SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

LILY MIHAIOVIC, on behalf of others
similarly situated and the State of California
under the Private Attorneys General Act,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

BLACK ANGUS STEAKHOUSES, LLC and
DOES 1 through 50, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No. 25CU000305C

CLASS ACTION

FIRST AMENDED CLASS AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT

1. Minimum Wage Violations
2. Failure to Pay All Overtime Wages
3. Meal Period Violations
4. Rest Period Violations
5. Paid Sick Leave Violations
6. Untimely Payment of Wages
7. Wage Statement Violations
8. Waiting Time Penalties
9. Unfair Competition
10. Civil Penalties under the Private Attorneys
General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq.)

1 Plaintiff LILY MIHAILOVIC, on behalf of all others similarly situated and the State of
2 California under the Private Attorneys General Act (“Plaintiff”) brings this FIRST AMENDED
3 CLASS AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT against Defendants BLACK ANGUS
4 STEAKHOUSES, LLC and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive (collectively “Defendants”), alleging as 5 follows:

6 INTRODUCTION

7 1. This is a class and representative action filed for wage and hour violations of the 8 California Labor Code.

9 2. Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and class members for all hours suffered or 10 permitted to work in violation of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

11 3. Defendant’s underpayment of wages was facilitated by their company-wide practices
12 of requiring employees to complete work while off-the-clock.

13 4. Defendant failed to provide all paid sick leave due to Defendant’s policy and practice
14 of requiring off-the-clock work. Additionally, Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and class members 15 with written notice of the amount of paid sick leave available.

16 5. Defendant failed to provide, authorize, and/or permit Plaintiff and the class members
17 to take compliant meal and rest periods to which they were entitled. Further, Defendant failed to pay 18 meal and rest period premiums.

19 6. Defendant’s employment policies, practices, and payroll administration systems
20 enabled and facilitated these violations on a company-wide basis with respect to the class members.

21 7. Defendant is further liable for derivative claims for wage statements, untimely 22 payment, and other associated violations.

23 8. Plaintiff seeks to recover the underpaid damages, plus associated penalties, interests,
24 attorney’s fees and costs.

25 JURISDICTION & VENUE

26 9. Jurisdiction of this action is proper in this Court under Article VI, Section 10 of the 27 California Constitution as the causes of action are premised upon violations of California law.
28

10. The monetary damages and restitution sought exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court.

11. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves to the California economy so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

12. Venue is proper in this Court under Code of Civil Procedure sections 393(a), 395, and/or 395.5 because, upon information and belief, Defendants conducted business and committed some of the alleged violations in this County.

PARTIES

A. Plaintiff Lily Mihailovic

13. Plaintiff Mihailovic is an individual over 18 years of age who worked for Defendants in California as a non-exempt employee from about March 2022 to January 2024. Plaintiff worked as a Cocktail Server.

14. The State of California, via the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), is the real party in interest in this action. (Kim v. Reins Int’l California, Inc. (2020) 9 Cal. 5th 73, 81 [The “government entity on whose behalf the plaintiff files suit is always the real party in interest.”]) To the extent permitted by law, including pursuant Balderas v. Fresh Start Harvesting, Inc., Court of Appeals Case No. B326759 (2nd App. Dist.) ____ Cal. App. 5th ____ (Mar. 20, 2024, as modified Apr. 18, 2024), the PAGA claim is brought exclusively as a representative action and does not include arbitrable claims.

B. Defendants

15. Defendant Black Angus Steakhouses, LLC is a Delaware limited liability company that maintains operations and conducts business throughout the State of California, including in this county.

16. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, or otherwise, of the parties sued as DOES 1 through 50, are presently unknown, unascertainable, or uncertain, and are sued by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474. Upon information and belief, each of DOES 1 through 50 constitutes a legal employer or is otherwise legally responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein. This Complaint may be amended to reflect their true names and capacities once ascertained.

17. Upon information and belief, Defendants in this action are employers, co-employers, joint employers, and/or part of an integrated employer enterprise, as each of the Defendants exercised control over the wages, hours, and working conditions of the employees, suffered and permitted them to work, and otherwise engaged them as employees under California law.

18. Upon information and belief, at least some of the Defendants have common ownership, common management, interrelationship of operations, and centralized control over labor relations and are therefore part of an integrated enterprise and thus jointly and severally responsible for the acts and omissions alleged herein, including pursuant to Labor Code sections 558, 558.1, and 1197.1.

19. Upon information and belief, Defendants acted in all respects pertinent to this action as an alter-ego, agent, servant, joint employer, joint venturer, co-conspirator, partner, in an integrated enterprise, or in some other capacity on behalf of all other co-defendants, such that the acts and omissions of each defendant may be legally attributable to all others.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

20. This action is brought individually and on behalf of the following class pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382:

a. All current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California at any time from four years (plus the additional 178-day statutory tolling period under Emergency Rule 9) prior to the filing of this action through date of class certification.

21. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish various subclass definitions as appropriate at the class certification stage, according to proof.

1 22. The class is ascertainable and shares a well-defined community of interest in this
2 litigation:

3 a. Numerosity: The class is estimated to exceed 50 individuals, although the 4 precise membership of the entire class is unknown at this time. The class is so 5 numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The identities of 6 class members are ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment and 7 payroll records.

8 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the other class
9 members. They were subject to the same policies and practices of Defendants,
10 which resulted in losses to the class. Proof of common unlawful business 11 practices, which Plaintiff experienced, will establish the right of the class to 12 recover on the causes of action alleged herein.

13 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff is an adequate class representative; will take all necessary
14 steps to protect the class members' interests adequately and fairly; has no
15 interest antagonistic to other class members; and is represented by attorneys 16 who have substantial experience prosecuting, defending, resolving, and 17 litigating wage and hour class, collective, and representative actions in 18 California state and federal courts.

19 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other means for adjudicating this 20 dispute. Individual joinder is impractical. Class treatment will allow for 21 common issues to be resolved in a single forum, simultaneously, and without 22 duplication of effort and expense.

23 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action
24 advances the State of California's strong public interest in ensuring its 25 approximately millions of employed residents are properly paid the wages they 26 earned for the hours they worked. Class actions provide a mechanism for 27 enforcement of labor laws and allow for vindication of employee rights by 28 unnamed class members.

23. Common questions of law and fact as to the class members predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The common questions of law and fact exist as to whether the employment policies and practices formulated by Defendants and applied to the class members constitute violations of California law.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

24. Plaintiff and class members worked for Defendant as non-exempt employees and were compensated on an hourly basis.

25. Defendant required Plaintiff to complete closing tasks, such as counting cash, calculating tips, putting cash into the cash envelope, finishing paperwork, and checking out with her manager before leaving. However, Plaintiff and class members were not permitted to remain on the clock to complete their closing duties. Rather, they were required to clock out but continue working until all closing tasks were finished. These tasks resulted in off-the-clock work several times per week. Due to this requirement to complete off-the-clock work, all hours worked were not directly compensated, resulting in the underpayment of regular wages to Plaintiff and class members.

26. Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and class members for all overtime hours worked as a result of Defendant's unlawful policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and class members to complete closing tasks all while off-the-clock.

27. Defendant did not provide Plaintiff and class members with all sick leave accrued based upon the actual hours that they worked. Because of Defendant's unlawful requirement of Plaintiff and class members to complete off-the-clock work as discussed above, Plaintiff and class members worked overtime hours that were not accounted for when calculating an employee's accrued paid sick leave.

28. Further, Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and class members with written notice of the amount of paid sick leave available. This violation is consistent throughout all Plaintiff's wage statements. Specifically, Plaintiff's wage statement for the pay period from January 30, 2024, to February 12, 2024, does not advise her of any accrued sick leave despite her working 13.04 hours that pay period.

1 29. Plaintiff and class members suffered many short, missed, late, and/or interrupted meal
2 periods due to the high demands of the job. Defendant failed to pay the class members all meal
3 premiums owed when they experienced such non-compliant meal periods.

4 30. Similarly, Plaintiff and class members were not authorized and permitted to take all
5 rest periods to which they were entitled. Plaintiff and other class members rarely, if at all, took all
6 their rest periods. Due to high demands of the job and understaffing, Plaintiff and other class members
7 were required to work through their rest periods.

8 31. First, due to the high demands of the job, Plaintiff and class members did not have time
9 to take a rest period. Defendant's restaurant was very fast-paced and constantly busy, leaving no time
10 for Plaintiff and class members to take a compliant break. For example, when Plaintiff requested to 11 take a rest period, her manager would tell her she could not take a break because of the amount of 12 work that needed to be done. Instead, Plaintiff would be required to take food to customers and help
13 other servers with their tables. Even when Plaintiff was able to take a rest period, this would only be 14 for 5 minutes, and then she would be required to go back to work. Plaintiff and class members were 15 required to handle customer issues such as reordering dishes for customers, opening bottles of 16 champagne and wine, bringing out utensils with soups and salads, and taking orders for large parties
17 preventing them from taking compliant rest periods.

18 32. Second, Defendant was understaffed so there were no servers to cover Plaintiff's tables
19 to take a compliant rest period. Servers would have their own tables to attend to and not have the 20 capacity to cover tables for Plaintiff and class members to take a rest period. Defendant failed to pay
21 the class members all rest period premiums owed when they experienced such non-compliant rest 22 periods.

23 33. These violations create derivative liability for failure to timely pay all wages owed each 24 payday or upon separation of employment.

25 34. As a result of the foregoing issues, Defendant failed to provide accurate itemized wage
26 statements to Plaintiff and class members each pay period as a result of the policies set forth above.
27 Defendant failed to list the correct "gross wages earned" as employees earned wages and premiums
28 that were not paid, resulting in an inaccurate reflection and recording of "gross wages earned" on those

1 wage statements. Likewise, Defendant failed to state on employee wage statements each pay period
2 the applicable hourly rates in effect and the number of hours worked at that rate as Defendant failed
3 to pay all wages and premiums owed to employees. The amounts stated are instead depreciated and 4 underpaid, resulting in an inaccurate reflection on the pay stub.

5 35. Additionally, Defendant's wage statements failed to accurately list employees' "total
6 hours worked" because of Defendant's unlawful practice of requiring Plaintiff and class members to 7 complete off-the-clock work. Thus, Plaintiff and class members cannot promptly and easily determine 8 from the wage statement alone the wages paid or earned without reference to other documents or 9 information. These wage statement violations are significant because they create confusion among 10 Plaintiff and class members with respect to what amounts were owed and paid, at what rate, the 11 number of hours worked, and how those amounts were or should be calculated. The wage 12 statements reflect a false statement of earnings and conceal the underpayments of employee wages.

13 36. Further, Defendant failed to accurately list the full legal name and address of the 14 employer on each paystub provided to Plaintiff and class members. For example, Plaintiff's wage
15 statement for the pay period from January 30, 2024, to February 12, 2024, fails to list Defendant's
16 name and legal address. This violation is consistent throughout all Plaintiff's wage statements.

17 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

18 MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS

19 Violation of Labor Code §§ 1194, 1194.2 and 1197

20 (All Claims Alleged by Plaintiff and Class members Against All Defendant)

21 37. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

22 38. This cause of action is brought pursuant to the IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code
23 §§ 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1 and 1198 and the IWC Wage Orders (the "Hours and Days
24 of Work" and "Minimum Wages" sections of the applicable orders), which require non-exempt
25 employees be timely paid at least the state or local minimum wage (if higher) for each hour of work,
26 and further provide a private right of action for an employer's failure to pay all minimum wages (plus 27 liquidated damages).

39. Defendant willfully failed in their affirmative obligation to pay Plaintiff and class members at least the lawful minimum wage for each hour worked in violation of Labor Code sections 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1 and 1198 and the IWC Wage Orders (the “Hours and Days of Work” and “Minimum Wages” sections of the applicable orders), including payment at the lawful local and county minimum wage ordinances in effect. As a result, Defendant are liable for all associated damages, including liquidated damages for the minimum wage violations pursuant to Labor Code § 1194.2.

40. Defendant’s unlawful acts and omissions deprived Plaintiff and class members of minimum, regular and overtime wages in amounts to be determined at trial. Plaintiff and class members are entitled to recover the full amount of the unpaid wages, plus liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid (and interest thereon), in addition to interest, attorneys’ fees, and costs to the extent permitted by law, including under Labor Code sections 1194 and 1194.2.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY ALL OVERTIME WAGES

Violation of Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194

41. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

42. This cause of action is brought pursuant to the IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 558, 1194, and 1198, which require non-exempt employees be timely paid overtime wages all overtime hours worked, and which further provide a private right of action for an employer’s failure to pay all overtime compensation for overtime hours worked.

43. Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to pay Plaintiff and class members no less than one and one-half times their respective “regular rate of pay” for all hours worked in excess of eight hours in one day, 40 hours in one week, or the first eight hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek, and no less than twice their respective “regular rate of pay” for all hours over 12 hours in one day and any work in excess of eight hours on any seventh day of a workweek for such hours worked, in violation of Labor Code sections 204, 510, 558, 1194, and 1198 and the IWC Wage Orders (the “Hours and Days of Work” sections of the applicable orders).

44. Plaintiff and class members are entitled to recover the full amount of the unpaid overtime, in addition to interest, statutory and civil penalties, and attorneys' fees, and costs to the extent permitted by law.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS

Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512

45. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

46. This cause of action is brought pursuant to the IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code §§ 226.7, 558 and 512, which require non-exempt employees be provided complaint meal periods (or meal period premiums in lieu thereof), and which further provide a private right of action for an employer's failure to lawfully provide all meal periods and/or pay meal period premiums at the lawful regular rate of compensation.

47. Defendants willfully failed in their affirmative obligation to consistently provide Plaintiff and class members compliant, duty-free meal periods of not less than 30 minutes beginning before the fifth hour of hour for each work period of more than five hours per day and a second duty-free meal period of not less than 30 minutes beginning before the tenth hour of hour of work in violation of Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, 558, 1198 and the IWC Wage Orders (the “Meal Periods” sections of the applicable orders).

48. Further, Defendants willfully failed in their affirmative obligation to consistently pay Plaintiff and class members one additional hour of pay at the respective regular rate of compensation for each workday that a fully compliant meal period was not provided, in violation of Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, 558, and 1198 and the IWC Wage Orders (the “Meal Periods” sections of the applicable orders).

49. Plaintiff and class members are entitled to recover the full amount of the meal period premiums owed, in addition to interest, statutory and civil penalties, and attorneys' fees, and costs to the extent permitted by law.

1 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

3 Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516

4 50. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

5 51. This cause of action is brought pursuant to the IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code
6 §§ 226.7 and 516, which require non-exempt employees be authorized to take complaint rest periods
7 (or rest period premiums in lieu thereof), and which further provide a private right of action for an 8 employer's failure to lawfully provide all rest periods and/or pay rest period premiums at the lawful 9 regular rate of compensation.

10 52. Defendants willfully failed in their affirmative obligation to consistently authorize and 11 permit Plaintiff and class members to receive compliant, duty-free rest periods of not less than ten
12 (10) minutes for every four hours worked (or major fraction thereof) in violation of Labor Code
13 sections 226.7, 516, 558, and 1198 and the IWC Wage Orders (the "Rest Periods" sections of the 14 applicable orders).

15 53. Further, Defendants willfully failed in their affirmative obligation to consistently pay
16 Plaintiff and class members one additional hour of pay at the respective regular rate of compensation
17 for each workday that a fully compliant rest period was not provided, in violation of Labor Code
18 sections 226.7, 516, 558, and 1198 and the IWC Wage Orders.

19 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 FAILURE TO PAY ALL PAID SICK LEAVE WAGES

21 Violation of Labor Code §§ 200, 218, 246 *et seq.

22 54. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

23 55. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed in their affirmative obligation to pay
24 sick leave wages to Plaintiff and a paid sick leave subclass in violation of Labor Code section 246
25 et seq. Paid sick leave earnings constitute wages for purposes of California wage and hour law.
26 (Murphy v. Kenneth Cole Productions, Inc. (2007) 40 Cal.4th 1094, 1103 ["Courts have recognized
27 that 'wages' also include those benefits to which an employee is entitled as a part of his or her
28 compensation, including money, room, board, clothing, vacation pay, and sick pay"].)

56. Labor Code section 246(l), in conjunction with Labor Code section 248 et seq., 248.1, 248.2, and 248.6, in addition to the applicable County sick pay ordinances in locales worked by class members, govern how Defendants were required to calculate paid sick leave.

57. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and class members their paid sick leave wages at one of the lawful rates set forth in the statute or ordinance because Defendants failed to include in their sick leave calculation the additional remuneration received by Plaintiff and class members (i.e., at the regular rate of pay and/or calculated based on total wages earned).

58. Furthermore, to the extent the paid sick leave paid constitutes Covid-related paid sick leave, Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed in their affirmative obligation to pay Covid-19 Supplemental Sick Leave wages to class members at the correct accrual rate or hourly pay rate in violation of Labor Code sections 246, 248.1, 248.2, and 248 et seq.

59. As a result, Defendants violated the Labor Code and are liable to Plaintiff and class members for underpaid sick leave wages, in addition to interest, attorneys' fees, and costs.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

UNTIMELY PAYMENT OF WAGES

Violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 218

60. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

61. This cause of action is brought pursuant to the IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code §§ 204, 204b, and 210 which require non-exempt employees be timely paid all wages owed each pay period, and which further provide a private right of action for an employer's failure to comply with this obligation. Labor Code § 218 authorizes individuals to sue directly for wages and penalties due under these sections, including Labor Code § 210(c)'s statutory late payment penalties.

62. Defendants willfully failed in their affirmative obligation to timely pay all wages, including paid sick leave and meal and rest premiums, earned by Plaintiff and class members twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the employer as regular paydays (for employees paid on a non-weekly basis) and on the regularly-scheduled weekly payday for weekly employees, if any, in violation of Labor Code sections 204 and 204b and the IWC Wage Orders (the “Minimum Wages” sections of the applicable orders).

63. Plaintiff and class members are entitled to recover the full amount of the unpaid wages, in addition to a statutory penalty in the amount of $100 for the initial violation for each failure to pay each employee and $200 for all subsequent violations and for all willful or intentional violations for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld under provided in Labor Code § 210, in addition to interest, attorneys' fees, and costs to the extent permitted by law.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

WAGE STATEMENT VIOLATIONS

Violation of Labor Code § 226

64. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

65. This cause of action is brought by a wage statement subclass pursuant to Labor Code § 226(a) which requires non-exempt employees be provided accurate itemized wage statements each pay period, and which further provide a private right of action for an employer's failure to comply with this obligation.

66. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed in their affirmative obligation to provide accurate itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and class members resulting in injury to Plaintiff and class members. Specifically, the wage statements issued to Plaintiff and class members did not accurately state each pay period all of the information required by Labor Code § 226(a)(1)-(9).

67. Defendants' unlawful acts and omissions deprived Plaintiff and class members of accurate itemized wage statements, causing confusion and concealing wage and premium underpayments.

68. As a result, Plaintiff and class members are entitled to recover the statutory penalty of $50 per employee for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred and $100 per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, up to an aggregate penalty of $4,000 per employee, in addition to interest, attorneys' fees, and costs to the extent permitted by law, including under Labor Code section 226(e).

1 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 WAITING TIME PENALTIES

3 Violation of Labor Code §§ 201 *et seq.

4 69. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

5 70. This cause of action is brought by a waiting time subclass pursuant to Labor Code
6 §§ 201 through 203, which require an employer to timely pay all wages earned upon termination of 7 employment, and which further provide a private right of action to recover statutory waiting time
8 penalties each day an employer fails to comply with this obligation, up to a maximum of 30 days 9 wages.

10 71. Defendants willfully failed and continue to fail in their affirmative obligation to pay all
11 wages earned and unpaid to Plaintiff and class members immediately upon termination of employment
12 or within 72 hours thereafter for employees who did not provide at least 72 hours prior notice of his 13 or her intention to quit, and further failed to pay those sums for 30 days thereafter in violation of Labor
14 Code sections 201 through 203 and the IWC Wage Orders.

15 72. Plaintiff and class members are entitled to recover a waiting time penalty for a period
16 of up to 30 days, in addition to interest, attorneys' fees, and costs to the extent permitted by law.

17 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 UNFAIR COMPETITION

19 Violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200 *et seq.

20 73. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

21 74. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business
22 practices in the State of California in violation of California Business and Professions Code § 17200
23 by committing the foregoing wage and hour violations alleged throughout this Complaint.

24 75. Defendants' dependence on these unfair and/or unlawful business practices deprived
25 Plaintiff and continue to deprive other class members of compensation to which they are legally 26 entitled, constitutes unfair and/or unlawful competition, and provides an unfair advantage to 27 Defendants over competitors who have been and/or are currently employing workers in compliance
28

1 with California's wage and hour laws. These failures constitute unlawful, deceptive, and unfair
2 business acts and practices in violation of Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq.

3 76. Plaintiff is a victim of Defendants' unfair and/or unlawful conduct alleged in this
4 Complaint, and Plaintiff, as an individual and on behalf of others similarly situated, seeks full
5 restitution of the moneys as necessary and according to proof to restore all monies withheld, acquired,
6 and/or converted by Defendants pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17203 and 17208.

7 77. Plaintiff does not have an adequate remedy at law for past or future violations, to the 8 extent the statute of limitations on each of the alleged causes of action do not extend to the four year
9 limitation provided under the UCL or to the extent the underlying Labor Code and IWC Wage Order
10 violations do not provide a private right of action.

11 78. Plaintiff and class members are entitled to injunctive relief against Defendants,
12 restitution, and other equitable relief to return all funds over which Plaintiff and class members have 13 an ownership interest and to prevent future damage and the public interest under Business and 14 Professions Code § 17200 et seq. Plaintiff and class members are further entitled to recover interest,
15 attorneys' fees, and costs to the extent permitted by law, including under Code of Civil Procedure
16 § 1021.5.

17 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 CIVIL PENALTIES UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT

19 Violation of Labor Code §§ 2698 *et seq.

20 (By Plaintiff on Behalf of the State and the Aggrieved Employees Against All Defendants)

21 79. All outside paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated into this section.

22 80. Plaintiff brings this cause of action as a proxy for the State of California on behalf of 23 the following "aggrieved employees" pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA"), 24 codified as Labor Code section 2698 et seq.:

- 25 a. All current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in 26 California at any time from one year prior to the postmark date of the initial 27 PAGA notice through date of trial.
28

1 81. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend, supplement, or add to this description of the 2 aggrieved employees, according to proof.

3 82. The State of California, via the Labor and Workforce Development Agency
4 (“LWDA”), is the real party in interest in this action with respect to this cause of action. (Kim v. Reins
5 Int’l California, Inc. (2020) 9 Cal. 5th 73, 81 [The “government entity on whose behalf the plaintiff
6 files suit is always the real party in interest.”])

7 83. Labor Code section 2699(a) provides: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law,,
8 any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor
9 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards,
10 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 11 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of the employee and other current or former 12 employees against whom a violation of the same provision was committed pursuant to the procedures
13 specified in Section 2699.3. “

14 84. Any allegations regarding violations of the IWC Wage Orders are enforceable as 15 violations of Labor Code section 1198, which states: “[t]he employment of any employee for longer 16 hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is unlawful.”

17 85. Labor Code section 2699.3 sets forth the procedure for commencing an action for civil 18 penalties under the PAGA.

19 86. On or about January 2, 2025, Plaintiff paid the requisite PAGA filing fee and provided 20 written notice (by online electronic filing with the LWDA and by certified mail to Defendants) of 21 Defendants’ alleged Labor Code violations, including the facts and theories to support the alleged 22 violations.

23 87. A true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s written PAGA notice, entitled “Notice of Labor
24 Code Violations” is attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference as though fully set 25 forth herein (the “PAGA notice”).

26 88. To date, neither Plaintiff nor Plaintiff’s counsel has received a response to Plaintiff’s
27 written PAGA notice from the LWDA.
28

1 89. Within 33 calendar days of the postmark date of the notice sent by Plaintiff, neither
2 Plaintiff nor Plaintiff's counsel has received written notice by certified mail from any defendant
3 providing a description of any actions taken to cure the alleged violations.

4 90. Now that at least 65 days have passed from Plaintiff notifying Defendants of these
5 violations, without notice of cure from Defendants or notice from the LWDA of its intent to investigate
6 the alleged allegations and issue the appropriate citations to Defendants, Plaintiff exhausted all 7 prerequisites and commenced this civil action under Labor Code section 2699 et seq.

8 91. As set forth in the PAGA notice attached as Exhibit 1 and incorporated into this 9 Complaint, Defendants committed the following violations and are liable for all corresponding civil 10 penalties:

- 11 a. Unpaid Hours Worked/Minimum Wage. Violation of Labor Code §§ 1194,
12 1197, 1198; IWC Wage Orders.
- 13 b. Unpaid Overtime. Violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1198; IWC Wage 14 Orders.
- 15 c. Unpaid Paid Sick Leave. Violation of Labor Code §§ 246 through 248.7.
- 16 d. Unpaid Meal Period Premium Wages. Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512,
17 1198; IWC Wage Orders.
- 18 e. Unpaid Rest Period Premium Wages. Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516,
19 1198; IWC Wage Orders.
- 20 f. Untimely Payment of Wages During Employment. Violation of Labor Code 21 §§ 204, 204b, 210.
- 22 g. Untimely Payment of Wages Upon Separation of Employment. Violation of 23 Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 256.
- 24 h. Non-Compliant Wage Statements. Violation of Labor Code §§ 226, 226.3.
- 25 i. Failure to Maintain Accurate Records. Violation of Labor Code § 1174; IWC
26 Wage Orders.

27 92. Plaintiff seeks to collect all recoverable civil penalties for the Labor Code violations
28 alleged in this Complaint and the PAGA notice (including amendments thereto) against Defendants pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(a) and (f), in addition to attorneys' fees, costs, and interest to the extent permitted by law, including under Labor Code section 2699(k).

PRAYER

Plaintiff prays for judgment as follows:

- a. For certification of this action as a class action;
- b. For appointment of Plaintiff as the class representative;
- c. For appointment of above-captioned counsel for Plaintiff as Class Counsel;
- d. For division of class members into appropriate classes and/or subclasses according to proof;
- e. For recovery of all statutory penalties and liquidated damages;
- f. For disgorgement of all amounts wrongfully obtained to the extent permitted by law;
- g. For restitution and injunctive relief;
- h. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including expert fees, to the extent permitted by law, including (without limitation) under Labor Code §§ 218.5, 226, 1194, 2802 and Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.
- i. For recovery of damages in amount according to proof;
- j. For all recoverable pre- and post-judgment interest;
- k. For this action to be maintained as a representative action under the PAGA;
- l. For Plaintiff and counsel of record to be provided with all enforcement capability as if the action were brought by the State of California or the California Division of Labor Enforcement;
- m. For recovery of all civil penalties and other recoverable amounts under the PAGA;

- 1 n. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including expert fees, to the extent
2 permitted by law, associated with the PAGA claims pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
3 and Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and any other applicable sections; and 4 o. For such other relief the Court deems just and proper.

NOTICE OF LABOR CODE VIOLATIONS CALIFORNIA LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698 et seq.

VIA CERTIFIED U.S. MAIL
- Electronic Return Receipt -

Black Angus Steakhouses, LLC
111 N 1st Street, Suite 204
Burbank, CA 91502

- PAGA Notice & Filing Fee -
Submitted electronically to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency

Dear LWDA Officer and Company Representatives:

This letter serves as written notice under Labor Code section 2699.3 on behalf of LILY MIHAIOVIC (“Plaintiff(s)”) and all other “aggrieved employees” of the following “Defendant(s)”:

BLACK ANGUS STEAKHOUSES, LLC

Defendant(s) shall mean and include the foregoing in addition to any other related employer entities, individuals under Labor Code sections 558 and 558.1, and all others who may be later added upon further investigation and discovery as liable employers.

This office serves as legal counsel for Plaintiff. If the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) does not investigate the facts, allegations, and violations set forth in this notice within the statutorily prescribed 65-day period under Labor Code section 2699.3, Plaintiff intends to commence a civil action against Defendant as a proxy and agent of the State of California under the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”). “PAGA allows an ‘aggrieved employee’—a person affected by at least one Labor Code violation committed by an employer—to pursue penalties for all the Labor Code violations committed by that employer.” Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc. (2018) 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751; Kim v. Reins International California, Inc. (2020) 9 Cal. 73, 79. Plaintiff maintains standing to pursue these claims against Defendant as an aggrieved employee.

Through this notice, Plaintiff requests that Defendant complete an internal investigation and audit of the wage and hour and employment practices at issue and make a good faith effort to correct any violations. Plaintiff attempts to identify the non-compliant policies and practices affecting the aggrieved employees so that the parties may resolve the underlying damages and penalties in judgment or settlement approved by the Superior Court of California under Labor Code section 2699(s). Defendant is notified that any attempt to resolve this case should be conducted in coordination with Plaintiff's counsel to protect the interests of Plaintiff, the aggrieved employees, and the State of California via the LWDA. Plaintiff advises Defendant this letter should be also considered a reasonable attempt at settlement of this matter, subject to an exchange of additional documents and information. Graham v. Daimler Chrysler Corp. (2004) 24 Cal. 4th 553, 561.

- BACKGROUND -

Defendant employed Plaintiff during the PAGA Period in the position of Cocktail Server from about March 2022 to January 2024. During their employment Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were subject to the wage and hour and employment protections set forth in the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.

Through this notice, Plaintiff informs the LWDA of the Labor Code violations set forth herein. The “aggrieved employees” include Plaintiff and the following individuals:

All current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State of California during one-year period preceding the date of this notice through the current date and the date of trial in any pending action (the “aggrieved employees” and the “PAGA Period”).

Plaintiff reserves the right to expand or narrow the definition of the “aggrieved employees” in the forthcoming civil action. Furthermore, Plaintiff seeks all recoverable civil penalties for Defendant’s violations and reserves the right to supplement this notice as further investigation is completed and further facts, witnesses, and violations are uncovered.

- PAGA CLAIMS -

Unpaid Hours Worked/Minimum Wage Violation of Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, 1198; IWC Wage Orders

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1198, along with the California Minimum Wage Order, the applicable local minimum wage ordinances, and the “Hours and Days of Work” and “Minimum Wages” sections of the applicable IWC Wage Orders with respect to the aggrieved employees.

Labor Code section 1194 renders it unlawful for an employee to receive less than the legal minimum wage for hours worked in California. Labor Code section 1197 further mandates that “[t]he minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lower wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.”

Labor Code section 1198 renders “employment of any employee for longer hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the [IWC Wage Orders]” unlawful. The California Minimum Wage Order and the applicable sections of the IWC Wage Orders further require payment of minimum wages for all hours worked. The “Minimum Wages” sections of the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that “[e]very employer shall pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, not less than the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked in the payroll period, whether the remuneration is measured by time, piece, commission, or otherwise.” The foregoing California wage laws require payment of “not less than the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked in the payroll period” and California law does not allow averaging of pay over the hours worked in the pay period, even if the total pay results in an average above the minimum wage. Armenta v. Osmose, Inc. (2005) 135 Cal. App. 3d 314, 324.

Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees at the lawful minimum wage rate for all hours worked, resulting in unpaid minimum wages. For example, Defendant required Plaintiff to complete closing tasks, such as counting cash, calculating tips, putting cash into the cash envelope, finishing paperwork, and checking out with her manager before leaving. However, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees were not permitted to remain on the clock to complete their closing duties. Rather, they were required to clock out but continue working until all closing tasks were finished. These tasks resulted in off-the-clock work several times per week. Defendant did not compensate Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for all this off-the-clock work.

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Unpaid Overtime Violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1198; IWC Wage Orders

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198, along with the “Hours and Days of Work” sections of the applicable IWC Wage Orders with respect to the aggrieved employees.

Labor Code section 510 requires “[a]ny work in excess of eight hours in one workday and any work in excess of 40 hours in any one workweek and the first eight hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee;” and “any work in excess of 12 hours in one day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee;” and “any work in excess of eight hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.” Labor Code section 1194 renders it unlawful for an employee to receive less than the legal overtime rate for overtime hours worked in California. Labor Code section 1198 renders “employment of any employee for longer hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the [IWC Wage Orders]” unlawful. The IWC Wage Orders further require payment of overtime wages for all overtime hours worked, including the “Hours and Days of Work” sections.

Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees overtime wages and the lawful rate of pay for overtime hours worked, resulting in unpaid overtime wages. As discussed above, Defendant engaged in an unlawful policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees to complete closing tasks all while off-the-clock. To the extent that Defendant’s policy and practice requiring off-the-clock work resulted in unpaid hours worked over 8 hours in a day and over 40 hours a week, this resulted in unpaid overtime.

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Unpaid Paid Sick Leave Violation of Labor Code §§ 246 through 248.7

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 246 through 248.7 with respect to the aggrieved employees.

Labor Code section 246 requires employers to provide paid sick leave to its workforce on the terms set forth in the statute. Employers must comply with the accrual, use, and notice provisions of Labor Code sections 246, 246.5, 247, and must further ensure that they maintain the paid sick leave records required by Labor Code section 247.5. Employers have the option of providing 24 hours of paid sick leave to employees or to allow employees to accrue paid sick leave each pay period. If an employer chooses the accrual method, employees must accrue sick leave at a rate of one hour for every thirty hours worked in a given pay period as set forth in Labor Code section 246(b)(1). Under the accrual method, employees must begin accruing paid sick leave at the commencement of employment.

Employers must pay sick leave in accordance with one of the three permissible methods provided in Labor Code section 246(l): (1) “the same manner as the regular rate of pay for the workweek;” (2) “by dividing the employee’s total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee’s total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days;” or (3) “for exempt employee ... in the same manner as the employer calculates wages for other forms of paid leave time.” Labor Code sections 248.6 and 248.7 similarly require paid sick leave to be paid at a regular rate-based calculation in excess of the base hourly rate and at the lawful accrual rate.

Under Labor Code section 246(i), employers must provide employees “with written notice of the amount of paid sick leave available ... for use on either the employee’s itemized wage statement ... or in a separate writing provided on the designated pay date with the employee’s payment of wages.”

Defendant failed to comply with California's paid sick leave laws with respect to the aggrieved employees.

First, Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and aggrieved employees with all sick leave accrued. Plaintiff and aggrieved employees worked off the clock, overtime hours that were not accounted for when calculating an employee's accrued paid sick leave. Therefore, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees were not awarded the total accrued sick leave time they had earned.

Second, Defendant failed to list the amount of sick leave accrued on Plaintiff's and the aggrieved employees' wage statements.

An illustrative example of this is shown in Plaintiff's wage statement below showing Plaintiff did not receive written notice of the amount of paid sick leave available.

Extract from Plaintiff's wage statement for pay period 01/30/2024 to 02/12/2024 showing she did not receive written notice of the amount of paid sick leave available.

This violation is consistent throughout all Plaintiff's wage statements. Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees with written notice of the amount of paid sick leave available in violation of Labor Code 246(i).

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Unpaid Meal Period Premium Wages
Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 1198; IWC Wage Orders

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198, along with the related sections of the IWC Wage Orders with respect to the aggrieved employees.

Labor Code section 512 and the IWC Wage Orders require that employers provide an uninterrupted 30-minute meal period after no more than five hours of work and a second meal period after no more than 10 hours of work. See Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal. 4th 1004, 1049. Labor Code section 226.7 requires that if a meal period is late, missed, short, or interrupted, the employer must pay one additional hour of pay at the employee's "regular rate" of compensation. Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC (2021) 11 Cal. 5th 858, 862 ("We hold that the terms are synonymous: "regular rate of compensation" under section 226.7(c), like "regular rate of pay" under section 510(a), encompasses all nondiscretionary payments, not just hourly wages"). "[T]ime records showing noncompliant meal periods raise a rebuttable presumption of meal period violations, including at the summary judgment stage." Donohue v. AMN Services, LLC (2021) 11 Cal. 5th 58, 61. Labor Code section 1198 renders "employment of any employee for longer hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the [IWC Wage Orders]" unlawful. The IWC Wage Orders, including Section 11 (Meal Periods), further require one uninterrupted 30-minute meal period after no more than five hours of work and a second meal period after no more than 10 hours of work and an additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a compliant meal period is not provided. Pursuant to Section 11(A) of the IWC Wage Orders, the California Supreme Court has held that the on-duty meal period exception is "exceedingly narrow" and applies only when (1) "the nature of the work prevents the employee from being relieved of all duty" and (2) both "the employer and employee have agreed, in writing, to the on-duty meal period." Augustus v. AMB Security Services, Inc. (2016) 2 Cal. 5th 257, 266-276 (emphasis added). If these two requirements are not met, then the employer owes the employee one hour of premium pay for each non-compliant meal period taken under the purported on-duty meal arrangement. Naranjo v. Spectrum Security Services, Inc. (2019) 40 Cal. 5th 444, 459.

Defendant failed to provide compliant meal periods. Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees often experienced missed, short, and late meal periods due to the high demands of the job. As a result, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees often experienced noncompliant meal periods.

Each time Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees experienced a noncompliant meal period, they were owed a meal period premium. As a matter of policy and practice, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees were not provided meal period premiums in lieu of missed meal periods as required by Labor Code section 226.7.

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Unpaid Rest Period Premium Wages
Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 1198; IWC Wage Orders

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 226.7, 516, and 1198, and the related sections of the IWC Wage Orders with respect to Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees.

Labor Code sections 226.7 and 516 and the IWC Wage Orders require that employers authorize and permit an uninterrupted 10-minute rest period for each four-hour period (or major fraction thereof) that an employee works. Labor Code section 226.7 requires that if a rest period is non-compliant, the employer must pay one additional hour of pay at the employee's "regular rate" of compensation. Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC (2021) 11 Cal. 5th 858, 862 ("We hold that the terms are synonymous: "regular rate of compensation" under section 226.7(c), like "regular rate of pay" under section 510(a), encompasses all nondiscretionary payments, not just hourly wages"). Labor Code section 1198 renders "employment of any employee for longer hours than those fixed by the order or under conditions of labor prohibited by the [IWC Wage Orders]" unlawful. The IWC Wage Orders, including Section 12 (Rest Periods), further require one uninterrupted 10-minute rest period for each four-hour period (or major fraction thereof) worked and an additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a compliant rest period is not authorized or permitted.

As a matter of common policy and practice, Defendant failed to provide all rest periods to which Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees were entitled. Due to the high demands of the job and understaffing, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees were often required to continue working and without any time to take a compliant break.

First, due to the high demands of the job, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees did not have time to take a rest period. Defendant's restaurant was very fast-paced and constantly busy, leaving no time for Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees to take a compliant break. For example, when Plaintiff requested to take a rest period, her manager would tell her she could not take a break because of the amount of work that needed to be done. Instead, Plaintiff would be required to take food to customers and help other servers with their tables. Even when Plaintiff was able to take a rest period, this would only be for 5 minutes, and then she would be required to go back to work. Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees were required to handle customer issues such as reordering dishes for customers, opening bottles of champagne and wine, bringing out utensils with soups and salads, and taking orders for large parties. This prevented Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees from taking lawful rest periods.

Second, Defendant was understaffed so there were no servers to cover Plaintiff's tables to take a compliant rest period. Servers would have their own tables to attend to and not have the capacity to cover tables for Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees to take a rest period. As a result, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees would not receive their lawful 10-minute paid rest period in violation of Labor Codes 226.7 and 516.

Each time Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees experienced a noncompliant rest period, they were owed a rest period premium. As a matter of policy and practice, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees were not provided rest period premiums in lieu of missed rest periods as required by Labor Code section 226.7.

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Untimely Payment of Wages During Employment Violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 204b, 210

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 204 and/or 204b and 210, as applicable, with respect to Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees.

Labor Code section 204(a) requires payment of “all wages” for non-exempt employees at least twice each calendar month. Labor Code section 204(d) states all wages due must be paid “not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period.” Labor Code section 204b applies to employees paid on a weekly basis and also requires the payment for all labor within the required pay periods. Labor Code section 210 provides “every person who fails to pay the wages of an employee as provided in Section ... 204 ... shall be subject to a civil penalty” of $100 for an initial violation and $200 plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld for a subsequent violation.

Because Defendant failed to pay all wages and premiums in each pay period in which such wages were earned at the lawful rate, Defendant violated Labor Code section 204 and/or 204b (for weekly employees, as applicable). Defendant violated Labor Code sections 204 and 204b by failing to pay all wages and premiums owed on the regular pay days scheduled each pay period within seven calendar days of the close of the payroll period, as a result of the policies and practices set forth in this notice.

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Untimely Payment of Wages Upon Separation of Employment
Violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 256

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203 with respect to the aggrieved employees by failing to pay all wages and premiums owed upon termination of employment.

Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer fires an employee, the wages must be paid immediately. Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee quits without providing 72 hours' notice, his or her wages must be paid no later than 72 hours thereafter. Labor Code section 202 states that if an employee provides 72 hours' notice, the final wages are payable upon his or her final day of employment. Labor Code section 203 requires an employer who fails to comply with Labor Code sections 201 or 202 to pay a waiting time penalty for each employee, up to a period of 30 days additional compensation.

Defendant failed to pay all wages and premiums owed to aggrieved employees during their employment as set forth in this notice, and also failed to timely pay those amounts to departing employees upon separation of employment. Defendant did not pay waiting time penalties for the late payments. As a result, Defendant violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Non-Compliant Wage Statements
Violation of Labor Code §§ 226, 226.3

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 226(a) and 226.3 with respect to the aggrieved employees by failing to furnish itemized wage statements each pay period that accurately list all information required by Labor Code section 226(a)(1) through (9).

Labor Code section 226(a) requires an employer to furnish wage statements to employees semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, "an accurate itemized statement in writing showing:" (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked, (3) the number of piece rate units earned and applicable piece-rate in effect, (4) all deductions, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period, (7) the name of the employee and last four digits of SSN or an EIN, (8) the name and address of the legal name of the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

Defendant failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements to the aggrieved employees each pay period as a result of the policies and practices set forth in this notice. Defendant violated Labor Code section 226(a)(1) and (5) by not listing the correct "gross wages earned" or "net wages earned," as the employees earned wages and premiums that were not paid, resulting in an inaccurate reflection, and recording of “gross wages earned” on those wage statements.

Likewise, in violation of Labor Code section 226(a)(9), Defendant failed to state on employee wage statements each pay period the applicable hourly rates in effect and the number of hours worked at that rate, as Defendant failed to pay all wages and premiums owed to employees. The amounts stated are instead depreciated and underpaid, resulting in an inaccurate reflection on the pay stub.

Defendant violated Labor Code section 226(a)(2) by failing to accurately list employees’ “total hours worked,” as the wage statements did not accurately include the uncompensated time Plaintiffs and other aggrieved employees worked due to Defendant’s policy and practice of requiring off-the-clock work.

Further, Defendant repeatedly violated California Labor Code Section 226(a)(8) by failing to accurately list the full legal name and address of the employer on each paystub provided to Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees. As a result, Defendant deprived Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees of the ability to properly identify their employer on their wage statements, in violation of Labor Code Section 226(a)(8).

An illustrative example of Defendant’s failure to list the full name and address of the employer is shown below:

Extract from Plaintiff's paystub.

Here, Defendant fails to list the name and address of the legal name of the employer on Plaintiff's paystub. This violation is consistent throughout all Plaintiff's wage statements. Defendant failed to list the full legal name and address of the employer on each paystub provided to Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees in violation of Labor Code 226(a)(8).

Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees cannot promptly and easily determine from the wage statement alone the wages paid or earned without reference to other documents or information. Indeed, these wage statement violations are significant because they sow confusion among Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees with respect to what amounts were owed and paid, at what rates, the number of hours worked, and how those amounts were or should be calculated. The wage statements reflect a false statement of earnings and concealed the underlying problems and underpayments of employee wages.

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records
Violation of Labor Code § 1174; IWC Wage Orders

Defendant violated Labor Code sections 1174 and the IWC Wage Orders by failing to maintain accurate employee payroll records with respect to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees.

Labor Code section 1174 requires that employers maintain accurate “payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments.” Section 7(A) of the IWC Wage Orders, which may be enforced through Labor Code section 1198, mandates similar recordkeeping obligations.

Because of the policies and practices set forth in this notice, including the failure to accurately account for wages earned or hours worked, Defendant failed to accurately maintain records in accordance with Labor Code section 1174 and the IWC Wage Orders.

As a result, Plaintiff may recover civil penalties as an individual and on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees, up to the maximum amount allowed as set forth under the Labor Code.

Attorneys’ Fees and Costs
Labor Code § 2699(k)(1)

Plaintiff has been compelled to retain the services of counsel to protect the interests of other aggrieved employees and the State of California. Plaintiff continues to incur attorneys’ fees and costs, which are recoverable under California law, including Labor Code section 2699(k)(1).

- LITIGATION HOLD NOTICE -

This letter imposes a duty upon all Defendant and their respective employees, officers, directors, executives, attorneys, human resource and payroll personnel, accountants, and other agents to preserve all physical and electronic evidence, including electronically stored information and emails, which relate to the employment of Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees specified in this notice. Evidence includes, but is not limited to, Defendant’s written employment and payroll policies and handbooks; the aggrieved employees’ personnel files and payroll records, such as paystubs, time records, wage statements, compensation reports, as well as the underlying electronically data in Excel or similar format. Memoranda and internal and external correspondence relating to the subject matter of this notice shall also be maintained. Failure to preserve and retain relevant evidence may constitute spoliation of evidence and result in an adverse inference or sanctions.

If you have any questions regarding the scope of your obligations to preserve evidence, please consult your legal counsel and always err on the side of caution. Periodic or regularly scheduled purges or deletions of information covered by this hold must be suspended immediately.

- CONCLUSION -

If the LWDA does not pursue enforcement, Plaintiff intends to bring representative claims on behalf of the State of California and the aggrieved employees seeking civil penalties for violations of the Labor Code and the IWC Wage Orders, along with attorneys' fees, costs, interest, and other appropriate relief.

Please advise if the LWDA intends to investigate any of the factual or legal allegations set forth in this notice. Defendant may contact Plaintiff's counsel with any questions regarding this letter or the forthcoming lawsuit.

Sincerely,
