Attorneys for Plaintiff RUBEN VALDEZ, on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES – CENTRAL DISTRICT

RUBEN VALDEZ, on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees

Plaintiff,

vs.

SOGNO TOSCANO TUSCAN DREAM, INC.;
and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 25STCV06777

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF RUBEN VALDEZ’S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff RUBEN VALDEZ ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants SOGNO TOSCANO TUSCAN DREAM, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, himself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all hours

1 worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to pay 2 overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay; failure to authorize or permit all legally required 3 and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium wages; failure to authorize or permit 4 all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest period premium wages; failure to pay 5 wages for accrued paid sick time at the regular rate of pay; statutory penalties for failure to timely 6 pay earned wages during employment; statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage 7 statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the form of continuation wages for failure to timely 8 pay employees all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff seeks on a representative 9 basis, following notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable 10 attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, 11 the State of California, and others aggrieved.

12 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 14 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 15 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 16 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars 17 ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-18 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 19 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 20 California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County, at 5596 Bandini Blvd, Bell, CA 90201.

21 III. PARTIES

22 1. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 23 Development Agency on behalf of himself and other current and former employees subject to 24 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 25 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will work 26 for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp 27 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the currently 28 named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was employed by

1 Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Los Angeles from in or around 2 December 2, 2021 until on or about December 18, 2024.

3 2. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant SOGNO 4 TOSCANO TUSCAN DREAM, INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California 5 and is doing business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all 6 times relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant SOGNO TOSCANO TUSCAN 7 DREAM, INC. in the establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour 8 practices or policies. Defendant SOGNO TOSCANO TUSCAN DREAM, INC. operates in Los 9 Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Los Angeles County, including 10 but not limited to, at 5596 Bandini Blvd, Bell, CA 90201.

11 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 12 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 13 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 14 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working 15 conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

16 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
17 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued 18 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 19 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to be 20 violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of the 21 Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

22 5. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff 23 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 24 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 25 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 26 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 27 complaint.

28 6. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

(Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

7. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

8. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 1198, and the applicable Wage Orders.

9. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California Labor Code:

10. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage: Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

11. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the Wage Orders.

12. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with having worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

1 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
2 non-exempt employees to always maintain their walkie talkies for communication with coworkers
3 and/or management during their shift and their off-the-clock meal breaks.

4 13. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 5 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' 6 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 7 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 8 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable 9 Wage Order.

10 14. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay 11 and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of 12 their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer 13 is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," which includes all time that an employee 14 is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This 15 includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to 16 the benefit of the employer.'

17 15. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 18 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40) 19 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

20 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours 21 in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in 22 any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half 23 (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours 24 in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay 25 for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a 26 workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an 27 employee.

28 Labor Code section 510.

16. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

1 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
2 non-exempt employees to always maintain their walkie talkies for communication with coworkers
3 and/or management during their shift and their off-the-clock meal breaks.

4 17. Furthermore, overtime is based upon an employee's regular rate of pay. "The regular 5 rate at which an employee is employed shall be deemed to include all remuneration for employment 6 paid to, or on behalf, of the employee." See Division of Labor Standards Enforcement – 7 Enforcement Policies and Interpretations Manual, Section 49.1.2.

8 18. In this case, Plaintiff alleges that when he and other current and former aggrieved 9 California-based hourly non-exempt employees earned overtime wages, Defendants failed to pay 10 them overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay due to Defendants' failure to include all 11 remuneration when calculating the overtime rate of pay. Specifically, Defendants maintained a 12 policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as bonus pay, example, 13 when calculating Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-14 exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying overtime.

15 19. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each 16 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 17 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 18 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 19 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, 20 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed 21 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 22 sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

23 20. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 24 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to 25 pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 26 hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and 27 shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

28 21. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 7 at §11; Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

22. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 7 at §11.

23. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not limited to:

(a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees with timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least thirty (30) minutes for every five hours worked.

(b) Failing to provide Plaintiff and similarly situated employees a second timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least thirty (30) minutes for each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

24. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that

1 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did 2 not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

3 25. Finally, on occasions when Defendants paid Plaintiff and other current and former 4 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a “premium” wage for late, missed, short, 5 on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted meal periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1) additional 6 hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-
7 exempt employees’ regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, 8 practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as bonus pay, for example, 9 when calculating Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-10 exempt employees’ regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying meal period premium wages.

11 26. Defendants’ foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 12 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 13 wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal 14 periods in compliance with California law.

15 27. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 16 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay
17 rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 18 non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

19 28. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest 20 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code 21 section 226.7; Wage Order 7 at §12. Under California law, “[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes’ 22 rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six 23 hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on.” Brinker
24 Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7; 25 Wage Order 7 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period.
26 Wage Order 7 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement “obligates employers to permit – 27 and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., 28 (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all

1 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

2 29. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must 3 pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday the 4 employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage 5 Order 7 at § 12.

6 30. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 7 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 8 non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 9 limited to:

10 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 11 hourly non-exempt employees with timely, uninterrupted, duty-free rest breaks of at least ten (10) 12 minutes for every four (4) hours worked.

13 (b) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 14 hourly non-exempt employees with a third timely, uninterrupted, duty-free rest break of at least ten 15 (10) minutes for each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-16 based hourly non-exempt employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

17 31. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 18 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 19 hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday 20 they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 21 226.7.

22 32. Finally, on occasions when Defendants did pay Plaintiff and other current and former 23 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a "premium" wage for late, missed, short, 24 on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted rest periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1) additional 25 hour of pay at Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-26 exempt employees' regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, 27 practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such bonus pay, example, when 28 calculating Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying rest period premiums.

33. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods in compliance with California law.

34. Failure to provide sick pay wages: Defendants had a policy and/or procedure where Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees accrued paid sick time.

35. Labor Code section 246, subdivision (a), states in relevant part "[a]n employee who...works in California for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of employment is entitled to paid sick days." Additionally, an employee accrues paid sick days at the rate of no-less-than one (1) hour per every thirty (30) hours worked, beginning at the commencement of employment. Labor Code section 246(b).

36. Here, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were employed by Defendants for 30 or more days and were entitled to paid sick days. Defendants, however, lacked a policy, practice, and/or procedure whereby Plaintiffs and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees who were employed by Defendants for 30 days or more could accrue paid sick days at the rate of no-less-than one (1) hour per every thirty (30) hours worked, beginning at the commencement of employment as required by Labor Code section 246(b).

37. In this case, Plaintiff alleges that when he and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees elected to use paid sick time, Defendants failed to pay them sick time wages at the proper sick time rate of pay due to Defendants' failure to include all remuneration when calculating the sick time rate of pay. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration including but not limited to bonus pay, for example, when calculating Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying sick time.

1 38. Defendants' foregoing policy, practice, and/or procedure resulted in Defendants 2 failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-3 exempt employees' paid sick days, in violation of Labor Code section 246.

4 39. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 5 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 6 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 7 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 8 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 9 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll 10 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7) 11 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 12 section 204(d).

13 40. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 14 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 15 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages 16 and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants' 17 aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and 18 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned 19 wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

20 41. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 21 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 22 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage 23 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by 24 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful 25 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246, 26 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor 27 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 28 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

1 42. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 2 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee 3 his or her wages, the employer must “furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 4 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any 5 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 6 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare 7 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee 8 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders 9 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive 10 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her 11 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 12 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 13 worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

14 43. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff 15 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages 16 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period 17 premium wages) rendered Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based 18 hourly non-exempt employees’ wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 19 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

20 44. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 21 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee’s employment ends. The 22 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) 23 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

24 45. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
25 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all 26 their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, 27 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 28 employee’s termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

1 46. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, 2 on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to 3 recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code 4 section 2699.3.

5 47. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code 6 section 2699.3. On January 3, 2025, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and 7 provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of 8 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the 9 violations alleged.

10 48. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 11 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 12 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 13 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 14 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

15 49. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 16 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 17 246, 510, 512, 1194, and 1198., During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, 18 preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the 19 following amounts:

20 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, and 1198; 21 one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and 22 two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 23 violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

24 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226(a), alternatively, two hundred fifty 25 dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each 26 subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period 27 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

28 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for each

1 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one 2 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 3 established by Labor Code section 558].

4 d. For violations of Labor Code section 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for 5 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 6 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
7 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code
8 section 210].

9 e. For violations of Labor Code section 223, one hundred dollars ($100) for 10 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 11 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
12 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 13 section 225.5].

14 50. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of 15 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with his claims for civil penalties.

16 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

17 WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND ON OTHER AGGRIEVED
18 EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

19 ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

20 1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and the 21 IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

22 2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations 23 subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the California 24 Labor Code, including but not limited to sections 210, 225.5, 226.3, 558, 2699(f);

25 3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable 26 under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and 27 4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or 28 appropriate.
