SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF SAN BERNARDINO
SAN BERNARDINO DISTRICT

11 SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
12 FOR THE COUNTY OF SAN BERNARDINO

13 MARCIANO VIERA, on behalf of the State of 14 California and other aggrieved persons,

15 Plaintiff,

16 v.

17 NVB EQUIPMENT, a California corporation;
18 and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive,

19 Defendants.

Case No.: CIVSB2529285

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT:

1. Civil Penalties Under PAGA [Cal. Lab.
Code § 2699, et seq.]

1 Plaintiff MARCIANO VIERA (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary 2 support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further 3 investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendant NVB EQUIPMENT and DOES 1 6 through 10 (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for civil penalties under the 7 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”)
8 stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay for all hours worked (including minimum, straight time, 9 and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, 10 failure to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failure to furnish accurate 11 wage statements, and failure to indemnify for necessary expenditures.

12 2. For over 50 years, California’s courts and legislature have recognized that this 13 State’s wage-and-hour laws serve a compelling public interest of fostering a stable job market.
14 Wages are not ordinary debts. Because of the economic position of the average worker and his 15 or her family, it is essential to the public welfare that employers obey the wage-and-hour laws 16 so that employees are promptly paid the minimum/overtime wages that the Legislature has 17 required for employees. So fundamental are California’s wage-and-hour laws that the 18 Legislature has criminalized certain types of violations. In extending extra protection to deter 19 violations of these underlying statutes—since Plaintiff is not seeking general and/or special 20 damages, restitution, or other damages other than civil penalties—California has enacted the 21 PAGA to permit an individual to bring an action for PAGA penalties only, which is the precise 22 and sole nature of this action.

23 3. All California employees during the relevant statutes of limitations who are or 24 were harmed by Defendant’s illegal practices are “Aggrieved Employees.” The Aggrieved 25 Employees worked for Defendant as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the 26 applicable statutory period.

27 4. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants seeking only to recover penalties 28 on behalf of all Aggrieved Employees that worked for Defendants, and on behalf of the State

1 of California. Plaintiff does not seek to recover anything other than penalties as permitted by 2 California Labor Code Section 2699 at this time. To the extent that statutory violations are 3 mentioned for wage violations, Plaintiff does not seek underlying general and/or special 4 damages for those violations, but simply penalties as permitted by California Labor Code 5 Section 2699, declaratory relief, and injunctive relief for himself and all Aggrieved Employees 6 as permitted by the PAGA.

7 5. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 8 establishment within the State of California, including San Bernardino County. As such and based 9 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' business in California, Defendants are 10 subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission 11 ("IWC"), and the California Business & Professions Code.

12 6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 13 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 14 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 15 willful and deliberate.

16 7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the 17 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the 18 foregoing paragraphs as the employers of Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees. Further, 19 Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under 20 the doctrine of "respondeat superior".

21 THE PARTIES

22 A. Plaintiff

23 8. Plaintiff MARCIANO VIERA is a resident of San Bernardino County, California 24 who worked for Defendants in San Bernardino County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt 25 employee from approximately October 2023 to approximately October 2024.

26 B. Defendants

27 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief 28 alleges, that Defendant NVB EQUIPMENT is, and at all times herein mentioned, was:

1 (a) A California corporation qualified to do business and actually conducting 2 business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including 3 in San Bernardino County; and 4 (b) The former employer of Plaintiff and the current and/or former employer of 5 the Aggrieved Employees because Defendant NVB EQUIPMENT suffered 6 and permitted Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work, and/or 7 controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

8 10. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued 9 herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each 10 of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by 11 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to set 12 forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together 13 with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

14 11. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, 15 and each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction 16 of, and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in the 17 State of California.

18 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times each 19 Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and the other 20 employees and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and 21 believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, 22 joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor 23 in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some 24 or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all 25 of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below.
26 Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the 27 scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and 28 authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

1 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

2 13. Plaintiff worked for Defendants in San Bernardino County, California as an hourly-3 paid, non-exempt employee from approximately October 2023 to approximately October 2024.
4 During Plaintiff's employment for Defendants, Defendants paid Plaintiff an hourly wage and 5 classified him as non-exempt from overtime. Defendants typically scheduled Plaintiff to work at 6 least five days in a workweek and at least eight hours per day, but Plaintiff regularly worked more 7 than eight hours in a workday and/or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

8 14. Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Defendants committed numerous labor code 9 violations under state law. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendants was 10 typical and illustrative.

11 A. Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked, Including Minimum, Straight Time, and 12 Overtime Wages

13 15. Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee.
14 "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer 15 and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required 16 to do so.

17 16. Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more 18 than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional 19 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

20 17. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall not 21 be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation 22 beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states 23 that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the IWC is unlawful.

24 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not 25 paying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including minimum, straight 26 time, and overtime wages. Defendants required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work 27 "off-the-clock," uncompensated, by, for example, requiring Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees 28 to perform work during unpaid meal periods. Some of this unpaid work should have been paid at the overtime rate. In failing to pay for all hours worked, Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

B. Failure to Provide Meal Periods

19. Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal periods no later than the start of the sixth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-minute, duty-free meal period no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in a workday. Further, employees are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not provided with all required meal period(s).

20. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with their legally mandated meal periods. Defendants regularly, but not always, required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing an uninterrupted and duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory meal periods, or by denying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a meal period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was not to provide meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

21. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s). Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for meal periods that were not provided.

C. Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

22. Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than 1 two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the 2 employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself 3 a violation of California's rest break laws.

4 23. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize 5 and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take legally compliant rest periods.
6 Defendants regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of four 7 consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, 8 uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), 9 or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not 10 authorized or permitted. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiff and the 11 Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which 12 could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods, or by denying 13 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a rest period. Accordingly, Defendants' 14 policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take 15 rest periods in compliance with California law.

16 24. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of 17 additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all required 18 rest periods. Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees 19 the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods and that they were not authorized 20 and permitted to take.

21 D. Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

22 25. Based on Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all 23 wages as discussed above, Defendants also violated Labor Code § 204.

24 26. Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times 25 per month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, 26 employees were entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period 27 premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for overtime hours 28 worked. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay the employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendants, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by Defendants, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, Defendants owe employees the legally required wages not paid, and Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees suffered damages in those amounts.

E. Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

27. Plaintiff seeks penalties under California Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by California Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.

28. Defendants, however, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees.

29. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendants' knowing failure to comply with the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

1 F. Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

2 30. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, 3 the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if 4 an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and 5 payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-6 two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled 7 to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

8 31. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many 9 other Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e., was terminated by quitting or being discharged, and the 10 employment of others will be terminated. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants 11 failed, and continue to fail to pay Plaintiff and terminated Aggrieved Employees, without 12 abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of 13 discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employment. These 14 unpaid wages include wages for unpaid work time (including minimum, straight time, and overtime 15 wages), missed meal period premium wages, and missed rest period premium wages.

16 32. Defendants' conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 17 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 18 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and 19 at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for 20 more than thirty (30) days.

21 33. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from 22 Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular 23 hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

24 G. Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

25 34. Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or 26 her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of 27 information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) 28 the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on

1 a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of 2 the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive 3 dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last 4 four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than 5 a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and 6 (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of 7 hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an 8 injury if this information is missing. (Labor Code § 226(e)(2)(B)(iii).)

9 35. The statute further provides: “An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing 10 and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the 11 greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation 12 occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, 13 not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award 14 of costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.” (Labor Code § 226(e)(1).)

15 36. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and the 16 Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, 17 and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages for meal periods 18 that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct wages for rest periods that 19 were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law).

20 37. Because Defendants violated Labor Code § 226, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved 21 Employees suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights. Accordingly, Plaintiff 22 and similarly Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 23 actual damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate 24 penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) dollars per employee.

25 H. Failure to Indemnify for Necessary Expenditures

26 38. Labor Code § 2802(a) provides that employers shall indemnify his or her 27 employees for all necessary business expenditures or losses that have been incurred by the 28 employees in direct discharge of his or her duties. Throughout the statute of limitations period

1 applicable to this cause of action, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 2 Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants.
3 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees regularly paid out-of-pocket for necessary employment-4 related expenses, including, without limitation, use of personal cell phones. Plaintiff and the 5 Aggrieved Employees incurred substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job 6 duties for Defendants, but Defendants failed to indemnify Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 7 Employees for these employment-related expenses.

8 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 10 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

11 39. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges all preceding paragraphs as though 12 fully set forth herein.

13 40. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 14 State of California and the applicable IWC Orders.

15 41. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action 16 to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, 17 any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor 18 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, 19 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a 20 civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or 21 former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

22 42. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor 23 Code § 2699.3. On February 20, 2025, he gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and 24 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific 25 provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiff and current and 26 former Aggrieved Employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations.
27 Plaintiff also paid the filing fee on February 20, 2025. Plaintiff’s PAGA case number is 28 LWDA-CM-1081331-25.

43. The statute of limitations is tolled while a plaintiff exhausts his or her administrative remedies with California's LWDA prior to suit, which is required by the statute. (See Labor Code § 2699.3(d).)

44. More than sixty-five (65) days has elapsed since Plaintiff provided notice, but the LWDA has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants' Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2).

45. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to an award of civil penalties on behalf of the State of California and similarly Aggrieved Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

46. In addition, Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff, on behalf of all similarly aggrieved employees, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

1. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, failing to pay all earned wages twice per month, failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and failing to indemnify for necessary expenditures;

2. An award of civil penalties on behalf of himself and all similarly aggrieved employees pursuant to PAGA;

3. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed;

4. Attorneys' fees and costs reasonably incurred;

5. Injunctive and declaratory relief to the extent allowed by PAGA; and,

6. Such other and further relief that the Court deems proper.

Respectfully submitted,
