DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL UNLIMITED CIVIL CASE

1 Plaintiff Octavio A. Flores (“Plaintiff”) hereby brings this First Amended Class and
2 Representative Action Complaint (“Complaint”) against Defendants Twin Eagles, Inc., a
3 California corporation; Dometic corporation, a Delaware corporation; and DOES 1 through 100,
4 inclusive (collectively, “Defendants”), and on information and belief alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION

6 1. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this 7 Complaint for recovery of unpaid wages and penalties under Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7,
8 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, and 2698 et seq.; California Business &
9 Professions Code § 17200 et seq., and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order No. 1 (“Wage 10 Order 1”), in addition to seeking declaratory relief and restitution. This Complaint is brought 11 pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. This Court has jurisdiction over 12 Defendants’ violations of the California Labor Code because the amount in controversy exceeds 13 this Court’s jurisdictional minimum.

14 VENUE

15 2. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to California Code of Civil 16 Procedure §§ 395(a) and 395.5, as at least some of the acts and omissions complained of herein 17 occurred in Los Angeles County. Defendants own, maintain offices, transact business, have an 18 agent or agents within Los Angeles County, and/or otherwise are found within Los Angeles
19 County, and Defendants are within the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of service of process.

20 PARTIES

21 3. Plaintiff is an individual over the age of eighteen (18). At all relevant times herein, 22 Plaintiff was and currently is, a California resident. Within the statute of limitations periods
23 applicable to each cause of action pled herein, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-
24 exempt employee. Plaintiff was, and is, a victim of Defendants’ policies and/or practices
25 complained of herein, lost money and/or property, and has been deprived of the rights guaranteed
26 to him by Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 27 1198, and 2698 et seq.; Business and Professions Code Section 17200 et seq., and Wage Order 1, 28 which sets employment standards for the “Manufacturing Industry.”

1 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the time
2 period relevant to this action, Defendants did (and do) business by manufacturing and designing
3 grills and outdoor kitchen equipment.

4 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times
5 mentioned herein, Defendants were licensed to do business in California and were the employers
6 of Plaintiff and of the members of the Classes (as defined in Paragraph 14).

7 6. Plaintiff does not know the true names, capacities, relationships, and/or the extent
8 of participation of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, in the conduct alleged in this 9 Complaint. For that reason, Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are sued under such 10 fictitious names. Plaintiff prays for leave to amend this Complaint when their true names and 11 capacities are known. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each
12 fictitiously named Respondent is and was responsible in some way for the alleged wage-and-hour
13 violations and other wrongful conduct that subjected Plaintiff and the Classes, as defined below, 14 to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein. All references in 15 this Complaint to “Defendants” shall be deemed to include all DOE Defendants.

16 7. At all times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing 17 of the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendants; and furthermore, the 18 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each and every one of 19 the other Defendants, as well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned
20 were acting within the course and scope of said agency and employment. Defendants, and each 21 of them, approved of, condoned, and/or otherwise ratified each and every one of the acts or 22 omissions complained of herein.

23 8. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants, and each of them, were members of 24 and engaged in a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acted within the course
25 and scope of and in pursuance of said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise. Further, 26 Plaintiff alleges that all Defendants were joint employers for all purposes of Plaintiff and the 27 Classes (as defined in Paragraph 14).

GENERAL FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

9. Defendants employed Plaintiff in the non-exempt job position of “Assembler” (or similarly titled position). Plaintiff was initially hired by Defendants in approximately 2012 and worked for Defendants up until approximately February 11, 2022.

10. During Plaintiff’s employment with Defendants, Defendants utilized a timekeeping system which resulted in Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees not being compensated for all hours actually worked, whether by rounding, time-shaving, or otherwise. Defendants’ timekeeping policies/practices were not even handed and have resulted in Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees not being compensated for all hours worked. Further, on occasions when Plaintiff worked over eight hours in a workday and/or forty hours in a workweek, Defendants’ timekeeping policies/practices deprived him of additional overtime wages earned. Due to Defendants’ timekeeping policies/practices that fail to compensate for all hours worked, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not compensated for all required minimum and overtime wages.

11. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with all legally compliant meal periods due to Defendants’ meal period policies/practices, which have resulted in late (commencing after the fifth hour of work), short (less than 30 minutes), and missed meal periods. In addition, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with second meal periods on shifts over 10.0 hours. During at least a portion of the relevant time period, Defendants did not require Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to record their meal periods. Instead, upon information and belief, Defendants automatically deducted 30 minutes from the total hours worked for each shift worked regardless of whether the employee took a full 30-minute compliant meal period. On those occasions when Plaintiff was not provided with all legally-required meal periods to which he was entitled, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff with the required meal period premium for each workday in which he experienced a meal period violation as mandated by Labor Code § 226.7. Upon information and belief, during at least a portion of the putative class period, Defendants maintained no payroll code or other mechanism for paying meal period premiums under Labor Code § 226.7 in the event a legally compliant meal period was not provided to their non-exempt employees.

12. Defendants have also failed to authorize and permit all required rest periods for Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees. Specifically, Defendants have often failed to authorize and permit a net 10-minute rest period for every four hours worked or major fraction thereof, and Plaintiff and other employees often have had to take short (less than 10 minutes) rest periods, due to their workload. Despite failing to authorize and permit Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to take all rest periods to which they are entitled, upon information and belief, during at least a portion of the relevant time period, Defendants maintained no mechanism for the payment of rest period premium payments as required by Labor Code § 226.7 and did not pay Plaintiff or other non-exempt employees any rest period premiums.

13. As a result of Defendants' failure to compensate Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees for all minimum wages, overtime wages, and all meal and rest period premium wages, Defendants maintained inaccurate payroll records and failed to issue accurate, compliant, itemized wage statements. As a further result of Defendants' failure to compensate Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees for all minimum wages, overtime wages, and all meal and rest period premium wages, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees all wages owed at the time of their separation of employment with Defendants.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

14. Class Definitions: Plaintiff brings this Complaint on behalf of himself and the following Classes pursuant to Section 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure:

- a. The Minimum Wage Class consists of all of Defendants' current and former non-exempt employees in California who were subject to Defendants' timekeeping policies and/or practices, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint through the present.
- b. The Overtime Class consists of all of Defendants' current and former non-exempt employees in California who worked more than 8.0 hours per day and/or 40.0 hours per week and were subject to Defendants' timekeeping policies and/or practices, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint through the present.

c. The Meal Period Class consists of all of Defendants' current and former non-exempt employees in California who (i) worked at least one shift in excess of 5.0 hours; and/or (ii) worked at least one shift in excess of 10.0 hours, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint through the present.

d. The Rest Period Class consists of all of Defendants' current and former non-exempt employees in California who worked at least one shift of 3.5 hours or more, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint through the present.

e. The Wage Statement Class consists of all members of the Minimum Wage Class, Overtime Class, Meal Period Class, and/or Rest Period Class who have received a wage statement from Defendants during the one year immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint through the present.

f. The Waiting Time Class consists of all members of the Minimum Wage Class, Overtime Class, Meal Period Class, and/or Rest Period Class who have separated their employment with Defendants during the three years immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint through the present.

15. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The members of the Classes are so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and not practicable. The membership of the classes and subclasses are unknown to Plaintiff, at this time; however, it is estimated that the Classes number is in excess of fifty (50) individuals as to each class. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendants' employment records.

16. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well Defined Community of Interest: There are common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and all other similarly situated employees, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, without limitation, to:

i. Whether Defendants paid all minimum wages owed to members of the Minimum Wage Class for all hours worked pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2 and 1197;

ii. Whether Defendants violated the applicable Labor Code provisions, including, but not limited to, §§ 510 and 1194 by requiring members of the Overtime Class to perform overtime work and not paying for said work in accordance with the overtime laws of the State of California;

iii. Whether Defendants' timekeeping policies/practices resulted in the failure to properly compensate members of the Overtime Class and Minimum Wage Classes;

iv. Whether Defendants provided legally compliant meal periods to members of the Meal Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;

v. Whether Defendants correctly paid meal period premium payments for non-compliant meal periods pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7;

vi. Whether Defendants authorized and permitted legally compliant rest periods to members of the Rest Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516;

vii. Whether Defendants correctly paid rest period premium payments for non-compliant rest periods pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7;

viii. Whether Defendants furnished legally compliant wage statements to members of the Wage Statement Class pursuant to Labor Code § 226; and

ix. Whether Defendants' policies and/or practices for the timing and amount of payment of final wages to Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class at the time of their separation of employment were lawful.

17. Predominance of Common Questions: Common questions of law and fact predominate over questions that affect only individual members of the Classes. The common questions of law and fact set forth above are numerous and substantial and stem from Defendants' uniform policies and/or practices applicable to each individual class member including, but not limited to, Defendants' uniform timekeeping policies and/or practices, and meal and rest period policies and/or practices. As such, the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual class member's showing as to his or her eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of his or her damages.

18. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Classes because Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the statutes of limitation applicable to each cause of action pled in this Complaint. As alleged herein, Plaintiff, like the members of the Classes, was not properly paid minimum and overtime wages due to Defendants' timekeeping policies/practices, was not provided all required meal periods, was not authorized and permitted to take all required rest periods, did not receive meal and rest period premium wages for missed and/or non-compliant meal and rest periods, was not issued accurate itemized wage statements, and/or did not receive all final wages owed to him upon his separation of employment with Defendants.

19. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps to represent fairly and adequately the interests of the members of the Classes. Moreover, Plaintiff's attorneys are ready, willing, and able to fully and adequately represent the members of the Classes and Plaintiff. Plaintiff's attorneys have prosecuted and defended numerous wage-and-hour class actions in state and federal courts in the past and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the members of the Classes.

20. Superiority: The California Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an important public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California. These laws and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by employers who have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of superior economic and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The nature of this action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and members of the Classes make the class action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations alleged herein. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily gain an unconscionable advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited resources of each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources. Moreover, requiring each member of the Classes to pursue an individual remedy would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file an action against their former and/or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and permanent damages to their careers at subsequent employment. Further, the prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members, even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would establish potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or legal determinations with respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interest of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which would substantially impair or impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests. Further, the claims of the individual members of the Classes are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual prosecution considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending thereto. As such, the Classes are maintainable as classes under § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

21. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

22. Wage Order 1, § 4 and California Labor Code §§ 1197 and 1182.12 establish the right of employees to be paid minimum wages for all hours worked, in amounts set by state law. Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an employee who has not been paid the legal minimum wage as required by Labor Code § 1197 may recover the unpaid balance together with attorneys' fees and costs of suit, as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the unpaid wages and interest accrued thereon.

23. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to conform their pay practices to the requirements of the law by failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Minimum Wage Class for all hours worked including, but not limited to, all hours they were subject to the control of Defendants and/or suffered or permitted to work under the California Labor Code and Wage Order 1.

1 24. California Labor Code § 1198 makes unlawful the employment of an employee
2 under conditions that the IWC prohibits. California Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide
3 that an employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay
4 those employees the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an
5 amount equal to the wages due and interest thereon.

6 25. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct as alleged 7 herein, Plaintiff and the Minimum Wage Class have sustained economic damages including, but 8 not limited to, unpaid wages and lost interest, in an amount to be established at trial, and are 9 entitled to recover economic and statutory damages and penalties and other appropriate relief as 10 a result of Defendants' violations of the California Labor Code and Wage Order 1.

11 26. The foregoing practices and policies are unlawful and create an entitlement to 12 recovery by Plaintiff and the members of the Minimum Wage Class in a civil action for the unpaid 13 amount of minimum wages owing, including interest thereon, liquidated damages, statutory and 14 civil penalties, attorney's fees, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code §§ 204, 558, 15 1194, 1197, and 1198, Wage Order 1, and Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

16 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

17 FAILURE TO PAY ALL OVERTIME WAGES

18 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

19 27. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

20 28. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 21 1198, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to all overtime wages and 22 compensation for all overtime hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure
23 to pay all overtime compensation for overtime work performed.

24 29. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to properly compensate
25 non-exempt employees, including Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class, for all overtime
26 hours worked pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194 and Wage Order 1. Wage Order 1, § 3 27 requires an employer to pay an employee "one and one-half (1½) times the employee's regular 28 rate of pay" for work in excess of 8 hours per work day and/or in excess of 40 hours of work in the workweek. Defendants caused Plaintiff to work overtime hours, but did not compensate Plaintiff or members of the Overtime Class with one and one-half times their regular rate of pay for such hours.

30. The foregoing policies and practices are unlawful and create an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class in a civil action for the unpaid amount of overtime premiums owing, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 216, 510, 1194, and 1198; and Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

31. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to provide all of their non-exempt employees in California, including Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class, with all legally compliant meal periods in accordance with the mandates of the California Labor Code and Wage Order 1, § 11. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants did not pay an additional hour of pay to Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class at their respective regular rates of pay, in accordance with California Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 226.7, and 512.

33. As a result, Defendants are responsible for paying premium compensation for meal period violations pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and Wage Order 1, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, civil penalties, and costs of suit.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

34. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

35. Wage Order 1, § 12 and Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516 establish the right of employees to be provided with a rest period of at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4) hour

1 period worked, or major fraction thereof.

2 36. As alleged herein, Defendants failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members
3 of the Rest Period Class to take all required rest periods.

4 37. The foregoing violations create an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and 5 members of the Rest Period Class in a civil action for the unpaid amount of rest period premiums
6 owing, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, civil penalties, and costs of suit according 7 to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, and Civil Code §§ 3287(b) and 3289.

8 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 WAGE STATEMENT VIOLATIONS

10 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

11 38. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

12 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
13 knowingly and intentionally, as a matter of uniform policy and practice, failed to furnish Plaintiff
14 and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements 15 that included, among other requirements, all hours worked, total gross wages earned, all rates of 16 pay and corresponding number of hours worked, total net wages earned, and the correct name of 17 the legal entity that is the employer in violation of Labor Code § 226 et seq.

18 40. Defendants' failure to furnish Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class
19 with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements resulted in actual injury, as said failures
20 led to, among other things, the non-payment of minimum and overtime wages and meal and rest 21 period premium wages owed, and deprived them of the information necessary to identify the 22 discrepancies in Defendants' reported data.

23 41. Defendants' failures create an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and members of 24 the Wage Statement Class in a civil action for all damages and/or penalties pursuant to Labor
25 Code § 226 et seq., including statutory penalties, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees, and 26 costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 226 et seq.

27 ///

28 ///

1 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 WAITING TIME PENALTIES

3 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

4 42. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

5 43. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201-203, which require
6 an employer to pay all wages immediately at the time of separation of employment in the event
7 the employer discharges the employee or the employee provides at least 72 hours of notice of 8 their intent to quit. In the event the employee provides less than 72 hours of notice of their intent
9 to quit, said employee's wages become due and payable not later than 72 hours upon said 10 employee's last date of employment.

11 44. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
12 failed to timely pay Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class all final wages due to them
13 at their separation from employment, including minimum and overtime wages, and meal and rest 14 period premium wages.

15 45. Further, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that as a 16 matter of uniform policy and practice, Defendants continue to fail to pay Plaintiff and members 17 of the Waiting Time Class all earned wages at the end of employment in a timely manner pursuant 18 to the requirements of Labor Code §§ 201-203.

19 46. Defendants' failure to pay all final wages was willful within the meaning of Labor
20 Code § 203. Defendants' willful failure to timely pay Plaintiff and the members of the Waiting 21 Time Class their earned wages upon separation from employment results in a continued payment 22 of wages up to thirty days from the time the wages were due.

23 47. Therefore, Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class are entitled to 24 compensation pursuant to Labor Code § 203, plus reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit.

25 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

26 UNFAIR COMPETITION

27 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

28 48. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

49. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business practices in California in violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq., by: (a) failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Minimum Wage Class all minimum wages; (b) failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class all overtime wages; (c) failing to provide Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class with all meal periods to which they are entitled, and/or failing to pay them meal period premium payments; (d) failing to authorize and permit all required duty-free rest periods to Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class, and/or failing to pay them rest period premiums payments; (e) knowingly failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Class with all accurate and complete, itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226; and/or (f) failing to timely pay all wages owed upon separation to Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class.

50. Defendants' utilization of these unfair and/or unlawful business practices deprived Plaintiff and continues to deprive members of the Classes of compensation to which they are legally entitled, constitutes unfair and/or unlawful competition, and provides an unfair advantage over Defendants' competitors who have been and/or are currently employing workers and attempting to do so in honest compliance with applicable wage and hour laws.

51. Because Plaintiff is a victim of Defendants' unfair and/or unlawful conduct alleged herein, Plaintiff for himself and on behalf of the members of the Classes, seeks full restitution of monies, as necessary and according to proof, to restore any and all monies withheld, acquired and/or converted by Defendants pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17203 and 17208.

52. The acts complained of herein occurred within the last four years immediately preceding the filing of the Plaintiff's Complaint.

53. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this Complaint to protect his interests and those of the Classes, to obtain restitution and injunctive relief on behalf of Defendants' current non-exempt employees, and to enforce important rights affecting the public interest. Plaintiff has thereby incurred the financial burden of attorneys' fees and costs, which he is entitled to recover under Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT
(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

54. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

55. Defendants have committed several Labor Code violations against Plaintiff, members of the Classes, and other aggrieved employees. Plaintiff, an “aggrieved employee” within the meaning of Labor Code § 2698 et seq., acting on behalf of himself and other aggrieved employees, brings this representative action against Defendants to recover the civil penalties due to Plaintiff, the members of the Classes, other aggrieved employees, and the State of California according to proof pursuant to Labor Code § 558 and § 2699 (a) and (f) including, but not limited to: (1) $100.00 for each initial violation for each failure to pay each employee and $200 for each subsequent violation or willful or intentional violation pursuant to Labor Code § 210 for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld; (2) $50.00 for each initial violation and $100 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 558 per employee per pay period; (3) $100.00 for each initial violation and $250.00 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 1197.1 per employee per pay period; (4) $250.00 for each initial violation and $1,000.00 for each subsequent violation of Labor Code § 226, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.3 per employee per pay period; and/or (5) $100.00 for each initial violation and $200 for each subsequent violation per employee per pay period for those violations of the Labor Code for which no civil penalty is specifically provided, based on the following Labor Code violations:

- a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees at least the minimum wage for all hours worked, in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, and 1198;
- b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees all earned overtime and/or double-time compensation, in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 558, 1194, and 1198;

- c. Failing to provide all legally required meal periods, and failure to pay meal period premium wages, to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees at the regular rate of compensation, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, and 1198;
- d. Failing to authorize and permit all legally required rest periods, and failure to pay rest period premium wages, to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees at the regular rate of compensation, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, and 1198;
- e. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226;
- f. Failing to timely pay all final wages and compensation earned by Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees at the time of separation of employment, in violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203;
- g. Failing to pay Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees all earned wages at least twice during each calendar month in violation of Labor Code § 204; and
- h. Failing to maintain accurate records on behalf of Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees in violation of Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1198.

56. On May 3, 2022, Plaintiff notified Defendants via certified mail, and notified the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) via its website, of Defendants’ violations of the California Labor Code and Plaintiff’s intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under California Labor Code § 2698 et seq. with respect to the violations of the California Labor Code identified in Paragraph 55 (a)-(h). Now that sixty-five days have passed from Plaintiff notifying Defendants and the LWDA of these violations, and the LWDA has not provided notice that it intends to investigate the violations, Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative requirements for bringing a claim under the Private Attorneys General Act with respect to these violations.

57. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to protect his interests and the interests of other aggrieved employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties owed by Defendants. Plaintiff has thereby incurred attorneys’ fees and costs, which he is entitled to recover under California Labor Code § 2699.
