ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT (LABOR CODE §§ 2698, *et seq.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff JESUS GUADARRAMA ESTRADA (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint (“Complaint”) against Defendants TN TRUSS COMPONENTS, INC., a California corporation, and DOES 1 to 50 (collectively “Defendants”), and on information and belief alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this Complaint for recovery of unpaid wages and penalties under California Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.2, 226.7, 246, 256, 510, 512, 516, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2698, et seq., and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order (“Wage Orders”), in addition to seeking injunctive relief, declaratory relief, and restitution. This Complaint is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants’ violations of the Labor Code because the amount in controversy exceeds $25,000.

2. Venue is proper in this judicial district because Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including Los Angeles County, and some of the acts and omissions complained of herein occurred in Los Angeles County. Furthermore, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants within Los Angeles County.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff is, and at all times relevant herein was, an individual over the age of eighteen (18) and is a California resident. Within the statute of limitations periods applicable to each cause of action pled herein, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee. Plaintiff was, and is, a victim of Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or customs complained of herein and has been deprived of the rights guaranteed by Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.2, 226.7, 246, 256, 510, 512, 516, 558,

1 558.1, 1174, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2698, et seq., and Wage Orders.

2 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the 3 applicable statute of limitations for each cause of action pled herein and continuing to the present,
4 Defendants engaged in, and continue to engage in, business, and employed Plaintiff and other,
5 similarly-situated non-exempt employees within Los Angeles County, and the State of California
6 and, therefore, were (and are) doing business in Los Angeles County and the State of California.

7 5. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 8 corporate, of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said
9 defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to 10 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed and 11 believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual,
12 partners, or corporate, was responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein,
13 and proximately caused Plaintiff and the Classes (as defined below) to be subject to the unlawful 14 employment practices, wrongs, injuries, and damages complained of herein.

15 6. At all times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of 16 the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendant; and furthermore,
17 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each of the other 18 defendants, as well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned, were acting 19 within the course and scope of said agency and employment.

20 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times
21 material hereto, each of the Defendants named herein was the agent, employee, alter ego and/or 22 joint venturer of, or working in concert with each of the other co-Defendants and was acting within 23 the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, or concerted activity. To the extent
24 said acts, conduct, and omissions were perpetrated by certain Defendants, each of the remaining 25 Defendants confirmed and ratified said acts, conduct, and omissions of the acting Defendants.

26 8. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, were members of, and 27 engaged in, a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course and 28 scope of, and in pursuance of, said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise.

1 9. At all times herein mentioned, the acts and omissions of various Defendants, and 2 each of them, concurred and contributed to the various acts and omissions of each and all of the 3 other Defendants in proximately causing the injuries and damages as herein alleged.

4 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

5 10. Defendants own and operate wall panels and framing firm in Lancaster, California.
6 Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt employee for more than 10 years until 7 approximately January 27, 2025 as a piece-rate laborer.

8 11. Labor Code § 226.2 applies to employees who are compensated on a piece-rate basis 9 for any work performed during a pay period and requires employers to establish compensation and 10 wage statement requirements for rest and recovery periods and “other nonproductive time” for 11 piece-rate employees. Due to Defendants’ unlawful schemeS, Defendants violated § 226.2 by 12 failing to separately compensate aggrieved employees who earned piece rates for rest and recovery
13 periods and other nonproductive time. Furthermore, during the relevant time period, Defendants 14 calculated wages due to aggrieved employees on a piece rate basis. However, instead of paying 15 these employees on a piece rate basis as required by law, Defendants converted these employees’
16 piece-rate compensation into a predetermined hourly rate and bonus, all to give the appearance of a
17 hourly rate and bonus structure. Defendants employed this unlawful scheme so as to avoid factoring 18 the piece rate into the regular rate for payment of wages.

19 12. Throughout Plaintiff’s employment with Defendants, Defendants’ timekeeping
20 and/or payroll policies and practices resulted in Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees not being 21 compensated for all hours actually worked. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees regularly 22 worked more than eight hours in a workday or 40 hours in a workweek. Upon information and 23 belief, Defendants required Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to perform work before their 24 scheduled shifts, after their scheduled shifts, and/or during off-the-clock meal breaks, and failed to 25 compensate employees for this time. Upon information and belief, Defendants also failed to 26 incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration, including piece rate
27 compensation, into the regular rate of pay. As a result, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees 28 were not compensated for all earned minimum and overtime wages.

1 13. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with all
2 legally compliant meal periods due to Defendants' meal period policies/practices, which have 3 frequently resulted in late (commencing after the fifth hour of work), short (less than 30 minutes),
4 and/or missed meal periods. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff and other non-exempt
5 employees were not able to take their legally compliant meal breaks due to work demands imposed
6 by Defendants. Upon information and belief, Defendants do not keep accurate records of Plaintiff's 7 and other non-exempt employees' hours worked, including accurate time records showing when 8 employees take their meal periods. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other non-exempt 9 employees were not provided with all legally compliant meal periods to which they were entitled,
10 Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with the required meal
11 period premium(s) for each workday there was a meal period violation as mandated by Labor Code 12 § 226.7.

13 14. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take 14 all required rest periods due to Defendants' unlawful rest period policies/practices, which failed to 15 authorize and permit a net 10-minute rest period for every four hours worked, or major fraction
16 thereof. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not able to take their legally compliant rest
17 breaks due to work demands imposed by Defendants. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other 18 non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take all legally compliant rest periods
19 to which they were entitled, Defendants failed to compensate them with the required rest period
20 premium(s) for each workday there was a rest period violation as mandated by Labor Code § 226.7.
21 Upon information and belief, Defendants maintained no mechanism for the payment of rest period
22 premium payments as required by Labor Code § 226.7, in the event that a legally compliant rest 23 period was not authorized and permitted to their non-exempt employees.

24 15. Additionally, upon information and belief, Defendants violated Labor Code § 246 by 25 failing to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration, including 26 piece rate compensation, into the paid sick leave pay rate.

27 16. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay all minimum and overtime wages, failure to 28 pay all meal and rest period premium wages, and unlawful timekeeping and payroll practices as

1 alleged above, Defendants maintained inaccurate payroll records and issued inaccurate wage
2 statements to Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees. As a further result of Defendants' failure to 3 pay all minimum and overtime wages, sick leave wages, and meal and rest period premium wages,
4 Defendants failed to timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff and other former non-exempt employees
5 upon their separation of employment from Defendants.

6 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

7 17. Class Definitions: Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and the following 8 Classes pursuant to § 382 of the California Code of Civil Procedure:

- 9 a. Minimum Wage Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants
10 in the State of California who were subject to Defendants' timekeeping and payroll 11 policies and/or practices, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of 12 this action through the present.
- 13 b. Overtime Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the 14 State of California who worked more than eight hours per day and/or 40 hours per 15 week and were subject to Defendants' timekeeping policies and/or practices, during 16 the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 17 c. Meal Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in 18 the State of California who: (i) worked at least one shift in excess of 5.0 hours;
19 and/or (ii) worked at least one shift in excess of 10.0 hours, during the four years
20 immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 21 d. Rest Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in 22 the State of California who worked at least one shift of 3.5 or more hours, during the 23 four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 24 e. Wage Statement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants
25 in the State of California who received a wage statement, during the one year
26 immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 27 f. Waiting Time Penalty Class: All of Defendants' formerly employed members of the 28 Minimum Wage Class, Overtime Class, Rest Period Class, and/or Meal Period Class

1 during the three years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the 2 present.

- 3 g. Piece-Rate Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in 4 the State of California who were subject to Defendants' piece-rate policies and 5 practices during the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action 6 through the present.

7 18. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The members of the Classes are so numerous that 8 joinder of all members would be impractical, if not impossible. The membership of the Classes is 9 unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, it is estimated that the members of the Classes number
10 greater than 50 individuals. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection
11 of Defendants' employment records, including payroll records.

12 19. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well-Defined Community of 13 Interest: There are predominant common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and members of 14 the Classes, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, 15 without limitation to:

- 16 a. Whether Defendants properly paid all overtime wages to members of the Overtime
17 Class;
18 b. Whether Defendants paid at least the minimum wage for all hours worked to 19 members of the Minimum Wage Class;
20 c. Whether Defendants provided all legally compliant meal periods or paid meal period
21 premium wages due to members of the Meal Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§
22 226.7 and 512;
23 d. Whether Defendants authorized and permitted all legally compliant rest periods or 24 paid all rest period premium wages due to members of the Rest Period Class
25 pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516;
26 e. Whether Defendants properly calculated piece-rate compensation and paid for rest
27 and recovery period and non-productive time to members of the Piece-Rate Class
28 pursuant to Labor Code § 226.2;

- 1 f. Whether Defendants furnished legally compliant wage statements to members of the 2 Wage Statement Class pursuant to Labor Code § 226; and
3 g. Whether Defendants timely paid all final wages to members of the Waiting Time
4 Class at the time of their separation of employment pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201
5 and 202.

6 These common questions of law and fact set forth above are numerous and substantial and 7 stem from Defendants' policies and/or practices applicable to each individual class member. As 8 such, the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual 9 class member's showing as to their eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of their damages.

10 20. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Classes because 11 Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the statute(s)
12 of limitations period applicable to each cause of action pled in the Complaint. As alleged herein,
13 Plaintiff, like the members of the Classes, was not paid all minimum and overtime wages owed due
14 to Defendants' timekeeping and payroll policies/practices, not provided all required meal periods,
15 not authorized and permitted all rest periods, did not receive premium pay for non-compliant meal
16 and rest periods, not paid properly as a piece-rate employee, not paid all final wages upon 17 separation of employment, and not provided with accurate, compliant, itemized wage statements.

18 21. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps
19 to represent fairly and adequately the interests of the members of the Classes. Moreover, Plaintiff's
20 attorneys are ready, willing and able to fully and adequately represent the members of the Classes
21 and Plaintiff. Plaintiff's attorneys have litigated numerous wage-and-hour class actions in state and 22 federal courts in the past and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the 23 members of the Classes.

24 22. Superiority: The Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an important
25 public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California. These laws 26 and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by employers who 27 have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of superior economic 28 and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The nature of this

1 action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and members of the Classes make the class
2 action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations alleged 3 herein. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily 4 gain an unconscionable advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited
5 resources of each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources.

6 23. Moreover, requiring each member of the Class(es) to pursue an individual remedy
7 would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file 8 an action against their former and/or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and 9 permanent damages to their careers at subsequent employment. The claims of the individual
10 members of the Class are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual prosecution 11 considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending hereto.

12 24. Furthermore, the prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members,
13 even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications
14 with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would establish 15 potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or legal determinations with 16 respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interest 17 of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which would substantially impair or 18 impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests. As such, the Classes identified 19 hereinabove are maintainable as classes under § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

20 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

21 MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS

22 (Against All Defendants)

23 25. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
24 fully set forth herein.

25 26. Labor Code §§ 1182.12, 1197, and Wage Orders, § 4 establish the right of 26 employees to be paid minimum wages for all hours worked, in amounts set by state or local law.
27 Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an employee who has not been paid the legal 28 minimum wage as required by Labor Code § 1197 may recover the unpaid balance together with

1 attorneys' fees and costs of suit, as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the unpaid
2 wages and interest accrued thereon. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to conform its 3 pay practices to the requirements of the law by failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the 4 Minimum Wage Class for all hours worked, including, but not limited to, all hours they were 5 subject to the control of Defendants and/or suffered or permitted to work under the Labor Code and 6 Wage Orders.

7 27. Labor Code § 1198 makes unlawful the employment of an employee under 8 conditions that the IWC prohibits. California Labor Code § 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an 9 employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay those 10 employees the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an amount 11 equal to the wages due and interest thereon.

12 28. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of minimum wages, Plaintiff and 13 members of the Minimum Wage Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid wages, including
14 interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§
15 218.6, 558, 1194, 1194.2, and 1199, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 16 3289.

17 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
18 OVERTIME WAGE VIOLATIONS
19 (Against All Defendants)

20 29. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
21 fully set forth herein.

22 30. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, 1198, and 23 Wage Orders, § 3, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to all overtime wages and 24 compensation for all overtime hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure to 25 pay all overtime compensation for overtime work performed.

26 31. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to properly compensate non-27 exempt employees, including Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class, for all overtime hours
28 worked pursuant to Labor Code § 1194 and Wage Orders. Wage Orders, § 3 requires an employer

1 to pay an employee one and one-half (1½) times and two times the employee's regular rate of pay
2 for overtime and double time hours work. Defendants caused Plaintiff and members of the Overtime
3 Class to work overtime hours but failed to compensate these employees for all overtime hours 4 actually worked.

5 32. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of overtime wages, Plaintiff and 6 members of the Overtime Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid overtime wages, including
7 interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§
8 204, 210, 216, 218.6, 510, 1194, and 1198; Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§
9 3287 and 3289.

10 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
11 MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS
12 (Against All Defendants)

13 33. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
14 fully set forth herein.

15 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed
16 in their affirmative obligation to provide all of their non-exempt employees in California, including 17 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class, with all legally compliant meal periods in 18 accordance with the mandates of the Labor Code and Wage Orders, § 11.

19 35. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants did not pay an additional hour of pay to 20 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class at their respective regular rates of compensation, in 21 accordance with California Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 226.7, and 512.

22 36. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful meal period practices, Plaintiff and 23 members of the Meal Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for meal period
24 violations including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, pursuant to Labor Code
25 §§ 226.7, 512, 558, Wage Orders, and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 37. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
5 fully set forth herein.

6 38. Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, and Wage Orders, § 12 and establish the right of 7 employees to be provided with a rest period of at least 10 minutes for each four-hour period
8 worked, or major fraction thereof. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 9 despite Defendants' failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class
10 to take all legally compliant rest periods as alleged herein, Defendants did not pay these individuals 11 an additional hour of pay at their respective regular rate for the rest periods that they failed to 12 authorize and permit them to take, as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

13 39. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful rest period practices, Plaintiff and 14 members of the Rest Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for rest period violations
15 including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees,
16 and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, Wage Orders, and Civil Code §§
17 3287 and 3289.

18 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 WAGE STATEMENT PENALTIES

20 (Against All Defendants)

21 40. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
22 fully set forth herein.

23 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
24 knowingly and intentionally, as a matter of uniform policy and practice, failed to furnish Plaintiff
25 and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements
26 that included, among other requirements, all hours worked, total gross wages earned, all rates of pay
27 and corresponding number of hours worked, total net wages earned, the inclusive dates of the pay 28 period, and/or the correct name and address of the legal entity that is the employer in violation of 1 Labor Code § 226.

2 42. Defendants' failure to furnish Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class 3 with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements resulted in actual injury, as said failures led 4 to, among other things, the non-payment of minimum and overtime wages and meal and rest period
5 premium wages owed and deprived them of the information necessary to identify the discrepancies
6 in Defendants' reported payroll data.

7 43. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful wage statement practices, Plaintiff and 8 members of the Wage Statement Class seek damages and/or statutory penalties, reasonable 9 attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 226.

10 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 WAITING TIME PENALTIES

12 (Against All Defendants)

13 44. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
14 fully set forth herein.

15 45. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201-203, which require an 16 employer to pay all wages immediately at the time of separation of employment in the event the 17 employer discharges the employee or the employee provides at least 72 hours of notice of their 18 intent to quit. In the event the employee provides less than 72 hours of notice of their intent to quit, 19 said employee's wages become due and payable not later than 72 hours upon said employee's last 20 date of employment.

21 46. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed
22 to timely pay Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class all final wages due to them at their 23 separation from employment, including unpaid minimum and overtime wages as well as unpaid 24 meal and rest period premium wages.

25 47. Furthermore, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that as a 26 matter of uniform policy and practice, Defendants continue to fail to pay Plaintiff and members of 27 the Waiting Time Class all earned wages at the end of employment in a timely manner pursuant to 28 the requirements of Labor Code §§ 201-202.

48. Defendants' failure to pay all final wages was willful within the meaning of Labor Code § 203. Defendants' willful failure to timely pay Plaintiff and the members of the Waiting Time Class their earned wages upon separation from employment results in continued payment of daily wages up to thirty days from the time the wages were due.

49. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful practices, Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class seek statutory penalties, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 203.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

PIECE-RATE VIOLATIONS

(Against All Defendants)

50. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

51. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were subject to Labor Code § 226.2 and its legal requirements for piece-rate employees.

52. Defendants violated Labor Code § 226.2 by failing to meet the legal requirements for piece-rate employees. .

53. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful practices, Plaintiff and members of the class seek recovery of unpaid wages, including interest thereon, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code § 226.2.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

UNFAIR COMPETITION

(Against All Defendants)

54. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.
