Re: California Labor Code Violations by Wal-Mart Stores, Inc.

Dear PAGA Administrator and Wal-Mart Stores, Inc.:

Please be advised that the Law Office of Joseph Antonelli, Law Offices of Kevin T. Barnes, and the Law Offices of Raphael A. Katri represent Plaintiff Juan Garcia ("Mr. Garcia"), who seeks to represent all other aggrieved employees with respect to their employment at the Wal-Mart Distribution Centers in California by Defendant, Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. ("WDC").

Mr. Garcia alleges WDC that has committed numerous violations of the California Labor Code including, but not limited to §§ 200, et seq., 203, 218, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, and 1198, as well, as the Wage Order that governs WDC's employees. The facts and theories to support the alleged violations are set forth herein and in the enclosed complaint.

A. Failure to Pay All Wages/Overtime

Mr. Garcia is a former employee of WDC. During his employment, WDC has failed to pay Mr. Garcia and other aggrieved employees the proper amount of straight time and overtime wages. WDC has violated various sections of the Labor Code, including §§ 510 and 1194, by failing to provide Mr. Garcia and all other aggrieved employees overtime compensation for work over 8 hours in a day and/or over 40 hours in a week, without a valid exemption. Furthermore, Mr. Garcia alleges that WDC failed to abide by the Wage Order, as it fails to pay overtime premiums on short shifts when its Distribution Center employees work over 8 hours but less than 10 hours in a shift.

Mr. Garcia also alleges that WDC requires him and the aggrieved employees to work "off the clock," as a result of requiring its employees to have their bags checked prior to leaving for lunch and at the end of their shift. WDC fails to pay Mr. Garcia at the very least, minimum wage for said time. Additionally, Mr. Garcia alleges that due to WDC's asset control policy combined with its rounding practice, WDC fails to pay Mr. Garcia and other aggrieved employees all wages owed, including minimum wages, straight time, and/or overtime premiums. Mr. Garcia and the aggrieved employees routinely work off the clock due to such practices.

B. Meal Breaks

WDC also failed to provide Mr. Garcia with meal periods under California law. WDC failed to adopt, implement, and enforce a meal period policy that complies with California law. For example, WDC fails to provide Mr. Garcia and other aggrieved employees with a second meal period or premium payment for a failure to provide a second meal period when Mr. Garcia and the aggrieved employees work over 10 hours in a shift. Furthermore, WDC fails to secure valid meal waivers for said second meal period. In addition, due to WDC's asset control policy, which requires its employees to stand in line to have their bags checked after they have clocked out for their meal period, the employees do not receive their full thirty (30) minute meal period, as required by the Labor Code. As such, Mr. Garcia and the aggrieved employees have been harmed. Additionally, WDC fails to provide meal periods within the first five (5) hours of beginning a work shift, and/or a meal period premium when meals are provided after the 5th hour, or are otherwise non-compliant.

C. Wage Statement Violations

WDC willfully failed and continues to fail to provide properly itemized wage statements to Mr. Garcia and the aggrieved employees pursuant to Labor Code § 226, as said pay stubs are inaccurate. The pay stubs provided fail to list all hours worked and fail to list all earnings.

Regarding wage statements, pursuant to Labor Code §226(a) and Industrial Wage Order 9-2001, the Employer is required to include on an employee's wage statement such information as (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and, if the employer is a farm labor contractor, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1682, the name and address of the legal entity that secured the services of the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period...". Here, the Employer issued improper wage statements to the Employee and all others similarly situated because the Employer's wage statements did not always contain the total number of hours worked and the net wages earned at the correct rate. As such, the Employer independently violated Labor Code §226, and owe penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§2699(f) and/or 226.3.

Also regarding wage statements, and in addition to the alleged independent violations of Labor Code §226 above, pursuant to Labor Code §226 and Industrial Wage Order 9-2001, as stated, the Employer is required to include on a paystub such information as that set forth above. Here, because of the Employer's illegal pay policies, and meal period policies as set forth above, all wages earned were not reflected on the wage statements provided by the Employer to the Employee and all others similarly situated, and the Employer issued improper wage statements. As such, the Employer derivatively violated Labor Code §226, and owe penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§2699(f).

D. Waiting Time Penalties

WDC willfully failed and refused to timely pay all compensation due and owing to Mr. Garcia, whose employment was terminated during the relevant time period, by failing to pay overtime and straight time wages, failing to pay Mr. Garcia and aggrieved employees for time worked during meal periods and for off the clock work, failing to pay Mr. Garcia and aggrieved employees for an extra hour because WDC failed to provide compliant meal periods, and by unlawfully rounding hours worked by Mr. Garcia and aggrieved employees. As such, WDC is liable for accrued wages due, and waiting time penalties owed, in accordance with Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203.

Pursuant to Labor Code §2699.3(a)(2)(A), please advise within thirty-three (33) calendar days of the postmark date of this notice whether the LWDA intends to investigate these alleged violations. Further, pursuant to Labor Code §2699.3(c)(2)(A), the Employer may cure the alleged violations within 33 calendar days of the postmark date of this notice and within that period, give notice by certified mail if the alleged violation is cured, including a description of actions taken.

We understand that if we do not receive a response within thirty-three (33) calendar days of the postmark date of this notice that the LWDA intends to investigate these allegations and/or a notice from the Employer that the alleged violations are cured, and/or if the alleged violations are not cured, then the Employee may immediately thereafter commence a civil action against the Employer pursuant to Labor Code §2699 and/or amend his complaint to allege the PAGA claims accordingly. Please also consider this letter as providing notice on behalf of other aggrieved employees working for a California WDC location.

Very truly yours,
LAW OFFICE OF JOSEPH ANTONELLI

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

CM-010

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.

10 1198, as well as the Wage Order. Plaintiff, for himself and on behalf of all others similarly 11 situated, and the general public, brings an action for monetary damages for failure to pay wages
12 as well as for injunctive relief, declaratory relief and restitution for Defendant's violations of 13 California Business and Professions Code ("B&PC") §§17200, et seq., including full restitution
14 of all compensation retained by Defendant as a result of its unlawful, fraudulent and unfair
15 business practices. Plaintiff seeks all available relief, including full damages, full restitution 16 and/or disgorgement of all revenues, earnings, profits, compensation and benefits retained by 17 Defendant as a result of its unlawful, unfair business practices. Further, Plaintiff seeks injunctive
18 relief under B&PC §§17200, et seq.

16
17 PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

18 13. Plaintiff on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, filed this cause of 19 action acting as a private attorney general on behalf of the general public to challenge and 20 remedy the business practices of Defendants alleged herein.

21 14. B&PC §§17200, et seq., often referred to as the Unfair Competition Law,
22 prohibits unfair competition, which is defined to include any unlawful, unfair, or fraudulent
23 business act or practices. Defendant has instituted and implemented unlawful wage-and-hour 24 policies, which constitute unfair, unlawful, or fraudulent business acts or practices within the 25 State of California. Any person that has suffered injury may initiate an action to enforce B&PC 26 §17200. The court is authorized to order injunctive relief, declaratory relief, and restitution to 27 affected members of the general public as remedies for any violations of B&PC §17200.

28 15. Plaintiff is entitled to an award of attorneys' fees and costs in prosecuting this action as a private attorney general against Defendant under CCP §1021.5 based in part on the 1 following:

2 a. A successful outcome in this action will result in the enforcement of 3 important rights affecting the public interest by maintaining the integrity of entities that employ
4 employees;

5 b. This action will result in a significant benefit to the general public by 6 ceasing unlawful, unfair and deceptive activity, and by causing the return of ill-gotten gains
7 obtained by Defendant through its failure to properly pay its employees;

8 c. Unless this action is prosecuted, members of the general public will not 9 recover monies wrongfully taken from them, and many employees and consumers would not be 10 aware that they were victimized by Defendant's wrongful acts and practices; and unless 11 attorneys' fees and costs are awarded against Defendant, the general public will not be made 12 whole.

13 PLAINTIFF CLASSES

14 16. The class representative Plaintiff who worked in the position of a non-exempt
15 Wal-Mart Distribution Center (WDC) hourly employee, while employed by Defendant within 16 the State of California, is Juan Garcia.

17 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

18 17. Plaintiff bring this action on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated as a 19 class action pursuant to CCP §382. The Classes which Plaintiff seeks to represent are composed 20 of and defined as follows:

21 Class 1:

22 All California-based hourly non-exempt Wal-Mart Distribution Center (WDC) 23 employees who worked at least one (1) day of more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than 24 forty (40) hours in a week from four (4) years before the filing of this action through the date of 25 class certification order. ("Overtime Class");

26 Subclass 1:

27 All California-based hourly non-exempt WDC employees who work or worked for 28 Defendant pursuant to an Alternative Workweek Schedule (AWS) from four (4) years preceding

1 the filing of this complaint through the date of the class certification order, who worked between 2 the eighth and tenth hour of a shift, and was not paid daily overtime. (Short Shift O.T. Class)

3 Class 2:

4 All California-based hourly WDC employees employed by Defendant as hourly 5 employees during the time period from four years preceding the filing of this complaint to the 6 date of the class certification order, who were subjected to Defendant's meal period policies and 7 practices (Meal Break Violation Class);

8 Subclass 2:

9 All current and former California-based WDC non-exempt hourly employees who
10 worked for Defendant from four (4) years preceding the filing of this complaint through the date
11 of the class certification order, who were not provided with a second meal period when working 12 over 10 hours in a shift. ("Second Meal Period Class")

13 Subclass 3:

14 All current and former California-based WDC non-exempt hourly employees who
15 worked for Defendant from four (4) years preceding the filing of this complaint through the date
16 of the class certification order, who signed a meal waiver of one (1) of the two (2) meal periods
17 on a shift of ten (10) hours or more when hired by Defendant. ("Meal Period Waiver
18 Subclass")

19 Class 3:

20 All California-based non-exempt hourly WDC employees who worked for Defendant
21 from four (4) years preceding the filing of this complaint through the date of the class
22 certification order, who were subject to Defendant's timekeeping rounding policy and practices.
23 (Rounding Class);

24 Class 4:

25 All California-based hourly WDC employees who worked for Defendant from four (4) 26 years preceding the filing of this complaint through the date of the class certification order, who 27 were required to work without compensation paid at minimum wage while being subjected to 28 bag checks. (Off the Clock Class);

1 Class 5:

2 All California-based non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendant from one
3 (1) year preceding the filing of this complaint through the date of the class certification order,
4 who were provided a paystub (a.k.a. wage statement) from Defendant (Pay Stub Class);

5 Class 6:

6 All California-based hourly employees of from four (4) years preceding the filing of this 7 complaint through the date of the class certification order, who are no longer employed by 8 Defendant. (Waiting Time Penalty Class).

9 The members of the classes are so numerous that joinder of all members would be 10 unfeasible and not practicable. The membership of the classes is unknown to Plaintiff at this 11 time; however, it is estimated that the classes number greater than 100 individuals. The identity
12 of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendant's employment records.

13 18. There are common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and all others similarly 14 situated which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, without 15 limitation to:

- 16 i. Whether Defendant violated the applicable Labor Code provisions 17 including §§510 and 1194 by requiring substantial overtime work and not 18 paying for said work according to the overtime laws of the State of 19 California;
- 20 ii. Whether Defendant failed to pay the appropriate straight time and 21 premium overtime compensation to the WDC non-exempt hourly
22 employees;
- 23 iii. Whether Defendant improperly retained, appropriated or deprived Plaintiff
24 of the use of monies or sums to which Plaintiff and the class were legally 25 entitled;
- 26 iv. Whether Defendant engaged in unfair business practices;
- 27 v. Whether Defendant, and each of them, was/were participants in the 28 alleged unlawful conduct;

- vi. Whether Defendant's conduct was willful or reckless;
- vii. The effect upon and the extent of injuries suffered by Plaintiff and all others similarly situated and the appropriate amount of compensation;
- viii. The appropriate amount of monetary penalties allowed by Labor Code §§201, et seq. and 226;
- ix. Whether Defendant knowingly and intentionally failed to maintain records for Plaintiff and all others similarly situated as required by Labor Code §1174 and §7 of California Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order 9-2001 ("IWC Wage Order 9-2001");
- x. Whether Defendant willfully violated provisions of the Labor Code; and
- xi. Whether Defendant fails to provide compliant meal periods;

19. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of all members of the classes and subclasses mentioned herein. Plaintiff, as a representative party, will fairly and adequately protect the interest of the classes by vigorously pursuing this suit through their attorneys who are skilled and experienced in handling matters of this type. Plaintiff has no claim or interest that is antagonistic to any class member.

20. The nature of this action and the nature of laws available to the members of the classes and subclasses identified herein make use of the class action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to afford relief to Plaintiff for the wrongs alleged herein. Further, this claim involves one (1) large corporate employer, Defendant, and a large number of individual employees (Plaintiff and all others similarly situated) with many relatively small claims with common issues of law and fact. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, the corporate Defendant would necessarily gain an unconscionable advantage since it would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited resources of each individual Plaintiff with its vastly superior financial and legal resources. Requiring each class member to pursue an individual remedy would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to pursue an action against their present and/or former employer for an

1 appreciable and justifiable fear of retaliation and permanent damage to their careers at present
2 and/or subsequent employment. Proof of a common business practice or factual pattern, of which 3 the named Plaintiff experienced, is representative of the class mentioned herein and will establish 4 the right of each of the members of the named class to recovery on the causes of action alleged 5 herein.

6 21. The prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members, even if 7 possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications with 8 respect to the individual class members against Defendant herein; and which would establish 9 potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendant; and/or (b) legal determinations 10 with respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the 11 interest of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which would substantially 12 impair or impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests. Further, the claims of 13 the individual members of the class are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual 14 prosecution considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending thereto.

15 22. Plaintiff and all others similarly situated are entitled to the wages and other 16 monies unlawfully withheld. This action is brought for the benefit of the public.

17 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

18 (Violation of B&PC §§17200, et seq.)

19 23. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference herein the allegations of all
20 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

21 24. Beginning on an exact date unknown to Plaintiff but believed to have occurred at 22 least since four (4) years before the filing of this action, Defendant has engaged in a pattern and 23 practice of acts of unfair competition in violation of B&PC §17200, including the practices 24 alleged herein.

25 FAILURE TO PAY PROPER WAGES AND OVERTIME COMPENSATION

26 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that as part of Defendant's
27 ongoing unfair business practice, Defendant's California Distribution Center (WDC) employees 28 were and are employed and scheduled as a matter of established company policy to work, and in

1 fact, worked in excess of eight (8) hour shifts. The hours worked by Plaintiff and the class is in 2 excess of eight (8) hours per day, and in excess of forty (40) hours per week without receiving 3 the proper overtime premium. The Defendant is in violation of Labor Code §§510 and 1194, and 4 the relevant California Industrial Welfare Commission Order 9-2001, et seq.

5 26. Under Labor Code §1194, an employee is not fully compensated for the unpaid 6 balance of their overtime compensation unless the employee is paid all unpaid compensation for 7 the regular hours and overtime hours worked during an overtime shift.

8 27. Defendant, and each of them, consistently administered a corporate policy 9 regarding, both staffing levels, duties and responsibilities of Defendant's employees, which 10 required that the entirety of the employees work overtime without proper premium overtime pay.
11 Further, Plaintiff and all others similarly situated are entitled to restitution of these wages
12 obtained by Defendant, and each of them.

13 28. This corporate policy and pattern of conduct is accomplished with the advance
14 knowledge and designed intent not to pay the employees at a premium rate for all overtime
15 hours. Further, Plaintiff and all others similarly situated are entitled to restitution of these wages
16 obtained by Defendant, and each of them.

17 29. Further, Plaintiff and all others similarly situated are entitled to restitution of all 18 unpaid wages obtained by Defendant, and each of them. Plaintiff, and the class, may seek 19 restitution for unpaid straight time wages under B&PC §§17200, et seq. Any business act or 20 practice that violates the Labor Code through a failure to pay wages is by definition an unfair 21 business practice under §17200. Section 17200 provides an action to recover wages as 22 restitution, even if such recovery might be barred if brought pursuant to the Labor Code, if the 23 failure to pay constitutes a business practice. Unpaid straight time wages and unpaid overtime 24 wages are recoverable as restitution under §17200 based on Defendant's subterfuge which 25 constitutes an unfair business practice that fails to pay earned wages in violation of the Labor 26 Code.

27 30. Plaintiff and all others similarly situated identified herein were and are employed
28 and scheduled as a matter of established company policy to work and in fact worked as non-

1 exempt hourly employees in excess of eight (8) hours per day. Defendant employed and 2 scheduled all employees without providing overtime compensation for such excess daily
3 overtime hours worked in violation of Labor Code §§510, 1194, 1198 and IWC Wage Order 9-
4 2001 without a valid exemption. Further, Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges 5 that Defendant failed to pay its WDC employees pursuant to Wage Order and LC §511.
6 Pursuant to Labor Code § 1198, it is unlawful to employ persons for longer than the hours set by 7 the IWC or under conditions prohibited by the applicable IWC Wage Orders. IWC Wage Order
8 No. 9, as amended, applies to Plaintiff. Defendant instituted an invalid AWS pay structure and 9 failed to pay daily overtime for regularly scheduled ten (10) hour shifts without a valid 10 exemption.

11 VIOLATION OF MEAL PERIOD PROVISIONS

12 31. Defendant's improper meal policies are in violation of California law including,
13 but not limited to Labor Code §§226.7 and 512, and IWC Wage Order 9-2001. Plaintiff and all 14 others similarly situated are entitled to a half hour meal period within the first five (5) hours of 15 their shift. Defendant violated the meal break provisions and did not provide Plaintiff and all 16 others similarly situated with duty free meal periods within the first five (5) hours of their shift.
17 Plaintiff and the class were entitled to one (1) hour of pay for each meal break violation at their 18 regular rate of pay. Defendant and each of them failed and continue to fail to pay for a meal
19 break violation at the employees' regular rate of pay in violation of IWC Wage Order 9-2001,
20 §11. Furthermore, Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees 21 with a second meal period when said employees work in excess of 10 hours.

22 OFF THE CLOCK

23 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges, that at all times herein
24 mentioned, Defendant engaged in unlawful, unfair, and fraudulent business practices prohibited
25 by California B&PC §17200, by failing to pay for time worked off the clock. Defendant suffered 26 or permitted non-exempt employees to work off the clock including but not limited to time during 27 which the employees are required to stand in line and have their bags checked prior to leaving to 28 go to lunch or leaving to go home at the end of their shift, despite being clocked out. Further,

1 Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges, that due to Defendant's asset control policy
2 and timekeeping practices, preventing employees from clocking in prior to search upon entering 3 the building, Plaintiff and the putative class members are not paid for all time suffered or 4 permitted to work.

5 33. Plaintiff seeks restitution and injunctive relief for all the aforementioned 6 violations.

7 34. Defendant, and each of them, has engaged in unfair business practices in 8 California by practicing, employing and utilizing the employment practices complained of herein.
9 Defendant's use of such practices constitutes an unfair business practice, unfair competition, and 10 provides an unfair advantage over Defendant's competitors. Plaintiff and the putative class seek 11 full restitution of said monies, as necessary and according to proof, to restore any and all monies
12 withheld and/or acquired by Defendant by means of the unfair business practices complained of 13 herein. Plaintiff seeks, on behalf of all current and former employees of Defendant, restitution of 14 said monies. Plaintiff further seeks, on behalf of the Plaintiff and the putative class, the 15 appointment of a receiver, as necessary, to establish the total restitutionary relief from Defendant.
16 The restitution includes all wages withheld by Defendant as a result of the unfair, unlawful,
17 and/or fraudulent business practices, including interest thereon. Absent a statutory provision 18 specifically governing the type of claim at issue, the prejudgment interest rate is 10 percent. The 19 acts complained of herein occurred, at least in part, within the last four (4) years preceding the 20 filing of the Complaint.

21 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all times herein
22 mentioned, Defendant has engaged in unlawful, deceptive, and unfair business practices
23 prohibited by California B&PC §17200, thereby depriving its employees and the putative class
24 the minimum working condition, standards and conditions due to them under the California labor
25 laws and Industrial Welfare Commission wage orders as specifically described herein. Plaintiff 26 seeks an injunction preventing Defendant from continuing its unfair business practice of 27 improperly depriving its employees' overtime pay. Plaintiff further seeks an order requiring 28 Defendant to identify by full name, telephone number, and last known address employees who

1 worked or still work for Defendant from four (4) years preceding the filing of the original
2 Complaint through the date of judgment; Plaintiff further seeks an order requiring Defendant to 3 timely pay restitution to all current and former employees, including back wages, and interest.
4 The acts complained of herein occurred, at least in part, within the last four (4) years preceding 5 the filing of the original Complaint.

6 36. By and through its unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent business practices and acts
7 described herein, Defendant has obtained valuable services from Plaintiff and all persons
8 similarly situated, and has deprived Plaintiff and all persons similarly situated of valuable rights 9 and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

10 37. Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and all persons in interest, are entitled 11 to and do seek such relief as may be necessary to restore to them the money and property which 12 Defendant has acquired, or of which Plaintiff and class members have been deprived by means of 13 the herein described unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent business practices.

14 38. Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and all persons in interest, are further 15 entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above described business practices are unfair, 16 unlawful, and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining Defendant from engaging in any of 17 the herein described unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent business practices at all times in the 18 future.

19 39. Plaintiff requests attorney's fees and costs pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure 20 §1021.5 since this action is brought to vindicate important rights of a large class and the public.

21 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

22 RECOVERY OF UNPAID WAGES & PENALTIES

23 (Violation of Labor Code §§218, 226, 510, 511, 1194 and 1198)

24 40. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference herein the allegations of all
25 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

26 41. Plaintiff and all others similarly situated identified herein were and are employed
27 and scheduled as a matter of established company policy to work and in fact worked as non-
28 exempt hourly employees in excess of eight (8) hours per day and/or in excess of forty (40)

1 hours per week. Defendant employed and scheduled all employees without providing overtime
2 compensation for such excess hours worked in violation of Labor Code §§510 and 1194 and 3 IWC Wage Order 9-2001. Labor Code §204 establishes the fundamental right of all employees
4 in the state of California to be paid the proper amount of wages in a timely fashion for their 5 work, including overtime.

6 42. Pursuant to Labor Code §§218 and 1194(a), Plaintiff may bring a civil action for 7 overtime wages directly against the employer without first filing a claim with the Division of 8 Labor Standards Enforcement (hereinafter "DLSE") and may recover such wages, together with 9 interest thereon, penalties, attorneys' fees and costs.

10 43. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant has failed to pay to Plaintiff and all others
11 similarly situated wages when due as required by Labor Code §204.

12 44. Pursuant to Labor Code §1198, it is unlawful to employ persons for longer than 13 the hours set by the IWC or under conditions prohibited by IWC Wage Order 9-2001, which 14 applies to Plaintiff.

15 45. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges
16 that Defendant has treated Plaintiff and all others similarly situated, as hourly non-exempt 17 employees. Despite this classification, Defendant has willfully violated the Labor Code with 18 respect to meeting the requirements of paying all wages earned, including minimum wages, 19 straight time pay, overtime, and remuneration when calculating the hourly non-exempt 20 employees regular rate of pay, as herein before alleged.

21 46. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the hourly non-exempt
22 class was never paid any premium compensation or paid significantly less premium
23 compensation for work accomplished in excess of forty (40) hours per pay period, and/or eight 24 (8) hours per day.

25 47. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant consistently 26 administered a corporate policy regarding both staffing levels and duties and responsibilities of 27 the members of the classes which required the entirety of all classes to work overtime without 28 proper premium pay. This included a uniform corporate policy and practice of requiring

1 employees to work in excess of eight (8) hours a day without paying premium overtime or a
2 valid exemption thereto. This corporate policy and pattern of conduct was/is accomplished with 3 the advance knowledge and design of all Defendant herein. Thus, Plaintiff and all others
4 similarly situated routinely, regularly and customarily performed overtime work. Accordingly,
5 Plaintiff and all others similarly situated are entitled to overtime compensation under California 6 law.

7 48. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the obligations and 8 responsibilities of both class employees are irrelevant because Plaintiff and all others similarly 9 situated merely allege wrongdoing with Defendant's pay plans. Further, the duties of Plaintiff
10 and all others similarly situated are not relevant in certifying any of the classes. Defendant's 11 hourly non-exempt employees work routinely included work in excess of eight (8) hours per day,
12 forty (40) hours per pay period and/or and they were not, and have never been, paid the proper 13 premium compensation for their overtime work.

14 49. Defendant, and each of them, in violation of Labor Code §§201 and 202, et seq., 15 respectively, had a consistent and uniform policy, practice and procedure of willfully failing to 16 pay the earned and unpaid wages of all such former employees. Defendant has willfully failed to 17 pay the earned and unpaid wages of such individuals, including, but not limited to, other wages
18 earned including on call and/or stand by at the minimum wage and remaining uncompensated 19 amounts according to amendment, or proof.

20 50. Plaintiff and all others similarly situated identified herein were and are employed
21 and scheduled as a matter of established company policy to work and in fact worked as non-
22 exempt hourly employees in excess of eight (8) hours per day without overtime. Defendant 23 employed and scheduled all employees without providing proper overtime compensation for 24 such excess daily overtime hours worked in violation of Labor Code §§510, 1194, 1198 and 25 IWC Wage Order 9-2001. Pursuant to Labor Code §1198, it is unlawful to employ persons for 26 longer than the hours set by the IWC or under conditions prohibited by IWC Wage Order 9-27 2001, without a valid exemption. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant does not have 28 a valid exemption from the daily overtime requirement.

1 51. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks all wages Defendant has failed to pay, which are 2 owing, including interest thereon, willful penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to 3 the mandate of Labor Code §1194, et seq.

4 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

5 FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES DUE TO ILLEGAL ROUNDING

6 52. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges each and every one of the 7 allegations contained in the preceding and foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set
8 forth herein.

9 53. Labor Code §510(a) states in pertinent part: "Any work in excess of eight hours in 10 one workday and any work in excess of 40 hours in any one workweek ... shall be compensated
11 at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for any employee."

12 54. California Code of Regulations Title 8, §11000(2) and the IWC Wage Orders
13 §4(A) state: "Every employer shall pay to each employee ... wages not less than eight dollars 14 ($8.00) per hour for all hours worked, effective January 1, 2008...".

15 55. Labor Code §§1194(a) states: "Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a
16 lesser wage, any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime
17 compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid
18 balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest
19 thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit."

20 56. Further, pursuant to Labor Code §1197, payment of less than the minimum wage
21 fixed by the Labor Commission is unlawful.

22 57. Pursuant to Labor Code §1198, it is unlawful to employ persons for longer than
23 the hours set by the Industrial Welfare Commission or under conditions prohibited by the IWC
24 Wage Order(s).

25 58. Pursuant to the IWC Wage Order(s), Defendant is required to pay the members of 26 the Rounding Class for all hours worked, meaning the time during which an employee is subject 27 to the control of an employer, including all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to 28 work, whether or not required to do so.

59. Defendant, as a matter of established company policy and procedure, at each and every one of the individual facilities owned and/or operated by Defendant, consistently:

- a. Administered a uniform company policy and practice as to the rounding policies regarding the members of the Rounding Class; and
- b. Rounded the actual time worked and recorded by the members of the Rounding Class, usually down, so that during the course of their employment, the members of the Rounding Class were paid far less than they would have been paid had they been paid for actual recorded time rather than "rounded" time.

60. Because Defendant required the members of the Rounding Class to remain under Defendant's control without paying therefore, this resulted in the members of the Rounding Class earning less than the legal minimum wage in the State of California or the full amount of overtime compensation for overtime hours worked.

61. Defendant's pattern, practice and uniform administration of corporate policy regarding illegal employee compensation as described herein is unlawful and creates an entitlement, pursuant to Labor Code §218, to recovery by Plaintiff and the members of the Rounding Class, in a civil action, of the unpaid balance of the full amount of wages owing, calculated at the appropriate rate.

62. Further, Defendant's pattern and practice in uniform administration of corporate policy regarding Defendant's failure to pay the legal minimum wage to the members of the Rounding Class as described herein is unlawful and creates entitlement, pursuant to Labor Code §1194(a), to recovery by the members of the Rounding Class, in a civil action, for the unpaid balance of the full amount of the unpaid minimum wages owed or the full amount of earned unpaid overtime compensation, including interest thereon.

63. That calculation of individual damages for the members of the Rounding Class may at some point be required does not foreclose the possibility of taking common evidence on questions regarding their entitlement to overtime compensation (see, e.g. Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232; Hypolite v. Carleson (1975) 52 Cal.App.3d 566; Employment Development Dept. v. Superior Court (1981) 30 Cal.3d 256).

64. Pursuant to Labor Code §218.6, Labor Code §1194(a) and CC §3287, the

1 members of the Rounding Class seek recovery of pre-judgment interest on all amounts recovered
2 herein.

3 65. Pursuant to Labor Code §218.5 and/or Labor Code §1194, the members of the 4 Rounding Class request that the Court award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by 5 them in this action.

6 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL BREAKS

8 66. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges each and every one of the 9 allegations contained in the preceding and foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint as though 10 fully set forth herein.

11 67. Labor Code §226.7 requires an employer to pay an additional hour of 12 compensation for each meal period the employer fails to provide. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant 13 failed to provide legally compliant meals in addition to impeding, discouraging and/or 14 dissuading employees from taking legally compliant meal periods. Employees are entitled to a 15 meal period of at least thirty (30) minutes per five (5) hour work period. Plaintiff and all others
16 similarly situated worked over five (5) hour shifts without meal periods due to Defendant's
17 policy of discouraging, dissuading and/or impeding Plaintiff and all others similarly situated 18 from taking meal periods. Pursuant to the Labor Code, Plaintiff and all others similarly situated 19 are entitled to a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to exceeding five (5) hours 20 of employment, and a second meal period for hours worked over ten (10) in a day.

21 68. Defendant failed to provide, impeded and/or discouraged Plaintiff and all others
22 similarly situated from taking timely meal breaks of not less than thirty (30) minutes as required
23 by the Labor Code during the relevant class period and/or failed to obtain legal waivers waiving
24 the first or second meal period. Plaintiff and all others similarly situated were deducted for thirty 25 (30) minute meal periods regardless if they took the meal periods. Such deductions are 26 prohibited by law. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendant during the 27 relevant time period has had a uniform policy and procedure wherein Defendant deducts all 28 thirty (30) minute meal periods from the class members' wages and/or time cards as stated supra.

1 Plaintiff and all others similarly situated have been subjected to the illegal and unlawful
2 deductions on at least one occasion during their employment with Defendant. This practice 3 amounts to an unlawful forfeiture.

4 69. Pursuant to Labor Code §226.7, Plaintiff is entitled to damages in an amount 5 equal to one (1) hour of wages per missed meal break, in a sum to be proven at trial.

6 70. Pursuant to Labor Code §218.5 Plaintiff requests that the court award reasonable 7 attorney's fees and costs incurred by them in this action.

8 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

10 PURSUANT TO LABOR CODE §226

11 (Against All Defendants)

12 71. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference herein the allegations of all
13 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

14 72. IWC Wage Order 9-2001, §7 provides:

15 Every employer shall semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages
16 furnish each employee, either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher
17 paying the employee's wages, or separately, an itemized statement in writing 18 showing: (1) all deductions; (2) the inclusive dates of the period for which the 19 employee is paid; (3) the name of the employee or the employee's social security 20 number; and (4) the name of the employer, provided all deductions made on 21 written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item.
22 Subsection (e) provides: "Any employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing 23 and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) shall be 24 entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the 25 initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per 26 employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not exceeding an 27 aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and shall be entitled to an 28 award of costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

73. During the Class Period, Defendant knowingly and intentionally failed to provide the Class Members, including Plaintiff, with timely and accurate wage and hour statements showing gross wages earned, total hours worked, all deductions made, net wages earned, the name and address of the legal entity employing that Class Member, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during each pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each

1 hourly rate by that Class Member.

2 74. Defendant thus required the Class Members, including Plaintiff, to work under 3 conditions prohibited by order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, in violation of those
4 orders. The Class Members, including Plaintiff, suffered injury as a result of Defendant's
5 knowing and intentional failure to provide the Class Members, including Plaintiff, with the wage 6 and hour statements required by law.

7 75. Based on Defendant's conduct as alleged herein, Defendant is liable for actual 8 damages, statutory damages and/or statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code §226, 9 including attorney's fees and costs.

10 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 (Violation of Labor Code §§200, et seq.)

12 76. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all 13 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

14 77. Labor Code §§200, et seq., provides that an employer is required to pay an 15 employee all wages (including accrued vacation), within twenty-four (24) hours of the 16 employees' involuntary separation from employment; within twenty-four (24) hours of his 17 voluntary separation if the employee gave at least seventy-two (72) hours' notice, and within 18 seventy-two (72) hours, if the employee voluntarily separated, but did not give at least seventy-19 two (72) hours' notice.

20 78. Plaintiff on behalf of all former employees of Defendant employed in the State of 21 California separated from employment with Defendant. Plaintiff alleges that this derivate claim 22 is on behalf of all others similarly situated employees who did not timely receive a final pay
23 check from Defendant in violation of Labor Code §§200, et seq., based on the wage claims
24 asserted in this action. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant also 25 violated the mandates of Labor Code §§200, et seq., as to other employees whose employment 26 ended during the period of time covered by this action.

27 79. Pursuant to Labor Code §§200, et seq., each member of the classes that no longer
28 works for Defendant, and who was not timely paid is entitled to one (1) day of pay in penalties

1 for each day that he or she was paid late, until payment was made, up on a maximum of thirty 2 (30) days.

3 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
4 (OFF THE CLOCK)
5 FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES
6 (On Behalf of All Class Members)
7 (Against All Defendants)

8 80. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges each and every one of the 9 allegations contained in the preceding and foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set
10 forth herein.

11 81. Labor Code §510(a) states in pertinent part: "Any work in excess of eight hours in 12 one workday and any work in excess of 40 hours in any one workweek ... shall be compensated
13 at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for any employee."

14 82. Labor Code §1182.12, effective July 1, 2014, states: "Notwithstanding any other 15 provision of this part, on and after July 1, 2014, the minimum wage for all industries shall be not 16 less than nine dollars ($9) per hour, and on and after January 1, 2016, the minimum wage for all 17 industries shall be not less than ten dollars ($10) per hour."

18 83. Labor Code §§1194(a) states: "Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a
19 lesser wage, any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime
20 compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid
21 balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest
22 thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit."

23 84. Further, pursuant to Labor Code §1197, payment of less than the minimum wage
24 fixed by the Labor Commission is unlawful.

25 85. Pursuant to Labor Code §1198, it is unlawful to employ persons for longer than
26 the hours set by the Industrial Welfare Commission or under conditions prohibited by the IWC
27 Wage Order(s).

28 86. Pursuant to the IWC Wage Order(s), Defendant is required to pay Plaintiff and the members of the Class for all hours worked, meaning the time during which an employee is

1 subject to the control of an employer, including all the time the employee is suffered or permitted
2 to work, whether or not required to do so.

3 87. Defendant, as a matter of established company policy and procedure, at each and
4 every one of the individual facilities owned and/or operated by Defendant, consistently:

- 5 a. Administered a uniform company policy and practice as to the pay 6 policies regarding the class members; and
- 7 b. Scheduled to work and/or required the class members to work without 8 paying for all time they were under Defendants' control, as herein before 9 alleged.

10 88. Because Defendant required the class members to remain under Defendant's 11 control without paying therefore, this resulted in the class members earning less than the legal 12 minimum wage in the State of California.

13 89. Defendant's pattern, practice and uniform administration of corporate policy 14 regarding illegal employee compensation as described herein is unlawful and creates an 15 entitlement, pursuant to Labor Code §218, to recovery by Plaintiff and the class members in a 16 civil action, of the unpaid balance of the full amount of wages owing, calculated at the 17 appropriate rate.

18 90. Further, Defendant's pattern and practice in uniform administration of corporate 19 policy regarding Defendant's failure to pay the legal minimum wage to the class members as 20 described herein is unlawful and creates entitlement, pursuant to Labor Code §1194(a), to 21 recovery by the class members in a civil action, for the unpaid balance of the full amount of the 22 unpaid minimum wages owed, calculated as the difference between the straight time 23 compensation paid and the applicable minimum wage, including interest thereon.

24 91. Pursuant to Labor Code §1194.2(a) (which provides that in any action under 25 Labor Code §1194, an employee shall be entitled to recover liquidated damages), the class
26 members seek recovery of liquidated damages on the straight-time portion of uncompensated
27 hours of work (not including the overtime portion thereof) in an amount equal to the wages 28 unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

1 92. That calculation of individual damages for the class members may at some point
2 be required does not foreclose the possibility of taking common evidence on questions regarding 3 their entitlement to overtime compensation (see, e.g. Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232;
4 Hypolite v. Carleson (1975) 52 Cal.App.3d 566; Employment Development Dept. v. Superior
5 Court (1981) 30 Cal.3d 256).

6 93. Pursuant to Labor Code §218.6, Labor Code §1194(a) and CC §3287, the class
7 members seek recovery of pre-judgment interest on all amounts recovered herein.

8 94. Pursuant to Labor Code §218.5 and/or Labor Code §1194, the class members
9 request that the Court award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by them in this action.

10 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

11 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays:

12 1. That the Court determine this action may be maintained as a class action;

15 the practices challenged herein;

16 3. An order for full restitution of all monies, as necessary and according to proof, to 19 necessary. The restitution includes all monies retained as wages, as defined in Labor Code

20 §§200, et seq., 510, and 1194, and interest, and attorneys' fees as a result of the unfair business
21 practices or retained in violation of Labor Code §1198 and IWC Wage Order 5-2001;

22 4. For an order finding and declaring that Defendant's acts and practices as 23 challenged herein are unlawful, and unfair and/or fraudulent;

28 former employee receives his or her back wages in the form of overtime pay or alternatively that

1 each current or former eligible employee may submit a claim in order to receive his/her money;

2 7. For an order requiring Defendant to make full restitution and payment pursuant to
