9. Civil Penalties Under PAGA (Cal. Lab. Code § 2699, et seq.)

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and establishment within the State of California, including Merced County. As such, and based upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' business in California, Defendants are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission

(“IWC”), and the California Business & Professions Code.

5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum, straight time, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders;
- (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and failing to pay an additional hour’s pay for each workday a meal period violation occurred;
- (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour’s pay for each workday a rest period violation occurred;
- (d) Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages due within the time period specified by California law when employment terminates;
- (e) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders; and,
- (f) Failing to indemnify employees for expenditures incurred in direct discharge of duties of employment;

6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their unlawful policies. Defendants’ violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were willful and deliberate.

7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of “respondeat superior.”

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiffs

8. Plaintiff AMALIA NAVARRO CANTON is a California resident who worked for Defendants in Merced County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 2005 to approximately March 2022.

9. Plaintiff CONCEPCION MORALES AZEVEDO is a California resident who worked for Defendants in Merced County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 2005 to approximately December 2021.

10. Plaintiff SONIA IMELDA NAVARRO CASTILLO is a resident of Merced County, California who worked for Defendants in Merced County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 2005 to approximately March 2022.

11. Plaintiff JOSEFINA MERCADO GONZALEZ is a California resident who worked for Defendants in Merced County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 1994 to approximately January 2021.

12. Plaintiff JESUS TORRES RODRIGUEZ is a California resident who worked for Defendants in Merced County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 2012 to approximately January 2021.

13. Plaintiffs reserve the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new Plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

B. Defendants

14. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based upon that information and belief allege, that Defendant JOHN B. SANFILIPPO & SON, INC. is, and at all times herein mentioned, was:

- (a) A corporation qualified to do business and actually conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Merced County; and,
- (b) The former employer of Plaintiffs and the current and/or former employer of the putative Class and Aggrieved Employees because Defendant John B. Sanfilippo & Son, Inc. suffered and permitted Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

15. Plaintiffs do not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sue said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiffs will amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

16. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in the State of California.

17. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all relevant times each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiffs and the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that each Defendant acted

1 pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or 2 should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and
3 abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

4 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

5 18. Plaintiffs worked for Defendants in Merced County, California as hourly-paid,
6 non-exempt employees. During Plaintiffs' employment for Defendants, Defendants paid
7 Plaintiffs hourly wages and classified them as non-exempt from overtime. Defendants typically 8 scheduled Plaintiffs to work at least five days in a workweek and at least eight hours per day, but 9 Plaintiffs regularly worked more than eight hours in a workday and more than forty (40) hours in 10 a workweek.

11 19. Throughout Plaintiffs' employment, Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked
12 (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiffs with legally 13 compliant meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiffs to take rest periods, failed to 14 timely pay all final wages to Plaintiffs when Defendants terminated their employment, failed to 15 furnish accurate wage statements to Plaintiffs, and failed to indemnify Plaintiffs for expenditures.
16 As discussed below, Plaintiffs' experience working for Defendants were typical and illustrative.

17 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of 18 not paying Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including 19 minimum, straight time, and overtime wages. Defendants required Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 20 Aggrieved Employees to work "off-the-clock," uncompensated, by, for example, requiring 21 Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work prior to clocking in for the 22 workday, during legally mandated meal periods, and after clocking out for the workday. Some of 23 this unpaid work should have been paid at the overtime rate. In failing to pay for all hours
24 worked, Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiffs, the Class, and 25 the Aggrieved Employees worked.

26 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully failed to include non-
27 discretionary bonuses, commissions, incentive pay, production pay, performance pay, and/or
28 shift differentials in the calculation of Plaintiffs', the other Class Members', and the Aggrieved

1 Employees' regular rate of pay used to calculate their overtime rate for the payment of overtime
2 wages. Plaintiffs, the other Class Members, and the Aggrieved Employees earned non-
3 discretionary bonuses, commissions, incentive pay, production pay, performance pay, and/or
4 shift differentials and overtime wages in the same pay periods where they worked overtime
5 hours. Accordingly, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
6 Employees for all overtime compensation they were owed.

7 22. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide
8 Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods.
9 Defendants regularly, but not always, required Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
10 Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-minute,
11 uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating
12 Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by 13 the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Instead, Defendants continued to assert 14 control over Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or 15 encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu
16 of taking mandatory meal periods, or by denying Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
17 Employees permission to take a meal period. Defendants also failed to permit Plaintiffs to take a 18 second meal period when Plaintiffs worked at least ten hours of work in a workday.
19 Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was not to provide meal periods to Plaintiffs, the 20 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

21 23. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize 22 and permit Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take legally compliant rest
23 periods. Defendants regularly required Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to 24 work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting 25 them to take a 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or 26 major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
27 Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Instead, Defendants continued 28 to assert control over Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods, or by denying Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a rest period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

24. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely pay Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all final wages due at their termination of employment. In addition, Plaintiffs' final paychecks did not include payment for all expenditures, minimum wages, straight time wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages owed to them by Defendants at the conclusion of their employment. On information and belief, Defendants' failure to timely pay Plaintiffs' final wages when their employment terminated was not a single, isolated incident, but was instead consistent with Defendants' policy and practice that applied to Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

25. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, all overtime hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law). As a result of these violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees suffered injury because, among other things:

- (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even though they were entitled;
- (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even though they had not been;

- 1 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid minimum,
2 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium
3 wages at the correct California rate even though they were entitled;
- 4 (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, straight time,
5 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the 6 correct California rate even though they had not been;
- 7 (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum,
8 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium
9 wages owed to them;
- 10 (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in 11 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have 12 to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages
13 owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage
14 statements contained the required accurate information;
- 15 (g) by understating the wages truly due to them, the violations caused them to 16 lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, 17 disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;
- 18 (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wage 19 rates to which Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were 20 entitled, and Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were paid
21 less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

22 Thus, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are owed the amounts provided for in 23 California Labor Code § 226(e) and injunctive relief under California Labor Code § 226(h).

24 26. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully required Plaintiffs,
25 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of 26 their duties for Defendants. Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees regularly paid
27 out-of-pocket for necessary employment-related expenses, including, without limitation, work
28 attire, work tools and equipment, and use of personal cell phones.

27. Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees incurred substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendants, but Defendants failed to indemnify Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

28. Plaintiffs bring certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all other persons similarly situated, and thus, seek class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

29. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiffs seek relief authorized by California law.

30. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years and 178 days before the filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.¹

31. At all material times, Plaintiffs were members of the Class.
32. Plaintiffs undertake this concerted activity to improve the wages and working conditions of all Class Members.

33. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is readily ascertainable:

- (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiffs at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be greater than forty (40) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants’ records.
- (b) Typicality: Plaintiffs are qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately

¹ In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California adopted Emergency Rule 9(a) (California Rules of Court), whereby “statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020 to October 1, 2020.

1 protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared,
2 well-defined community of interest, and Plaintiffs' claims (or defenses, if
3 any) are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

4 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiffs are qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately
5 protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared,
6 well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as
7 demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs have no conflicts with or interests
8 antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiffs' attorneys, the proposed class
9 counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery,
10 certification, and settlement. Plaintiffs have incurred, and throughout the 11 duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that 12 have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this 13 action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

14 (d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the 15 fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration 16 of:

- 17 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually
- 18 controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 19 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy
- 20 already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 21 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of
- 22 the claims in the particular forum; and,
- 23 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a
- 24 class action.

25 (e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California
26 is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through 27 a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their 28 rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is protected.

34. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages;
- (b) Failed to include non-discretionary bonuses, commissions, monetary and non-monetary incentives, production pay, performance pay, and/or shift differentials in the calculation of the Class Members' regular rate of pay used to calculate the overtime rate for the payment of overtime wages;
- (c) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to Class Members;
- (d) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages to Class Members;
- (e) Failed to provide Class Members with timely final wages;
- (f) Failed to provide Class Members with accurate wage statements;
- (g) Failed to indemnify Class Members for expenditures; and,
- (h) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a result of their illegal conduct as described above.

35. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any question affecting only individual members;

- (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the class before the Court;
- (d) Plaintiffs, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;
- (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;
- (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of:
- 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or,
 - 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,
- (g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the class as a whole.

36. Plaintiffs contemplate the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiffs contemplate the use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice, e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages for All Hours Worked)

37. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

38. “Hours worked” is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

39. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to Plaintiffs and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 1194, and any additional applicable Wage Orders, which require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

40. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover minimum and straight time wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

41. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiffs and the Class have been deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

42. By virtue of the Defendants’ unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to Plaintiffs and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiffs and the Class suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to Plaintiffs and the Class and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

43. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage

1 compensation due Plaintiffs and the Class.

2 44. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to 3 recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages.

4 45. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all
5 wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to 6 this cause of action, Plaintiffs and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates
7 required by law, including minimum and straight time wages. However, during all such times,
8 Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiffs and the Class all such wages due
9 and failed to pay those wages twice a month.

10 46. Plaintiffs and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum
11 and straight time wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California
12 Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

13 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

14 (By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

15 47. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs
16 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

17 48. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be 18 employed more than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they 19 receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

20 49. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California 21 shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional 22 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California
23 Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed 24 by the IWC is unlawful.

25 50. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiffs and the Class have worked more than eight 26 hours in a workday and/or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, as employees of 27 Defendants.

28 51. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the Class overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours permissible by law as required by California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198.

52. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate compensation to the Plaintiffs and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiffs and the Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

53. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to include non-discretionary bonuses, commissions, monetary and non-monetary incentives, production pay, performance pay, and/or shift differentials in the calculation of Plaintiffs' and the other Class Members' regular rate of pay used to calculate the overtime rate for the payment of overtime wages.

54. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to Plaintiffs and the Class.

55. Plaintiffs and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

56. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and the Class with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

57. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

58. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the

1 Plaintiffs and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the
2 start of Plaintiffs and the Class' sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal
3 periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. California Labor
4 Code § 512, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer provide
5 unpaid meal periods of at least thirty (30) minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a
6 violation of California Labor Code § 226.7 for an employer to require any employee to work
7 during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

8 59. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiffs
9 and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit
10 and authorize Plaintiffs and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact 11 that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods),
12 Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable
13 Wage Orders.

14 60. Under California law, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 15 additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s), 16 plus interest thereon.

17 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 (By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

19 61. Plaintiffs incorporates by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein
20 paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

21 62. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten 22 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than 23 two hours). California Labor Code § 512, the applicable Wage Orders require that the employer
24 permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of ten minutes each for each 4-hour
25 period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the 26 employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is 27 itself a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of California Labor Code § 28 226.7 for an employer to require any employee to work during any rest period mandated under any Wage Order.

63. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiffs and the Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than four hours in a workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiffs and the Class to take rest periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders.

64. Under California law, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s), plus interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time Penalties)

65. Plaintiffs incorporates by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

66. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

67. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of many other members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

68. Defendants' failure to pay those Class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

69. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with §§ 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

70. The Class is entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

71. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, the Class is also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs incurred in this action.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and Compliant Wage Records)

72. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

73. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

74. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiffs and the Class, the failure to list the true “total hours worked by the employee,” and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

75. As a result of Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiffs and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

76. Specifically, Plaintiffs and the members of the Class have been injured by Defendants’ intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

77. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiffs and the Class is difficult and time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiffs and the Class were also injured as a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following Defendants’ refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California’s Labor Code and related laws and regulations.

78. Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) per employee.

79. Plaintiffs and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of attorney’s fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(h).

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Employees for Expenditures)

80. Plaintiffs incorporates by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

81. As set forth above, Plaintiffs and the Class were required to incur substantial

1 necessary expenditures and losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of 2 their obedience to directions of Defendants.

3 82. Defendants violated California Labor Code § 2802, by failing to pay and 4 indemnify Plaintiffs and the Class for necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct 5 consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

6 83. As a result, Plaintiffs and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the 7 expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

8 84. Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to reasonable attorney's fees, expenses, and 9 costs of suit pursuant to California Labor Code § 2802(c) and interest pursuant to California
10 Labor Code § 2802(b).

11 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 (By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions
13 Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

14 85. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs
15 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

16 86. Defendants, and each of them, are "persons" as defined under California Business
17 & Professions Code § 17201.

18 87. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
19 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiffs, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiffs 20 seek to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil 21 Procedure § 1021.5.

22 88. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and 23 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
24 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

25 89. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be 26 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as 27 violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of 28 public policy; and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages

90. Defendants' failure to pay minimum and straight time wages, and other benefits in violation of the California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

91. Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

92. Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

93. Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Indemnify Business Expenses

94. Defendants' failure to reimburse expenses incurred in accordance with California Labor Code § 2802, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

95. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from Plaintiffs, and all persons similarly situated, and have deprived Plaintiffs, and all persons similarly situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

96. Plaintiffs and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of Defendants' wrongful conduct.

97. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, are entitled to, and do, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiffs and the Class have been deprived, by means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiffs and the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of Defendants in order to recover restitution.

98. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, are further entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above-described business practices are unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them, from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in the future.

99. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, have no plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, have suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

100. Plaintiffs also allege that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other withholdings.

101. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiffs and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years and 178 days prior to the filing of this complaint; a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiffs and Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(By Plaintiffs Amalia Navarro Canton, Concepcion Morales Azevedo, and Sonia Imelda Navarro Castillo Against All Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698, et seq.)

102. Plaintiffs Amalia Navarro Canton, Concepcion Morales Azevedo, and Sonia Imelda Navarro Castillo incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

103. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

104. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

105. Plaintiffs Amalia Navarro Canton, Concepcion Morales Azevedo, and Sonia Imelda Navarro Castillo have exhausted their administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3. They gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiffs and current and former aggrieved employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiffs also paid the filing fee.

106. The Labor and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants’ Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiffs Amalia Navarro Canton, Concepcion Morales Azevedo, and Sonia Imelda Navarro Castillo may commence a civil action to recover penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for

1 the violations of the Labor Code described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are
2 not limited to, penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699.

3 107. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiffs Amalia Navarro
4 Canton, Concepcion Morales Azevedo, and Sonia Imelda Navarro Castillo are entitled to an
5 award of civil penalties on behalf of themselves, the State of California, and similarly Aggrieved
6 Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount
7 to be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies
8 permitted by law.

9 108. In addition, Plaintiffs Amalia Navarro Canton, Concepcion Morales Azevedo, and 10 Sonia Imelda Navarro Castillo seek an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to 11 California Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action 12 shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

13 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

14 Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to 15 the class claims, pray for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as 16 follows:

17 Class Certification

- 18 1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to the First, Second,
19 Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Causes of Action;
20 2. That Plaintiffs be appointed as the representatives of the Class; and,
21 3. That counsel for Plaintiffs be appointed as Class Counsel.

22 As to the First Cause of Action

- 23 4. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California
24 Labor Code §§ 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all 25 minimum and straight time wages due;
26 5. For unpaid wages as may be appropriate;
27 6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
28 such amounts were due;

7. For liquidated damages;

8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Second Cause of Action

10. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all overtime wages due;

11. For unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be appropriate;

12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

13. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Third Cause of Action

15. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

16. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;

17. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

18. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fourth Cause of Action

20. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

21. For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;

22. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date

1 such amounts were due;

2 23. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5,
3 and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

4 24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

5 As to the Fifth Cause of Action

6 25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
7 Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of 8 termination of the employment;

9 26. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 for former 10 employees who have left Defendants' employ;

11 27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were 12 due;

13 28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

14 29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

15 As to the Sixth Cause of Action

16 30. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated the record
17 keeping provisions of California Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and 18 willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

19 31. For all actual damages, according to proof;

20 32. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(e);

21 33. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California
22 Labor Code § 226(h);

23 34. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

24 35. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

25 As to the Seventh Cause of Action

26 36. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California
27 Labor Code § 2802 by willfully failing to indemnify employees for expenditures;

28 37. For unpaid wages or unreimbursed business expenses as may be appropriate;

38. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

39. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

40. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Eighth Cause of Action

41. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. by failing to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, and failing to indemnify employees for expenditures;

42. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiffs and all Class Members and prejudgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

43. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by Defendants as a result of violations of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.;

44. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5;

45. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and,

46. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Ninth Cause of Action

47. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to pay wages for all hours worked (including minimum, straight time, and overtime), failing to provide meal periods and pay the correct amount of meal period premium wages, failing to authorize and permit rest periods and pay the correct amount of rest period premium wages, failing to pay all earned wages twice per month, failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failing to timely pay final wages at termination, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and failing to indemnify employees for expenditures;

48. For all actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to

1 proof;

2 49. For all civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 2699, et seq., and all
3 other applicable Labor Code provisions;

4 50. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 5 California Labor Code § 2699; and,

6 51. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

7 As to all Causes of Action

8 52. For any additional relief that the Court deems just and proper.
