RE: REPORTING LABOR VIOLATIONS OF WALMART STORES, INC.

Dear Labor and Workforce Development Agency:

This firm represents Harry Davis, who is a former employee of Walmart Stores, Inc., ("Employer"). Pursuant to Cal. Labor Code §2699, et seq, my client is giving notice of alleged labor violations. If the Labor and Workforce Development Agency does not have time or interest in investigating these matters, please inform me of your intent to not investigate at the following address:

My client was employed by Employer from April 11, 2015 through June 26, 2015. The company's address where my client was employed is:

Walmart
6433 Fallbrook Ave
West Hills, CA 91307

Below are the facts and theories of the various labor violations committed against my client as well as all other aggrieved employees in California. My client believes that all of the following labor violations were committed against all employees working in a similar capacity to Mr. Davis. In addition, the following employees are also aggrieved of the violations ("AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES"): All hourly employees working for Walmart within the State of California.

During his time of employment, Mr. Davis experienced regular meal and rest break violations that went uncompensated in violation of Cal. Lab. Code § 226.7. In addition, Mr. Davis was denied wages for off-the-clock work performed on behalf of Employer. Mr. Davis also reports that not all information required by Labor Code § 226 was printed on the pay stubs issued. In addition, my client, from talking to other employees, understands that other AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were similarly treated.

Thank you for your time and any assistance in this matter.

Best Regards,
