DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff Travis Nygard (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated non-2 exempt employees, alleges and complains of Defendant Pavement Coatings Co. (“Defendant”) and 3 DOES 1 to 50 (collectively, “Defendants”) and each of them, as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. Defendant is a construction company specializing in pavement maintenance and
6 preservation services. Its primary focus is on applying asphalt treatments such as chip seal, slurry
7 seal, micro surfacing, and crack seal to extend the lifespan of existing roadways.

8 2. Plaintiff brings this class action lawsuit against Defendant for alleged violations of the 9 California Labor Code and Business and Professions Code.

10 3. As set forth below, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay for all hours worked 11 due to its failure to record and pay for all time worked off the clock. Plaintiff further alleges that 12 Defendant’s meal and rest period policies and practices failed to allow and permit non-exempt 13 employees to take all compliant and timely meal and rest periods or pay premium wages at the 14 “regular rate of pay” in lieu thereof. Moreover, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to provide non-
15 exempt employees with accurate written itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code §
16 226(a), failed to reimburse all necessary business expenses incurred, and failed to timely pay all final 17 wages upon separation of employment in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203.

18 4. Plaintiff also brings a claim for civil penalties based on the foregoing Labor Code
19 violations under the Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”).

20 5. Based on these alleged Labor Code violations, Plaintiff now brings this class action 21 and representative action to recover unpaid wages, restitution, penalties, and other related relief for 22 himself and all other similarly situated non-exempt employees.

23 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24 6. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated employees hereby bring 25 this class action for recovery of unpaid wages and penalties under California Labor Code §§ 201-
26 204, 210, 226(a), 226(a)(6), 226(e), 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 510, 512, 516, 1194, 1197.1, 1199, 2802-
27 2804, and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders (“Wage Orders”), in addition to 28 seeking declaratory relief and restitution pursuant to California Business and Professions Code §

1 17200, et seq.

2 7. This class action is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

3 8. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant's violations of the California Labor Code
4 and applicable Wage Orders because the amount in controversy exceeds this Court's jurisdictional 5 minimum.

6 9. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure
7 §§ 395(a) and 395.5, Defendant operates in California within the County of Sacramento, and 8 Defendant is within the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of service of process.

9 PARTIES

10 10. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff, who is over 18, was and currently is a California
11 resident residing in the State of California.

12 11. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and alleges that Defendants are authorized to do 13 business within the County of Sacramento and is and/or was the legal employer of Plaintiff and the 14 Class Members during the applicable statutory periods. Plaintiff was, and is, a victim of Defendants'
15 policies and/or practices complained of herein and has been deprived of the rights guaranteed to him
16 by California Labor Code §§ 201-204, 210, 226, 226(a), 226(e), 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 510, 512, 516,
17 1194, 1197.1, 1199, 2802-2804, and the California Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.,
18 and applicable Wage Orders.

19 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the four years 20 preceding the filing of the Complaint and continuing to the present, Defendants did (and continue to 21 do) business in the State of California, County of Sacramento.

22 13. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 23 corporate, of the Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said
24 Defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to 25 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed, and 26 believes, and thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious Defendants, whether individual, partners, or 27 corporate, were responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein, and 28 proximately caused Plaintiff and the Classes to be subject to the unlawful employment practices

1 alleged herein.

2       14. Plaintiff is informed, and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times mentioned
3 herein, Defendants were and are the employers of Plaintiff and all members of the Classes. At all
4 times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of the acts hereinafter
5 alleged to have been done by the named Defendants. Furthermore, the Defendants, and each of them,
6 were the agents, servants, and employees of each and every one of the other Defendants, as well as 7 the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned, were acting within the course and 8 scope of said agency and employment. Defendants, and each of them, approved of, condoned, and/or 9 otherwise ratified each and every one of the acts or omissions complained of herein.

10       15. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants, and each of them, were members of and 11 engaged in a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise and acting within the course and 12 scope of and in pursuance of said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise. Further, Plaintiff
13 alleges that all Defendants were joint employers for all purposes of Plaintiff and all members of the 14 Classes.

15                                   COMMON FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

16       16. Defendant is a construction company specializing in pavement maintenance and
17 preservation services. Its primary focus is on applying asphalt treatments such as chip seal, slurry
18 seal, micro surfacing, and crack seal to extend the lifespan of existing roadways.

19       17. Plaintiff worked for Defendant as a non-exempt employee in the role of “Field 20 Mechanic” from November 27, 2023, to December 10, 2024. Based in Sacramento, California, 21 Plaintiff performed essential duties integral to the company’s operations.

22       18. Alongside Mr. Nygard, other non-exempt employees—including but not limited to 23 Field Mechanics, Class A Drivers, Sales Representatives, Mill Operators, Equipment Operators, and 24 Construction Laboratory Technicians—played a critical role in supporting Pavement Coatings’ daily
25 operations and overall success across California.

26       19. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were responsible for a wide range of tasks
27 critical to the company’s operations, such as machinery operation, driving, sales, and overall 28 construction duties. Their work ensured the effective operation of Defendant’s assets. Despite the

1 essential nature of their contributions, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees allege that
2 Defendant failed to comply with California labor laws, including but not limited to accurate
3 timekeeping, proper wage payment, and provision of meal and rest periods, as set forth below.

4       20. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees regularly worked 5 various shifts, many of which were more than 8.0 hours in a workday and 40.0 hours in a workweek.
6 Plaintiff alleges that other non-exempt employees were also subjected to the same policies, 7 procedures, practices, working conditions, and corresponding wage and hour violations to which he 8 was subjected during his employment.

9       21. First, at all relevant times, Defendant has consistently failed to accurately record and 10 pay for all time worked, including the time non-exempt employees were under the employer's control.
11 This included a policy and practice of failing to properly record non-exempt employees' time worked,
12 including all time spent working off the clock. As a result of this company-wide policy/practice, 13 Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees are not compensated for all the hours that they work and 14 all of the overtime hours they work, in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 1194, 1197.1, 1199,
15 and applicable Wage Orders.

16       22. As a result, over a period of time, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not 17 properly paid for all hours worked in violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 1194, 1197.1, 1199,
18 and applicable Wage Orders. Additionally, due to the unlawful timekeeping policy/practices, Plaintiff 19 and other non-exempt employees were not properly paid at the correct overtime rate for hours worked 20 in excess of eight hours per shift in violation of Labor Code § 510.

21       23. Labor Code § 1197.1 authorizes employees who are paid less than the minimum fixed 22 by an applicable state or local law or by an order of the commission a civil penalty, restitution of 23 wages, and liquidated damages as follows: (1) for any initial violation that is intentionally committed,
24 one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee
25 is underpaid....[and] (2) [f]or each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred 26 fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee is 27 underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation was intentionally committed.

28       24. Labor Code § 510 requires an employer to compensate an employee who works more

1 than eight (8) hours in one workday, forty (40) hours in a workweek, and for the first eight (8) hours
2 worked on the seventh consecutive day, no less than one and one-half times (1 1/2) the regular rate of 3 pay. In addition, Labor Code § 510 obligates employers to compensate employees at no less than 4 twice the regular rate of pay when an employee works more than twelve (12) hours in a workday or 5 more than eight (8) hours on the seventh consecutive day of work. Pursuant to Section 3 of the 6 applicable Wage Orders, non-exempt employees shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in 7 any workday or more than 40 hours in any workweek unless the employee receives one and one-half 8 (1 1/2) times such employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 hours in the workweek.

9       25. Moreover, at all relevant times, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were denied 10 compliant and timely 30-minute off-duty meal periods as mandated by California law. Due to 11 Defendant's uniform meal period policies/practices, operational requirements, and work demands,
12 Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees often could not take timely and uninterrupted net 30-
13 minute first meal periods before the end of the fifth hour of work. Further, when Plaintiff and other 14 non-exempt employees worked more than 10.0 hours in a shift, they were not allowed and permitted 15 to take a mandated second meal period before the end of the tenth hour of work in violation of the 16 Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders. Indeed, Plaintiff's and other non-exempt employees' meal
17 periods were often interrupted and/or lasted fewer than 30 minutes due to Defendant's meal period 18 policies/procedures, operational requirements, and work demands.

19       26. In addition, for each missed or non-compliant meal period, Defendant failed and 20 continues to fail to maintain a mechanism by which non-exempt employees were paid meal period
21 premiums at the "regular rate of pay" pursuant to Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC (2021) 11
22 5th 858 and Labor Code § 226.7.

23       27. Accordingly, due to Defendant's uniform meal period practices, non-exempt
24 employees were also regularly denied legally compliant meal periods in violation of Labor Code §§
25 226.7, 510, 516, and applicable Wage Orders.

26       28. Next, at all relevant times, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not 27 provided with all 10-minute rest periods for every four hours worked, or a major fraction thereof, due 28 to Defendant's uniform rest period policies/practices, operational requirements and work demands.

1 As a result, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were and are often unable to take a net 10-
2 minute duty-free rest period for every major fraction of four hours worked. This includes a second 3 rest period for shifts in excess of six hours and a third rest period for shifts in excess of 10.0 hours in 4 a workday.

5 29. By not relieving all non-exempt employees of all duties during rest periods, Defendant
6 failed to provide legally compliant rest periods. See Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016)
7 2 Cal. 5th 257, 269 [concluding that “during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all 8 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time.”] (Emphasis added). In Augustus, 9 the California Supreme Court expressly rejected the employer’s assertion that it could provide an on-
10 duty rest period to employees who worked as security guards and further explained: “that employers
11 [must] relinquish any control over how employees spend their break time and relieve their employees
12 of all duties.” Id. at 273. Each time non-exempt employees could not take a compliant rest period; 13 Defendant failed and continues to fail to adequately pay rest period premium payments at the “regular 14 rate of pay” as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

15 30. Accordingly, due to Defendant’s uniform rest period policies/practices, non-exempt
16 employees were regularly denied legally compliant rest breaks in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7,
17 512, and applicable Wage Orders.

18 31. As a result of Defendant’s failure to pay Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees for 19 all hours they were subject to the control of Defendant, including all minimum and overtime wages,
20 and Defendant’s failure to pay all meal and rest period premiums at the “regular rate of pay,” 21 Defendant issued wage statements which failed to identify the gross wages earned accurately, the 22 total hours worked, the net wages earned, and the correct corresponding number of hours worked at 23 each hourly rate, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(1, 2, 5, and 9).

24 32. Labor Code § 226.3 provides that “[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) of 25 Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per 26 employee per violation in an initial violation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 27 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage
28 deduction statement or fails to keep the required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.”

33. Thus, for the violations of Labor Code section 226 described above, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees may also recover Labor Code § 226.3 penalties for Defendant's violations of Labor Code § 226(a). Consequently, because Defendant failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees would be entitled to recover penalties under Labor Code § 226(e).

34. Moreover, because Defendant failed to pay all minimum wages, overtime wages, and meal and rest period premiums at the “regular rate of pay,” Defendant also failed and continues to fail to pay Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees all wages owed at their time of separation from employment in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203. Thus, non-exempt employees would be entitled to recover waiting time penalties under Labor Code §§ 201-203.

35. Finally, at all relevant times, Defendant required Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to incur necessary expenses for work-related purposes but did not reimburse non-exempt employees adequately for these necessary expenditures in violation of Labor Code §§ 2802-2804. Here, Defendant uniformly failed to reimburse non-exempt employees for the necessary costs incurred in discharging their duties. (See Cochran v. Schwan's Home Service, Inc., (2014) 228 Cal.App.4th 1137, 1144 ["[i]f an employee is required to make work-related calls on a personal cell phone, then he or she is incurring an expense for the purposes of section 2802. It does not matter whether the phone bill is paid for by a third person or at all...To show liability under section 2802, an employee needs only to show that he or she was required to use a personal cell phone to make work-related calls, and he or she was not reimbursed"].) Accordingly, due to Defendant's uniform failure to adequately reimburse for necessary business expenditures in violation of Labor Code §§ 2802-2804 and applicable Wage Orders.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

36. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and the following Classes pursuant to § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure:

All current or former non-exempt hourly employees who work or worked for Defendant in California during the four years immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint through the date of trial. (the “Class”);

1 All current or former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in 2 California and worked overtime hours during at least one shift during the 3 four years immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint through the date of trial. ("the Overtime Subclass");

4 All current or former employees who work or worked for Defendant in 5 California during the one year immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint through the date of trial. ("the Wage Statement Subclass")

6 All employees who work or worked for Defendant in California and who 7 left their employment during the three years immediately preceding the 8 filing of the Complaint through the date of trial. ("Waiting Time Penalty Subclass")

9 (collectively "the Classes")

10 37. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The members of the Classes are so numerous that 11 joinder of all members would be unfeasible and not practicable. The membership of the Classes is 12 unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, it is estimated that the Classes consist of at least one 13 hundred (100) individuals. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of 14 Defendant's employment and payroll records.

15 38. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well-Defined Community of 16 Interest: There are common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and all other similarly situated 17 non-exempt employees, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members 18 including, without limitation to:

- 19 1. Whether Defendant failed to record and pay for all hours worked by Class Members;
- 20 2. Whether Defendant provided legally compliant meal and rest periods or proper 21 compensation at the "regular rate of pay" in lieu thereof to members of the Class;
- 22 3. Whether Defendant furnished legally compliant wage statements to members of the 23 Wage Statement Subclass pursuant to Labor Code § 226(a);
- 24 4. Whether the timing and amount of payment of final wages to members of the Waiting 25 Time Penalty Subclass at the time of separation from employment were unlawful; and
- 26 5. Whether Defendant failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary business 27 expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2802-2804.

28 39. Predominance of Common Questions: Common questions of law and fact

1 predominate over questions that affect only individual members of the Classes. The common
2 questions of law set forth above are numerous and substantial and stem from Defendant's policies
3 and/or practices applicable to each individual class member, such as without limitation, Defendant's
4 failure to pay for all hours worked, Defendant's failure to provide all compliant meal and rest periods
5 or premiums at the "regular rate of pay" in lieu thereof, Defendant's failure to provide accurate
6 itemized wage statements, Defendant's failure to reimburse for all necessary business expenses, and 7 Defendant's failure to pay for all wages due upon separation of employment. As such, the common 8 questions predominate over individual questions concerning each class member's showing as to his 9 or her eligibility for recovery or the amount of his or her damages.

10       40.   Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Classes because 11 Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee in California during the statute(s)
12 of limitation applicable to each cause of action pled in the Complaint in this action. As alleged herein, 13 Plaintiff, like the members of the Classes, was deprived of minimum and overtime wages, was 14 deprived of meal and rest period premium wages, was subject to Defendant's uniform meal and rest
15 period policies/practices, was not provided accurate itemized wage statements, was not reimbursed 16 for all necessary business expenses, and was not timely paid all wages owed upon separation of 17 employment.

18       41.   Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps to 19 represent fairly and adequately the interests of the members of the Classes. Moreover, Plaintiff's 20 attorneys are ready, willing, and able to fully and adequately represent the members of the Classes.
21 Plaintiff's attorneys have prosecuted and are actively litigating several wage-and-hour class actions 22 in state and federal courts and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the 23 members of the Classes.

24       42.   Superiority: The California Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an 25 important public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California.
26 These laws and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by 27 employers who have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of 28 superior economic and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The

1 nature of this action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and members of the Classes make
2 the class action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations
3 alleged herein. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendant would 4 necessarily gain an unconscionable advantage since they could exploit and overwhelm the limited
5 resources of each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources.

6 43. Moreover, requiring each member of the Classes to pursue an individual remedy would 7 also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file an action
8 against their former and/or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and permanent 9 damages to their careers at subsequent employment. Further, the prosecution of separate actions by 10 the individual class members, even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or 11 varying verdicts or adjudications with respect to the individual class members against Defendant
12 herein and which would establish potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendant; and/or 13 legal determinations with respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, be 14 dispositive of the interest of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which would 15 substantially impair or impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests. Further, the 16 claims of the individual members of the class are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual 17 prosecution considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending thereto. As such, the 18 Classes identified in Paragraph 36 are maintainable as Classes under § 382 of the Code of Civil 19 Procedure.

20 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

21 MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS

22 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

23 44. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

24 45. Section 4 of the applicable Wage Order(s) and Labor Code §§ 1197 and 1182.12
25 establish the right of employees to be paid minimum wages for all hours worked, in amounts set by 26 state law. Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an employee who has not been paid the 27 legal minimum wage as required by Labor Code § 1197 may recover the unpaid balance together
28 with attorneys' fees and costs of suit, as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the unpaid

1 wages and interest accrued thereon.

2 46. At all relevant times herein, Defendant failed to record all time accurately worked,
3 including failing to record time worked properly and all time spent working off-the-clock, which 4 resulted in these individuals not being paid for all hours they actually suffered or permitted to work.
5 Accordingly, Plaintiff and members of the Classes were not compensated for all hours worked,
6 including all hours they were subject to the control of Defendant and/or suffered or permitted to work
7 under the Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

8 47. Labor Code § 1198 makes an employee's employment unlawful under conditions the 9 Industrial Welfare Commission prohibits. Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an 10 employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay those 11 employees the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal 12 to the wages due and interest thereon.

13 48. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's unlawful conduct as alleged herein,
14 Plaintiff and the Classes have sustained economic damages, including but not limited to unpaid wages 15 and lost interest, in an amount to be established at trial, and they are entitled to recover economic and 16 statutory damages and penalties and other appropriate relief as a result of Defendant's violations of 17 the Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

18 49. Defendant's practice and uniform administration of corporate policy regarding illegal
19 employee compensation is unlawful and creates an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and members
20 of the Classes in a civil action for the unpaid amount of minimum wages, liquidated damages,
21 including interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorney's fees, and costs of suit according to Labor
22 Code §§ 204, 558, 1194 et seq., 1197, 1198, and Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

23 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

24 FAILURE TO PAY ALL OVERTIME WAGES

25 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

26 50. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all previous paragraphs by reference.

27 51. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 558, 1194,
28 and 1198, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to overtime wages for all overtime

1 hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure to pay all overtime compensation
2 for overtime work performed.

3 52. At all times relevant herein, Defendant was required to properly pay Plaintiff and 4 members of the Overtime Subclass for all overtime hours worked pursuant to California Labor Code
5 § 1194 and the applicable Wage Orders.

6 53. Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order requires an employer to pay an employee “one 7 and one-half (1 1/2) times the employee’s regular rate of pay” for work in excess of 8 hours per 8 workday and/or in excess of 40 hours of work in the workweek. The same section also requires an 9 employer to pay an employee double the employee’s regular rate of pay for work in excess of twelve 10 hours each workday and/or for work in excess of 8 hours on the seventh consecutive day of work in 11 the workweek. Defendant caused Plaintiff to work overtime and hours but did not compensate 12 Plaintiff or members of the Overtime Subclass at one and one-half times their “regular rate of pay” 13 for such hours.

14 54. Defendant failed to conform its pay practices to the requirements of the law. At all 15 relevant times herein, Defendant failed to conform their pay practices to the requirements of the law.
16 This unlawful conduct includes, but is not limited to, Defendant’s failure to pay for all hours properly 17 worked off the clock as alleged herein above, which resulted in these individuals not being paid for 18 all overtime hours worked.

19 55. The foregoing policies and practices are unlawful and create an entitlement to recovery
20 by Plaintiff and the members of the Overtime Subclass in a civil action for the unpaid amount of 21 overtime wages, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorney’s fees, and costs of suit
22 according to Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 1194, and 1198, the applicable Wage Orders, and Code
23 of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

24 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

25 MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS

26 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

27 56. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all previous paragraphs by reference.

28 57. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant failed in

1 its affirmative obligation to provide all of their hourly non-exempt employees, including Plaintiff and 2 members of the Class, with all required meal periods in accordance with the mandates of the 3 California Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders, for the reasons set forth in the Common
4 Allegations section of this Complaint.

5 58. Despite Defendant's violations, Defendant has not paid an additional hour of pay at 6 the "regular rate of pay" to Plaintiff and Class members at their respective regular rates of pay for
7 each violation, per California Labor Code § 226.7.

8 59. As a result, Defendant is responsible for paying premium compensation for meal 9 period violations, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit pursuant to the 10 applicable Wage Orders, Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and Civil Code §§ 3287(b) and 3289.

11 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

13 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

14 60. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all previous paragraphs by reference.

15 61. Section 12 of the applicable Wage Orders and Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516 establish 16 the right of non-exempt employees to be provided with a rest period of at least ten (10) minutes for 17 each four (4) hour period worked, or major fraction thereof.

18 62. Due to its unlawful rest period policy/practices and operational requirements/work
19 demands, Defendant did not authorize and permit Plaintiff and Class members to take all rest periods 20 to which they were legally entitled.

21 63. Despite Defendant's violations, Defendant has not paid an additional hour of pay at
22 the "regular rate of pay" to Plaintiff and Class members at their respective regular rates of pay for 23 each violation, per California Labor Code § 226.7.

24 64. The foregoing violations create an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and members
25 of the Class in a civil action for the unpaid amount of rest period premiums owing, including interest
26 thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit pursuant to the applicable Wage Orders, Labor Code §§
27 226.7 and 516, and Civil Code §§ 3287(b) and 3289.

1 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS
3 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

4 65. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all previous paragraphs by reference.

5 66. Labor Code 226(a) states in pertinent part the following:

6 “(a) An employer, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages,
7 shall furnish to his or her employee, either as a detachable part of the check,
8 draft, or voucher paying the employee’s wages, or separately if wages are 9 paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing 10 showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, 11 (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the 12 employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all 13 deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and 14 shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the 15 period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and 16 only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee 17 identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and 18 address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly
19 rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 20 worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

21 67. As set forth above, during the Class Period, Defendant issued and continues to issue
22 wage statements to its employees, including Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Subclass, 23 which are inadequate under Labor Code Section § 226(a).

24 68. As a result of Defendant’s failure to pay Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Subclass 25 for all minimum, overtime wages, and missed meal and rest period premiums at the appropriate legal 26 rate, Defendant failed to include required information on Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Subclass’ 27 wage statements, including, but not limited to, the gross wages earned, the net wages earned in 28 violation of Labor Code section 226(a), (1,2,5, and 9).

69. Defendant’s failure to comply with section 226(a) of the Labor Code was knowing and intentional.

70. As a result of Defendant’s issuance of inaccurate itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Subclass in violation of section 226(a) of the California Labor
Code, Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Subclass are each entitled to recover an initial

1 penalty of $50, and subsequent penalties of $100, up to an amount not exceeding an aggregate penalty
2 of $4,000 per Plaintiff and per every member of the Wage Statement Subclass from Defendant's
3 pursuant to section 226(e) of the Labor Code, costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

4 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 WAITING TIME PENALTIES

6 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

7 71. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

8 72. The actionable period for this cause of action is three years before the filing of this 9 Complaint through the present and ongoing until the violation is corrected, or the class is certified.

10 73. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 require Defendant to pay all compensation due and owing 11 to Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Subclass during the actionable period for this cause of action at or 12 around the time their employment is or was terminated or ended.

13 74. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay compensation 14 promptly upon discharge or resignation, as required by Labor Code sections 201 and 202, the 15 employer is liable for penalties for continued compensation up to thirty (30) workdays.

16 75. Defendant willfully failed to pay the Waiting Time Subclass for all hours worked, 17 including all minimum and overtime wages, and their meal and rest period premiums at the "regular 18 rate of pay" before or upon termination or separation from employment with Defendant as required
19 by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

20 76. As a result, Defendant is liable to the Waiting Time Subclass for waiting time penalties
21 amounting to thirty (30) days wages for Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Subclass pursuant to Labor
22 Code § 203. See, e.g., DLSE Manual, 4.3.4 (Failure to pay any wages due upon termination entitles 23 an employee to recover waiting time penalties).

24 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

25 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE FOR NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENDITURES

26 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

27 77. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

28 78. Labor Code 2802(a) states in pertinent part the following: "(a) An employer shall

1 indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in 2 direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions
3 of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, at the time of obeying the directions, 4 believed them to be unlawful.”

5 79. As set forth above, Plaintiff and Class members must be compensated for all necessary
6 business expenditures, including, but not limited to, a reasonable portion of their monthly personal 7 cell phone bills incurred in the discharge of their duties. (See Cochran v. Schwan’s Home Service, 8 Inc. (2014) 228 Cal.App.4th 1137 (“We hold that when employees must use their personal cell phones
9 for work-related calls, Labor Code section 2802 requires the employer to reimburse them. Whether 10 the employees have cell phone plans with unlimited minutes or limited minutes, the reimbursement 11 owed is a reasonable percentage of their cell phone bills.”)).

12 80. At all relevant times, Defendant has failed to comply with Labor Code Section 2802 and 13 the applicable Wage Orders by failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for all necessary business 14 expenditures.

15 EIGHT CAUSE OF ACTION

16 UNFAIR COMPETITION

17 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

18 81. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

19 82. Defendant has engaged and continues to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business
20 practices in California in violation of California Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq., by 21 failing to pay for all hours worked, by failing to provide all legally required meal and rest periods or 22 pay premium payments at the “regular rate of pay” in lieu thereof, by failing to provide accurate wage 23 statements, by failing to reimburse for all necessary business expenses adequately, and by failing to 24 pay all earned wages at the time of separation from employment.

25 83. Defendant’s utilization of these unfair and/or unlawful business practices deprived
26 Plaintiff and continues to deprive members of the Classes of compensation to which they are legally 27 entitled, constitutes unfair and/or unlawful competition, and provides an unfair advantage over 28 Defendant’s competitors who have been and/or are currently employing workers and attempting to

1 do so in honest compliance with applicable wage and hour laws.

2 84. Because Plaintiff is a victim of Defendant's unfair and/or unlawful conduct alleged 3 herein, Plaintiff, for himself and on behalf of the members of the Classes, seeks full restitution of 4 monies, as necessary and according to proof, to restore any and all monies withheld, acquired and/or 5 converted by Defendant pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17203 and 17208.

6 85. The acts complained of herein occurred within the last four years immediately
7 preceding the filing of the Complaint in this action.

8 86. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 9 protect his interests and those of the Classes, to obtain restitution and injunctive relief on behalf of 10 Defendant's current hourly non-exempt employees, and to enforce important rights affecting the 11 public interest. Plaintiff has thereby incurred the financial burden of attorneys' fees and costs, which 12 he is entitled to recover under Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

13 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT

15 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

16 87. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

17 88. Defendant has committed several Labor Code violations against Plaintiff and other 18 similarly aggrieved employees. Plaintiff, an "aggrieved employee" within the meaning of Labor Code
19 § 2698 et seq., acting on behalf of himself and other similarly aggrieved employees, brings this PAGA
20 representative action against Defendant to recover the civil penalties due to Plaintiff, other similarly
21 aggrieved employees, and the State of California according to proof pursuant to Labor Code § 2699
22 (a) and (f) including, but not limited to (1) $100 for each initial violation and (2) $200 for each
23 subsequent violation per employee per pay period for those violations of the Labor Code for which 24 no civil penalty is specifically provided based on the following Labor Code violations:

25 a) Failing to pay Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieve Employees for all minimum and 26 overtime wages for all hours worked or for which they were subject to the control of the employer;

27 b) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other similarly Aggrieved Employees with all of their 28 statutorily mandated meal periods in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194 and 1198;

1 c) Failing to authorize and permit Plaintiff and other similarly Aggrieved employees
2 with all of their statutorily mandated rest periods in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516;

3 d) Failing to furnish Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees with complete,
4 accurate, itemized wage statements in violations of Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable Wage Orders;

5 e) Failing to pay final wages in a timely manner in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203
6 and applicable Wage Orders; and

7 f) Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees with all necessary
8 business expenditures in violation of Labor Code §§ 2802-2804 and applicable Wage Orders.

9 89. On or about January 24, 2025, Plaintiff notified Defendant Pavement Coatings Co.
10 (“Defendant”) and the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) via email
11 of Defendant’s violations of the California Labor Code § 2698 et seq., with respect to violations of 12 the California Labor Code identified in Paragraph 88 (a)-(f). Now that the sixty-five days have passed 13 from Plaintiff notifying Defendant of these violations, Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative 14 requirements for bringing a claim under the Private Attorneys General Act with respect to these 15 violations.

16 90. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 17 protect his interests and the interests of similarly aggrieved employees, and to assess and collect the 18 civil penalties owed by Defendant. Plaintiff has hereby incurred attorneys’ fees and costs, which he 19 is entitled to receive under California Labor Code § 2699.

20 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

21 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment for himself and all others on whose behalf this 22 suit is brought against Defendant, as follows:

- 23 1. For an order certifying the proposed Classes;
24 2. For an order appointing Plaintiff as representative of the Classes;
25 3. For an order appointing Counsel for Plaintiff as Counsel for the Classes;
26 4. Upon the First and Second Cause of Action for compensatory, consequential, 27 general, and special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 1194,
28 1197, 1197.1, and 1198 and reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs;

1           5.           Upon the Third Cause of Action, for compensatory, consequential, general, and
2 special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198
3 and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs;

4           6.           Upon the Third Cause of Action, for compensatory, consequential, general, and
5 special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;

6           7.           Upon the Fourth Cause of Action, for compensatory, consequential, general, and
7 special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516;

8           8.           Upon the Fifth Cause of Action, penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226(a), and 9 reasonable costs and attorneys' fees;

10          9.           Upon the Sixth Cause of Action, for statutory waiting time penalties pursuant to 11 Labor Code §§ 201-203

12          10.          Upon the Seventh Cause of Action, for unreimbursed expenses, interest, and 13 attorney's fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2802;

14          11.          Upon the Eighth Cause of Action, for restitution to Plaintiff and members of the 15 Classes of all money and/or property unlawfully acquired by Defendant by means of any acts or 16 practices declared by this Court to be in violation of Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.;

17          12.          Upon the Ninth Cause of Action, for civil penalties due to Plaintiff, other similarly
18 Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California according to proof pursuant to Labor Code § 2699
19 (a) and (f) including, but not limited to: (1) $100.00 for each initial violation and $200 for each
20 subsequent violation per employee per pay period for those violations of the Labor Code for which 21 no civil penalty is specifically provided under the Labor Code, and for reasonable attorneys' fees and 22 costs;

23          13.          Prejudgment interest on all due and unpaid wages pursuant to California Labor Code
24 § 218.6 and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289;

25          14.          On all causes of action, for attorneys' fees and costs as provided by Labor Code §§
26 218.5, 226, 1194, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and 27          15.          For such other relief that the Court may deem just and proper.
