DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiffs ARTURO RODRIGUEZ and IVY LUU (“Plaintiffs”), on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint (“Complaint”) against Defendants MICRO PRECISION SWISS, LLC, and DOES 1 to 50 (collectively “Defendants”), and on information and belief alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated, hereby bring this Complaint for recovery of unpaid wages and penalties under California Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 2802, 2698, et seq., and Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order 1-2001 (“Wage Order 1”), in addition to seeking injunctive relief, declaratory relief, and restitution. This Complaint is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants’ violations of the Labor Code because the amount in controversy exceeds $25,000.

2. Venue is proper in this judicial district because Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including Orange County, and some of the acts and omissions complained of herein occurred in Orange County. Furthermore, Plaintiffs were employed by Defendants within Orange County.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiffs are, and at all times relevant herein were, individuals over the age of eighteen (18) and are California residents. Within the statute of limitations periods applicable to each cause of action pled herein, Plaintiffs were employed by Defendants as non-exempt employees. Plaintiffs were, and are, victims of Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or customs

1 complained of herein and has been deprived of the rights guaranteed by Business and Professions
2 Code § 17200, et seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194,
3 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 2802, 2698, et seq., and Wage Order 1.

4 4. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that during the 5 applicable statute of limitations for each cause of action pled herein and continuing to the present,
6 Defendants engaged in, and continue to engage in, business, and employed Plaintiffs and other,
7 similarly-situated non-exempt employees within Orange County, and the State of California and,
8 therefore, were (and are) doing business in Orange County and the State of California.

9 5. Plaintiffs do not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 10 corporate, of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said
11 defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiffs will seek leave from this Court to 12 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiffs are informed 13 and believe, and based thereon allege, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual,
14 partners, or corporate, was responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein,
15 and proximately caused Plaintiffs and the Classes (as defined below) to be subject to the unlawful 16 employment practices, wrongs, injuries, and damages complained of herein.

17 6. At all times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of 18 the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendant; and furthermore,
19 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each of the other
20 defendants, as well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned, were acting 21 within the course and scope of said agency and employment.

22 7. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that at all times
23 material hereto, each of the Defendants named herein was the agent, employee, alter ego and/or 24 joint venturer of, or working in concert with each of the other co-Defendants and was acting within 25 the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, or concerted activity. To the extent
26 said acts, conduct, and omissions were perpetrated by certain Defendants, each of the remaining 27 Defendants confirmed and ratified said acts, conduct, and omissions of the acting Defendants.

28 ///

8. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, were members of, and engaged in, a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course and scope of, and in pursuance of, said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise.

9. At all times herein mentioned, the acts and omissions of various Defendants, and each of them, concurred and contributed to the various acts and omissions of each and all of the other Defendants in proximately causing the injuries and damages as herein alleged.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

10. Defendants own and operate a manufacturing facility in in Santa Ana, California. Defendants employed Plaintiff Rodriguez as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately October 2023 to approximately October 2024 as machinist. Defendants employed Plaintiff Luu as an operation technician from approximately April 2019 to approximately September 2025.

11. Throughout Plaintiffs' employment with Defendants, Defendants' timekeeping and/or payroll policies and practices resulted in Plaintiffs and other non-exempt employees not being compensated for all hours actually worked. Plaintiffs and other non-exempt employees regularly worked more than eight hours in a workday or 40 hours in a workweek. Upon information and belief, Defendants required Plaintiffs and other non-exempt employees to perform work before their scheduled shifts, after their scheduled shifts, and/or during off-the-clock meal breaks, and failed to compensate employees for this time. Upon information and belief, Defendants also failed to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration into the regular rate of pay. As a result, Plaintiffs and other non-exempt employees were not compensated for all earned minimum and overtime wages.

12. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and other non-exempt employees with all legally compliant meal periods due to Defendants' meal period policies/practices, which have frequently resulted in late (commencing after the fifth hour of work), short (less than 30 minutes), and/or missed meal periods. Upon information and belief, Plaintiffs and other non-exempt employees were not able to take their legally compliant meal breaks due to work demands imposed by Defendants. Upon information and belief, Defendants do not keep accurate records of Plaintiffs'

1 and other non-exempt employees' hours worked, including accurate time records showing when
2 employees take their meal periods. On those occasions when Plaintiffs and other non-exempt
3 employees were not provided with all legally compliant meal periods to which they were entitled,
4 Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiffs and other non-exempt employees with the required meal
5 period premium(s) for each workday there was a meal period violation as mandated by Labor Code
6 § 226.7. Upon information and belief, Defendants violated Labor Code § 226.7 by failing to pay 7 meal period premiums at the correct regular rate of compensation by incorporating all non-
8 discretionary incentive compensation in the event that a legally compliant meal period was not 9 provided to their non-exempt employees.

10 13. Plaintiffs and other non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take 11 all required rest periods due to Defendants' unlawful rest period policies/practices, which failed to 12 authorize and permit a net 10-minute rest period for every four hours worked, or major fraction
13 thereof. Plaintiffs and other non-exempt employees were not able to take their legally compliant rest
14 breaks due to work demands imposed by Defendants. On those occasions when Plaintiffs and other 15 non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take all legally compliant rest periods
16 to which they were entitled, Defendants failed to compensate them with the required rest period
17 premium(s) for each workday there was a rest period violation as mandated by Labor Code § 226.7.
18 Upon information and belief, Defendants maintained no mechanism for the payment of rest period
19 premium payments as required by Labor Code § 226.7, in the event that a legally compliant rest 20 period was not authorized and permitted to their non-exempt employees.

21 14. Additionally, upon information and belief, Defendants violated Labor Code § 246 by 22 failing to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration into the paid 23 sick leave pay rate.

24 15. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay all minimum and overtime wages, failure to 25 pay all meal and rest period premium wages, and unlawful timekeeping and payroll practices as 26 alleged above, Defendants maintained inaccurate payroll records and issued inaccurate wage
27 statements to Plaintiffs and other non-exempt employees. As a further result of Defendants' failure
28 to pay all minimum and overtime wages, sick leave wages, and meal and rest period premium

1 wages, Defendants failed to timely pay all final wages to Plaintiffs and other former non-exempt
2 employees upon their separation of employment from Defendants.

3 16. Additionally, Defendants required Plaintiffs and other non-exempt employees to use
4 their personal cellphones to communicate with their supervisors and coworkers. Despite requiring 5 employees to incur these necessary business expenses, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and 6 other non-exempt employees for the cost of these expenses.

7 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

8 17. Class Definitions: Plaintiffs bring this action on behalf of themselves and the 9 following Classes pursuant to § 382 of the California Code of Civil Procedure:

- 10 a. Minimum Wage Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants
11 in the State of California who were subject to Defendants' timekeeping and payroll 12 policies and/or practices, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of 13 this action through the present.
- 14 b. Overtime Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the 15 State of California who worked more than eight hours per day and/or 40 hours per 16 week and were subject to Defendants' timekeeping policies and/or practices, during 17 the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 18 c. Meal Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in 19 the State of California who: (i) worked at least one shift in excess of 5.0 hours;
20 and/or (ii) worked at least one shift in excess of 10.0 hours, during the four years
21 immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 22 d. Rest Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in 23 the State of California who worked at least one shift of 3.5 or more hours, during the 24 four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 25 e. Wage Statement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants
26 in the State of California who received a wage statement, during the one year
27 immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.

28 ///

1 f. Waiting Time Penalty Class: All of Defendants' formerly employed members of the 2 Minimum Wage Class, Overtime Class, Rest Period Class, and/or Meal Period Class 3 during the three years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the 4 present.

5 g. Expense Reimbursement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of 6 Defendants in the State of California who were not reimbursed for all necessary
7 business expenses, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of this 8 action through the present.

9 18. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The members of the Classes are so numerous that 10 joinder of all members would be impractical, if not impossible. The membership of the Classes is 11 unknown to Plaintiffs at this time; however, it is estimated that the members of the Classes number
12 greater than 50 individuals. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection
13 of Defendants' employment records, including payroll records.

14 19. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well-Defined Community of 15 Interest: There are predominant common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiffs and members of 16 the Classes, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, 17 without limitation to:

- 18 a. Whether Defendants properly paid all overtime wages to members of the Overtime
19 Class;
20 b. Whether Defendants paid at least the minimum wage for all hours worked to 21 members of the Minimum Wage Class;
22 c. Whether Defendants provided all legally compliant meal periods or paid meal period
23 premium wages due to members of the Meal Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§
24 226.7 and 512;
25 d. Whether Defendants authorized and permitted all legally compliant rest periods or 26 paid all rest period premium wages due to members of the Rest Period Class
27 pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516;

28 ///

- e. Whether Defendants reimbursed members of the Expense Reimbursement Class for all necessary business expenses pursuant to Labor Code § 2802;
- f. Whether Defendants furnished legally compliant wage statements to members of the Wage Statement Class pursuant to Labor Code § 226; and
- g. Whether Defendants timely paid all final wages to members of the Waiting Time Class at the time of their separation of employment pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

These common questions of law and fact set forth above are numerous and substantial and stem from Defendants' policies and/or practices applicable to each individual class member. As such, the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual class member's showing as to their eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of their damages.

20. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiffs are typical of the claims of the Classes because Plaintiffs were employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the statute(s) of limitations period applicable to each cause of action pled in the Complaint. As alleged herein, Plaintiffs, like the members of the Classes, were not paid all minimum and overtime wages owed due to Defendants' timekeeping and payroll policies/practices, not provided all required meal periods, not authorized and permitted all rest periods, did not receive premium pay for non-compliant meal and rest periods, not reimbursed for all necessary business expenses, not paid all final wages upon separation of employment, and not provided with accurate, compliant, itemized wage statements.

21. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiffs are fully prepared to take all necessary steps to represent fairly and adequately the interests of the members of the Classes. Moreover, Plaintiffs' attorneys are ready, willing and able to fully and adequately represent the members of the Classes and Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs' attorneys have litigated numerous wage-and-hour class actions in state and federal courts in the past and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the members of the Classes.

22. Superiority: The Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an important public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California. These laws

1 and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by employers who 2 have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of superior economic 3 and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The nature of this
4 action and the format of laws available to Plaintiffs and members of the Classes make the class 5 action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations alleged 6 herein. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily 7 gain an unconscionable advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited
8 resources of each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources.

9 23. Moreover, requiring each member of the Class(es) to pursue an individual remedy
10 would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file 11 an action against their former and/or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and 12 permanent damages to their careers at subsequent employment. The claims of the individual
13 members of the Class are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual prosecution
14 considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending hereto.

15 24. Furthermore, the prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members,
16 even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications
17 with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would establish 18 potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or legal determinations with 19 respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interest 20 of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which would substantially impair or 21 impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests. As such, the Classes identified 22 hereinabove are maintainable as classes under § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

23 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

24 MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS

25 (Against All Defendants)

26 25. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
27 fully set forth herein.

28 ///

1 26. Labor Code §§ 1182.12, 1197, and Wage Order 1, § 4 establish the right of 2 employees to be paid minimum wages for all hours worked, in amounts set by state or local law.
3 Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an employee who has not been paid the legal 4 minimum wage as required by Labor Code § 1197 may recover the unpaid balance together with 5 attorneys' fees and costs of suit, as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the unpaid
6 wages and interest accrued thereon. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to conform its 7 pay practices to the requirements of the law by failing to pay Plaintiffs and members of the 8 Minimum Wage Class for all hours worked, including, but not limited to, all hours they were 9 subject to the control of Defendants and/or suffered or permitted to work under the Labor Code and 10 Wage Order 1.

11 27. Labor Code § 1198 makes unlawful the employment of an employee under 12 conditions that the IWC prohibits. California Labor Code § 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an 13 employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay those 14 employees the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an amount 15 equal to the wages due and interest thereon.

16 28. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of minimum wages, Plaintiffs and 17 members of the Minimum Wage Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid wages, including
18 interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§
19 218.6, 558, 1194, 1194.2, and 1199, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 20 3289.

21 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
22 OVERTIME WAGE VIOLATIONS
23 (Against All Defendants)

24 29. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
25 fully set forth herein.

26 30. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, 1198, and 27 Wage Order 1, § 3, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to all overtime wages
28 and compensation for all overtime hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure

1 to pay all overtime compensation for overtime work performed.

2 31. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to properly compensate non-
3 exempt employees, including Plaintiffs and members of the Overtime Class, for all overtime hours
4 worked pursuant to Labor Code § 1194 and Wage Order 1. Wage Order 1, § 3 requires an employer
5 to pay an employee one and one-half (1½) times and two times the employee's regular rate of pay
6 for overtime and double time hours work. Defendants caused Plaintiffs and members of the 7 Overtime Class to work overtime hours but failed to compensate these employees for all overtime
8 hours actually worked.

9 32. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of overtime wages, Plaintiffs and 10 members of the Overtime Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid overtime wages, including
11 interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§
12 204, 210, 216, 218.6, 510, 1194, and 1198; Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§
13 3287 and 3289.

14 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

15 MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS

16 (Against All Defendants)

17 33. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
18 fully set forth herein.

19 34. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants failed
20 in their affirmative obligation to provide all of their non-exempt employees in California, including 21 Plaintiffs and members of the Meal Period Class, with all legally compliant meal periods in 22 accordance with the mandates of the Labor Code and Wage Order 1, § 11.

23 35. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants did not pay an additional hour of pay to 24 Plaintiffs and members of the Meal Period Class at their respective regular rates of compensation, in 25 accordance with California Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 226.7, and 512.

26 36. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful meal period practices, Plaintiffs and 27 members of the Meal Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for meal period
28 violations including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, pursuant to Labor Code

1 §§ 226.7, 512, 558, Wage Order 1, and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289.

2 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

3 REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

4 (Against All Defendants)

5 37. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
6 fully set forth herein.

7 38. Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, and Wage Order 1, § 12 and establish the right of 8 employees to be provided with a rest period of at least 10 minutes for each four-hour period
9 worked, or major fraction thereof. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that 10 despite Defendants' failure to authorize and permit Plaintiffs and members of the Rest Period Class
11 to take all legally compliant rest periods as alleged herein, Defendants did not pay these individuals 12 an additional hour of pay at their respective regular rate for the rest periods that they failed to 13 authorize and permit them to take, as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

14 39. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful rest period practices, Plaintiffs and 15 members of the Rest Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for rest period violations
16 including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees,
17 and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, Wage Order 1, and Civil Code §§
18 3287 and 3289.

19 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 WAGE STATEMENT PENALTIES

21 (Against All Defendants)

22 40. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
23 fully set forth herein.

24 41. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
25 knowingly and intentionally, as a matter of uniform policy and practice, failed to furnish Plaintiffs
26 and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements
27 that included, among other requirements, all hours worked, total gross wages earned, all rates of pay
28 and corresponding number of hours worked, total net wages earned, the inclusive dates of the pay

1 period, and/or the correct name and address of the legal entity that is the employer in violation of 2 Labor Code § 226.

3 42. Defendants' failure to furnish Plaintiffs and members of the Wage Statement Class 4 with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements resulted in actual injury, as said failures led 5 to, among other things, the non-payment of minimum and overtime wages and meal and rest period
6 premium wages owed and deprived them of the information necessary to identify the discrepancies
7 in Defendants' reported payroll data.

8 43. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful wage statement practices, Plaintiffs and 9 members of the Wage Statement Class seek damages and/or statutory penalties, reasonable
10 attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 226.

11 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 WAITING TIME PENALTIES

13 (Against All Defendants)

14 44. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
15 fully set forth herein.

16 45. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201-203, which require an 17 employer to pay all wages immediately at the time of separation of employment in the event the 18 employer discharges the employee or the employee provides at least 72 hours of notice of their 19 intent to quit. In the event the employee provides less than 72 hours of notice of their intent to quit, 20 said employee's wages become due and payable not later than 72 hours upon said employee's last 21 date of employment.

22 46. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants failed
23 to timely pay Plaintiffs and members of the Waiting Time Class all final wages due to them at their 24 separation from employment, including unpaid minimum and overtime wages as well as unpaid 25 meal and rest period premium wages.

26 47. Furthermore, Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that as a 27 matter of uniform policy and practice, Defendants continue to fail to pay Plaintiffs and members of 28 the Waiting Time Class all earned wages at the end of employment in a timely manner pursuant to

1 the requirements of Labor Code §§ 201-202.

2 48. Defendants' failure to pay all final wages was willful within the meaning of Labor
3 Code § 203. Defendants' willful failure to timely pay Plaintiffs and the members of the Waiting
4 Time Class their earned wages upon separation from employment results in continued payment of 5 daily wages up to thirty days from the time the wages were due.

6 49. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful practices, Plaintiffs and members of the 7 Waiting Time Class seek statutory penalties, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code §
8 203.

9 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENSES

11 (Against All Defendants)

12 50. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
13 fully set forth herein.

14 51. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were subject to Labor Code § 2802, which 15 states that "an employer shall indemnify his or her employees for all necessary expenditures or 16 losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his 17 or obedience to the directions of the employer."

18 52. Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse Plaintiffs and 19 members of the Expense Reimbursement Class all necessary business expenses they incurred in the 20 performance of their job duties.

21 53. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful practices, Plaintiffs and members of the 22 class seek recovery of unreimbursed business expenses, including interest thereon, reasonable 23 attorneys' fees, and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code § 2802.

24 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

25 UNFAIR COMPETITION

26 (Against All Defendants)

27 54. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
28 fully set forth herein.

1 55. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business
2 practices in California in violation of Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., by:

- 3 a. failing to pay Plaintiffs and members of the Minimum Wage Class all minimum
4 wages due;
- 5 b. failing to pay Plaintiffs and members of the Overtime Class all overtime wages due;
- 6 c. failing to provide Plaintiffs and members of the Meal Period Class with all meal
7 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all meal period premium
8 wages due;
- 9 d. failing to authorize and permit Plaintiffs and members of the Rest Period Class all 10 rest periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all rest period 11 premium wages due;
- 12 e. failing to reimburse all necessary business expenses to Plaintiffs and members of the 13 Expense Reimbursement Class;
- 14 f. failing to issue accurate and itemized wage statements to Plaintiffs and members of 15 the Wage Statement Class; and
