DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff MELISSA GARCIA (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The “amount in controversy” for the named Plaintiff, including but not limited to claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys’ fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintains offices, has agents, employs individuals, and/or transacts business in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff MELISSA GARCIA is an individual residing in the State of California.

6. Defendant WOLFORD AMERICA, INC., at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

7. At all relevant times, Defendant WOLFORD AMERICA, INC. was the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

8. At all times herein relevant, Defendants WOLFORD AMERICA, INC., and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and/or assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sue said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

10. Defendants WOLFORD AMERICA, INC. and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings this action on her own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from March 1, 2017 to final judgment and who reside in California.

(Subclass A) All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from March 1, 2017 to final judgment who received overtime compensation at a rate lower than their respective regular rate of pay because Defendants failed to include all commissions, non-discretionary bonuses, or other incentive-based compensation in the calculation of the regular rate of pay for overtime pay purposes and who reside in California.

(Subclass B) All class members who were subject to Defendants' practice of rounding time recorded for purposes of calculating compensation for time worked or for calculating meal periods.

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than forty (40) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members' as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom she has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom she has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all class members is impractical.

e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;

- b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked and missed (short, late, interrupted, and/or missed altogether) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other class members;
- d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other class members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members during their employment;
- h. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code; including, inter alia, section 226;
- i. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 1174(d);
- j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;

- m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- n. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

17. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiff's employment by Defendants.

18. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty, including unpaid wages and premium wages, to be assessed and collected by the LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

19. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an "aggrieved employee," who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

20. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the alleged violations were committed against her during her time of employment and she is, therefore, an aggrieved employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are "aggrieved employees" as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are current or former employees of Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

21. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the following requirements have been met:

- a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission (hereinafter "Employee's Notice") to the LWDA and by certified mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support

1 the alleged violations.

2 b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the 3 employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not
4 intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days
5 of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of the 6 LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five 7 (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice, the 8 aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California
9 Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any 10 other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

11 22. On May 9, 2022, Plaintiff provided written notice by online submission to the 12 LWDA and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the California Labor
13 Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged 14 violations. Plaintiff did not receive an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) days of the date of 15 the submission of Plaintiff’s Notice.

16 23. Therefore, the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section
17 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties, including unpaid wages and premium wages per California
18 Labor Code section 558 against Defendants, in addition to other remedies, for violations of 19 California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 20 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802 have been satisfied.

21 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

22 24. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other 23 persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, including the 24 County of Los Angeles.

25 25. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-26 exempt employee, from approximately January 2018 to approximately November 2018, in the 27 State of California, County of Los Angeles.

28 26. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other class members, classified them as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, and failed to compensate them for all hours worked and missed meal periods and/or rest breaks.

27. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class members, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

28. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and the other class members.

29. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other class members.

30. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

31. Plaintiff and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This pattern and practice involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all regular and/or overtime wages earned and for missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving accurate overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants rounded the work time recorded by Plaintiff and the other class members in a manner that was not fair and neutral on its face and/or that favored Defendants over time, resulting in Plaintiff and the other class members being underpaid for their time worked.

35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants

1 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members all required rest and meal periods during
2 the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders
3 and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

4 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
5 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
6 all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class
7 member's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not receive all meal
8 periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class member's 9 regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

10 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
12 all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class
13 member's regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest
14 periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class members'
15 regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

16 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
18 at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least minimum 19 wages for all hours worked.

20 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
21 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
22 all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages 23 and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all such wages owed to 24 them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

25 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
26 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
27 all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other class members did 28 not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

43. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

44. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

45. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all overtime hours worked. Plaintiff and the other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week without overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

46. During the relevant time period, Defendants rounded the work time recorded by Plaintiff and the other class members in a manner that was not fair and neutral on its face and/or that favored Defendants over time, resulting in Plaintiff and the other class members being underpaid for their time worked.

47. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide all requisite uninterrupted meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other class members.

48. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

49. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

50. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members all wages within any time permissible under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204.

51. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff and the other class members.

52. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

53. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs.

54. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to properly compensate Plaintiff and the other class members pursuant to California law in order to increase Defendants' profits.

55. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article."

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against WOLFORD AMERICA, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

56. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 55, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

57. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

58. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

59. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

60. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and to overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

61. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

62. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members.

63. Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

64. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys’ fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

(Against WOLFORD AMERICA, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

65. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 64, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

66. At all relevant times, the IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment by Defendants.

67. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

68. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

69. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

70. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members who were scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or rest period.

71. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members who were scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of six (6) hours were required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or rest period.

72. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal periods and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other class members the full meal period premium for work performed during meal periods.

73. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the full meal period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7.

74. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

75. Pursuant to applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal or rest period is not provided.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

(Against WOLFORD AMERICA, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

76. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 75, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

77. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment by Defendants.

1 78. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no
2 employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable
3 order of the California IWC.

4 79. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that “[e]very 5 employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as 6 practicable shall be in the middle of each work period” and that the “rest period time shall be 7 based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4)
8 hours or major fraction thereof” unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half 9 (3 ½) hours.

10 80. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other class
11 members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute 12 rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

13 81. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff and the 14 other class members to work during rest periods and failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class 15 members the full rest period premium for work performed during rest periods.

16 82. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
17 class members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section
18 226.7

19 83. Defendants’ conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California
20 Labor Code section 226.7.

21 84. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section
22 226.7(c), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one
23 additional hour of pay at the employees’ regular hourly rate of compensation for each work
24 day that the rest period was not provided.

25 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

26 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

27 (Against WOLFORD AMERICA, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

28 85. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1

1 through 84, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
2 forth herein.

3 86. At all relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1
4 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage 5 than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

6 87. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay minimum wage to 7 Plaintiff and the other class members as required, pursuant to California Labor Code sections
8 1194, 1197, and 1197.1.

9 88. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the minimum 10 wage as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Pursuant to 11 those sections Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance 12 of their minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorney's fees, and 13 liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

14 89. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and the other class
15 members are entitled to recover a penalty of $100.00 for the initial failure to timely pay each 16 employee minimum wages, and $250.00 for each subsequent failure to pay each employee 17 minimum wages.

18 90. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the other class
19 members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages
20 unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

21 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202)

23 (Against WOLFORD AMERICA, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

24 91. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
25 through 90, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
26 forth herein.

27 92. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 28 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the
