DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $25,000.00]

1 Plaintiff Asia Thompson, as an aggrieved employee, and on behalf of all other aggrieved
2 employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys' General Act of 2004, alleges as follows:

3 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4 1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General
5 Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), against La Petite Academy, 6 Inc., a Delaware corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within 7 the State of California ("La Petite"); Learning Care Group, (MI), Inc., a Michigan corporation, and 8 any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California ("Learning 9 Care Group"); and Aimee Ward, an individual ("Ms. Ward") (collectively with DOES 1 through 10 100, as further defined below, "Defendants"), as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development 11 Agency of the State of California ("LWDA"), on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former 12 non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined 13 herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, 14 Labor Code section 203, Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 227.3, Labor Code section 15 246, et seq., Labor Code section 2802, restraints on competition, whistleblowing and freedom of 16 speech on behalf of all employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period 17 (collectively, "Aggrieved Employees").

18 2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code 19 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

20 3. Venue is proper in Los Angeles County, California pursuant to Code of Civil 21 Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Los Angeles County is where the 22 causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship 23 began; the county in which the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants 24 was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, or some of them, reside. Moreover, 25 the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees in Los 26 Angeles County, and because Defendants employ numerous Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles 27 County.

28 ///

1 4. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 2 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 3 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 4 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code
5 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 6 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 7 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

8 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 9 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
10 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 11 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

12 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 13 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 14 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 15 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 246, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 16 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

17 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 18 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 19 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 20 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

21 8. On or around May 11, 2022, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor Code 22 section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants’ violation 23 of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, as well as 24 by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

25 9. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 26 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants’ alleged violations within sixty-five (65)
27 calendar days of the May 11, 2022 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by Plaintiff 28 to the LWDA and Defendants.

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

10. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in the State of California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek without paying them proper overtime wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to go through COVID-19 screenings and/or temperature checks off the clock, to remain on-call, to suffer under Defendants' control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out (including answering calls from supervisors and others), to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don and doff uniforms off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock; failing to include all forms of remuneration, including non-discretionary bonuses, incentive pay, meal allowances, and other forms of remuneration into the regular rate of pay for the pay periods where overtime was worked and the additional compensation was earned for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate of pay; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, and for paying straight pay instead of overtime pay to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees. The allegations in this paragraph are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation of discovery.

11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; by requiring employees: to go through COVID-19 screenings and/or temperature checks off the clock, to remain on-call; to suffer under Defendants' control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out (including answering calls from supervisors and others), to clock out for meal periods and

1 continue working, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend 2 company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock; detrimental rounding 3 of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than 4 actually worked; failing to pay reporting time pay; paid time off and vacation time owed; and failing 5 to pay split shift premiums, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees. The 6 allegations in this paragraph are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity 7 for further investigation of discovery.

8 12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 9 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, 10 timely, and complete meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and 11 ten (10) hours per day without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal 12 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods; 13 not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 14 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 15 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 16 periods; or auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 17 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws. The allegations in this paragraph 18 are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation of 19 discovery.

20 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 21 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 22 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions 23 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest 24 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting 25 them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not 26 providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; or otherwise 27 requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

1 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
2 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 3 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross 4 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 5 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 6 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 7 entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 8 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

9 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
10 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 11 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment 12 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 13 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 14 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 15 Aggrieved Employees. The allegations in this paragraph are likely to have evidentiary support after 16 a reasonable opportunity for further investigation of discovery.

17 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
18 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages 19 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime
20 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 21 Code sections 201, 202, and 203. The allegations in this paragraph are likely to have evidentiary 22 support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation of discovery.

23 17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 24 to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon 25 separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3
26 and applicable Wage Orders. The allegations in this paragraph are likely to have evidentiary support 27 after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation of discovery.

1 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 2 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 3 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for driving personal 4 vehicles (i.e., mileage and gas), purchasing uniforms, providing uniform and other deposits, 5 separately laundering mandatory uniforms, for the purchase of tools and safety equipment (including 6 work boots to handle oil), for the purchase and maintenance of cellular phones and cellular phone 7 plans, in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions 8 of Defendants, as required by Labor Code 2802. The allegations in this paragraph are likely to have 9 evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation of discovery.

10 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 11 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 12 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 13 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; 14 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 15 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information 16 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants 17 under Labor Code section 2810.5. The allegations in this paragraph are likely to have evidentiary 18 support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation of discovery.

19 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 20 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 21 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 246, et seq.), and also did not 22 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 23 all other Aggrieved Employees. The allegations in this paragraph are likely to have evidentiary 24 support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation of discovery.

25 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 26 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 27 Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 28 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the

1 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 2 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

3 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
4 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 5 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 6 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 7 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 8 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 9 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 10 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor 11 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k). The allegations in this paragraph are likely 12 to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation of discovery.

13 23. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 14 Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants 15 to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation 16 of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 17 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants’ herein-described policies 18 and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information 19 about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation 20 of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

21 24. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 22 Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state 23 statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, 24 without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, 25 subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of 26 Plaintiff’s and/or other Aggrieved Employee’s constitutional rights of freedom of speech and 27 economic liberty. The allegations in this paragraph are likely to have evidentiary support after a 28 reasonable opportunity for further investigation of discovery.

25. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA.

1 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys' General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

3 34. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the 4 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

5 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

6 35. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: 7 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 8 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 9 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 10 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

11 36. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated 12 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 13 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 17 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

18 37. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 19 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as 20 per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other 21 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants’ violations of Labor

3 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 4 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 5 entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 6 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

8 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 9 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 10 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 11 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226."

12 40. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that "[t]he civil penalties provided for in 13 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law."

14 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 15 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without 16 limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total 17 hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the 18 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal

3 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 4 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission” shall be subject to a civil 5 penalty as follows:

6 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each 7 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient 8 to recover underpaid wages;

9 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 10 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 11 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

12 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.”

13 44. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon allege, that Defendants, and 14 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 15 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime 16 rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the 17 regular payday designated by employer, the name of the employer, including any “doing business 18 as” names used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers’ compensation insurance 19 carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information.

20 45. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 21 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover
22 civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars
23 ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars 24 ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

25 Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

26 46. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required 27 every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the

1 employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are 2 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, 3 relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, 4 or papers of the person.”

5 47. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required 6 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of 7 all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

8 48. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required

27 the failure to: pay the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment, 28 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the regular payday designated by Defendants, the

1 name of the employer, including “doing business as” names used, the name, address, and telephone
