DELEE VONGDARA, on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees

Plaintiff,

vs.

TECH DIGITAL CORPORATION; BECTON
DICKINSON AND COMPANY; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 25CU023974C

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF DELEE VONGDARA'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff DELEE VONGDARA ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants TECH DIGITAL CORPORATION; BECTON DICKINSON AND COMPANY; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, himself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with

1 Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all hours 2 worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to pay 3 overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay; failure to authorize or permit all legally required 4 and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium wages; failure to authorize or permit 5 all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest period premium wages; statutory 6 penalties for failure to timely pay earned wages during employment; statutory penalties for failure 7 to provide accurate wage statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the form of continuation 8 wages for failure to timely pay employees all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff 9 experienced these violations personally, as well as is informed and believes other aggrieved 10 employees did as well. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor and 11 Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code 12 section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and others 13 aggrieved.

14 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

15 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 16 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 17 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 18 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars 19 ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-20 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 21 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 22 California, including but not limited to San Diego County, at 10020 Pacific Mesa Blvd, San Diego, 23 CA 92121.

24 III. PARTIES

25 1. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 26 Development Agency on behalf of himself and other current and former employees subject to 27 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 28 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will work

1 for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp 2 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the currently 3 named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was employed by 4 Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in San Diego County from in or around 5 December 13, 2023 until on or about May 20, 2024.

6 2. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant TECH 7 DIGITAL CORPORATION is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing 8 business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-33 are, and at all times relevant 9 hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant TECH DIGITAL CORPORATION in the 10 establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies.
11 Defendant TECH DIGITAL CORPORATION operates in San Diego County and employed 12 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in San Diego County, including but not limited to, at 10020 13 Pacific Mesa Blvd, San Diego, CA 92121.

14 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant BECTON 15 DICKINSON AND COMPANY is authorized to do business within the State of California and is 16 doing business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 34-66 are, and at all times 17 relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant BECTON DICKINSON AND 18 COMPANY in the establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour 19 practices or policies. Defendant BECTON DICKINSON AND COMPANY operates in San Diego 20 County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in San Diego County, including but not 21 limited to, at 10020 Pacific Mesa Blvd, San Diego, CA 92121.

22 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 23 through 66 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 24 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 25 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working 26 conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

27 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 67
28 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued

1 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 2 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to be 3 violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of the 4 Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

5 6. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff 6 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 7 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 8 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 9 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 10 complaint.

11 7. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 12 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff 13 reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

14 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

15 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 16 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

17 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and 18 Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

19 8. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

20 9. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 21 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 22 and the applicable Wage Orders.

23 10. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California 24 Labor Code:

25 11. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
26 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt 27 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 28 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee

1 is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or 2 indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

3 12. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 4 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 5 Wage Orders.

6 13. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 7 non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with having 8 worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 9 California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum wage for all 10 hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited 11 to:

12 (a) Failure to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 13 hourly non-exempt employees' actual hours worked during their shifts and instead paid Plaintiff and 14 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees by scheduled 15 hours despite that they routinely worked beyond their scheduled hours.

16 (b) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 17 non-exempt employees to clock out for meal breaks despite often missing or working through their 18 meal breaks without being paid for that time.

19 14. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 20 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' 21 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 22 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 23 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable 24 Wage Order.

25 15. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 26 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
27 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
28 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

1 16. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay 2 and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of 3 their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer 4 is required to pay hourly employees for all “hours worked,” which includes all time that an employee 5 is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This 6 includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to 7 the benefit of the employer.’

8 17. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 9 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40) 10 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

11 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours 12 in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in 13 any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half 14 (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours 15 in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay 16 for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a 17 workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an 18 employee.

19 Labor Code section 510.

20 18. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 21 California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due 22 to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

23 (a) Failure to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 24 hourly non-exempt employees’ actual hours worked during their shifts and instead paid Plaintiff and 25 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees by scheduled 26 hours despite that they routinely worked beyond their scheduled hours.

27 (b) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 28 non-exempt employees to clock out for meal breaks despite often missing or working through their meal breaks without being paid for that time.

 19. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Employer’s conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.

1 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
2 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

3 20. Furthermore, overtime is based upon an employee's regular rate of pay. "The regular 4 rate at which an employee is employed shall be deemed to include all remuneration for employment 5 paid to, or on behalf, of the employee." See Division of Labor Standards Enforcement – 6 Enforcement Policies and Interpretations Manual, Section 49.1.2.

7 21. In this case, Plaintiff alleges that when he and other current and former aggrieved 8 California-based hourly non-exempt employees earned overtime wages, Defendants failed to pay 9 them overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay due to Defendants' failure to include all 10 remuneration when calculating the overtime rate of pay. Specifically, Defendants maintained a 11 policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as bonus pay for 12 example, when calculating Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based 13 hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying overtime.

14 22. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each 15 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 16 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 17 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 18 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, 19 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed 20 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 21 sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

22 23. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 23 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to 24 pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 25 hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and 26 shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

27 24. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 28 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 1 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 2 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 4 at §11; 3 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ 4 an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee 5 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh 6 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period 7 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal 8 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved 9 of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

10 25. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 11 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay 12 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code 13 sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 4 at §11.

14 26. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 15 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-16 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 17 limited to:

18 (a) failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 19 hourly non-exempt employees timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes 20 for every five hours worked, due to short, missed, on duty and/or late meal breaks.

21 27. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 22 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 23 hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that 24 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did 25 not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

26 28. Finally, on occasions when Defendants paid Plaintiff and other current and former 27 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a "premium" wage for late, missed, short, 28 on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted meal periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1) additional

1 hour of pay at Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-
2 exempt employees' regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, 3 practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as bonus pay for example, 4 when calculating Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-5 exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying meal period premium wages.

6 29. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 7 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 8 wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal 9 periods in compliance with California law.

10 30. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 11 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
12 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
13 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

14 31. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 15 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay
16 rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 17 non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

18 32. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest 19 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code 20 section 226.7; Wage Order 4 at §12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes' 21 rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six 22 hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on." Brinker
23 Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7; 24 Wage Order 4 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period.
25 Wage Order 4 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement "obligates employers to permit – 26 and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods." Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., 27 (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all 28 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

1 33. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must 2 pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday the 3 employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage 4 Order 4 at § 12.

5 34. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 6 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 7 non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 8 limited to:

9 (a) failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 10 hourly non-exempt employees with net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four (4) hours worked 11 or major fraction thereof due to short, missed, on duty and/or late rest breaks.

12 35. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 13 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 14 hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday 15 they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 16 226.7.

17 36. Finally, on occasions when Defendants did pay Plaintiff and other current and former 18 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a "premium" wage for late, missed, short, 19 on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted rest periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1) additional 20 hour of pay at Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-21 exempt employees' regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, 22 practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such bonus pay, for example, when 23 calculating Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 24 employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying rest period premiums.

25 37. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 26 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 27 wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods 28 in compliance with California law.

1 38. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that
2 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
3 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
4 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

5 39. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 6 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 7 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 8 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 9 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 10 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll 11 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7) 12 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 13 section 204(d).

14 40. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 15 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 16 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages 17 and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants' 18 aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and 19 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned 20 wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

21 41. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
22 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
23 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

24 42. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 25 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 26 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage 27 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by 28 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful

1 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246, 2 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor 3 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 4 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

5 43. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
6 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
7 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

8 44. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 9 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee 10 his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 11 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any 12 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 13 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare 14 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee 15 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders 16 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive 17 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her 18 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 19 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 20 worked at each hourly rate by the employee."

21 45. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff 22 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages 23 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period 24 premium wages) rendered Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based 25 hourly non-exempt employees' wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 26 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

27 46. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

28 47. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.

1 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
2 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

3 48. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 4 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee's employment ends. The 5 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) 6 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

7 49. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
8 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all 9 their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, 10 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 11 employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

12 50. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

13 51. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
14 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
15 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

16 52. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, 17 on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to 18 recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code 19 section 2699.3.

20 53. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code 21 section 2699.3. On February 26, 2025, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and 22 provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of 23 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the 24 violations alleged.

25 54. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 26 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 27 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 28 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends

1 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

2 55. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 3 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 4 510, 512, and 1194, During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, preceding 5 Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the following 6 amounts:

7 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), and 226.7; one 8 hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two 9 hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation 10 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

11 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226(a), alternatively, two hundred fifty 12 dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each 13 subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period 14 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

15 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for each 16 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one 17 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 18 established by Labor Code section 558].

19 d. For violations of Labor Code section 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for 20 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 21 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
22 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 23 section 210].

24 e. For violations of Labor Code section 223, one hundred dollars ($100) for 25 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 26 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
27 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 28 section 225.5].

1 56. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of 2 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with his claims for civil penalties.
