Re: Julie Mattison v. Tri-City Healthcare District

Dear Labor and Workforce Development Agency; Tri-City Healthcare District:

Please allow this correspondence to serve as written notice required by California Labor Code § 2699.3(a)(1) of the specific provisions of the Labor Code allegedly violated by Tri-City Healthcare District; and any other employers or person(s) acting on behalf of the employer as such phrase is used under Labor Code sections 558 and 558.1 ("Respondent"), and the facts and theories in support of said allegations. This firm represents Julie Mattison ("Claimant"); we hereby notify you that Claimant intends to seek penalties against Respondent under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2698 et seq., on Claimant's own behalf and all other aggrieved employees.

Claimant previously submitted notice as to an employer called Tri-City Medical Center. Claimant is submitting this amended notice because she has been informed the correct employer name may be Tri-City Healthcare District.

Specific Provisions of the Labor Code Allegedly Violated by Respondent

The specific provisions of the Labor Code allegedly violated by Respondent and the provisions under which Claimant submits this correspondence include the following: §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802.

Facts and Theories Supporting the Allegations Against Respondent

Claimant and other aggrieved employees worked for Respondent in California as non-exempt employees. Claimant was employed by Respondent in California within the past year.

During the past year, Respondent failed to provide 30-minute uninterrupted meal periods within the appropriate time intervals to Claimant and other aggrieved employees as required by Labor Code section 512 and section 11 of the applicable Wage Order. Claimant and other aggrieved employees frequently worked shifts over five hours and did not receive lawful meal periods because they were discouraged from taking meal periods, were interrupted during their meal periods, were required to remain on call during meal periods, were subjected to automatic deduction of meal periods not provided, and/or were not scheduled to be relieved at the appropriate intervals to receive all lawful meal periods, among other reasons. As a result, their meal periods were missed, late, short, and/or interrupted.

When Claimant and other aggrieved employees missed meal periods or if the meal periods were late, short, and/or interrupted, Respondent violated Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512, as well as section 11 of the applicable Wage Order, by failing to pay an additional hour of pay at the regular rate of pay to Claimant and other aggrieved employees for every day in which they suffered a meal period violation.

Respondent failed to authorize or permit paid 10-minute rest periods for every four hours or major fraction thereof worked because Claimant and other aggrieved employees were required or incentivized to work through their rest periods, discouraged from taking their rest periods, required to remain on call during rest periods, and/or were not scheduled to be relieved at the appropriate intervals to receive all rest periods.

When Claimant and other aggrieved employees did not receive rest periods, Respondent violated Labor Code section 226.7 and section 12 of the applicable Wage Order by failing to pay an additional hour of pay at the regular rate of pay to Claimant and other aggrieved employees.

Respondent failed to pay Claimant and other aggrieved employees at least the legal minimum wage, straight time wage, sick pay, and overtime wage at the correct rate of pay (in violation of Labor Code sections 246, 510, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, and 1198) due to Respondent's policy and practice of requiring Claimant and aggrieved employees to work off-the-clock, failing to pay wages using the appropriate regular rate of pay or the required minimum wage, failing to pay proper overtime under an Alternative Workweek Schedule, failing to implement a valid Alternative Workweeks Schedule, failing to pay for on-call time, failing to pay for time spent getting required certifications and tests, automatically deducting time for meal periods not provided, and/or failing to pay for all recorded time, among other reasons. Respondent failed to pay Claimant and other aggrieved employees all minimum, regular, and overtime wages for these hours.

Claimant and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses as a direct consequence of the discharge of their job duties for the benefit of Respondent, such as cell phone use. As such, Respondent violated Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802 by failing to reimburse Claimant and other aggrieved employees for such expenses.

As a result of, and in addition to, these actions, Respondent violated Labor Code sections 226, and 226.3 by failing to provide itemized wage statements to Claimant and other aggrieved employees that accurately reported the following: (1) gross wages earned; (2) total hours worked by the employee; (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis; (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item; (5) net wages earned; (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid; (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number; (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. For example, the wage statements failed to list the correct hours, rates, and pay due to the above unpaid wage violations, among other violations.

Respondent violated Labor Code sections 1174 and 1174.5 by failing to maintain accurate and complete records showing the hours worked daily by Claimant and other aggrieved employees and the wages paid to Claimant and other aggrieved employees (due to the same underpayment of wages referenced above).

Furthermore, Respondent violated the Labor Code by failing to properly pay all these wages owed throughout Claimant's and aggrieved employees' employment and following the end of these workers' employment with Respondent due to the above violations (in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204).

Based on these violations, Claimant seeks attorneys' fees, interest, and penalties under the Labor Code. Enclosed and incorporated by reference is the class action complaint Claimant intends to amend to add her claims on behalf of Claimant and all other aggrieved employees against Respondent.

Thank you for your assistance on this matter. Should you have any questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

Very truly yours,

Re: Hayden Neary v. Tri-City Healthcare District

Dear Labor and Workforce Development Agency; Tri-City Healthcare District:

Please allow this correspondence to serve as written notice required by California Labor Code § 2699.3(a)(1) of the specific provisions of the Labor Code allegedly violated by Tri-City Healthcare District; and any other employers or person(s) acting on behalf of the employer as such phrase is used under Labor Code sections 558 and 558.1 ("Respondent"), and the facts and theories in support of said allegations. This firm represents Hayden Neary ("Claimant"); we hereby notify you that Claimant intends to seek penalties against Respondent under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2698 et seq., on Claimant's own behalf and all other aggrieved employees.

Claimant previously submitted notice as to an employer called Tri-City Medical Center. Claimant is submitting this amended notice because he has been informed the correct employer name may be Tri-City Healthcare District.

Specific Provisions of the Labor Code Allegedly Violated by Respondent

The specific provisions of the Labor Code allegedly violated by Respondent and the provisions under which Claimant submits this correspondence include the following: §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802.

Facts and Theories Supporting the Allegations Against Respondent

Claimant and other aggrieved employees worked for Respondent in California as non-exempt employees. Claimant was employed by Respondent in California within the past year as a security officer.

During the past year, Respondent failed to provide 30-minute uninterrupted meal periods within the appropriate time intervals to Claimant and other aggrieved employees as required by Labor Code section 512 and section 11 of the applicable Wage Order. Claimant and other aggrieved employees frequently worked shifts over five hours and did not receive lawful meal periods because they were discouraged from taking meal periods, were interrupted during their meal periods, were required to remain on duty and on premises during meal periods, were subjected to automatic deduction of meal periods not provided, and/or were not scheduled to be relieved at the appropriate intervals to receive all lawful meal periods, among other reasons. As a result, their meal periods were missed, late, short, and/or interrupted.

When Claimant and other aggrieved employees missed meal periods or if the meal periods were late, short, and/or interrupted, Respondent violated Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512, as well as section 11 of the applicable Wage Order, by failing to pay an additional hour of pay at the regular rate of pay to Claimant and other aggrieved employees for every day in which they suffered a meal period violation.

Respondent failed to authorize or permit paid 10-minute rest periods for every four hours or major fraction thereof worked because Claimant and other aggrieved employees were required or incentivized to work through their rest periods, discouraged from taking their rest periods, required to combine rest breaks with meal breaks, required to remain on call during rest periods, and/or were not scheduled to be relieved at the appropriate intervals to receive all rest periods.

When Claimant and other aggrieved employees did not receive rest periods, Respondent violated Labor Code section 226.7 and section 12 of the applicable Wage Order by failing to pay an additional hour of pay at the regular rate of pay to Claimant and other aggrieved employees.

Respondent failed to pay Claimant and other aggrieved employees at least the legal minimum wage, straight time wage, sick pay, and overtime wage at the correct rate of pay (in violation of Labor Code sections 246, 510, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, and 1198) due to Respondent's policy and practice of requiring Claimant and aggrieved employees to work off-the-clock, failing to pay wages using the appropriate regular rate of pay (e.g., by excluding the night differential or other incentive pay) or the required minimum wage, failing to pay for on-call time, failing to pay for time spent getting required certifications and tests, automatically deducting time for meal periods not provided, and/or failing to pay for all recorded time, among other reasons. Respondent failed to pay Claimant and other aggrieved employees all minimum, regular, and overtime wages for these hours.

Claimant and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses as a direct consequence of the discharge of their job duties for the benefit of Respondent, such as uniform maintenance and cell phone use. As such, Respondent violated Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802 by failing to reimburse Claimant and other aggrieved employees for such expenses.

As a result of, and in addition to, these actions, Respondent violated Labor Code sections 226, and 226.3 by failing to provide itemized wage statements to Claimant and other aggrieved employees that accurately reported the following: (1) gross wages earned; (2) total hours worked by the employee; (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis; (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item; (5) net wages earned; (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid; (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number; (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. For example, the wage statements failed to list the correct hours, rates, and pay due to the above unpaid wage violations, among other violations.

Respondent violated Labor Code sections 1174 and 1174.5 by failing to maintain accurate and complete records showing the hours worked daily by Claimant and other aggrieved employees and the wages paid to Claimant and other aggrieved employees (due to the same underpayment of wages referenced above).

Furthermore, Respondent violated the Labor Code by failing to properly pay all these wages owed throughout Claimant's and aggrieved employees' employment and following the end of these workers' employment with Respondent due to the above violations and due to failure to pay final wages on time (in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204).

Based on these violations, Claimant seeks attorneys' fees, interest, and penalties under the Labor Code. Enclosed and incorporated by reference is the class action complaint Claimant intends to amend to add his claims on behalf of Claimant and all other aggrieved employees against Respondent.

Thank you for your assistance on this matter. Should you have any questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

JULIE MATTISON, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

v.

TRI-CITY MEDICAL CENTER ASC
OPERATORS, LLC; and DOES 1 through 20, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No. 25CU010692C

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT FOR:

1. Failure to Pay Minimum Wages;
2. Failure to Pay Overtime Wages;
3. Failure to Provide Meal Periods;
4. Failure to Permit Rest Breaks;
5. Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses;
6. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements;
7. Failure to Pay All Wages Due Upon Separation of Employment; and
8. Violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2 6. This is a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. The 3 monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdictional limits of 4 the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

5 7. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California
6 Constitution, Article VI, § 10, which grants the Superior Court original jurisdiction in all causes
7 except those given by statutes to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do 8 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

9 8. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information and 10 belief, they are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or 11 otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of 12 jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and 13 substantial justice.

14 9. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants
15 reside, transact business, or have offices in this county, and the acts and omissions alleged herein
16 took place in this county.

17 THE PARTIES

18 10. Plaintiff is a resident of California and worked for Defendants during the relevant 19 time periods as alleged herein.

20 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that at all times hereinafter
21 mentioned, Defendants were and are subject to the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders as 22 employers, whose employees were and are engaged throughout this county and the State of 23 California.

24 12. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names or capacities of the defendants sued herein
25 under the fictitious names DOES 1 through 20, but will seek leave of this Court to amend this 26 Complaint and serve such fictitiously named defendants once their names and capacities become 27 known.
28

1 Class

2 All persons currently or formerly employed by any or all Defendants as non-
3 exempt employees in the State of California at any time between February 28,
4 2021 and the date of class certification (“Class”).

5 21. Plaintiff also seeks to certify the following subclasses of employees:

6 Waiting Time Subclass

7 All members of the Class who separated their employment with any or all
8 Defendants at any time between February 28, 2022 and the date of class
9 certification (“Waiting Time Subclass”).

10 22. Plaintiff reserves the right to modify or re-define the Class, establish additional 11 subclasses, or modify or re-define any class or subclass definition as appropriate based on 12 investigation, discovery, and specific theories of liability.

13 23. Members of the Class and the Waiting Time Subclass described above will be 14 collectively referred to as “Class Members.”

15 24. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class Members that 16 predominate over any questions affecting only individual members including, but not limited to,
17 the following:

- 18 (a) Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages 19 (including minimum wages and overtime wages) for all hours worked by 20 Plaintiff and Class Members.
- 21 (b) Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members to work over 22 eight (8) hours per day, over twelve (12) hours per day, and/or over forty 23 (40) hours per week and failed to pay them proper overtime compensation 24 for all overtime hours worked.
- 25 (c) Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of timely meal
26 periods or required Plaintiff and Class Members to work through meal 27 periods without legal compensation.
- 28

1 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the
2 interests of all Class Members because it is in Plaintiff's best interest to prosecute the claims
3 alleged herein to obtain full compensation and penalties due. Plaintiff's attorneys, as proposed 4 class counsel, are competent and experienced in litigating large employment class actions and 5 versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 6 incurred and, throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur attorneys' fees and 7 costs that have been and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the 8 substantial benefit of the Class Members.

9 (d) Superiority: The nature of this action makes use of class action
10 adjudication superior to other methods. A class action will achieve economies of time, effort, and 11 expense as compared with separate lawsuits and will avoid inconsistent outcomes because the 12 same issues can be adjudicated in the same manner for the entire Class and Waiting Time
13 Subclass at the same time. If appropriate, this Court can, and is empowered to, fashion methods 14 to efficiently manage this case as a class action.

15 (e) Public Policy Considerations: Employers in the State of California violate
16 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights
17 out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are fearful of bringing actions
18 because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through 19 negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide class members who are not named 20 in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights while 21 affording them privacy protections.

22 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

23 26. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other 24 California residents as non-exempt employees throughout California.

25 27. Defendants continue to employ non-exempt employees within California.

26 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times herein
27 mentioned, Defendants were advised by skilled lawyers, employees, and other professionals who 28

1 Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members incurred necessary business
2 expenses or losses, but were not reimbursed nor indemnified of such expenses or losses that were 3 incurred as a direct consequence of the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the 4 directions of Defendants.

5 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 6 should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive itemized wage
7 statements that accurately showed the following information pursuant to the Labor Code: (1)
8 gross wages earned; (2) total hours worked by the employee; (3) the number of piece-rate units
9 earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis; (4) all 10 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be 11 aggregated and shown as one item; (5) net wages earned; (6) the inclusive dates of the period for 12 which the employee is paid; (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or 13 her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security
14 number; (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and (9) all applicable 15 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at 16 each hourly rate by the employee. In violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and Class Members 17 were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.

18 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 19 should have known that the Waiting Time Subclass was entitled to timely payment of wages due 20 upon separation of employment. In violation of the Labor Code, the Waiting Time Subclass did 21 not receive payment of all wages within the permissible time periods.

22 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 23 should have known they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and Class Members, and Defendants
24 had the financial ability to pay such compensation but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally
25 failed to do so in order to increase Defendants' profits.

26 36. Therefore, Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking monetary and injunctive relief
27 against Defendants on Plaintiff's own behalf and on behalf of all Class Members to recover,
28 among other things, unpaid wages (including minimum wages and overtime wages), unpaid meal

1 45. Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is
2 unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either one and one-half
3 (1½) or two (2) times the person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours
4 worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

5 46. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Orders provide that Defendants are and 6 were required to pay overtime compensation to Plaintiff and Class Members at the rate of one 7 and one-half times (1½) their regular rate of pay when working and for all hours worked in 8 excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek and for the first 9 eight (8) hours of work on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

10 47. The applicable IWC Wage Orders further provide that Defendants are and were 11 required to pay overtime compensation to Plaintiff and Class Members at a rate of two times 12 their regular rate of pay when working and for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in 13 a day or in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

14 48. California Labor Code § 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one
15 and one-half (1½) times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a 16 day or forty (40) hours in a week and for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh
17 consecutive day of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours 18 worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the 19 seventh day of work in a workweek.

20 49. Labor Code § 510 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders provide that employment
21 of more than six days in a workweek is only permissible if the employer pays proper overtime 22 compensation as set forth herein.

23 50. Plaintiff and Class Members were employees entitled to the protections of 24 California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194.

25 51. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members
26 to work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, forty (40) hours in a week, and/or on a seventh 27 consecutive day of work, entitling them to overtime wages.

1 the total work period per day of the employee is not more than six (6) hours, the meal period may 2 be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee.

3 60. Labor Code § 512(a) also provides that an employer may not employ an employee
4 for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a
5 second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no
6 more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the 7 employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

8 61. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members worked more than 9 five (5) or ten (10) hours and did not receive all compliant meal periods because their meal
10 periods were missed, late, short, interrupted, and/or they were not permitted to take a second 11 meal period.

12 62. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order require 13 an employer to pay an employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 14 compensation for each work day that a compliant meal period is not provided.

15 63. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members meal
16 period premiums for missed, late, and/or short meal periods pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b)
17 and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

18 64. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members an 19 additional hour of pay for each day a compliant meal period was not provided, Plaintiff and 20 Class Members suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

21 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 FAILURE TO PERMIT REST BREAKS

23 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 12)

24 65. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as 25 though fully set forth herein.

26 66. Labor Code § 226.7(a) provides that no employer shall require an employee to 27 work during any rest period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.
28

1 consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of 2 the employer”

3 75. Labor Code § 2802(b) states that “[a]ll awards made by a court . . . for 4 reimbursement of necessary expenditures under this section shall carry interest at the same rate
5 as judgments in civil actions. Interest shall accrue from the date on which the employee incurred
6 the necessary expenditure or loss.”

7 76. Labor Code § 2802(c) states that “[f]or purposes of this section, the term
8 “necessary expenditures or losses” shall include all reasonable costs, including, but not limited
9 to, attorney’s fees incurred by the employee enforcing the rights granted by this section.”

10 77. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members incurred necessary
11 business-related costs that were not fully reimbursed by Defendants.

12 78. In violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802, Defendants failed to reimburse or 13 indemnify Plaintiff and Class Members for their expenses due to Defendants’ knowing and 14 intentional failure to reimburse necessary business expenditures in connection with Plaintiff’s
15 and Class Members’ work and job duties.

16 79. As a direct result, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered and continue to 17 suffer losses, and therefore seek complete reimbursement and indemnification of necessary 18 business expenditures or losses, interest thereon at the required rate, and all reasonable costs in 19 enforcing the rights under Labor Code § 2802, including, but not limited to attorneys’ fees.

20 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

22 (Violation of Labor Code § 226; Violation of IWC Wage Order)

23 80. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as 24 though fully set forth herein.

25 81. Labor Code § 226(a) requires Defendants to provide each employee with an 26 accurate wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including, the following:
27 (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate
28 units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all

1 ($100.00) per employee for each violation in subsequent pay periods in an amount not exceeding
2 four thousand dollars ($4,000.00) per employee, plus attorneys' fees and costs.

3 85. Defendants' violations of California Labor Code § 226(a) prevented Plaintiff and 4 Class Members from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wages paid to them and resulted 5 in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a result of Defendants' knowing and 6 intentional failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and Class Members 7 have suffered an injury, in the exact amount of damages and/or penalties to be shown according 8 to proof at trial.

9 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES DUE UPON SEPARATION OF EMPLOYMENT

11 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203)

12 86. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as 13 though fully set forth herein.

14 87. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, 15 the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that 16 if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and 17 payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-18 two (72) hours previous notice of an intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to 19 his or her wages at the time of quitting.

20 88. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed to pay the Waiting 21 Time Subclass all their earned wages upon termination, either at the time of discharge or within 22 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

23 89. Defendants' failure to pay the Waiting Time Subclass all their earned wages at the 24 time of discharge or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ is in 25 violation of Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

26 90. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed
27 immediately upon discharge or resignation in accordance with Labor Code §§ 201 and 202, then 28 the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date at the same rate until breaks were not authorized or permitted in violation of Labor Code § 226.7.

(d) Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for necessary business-related expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.

(e) Failing to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.

(f) Failing to timely pay all earned wages to the members of the Waiting Time Subclass upon separation of employment in violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203.

96. As alleged herein, Defendants systematically engaged in unlawful conduct in violation of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, such as failing to pay all wages (minimum and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods and rest breaks or compensation in lieu thereof, failing to reimburse necessary business-related costs and expenses, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and failing to pay all wages due and owing upon separation of employment in a timely manner to the Waiting Time Subclass, all in order to decrease their costs of doing business and increase their profits.

97. At all relevant times herein, Defendants held themselves out to Plaintiff and Class Members as being knowledgeable concerning the labor and employment laws of California.

98. At all times relevant herein, Defendants intentionally avoided paying Plaintiff and Class Members wages and monies, thereby creating for Defendants an artificially lower cost of doing business in order to undercut their competitors and establish and/or gain a greater foothold in the marketplace.

99. By violating the foregoing statutes and regulations as herein alleged, Defendants' acts constitute unfair and unlawful business practices under California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

100. As a result of the unfair and unlawful business practices of Defendants as alleged herein, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to injunctive relief, disgorgement, and restitution in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

1 13. For reasonable attorneys' fees, costs of suit, and interest to the extent permitted
2 by law, including, but not limited to, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and Labor Code §§
3 226(e) and 1194; and

4 14. For such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
