GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff SHAUTAUQUA NEKITA BLOCKER ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants CROSS COUNTRY HEALTHCARE, INC. dba CROSS COUNTRY LOCUMS; THE TEEN PROJECT, INC; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively
"Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, herself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt

1 employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with 2 Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all hours 3 worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to 4 authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium 5 wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest 6 period premium wages; indemnification for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by 7 employees in direct consequence of discharging their duties; statutory penalties for failure to timely 8 pay earned wages during employment; statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage 9 statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the form of continuation wages for failure to timely 10 pay employees all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff seeks on a representative 11 basis, following notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable 12 attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, 13 the State of California, and others aggrieved.

14 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

15 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 16 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 17 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 18 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars 19 ($35,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-20 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 21 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 22 California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County, at 8142 Sunland Blvd, Sun Valley, CA 23 91352.

24 III. PARTIES

25 1. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 26 Development Agency on behalf of herself and other current and former employees subject to 27 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 28 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will work

1 for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp

7 COUNTRY HEALTHCARE, INC. dba CROSS COUNTRY LOCUMS., is authorized to do 8 business within the State of California and is doing business in the State of California and/or that 9 Defendants DOES 1-33 are, and at all times relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of

12 Defendant CROSS COUNTRY HEALTHCARE, INC. dba CROSS COUNTRY LOCUMS
13 operates in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Los Angeles 14 County, including but not limited to, at 8142 Sunland Blvd, Sun Valley, CA 91352.

15 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant THE TEEN 16 PROJECT, INC., is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing business
17 in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 34-66 are, and at all times relevant hereto 18 were persons acting on behalf of Defendant THE TEEN PROJECT, INC. in the establishment of, 19 or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies. Defendant TEEN 20 PROJECT, INC. operates in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees 21 in Los Angeles County, including but not limited to, at 8142 Sunland Blvd, Sun Valley, CA 91352.

22 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 23 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 24 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 25 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working 26 conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

27 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
28 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued

1 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 2 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to be 3 violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of the 4 Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

5 6. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff 6 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 7 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 8 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 9 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 10 complaint.

11 7. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 12 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff 13 reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

14 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

15 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 16 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

17 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and 18 Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

19 8. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

20 9. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 21 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 22 1194, 1197, 1198, 2802, and the applicable Wage Orders.

23 10. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California
24 Labor Code:

25 11. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
26 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt 27 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 28 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee

1 is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or 2 indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

3 12. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 4 for all “hours worked” at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 5 Wage Orders.

6 13. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 7 non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with having 8 worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 9 California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum wage for all 10 hours worked due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited 11 to:

12 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 13 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty and continue to work through their off-the-clock meal 14 breaks.

15 14. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 16 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants’ 17 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 18 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 19 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable 20 Wage Order.

21 15. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay 22 and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of 23 their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer 24 is required to pay hourly employees for all “hours worked,” which includes all time that an employee 25 is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This 26 includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to 27 the benefit of the employer.’

28 16. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a

1 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40) 2 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

3 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours 4 in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in 5 any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half 6 (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours 7 in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay 8 for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a 9 workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an 10 employee.

11 Labor Code section 510.

12 17. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 13 California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due 14 to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

15 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
16 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty and continue to work through their off-the-clock meal 17 breaks.

18 18. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each 19 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 20 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 21 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 22 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, 23 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed 24 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 25 sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

26 19. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 27 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to 28 pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

20. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 5 at §11; Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

21. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 5 at §11.

22. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not limited to:

(a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least thirty (30) minutes for every five hours worked.

(b) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to stay on-duty and continue to work through their off-the-clock meal breaks due to chronic understaffing.

(c) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a second uninterrupted duty-free meal period of at least thirty (30) minutes for each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

23. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

24. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal periods in compliance with California law.

25. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

26. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage Order 5 at §12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes' rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on." Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7; Wage Order 5 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period. Wage Order 5 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement "obligates employers to permit – and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods." Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

27. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday the employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage Order 5 at § 12.

1 28. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 2 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 3 non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 4 limited to:

5 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 6 hourly non-exempt employees with at least a net ten (10) minute rest break for every four (4) hours 7 worked or major fraction thereof.

8 (b) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 9 non-exempt employees to remain on-duty and work through their rest break due to chronic 10 understaffing.

11 (c) Failing to provide Plaintiff and similarly situated employees a third uninterrupted 12 duty-free rest period of at least a net ten (10) minutes on each workday that Plaintiff and similarly 13 situated employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

14 29. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 15 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 16 hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday 17 they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 18 226.7.

19 30. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 20 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 21 wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods 22 in compliance with California law.

23 31. Failure to Indemnify for Losses and Expenditures Incurred as Part of 24 Employment: California law requires that every employer must indemnify its employees for all 25 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in discharge of his or her duties or at the 26 obedience of the directions of the employer. Moreover, an employer is prohibited from passing the 27 ordinary business expenses and losses of the employer onto the employee. (Lab. Code, § 2802.)

28 32. Defendants have violated Labor Code Section 2802 by failing to indemnify Plaintiff

1 and other current and former aggrieved California-based non-exempt hourly employees' necessary
2 expenditures they incurred in the discharge of their duties. Specifically, Defendants employed 3 policies, practices, and/or procedures included, but not limited to:

4 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based non-5 exempt hourly employees to use or purchase their own tools and/or resources in order to work for 6 Defendants, including but not limited to their cell phone (including both telephone use and cellular 7 data use) for work-related purposes – without reimbursing Plaintiff and other current and former 8 aggrieved California-based non-exempt hourly employees for such use.

9 33. Moreover, Defendants employed policies and procedures which ensured Plaintiff and 10 aggrieved employees would not receive indemnification for their employment related expenses.
11 This practice resulted in Plaintiff and aggrieved employees not receiving such indemnification in 12 compliance with California law.

13 34. Therefore, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for their 14 employment related expenses, including but not limited to costs related to use of their personal cell 15 phones and costs associated with their uniforms pursuant to Labor Code section 2802.

16 35. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 17 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 18 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 19 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 20 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 21 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll 22 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7) 23 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 24 section 204(d).

25 36. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 26 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 27 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages 28 and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants'

1 aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and 2 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned 3 wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

4 37. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 5 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 6 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage 7 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by 8 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful 9 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246, 10 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor 11 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 12 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

13 38. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 14 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee 15 his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 16 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any 17 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 18 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare 19 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee 20 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders 21 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive 22 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her 23 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 24 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 25 worked at each hourly rate by the employee."

26 39. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to pay Plaintiff and other 27 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages earned 28 (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages) Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' wage statements were rendered inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9). As such Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were unable to promptly and easily determine the accurate information required by Labor Code section 226(a).

40. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee's employment ends. The wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

41. As a result of the aforementioned willful violations of the Labor Code, because Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

42. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

43. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code section 2699.3. On January 9, 2025, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations alleged.

44. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends

1 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

2 45. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 3 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 4 510, 512, 1194, and 1198., During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, 5 preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the 6 following amounts:

7 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, 1198, and 8 2802; one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation 9 and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 10 violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

11 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226(a), alternatively, two hundred fifty 12 dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each 13 subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period 14 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

15 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for each 16 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one 17 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 18 established by Labor Code section 558].

19 d. For violations of Labor Code section 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for 20 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 21 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
22 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 23 section 210].

24 e. For violations of Labor Code section 223, one hundred dollars ($100) for 25 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 26 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
27 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code
28 section 225.5].

46. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with her claims for civil penalties.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HERSELF AND ON OTHER AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and the IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;
