SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

MARTHA D. JIMENEZ, an individual, on behalf of herself and the State of California, as a private attorney general,

Plaintiff,

v.

HOLLEY PERFORMANCE PRODUCTS INC.,
a Delaware Corporation; and DOES 1 TO 50,

Defendants.

Case Number: 25STCV10232

Representative Action Complaint For:

1. Penalties Pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) for Violations of California Labor Code Sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 1174, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, and Other Provisions of the California Labor Code.

1 Plaintiff Martha D. Jimenez (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of herself and the State of California, as a 2 private attorney general, complains and alleges of defendants Holley Performance Products Inc. and 3 Does 1 to 50 (collectively, “Defendants”), and each of them, as follows:

4 I. INTRODUCTION

5 1. This action is a representative action brought pursuant to the California Labor Code
6 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), codified at California Labor Code sections 2698 7 through 2699.6.

8 2. The “PAGA Period” as used herein, is defined as the period from January 10, 2024, and 9 continuing into the present and ongoing.

10 3. This PAGA action is brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California as private 11 attorney general, and on behalf of the following aggrieved employees: All individuals who are or were 12 employed by Defendants as non-exempt employees in California during the PAGA Period (the 13 “Aggrieved Employees”).

14 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the California Industrial 15 Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders applicable to the facts of this case are IWC Wage Orders 16 2-2001, 4-2001, and/or 6-2001 (the “Applicable Wage Orders”) and possibly others that may be 17 applicable. (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11020, 11040, 11060.) Plaintiff reserves the right to amend 18 or modify the definition of “Applicable Wage Orders” with greater specificity or add additional IWC 19 Wage Orders if additional applicable wage orders are discovered in litigation.

20 II. JURISDICTION & VENUE

21 5. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over all causes of action asserted herein 22 pursuant to Article VI, section 10, of the California Constitution and Code of Civil Procedure section 23 410.10 because this is a civil action in which the matter in controversy, exclusive of interest, exceeds 24 $25,000, and because each cause of action asserted arises under the laws of the State of California or 25 is subject to adjudication in the courts of the State of California.

26 6. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants have caused 27 injuries in the County of Los Angeles and the State of California through their acts, and by their 28 violation of the California Labor Code and California state common law. Defendants transact millions

1 of dollars of business within the State of California. Defendants own, maintain offices, transact 2 business, have an agent or agents within the County of Los Angeles, and/or otherwise are found within 3 the County of Los Angeles, and Defendants are within the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of 4 service of process.

5 7. Venue as to Defendants is proper in this judicial district, pursuant to section 395 of the 6 Code of Civil Procedure. Defendants operate within California and do business within Los Angeles 7 County, California. The unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and all of 8 Defendants' employees identified above within Los Angeles County and surrounding counties where 9 Defendants may remotely operate. (See Crestwood Behavioral Health, Inc. v. Superior Court of 10 Alameda County (2021) 60 Cal.App.5th 1069, 1075 ["We hold that venue is proper in any county in 11 which an aggrieved employee worked and Labor Code violations allegedly occurred."].)

12 III. THE PARTIES

13 A. PLAINTIFF

14 8. At all relevant times, Plaintiff, who is over the age of 18, was and currently is a citizen 15 of California residing in the State of California. Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt hourly 16 employee in the County of Los Angeles.

17 9. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and the State of California, as a private 18 attorney general, and on behalf of the following group of aggrieved employees: All individuals who 19 are or were employed by Defendants as non-exempt employees in California during the PAGA Period 20 (the "Aggrieved Employees").

21 10. The Aggrieved Employees, at all times pertinent hereto, are or were employees of 22 Defendants during the relevant statutory period.

23 B. DEFENDANTS

24 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants were authorized 25 to and doing business in Los Angeles County and is and/or was the legal employer of Plaintiff and the 26 other Aggrieved Employees during the applicable statutory periods. Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved 27 Employees were, and are, subject to Defendants' policies and/or practices complained of herein and 28 have been deprived of the rights guaranteed to them by: California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 1174, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, and others that may be applicable; and the Applicable Wage Orders (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11020, 11040, 11060).

12. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the PAGA Period, Defendants did (and continue to do) business in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

13. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or corporate, of the defendants sued herein as Does 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to amend this complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed, and believes, and thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual, partners, or corporate, were responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein, and proximately caused Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees to be subject to the unlawful employment practices, wrongs, injuries, and damages complained of herein.

14. Plaintiff is informed, and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times mentioned herein, Defendants were and/or are the employers of Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees. At all times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendants. Furthermore, the Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, representatives, and employees of each and every one of the other Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned were acting within the course and scope of said agency, representation, and employment. Defendants, and each of them, approved of, condoned, or otherwise ratified every one of the acts or omissions complained of herein.

15. Plaintiff is further informed, and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times mentioned herein, that Defendants, and each of them, are the alter egos of one another and that there existed and now exists a unity of interest and ownership between them such that the individuality and separateness of each of them has ceased. Plaintiff is further informed, and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times mentioned herein, that Defendants, and each of them, have been and now are mere shells and naked frameworks that their principal uses for the conduct of that Defendant's own business,

1 property, and affairs, for which Defendants, and each of them, have concealed and misrepresented their 2 identities as the entities responsible for their ownership, management, and financial interests.

3 16. Plaintiff is further informed, and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times 4 mentioned herein, Defendants, and each of them, were members of and engaged in a joint venture, 5 partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course and scope of and in pursuance of said 6 joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise. Further, Plaintiff is informed, and believes, and 7 thereon alleges, that all Defendants were joint employers for all purposes of Plaintiff and the other 8 Aggrieved Employees.

9 IV. COMMON FACTS & ALLEGATIONS

10 17. Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees (collectively, the “Aggrieved Employees”) 11 are, and were at all relevant times, employed by the Defendants within the State of California.

12 18. The Aggrieved Employees are, and were, at all relevant times, non-exempt employees 13 for the purposes of minimum wages, overtime, rest breaks, meal periods, and the other claims alleged 14 in this complaint.

15 19. Specifically, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants within the statutory PAGA Period, 16 working as an hourly, non-exempt embroiderer for Defendants.

17 A. MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS

18 20. Labor Code section 1197 requires employees to be paid at least the minimum wage fixed 19 by the IWC, and any payment of less than the minimum wage is unlawful. Likewise, the Applicable 20 Wage Orders also obligate employers to pay each employee minimum wages for all hours worked.
21 (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11020, 11040, 11060.) Labor Code section 1198 makes unlawful the 22 employment of an employee under conditions that the IWC Wage Orders prohibit.

23 21. These minimum wage standards apply to each hour that employees work. Therefore, an 24 employer’s failure to pay for any particular time worked by an employee is unlawful, even if averaging 25 an employee’s total pay over all hours worked, paid or not, results in an average hourly wage above 26 minimum wage. (Armenta v. Osmose, Inc. (2005) 135 Cal.App.4th 314, 324.)

27 22. Here, Defendants failed to fully conform their pay practices to the requirements of the 28 law during the relevant statutory periods. The Aggrieved Employees were not compensated for all

1 hours worked including, but not limited to, all hours they were subject to the control of Defendants 2 and/or suffered or permitted to work under the California Labor Code and the Applicable Wage Orders.

3 23. Labor Code section 1197.1 authorizes employees who are paid less than the minimum 4 wage fixed by an applicable state or local law, or by an order of the IWC, a civil penalty, among other 5 damages, as follows:

6 (1) “For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred 7 dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for 8 which the employee is underpaid.”

9 (2) “For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two 10 hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay 11 period for which the employee is underpaid regardless of whether the 12 initial violation is intentionally committed.” (Lab. Code, § 1197.1, subd.

13 (a).)

14 24. As set forth above, Defendants failed to fully compensate the Aggrieved Employees for 15 all minimum wages. Accordingly, through PAGA and to the extent permitted by law, Plaintiff and the 16 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 17 1197.1 in addition to any other applicable penalties.

18 B. OVERTIME VIOLATIONS

19 25. Labor Code section 510 requires employers to compensate employees who work more 20 than eight hours in one workday, forty hours in a workweek, and for the first eight hours worked on 21 the seventh consecutive day no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee.
22 (Lab. Code, § 510, subd. (a).) Further, Labor Code section 510 obligates employers to compensate 23 employees at no less than twice the regular rate of pay when an employee works more than twelve 24 hours in a day or more than eight hours on the seventh consecutive day of work. (Lab. Code, § 510, 25 subd. (a).) These rules are also reflected in the Applicable Wage Orders.

26 26. In accordance with Labor Code section 1194 and the Applicable Wage Orders, the 27 Aggrieved Employees could not then agree and cannot now agree to work for a lesser wage than the 28 amount provided by Labor Code sections 510 or the Applicable Wage Orders.

1           27.     Here, Defendants violated their duty to accurately and completely compensate the 2 Aggrieved Employees for all overtime worked. The Aggrieved Employees periodically worked hours 3 that entitled them to overtime compensation under the law but were not fully compensated for those 4 hours.

5           28.     These actions were and are in clear violation of California’s overtime laws as set forth 6 in Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1199, and the Applicable Wage Orders. (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, 7 §§ 11020, 11040, 11060.) As a result of Defendants’ faulty policies and practices, the Aggrieved 8 Employees were not compensated for all hours worked or paid accurate overtime compensation.

9           C.     REST BREAK VIOLATIONS

10          29.     Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7 and the Applicable Wage Orders, Defendants 11 were and are required to provide the Aggrieved Employees with compensated, duty-free rest periods 12 of not less than ten minutes for every major fraction of four hours worked. Under the Applicable Wage 13 Orders, an employer must authorize and permit all employees to take ten minute duty free rest periods 14 for every major fraction of four hours worked. (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11020, 11040, 11060.)

15          30.     Likewise, Labor Code section 226.7 provides that “[a]n employer shall not require an 16 employee to work during a meal or rest or recovery period mandated pursuant to an applicable statute, 17 or applicable regulation, standard, or order of the Industrial Welfare Commission . . . .” (Lab. Code, § 18 226.7, subd. (b).) Labor Code section 226.7 also provides that employers must pay their employees one 19 additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate for each workday that a “meal or rest or recovery 20 period is not provided.” (Lab. Code, § 226.7, subd. (c).) The “regular rate” for these purposes must 21 factor in all nondiscretionary payments for work performed by the employee, including non-22 discretionary bonuses, commissions, and other forms of wage payments exceeding the employees’ base 23 hourly rate. (Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC (2021) 11 Cal.5th 858, 878.) Thus, the Wage 24 Orders set when and for how long the rest period must take place and the Labor Code establishes that 25 violations of the IWC Wage Orders are unlawful and sets forth the premium pay employer must pay 26 their employees when employers fail to provide rest periods.

27          31.     The California Supreme Court has held that, during required rest periods, “employers 28 must relieve their employees of all duties and relinquish any control over how employees spend their

1 break time.” (Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 260.) Relinquishing 2 control over employees during rest periods requires that employees be “free to leave the employer’s 3 premises” and be “permitted to attend to personal business.” (Id. at p. 275.) The Brinker Court 4 explained in the context of rest breaks that employer liability attaches from adopting an unlawful 5 policy:

6 “An employer is required to authorize and permit the amount of rest break time 7 called for under the wage order for its industry. If it does not—if, for example, 8 it adopts a uniform policy authorizing and permitting only one rest break for 9 employees working a seven-hour shift when two are required—it has violated 10 the wage order and is liable.” (Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Superior Court (2012) 53 11 Cal.4th 1004, 1033.)

12 32. Here, Defendants periodically did not permit the Aggrieved Employees to take 13 compliant duty-free rest breaks, free from Defendants’ control as required by Labor Code section 14 226.7, the Applicable Wage Orders, and applicable precedent. (See Augustus v. ABM Security Services, 15 Inc. (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 269 [concluding that “during rest periods employers must relieve employees 16 of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time.”].) At all relevant times, the 17 Aggrieved Employees were periodically not provided with legally-compliant and timely rest periods 18 of at least ten minutes for each four hour work period, or major fraction thereof due to Defendants’ 19 unlawful rest period policies/practices. The Aggrieved Employees were often expected and required to 20 continue working through rest periods to meet the expectations Defendants and finish the workday. In 21 some cases when the Aggrieved Employees worked more than ten hours in a shift, Defendants failed 22 to authorize and/or permit a third mandated rest period. As a result, the Aggrieved Employees were 23 periodically unable to take compliant rest periods.

24 33. In such cases where Defendants did not offer the Aggrieved Employees the opportunity 25 to receive a compliant off-duty rest period, “the court may not conclude employees voluntarily chose 26 to skip those breaks.” (Alberts v. Aurora Behavioral Health Care (2015) 241 Cal.App.4th 388, 410 27 (2015) [“If an employer fails to provide legally compliant meal or rest breaks, the court may not 28 conclude employees voluntarily chose to skip those breaks.”]; Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Superior Court,

1 supra, 53 Cal.4th at p. 1033 [“No issue of waiver ever arises for a rest break that was required by law 2 but never authorized; if a break is not authorized, an employee has no opportunity to decline to take 3 it.”].)

4 34. In addition to failing to authorize and permit compliant rest periods, the Aggrieved 5 Employees were not compensated with one hour’s worth of pay at their regular rate of compensation 6 when they were not provided with a compliant rest period in accordance with Labor Code section 7 226.7, subdivision (c). Thus, Defendants have violated Labor Code section 226.7 and the Applicable 8 Wage Orders.

9 D. MEAL BREAK VIOLATIONS

10 35. Labor Code section 512 and the Applicable Wage Orders require employers to provide 11 employees with a thirty-minute uninterrupted and duty-free meal period within the first five hours of 12 work. (Lab. Code, § 512, subd. (a) [“An employer shall not employ an employee for a work period of 13 more than five hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than 30 14 minutes . . . .”]; Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11020, 11040, 11060 [“No employer shall employ any 15 person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 16 minutes . . . .”].) Additionally, an employee who works more than ten hours per day is entitled to 17 receive a second thirty-minute uninterrupted and duty-free meal period. (Lab. Code, § 512, subd. (a) 18 [“An employer shall not employ an employee for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without 19 providing the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes . . . .”].)

20 36. “An on-duty meal period is permitted only when the nature of the work prevents an 21 employee from being relieved of all duty and the parties agree in writing to an on-duty paid meal 22 break.” (Lubin v. The Wackenhut Corp. (2016) 5 Cal.App.5th 926, 932.) The written agreement must 23 include a provision allowing the employee to revoke it at any time. (Ibid.) Generally, the California 24 Department of Industrial Relations, Division of Labor Standards Enforcement (“DLSE”) and courts 25 have “found that the nature of the work exception applies: (1) where the work has some particular 26 external force that requires the employee to be on duty at all times, and (2) where the employee is the 27 sole employee of a particular employer.” (Id. at p. 945, internal quotation marks omitted; Abdullah v.
28 U.S. Security Associates, Inc. (9th Cir. 2013) 731 F.3d 952, 958–959.) “[I]t is the employer’s obligation

1 to determine whether the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved before requiring 2 an employee to take an on-duty meal period.” (Lubin v. The Wackenhut Corp., supra, 5 Cal.App.5th at 3 p. 946.)

4 37. Here, the Aggrieved Employees were never asked to sign any enforceable document 5 agreeing to an on-duty meal period. Moreover, nothing in the nature of their work involved the kind of 6 “external force” that might justify on-duty meal breaks. (Lubin v. The Wackenhut Corp., supra, 5 7 Cal.App.5th at p. 945.) Nevertheless, Defendants periodically did not provide compliant off-duty meal 8 periods within the first five hours of work for the Aggrieved Employees.

9 38. As with rest breaks, meal breaks must be duty-free. (Brinker Restaurant Corp. v.
10 Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1035 [“The IWC’s wage orders have long made a meal period’s 11 duty-free nature its defining characteristic.”].) Relinquishing control over employees during meal 12 periods requires that employees be “free to leave the employer’s premises” and be “permitted to attend 13 to personal business.” (Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., supra, 2 Cal.5th at p. 275.) Under 14 Labor Code section 512, if an employer maintains a uniform policy that does not authorize and permit 15 the amount of meal time called for under the law (as specified in the Labor Code and/or applicable 16 IWC Wage Order), “it has violated the wage order and is liable.” (Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior 17 Court, supra, 53 Cal.4th at p. 1033.)

18 39. During the applicable statutory periods here, the Aggrieved Employees were 19 periodically denied legally-compliant and timely off-duty meal periods of at least thirty minutes due to 20 Defendants’ unlawful meal period policy and practices. As a result of Defendants’ uniform meal period 21 policies and practices, the Aggrieved Employees were often not permitted to take compliant first meal 22 periods before the end of the fifth hour of work. The Aggrieved Employees were also periodically not 23 permitted to take second meal periods for shifts in excess of ten hours. Defendants thus violated Labor 24 Code section 512 and the Applicable Wage Orders by failing to advise, authorize, or permit the 25 Aggrieved Employees to receive thirty-minute, off-duty meal periods within the first five hours of their 26 shifts.

27 40. Labor Code section 226.7 provides that “[a]n employer shall not require an employee 28 to work during a meal or rest or recovery period mandated pursuant to an applicable statute, or

1 applicable regulation, standard, or order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.” (Lab. Code, § 226.7, 2 subd. (b).) Labor Code section 226.7, subdivision (c), and the Applicable Wage Orders further obligate 3 employers to pay employees one additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation 4 for each workday that the meal period is not provided. (Lab. Code, § 226.7, subd. (c); Cal. Code of 5 Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11020, 11040, 11060 [“If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in 6 accordance with the applicable provisions of this order, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) 7 hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period is 8 not provided.”].) The “regular rate” for these purposes must factor in all nondiscretionary payments for 9 work performed by the employee, including non-discretionary bonuses, commissions, and other forms 10 of wage payments exceeding the employees’ base hourly rate. (Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC 11 (2021) 11 Cal.5th 858, 878.)

12 41. Accordingly, for each day that the Aggrieved Employees did not receive compliant meal 13 periods, they were and are entitled to receive meal period premiums pursuant to Labor Code section 14 226.7 and the Applicable Wage Orders. Defendants, however, failed to pay the Aggrieved Employees 15 applicable meal period premiums for many workdays that the employees did not receive a compliant 16 meal period. Thus, Defendants have violated Labor Code section 226.7 and the Applicable Wage 17 Orders.

18 E. UNTIMELY WAGES DURING EMPLOYMENT

19 42. Labor Code section 204 expressly requires employers who pay employees on a weekly, 20 biweekly, or semimonthly basis to pay all wages “not more than seven calendar days following the 21 close of the payroll period.” Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a), makes employers who violate 22 Labor Code section 204 subject to a penalty of:

23 “(1) For any initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to 24 pay each employee.

25 “(2) For each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two 26 hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 27 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.” (Lab. Code, § 210, subd.
28 (a).)

1           43.     Notably, the penalty provided by Labor Code section 210 is “[i]n addition to, and 2 entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this article . . . .” (Lab. Code, § 210, 3 subd. (a).)

4           44.     Due to Defendants’ failure to pay the Aggrieved Employees the wages described above, 5 along with rest and meal break premiums, Defendants failed to timely pay the Aggrieved Employees
6 within seven calendar days following the close of payroll in accordance with Labor Code section 204 7 on a regular and consistent basis. (See Parson v. Golden State FC, LLC (N.D. Cal., May 2, 2016, No.
8 16-CV-00405-JST) 2016 WL 1734010, at p. *3–5, 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 58299 [finding that a failure 9 to pay rest period premiums can support claims under Labor Code sections 203 and 204].)

10           F.     UNTIMELY WAGES AT SEPARATION

11           45.     Labor Code section 203 provides “if an employer willfully fails to pay . . . any wages 12 of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty” 13 for up to thirty days. (Lab. Code § 203; Mamika v. Barca (1998) 68 Cal.App.4th 487, 492.) As a result 14 of Defendants’ failure to pay the Aggrieved Employees for the wages described above, along with rest 15 and meal break premiums, Defendants violated and continue to violate Labor Code section 203.

16           46.     Due to Defendants’ faulty pay policies, those Aggrieved Employees whose employment 17 with Defendants concluded were not compensated for each and every hour worked at the appropriate 18 rate. Defendants have failed to pay formerly-employed Aggrieved Employees whose sums were certain 19 at the time of termination within at least seventy-two hours of their resignation and have failed to pay 20 those sums for thirty days thereafter.

21           G.     WAGE STATEMENT VIOLATIONS

22           47.     Defendants also failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements in accordance with 23 Labor Code sections 226, subdivisions (a)(1), (2), (5), and (9). Labor Code section 226, subdivision 24 (a), obligates employers, semi-monthly or at the time of each payment to furnish an itemized wage 25 statement in writing showing:

- 26                   (1)     The gross wages earned;
27                   (2)     The total hours worked by the employee; 28

- (3) The number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece rate basis;
- (4) All deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item;
- (5) The net wages earned;
- (6) The inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid;
- (7) The name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number;
- (8) The name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and
- (9) All applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

48. Due to Defendants' failure to pay the Aggrieved Employees properly as described above, the wage statements issued do not indicate the correct amount of gross wages earned, total hours worked, or the net wages earned, or the applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate. Thus, Defendants have violated Labor Code section 226, subdivisions (a)(1), (2), (5), and (9).

49. In addition to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), Defendants also knowingly and intentionally failed to provide the Aggrieved Employees with accurate itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e). Defendants knew that they were not providing the Aggrieved Employees with wage statements required by California law but nevertheless failed to correct their unlawful practices and policies. (See Garnett v. ADT LLC (E.D. Cal. 2015) 139 F.Supp.3d 1121, 1134 [finding the defendant knowingly and intentionally violated Labor Code section 226 because the "[d]efendant knew that it was not providing total hours worked to plaintiff or other employees paid on commission" even though it believed that employees paid solely on commission or commission and salary "are exempt and therefore we do not record hours on a wage statement."].)

1           H.      RECORDKEEPING VIOLATIONS

2           50.     Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), requires employers to keep an accurate record 3 of, among other things, all hours worked by employees. Labor Code section 226.3 provides, in pertinent 4 part, as follows:

5                   “Any employer who violates subdivision (a) of Section 226 shall be subject to a 6 civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per 7 violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee 8 for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to 9 provide the employee a wage deduction statement or fails to keep the records 10 required in subdivision (a) of Section 226. The civil penalties provided for in 11 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law.” (Lab. Code, § 12 226.3, emphasis added.)

13          51.     Likewise, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d), requires every employer, including 14 Defendants, to:

15                   “Keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which 16 employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by 17 and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any 18 applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or 19 establishments. These records shall be kept in accordance with rules established 20 for this purpose by the commission, but in any case shall be kept on file for not 21 less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee from 22 maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, 23 piece-rate units earned.” (Lab. Code, § 1174, subd. (d), emphasis added.)

24          52.     As explained in detail above, Defendants failed to provide the Aggrieved Employees 25 with accurate itemized wage statements. Defendants did so, in part, because they failed to accurately 26 track hours worked by the Aggrieved Employees. Defendants have thus failed to keep accurate records 27 of the “total hours worked by the employee[s]” in violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), 28

1 and are therefore subject to the penalties provided by Labor Code section 226.3. These penalties are 2 “in addition to any other penalty provided by law.” (Lab. Code, § 226.3.)

3 53. The failure to accurately track hours worked also resulted in a failure of Defendants to 4 keep a record of all “payroll records showing the hours worked daily by” Defendants’ employees, 5 including Plaintiff, in violation of Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d).

6 V. EXHAUSTION OF REMEDIES

7 54. Plaintiff has fully and completely exhausted administrative remedies under PAGA prior 8 to proceeding with the PAGA claims stated in this complaint. Plaintiff filed a PAGA notice online with 9 the Labor Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and sent a letter by certified mail to Defendants 10 setting forth the facts and theories of the violations alleged against Defendants, as prescribed by PAGA.
11 (Lab. Code, §§ 2698–2699.8.)

12 55. As required by PAGA, Plaintiff submitted the $75.00 filing fee with the LWDA by 13 regular mail. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), no notice was received by 14 Plaintiff from the LWDA evidencing its intention to investigate within sixty-five calendar days of the 15 postmark date of the PAGA notice. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to commence and proceed with a civil 16 action pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.

17 VI. CAUSES OF ACTION

18 First Cause of Action

19 Penalties Pursuant to PAGA for Violations of Labor Code Sections 201, 202, 203, 20 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 1174, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 21 1198.5, 1199, and Other Provisions of the California Labor Code
22 (Against All Defendants)

23 56. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

24 57. Based on the above allegations incorporated by reference, Defendants violated Labor 25 Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 1174, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 26 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, and others that may be applicable; and the Applicable Wage Orders (Cal.
27 Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11020, 11040, 11060), and others that may be applicable.
28

1           58.     As a result of the acts alleged above, Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code sections 2 2698 through 2699.6 because of Defendants' violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 3 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 1174, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, and others
4 that may be applicable; and the Applicable Wage Orders (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11020, 11040, 5 11060), and others that may be applicable.

6           59.     Under Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f)(2), and 2699.5, for each such violation, 7 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to penalties in an amount to be shown at the time
8 of trial with a default penalty of at least $100.00 per aggrieved employee per pay period. These penalties 9 must be allocated sixty-five percent to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and 10 thirty-five percent to the affected employees. (Lab. Code, § 2699, subd. (m).)

11           60.     For violations of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), Plaintiff seeks the default 12 penalty provided by Labor Code section 226.3. Labor Code section 226.3 provides that "[a]ny 13 employer who violates subdivision (a) of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount 14 of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand 15 dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails 16 to provide the employee a wage deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision 17 (a) of Section 226." Accordingly, through PAGA and to the extent permitted by law Plaintiff and the 18 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover penalties for violations of Labor Code section 226.3 and 19 seeks default PAGA penalties for each of Defendants' numerous violations of Labor Code section 226, 20 subdivision (e).

21           61.     Labor Code section 210 provides that "in addition to, an entirely independent and apart 22 from, any other penalty provided in this article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each 23 employee as provided in Sections . . . 204 . . . shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 24 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee; (2) For each 25 subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure 26 to pay each employee, plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld." As a result of the faulty 27 compensation policies and practices, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are also entitled to recover 28 penalties under Labor Code section 210 through PAGA.

1           62. Labor Code section 1197.1 authorizes a civil penalty, restitution of wages, and 2 liquidated damages, in the amount of: (1) one hundred dollars ($100) for any initial violation that is 3 intentionally committed for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee is 4 underpaid, and (2) two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each subsequent violation for the same specific 5 offense for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee is underpaid 6 regardless of whether the initial violation is intentionally committed. Accordingly, through PAGA and 7 to the extent permitted by law, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover pursuant 8 to Labor Code section 1197.1.

9           63. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this action to protect her 10 interests and those of the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the wages and penalties owed 11 by Defendants. Plaintiff has thereby incurred attorneys' fees and costs, which Plaintiff is also entitled 12 to recover under Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (k)(1).

13 VII. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

14           Plaintiff prays for judgment for herself and for all others on whose behalf this suit is brought 15 against Defendants, as follows:

- 16           1. For the failure to maintain accurate employment records, penalties pursuant to Labor 17 Code sections 226.3, 1174.5, and others that may be applicable;
- 18           2. For the claim of penalties pursuant to PAGA and other provisions of the California 19 Labor Code, a civil penalty in the amount of $100 for each violation as specified in 20 Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f)(2)(A), in the representative action brought on 21 behalf of Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees pursuant the Labor Code Private 22 Attorneys General Act of 2004, and for civil penalties available under Labor Code 23 section 210;
- 24           3. Prejudgment interest on all due and unpaid wages pursuant to Labor Code section 218.6 25 and Civil Code sections 3287 and 3289;
- 26           4. On all causes of action for which attorneys' fees may be available, for attorneys' fees 27 and costs as provided by Labor Code sections 218.5, 226, 2699, Code of Civil Procedure 28 section 1021.5, and others as may be applicable;

1           5.       For an order enjoining Defendants, and each of them, and their agents, servants, and 2                   employees, and all persons acting under, in concert with, or for them, from acting in 3                   derogation of any rights or duties adumbrated in this complaint; and 4           6.       For such other and further relief, this Court may deem just and proper.
