer.

27 85. At all relevant times herein mentioned, as a condition of employment, Defendants
28 required Plaintiff and the Unreimbursed Expense Subclass to incur necessary business-related

1 expenses and costs without reimbursement, including acquiring and maintaining a smart phone
2 and monthly data plan to communicate with the Company via phone, text message, and e-mail.

3 86. At all relevant times herein, Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802(a) when they
4 failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the Unreimbursed Expense Subclass for expenses incurred as a
5 direct consequence of employment with Defendants and/or under the direction of Defendants.

6 87. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to reimburse the Unreimbursed
7 Expense Subclass, including Plaintiff, for expenses incurred while discharging duties to 8 Defendants, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

9 88. As a direct result of Defendants' violation of Labor Code § 2802 and IWC Wage
10 Order § 9(B), Plaintiff and the Unreimbursed Expense Subclass have suffered, and continue to 11 suffer, substantial losses related to such incurred expenses, expenses, and attorney's fees in 12 seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform their obligations under the law, all in an amount 13 to be proved at time of trial.

14 89. Labor Code § 2802(b) states that "[a]ll awards made by a Court for 15 reimbursement of necessary expenditures" shall carry interest, at the same rate as judgments in 16 civil actions, and said interest will accrue from the date on which the employee incurred the 17 necessary expenditure or loss including, but not limited to, reasonable costs and attorney's fees
18 incurred by the employee enforcing the rights granted pursuant to Labor Code § 2802. The exact 19 amount of the necessary expenditures or losses is in an amount to be proven at time of trial.

20 90. Furthermore, Labor Code § 2802(c) states that "[f]or the purposes of this section, 21 the term 'necessary expenditures or losses' shall include all reasonable costs, including, but not 22 limited to, attorney's fees incurred by the employee in enforcing the rights granted by this 23 section." Therefore, Plaintiff and the Unreimbursed Expense Subclass seek to recover the 24 unreimbursed expenses, interest on the unreimbursed expenses, and the costs and attorney's fees
25 necessarily incurred in pursuing same. The exact amount of reimbursements, interest, costs, and 26 attorney's fees will be in an amount to be proved at the time of trial.

1 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY FINAL WAGES

3 (Labor Code §§ 201 – 203)

4 Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass against All Defendants

5 91. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
6 alleged herein.

7 92. Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass are and/or were employees of 8 Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the timing
9 and payment of wages.

10 93. Labor Code § 201 requires that the employer immediately pay any wages, without 11 abatement or reduction, to any employee who is discharged.

12 94. Labor Code § 202 requires that the employer pay all wages earned and unpaid, 13 without abatement or reduction, no later than 72 hours of receiving an employee's notice of 14 intent to quit or immediately at the time of quitting if at least a 72-hour notice was provided.

15 95. Labor Code §§ 201-203 cause the unpaid wages of the employee to continue as a 16 penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefore is 17 commenced, but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

18 96. At all relevant times, Defendants employed a policy and practice whereby
19 Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass were not paid all wages due and owing upon 20 separation of employment within the time required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

21 97. Also, at all relevant times, Defendants engaged in the practice of failing to pay all 22 wages due and owing to Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass upon separation of 23 employment, including, but not limited to, minimum, regular, and overtime wages, as well as 24 meal and rest period premiums.

25 98. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay all wages due and owing to the Waiting
26 Time Subclass because of the failure to pay all required sick pay wages. Labor Code § 246(l)(1)
27 provides that paid sick time for non-exempt employees must be “calculated in the same manner
28 as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time, whether

1 or not the employee actually works overtime in that workweek.” Additionally, Labor Code §
2 246(1)(2) states that the paid sick time must be “calculated by dividing the employee’s total
3 wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee’s total hours worked in the full
4 pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.” Here, Defendants only calculated and paid sick
5 pay at the base rate of pay, rather than at the rate required by Labor Code § 246, leading to
6 unpaid sick pay and violations of Labor Code §§ 201 – 203.

7 99. Plaintiff alleges that, at all times material to this action, Defendants had a planned
8 pattern and practice of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass all 9 wages due and owing upon separation of employment as required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 10 202. Consequently, pursuant to Labor Code § 203, Defendants owe Plaintiff and the Waiting
11 Time Penalties Subclass the above-described waiting time penalty, all in an amount to be shown 12 according to proof at trial and within the jurisdiction of this Court.

13 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

15 (Labor Code § 226)

16 Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass against All Defendants

17 100. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
18 alleged herein.

19 101. Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass are and/or were employees of 20 Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the 21 provision of accurate itemized wage statements.

22 102. Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to provide its employees with itemized
23 wage statements accurately stating gross wages earned, all deductions, net wages earned, the 24 inclusive dates of the pay period, the employee’s name and the last four digits of his or her
25 Social Security number (or employee identification number), the name and address of the legal 26 entity that is the employer, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 27 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

28 ///

1 103. Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff
2 and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass due to violations including: failure to accurately state
3 total hours worked (for example, the wage statements failed to accurately reflect the
4 compensable hours worked); failure to accurately state gross wages earned; failure to accurately
5 state all deductions; failure to accurately state net wages earned; failure to state the applicable
6 hourly rates (including the accurate overtime rate of pay); and failure to accurately state the 7 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

8 104. Additionally, Defendants' wage statements directly violated Labor Code § 226(a)
9 each period due to the failure to pay and report premium wages for denied meal periods and rest
10 breaks under § 226.7.

11 105. Therefore, Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect
12 to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass because Defendants failed to provide a 13 wage statement to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass that complied with the 14 requirements of Labor Code § 226(a).

15 106. Defendants' failure to provide the required writing deprived Plaintiff and the 16 Wage Statement Penalties Subclass of the ability to know, understand, and question the 17 calculation and rate of pay and hours used to calculate the wages paid by Defendants. Therefore,
18 Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass had no way to dispute the resulting 19 miscalculation of wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to said
20 Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass have suffered 21 and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost
22 interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully 23 perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damages in amounts according to 24 proof at trial.

25 107. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to comply with Labor
26 Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass have suffered an injury in 27 that each was prevented from knowing, understanding and disputing the wage payments paid to 28 them. Furthermore, Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass have each suffered an

1 injury in that the failure to show all wages earned on the itemized wage statements resulted in 2 Plaintiff and the Represented Employees being denied all necessary deductions, payments, and 3 withholdings owed by the employer, including, but not limited to, the failure to make all 4 necessary contributions for unemployment benefits, social security benefits, proper payment of 5 taxes and withholdings, and other mandated state and federal benefits.

6 108. Plaintiff has also been injured as a result of having to bring this action to attempt 7 to obtain correct wage information following Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the 8 mandates of California's Labor Code and related laws and regulations.

9 109. Labor Code § 226(e) requires Defendants to pay the greater of all actual damages
10 or fifty dollars ($50.00) per employee for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred, and 11 one hundred dollars ($100.00) per employee for each violation in subsequent pay periods, plus 12 attorney's fees and costs, to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass who were 13 injured by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a). The exact amount of the 14 applicable penalty is all in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

15 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 UNFAIR AND UNLAWFUL COMPETITION

17 (Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.)

18 Plaintiff and the Represented Employees against All Defendants

19 110. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
20 alleged herein.

21 111. California Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq., prohibits acts of unfair
22 competition, which includes any "unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice." The 23 Represented Employees, including Plaintiff, have suffered and continue to suffer injuries in fact,
24 due to the unfair and unlawful business practices of Defendants as alleged herein.

25 112. Defendants, and each of them, are "persons" as defined under Business &
26 Professions Code § 17021.

27 113. As alleged herein, Defendants engaged in conduct that violated California's wage 28 and hour laws, including failure to pay minimum, regular, and overtime wages, failure to provide

1 mandated meal periods and rest breaks, failure to reimburse business expenses, and failure to 2 timely pay wages upon separation of employment, all to decrease their costs and increase profits.

3 114. At all times relevant herein, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and the Represented
4 Employees wages and monies and other financial obligations to which they were entitled.

5 115. As a result of Defendants' failure to comply with the Labor Code and IWC
6 Orders, Represented Employees, including Plaintiff, suffered a loss of wages and monies, all in 7 an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. Defendants' ongoing violations of the 8 foregoing statutes and laws constitute a violation of Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200, et seq.

9 116. Defendants' violations of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders and 10 its scheme to lower its payroll costs as alleged herein, constitute unlawful and unfair business 11 practices because it was done in a systematic manner over a period of time to the detriment of the 12 Plaintiff and all others similarly-situated.

13 117. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
14 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Represented Employees, and to the general public.
15 Plaintiff seek to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code
16 of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

17 118. A violation of California Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. may be 18 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as 19 violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, are 20 unlawful and in violation of public policy, and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive,
21 fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business
22 practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

23 119. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Represented Employees, has no plain,
24 speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which they have suffered as a
25 consequence of Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a result of 26 the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiff, individually,
27 and on behalf of the Represented Employees, has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable
28 harm unless Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to engage in said

1 unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

2 120. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Represented Employees, is entitled to,
3 and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge the profits which Defendants have 4 acquired, or of which Plaintiff and Represented Employees have been deprived, by means of the 5 above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and the 6 Represented Employees are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the unfair
7 practices of Defendants in order to recover restitution.

8 121. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Represented Employees, is further 9 entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above described business practices are unfair,
10 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining Defendants, and each of them, from 11 engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in 12 the future.

13 122. Pursuant to Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and 14 Represented Employees are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 15 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a 16 permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and 17 Represented Employees; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil 18 Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

19 VI. LABOR CODE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT CAUSES OF ACTION
20 (Cal. Lab. Code. §§ 2698 – 2699.5)

21 123. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under the PAGA as he was employed by 22 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code
23 violations alleged herein. As such, Plaintiff may recover the remedies described herein in a civil 24 action filed on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated current and former aggrieved
25 employees in California against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed 26 (hereinafter the “Aggrieved Employees”).

27 124. Plaintiff seeks to recover all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to 28 Labor Code § 2699, as well as attorneys' fees, costs, and/or other damages as permitted by

1 PAGA through a representative action pursuant to the PAGA and the California Supreme Court
2 in Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal. 4th 969. Therefore, Plaintiff is not required to, nor 3 does she, seek class certification of the PAGA claims under Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

4 125. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3(a), Plaintiff gave written notice by online filing
5 to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to 6 Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including 7 the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Once more than sixty-five (65) days have 8 passed since the date gave notice, Plaintiff will have fully satisfied the administrative 9 prerequisites to suit under the PAGA and this Complaint will be deemed amended to include the 10 PAGA allegations enumerated below.

11 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

13 (Labor Code §§ 200, 1194, 1194.2, 1197; IWC Wage Order § 4)

14 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

15 126. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
16 alleged herein.

17 127. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not exempt from the requirement to 18 be paid at least the applicable California minimum wage throughout the statutory period for each 19 hour worked.

20 128. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided proper minimum and 21 regular wages due to Defendants’ failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours 22 worked.

23 129. As a result of this policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the 24 Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked.

25 130. Consequently, Defendants violated California Labor Code laws and minimum
26 wage laws, inter alia, Labor Code §§ 200, 221, 222, 223, 1197, IWC Wage Order 9, § 4, and 27 Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8, section 11090, subds. 1 and 4(B).

28 ///

1 131. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
2 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay wages to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
3 Employees for each hour worked in violation of Labor Code §§ 221-223, 1194 and 1197.

4 132. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
5 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
6 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

7 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME WAGES

9 (Labor Code §§ 204 and 510; IWC Wage Order § 3(A))

10 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

11 133. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
12 alleged herein.

13 134. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were employees of Defendants who did 14 not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing payment of overtime wages.

15 135. Labor Code § 204 requires that the employer timely pay all overtime wages to its 16 employees. Labor Code § 510(a) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 3(A) provide that any 17 work performed in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in 18 any one workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the 19 regular rate of pay for an employee. Furthermore, any work performed in excess of twelve (12)
20 in one workday shall be compensated at twice the regular rate of pay for an employee.

21 136. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required by 22 Defendants to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per week. However, due to 23 Defendants' failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours worked Plaintiff and the 24 Aggrieved Employees did not receive proper overtime compensation.

25 137. Furthermore, Defendants paid Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees on an 26 hourly basis but also paid additional earned compensation (such as health and welfare payments, 27 paid per hour worked). However, during workweeks where the Aggrieved Employees worked 28 overtime hours and earned additional nondiscretionary compensation, Defendants failed to properly include that compensation in the calculations for the regular rate of pay – violating the well-established rule that overtime must always be paid at time and one-half the regular rate of pay.

138. Additionally, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees would often work at two or more base rates of pay in the same workweek. Yet, when the Aggrieved Employees worked overtime and worked at two or more base rates of pay in the same workweek, Defendants illegally paid overtime at the “rate-in-effect” method rather than using the correct “weighted average” method. See DLSE Manual § 49.2.6.2 (when an employee performs prevailing and non prevailing jobs during the same workweek, the company is required to pay overtime at the “weighted average” of the blended rate, averaging the normal base hourly rate and prevailing wage rate)

139. As a result of these policies and practices, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked.

140. Defendants violate Labor Code §§ 204 and 510 and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 3(A) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees because Defendants required its employees to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per week without proper overtime compensation.

141. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay proper overtime wages to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 221-223, 510, 1194 and 1197.

142. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, and seeks to recover all attorneys’ fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

1 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE COMPLIANT MEAL PERIODS

3 (Labor Code § 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 11, 12)

4 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

5 143. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
6 alleged herein.

7 144. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants
8 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory meal
9 periods.

10 145. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide
11 employees with meal periods as mandated by the Industrial Welfare Commission.

12 146. Labor Code § 512(a), in part, provides that employers, including Defendants, may 13 not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing an
14 employee the opportunity to take an uninterrupted meal period of not less than 30 minutes,
15 except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal
16 period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee. Employers
17 may not employ an employee for a work period more than 10 hours per day without providing 18 the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes.

19 147. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 11(B),
20 Defendants shall pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 21 pay for each meal period that is missed.

22 148. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were denied
23 the 30-minute meal periods to which they were entitled. As a result of Defendants' policies and 24 practices, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were subjected to meal period violations when 25 they were: (1) unable to take a meal period due to workload, (2) forced to take an on-duty meal
26 period while under the control of the Company, (3) forced to take a shortened meal period, (4)
27 forced to take a meal period after the 5th hour of work, and (5) not provided mandated second 28 meal periods for shifts in excess of 10 hours.

1 149. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
2 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided with
3 all mandatory meal periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees
4 one additional hour of compensation at the regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

5 150. On information and belief, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees did not
6 voluntarily or willfully waive the mandated meal periods. Any expressed or implied waivers
7 obtained from Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not willfully obtained, were not 8 voluntarily agreed to, were a condition of employment, or were a part of a contract of an
9 unlawful adhesion. Defendants did not permit or authorize Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
10 Employees to take meal periods in accordance with California law.

11 151. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
12 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
13 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

14 TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST BREAKS

16 (Labor Code § 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 12)

17 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

18 152. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
19 alleged herein.

20 153. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants
21 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory rest breaks.

22 154. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide rest
23 breaks to its employees as mandated by Order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.

24 155. The IWC Wage Order § 12 states, in part, that every employer shall authorize and
25 permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of 26 each work period. Employees shall receive a 10-minute rest period every four hours or major
27 fraction thereof that they are required to work. Authorized rest period time shall be counted, as 28 hours worked, for which there shall be no deduction from wages.

1 156. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and Section 12(B) of the applicable Wage
2 Order, Defendants shall pay Plaintiff and the Represented Employees one additional hour of pay
3 at his regular rate of compensation for each day that the rest period is not provided.

4 157. At all relevant times, Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the 5 Aggrieved Employees with 10 minutes of net rest break time for every 4 hours worked, or major
6 fraction thereof, as mandated by California law. Defendants did not schedule rest breaks for the 7 Aggrieved Employees, the Aggrieved Employees were unable to leave the premises for breaks,
8 and the Aggrieved Employees were often not authorized and/or permitted to take mandated rest 9 breaks due to being overwhelmed by their hectic workload. Furthermore, on occasions when the 10 Aggrieved Employees worked longer shifts, Defendants failed to authorize and/or permit
11 mandated third or fourth rest breaks.

12 158. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
13 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided with 14 all mandatory rest periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees
15 one additional hour of compensation in lieu thereof.

16 159. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
17 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
18 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

19 THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO REIMBURSE BUSINESS EXPENSES

21 (Labor Code § 2802)

22 Plaintiff and the Unreimbursed Expense Subclass Against All Defendants

23 160. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
24 alleged herein.

25 161. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants
26 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing reimbursement of 27 business expenses.

28 ///

162. Labor Code § 2802(a) requires that the employer indemnify its employees for expenses and losses incurred while discharging their duties or in obedience to the directions of their employer.

163. At all relevant times herein mentioned, as a condition of employment, Defendants required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to incur necessary business-related expenses and costs without reimbursement, including acquiring and maintaining a smart phone and related monthly data plan to communicate with the Company via phone, text message, and e-mail.

164. At all relevant times herein, Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802(a) when they failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for expenses incurred as a direct consequence of employment with Defendants and/or under the direction of Defendants.

165. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY WAGES EACH PERIOD

(Labor Code § 204)

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

166. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

167. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were “nonexempt” employees of Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws regarding the timing of payment of wages each period.

168. Labor Code § 204(a) states that all wages earned by a person are due and payable twice during each calendar month, and further states that wages earned during the first through fifteenth days of the month must be paid no later than the twenty-sixth day of the month, and that wages earned between the sixteenth and last day of the month must be paid by the tenth day of the following month.

169. Furthermore, Labor Code § 204(d) states “[t]he requirements of this section shall be deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if the wages are paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period.”

170. At all relevant times herein, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with all wages due and owing each period within the time required by Labor Code § 204. Moreover, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with all wages due and owing each pay period, including, but not limited to, minimum, regular, and overtime wages, sick pay, as well as meal and rest period premiums, within the time specified by Labor Code § 204.

171. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY FINAL WAGES

(Labor Code §§ 201 – 203 and 256)

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

172. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

173. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were “non-exempt” employees of Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the timing and payment of final wages.

174. Labor Code § 201 requires that the employer immediately pay any wages, without abatement or reduction, to any employee who is discharged.

175. Labor Code § 202 requires that the employer pay all wages earned and unpaid, without abatement or reduction, no later than 72 hours of receiving an employee's notice of intent to quit or immediately at the time of quitting if at least a 72-hour notice was provided.

/ / /

1 176. Labor Code §§ 201-203 cause the unpaid wages of the employee to continue as a
2 penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefore is
3 commenced, but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

4 177. At all relevant times here, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
5 Employees with all wages due and owing upon separation of employment, including, but not 6 limited to, minimum, regular, and overtime wages, as well as meal and rest period premiums,
7 within the time specified by Labor Code §§ 201 – 203.

8 178. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay all wages due and owing to the Aggrieved
9 Employees because of the failure to pay all required sick pay wages. Labor Code § 246(l)(1)
10 provides that paid sick time for non-exempt employees must be “calculated in the same manner
11 as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time, whether
12 or not the employee actually works overtime in that workweek.” Additionally, Labor Code §
13 246(l)(2) states that the paid sick time must be “calculated by dividing the employee’s total
14 wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee’s total hours worked in the full
15 pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.” Here, Defendants only calculated and paid sick
16 pay at the base rate of pay, rather than at the rate required by Labor Code § 246, leading to 17 unpaid sick pay and violations of Labor Code §§ 201 – 203.

18 179. Plaintiff alleges that, at all times material to this action, Defendants had a planned
19 pattern and practice of failing to timely pay to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages
20 due and owing upon separation of employment as required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

21 180. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
22 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
23 and seeks to recover all attorneys’ fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

1 SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR

3 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

4 (Labor Code § 226)

5 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

6 181. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
7 alleged herein.

8 182. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants 9 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the provision of 10 accurate itemized wage statements.

11 183. Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to provide its employees with itemized
12 wage statements accurately stating gross wages earned, all deductions, net wages earned, the
13 inclusive dates of the pay period, the employee's name and the last four digits of his or her
14 Social Security number (or employee identification number), the name and address of the legal 15 entity that is the employer, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 16 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

17 184. Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff
18 and the Aggrieved Employees because due to violations including: failure to accurately state 19 total hours worked (for example, the wage statements failed to accurately reflect the 20 compensable hours worked); failure to accurately state gross wages earned; failure to accurately
21 state all deductions; failure to accurately state net wages earned; failure to state the applicable
22 hourly rates (including the accurate overtime rate of pay); and failure to accurately state the 23 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

24 185. Additionally, Defendants' wage statements directly violated Labor Code § 226(a)
25 each period due to the failure to pay and report premium wages for denied meal periods and rest
26 breaks under § 226.7.

27 186. Therefore, Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect
28 to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees because Defendants failed to provide a wage statement

1 to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees that complied with the requirements of Labor Code §
2 226(a).

3 187. As a result of the Defendants' violations of Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff seeks
4 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
5 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.
6 See Raines v. Coastal Pacific Food Distributors, Inc. (2018) 23 Cal.App.5th 667, 675 ("Section
7 226.3 provides the civil penalty for failure to comply" with Labor Code § 226).

26 201, 202, 203, 204, 208, 210, 218.6, 221, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 558, 1194, 1197,
27 1198, 1199, and 2802, among other sections inadvertently omitted;

28 ///
