DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff Larry Atkins (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated non-2 exempt employees, alleges and complains of Defendant ITS Logistics, LLC. (“Defendant”) and 3 DOES 1 to 50 (collectively, “Defendants”) and each of them, as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. Defendant is a third-party logistics (3PL) company specializing in comprehensive
6 supply chain solutions, including network transportation, drayage, intermodal services, distribution,
7 fulfillment, supply chain management, and warehousing.

8 2. Plaintiff brings this class action lawsuit against Defendant for alleged violations of the 9 California Labor Code and Business and Professions Code.

10 3. As set forth below, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay for all hours worked 11 due to its failure to record and pay for all time worked off the clock. Plaintiff further alleges that 12 Defendant failed to pay all overtime and sick pay compensation at the proper legal rates by failing to 13 properly calculate the “regular rate of pay.” Moreover, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant’s meal and 14 rest period policies and practices failed to allow and permit non-exempt employees to take all 15 compliant and timely meal and rest periods or pay premium wages at the “regular rate of pay” in lieu 16 thereof. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant failed to pay reporting time pay and failed to provide 17 non-exempt employees with accurate written itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code §
18 226(a), failed to reimburse all necessary business expenses incurred, and failed to timely pay all final 19 wages upon separation of employment in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203.

20 4. Plaintiff also brings a claim for civil penalties based on the foregoing Labor Code
21 violations under the Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”).

22 5. Based on these alleged Labor Code violations, Plaintiff now brings this class action 23 and representative action to recover unpaid wages, restitution, penalties, and other related relief for 24 himself and all other similarly situated non-exempt employees.

25 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

26 6. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated employees hereby bring 27 this class action for recovery of unpaid wages and penalties under California Labor Code §§ 201-
28 203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226(a)(6), 226(e), 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 516, 1194, 1197.1, 1199,

1 2802-2804, and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders (“Wage Orders”), in 2 addition to seeking declaratory relief and restitution pursuant to California Business and Professions
3 Code § 17200, et seq.

4 7. This class action is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

5 8. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant’s violations of the California Labor Code
6 and applicable Wage Orders because the amount in controversy exceeds this Court’s jurisdictional 7 minimum.

8 9. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure
9 §§ 395(a) and 395.5, Defendant operates in California within the County of San Joaquin, and 10 Defendant is within the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of service of process.

11 PARTIES

12 10. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff, who is over 18, was and currently is a California
13 resident residing in the State of California.

14 11. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and alleges that Defendants are authorized to do
15 business within the County of San Joaquin and is and/or was the legal employer of Plaintiff and the 16 Class Members during the applicable statutory periods. Plaintiff was, and is, a victim of Defendants’
17 policies and/or practices complained of herein and has been deprived of the rights guaranteed to him
18 by California Labor Code §§ 201-203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226(a)(6), 226(e), 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 246,
19 510, 512, 516, 1194, 1197.1, 1199, 2802-2804, and the California Business and Professions Code §
20 17200 et seq., and applicable Wage Orders.

21 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the four years 22 preceding the filing of the Complaint and continuing to the present, Defendants did (and continue to 23 do) business in the State of California, County of San Joaquin.

24 13. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 25 corporate, of the Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said
26 Defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to 27 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed, and 28 believes, and thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious Defendants, whether individual, partners, or

1 corporate, were responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein, and
2 proximately caused Plaintiff and the Classes to be subject to the unlawful employment practices
3 alleged herein.

4 14. Plaintiff is informed, and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times mentioned
5 herein, Defendants were and are the employers of Plaintiff and all members of the Classes. At all
6 times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of the acts hereinafter
7 alleged to have been done by the named Defendants. Furthermore, the Defendants, and each of them,
8 were the agents, servants, and employees of each and every one of the other Defendants, as well as 9 the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned, were acting within the course and 10 scope of said agency and employment. Defendants, and each of them, approved of, condoned, and/or 11 otherwise ratified each and every one of the acts or omissions complained of herein.

12 15. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants, and each of them, were members of and 13 engaged in a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise and acting within the course and 14 scope of and in pursuance of said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise. Further, Plaintiff
15 alleges that all Defendants were joint employers for all purposes of Plaintiff and all members of the 16 Classes.

17 COMMON FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

18 16. Defendant is a third-party logistics (3PL) company specializing in comprehensive
19 supply chain solutions, including network transportation, drayage, intermodal services, distribution,
20 fulfillment, supply chain management, and warehousing.

21 17. Plaintiff is employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee with the title of “Local 22 Driver” starting on January 16, 2022.

23 18. Based in Stockton, California, he performs essential duties critical to the company’s 24 operations. Along with Mr. Atkins, other non-exempt employees—such as Yard Hostlers, Local 25 Drivers, Delivery Drivers, Loaders, Warehouse Associates, Terminal Operators, and Customer
26 Service Representatives—play vital roles in supporting ITS Logistics’ daily operations and 27 contributing to the company’s success across California

28 ///

1 19. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were responsible for a wide range of tasks
2 critical to the company's operations, such as warehousing, driving, sales, and overall logistics
3 services. Their work ensured the effective operation of Defendant's assets. Despite the essential
4 nature of their contributions, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees allege that Defendant failed
5 to comply with California labor laws, including but not limited to accurate timekeeping, proper wage 6 payment, and provision of meal and rest periods, as set forth below.

7 20. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees regularly worked 8 various shifts, many of which were more than 8.0 hours in a workday and 40.0 hours in a workweek.
9 Plaintiff alleges that other non-exempt employees were also subjected to the same policies, 10 procedures, practices, working conditions, and corresponding wage and hour violations to which he 11 was subjected during his employment.

12 21. First, at all relevant times, Defendant has consistently failed to accurately record and 13 pay for all time worked, including the time non-exempt employees were under the employer's control.
14 This included a policy and practice of failing to properly record non-exempt employees' time worked,
15 including all time spent working off the clock, such as conducting required pre and post shift duties.
16 As a result of this company-wide policy/practice, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees are not 17 compensated for all the hours that they work and all of the overtime hours they work, in violation of 18 Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 1194, 1197.1, 1199, and applicable Wage Orders.

19 22. As a result, over a period of time, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not 20 properly paid for all hours worked in violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 1194, 1197.1, 1199,
21 and applicable Wage Orders. Additionally, due to the unlawful timekeeping policy/practices, Plaintiff
22 and other non-exempt employees were not properly paid at the correct overtime rate for hours worked 23 in excess of eight hours per shift in violation of Labor Code § 510.

24 23. Labor Code § 1197.1 authorizes employees who are paid less than the minimum fixed 25 by an applicable state or local law or by an order of the commission a civil penalty, restitution of 26 wages, and liquidated damages as follows: (1) for any initial violation that is intentionally committed,
27 one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee
28 is underpaid....[and] (2) [f]or each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred

1 fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee is 2 underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation was intentionally committed.

3 24. Labor Code § 510 requires an employer to compensate an employee who works more
4 than eight (8) hours in one workday, forty (40) hours in a workweek, and for the first eight (8) hours
5 worked on the seventh consecutive day, no less than one and one-half times (1 1/2) the regular rate of 6 pay. In addition, Labor Code § 510 obligates employers to compensate employees at no less than 7 twice the regular rate of pay when an employee works more than twelve (12) hours in a workday or 8 more than eight (8) hours on the seventh consecutive day of work. Pursuant to Section 3 of the 9 applicable Wage Orders, non-exempt employees shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in 10 any workday or more than 40 hours in any workweek unless the employee receives one and one-half 11 (1 1/2) times such employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 hours in the workweek.

12 25. Furthermore, at all relevant times, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees worked 13 regular shifts that lasted longer than 8.0 hours in a workday and resulted in non-exempt employees
14 regularly working more than 40 hours in a workweek. However, Defendant failed to properly
15 calculate and pay overtime wages at the proper legal rate due to Defendant's uniform failure to 16 include all forms of compensation/remuneration, including, but not limited to, commissions,
17 incentives, shift pay, non-discretionary bonuses, and all other forms of remuneration in calculating 18 the "regular rate of pay" for purposes of overtime compensation.

19 26. Under the California Labor Code (as well as the FLSA), courts have consistently held 20 that regularly paid non-discretionary bonuses (and other forms of pay) must be included in 21 determining an employee's "regular rate of pay" for purposes of calculating overtime. (See Haber v.
22 The Americana Corp. 378 F. 2d 854, 855-856 (9th Cir. 1967) [holding that regularly paid efficiency
23 bonuses must be included in calculating the "regular rate"]; Wang v. Chinese Daily News, Inc. 435 F.
24 Supp. 2d 1042, 1055-1057 (C.D. Cal. 2006) [granting summary judgment to Plaintiff under California
25 and federal law on the grounds, that Defendant improperly calculated overtime by excluding annual 26 bonuses paid to employees from the "regular rate of compensation"]; see Walling v. Youngerman-
27 Reynolds Hardwood Co. (1945) 65 S.Ct. 1242, 1245. ("The regular rate by its very nature must reflect 28 all payments which the parties have agreed shall be received regularly during the workweek,

1 exclusive of overtime payments. It is not an arbitrary label chosen by the parties but an actual fact.
2 Once the parties have decided upon the amount of wages and the mode of payment, the determination
3 of the regular rate becomes a matter of mathematical computation, the result of which is unaffected
4 by any designation of a contrary ‘regular rate’ in the contracts.”); see also 29 CFR §§ 778.110
5 (“production bonus”) and 778.111 (“piece-rate”).

6 27. By their policy of requiring Plaintiff and the other non-exempt employees to work in 7 excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and/or forty (40) hours in a workweek without compensating
8 them at the lawful rate of one-half (1 1/2) their “regular rate of pay,” Defendant willfully violated the 9 provisions of Labor Code § 510 and the applicable Wage Orders.

10 28. Similarly, at all relevant times, Defendant also failed in its obligation to provide 11 Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees the legally required paid sick days at the legal rate pursuant 12 to Labor Code §§ 246(a),(b), which requires that “[a]n employee who, on or after July 1, 2015, works
13 in California for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of 14 employment is entitled to paid sick days. . . at the rate of not less than one hour per every 30 hours
15 worked, beginning at the commencement of employment.” Labor Code § 246(l)(1) provides that paid 16 sick time for non-exempt employees must be “calculated in the same manner as the regular rate of 17 pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time, whether or not the employee 18 actually works overtime in that workweek.”

19 29. Additionally, Labor Code § 246(l)(2) states that the paid sick time must be “calculated 20 by dividing the employee’s total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee’s total
21 hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.” Finally, Labor Code §246(i) 22 requires employers to “provide an employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid
23 sick leave available, or paid time off leave an employer provides in lieu of sick leave, for use on either
24 the employee’s itemized wage statement described in Section 226 or in a separate writing provided 25 on the designated pay date with the employee’s payment of wages.”

26 30. Here, at all relevant times, Defendant failed in its obligation to provide Plaintiff and 27 other non-exempt employees the legally required paid sick days at the appropriate “regular rate of 28 pay,” including all forms of compensation, pursuant to Labor Code §§ 246(a), (b). As such, Defendant

1 paid sick time below his base rate of pay rather than the “regular rate of pay” as required by Labor
2 Code §§ 246(l) (1-2).

3 31. Moreover, at all relevant times, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were denied
4 compliant and timely 30-minute off-duty meal periods as mandated by California law. Due to 5 Defendant’s uniform meal period policies/practices, operational requirements, and work demands,
6 Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees often could not take timely and uninterrupted net 30-
7 minute first meal periods before the end of the fifth hour of work. Further, when Plaintiff and other
8 non-exempt employees worked more than 10.0 hours in a shift, they were not allowed and permitted 9 to take a mandated second meal period before the end of the tenth hour of work in violation of the 10 Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders. Indeed, Plaintiff’s and other non-exempt employees’ meal
11 periods were often interrupted and/or lasted fewer than 30 minutes due to Defendant’s meal period 12 policies/procedures, operational requirements, and work demands.

13 32. In addition, for each missed or non-compliant meal period, Defendant failed and 14 continues to fail to maintain a mechanism by which non-exempt employees were paid meal period
15 premiums at the “regular rate of pay” pursuant to Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC (2021) 11
16 5th 858 and Labor Code § 226.7.

17 33. Accordingly, due to Defendant’s uniform meal period practices, non-exempt
18 employees were also regularly denied legally compliant meal periods in violation of Labor Code §§
19 226.7, 510, 516, and applicable Wage Orders.

20 34. Next, at all relevant times, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not 21 provided with all 10-minute rest periods for every four hours worked, or a major fraction thereof, due 22 to Defendant’s uniform rest period policies/practices, operational requirements and work demands.
23 As a result, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were and are often unable to take a net 10-
24 minute duty-free rest period for every major fraction of four hours worked. This includes a second 25 rest period for shifts in excess of six hours and a third rest period for shifts in excess of 10.0 hours in 26 a workday.

27 35. By not relieving all non-exempt employees of all duties during rest periods, Defendant
28 failed to provide legally compliant rest periods. See Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016)

1 2 Cal. 5th 257, 269 [concluding that “during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all
2 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time.”] (Emphasis added). In Augustus,
3 the California Supreme Court expressly rejected the employer’s assertion that it could provide an on-
4 duty rest period to employees who worked as security guards and further explained: “that employers
5 [must] relinquish any control over how employees spend their break time and relieve their employees
6 of all duties.” Id. at 273. Each time non-exempt employees could not take a compliant rest period;
7 Defendant failed and continues to fail to adequately pay rest period premium payments at the “regular 8 rate of pay” as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

9 36. Accordingly, due to Defendant’s uniform rest period policies/practices, non-exempt
10 employees were regularly denied legally compliant rest breaks in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 11 512, and applicable Wage Orders.

12 37. Moreover, pursuant to Wage Order 9, Section 5, Defendant was required to pay
13 Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees reporting time pay when they reported to work as required
14 but were not provided sufficient work or worked fewer than half of their scheduled or usual hours.
15 Specifically, Defendant was required to pay these employees at least half their scheduled or usual 16 hours at their regular rate of pay, with a minimum of 2 hours and a maximum of 4 hours.

17 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that during the relevant time
18 period, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees the required reporting time
19 pay. Defendant knowingly and intentionally failed to provide reporting time pay as required by Wage 20 Order 9, Section 5, resulting in the systematic underpayment of wages to Plaintiff and other non-21 exempt employees.

22 39. As a result of Defendant’s unlawful practices, Plaintiff and other non-exempt 23 employees have suffered economic harm, including but not limited to lost wages, and are entitled to 24 recover all unpaid reporting time wages pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 558.

25 40. Moreover, as a result of Defendant’s failure to pay Plaintiff and other non-exempt
26 employees for all hours they were subject to the control of Defendant, including all minimum,
27 overtime, sick pay and reporting time pay wages, Defendant’s failure to adequately pay for all 28 overtime and sick pay wages at the appropriate legal rate, and Defendant’s failure to pay all meal and

1 rest period premiums at the “regular rate of pay,” Defendant issued wage statements which failed to 2 identify the gross wages earned accurately, the total hours worked, the net wages earned, and the 3 correct corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate, in violation of Labor Code §
4 226(a)(1, 2, 5, and 9).

5 41. Labor Code § 226.3 provides that “[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) of 6 Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per 7 employee per violation in an initial violation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 8 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage
9 deduction statement or fails to keep the required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.”

10 42. Thus, for the violations of Labor Code section 226 described above, Plaintiff and other 11 non-exempt employees may also recover Labor Code § 226.3 penalties for Defendant’s violations of 12 Labor Code § 226(a). Consequently, because Defendant failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a),
13 Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees would be entitled to recover penalties under Labor Code § 14 226(e).

15 43. Furthermore, because Defendant failed to pay all minimum, overtime, and sick pay 16 wages, and meal and rest period premiums at the “regular rate of pay,” Defendant also failed and 17 continues to fail to pay Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees all wages owed at their time of 18 separation from employment in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203. Thus, non-exempt employees
19 would be entitled to recover waiting time penalties under Labor Code §§ 201-203.

20 44. Finally, at all relevant times, Defendant required Plaintiff and other non-exempt
21 employees to incur necessary expenses for work-related purposes but did not reimburse non-exempt
22 employees adequately for these necessary expenditures in violation of Labor Code §§ 2802-2804.
23 Here, Defendant uniformly failed to reimburse non-exempt employees for the necessary costs
24 incurred in discharging their duties. (See Cochran v. Schwan’s Home Service, Inc., (2014) 228
25 Cal.App.4th 1137, 1144 “[i]f an employee is required to make work-related calls on a personal cell
26 phone, then he or she is incurring an expense for the purposes of section 2802. It does not matter
27 whether the phone bill is paid for by a third person or at all...To show liability under section 2802, an 28 employee needs only to show that he or she was required to use a personal cell phone to make work-

1 related calls, and he or she was not reimbursed”].) Accordingly, due to Defendant’s uniform failure
2 to adequately reimburse for necessary business expenditures in violation of Labor Code §§ 2802-
3 2804 and applicable Wage Orders.

4 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

5 45. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and the following Classes pursuant to 6 § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure:

7 All current or former non-exempt hourly employees who work or worked 8 for Defendant in California during the four years immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint through the date of trial. (the “Class”);

9 All current or former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in 10 California and worked overtime hours during at least one shift during the 11 four years immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint through the date of trial. (“the Overtime Subclass”);

12 All current or former employees who work or worked for Defendant in 13 California during the one year immediately preceding the filing of the 14 Complaint through the date of trial. (“the Wage Statement Subclass”)

15 All employees who work or worked for Defendant in California and who 16 left their employment during the three years immediately preceding the 17 filing of the Complaint through the date of trial. (“Waiting Time Penalty Subclass”)

18 (collectively “the Classes”)

19 46. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The members of the Classes are so numerous that 20 joinder of all members would be unfeasible and not practicable. The membership of the Classes is 21 unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, it is estimated that the Classes consist of at least one 22 hundred (100) individuals. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of 23 Defendant’s employment and payroll records.

24 47. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well-Defined Community of 25 Interest: There are common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and all other similarly situated 26 non-exempt employees, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members 27 including, without limitation to:

28 1. Whether Defendant failed to record and pay for all hours worked by Class Members;

2. Whether Defendant failed to properly calculate the “regular rate of pay” for purposes of paying overtime and sick pay wages to the members of the Class;

3. Whether Defendant failed to pay for reporting time pay wages to the members of the Class;

4. Whether Defendant provided legally compliant meal and rest periods or proper compensation at the “regular rate of pay” in lieu thereof to members of the Class;

5. Whether Defendant furnished legally compliant wage statements to members of the Wage Statement Subclass pursuant to Labor Code § 226(a);

6. Whether the timing and amount of payment of final wages to members of the Waiting Time Penalty Subclass at the time of separation from employment were unlawful; and

7. Whether Defendant failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary business expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2802-2804.

48. Predominance of Common Questions: Common questions of law and fact predominate over questions that affect only individual members of the Classes. The common questions of law set forth above are numerous and substantial and stem from Defendant’s policies and/or practices applicable to each individual class member, such as without limitation, Defendant’s failure to pay for all hours worked, Defendant’s failure to properly pay overtime and sick pay wages, Defendant’s failure to pay for reporting time pay wages, Defendant’s failure to provide all compliant meal and rest periods or premiums at the “regular rate of pay” in lieu thereof, Defendant’s failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, Defendant’s failure to pay for all wages due upon separation of employment, and Defendant’s failure to reimburse for all necessary business expenses. As such, the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each class member’s showing as to his or her eligibility for recovery or the amount of his or her damages.

49. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Classes because Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee in California during the statute(s) of limitation applicable to each cause of action pled in the Complaint in this action. As alleged herein, Plaintiff, like the members of the Classes, was deprived of minimum, overtime, sick pay and reporting time pay wages, was deprived of meal and rest period premium wages, was subject to Defendant’s

1 uniform meal and rest period policies/practices, was not provided accurate itemized wage statements,
2 was not timely paid all wages owed upon separation of employment and was not reimbursed for all
3 necessary business expenses.

4 50. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps to 5 represent fairly and adequately the interests of the members of the Classes. Moreover, Plaintiff's
6 attorneys are ready, willing, and able to fully and adequately represent the members of the Classes.
7 Plaintiff's attorneys have prosecuted and are actively litigating several wage-and-hour class actions
8 in state and federal courts and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the 9 members of the Classes.

10 51. Superiority: The California Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an 11 important public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California.
12 These laws and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by 13 employers who have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of 14 superior economic and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The 15 nature of this action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and members of the Classes make 16 the class action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations
17 alleged herein. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendant would 18 necessarily gain an unconscionable advantage since they could exploit and overwhelm the limited 19 resources of each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources.

20 52. Moreover, requiring each member of the Classes to pursue an individual remedy would 21 also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file an action
22 against their former and/or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and permanent 23 damages to their careers at subsequent employment. Further, the prosecution of separate actions by 24 the individual class members, even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or 25 varying verdicts or adjudications with respect to the individual class members against Defendant
26 herein and which would establish potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendant; and/or 27 legal determinations with respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, be 28 dispositive of the interest of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which would

1 substantially impair or impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests. Further, the 2 claims of the individual members of the class are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual
3 prosecution considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending thereto. As such, the 4 Classes identified in Paragraph 45 are maintainable as Classes under § 382 of the Code of Civil 5 Procedure.

6 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
7 MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS
8 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

9 53. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

10 54. Section 4 of the applicable Wage Order(s) and Labor Code §§ 1197 and 1182.12
11 establish the right of employees to be paid minimum wages for all hours worked, in amounts set by 12 state law. Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an employee who has not been paid the 13 legal minimum wage as required by Labor Code § 1197 may recover the unpaid balance together
14 with attorneys' fees and costs of suit, as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the unpaid 15 wages and interest accrued thereon.

16 55. At all relevant times herein, Defendant failed to record all time accurately worked,
17 including failing to record time worked properly and all time spent working off-the-clock, including,
18 but not limited to, pre and post shifts tasks, which resulted in these individuals not being paid for all
19 hours they actually suffered or permitted to work. Accordingly, Plaintiff and members of the Classes 20 were not compensated for all hours worked, including all hours they were subject to the control of 21 Defendant and/or suffered or permitted to work under the Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

22 56. Labor Code § 1198 makes an employee's employment unlawful under conditions the 23 Industrial Welfare Commission prohibits. Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an 24 employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay those 25 employees the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal 26 to the wages due and interest thereon.

27 57. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's unlawful conduct as alleged herein,
28 Plaintiff and the Classes have sustained economic damages, including but not limited to unpaid wages

1 and lost interest, in an amount to be established at trial, and they are entitled to recover economic and
2 statutory damages and penalties and other appropriate relief as a result of Defendant's violations of 3 the Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

4 58. Defendant's practice and uniform administration of corporate policy regarding illegal
5 employee compensation is unlawful and creates an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and members
6 of the Classes in a civil action for the unpaid amount of minimum wages, liquidated damages,
7 including interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorney's fees, and costs of suit according to Labor
8 Code §§ 204, 558, 1194 et seq., 1197, 1198, and Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

9 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

10 FAILURE TO PAY ALL OVERTIME WAGES

11 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

12 59. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all previous paragraphs by reference.

13 60. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 558, 1194,
14 and 1198, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to overtime wages for all overtime
15 hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure to pay all overtime compensation 16 for overtime work performed.

17 61. At all times relevant herein, Defendant was required to properly pay Plaintiff and 18 members of the Overtime Subclass for all overtime hours worked pursuant to California Labor Code
19 § 1194 and the applicable Wage Orders.

20 62. Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order requires an employer to pay an employee "one 21 and one-half (1 1/2) times the employee's regular rate of pay" for work in excess of 8 hours per 22 workday and/or in excess of 40 hours of work in the workweek. The same section also requires an 23 employer to pay an employee double the employee's regular rate of pay for work in excess of twelve 24 hours each workday and/or for work in excess of 8 hours on the seventh consecutive day of work in 25 the workweek. Defendant caused Plaintiff to work overtime and hours but did not compensate
26 Plaintiff or members of the Overtime Subclass at one and one-half times their "regular rate of pay"
27 for such hours.

28 ///

63. Defendant failed to conform its pay practices to the requirements of the law. At all relevant times herein, Defendant failed to conform their pay practices to the requirements of the law. This unlawful conduct includes, but is not limited to, Defendant's failure to pay for all hours properly worked off-the-clock, such as conducting required pre and post shift duties, as alleged herein above, and Defendant's failure to include all forms of compensation, including, but not limited to, non-discretionary bonuses, shift pay, and other incentive pay in calculating the "regular rate of pay," which resulted in these individuals not being paid for all overtime hours worked.

64. The foregoing policies and practices are unlawful and create an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and the members of the Overtime Subclass in a civil action for the unpaid amount of overtime wages, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorney's fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 1194, and 1198, the applicable Wage Orders, and Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

65. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all previous paragraphs by reference.

66. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant failed in its affirmative obligation to provide all of their hourly non-exempt employees, including Plaintiff and members of the Class, with all required meal periods in accordance with the mandates of the California Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders, for the reasons set forth in the Common Allegations section of this Complaint.

67. Despite Defendant's violations, Defendant has not paid an additional hour of pay at the "regular rate of pay" to Plaintiff and Class members at their respective regular rates of pay for each violation, per California Labor Code § 226.7.

68. As a result, Defendant is responsible for paying premium compensation for meal period violations, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit pursuant to the applicable Wage Orders, Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and Civil Code §§ 3287(b) and 3289.

1 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

3 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

4 69. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all previous paragraphs by reference.

5 70. Section 12 of the applicable Wage Orders and Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516 establish 6 the right of non-exempt employees to be provided with a rest period of at least ten (10) minutes for 7 each four (4) hour period worked, or major fraction thereof.

8 71. Due to its unlawful rest period policy/practices and operational requirements/work
9 demands, Defendant did not authorize and permit Plaintiff and Class members to take all rest periods 10 to which they were legally entitled.

11 72. Despite Defendant's violations, Defendant has not paid an additional hour of pay at 12 the "regular rate of pay" to Plaintiff and Class members at their respective regular rates of pay for 13 each violation, per California Labor Code § 226.7.

14 73. The foregoing violations create an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and members
15 of the Class in a civil action for the unpaid amount of rest period premiums owing, including interest
16 thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit pursuant to the applicable Wage Orders, Labor Code §§
17 226.7 and 516, and Civil Code §§ 3287(b) and 3289.

18 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 FAILURE TO PAY ALL SICK TIME

20 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

21 74. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

22 75. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 246, 558, 1194.2, 1197.1,
23 1198, and 1199 which provide that "[a]n employee who, on or after July 1, 2015, works in California 24 for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of employment is 25 entitled to paid sick days. . . at the rate of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked, beginning 26 at the commencement of employment."

27 76. At all times relevant herein, Defendant was required to properly pay Plaintiff and Class
28 members for all sick time pursuant to California Labor Code § 246 and the applicable Wage Orders.

77. Labor Code § 246(l)(1) provides that paid sick time for non-exempt employees must be “calculated in the same manner as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time, whether or not the employee actually works overtime in that workweek.” Additionally, Labor Code § 246(l)(2) states that the paid sick time must be “calculated by dividing the employee’s total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee’s total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.” Finally, Labor Code §246(i) requires employers to “provide an employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available, or paid time off leave an employer provides in lieu of sick leave, for use on either the employee’s itemized wage statement described in Section 226 or in a separate writing provided on the designated pay date with the employee’s payment of wages.”

78. Defendant failed in its obligation to provide Plaintiff and the Class the legally required paid sick days at the legal rate pursuant to Labor Code §§ 246(a),(b). Plaintiff and the Class members were not paid at the correct “regular rate of pay.”

79. The foregoing policies and practices are unlawful and create an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and the members of the Class in a civil action for the unpaid amount of wages, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorney's fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 246.1192, 1194 et seq., 1197, 1198, the applicable Wage Orders, and Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY REPORTING TIME PAY

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

80. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

81. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Wage Order 9, Section 5. Defendant was required to pay Plaintiff, and the members of the Class reporting time pay when they reported to work as required but were not provided sufficient work or worked fewer than half of their scheduled or usual hours. Specifically, Defendant was required to pay these employees at least half their scheduled or usual hours at their regular rate of pay, with a minimum of 2 hours and a maximum of 4 hours.

82. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that during the relevant time period, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the members of the Class the required reporting time

1 pay, including but not limited to the following circumstances:

2 a) Plaintiff and the members of the Class were required to report to work as scheduled but 3 were sent home without being assigned any work; and

4 b) Plaintiff and the members of the Class were required to report to work and worked fewer
5 than half their scheduled or usual hours but were not compensated for the remaining hours as required
6 by Wage Order 9.

7 83. Defendant knowingly and intentionally failed to provide reporting time pay as 8 required by Wage Order 9, Section 5, resulting in the systematic underpayment of wages to Plaintiff
9 and the members of the Class.

10 84. As a result of Defendant's unlawful practices, Plaintiff and the members of the Class
11 have suffered economic harm, including but not limited to lost wages, and are entitled to recover all 12 unpaid reporting time wages pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 558.

13 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS
15 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

16 85. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all previous paragraphs by reference.

17 86. Labor Code 226(a) states in pertinent part the following:

18 “(a) An employer, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages,
19 shall furnish to his or her employee, either as a detachable part of the check, 20 draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately if wages are 21 paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing
22 showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, 23 (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the 24 employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all 25 deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and 26 shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the 27 period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and 28 only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

1 87. As set forth above, during the Class Period, Defendant issued and continues to issue
2 wage statements to its employees, including Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Subclass, 3 which are inadequate under Labor Code Section § 226(a).

4 88. As a result of Defendant's failure to pay Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Subclass
5 for all minimum, overtime, sick pay wages and missed meal and rest period premiums at the 6 appropriate legal rate, Defendant failed to include required information on Plaintiff and the Wage
7 Statement Subclass' wage statements, including, but not limited to, the gross wages earned, the net
8 wages earned in violation of Labor Code section 226(a), (1,2,5, and 9).

9 89. Defendant's failure to comply with section 226(a) of the Labor Code was knowing 10 and intentional.

11 90. As a result of Defendant's issuance of inaccurate itemized wage statements to Plaintiff
12 and members of the Wage Statement Subclass in violation of section 226(a) of the California Labor
13 Code, Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Subclass are each entitled to recover an initial 14 penalty of $50, and subsequent penalties of $100, up to an amount not exceeding an aggregate penalty
15 of $4,000 per Plaintiff and per every member of the Wage Statement Subclass from Defendant's 16 pursuant to section 226(e) of the Labor Code, costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

17 EIGHT CAUSE OF ACTION

18 WAITING TIME PENALTIES

19 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

20 91. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all previous paragraphs by reference.

21 92. The actionable period for this cause of action is three years before the filing of this 22 Complaint through the present and ongoing until the violation is corrected, or the class is certified.

23 93. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 require Defendant to pay all compensation due and owing 24 to Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Subclass during the actionable period for this cause of action at or 25 around the time their employment is terminated or ended.

26 94. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay compensation 27 promptly upon discharge or resignation, as required by Labor Code sections 201 and 202, the 28 employer is liable for penalties for continued compensation up to thirty (30) workdays.

95. Defendant willfully failed to pay the Waiting Time Subclass for all hours worked, including all minimum, overtime, sick pay wages, and their meal and rest period premiums at the “regular rate of pay” before or upon termination or separation from employment with Defendant as required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

96. As a result, Defendant is liable to the Waiting Time Subclass for waiting time penalties amounting to thirty (30) days wages for Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Subclass pursuant to Labor Code § 203. See, e.g., DLSE Manual, 4.3.4 (Failure to pay any sort of wages due upon termination entitles an employee to recover waiting time penalties).

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO REIMBURSE FOR NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENDITURES

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

97. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

98. Labor Code 2802(a) states in pertinent part the following: “(a) An employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful.”

99. As set forth above, Plaintiff and Class members must be compensated for all necessary business expenditures, including, but not limited to, a reasonable portion of their monthly personal cell phone bills incurred in the discharge of their duties. (See Cochran v. Schwan's Home Service, Inc. (2014) 228 Cal.App.4th 1137 (“We hold that when employees must use their personal cell phones for work-related calls, Labor Code section 2802 requires the employer to reimburse them. Whether the employees have cell phone plans with unlimited minutes or limited minutes, the reimbursement owed is a reasonable percentage of their cell phone bills.”)).

100. At all relevant times, Defendant has failed to comply with Labor Code Section 2802 and the applicable Wage Orders by failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for all necessary business expenditures.

1 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 UNFAIR COMPETITION

3 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

4 101. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

5 102. Defendant has engaged and continues to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business
6 practices in California in violation of California Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq., by 7 failing to pay for all hours worked, by failing to pay all overtime and sick pay wages at the proper
8 legal rate, by failing to pay reporting time pay wages, by failing to provide all legally required meal 9 and rest periods or pay premium payments at the “regular rate of pay” in lieu thereof, by failing to 10 provide accurate wage statements, by failing to pay all earned wages at the time of separation from 11 employment, and by failing to reimburse for all necessary business expenses adequately.

12 103. Defendant’s utilization of these unfair and/or unlawful business practices deprived
13 Plaintiff and continues to deprive members of the Classes of compensation to which they are legally 14 entitled, constitutes unfair and/or unlawful competition, and provides an unfair advantage over 15 Defendant’s competitors who have been and/or are currently employing workers and attempting to 16 do so in honest compliance with applicable wage and hour laws.

17 104. Because Plaintiff is a victim of Defendant’s unfair and/or unlawful conduct alleged 18 herein, Plaintiff, for himself and on behalf of the members of the Classes, seeks full restitution of 19 monies, as necessary and according to proof, to restore any and all monies withheld, acquired and/or 20 converted by Defendant pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17203 and 17208.

21 105. The acts complained of herein occurred within the last four years immediately
22 preceding the filing of the Complaint in this action.

23 106. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 24 protect his interests and those of the Classes, to obtain restitution and injunctive relief on behalf of 25 Defendant’s current hourly non-exempt employees, and to enforce important rights affecting the 26 public interest. Plaintiff has thereby incurred the financial burden of attorneys’ fees and costs, which 27 he is entitled to recover under Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

28 ///

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT
(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

107. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

108. Defendant has committed several Labor Code violations against Plaintiff and other similarly aggrieved employees. Plaintiff, an “aggrieved employee” within the meaning of Labor Code § 2698 et seq., acting on behalf of himself and other similarly aggrieved employees, brings this PAGA representative action against Defendant to recover the civil penalties due to Plaintiff, other similarly aggrieved employees, and the State of California according to proof pursuant to Labor Code § 2699 (a) and (f) including, but not limited to (1) $100 for each initial violation and (2) $200 for each subsequent violation per employee per pay period for those violations of the Labor Code for which no civil penalty is specifically provided based on the following Labor Code violations:

a) Failing to pay Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieve Employees for all minimum wages for all hours worked or for which they were subject to the control of the employer;

b) Failing to pay Plaintiff and other similarly Aggrieved Employees all overtime and sick pay wages at the appropriate premium rates in violation of Labor Code §§ 246, 510, 1194, 1197;

c) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other similarly Aggrieved Employees with all of their statutorily mandated meal periods in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194 and 1198;

d) Failing to authorize and permit Plaintiff and other similarly Aggrieved employees with all of their statutorily mandated rest periods in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516;

e) Failing to pay Plaintiff and other similarly Aggrieved Employees all reporting time pay wages in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 558, and applicable Wage Orders;

f) Failing to furnish Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage statements in violations of Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable Wage Orders;

g) Failing to pay final wages in a timely manner in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203 and applicable Wage Orders; and

h) Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees with all necessary business expenditures in violation of Labor Code §§ 2802-2804 and applicable Wage Orders.

109. On or about January 27, 2025, Plaintiff notified Defendant ITS Logistics, LLC. (“Defendant”) and the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) via email of Defendant’s violations of the California Labor Code § 2698 et seq., with respect to violations of the California Labor Code identified in Paragraph 108 (a)-(h). Now that the sixty-five days have passed from Plaintiff notifying Defendant of these violations, Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative requirements for bringing a claim under the Private Attorneys General Act with respect to these violations.

110. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to protect his interests and the interests of similarly aggrieved employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties owed by Defendant. Plaintiff has hereby incurred attorneys' fees and costs, which he is entitled to receive under California Labor Code § 2699.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment for himself and all others on whose behalf this suit is brought against Defendant, as follows:

1. For an order certifying the proposed Classes;
2. For an order appointing Plaintiff as representative of the Classes;
3. For an order appointing Counsel for Plaintiff as Counsel for the Classes;
4. Upon the First and Second Cause of Action for compensatory, consequential, general, and special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, and 1198 and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs;
5. Upon the Third Cause of Action, for compensatory, consequential, general, and special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198 and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs;
6. Upon the Third Cause of Action, for compensatory, consequential, general, and special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;
7. Upon the Fourth Cause of Action, for compensatory, consequential, general, and special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516;

1 8. Upon the Fifth Cause of Action, for compensatory, consequential, general, and 2 special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code §§ 246, 558, 1194.2, 1198, and 1199;

3 9. Upon the Sixth Cause of Action, penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197,
4 and 558;

5 10. Upon the Seventh Cause of Action, penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226(a), and 6 reasonable costs and attorneys' fees;

7 11. Upon the Eighth Cause of Action, for statutory waiting time penalties pursuant to 8 Labor Code §§ 201-203;

9 12. Upon the Ninth Cause of Action, for unreimbursed expenses, interest, and attorney's 10 fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2802;

11 13. Upon the Tenth Cause of Action, for restitution to Plaintiff and members of the 12 Classes of all money and/or property unlawfully acquired by Defendant by means of any acts or 13 practices declared by this Court to be in violation of Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.;

14 14. Upon the Eleventh Cause of Action, for civil penalties due to Plaintiff, other
15 similarly Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California according to proof pursuant to Labor
16 Code § 2699 (a) and (f) including, but not limited to: (1) $100.00 for each initial violation and $200
17 for each subsequent violation per employee per pay period for those violations of the Labor Code for 18 which no civil penalty is specifically provided under the Labor Code, and for reasonable attorneys'
19 fees and costs;

20 15. Prejudgment interest on all due and unpaid wages pursuant to California Labor Code
21 § 218.6 and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289;

22 16. On all causes of action, for attorneys' fees and costs as provided by Labor Code §§
23 218.5, 226, 1194, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and 24 17. For such other relief that the Court may deem just and proper.
