DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff CYNTHIA MILLER (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintains offices, has agents, employs individuals, and/or transacts business in the State of California, County of Riverside. The majority of acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff and the other class members took place in the State of California, including the County of Riverside. At all relevant times, Defendant maintained its headquarters/“nerve center” within the State of California, County of Riverside.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff CYNTHIA MILLER is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Riverside.

6. Defendant BARRY’S SECURITY SERVICES, INC., at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation and, at all times herein mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Riverside.

1 7. At all relevant times, Defendant BARRY’S SECURITY SERVICES, INC. was
2 the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

3 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendants BARRY’S SECURITY SERVICES,
4 INC. and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers,
5 joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators
6 and/or assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course
7 and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers,
8 representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or 9 omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission,
10 encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

11 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 12 otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues
13 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 14 information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally
15 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 16 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
17 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 18 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

19 10. Defendant BARRY’S SECURITY SERVICES, INC. and DOES 1 through 100
20 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

21 11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or 22 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 23 Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers liable
24 under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

25 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

26 12. Plaintiff bring this action on her own behalf and on behalf of all other members
27 of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under California
28 Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from four years preceding the filing of this Complaint to final judgment and who reside in California.

Subclass A: All class members who were subject to Defendants' practice of rounding time recorded for purposes of calculating compensation for time worked or for calculating meal periods.

Subclass B: All class members who were required by Defendants to stay on Defendants' premises for rest breaks.

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish additional subclasses as appropriate.

15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members' as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom she has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom she has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has

1 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur,
2 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 3 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 4 each class member.

5 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 6 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
7 of all class members is impractical.

8 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
9 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great
10 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
11 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
12 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 13 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 14 their rights.

15 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 16 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common 17 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- 18 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 19 reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- 20 b. Whether Defendants' had a corporate policy and practice of failing to 21 pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of 22 California for all hours worked and missed (short, late, interrupted, 23 and/or missed altogether) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of 24 California law;
- 25 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to 26 work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week
27 and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff
28 and the other class members;

- d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other class members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members during their employment;
- h. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code; including, inter alia, section 226;
- i. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 1174(d);
- j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- n. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, including the County of Riverside.

1 18. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-
2 exempt employee, from approximately May 2021 to approximately June 2021, in the State of 3 California, County of Riverside.

4 19. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other class members, classified them as 5 hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, and failed to compensate them for all hours worked and 6 missed meal periods and/or rest breaks.

7 20. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class
8 members, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and the other class members'
9 employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

10 21. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of 11 Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff
12 and the other class members.

13 22. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other 14 class members.

15 23. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the 16 State of California.

17 24. Plaintiff and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day,
18 and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

19 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 engaged in a pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt
21 employees within the State of California. This pattern and practice involved, inter alia, failing
22 to pay them for all regular and/or overtime wages earned and for missed meal periods and rest
23 breaks in violation of California law.

24 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
25 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
26 certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving accurate overtime
27 compensation for all overtime hours worked.

28 ///

1 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 rounded the work time recorded by Plaintiff and the other class members in a manner that was
3 not fair and neutral on its face and/or that favored Defendants over time, resulting in Plaintiff and 4 the other class members being underpaid for their time worked.

5 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members all required rest and meal periods during
7 the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders
8 and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

9 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
10 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
11 all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class
12 member's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not receive all meal
13 periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class member's
14 regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

15 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
17 all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class
18 member's regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest
19 periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class members'
20 regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

21 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
22 required Plaintiff and the other class members to remain on Defendants' premises during 23 purported rest periods, thereby failing to relieve them of all employer control.

24 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
25 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
26 at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least minimum 27 wages for all hours worked.

28 ///

1 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages
4 and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all such wages owed to 5 them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

6 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
7 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
8 all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other class members did
9 not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest
10 period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

11 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
12 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
13 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, they did
14 not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies
15 included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and the 16 other class members.

17 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
18 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
19 for Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did 20 not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

21 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 23 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

24 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
25 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class
26 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 27 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely

28 ///

1 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all
2 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

3 39. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to 4 Plaintiff and the other class members for all overtime hours worked. Plaintiff and the other
5 class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours
6 per week without overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

7 40. During the relevant time period, Defendants rounded the work time recorded by 8 Plaintiff and the other class members in a manner that was not fair and neutral on its face and/or 9 that favored Defendants over time, resulting in Plaintiff and the other class members being 10 underpaid for their time worked.

11 41. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide all requisite
12 uninterrupted meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other class members.

13 42. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class
14 members to remain on Defendants' premises during purported rest periods, thereby failing to 15 relieve them of all employer control.

16 43. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
17 class members at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

18 44. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
19 class members all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

20 45. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
21 class members all wages within any time permissible under California law, including, inter
22 alia, California Labor Code section 204.

23 46. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide complete or 24 accurate wage statements to Plaintiff and the other class members.

25 47. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate
26 payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

27 48. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the 28 other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs.

49. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to properly compensate Plaintiff and the other class members pursuant to California law in order to increase Defendants' profits.

50. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article."

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against BARRY'S SECURITY SERVICES, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

51. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 50, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

52. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

53. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

54. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

55. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day

1 of work, and to overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in
2 excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day
3 of work.

4 56. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members worked in 5 excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

6 57. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 7 pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members.

8 58. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid
9 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 10 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

11 59. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class
12 members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 13 attorneys' fees.

14 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

15 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

16 (Against BARRY'S SECURITY SERVICES, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

17 60. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
18 through 59, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
19 forth herein.

20 61. At all relevant times, the IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7
21 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment by 22 Defendants.

23 62. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no 24 employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an 25 applicable order of the California IWC.

26 63. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
27 Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to 28 work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee

1 with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per
2 day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual
3 consent of both the employer and employee.

4 64. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
5 Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an 6 employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the 7 employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except 8 that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may 9 be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period
10 was not waived.

11 65. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members who were 12 scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive
13 their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods
14 longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30)
15 minutes and/or rest period.

16 66. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members who were 17 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of six (6) hours were required to work for 18 periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty
19 (30) minutes and/or rest period.

20 67. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required
21 Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal periods and failed to compensate
22 Plaintiff and the other class members the full meal period premium for work performed during 23 meal periods.

24 68. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
25 class members the full meal period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 26 226.7.

27 69. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
28 Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

70. Pursuant to applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal or rest period is not provided.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

(Against BARRY'S SECURITY SERVICES, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

71. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 70, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

72. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment by Defendants.

73. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

74. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof" unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3 ½) hours.

75. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other class members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

76. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during rest periods and failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the full rest period premium for work performed during rest periods.

77. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7.

78. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section 226.7.

79. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section 226.7(c), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employees' regular hourly rate of compensation for each work day that the rest period was not provided.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

(Against BARRY'S SECURITY SERVICES, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

80. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 79, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

81. At all relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

82. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay minimum wage to Plaintiff and the other class members as required, pursuant to California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1.

83. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the minimum wage as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Pursuant to those sections Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorney's fees, and liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

84. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover a penalty of $100.00 for the initial failure to timely pay each

1 employee minimum wages, and $250.00 for each subsequent failure to pay each employee
2 minimum wages.

3 85. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the other class
4 members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages
5 unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

6 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202)

8 (Against BARRY'S SECURITY SERVICES, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

9 86. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
10 through 85, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
11 forth herein.

12 87. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 13 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the 14 time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her
15 employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72)
16 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her 17 intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of 18 quitting.

19 88. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 20 pay Plaintiff and the other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their 21 wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

22 89. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members who are no
23 longer employed by Defendants' their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72)
24 hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code sections
25 201 and 202.

26 90. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to 27 pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee

28 ///

1 shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an
2 action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

3 91. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the 4 statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid, up to a thirty (30) day maximum
5 pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.

6 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Violation of California Labor Code § 204)

8 (Against BARRY'S SECURITY SERVICES, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

9 92. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
10 through 91, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
11 forth herein.

12 93. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all 13 wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 14 any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and 15 payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was 16 performed.

17 94. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all
18 wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive,
19 of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due
20 and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month.

21 95. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all
22 wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the 23 payday for the next regular payroll period.

24 96. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 25 pay Plaintiff and the other class members all wages due to them, within any time period
26 permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

27 97. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover all remedies
28 available for violations of California Labor Code section 204.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

(Against BARRY'S SECURITY SERVICES, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

98. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 97, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

99. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions made from payments of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement or a record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California.

100. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, but are not limited to: the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

101. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a), Plaintiff and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

102. More specifically, Plaintiff and the other class members have been injured by Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

103. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

104. Plaintiff and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(h).

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 1174(d))

(Against BARRY'S SECURITY SERVICES, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

105. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 104, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

106. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1174(d), an employer shall keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case shall be kept on file for not less than two years.

107. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid, to Plaintiff and the other class members.

108. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 1174(d), Plaintiff and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

109. More specifically, Plaintiff and the other class members have been injured by Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 1174(d) because they were denied both their legal right and protected interest, in having available, accurate and complete payroll records pursuant to California Labor Code section 1174(d).

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

(Against BARRY'S SECURITY SERVICES, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

110. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 109, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

111. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

112. Plaintiff and the other class members incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Defendants.

113. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs.

114. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

(Against BARRY'S SECURITY SERVICES, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

115. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 114, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

116. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff, other class members, to the general public, and Defendants' competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seek to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

117. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.

118. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the other class members, to work overtime without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198. Additionally, Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the other class members, to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Defendants' policies and practices of failing to pay minimum wages violate California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Moreover, Defendants' policies and practices of failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and the other class members violate California Labor Code sections 201, 202 and 204. Defendants also violated California Labor Code sections 226(a), 1174(d), 2800 and 2802.

119. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendants unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.
