18 CARLOS D. ALVARADO GARCIA, on behalf of 19 himself and current and former aggrieved
20 employees

21 Plaintiff,

22 vs.

23 ADVANCED REAL ESTATE SERVICES, INC.; 24 and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

25 Defendants.

Case No.: 25STCV09347

PLAINTIFF CARLOS D.
ALVARADO GARCIA'S COMPLAINT FOR:

1. CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

26 COMES NOW Plaintiff CARLOS D. ALVARADO GARCIA ("Plaintiff"), who alleges 27 and complains against Defendants ADVANCED REAL ESTATE SERVICES, INC.; and DOES 1 28 to 100, inclusive (collectively "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, himself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all hours

1 worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to pay 2 overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay; failure to authorize or permit all legally required 3 and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium wages; failure to authorize or permit 4 all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest period premium wages; failure to pay 5 wages for accrued paid sick time at the regular rate of pay; statutory penalties for failure to timely 6 pay earned wages during employment; statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage 7 statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the form of continuation wages for failure to timely 8 pay employees all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff experienced these violations 9 personally, as well as is informed and believes other aggrieved employees did as well. Plaintiff 10 seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, 11 civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs 12 brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and others aggrieved.

13 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

14 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 15 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 16 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 17 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars 18 ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-19 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 20 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 21 California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County, at 4907 ¼ Hayter Avenue, Lakewood, 22 CA 90712.

23 III. PARTIES

24 1. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 25 Development Agency on behalf of himself and other current and former employees subject to 26 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 27 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will work 28 for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp

1 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the currently 2 named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was employed by 3 Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Los Angeles County from in or around 4 May 2024 until on or about November 20, 2024.

5 2. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant ADVANCED 6 REAL ESTATE SERVICES, INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California and is 7 doing business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all times
8 relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant ADVANCED REAL ESTATE 9 SERVICES, INC. in the establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and 10 hour practices or policies. Defendant ADVANCED REAL ESTATE SERVICES, INC. operates in 11 Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Los Angeles County, 12 including but not limited to, at 4907 ¼ Hayter Avenue, Lakewood, CA 90712.

13 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 14 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 15 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 16 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working 17 conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

18 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
19 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued 20 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 21 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to be 22 violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of the 23 Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

24 5. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff 25 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 26 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 27 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 28 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this

1 complaint.

2 6. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 3 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff 4 reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

5 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

6 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 7 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

8 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and 9 Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

10 7. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

11 8. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 12 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 5121194, 13 1197, and the applicable Wage Orders.

14 9. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California 15 Labor Code:

16 10. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
17 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt 18 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 19 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee 20 is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or 21 indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

22 11. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 23 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 24 Wage Orders.

25 12. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 26 non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with having 27 worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 28 California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum wage for all

1 hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited 2 to:

3 (a) requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
4 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their off-the-clock meal breaks because Plaintiff
5 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were 6 required to keep their personal cellphone on them at all times during their shift to monitor and 7 respond to calls from Defendant, including during their off-the-clock meal breaks.

8 (b) Defendants failed to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
9 based hourly non-exempt employees who worked on call for the hours they work attending to calls 10 while working on call unless they both received the calls and resolved the calls; if call were only
11 received Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 12 employees were not paid for their time.

13 13. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 14 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' 15 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 16 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 17 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable 18 Wage Order.

19 14. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 20 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
21 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
22 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

23 15. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay 24 and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of 25 their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer 26 is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," which includes all time that an employee 27 is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This 28 includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to

1 the benefit of the employer.’

2 16. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 3 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40) 4 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

5 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours 6 in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in 7 any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half 8 (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours 9 in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

10 Labor Code section 510.

11 17. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 12 California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due 13 to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

14 (a) requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
15 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their off-the-clock meal breaks because Plaintiff
16 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were 17 required to keep their personal cellphones on them at all times during their shift to monitor and 18 respond to calls from Defendant, including during their off-the-clock meal breaks.

19 (b) Defendants failed to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
20 based hourly non-exempt employees who worked on call for the hours they work attending to calls
21 while working on call unless they both received the calls and resolved the calls; if call were only
22 received Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt
23 employees were not paid for their time.

24 18. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 25 Employer’s conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
26 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
27 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

28 19. Furthermore, overtime is based upon an employee’s regular rate of pay. “The regular

1 rate at which an employee is employed shall be deemed to include all remuneration for employment
2 paid to, or on behalf, of the employee.” See Division of Labor Standards Enforcement – 3 Enforcement Policies and Interpretations Manual, Section 49.1.2.

4 20. In this case, Plaintiff alleges that when he and other current and former aggrieved
5 California-based hourly non-exempt employees earned overtime wages, Defendants failed to pay 6 them overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay due to Defendants’ failure to include all 7 remuneration when calculating the overtime rate of pay. Specifically, Defendants maintained a 8 policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as lease return bonus 9 pay for example, when calculating Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-10 based hourly non-exempt employees’ regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying overtime.

11 21. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each 12 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 13 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 14 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 15 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, 16 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed 17 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 18 sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

19 22. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 20 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to 21 pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 22 hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and 23 shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

24 23. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 25 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 26 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee’s activities prior to the 27 employee’s sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 5 at §11; 28 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ

1 an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee 2 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh 3 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period 4 shall be considered an “on duty” meal period and counted as time worked. A paid “on duty” meal 5 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved 6 of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

7 24. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 8 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay 9 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code 10 sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 5 at §11.

11 25. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 12 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-13 exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 14 limited to:

15 (a) requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
16 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their off-the-clock meal breaks because Plaintiff
17 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were 18 required to keep their personal cellphones on them at all times during their shift to monitor and 19 respond to calls from Defendant, including during their off-the-clock meal breaks.

20 (b) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 21 hourly non-exempt employees who worked on call, with timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal 22 breaks of at least 30 minutes for every five hours worked during on-call hours due to requiring 23 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees 24 who are on call to monitor the emergency phone at all times while working on call.

25 26. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 26 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 27 hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that 28 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did

1 not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

2 27. Finally, on occasions when Defendants paid Plaintiff and other current and former 3 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a “premium” wage for late, missed, short, 4 on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted meal periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1) additional 5 hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-
6 exempt employees’ regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, 7 practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as lease return bonus pay for 8 example, when calculating Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based 9 hourly non-exempt employees’ regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying meal period premium 10 wages.

11 28. Defendants’ foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 12 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 13 wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal 14 periods in compliance with California law.

15 29. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 16 Employer’s conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
17 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
18 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

19 30. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 20 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay
21 rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 22 non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

23 31. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest 24 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code 25 section 226.7; Wage Order 5 at §12. Under California law, “[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes’ 26 rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six 27 hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on.” Brinker
28 Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7;

1 Wage Order 5 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period.
2 Wage Order 5 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement “obligates employers to permit –
3 and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., 4 (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all 5 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

6 32. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must 7 pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday the 8 employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage 9 Order 5 at § 12.

10 33. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 11 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 12 non-exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 13 limited to:

14 (a) requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 15 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty during their rest breaks because Plaintiff and other current 16 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were required to keep their 17 personal cellphones on them at all times during their shift to monitor and respond to calls from 18 Defendant, including during their rest breaks.

19 (b) requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 20 non-exempt employees to remain on the premises during their rest periods and on standby to be 21 readily available to service Defendants during their rest periods, resulting in rest periods that were 22 not duty-free.

23 (c) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 24 hourly non-exempt employees who work on call with net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four 25 (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof during on-call hours due to requiring Plaintiff and other 26 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees who are on call to 27 monitor the emergency phone at all times while working on call.

28 34. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or

1 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 2 hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday
3 they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 4 226.7.

5 35. Finally, on occasions when Defendants did pay Plaintiff and other current and former 6 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a “premium” wage for late, missed, short, 7 on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted rest periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1) additional 8 hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-
9 exempt employees’ regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, 10 practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as return bonus pay for 11 example, when calculating Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based 12 hourly non-exempt employees’ regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying rest period premiums.

13 36. Defendants’ foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 14 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 15 wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods 16 in compliance with California law.

17 37. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 18 Employer’s conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
19 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
20 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

21 38. Failure to provide sick pay wages: Defendants had a policy and/or procedure where 22 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees 23 accrued paid sick time.

24 39. Labor Code section 246, subdivision (a), states in relevant part “[a]n employee 25 who...works in California for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the 26 commencement of employment is entitled to paid sick days.” Additionally, an employee accrues 27 paid sick days at the rate of no-less-than one (1) hour per every thirty (30) hours worked, beginning 28 at the commencement of employment. Labor Code section 246(b).

1 40. Here, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-2 exempt employees were employed by Defendants for 30 or more days and were entitled to paid sick 3 days. Defendants, however, lacked a policy, practice, and/or procedure whereby Plaintiffs and other 4 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees who were employed 5 by Defendants for 30 days or more could accrue paid sick days at the rate of no-less-than one (1) 6 hour per every thirty (30) hours worked, beginning at the commencement of employment as required 7 by Labor Code section 246(b).

8 41. In this case, Plaintiff alleges that when he and other current and former aggrieved 9 California-based hourly non-exempt employees elected to use paid sick time, Defendants failed to 10 pay them sick time wages at the proper sick time rate of pay due to Defendants' failure to include 11 all remuneration when calculating the sick time rate of pay. Specifically, Defendants maintained a 12 policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration including but not limited to 13 lease return bonus pay for example, when calculating Plaintiff and other current and former 14 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of 15 paying sick time.

16 42. Defendants' foregoing policy, practice, and/or procedure resulted in Defendants 17 failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-18 exempt employees' paid sick days, in violation of Labor Code section 246.

19 43. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
20 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
21 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

22 44. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 23 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 24 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 25 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 26 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 27 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll 28 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7)

1 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 2 section 204(d).

3 45. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 4 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 5 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages 6 and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants' 7 aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and 8 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned 9 wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

10 46. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
11 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
12 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

13 47. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 14 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 15 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage 16 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by 17 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful 18 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246, 19 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor 20 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 21 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

22 48. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
23 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
24 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

25 49. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 26 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee 27 his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 28 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any

1 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 2 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare 3 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee 4 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders 5 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive 6 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her 7 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 8 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 9 worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

10 50. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff 11 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages 12 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period 13 premium wages) rendered Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based 14 hourly non-exempt employees’ wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 15 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

16 51. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

17 52. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
18 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
19 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

20 53. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 21 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee’s employment ends. The 22 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) 23 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

24 54. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
25 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all 26 their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, 27 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 28 employee’s termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

1 55. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

2 56. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
3 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
4 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

5 57. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, 6 on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to 7 recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code 8 section 2699.3.

9 58. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code 10 section 2699.3. On January 20, 2025, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and 11 provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of 12 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the 13 violations alleged.

14 59. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 15 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 16 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 17 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 18 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

19 60. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 20 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 21 246, 510, 512, and 1194, During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, 22 preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the 23 following amounts:

24 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), and 226.7; one 25 hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two 26 hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation 27 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

28 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226(a), alternatively, two hundred fifty

1 dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each 2 subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period 3 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

4 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for each 5 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one 6 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 7 established by Labor Code section 558].

8 d. For violations of Labor Code section 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for 9 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 10 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
11 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 12 section 210].

13 e. For violations of Labor Code section 223, one hundred dollars ($100) for 14 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 15 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
16 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 17 section 225.5].

18 61. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of 19 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with his claims for civil penalties.

20 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

21 WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND ON OTHER AGGRIEVED
22 EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

23 ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

24 1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and the 25 IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

26 2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations 27 subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the California 28 Labor Code, including but not limited to sections 210, 225.5, 226.3, 558, 2699(f);

1 3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable 2 under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and 3 4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or 4 appropriate.
