1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Through this Motion, Plaintiff Fernando Lopez (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf
4 of all others similarly situated, seeks preliminary approval of the Class Action and PAGA
5 Settlement Agreement.

6 Subject to Court approval, Plaintiff and Defendant US LBM Service Co. (“US LBM” or 7 “Defendant”) (collectively the “parties”) have agreed to settle the claims asserted in this Action
8 and the proposed Class Members’ claims against Defendant for a Gross Settlement Amount of 9 $715,000.

10 Plaintiff seeks to represent a settlement Class consisting of all persons who are or were 11 employed by Defendant US LBM Service Co. in California and classified as non-exempt hourly
12 employees at any time during the Class Period, defined as May 17, 2024 through February 13, 13 2026 (the “Class” or “Class Members”).

14 Likewise, the PAGA Members include all persons who are or were employed by 15 Defendant in California and classified as non-exempt hourly employees at any time during the 16 PAGA Period, defined as May 17, 2024 through February 13, 2026 (“PAGA Members”).¹

17 Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant will not oppose Class
18 Counsel’s application for an award of attorneys’ fees not to exceed $238,333.33, representing 19 one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, reimbursement of Class Counsel’s litigation
20 expenses not to exceed $30,000, Settlement Administration Expenses not to exceed $7,500, 21 PAGA penalties in the total amount of $50,000, of which $32,500 or 65 percent will be paid to 22 the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency and $17,500 or 35 percent will be 23 paid to the PAGA Members, and a Class Representative Service Payment not to exceed $10,000
24 to Plaintiff Fernando Lopez. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 3.2 et seq.):

25 ///

26 ///

27 ¹ The Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Release of Claims is attached as 28 Exhibit “A” to the Declaration of Mehrdad Bokhour (“Bokhour Declaration”) submitted herewith and is referred to herein as the Settlement Agreement or the Settlement. The proposed Class Notice is attached as Exhibit “B” to the Bokhour Declaration.

	Total Amount
Gross Settlement Amount	$715,000
Class Counsel Fees Payment	$238,333.33
Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment	$30,000.00
Administration Expenses Payment	$7,500.00
PAGA Penalties to LWDA (65% of $50,000 award)	$32,500.00
PAGA Penalties to PAGA Members	$17,500.00
Class Representative Service Payment	$10,000.00
Net Settlement Amount	$379,166.67

The Settlement Class consists of approximately 735 non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendant US LBM Service Co. in California during the Class Period. Plaintiff alleges that, regardless of job title or position, all non-exempt hourly employees were subject to the same wage and hour policies and practices.

Individual Class Payments will be distributed on a pro rata basis based on the number of Workweeks each Participating Class Member worked during the Class Period, as reflected in Defendant's payroll records. Class Members who worked more Workweeks during the Class Period will receive proportionally larger Individual Class Payments.

Based on Defendant's records as of December 15, 2025, Class Members collectively worked approximately 37,227 Workweeks during the Class Period. After deductions approved by the Court, the Net Settlement Amount will be distributed on a pro rata basis according to each Participating Class Member's number of Workweeks. Based on these figures, the average Individual Class Payment is conservatively estimated at $500 to $600. A Class Member who worked the entire Class Period would receive the highest Individual Class Payment, estimated at approximately $900 to $1000. Class Members who worked fewer Workweeks will receive proportionally smaller payments.

The Settlement is non-reversionary, and Settlement Class Members are not required to submit claim forms to receive payment. Each Settlement Class Member will be mailed a Court-approved Class Notice containing information regarding the estimated Individual Class Payment, the opportunity to challenge the number of Workweeks credited during the Class Period, and instructions for submitting a Request for Exclusion or an Objection to the Settlement.

1 All Settlement Class Members who do not timely submit a valid Request for Exclusion
2 will automatically receive their Individual Class Payment following the Court’s grant of Final 3 Approval. PAGA Members eligible for Individual PAGA Payments may not opt out of the 4 PAGA portion of the Settlement and will receive their share of the PAGA Penalties regardless 5 of whether they participate in the class settlement.

6 Because the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and is the result of arm’s length
7 negotiations between experienced counsel with the assistance of an experienced mediator,
8 following a thorough exchange of relevant information and documents, it warrants preliminary
9 approval. Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court enter an order: (1) preliminarily 10 approving the Settlement; (2) conditionally certifying the Settlement Class pursuant to 11 California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 for settlement purposes only; (3) approving the 12 form and manner of dissemination of the proposed Class Notice; (4) appointing Plaintiff
13 Fernando Lopez as Class Representative and appointing Mehrdad Bokhour of Bokhour Law
14 Group, P.C. and Joshua S. Falakassa of Falakassa Law, P.C. as Class Counsel for settlement
15 purposes only; (5) appointing CPT Group as the Settlement Administrator; and (6) scheduling a 16 Final Approval Hearing. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 12.)

17 II. BACKGROUND

18 A. THE PARTIES AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

19 Defendant US LBM Service Co. is a building materials distributor serving both 20 residential and commercial construction markets. Defendant operates several locations in 21 Northern California, offering specialty building materials like windows, doors, roofing, and 22 trusses to builders. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 13.)

23 Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as a warehouse worker from June 6, 2024, to 24 February 21, 2025. Plaintiff, along with other non-exempt hourly employees, including, but not
25 limited to, Truck Drivers, Warehouse Workers, Forklift Operators, Delivery Helpers, Sales
26 Representatives, Account Coordinators, Assemblers, Sawyers, Machine Operators, Production
27 Associates, and other non-exempt positions, was responsible for supporting various aspects of 28 Defendant’s business operations in California. Plaintiff alleges that, in performing these duties,

Defendant failed to consistently provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt hourly employees with all wages, meal and rest periods, and other protections required by the California Labor Code and applicable wage orders. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 14.)

The proposed Settlement Class consists of all individuals who are or were employed by Defendant in California as non-exempt hourly employees at any time during the Class Period, defined as May 17, 2024, through February 13, 2026. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 1.8, 1.11.)

B. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On February 24, 2025, Plaintiff provided notice to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a). (Settlement Agreement, Recitals.) (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 15.)

On February 24, 2025, Plaintiff filed a Class Action in Sutter County Superior Court, asserting class claims based on Defendant's alleged: (1) failure to pay overtime wages; (2) failure to provide meal periods; (3) failure to provide rest breaks; (4) failure to pay sick time; (5) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (6) failure to pay all wages due upon separation of employment; (7) failure to reimburse necessary business expenses; and (8) violation of California's Unfair Competition Law. On April 30, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint adding a PAGA cause of action. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 17; Settlement Agreement, Recitals.)

Throughout the investigation and litigation of this Action, Defendant denied Plaintiff's allegations and maintained that it complied with all applicable laws. Prior to engaging in protracted and expensive litigation, however, the Parties agreed to explore early resolution through private mediation.

In preparation for mediation and settlement discussions, the Parties conducted a thorough investigation into the facts and legal issues presented by the Action. This investigation included interviews with putative class members, an analysis of Defendant's operations and compensation practices, and the informal exchange of discovery materials, including Defendant's written policies and procedures, as well as a representative sampling of payroll and timekeeping records for Settlement Class Members and PAGA Members. Class Counsel has

1 extensive experience litigating wage and hour class actions and PAGA representative actions,
2 and conducted substantial legal and factual analysis of the claims and potential defenses at issue.
3 Class Counsel diligently investigated the claims asserted on behalf of the Settlement Class
4 Members and PAGA Members.

5 Based on this investigation and their independent evaluation of the strengths and risks of 6 the claims, Class Counsel believes that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and 7 adequate, and is in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members and PAGA Members,
8 particularly in light of the risks associated with continued litigation, Defendant's asserted
9 defenses, and potential appellate issues.

10 On December 9, 2025, the Parties participated in a full-day private mediation before
11 experienced mediator Steve Serratore, Esq., which resulted in the proposed Settlement.
12 (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 18; Settlement Agreement, Ex. A.)

13 The Parties now respectfully request that the Court grant preliminary approval of the 14 Settlement Agreement.

15 C. SUMMARY OF PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS

16 Plaintiff alleges various wage and hour violations on behalf of non-exempt hourly
17 employees who worked for Defendant in California during the Class Period. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 18 19.)

19 First, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to accurately record and pay for all time
20 worked, including all time spent working off-the-clock or under employer control. As a result, 21 Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not compensated for all the hours that they 22 actually were suffered or permitted to work. Plaintiff also alleges that Plaintiff and other non-23 exempt employees were not compensated for all of the overtime hours they worked at the 24 correct "regular rate of pay." (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 20.)

25 Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant maintained unlawful meal and rest period
26 policies and practices that failed to provide Settlement Class Members with timely, duty-free,
27 and compliant meal periods or premium wages in lieu thereof, and failed to provide duty-free
28 rest periods of at least ten minutes for every four hours worked or a major fraction thereof.

1 Plaintiff alleges that these policies required employees to remain on duty and/or on the premises
2 during rest periods. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay meal and/or rest period
3 premiums at the “regular rate of pay.” (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 22.)

4 Plaintiff also alleges that Defendant failed to reimburse Settlement Class Members for 5 necessary business expenses, including the required use of personal cell phones for work-related
6 purposes. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 23.)

7 Plaintiff additionally alleges that Defendant failed to timely pay all wages due upon 8 separation of employment and failed to furnish accurate itemized wage statements in violation
9 of Labor Code section 226.

10 Finally, Plaintiff asserts representative claims under the Private Attorneys General Act, 11 seeking civil penalties for the alleged Labor Code violations described above. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 12 24.)

13 D. SUMMARY OF DEFENDANT’S DEFENSES

14 Defendant contested and denied all material allegations raised by Plaintiff, both on the 15 merits and with respect to the propriety of class certification and PAGA representative 16 treatment.

17 For starters, Defendant asserted that its timekeeping practices were lawful and neutrally
18 applied; that Plaintiff and non-exempt employees were not required to work off the clock; that 19 even if Plaintiff and non-exempt employees worked off the clock, they were compensated for 20 any and all time spent working off the clock; that it properly calculated and paid all hours
21 worked using the correct regular rate of pay inclusive of all required remunerations; that it
22 properly calculated and paid all overtime hours using the correct overtime rate of pay; and that 23 its meal and rest period policies complied with California law and were implemented in 24 practice. Defendant denied requiring employees to remain on duty or on the premises during 25 meal and/or rest periods. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 22.)

26 Defendant further contended that Plaintiff’s derivative claims for wage statement
27 violations, waiting time penalties, and PAGA penalties failed in the absence of any underlying 28 Labor Code violations, and denied any obligation to pay such penalties.

1 As it pertains to Plaintiff's reimbursement claim, Defendant also asserted that the use of 2 personal cell phones was not required for business purposes and that a reimbursement policy
3 was available for qualifying expenses. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 23.)

4 Finally, Defendant argued that the Action was unsuitable for class or representative
5 treatment because liability would require individualized inquiries into employees' job duties,
6 break practices, and managerial oversight. Defendant contended that these differences defeated
7 the typicality and predominance requirements.

8 III. SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

9 The following is a summary of the principal terms of the Settlement Agreement.

10 A. SETTLEMENT CONSIDERATION AND ALLOCATION

11 The Settlement provides for a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of $715,000,
12 which will be distributed to Settlement Class Members without the need to submit a claim form
13 or take any affirmative action. Subject to Court approval, the Gross Settlement Amount will be 14 used to fund the following:

- 15 • Class Counsel attorneys' fees in an amount not to exceed $238,333.33,
16 representing one third of the Gross Settlement Amount, and litigation expenses
17 not to exceed $30,000;
- 18 • A Class Representative Service Payment to Plaintiff Fernando Lopez in an 19 amount not to exceed $10,000;
- 20 • Settlement Administration Expenses not to exceed $7,500;
- 21 • PAGA Penalties totaling $50,000, of which $32,500 or 65 percent will be paid to 22 the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency pursuant to Labor
23 Code section 2699(i), and $17,500 or 35 percent will be distributed to PAGA
24 Members as Individual PAGA Payments; and
- 25 • The Net Settlement Amount, which will be distributed to Participating Class
26 Members as Individual Class Payments on a pro rata basis based on the number 27 of Workweeks worked during the Class Period.

28 Defendant will separately pay the employer share of payroll taxes owed on the portion of Individual Class Payments allocated as wages. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 3.1–3.3, 4.3, 8.)

After all court-approved deductions from the Gross Settlement Amount, it is estimated that approximately $379,166.67 will remain as the Net Settlement Amount available for distribution to Participating Class Members. Based on Defendant’s records as of December 15, 2025, Settlement Class Members collectively worked approximately 37,227 Workweeks during the Class Period. Accordingly, the Net Settlement Amount will be distributed on a pro rata basis based on each Participating Class Member’s number of Workweeks.

Based on these figures, the average Individual Class Payment is conservatively estimated to be approximately $500 to $600, with the highest estimated Individual Class Payment for a Class Member who worked the entire Class Period estimated to be approximately $900 to $1000, subject to Court approval and adjustment based on opt-outs and final Workweek calculations. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 10.)

B. NOTICE PROCEDURES

Upon Court approval, the proposed Class Notice will be distributed to Settlement Class Members and will include, among other information, the number of Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods credited to each individual, as well as the estimated Individual Class and Individual PAGA Payments. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 7.4.2; Bokhour Decl., Ex. B.)

No later than 21 days after the Court grants Preliminary Approval, Defendant will provide the Settlement Administrator with the Class Data, including each Settlement Class Member’s name, last known mailing address, Social Security number, and the number of Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods worked during the Class Period and PAGA Period. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 1.7, 4.2.)

Within 15-days after receiving the Class Data, the Settlement Administrator will update addresses using the National Change of Address database and mail the Court-approved Class Notice to Settlement Class Members via first-class U.S. Mail. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 7.4.2, 7.4.4.)

If a Class Notice is returned as undeliverable with a forwarding address, the Settlement Administrator will re-mail the Notice within five business days. If no forwarding address is provided, the Settlement Administrator will conduct a Class Member Address Search and re-mail the Notice to the most current address identified. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 1.9, 7.4.3.)

For any Class Notice that is re-mailed, the deadline to submit a Request for Exclusion, Objection, or Challenge to credited Workweeks or PAGA Pay Periods will be extended by fourteen calendar days beyond the standard Response Deadline, and the re-mailed Notice will inform Class Members of the extended deadline. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 1.43, 7.4.4.)

The most recently confirmed address maintained by the Settlement Administrator will be presumed to be the best available address for purposes of mailing settlement checks and any further notices. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 4.4.1.)

C. EXCLUSION AND OBJECTION PROCEDURES

Settlement Class Members who do not timely submit a valid Request for Exclusion will be deemed Participating Class Members and will be bound by the terms of the Settlement without the need to submit a claim form or take any other affirmative action. The Court-approved Class Notice will inform Settlement Class Members of their right to exclude themselves from the Settlement by submitting a written Request for Exclusion to the Settlement Administrator, postmarked no later than 45 calendar days after the initial mailing of the Class Notice, defined as the Response Deadline. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 1.43, 7.5.1, 7.5.2.)

The Class Notice will also inform Settlement Class Members of their right to object to the Settlement. Any Participating Class Member who wishes to object must submit a written objection to the Settlement Administrator, postmarked no later than the Response Deadline. The objection must include the objector's full name, current address, telephone number, approximate dates of employment with Defendant, and the case name and number. The objection may include a statement of the basis for the objection and any supporting legal authority or evidence, and if represented by counsel, the name and contact information of the objector's attorney. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 7.5.4.)

D. SETTLEMENT ALLOCATION FORMULA FOR SETTLEMENT SHARES

Individual Class Payments will be calculated by the Settlement Administrator based on the Class Data provided by Defendant. After accounting for any approved challenges to credited

1 Workweeks and excluding individuals who timely submit valid Requests for Exclusion, the 2 Settlement Administrator will determine the total number of Workweeks worked by all
3 Participating Class Members during the Class Period. Each Participating Class Member's share
4 of the Net Settlement Amount will then be calculated on a pro rata basis according to the 5 number of Workweeks worked during the Class Period, as a proportion of the total Workweeks
6 worked by all Participating Class Members.

7 The Class Notice will inform each Settlement Class Member of the estimated number of 8 Workweeks credited during the Class Period. Any Settlement Class Member who believes the 9 credited number of Workweeks is inaccurate may submit documentation to the Settlement
10 Administrator by the Response Deadline to challenge the calculation. The Settlement
11 Administrator will review any such challenge, consult with Class Counsel and Defense Counsel
12 as appropriate, and issue a final and binding determination. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 7.6.2.)

13 E. TIMING OF SETTLEMENT DISBURSEMENTS

14 Defendant shall fund the Settlement by making a one-time deposit of the Gross
15 Settlement Amount into a Qualified Settlement Fund maintained by the Settlement
16 Administrator. The Settlement Administrator will provide Defendant with wire transfer 17 instructions no more than three days after the Effective Date, and Defendant shall fully fund the 18 Gross Settlement Amount within 30 days after the Effective Date, unless that day falls on a 19 weekend or holiday, in which case funding shall occur on the next court day. Defendant shall 20 separately fund and pay the employer share of payroll taxes owed on the portion of Individual 21 Class Payments allocated as wages, as calculated and directed by the Settlement Administrator.
22 (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 4.3, 8.1.)

23 The Settlement Administrator shall deposit the Gross Settlement Amount into an 24 interest-bearing Qualified Settlement Fund that satisfies the requirements of U.S. Treasury
25 Regulation section 468B 1. All payments under the Settlement shall be made from the Qualified 26 Settlement Fund in accordance with the Settlement Agreement. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 6.2, 27 8.2.)

28 Within 14 calendar days after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount, the Settlement Administrator shall issue and mail the following payments:(a) Individual Settlement Payments to Participating Class Members and PAGA Members;

- Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members
- Individual PAGA Payments to PAGA Members
- The Court approved Class Representative Service Payment to Plaintiff
- The Court approved attorneys' fees and litigation expenses to Class Counsel
- the LWDA PAGA Payment to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency
- The Court approved Settlement Administration Expenses to the Settlement Administrator

Disbursement of attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, and the Class Representative Service Payment shall not precede the mailing of Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 4.4, 8.3.)

Each settlement check issued to Participating Class Members and PAGA Members shall remain negotiable for one hundred eighty calendar days from the date of mailing. If a settlement check is returned as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator shall perform a Class Member Address Search and re-mail the check to any forwarding or newly identified address. The Settlement Administrator shall re-issue replacement checks for any lost or misplaced checks requested prior to the void date. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 4.4.1, 4.4.2.)

If any Individual Class Payment or Individual PAGA Payment check remains uncashed after the void date, the Settlement Administrator shall cancel the check and transmit the funds represented by the check to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member or PAGA Member, leaving no unpaid residue subject to California Code of Civil Procedure section 384. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 4.4.3.)

The release of claims under the Settlement shall be binding on all Participating Class Members and PAGA Members regardless of whether they cash their settlement checks. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 5.2, 5.3.)

1 F. TAX TREATMENT

2 The Individual Class Payments paid to Participating Class Members for Class Claims
3 will be allocated for tax purposes based on the nature of the allegations in the Action as follows:
4 thirty percent (30%) of each Individual Class Payment will be allocated as wages and will be 5 subject to applicable local, state, and federal tax withholdings, and seventy percent (70%) will 6 be allocated as interest and penalties, which are not subject to wage withholding. The 7 Settlement Administrator shall be responsible for calculating and withholding applicable taxes
8 on the wage portion and shall issue IRS Form W 2s for the wage portion and IRS Form 1099s
9 for the non wage portion, along with any required state tax forms. Participating Class Members
10 shall be solely responsible for the payment of any taxes owed on their Individual Class
11 Payments. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 3.6.))

12 G. PARTICIPATING CLASS MEMBERS' RELEASE OF CLAIMS

13 In consideration for their awarded Individual Class Payments, and effective as of the 14 date the Settlement becomes Final and has been fully funded, all Participating Class Members,
15 on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents,
16 attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, beneficiaries and assigns, release Released Parties
17 from the Released Class Claims and claims that arose during the Class Period. (Settlement 18 Agreement ¶ 5.2.)

19 In consideration for their awarded Individual PAGA Payments, and effective as of the 20 date the Settlement becomes Final, all PAGA Members and the LWDA are deemed to release,
21 on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents,
22 attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, beneficiaries and assigns, the Released Parties from 23 the Released PAGA Claims that arose during the PAGA Period. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 5.3.)

24 In addition to the class and PAGA releases described above, Plaintiff Fernando Lopez,
25 as Class Representative, has agreed to a broader General Release of all known and unknown
26 claims against the Released Parties, including a waiver of rights under California Civil Code
27 section 1542, as set forth in the Settlement Agreement. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 5.1.)
28

1 IV. PROVISIONAL CERTIFICATION OF THE CLASS UNDER THE LESSER
2 STANDARD OF SCRUTINY FOR SETTLEMENT-ONLY CERTIFICATION IS 3 APPROPRIATE FOR PURPOSES OF SETTLEMENT

4 California Rule of Court 3.769(d) authorizes the Court to provisionally certify a
5 settlement class at the preliminary approval stage. It is well established that courts apply a lesser 6 standard of scrutiny when evaluating class certification for settlement purposes only, because 7 the manageability concerns present in a litigation class are not implicated and the Court's 8 review of the settlement itself serves to protect absent class members. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co.
9 (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1807 at n.19.

10 Because no trial is contemplated, the Court need not consider whether the Action would 11 present intractable management problems if litigated. Instead, the focus is whether provisional 12 certification is appropriate to effectuate the Settlement and ensure adequate notice to the Class.
13 (Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com. (9th Cir. 1982) 688 F.2d 615, 633.)

14 For purposes of this Settlement only, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court
15 provisionally certify the Settlement Class under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

16 A. NUMEROSITY AND ASCERTAINABILITY

17 Numerosity is satisfied where the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is 18 impracticable. (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) Ascertainability is satisfied where class members can 19 be identified by objective criteria and provided notice without unreasonable time or expense.
20 (Medraza v. Honda of N. Hollywood (2008) 166 Cal.App.4th 89, 101.)

21 Here, Defendant's records as of December 15 2025 reflect that the Settlement Class
22 consists of approximately 735 non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendant in 23 California during the Class Period. Joinder of this many individuals would be impracticable,
24 and the class is readily ascertainable through Defendant's payroll and employment records, 25 which identify Class Members by objective criteria. Accordingly, numerosity and 26 ascertainability are satisfied.

27 B. WELL-DEFINED COMMUNITY OF INTEREST

28 1. Commonality

Commonality is satisfied where questions of law or fact common to the class predominate over questions affecting individual members. Washington Mut. Bank v. Superior Court (2001) 24 Cal.4th 906, 913.

Plaintiff alleges that Settlement Class Members were subject to common wage and hour policies and practices, including policies governing timekeeping, calculation of the regular rate of pay, meal and rest periods, wage statements, and reimbursement of business expenses. While the Parties dispute whether common issues would predominate if the Action were litigated, they agree that commonality is satisfied for purposes of settlement only.

2. Typicality

Typicality examines whether the claims of the proposed class representative are reasonably coextensive with those of the class. (Newberg on Class Actions § 3:13.)

Defendant disputes that Plaintiff's claims are typical for litigation purposes. For purposes of settlement only, however, the Parties agree that Plaintiff's claims arise from the same alleged wage and hour policies and practices challenged on a classwide basis, and that typicality is satisfied under the lesser standard applicable to settlement only certification.

3. Adequacy of Representation

Adequacy requires that the class representative's interests are aligned with those of the class and that class counsel are qualified and experienced. Barboza v. West Coast Digital GSM, Inc. (2009) 179 Cal.App.4th 540, 546.

Plaintiff was employed by Defendant during the Class Period, was subject to the same challenged policies as other Class Members, understands his responsibilities as Class Representative, and has no conflicts of interest with the Settlement Class. Plaintiff is represented by Class Counsel with extensive experience litigating wage and hour class actions and PAGA representative actions. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 2–5; Falakassa Decl. ¶¶ 2–11.) Adequacy is therefore satisfied.

4. Superiority

Certification of the Settlement Class is superior to individual litigation because it permits a global resolution of the claims in a single proceeding, promotes judicial economy, and provides meaningful relief to Class Members whose individual claims would be impractical to litigate on a standalone basis. Settlement only certification is therefore appropriate.

V. THE COURT SHOULD PRELIMINARILY APPROVE THE SETTLEMENT, WHICH IS FAIR, ADEQUATE, AND REASONABLE

A. CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS ARE SUBJECT TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND APPROVAL UNDER THE CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT

California law favors the settlement of disputes, particularly in the class action context, where settlement conserves judicial resources and avoids the expense, delay, and uncertainty of continued litigation. (Bush v. Superior Court (1992) 10 Cal.App.4th 1374, 1385.) Nevertheless, a class action may not be compromised or dismissed without court approval. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769(a).)

The California Rules of Court establish a three-step process for approval of a class action settlement: (1) preliminary approval of the proposed settlement; (2) notice to the class in the manner directed by the court; and (3) a final approval hearing at which the court determines whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769(c), (e)–(g).)

The decision whether to approve a proposed settlement lies within the court’s sound discretion. (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 234.) In exercising that discretion, however, the court is not to conduct a trial on the merits or resolve disputed factual or legal issues underlying the claims. (Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com. (9th Cir. 1982) 688 F.2d 615, 625.)

At the preliminary approval stage, the court’s task is limited to determining whether the settlement appears to be within the range of possible approval and whether notice to the class is warranted. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801–1802.) Preliminary approval is appropriate where there are no obvious deficiencies and no grounds to doubt the settlement’s fairness. (Manual for Complex Litigation (Third) § 30.41.)

B. THE SETTLEMENT IS THE RESULT OF SERIOUS, INFORMED, NON-COLLUSIVE NEGOTIATIONS

1 The Settlement was reached through extensive arm's-length negotiations between 2 experienced counsel and was facilitated by an experienced mediator with substantial expertise
3 in wage-and-hour class and PAGA actions. The negotiations were adversarial and non-
4 collusive, and followed a thorough investigation of the factual and legal issues in the Action.
5 Although Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe the claims have merit, they also recognized the 6 substantial risks associated with continued litigation, including the risk of an adverse ruling on 7 class certification, summary judgment, trial, or appeal. Defendant vigorously denied liability
8 and asserted multiple defenses that, if successful, could have significantly limited or eliminated
9 any recovery for the Class. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 42.) These risks were appropriately considered in 10 reaching the Settlement.

11 C. THE EXTENT OF THE INVESTIGATION WAS MORE THAN SUFFICIENT TO PERMIT
12 PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF THE SETTLEMENT

13 Prior to reaching the Settlement, Plaintiff and Class Counsel conducted a thorough 14 investigation into the factual and legal bases of the claims. As described above, this 15 investigation included interviews with putative class members, review of Defendant's policies
16 and practices, and the informal exchange of relevant payroll, timekeeping, and compensation
17 data. Class Counsel also conducted extensive legal research and developed damages models to 18 assess potential exposure and litigation risk. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 17, 44.)

19 This level of investigation was more than sufficient to permit Class Counsel and the 20 Court to evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and to support preliminary 21 approval of the Settlement.

22 D. THE SETTLEMENT IS A REASONABLE COMPROMISE OF CLAIMS

23 In evaluating a proposed class settlement, the court must have sufficient information to 24 understand the nature and magnitude of the claims and to determine whether the settlement
25 represents a reasonable compromise in light of the risks of continued litigation. Kullar v. Foot
26 Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133. Kullar does not require an explicit 27 statement of the maximum theoretical recovery in every case. Rather, the record must permit an 28 understanding of the amount in controversy and the realistic range of possible outcomes. Munoz

1 v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 409.

2 Here, Defendant disputed both liability and class certification, arguing that it complied
3 with California law, maintained compliant written policies, and that any alleged violations were 4 individualized and not amenable to class treatment. Defendant also asserted defenses that could 5 have significantly reduced or eliminated recovery. While Plaintiff believes the claims are 6 suitable for class treatment, he recognizes that class certification and liability determinations are 7 inherently uncertain.

8 Considering the risks, expense, and delay associated with continued litigation, the 9 Settlement represents a reasonable and fair compromise that provides meaningful relief to Class
10 Members now, rather than the possibility of a greater recovery years later or no recovery at all.
11 (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 39–40.)

12 Based upon Class Counsel’s independent investigation and detailed data obtained
13 through informal discovery and information exchanges, and factoring in claim certification
14 probabilities and liability probabilities, Class Counsel formulated detailed damages models to 15 evaluate the claims in preparation for mediation and in order to reach a realistic and reasonable
16 resolution, as further detailed below. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 17.)

17 1. Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked

18 Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to accurately record and pay for all time worked,
19 including the time non-exempt employees were under the employer’s control. This included a 20 policy and practice of failing to properly record non-exempt employees’ time worked, including 21 all time spent working off-the-clock or under employer control. As a result of this company-
22 wide policy/practice, Plaintiff alleged that he and other non-exempt employees were not 23 compensated for all the hours that they worked and all of the overtime hours they worked.

24 Defendant disputed these allegations and asserted that Plaintiff and non-exempt
25 employees were not required to work off the clock, and even if Plaintiff and non-exempt
26 employees worked off the clock, they were compensated for any such time.

27 In light of these risks and uncertainties, Plaintiff discounted the estimated value of this 28 claim in evaluating the Settlement keeping in mind that the true value is derived from the derivative waiting time penalties and wage statement penalties.

2. Failure to Pay for Overtime Wages at the Correct Overtime Rate of Pay

Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to properly compensate Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees at the correct overtime rate for hours worked in excess of eight hours per shift as a result of Defendant's failure to properly calculate the "regular rate of pay."

Defendant disputed these allegations and asserted that it made adjustments and offset payments where appropriate, that overtime pay was lawfully calculated and paid in good faith, and that any potential underpayments, to the extent they occurred at all, were limited, de minimis, and not widespread across the Class. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 26.)

While Plaintiff maintains that certain bonuses and incentive payments were non-discretionary and should have been included in the "regular rate of pay," Plaintiff also acknowledges the significant litigation risks associated with this claim. Those risks include the possibility that the Court could deny class certification due to individualized variations in compensation structures and incentive programs, as well as risks on the merits, including summary judgment or an unfavorable trial result. Plaintiff further acknowledges that the estimated lost wages attributable to this theory were relatively low.

In light of these risks and uncertainties, Plaintiff discounted the estimated value of this claim in evaluating the Settlement keeping in mind that the true value results from the derivative waiting time penalties and wage statement penalties.

3. Waiting Time Penalties

Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to timely pay all wages due upon separation of employment, entitling former employees to waiting time penalties under Labor Code sections 201 through 203. Based on Defendant's records as of December 15, 2025, approximately 325 Settlement Class Members separated from employment during the applicable statutory period. Assuming the statutory maximum penalty of thirty days, an 8-hour workday, and an average hourly rate of $24, Plaintiff estimated a maximum theoretical exposure of approximately $1,872,000 for waiting time penalties. (325 employees × 8 hours per day × $24 per hour × 30

1 days.) (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 28.)

2 Defendant disputed this claim and asserted that any alleged failure to timely pay wages
3 at separation was not willful and therefore did not give rise to waiting time penalties. Defendant
4 further contended that it maintained compliant payroll practices and that any waiting time
5 penalties claim was derivative of underlying wage claims Defendant contended lacked merit or 6 were unsuitable for class treatment. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 29.)

7 To account for these risks, including the risk of denial of class certification and the risk
8 of an adverse ruling at summary judgment or trial, Plaintiff applied a combined 75% percent
9 discount to the maximum theoretical exposure. Applying this discount, Plaintiff estimates a 10 risk-adjusted value of approximately $468,000 for the waiting time penalties claim. (Bokhour
11 Decl. ¶ 30.)

12 4. Failure to Provide Meal and Rest Periods or Compensation in Lieu 13 Thereof at the “Regular Rate of Pay”

14 With respect to Plaintiff’s meal and rest period claims, Settlement Class Members
15 collectively worked approximately 169,547 shifts during the Class Period. Based on an analysis
16 of a representative sample of Defendant’s timekeeping and payroll records produced prior to 17 mediation, Plaintiff applied an estimated 15 percent violation rate for meal periods and a 33
18 percent violation rate for rest periods.

19 Using an applicable premium rate of $24 per missed break, Plaintiff estimated a 20 maximum theoretical exposure of approximately $610,369.20 for the meal period claim
21 (169,547 shifts × 15 percent × $24) and approximately $1,342,812.24 for the rest period claim
22 (169,547 shifts × 33 percent × $24). (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 31.)

23 Defendant disputed liability for both claims and asserted that meal and rest period
24 compliance presented highly individualized issues that were inappropriate for class treatment.
25 Defendant maintained that its written policies were facially compliant with California law, that 26 employees were afforded flexibility to take breaks, and that compliance varied based on job
27 duties, location, management practices, and individual employee choice. Defendant further 28 argued that these individualized issues created a substantial risk that the Court would deny class

1 certification. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 32.)

2 Defendant also contended that, even if certification were granted, it would prevail on the 3 merits by demonstrating that compliant meal and rest periods were provided or that premium
4 compensation was paid when required. Defendant asserted that Plaintiff would be unable to 5 present reliable representative evidence sufficient to establish liability or damages on a 6 classwide basis.

7 In light of these certification and merits risks, Plaintiff applied a 75% discount to the 8 maximum theoretical exposure for these claims. Applying this discount, Plaintiff estimates a 9 risk-adjusted value of approximately $152,592.30 for the meal period claims and approximately 10 $335,703.06 for the rest period claims. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 33.)

11 5. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

12 Plaintiff further alleged that Defendant issued non-compliant itemized wage statements
13 in violation of Labor Code section 226, based on the same alleged conduct underlying 14 Plaintiff's claims for unpaid wages, meal and rest period premiums, and failure to include all 15 required forms of compensation in the regular rate of pay. Based on Defendant's records, 16 Plaintiff estimates that approximately 37,529 allegedly non-compliant wage statements were 17 issued during the Class Period.

18 In calculating Defendant's maximum potential exposure, Plaintiff conservatively
19 assumed that only the initial statutory penalty of fifty dollars per violation would apply,
20 consistent with Labor Code section 226(e) and authority holding that higher penalties apply
21 only after notice of a violation. (Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2 (2008) 163 Cal.App.4th 1157,
22 1207.) Using this conservative assumption, Plaintiff estimated a maximum theoretical exposure
23 of approximately $1,876,450 (37,529 wage statements multiplied by $50). (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 24 35.)

25 Defendant disputed this claim and asserted that its wage statements fully complied with 26 Labor Code section 226. Defendant further argued that, even if any technical deficiencies 27 existed, they were not knowing and intentional and did not result in the injury required to 28 recover penalties. Defendant also relied on its defenses to the underlying wage and hour claims and to class certification. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 36.)

In light of these risks, including the risk of denial of class certification and the risk of an adverse ruling on the merits, Plaintiff applied a 80% discount to the maximum theoretical exposure. Applying this discount, Plaintiff estimates a risk-adjusted value of approximately $375,290 for the wage statement penalty claim. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 37.)

6. PAGA Penalties

Plaintiff also sought civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 for alleged Labor Code violations for which PAGA penalties are available, and asserted that such penalties could be assessed on a cumulative basis. Assuming application of the default penalty of $100 per pay period under Labor Code section 2699(f)(2), and assuming no reduction or exercise of judicial discretion, Plaintiff estimated a maximum theoretical exposure of approximately $3,752,900, based on approximately 37,529 pay periods. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 38.)

This theoretical maximum, however, does not account for significant legal and practical uncertainties. Courts are divided as to whether PAGA penalties may be stacked across multiple violations within a single pay period, particularly where the violations are derivative of one another. In addition, Labor Code section 2699(e)(2) grants courts broad discretion to reduce civil penalties where necessary to avoid awards that are unjust, arbitrary, oppressive, or confiscatory. Courts routinely exercise this discretion, particularly where an employer did not act willfully or where the legal obligations were unsettled. See Cotter v. Lyft, Inc. (2016) 193 F. Supp. 3d 1030, 1037. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 39.)

In light of these risks, the Parties agreed to allocate $50,000 of the Gross Settlement Amount to the resolution of the PAGA claim, which Plaintiff submits is fair, reasonable, and adequate under the circumstances. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 40.)

In sum, when factoring in defenses and risks of ongoing litigation, Plaintiff estimates the risk-adjusted class recovery as follows:

- | | |
|--|------------------|
| • Unpaid Wages/ Regular Rate of Pay Claim: | $0 (discounted) |
| • Labor Code §§ 201 – 203 Claims: | $468,000 |
| • Meal Period Claims: | $152,592.30 |

- Rest Break Claims: $335,703.06
- Wage Statement Claims: $375,290
- PAGA Penalties $50,000
- Total Risk-Adjusted Penalties and Damages: $1,381,585.36

Given the realistic value of Plaintiff's claims, the $715,000 Settlement Amount is an excellent result for the Class, considering that the Settlement Amount totals approximately 51.7% of Plaintiff's risk-adjusted value of the case. Preliminary approval is appropriate since the Settlement will provide significant monetary relief to the Class. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 41.) For these reasons, Plaintiff submits that the agreed-upon Settlement is fair and reasonable.

E. CLASS COUNSEL IS EXPERIENCED IN SIMILAR WAGE-AND-HOUR LITIGATION

The views of experienced counsel are entitled to significant weight in determining whether a proposed class settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Ellis v. Naval Air Rework Facility (N.D. Cal. 1980) 87 F.R.D. 15, 18, aff'd (9th Cir. 1981) 661 F.2d 939; Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (court must take into account "the experience and view of counsel") (internal quotation and citation omitted).

Class Counsel are highly experienced in wage and hour class actions and PAGA representative actions. Collectively, Class Counsel have litigated over one hundred wage and hour class and PAGA cases, have been repeatedly recognized as Super Lawyers in employment litigation, an honor awarded to only a small percentage of attorneys statewide, and have achieved substantial class action settlements on behalf of California employees. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 2–5; Falakassa Decl. ¶¶ 2–10.)

After conducting an independent investigation and engaging in arm's length negotiations, Class Counsel carefully evaluated the strengths and weaknesses of the claims, the defenses asserted by Defendant, the risks associated with class certification and liability, and the realistic risk adjusted value of the case. Based on that analysis, Class Counsel believe that the Settlement represents a fair, reasonable, and adequate resolution of the Action and is in the best interests of the Settlement Class and PAGA Members.

1 F. THE CLASS NOTICE CONFORMS TO ALL APPLICABLE STATUTES AND RULES

2 The proposed Class Notice fully and fairly informs Settlement Class Members of the 3 nature of the Action, the material terms of the Settlement, and their rights and options under the 4 Settlement Agreement and applicable law. The notice program is reasonably calculated to reach 5 all or nearly all Settlement Class Members and therefore satisfies due process.

6 The content and dissemination of the Class Notice comply with California Rules of 7 Court 3.766 and 3.769. The Class Notice describes the material settlement terms, the proposed 8 attorneys' fees and costs and Settlement Administration Expenses, the Final Approval Hearing, 9 and the procedures and deadlines for requesting exclusion or submitting an objection, and 10 informs Class Members of their estimated Individual Class Payments. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 51, Ex.
11 B.)

12 The Class Notice will be mailed by the Settlement Administrator via first-class U.S.
13 Mail to the last known addresses of Settlement Class Members, using Defendant's records, with 14 address updating and re-mailing procedures for undeliverable notices. This method constitutes 15 meaningful notice with a reasonable likelihood of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class.
16 (Archibald v. Cinerama Hotels (1976) 15 Cal.3d 853, 861.)

17 The 45-day response period provides Class Members with a reasonable opportunity to 18 evaluate the Settlement, seek advice if desired, and elect whether to participate, object, or 19 request exclusion. Settlement Class Members who do not request exclusion will be bound by the 20 Settlement and will automatically receive settlement payments upon Final Approval

21 G. THE NON-REVERSIONARY "CHECKS CASHED" DISTRIBUTION ENSURES
22 MAXIMAL RECOVERY FOR CLASS MEMBERS

23 Under the Settlement, all Settlement Class Members who do not request exclusion will 24 automatically receive an Individual Settlement Payment without submitting a claim form. This 25 structure maximizes participation and ensures that Class Members receive payment unless they 26 affirmatively opt out.

27 The Settlement is non-reversionary, meaning that no portion of the Settlement Amount 28 will revert to Defendant. Any settlement checks that are not negotiated within the applicable check-cashing period will be sent to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund, subject to Court approval. These terms are favored by courts because they promote class recovery and confirm that the Settlement was reached through arm's length negotiations and without collusion.

H. THE ATTORNEYS' FEES ALLOCATION UNDER THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT IS FAIR

Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Class Counsel requests an amount not exceeding one-third of the Settlement Amount in attorneys' fees. (See, e.g., Laffite v. Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th. 480 (approving 1/3 fee in the amount of $6.33 million at a 2.13 lodestar multiplier, when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the Class Members, the trial court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund created); see also Stuart v. RadioShack Corp. (N.D. Cal. Aug. 9, 2010) No. C-07-4499 EMC, 2010 WL 3155645 (approving fee award of 1/3 of the total maximum settlement amount of $4.5 million) (the court noted that the fee award of 1/3 of the total settlement was "well within the range of percentages which courts have upheld as reasonable in other class action lawsuits"); Singer v. Becton Dickinson and Co. (S.D. Cal. June 1, 2010) No. 08-cv-1501-IEG (BLM), 2010 WL 2196104, at *8 (approving fee award of 33.33% of the common fund); Romero v. Producers Dairy Foods, Inc. (E.D. Cal. Nov. 14, 2007) No. 1:05cv0484 DLB, 2007 WL 3492841, at *4 (awarding fees of 1/3 of common fund in a wage and hour class action, noting: "[f]ee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery."); Martin v. FedEx Ground Package System, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Dec. 31, 2008) No. C 06-6883 VRW, 2008 WL 5478576, at *8 (approving fees of 1/3 of common fund).

Once the Court grants preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement and the Class Notice is disseminated, Class Counsel will submit a request for attorneys' fees and costs with its final approval motion.

I. THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE SERVICE PAYMENTS IS FAIR AND APPROPRIATE

The Settlement Agreement provides for a Service Award to Plaintiff Fernando Lopez in an amount not to exceed $10,000. The requested Service Award is reasonable in light of

1 Plaintiff's substantial time, effort, and personal risk undertaken on behalf of the Class and 2 PAGA Members.

3 Plaintiff actively assisted Class Counsel throughout the litigation, including by 4 providing detailed factual information supporting the class and PAGA claims, producing 5 documents, participating in strategy discussions and mediation preparation, remaining available 6 throughout the litigation to analyze claims and defenses, attending and assisting during 7 mediation, and reviewing the Settlement documents. Plaintiff also assumed the risk associated 8 with serving as Class Representative, including potential exposure to costs and workplace
9 retaliation. (See Declaration of Plaintiff in Support of Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary 10 Approval of Class Action Settlement.)

11 The requested Service Award is both reasonable and justified here because Plaintiff
12 agreed to provide a broader general release of claims, in addition to the class and PAGA
13 releases applicable to Settlement Class Members. Courts routinely approve enhanced service
14 awards where a class representative provides a broader release or assumes additional risk
15 beyond that borne by absent class members.

16 Finally, the requested Service Award is within the range approved by courts in 17 comparable cases. See, e.g., Bond v. Ferguson Enterprises, Inc. (E.D. Cal. 2011) No. 1:09 cv
18 1662 OWW MJS, 2011 WL 2648879 (approving $11,250 service award); Ross v. U.S. Bank
19 National Association (N.D. Cal. 2010) No. C 07 02951 SI, 2010 WL 3833922, at *2 (approving 20 $20,000 service award); Vasquez v. Coast Valley Roofing, Inc. (E.D. Cal. 2010) 266 F.R.D. 415, 21 493 (approving $15,000 service awards).

22 Accordingly, the requested Service Award is fair, reasonable, and appropriate under the 23 circumstances

24 VI. THE COURT SHOULD APPOINT CPT GROUP, INC. AS THE SETTLEMENT
25 ADMINISTRATOR

26 Subject to Court approval, the Parties have stipulated that CPT Group, Inc. be appointed 27 as the Settlement Administrator. CPT Group, Inc. is experienced in administering class action
28 settlements and is well qualified to administer the notice and distribution process in this Action.

Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, Settlement Administration Costs shall not exceed $7,500, subject to Court approval. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 52.)

VII. TIMELINE AND SCHEDULING A FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

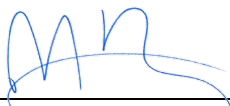

The final step in the approval process is a hearing at which the Court considers the terms of the Settlement and hears any timely objections, as well as argument from the Parties in support of final approval.

VIII. CONCLUSION

For all of the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant his Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement.
