DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff Rosa Bibian (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary 2 support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further 3 investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendant Ararat Home of Los Angeles, and 6 Does 1 through 10 (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code 7 violations and unfair business practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay minimum 8 wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and 9 permit rest periods, failure to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, 10 failure to timely pay all wages to terminated employees, failure to indemnify necessary business 11 expenses, and failure to furnish accurate wage statements.

12 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually and as a 13 class action on behalf of herself and certain current and former employees of Defendants 14 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members” and defined more fully 15 below). The Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any 16 Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee during the statute of 17 limitations period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

18 3. Plaintiff brings the Ninth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 19 California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties that are owed to 20 Plaintiff, the State of California, and past and present non-exempt, hourly-paid employees of 21 Defendants who worked in California during the applicable statute of limitations period 22 (hereinafter referred to as the “Aggrieved Employees”).

23 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 24 establishment within the State of California, including Los Angeles County. As such, and based 25 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants 26 are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare 27 Commission (“IWC”), and the California Business & Professions Code.

1           5.       Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period Defendants 2 maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 3           (a)       Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum 4 wages, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor Code 5 and IWC Wage Orders;
- 6           (b)       Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in 7 compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing 8 to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and 9 failing to pay an additional hour's pay at the regular rate of pay for each 10 workday a meal period violation occurred;
- 11          (c)       Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest 12 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage 13 Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay at the employee's 14 regular rate of pay for each workday a rest period violation occurred;
- 15          (d)       Failing to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses incurred;
- 16          (e)       Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum wages, overtime wages, 17 meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages due within 18 the time period specified by California law when employment terminates;
- 19          (f)       Failing to maintain accurate records of the hours that employees worked; 20 and
- 21          (g)       Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements 22 containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and 23 IWC Wage Orders.

24           6.       On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 25 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 26 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein 27 were willful and deliberate.
28

7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of “respondeat superior”.

THE PARTIES

Plaintiff

8. Plaintiff is a California resident that worked for Defendants in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, as an hourly, non-exempt Driver from approximately September 2022 to approximately May 2024.

9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

Defendants

10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief alleges, that Defendant Ararat Home of Los Angeles is:

- (a) A California nonprofit corporation with its principal place of business in Los Angeles, California;
- (b) A business entity conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Los Angeles; and
- (c) The former employer of Plaintiff, and the current and/or former employer of the putative Class and the Aggrieved Employees. Defendant suffered and permitted Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

11. Plaintiff does not currently know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein.

1 Plaintiff will amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants 2 when they have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be 3 necessary.

4 12. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and 5 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, 6 and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in 7 the State of California.

8 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times 9 each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff 10 and the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over 11 their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon 12 alleges that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint 13 venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, 14 successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and 15 was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore 16 such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct 17 with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges 18 that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, 19 that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, 20 approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

21 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

22 14. Plaintiff is a California resident who worked for Defendants in the County of Los 23 Angeles, State of California, as a Driver during the statutory period. Plaintiff was typically 24 scheduled to work 5 days in a workweek, and typically in excess of 8 hours in a single workday.

25 15. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff for all hours 26 worked (including minimum wages and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiff with 27 uninterrupted meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take uninterrupted rest 28 periods, failed to indemnify Plaintiff for necessary business expenses, failed to timely pay all

1 final wages to Plaintiff when Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment, and failed to 2 furnish accurate wage statements to Plaintiff. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience 3 working for Defendants was typical and illustrative.

4 16. Throughout the statutory period, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 5 Employees worked more than 8 hours in a workday and more than 40 hours in a workweek.
6 Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not paying Plaintiff, the Class, and the 7 Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including all overtime wages. In those instances 8 where Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees earned non-discretionary bonuses and 9 other remuneration, Defendants failed to incorporate all remuneration when calculating the 10 correct overtime rate of pay, meal break premium rate of pay, rest break premium rate of pay, 11 and sick day rate of pay. Also throughout the statutory period, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 12 Aggrieved Employees were required to work "off-the-clock" and uncompensated. For example, 13 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were required to undergo COVID temperature 14 checks and security checkpoints before clocking in for their shifts. Plaintiff, the Class, and the 15 Aggrieved Employees were also required to wait in line for several minutes off-the-clock to 16 utilize Defendants' time clock machine. Additionally, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 17 Employees were required to keep their cellphones on at all times, including during meal periods, 18 and were required to respond to work requests from supervisors while clocked out during 19 purported meal periods. Despite being required to perform these work tasks, Plaintiff, the Class, 20 and the Aggrieved Employees were not compensated for this time worked. In maintaining a 21 practice of not paying all wages owed, Defendants failed to maintain accurate records of the 22 hours Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

23 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to provide 24 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods.
25 Defendants often required Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess 26 of five consecutive hours a day without providing 30-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, 27 duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiff, the Class, 28 and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth

1 hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendants also did not adequately inform Plaintiff, the 2 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a meal period by the end of the fifth 3 hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the tenth hour of work. Plaintiff, 4 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were often required to work during their meal periods, 5 leading to the failure to provide uninterrupted meal periods. For example, Plaintiff, the Class, 6 and the Aggrieved Employees were required to prioritize urgent work tasks before starting their 7 meal periods or during their meal periods, resulting in late, shortened, interrupted, or missed 8 meal periods. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were also required to keep their 9 cellphones on at all times, including during meal periods, and were required to respond to work 10 requests from supervisors while clocked out during purported meal periods. These requirements 11 also meant Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were not relieved of all duty 12 during their meal periods. Additionally, when Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 13 worked shifts over 10 hours in length, Defendants failed to provide a second meal period 14 altogether. As a result, Plaintiffs and the Class were not provided with uninterrupted and 15 complete meal periods. Despite this, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were not 16 paid the appropriate meal period premiums. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was 17 to not provide meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance 18 with California law.

19 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize 20 and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free rest 21 periods. Defendants often required Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work in 22 excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to 23 take a net 10-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours of work (or 24 major fraction thereof), or without compensating Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 25 Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Defendants also did not 26 adequately inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a rest 27 period. Moreover, Defendants did not have adequate policies or practices permitting or 28 authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did

1 Defendants have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendants 2 also did not have adequate policies or practices to verify whether Plaintiff, the Class, and the 3 Aggrieved Employees were taking their required rest periods. Further, Defendants did not 4 maintain accurate records of employee work periods, and therefore Defendants cannot 5 demonstrate that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees took rest periods during the 6 middle of each work period. For example, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 7 were rarely provided with a compliant rest period. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 8 Employees were also required to keep their cellphones on at all times, including during rest 9 periods, and were required to respond to work requests from supervisors while on their 10 purported rest periods. As a result, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were 11 rarely provided with compliant rest periods and were regularly required to work through their 12 rest periods. Despite this, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were not paid the 13 appropriate rest period premiums. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not 14 authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in 15 compliance with California law.

16 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiff, the 17 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of 18 their duties for Defendants without reimbursement. For example, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 19 Aggrieved Employees were required to use their personal cell phones for work purposes such as 20 communicating with co-workers and supervisors regarding work-related issues. Plaintiff, the 21 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were also required to purchase work pants as their uniform.
22 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were not adequately compensated for these 23 work-related expenses.

24 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely 25 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at the conclusion of their employment all 26 wages for all minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period 27 premium wages. Further, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 28 Employees their final paychecks immediately upon termination.

1           21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff, the Class, 2 and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable 3 hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages 4 earned for hours worked, correct overtime hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that 5 were not provided in accordance with California law, correct wages for rest periods that were 6 not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law, and Defendant's 7 address). As a result of these violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiff, the 8 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees suffered injury because, among other things:

- 9           (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid 10 minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest 11 period premium wages to which they were entitled, even though they were 12 entitled;
- 13           (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum, 14 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even 15 though they had not been;
- 16           (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid 17 minimum, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages 18 at the correct California rate even though they were;
- 19           (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, overtime, 20 meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct 21 California rate even though they had not been;
- 22           (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, 23 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium owed to them;
- 24           (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in 25 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have 26 to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages 27 owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage 28 statements contained the required accurate information;

- 1 (g) by understating the wages truly due them, the violations caused them to 2 lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, 3 disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;
4 (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wages 5 rates to which Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were 6 entitled, and Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were paid 7 less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

8 Thus, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are owed the amounts provided for in 9 California Labor Code § 226(e), including actual damages.

10 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

11 22. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all 12 other persons similarly situated, and thus, seek class certification under California Code of Civil 13 Procedure § 382.

14 23. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief 15 authorized by California law.

16 24. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

17 All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly, non-18 exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years before the 19 filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice of class certification to the Class is sent.

20 25. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

21 26. Plaintiff undertakes this concerted activity to improve the wages and working 22 conditions of all Class Members.

23 27. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is 24 readily ascertainable:

- 25 (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so 26 numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical.
27 The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time, 28 however, the Class is estimated to be greater than 100 individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' records.

(b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

(c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

(d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

- 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and
- 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California

1 is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through 2 a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their 3 rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are 4 also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former 5 employers might damage their future endeavors through negative 6 references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members 7 who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows 8 for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is 9 protected.

10 28. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if 11 any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without 12 limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- 13 (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum 14 wages, and overtime wages;
- 15 (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to 16 Class Members;
- 17 (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium 18 wages to Class Members;
- 19 (d) Failed to promptly pay all wages due to Class Members upon their 20 discharge or resignation;
- 21 (e) Failed to maintain accurate records of all hours Class Members worked, 22 and all meal periods Class Members took or missed;
- 23 (f) Failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary business expenses; 24 and
- 25 (g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a 26 result of their illegal conduct as described above.

27 29. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to 28 California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- 1 (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any 2 question affecting only individual members;
- 3 (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and 4 efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- 5 (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all 6 members of the class before the Court;
- 7 (d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain 8 effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a 9 class action;
- 10 (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and 11 equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate 12 compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are 13 responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members 14 of the Class for the injuries sustained;
- 15 (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by 16 individual members of the class would create a risk of:
- 17 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual 18 members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards 19 of conduct for Defendants; and/or
- 20 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would, 21 as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other 22 members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially 23 impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but 24 not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from 25 those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,
- 26 (g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to 27 the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to 28 the class as a whole.

30. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff would contemplate the use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice, e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum Wages for All Hours Worked)

31. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

32. “Hours worked” is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

33. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to Plaintiff and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 1194 of the California Labor Code, and any additional applicable Wage Orders, which require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

34. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

35. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

36. By virtue of the Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to Plaintiff and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiff and the Class suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to Plaintiff and the Class, but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court, and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

37. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage compensation due Plaintiff and the Class.

38. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages.

39. California Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, Plaintiff and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates required by law, including minimum wages. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiff and the Class all such wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month.

40. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

41. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

42. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

43. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

44. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and the Class have worked more than eight 1 hours in a workday, as employees of Defendants.

2 45. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class 3 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours 4 permissible by law as required by California Labor Code § 510 and 1198. Plaintiff and the 5 Class are regularly required to work overtime hours.

6 46. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate 7 compensation to the Plaintiff and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiff and the 8 Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently 9 unknown to them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be 10 ascertained according to proof at trial.

11 47. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), 12 Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to 13 Plaintiff and the Class.

14 48. Plaintiff and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according 15 to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well 16 as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the 17 California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

18 49. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all 19 wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall 20 pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all 21 overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the 22 Class with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

23 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

25 50. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
26 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

27 51. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the 28 Plaintiff and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the

1 start of Plaintiff and the Class' sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal 2 periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Section 512 of the 3 California Labor Code, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer 4 provide unpaid meal periods of at least 30 minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a 5 violation of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code for an employer to require any 6 employee to work during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

7 52. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiff 8 and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit 9 and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact 10 that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), 11 Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code and 12 the applicable Wage Orders.

13 53. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 14 additional wages at the regular rate of pay for each workday he or she was not provided with all 15 required meal period(s), plus interest thereon.

16 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

18 54. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
19 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

20 55. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of net 10 21 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction thereof (i.e. more than two 22 hours). Section 512 of the California Labor Code, the applicable Wage Orders require that the 23 employer permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of 10 minutes each for 24 each 4-hour period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten 25 minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so 26 required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of 27 the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee to work during any rest 28 period mandated under any Wage Order.

1           56.     Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiff and the 2     Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than 4 hours in a 3     workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods as 4     alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take 5     these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 6     of the California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders.

7           57.     Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 8     additional wages at the regular rate of pay for each workday he or she was not provided with all 9     required rest break(s), plus interest thereon.

10                           FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11                   (Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses)

12           58.     Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
13     paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

14           59.     Defendants violated Labor Code section 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, by 15     failing to pay and indemnify the Plaintiff and the Class for their necessary expenditures and 16     losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to 17     directions of Defendants.

18           60.     As a result, Plaintiff and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the 19     expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

20           61.     Plaintiff and the class they represent are entitled to attorney's fees, expenses, and 21     costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(c) and interest pursuant to Labor Code section 22     2802(b).

23                           SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24                   (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time 25                                           Penalties)

26           62.     Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
27     paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

1           63.     At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if 2 an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are 3 due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, 4 his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, 5 unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to 6 quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

7           64.     Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many 8 other members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the 9 employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and 10 continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be 11 paid by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within 12 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

13           65.     Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and those Class members who are no longer 14 employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within 15 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor 16 Code §§ 201 and 202.

17           66.     California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay 18 wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall 19 continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is 20 commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

21           67.     Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally 22 accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days 23 maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

24           68.     Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, Plaintiff and the 25 Class are also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs 26 incurred in this action.

1 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and 3 Compliant Wage Records)

4 69. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
5 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

6 70. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that 7 every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement 8 in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours 9 worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate 10 if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions 11 made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net 12 wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name 13 of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee 14 identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 15 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 16 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

17 71. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with 18 complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the 19 failure to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiff and the Class, the failure to list 20 the true “total hours worked by the employee,” and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

21 72. As a result of Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff 22 and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

23 73. Specifically, Plaintiff and the members of the Class have been injured by 24 Defendants’ intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied 25 both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage 26 statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

27 74. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is difficult and 28 time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the Class were also injured as

1 a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following 2 Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California's Labor Code and 3 related laws and regulations.

4 75. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their actual 5 damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a).

6 76. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 7 attorney's fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor 8 Code § 226(h).

9 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Against all Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, 11 et seq.)

12 77. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
13 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

14 78. Defendants, and each of them, are "persons" as defined under California Business 15 & Professions Code § 17201.

16 79. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, 17 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiff 18 seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of 19 Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

20 80. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and 21 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions 22 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

23 81. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be 24 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as 25 violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of 26 public policy; and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, 27 and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of 28 California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

1                                   Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

2           82.     Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages, and other benefits in violation of the 3 California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California 4 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

5                                   Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

6           83.     Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation 7 of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity 8 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

9                                   Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of All Hours Worked

10          84.     Defendants' failure to maintain accurate records of all hours worked in accordance 11 with California Labor Code § 1174.5 and the IWC Wage Orders constitutes unlawful and/or 12 unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

13                                  Failure to Provide Meal Periods

14          85.     Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor 15 Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful 16 and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

17                                  Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

18          86.     Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with 19 California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes 20 unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

21                                  Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses

22          87.     Defendants' failure to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses in 23 accordance with California Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, 24 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 25 17200, et seq.

26                                  Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

27          88.     Defendants' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements in accordance 28 with California Labor Code § 226, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity

1 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

2 89. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices 3 described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from 4 Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and have deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly 5 situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

6 90. Plaintiff and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of 7 Defendants' wrongful conduct.

8 91. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled 9 to, and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the 10 Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived, 11 by means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff 12 and the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of 13 Defendants in order to recover restitution.

14 92. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, is further 15 entitled to and does seek a declaration that the above described business practices are unfair, 16 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them, 17 from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business 18 practices in the future.

19 93. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, has no 20 plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members 21 suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business 22 practices. As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described 23 above, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, has suffered and 24 will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained 25 from continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

26 94. Plaintiff also alleges that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth 27 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other 28 withholdings.

95. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

96. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

97. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

98. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

99. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3. On February 27, 2025, he gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiff and certain current and former aggrieved employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee. Plaintiff's PAGA case number is LWDA-CM-1082826-25.

1           100. More than 65 days has elapsed since Plaintiff provided notice, but the Labor and 2 Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants' 3 Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil 4 action to recover penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of 5 the Labor Code described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, 6 penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 558, and 2699(f)(2).

7           101. In addition, Plaintiff seeks penalties for Defendants' violation of California Labor 8 Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, 9 employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by 10 California Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable 11 IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee 12 begins and ends each work period. Meal periods, and total hours worked daily shall also be 13 recorded. Additionally, pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(5), every employer shall 14 keep total hours worked in the payroll period and applicable rates of pay.

15           102. During the time period of employment for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, 16 Defendants failed to maintain records pursuant to the Labor Code and IWC Orders by failing to 17 maintain accurate records showing meal periods, and accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and 18 the Aggrieved Employees worked. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required 19 by the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the 20 ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the 21 time they actually worked. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to 22 dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic 23 enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have 24 suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such 25 wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel 26 Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in 27 amounts according to proof at trial. Because of Defendants' knowing failure to comply with the 28 Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have also

1 suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the 2 wage payments paid to them.

3 103. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to an award
4 of civil penalties on behalf of himself, the State of California, and similarly Aggrieved 5 Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount 6 to be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies 7 permitted by law.

8 104. In addition, Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs 9 pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in 10 any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

11 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

8 12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing 9 from the date such amounts were due;

22 As to the Fourth Cause of Action

23 20. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders;

26. For general unpaid wages and reimbursement of business expenses as may be appropriate;

27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment;

employees who have left Defendants' employ;

32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

33. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and
