1 Plaintiff JAVIER EDGARDO ROMERO (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of other
2 members of the general public similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, based upon
3 facts that either have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a
4 reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants ALLIED ROOFING &
7 WATERPROOFING, INC. and DOES 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively referred to 8 as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations, unfair business practices, and civil 9 penalties stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to provide 10 meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay minimum wage, failure
11 to timely pay wages, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to maintain accurate
12 time and payroll records and failure to reimburse necessary business-related expenses.

13 2. Plaintiff’s First through Eighth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 14 behalf of himself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter
15 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members”, as defined more fully in paragraph 16 13, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages
17 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court
18 and will be established according to proof at trial.

19 3. Plaintiff’s Ninth Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf of 20 himself and certain other current and former employees of Defendant against whom one or more
21 of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Aggrieved
22 Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is an aggrieved
23 employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil penalties sought
24 by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established 25 according to proof at trial.

26 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, 27

Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

7. Plaintiff JAVIER EDGARDO ROMERO is an individual residing in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

8. Defendant ALLIED ROOFING & WATERPROOFING, INC., is and at all times herein mentioned was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California, and registered to do business in the state of California.

9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that, at all times mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, servant, employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at all times mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and authorization of such agency, employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible

1 in some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged 2 were proximately caused by its conduct. ALLIED ROOFING & WATERPROOFING, INC. and
3 Doe Defendants 1 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as "Defendants."

4 10. Defendants are and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business in 5 the County of Los Angeles, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with 6 the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders ("Wage Orders").

7 11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants, directly or indirectly controlled or 8 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 9 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendants 10 employers and employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

11 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12 12. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action as class action on his 13 own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus,
14 seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

15 13. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt
16 employees of any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four 17 (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice of the certified
18 class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members.>").

19 14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

20 15. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the 21 litigation:

- 22 a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class 23 Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to 24 Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50)
25 individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by 26 inspection of Defendants' employment records.

1 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated
2 herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class
3 Members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.

4 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class
5 Member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality
6 of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to 7 the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are 8 versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
9 Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to 10 incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 11 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class
12 Member.

13 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and 14 efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class
15 Members is impractical.

16 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will 17 advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate 18 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to 19 assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class
20 actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint
21 anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

22 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over 23 questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact,
24 among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

25 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in 26 accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;

- b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late or interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class Members;
- d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premium wages to Class Members when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest periods;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all hours worked;
- h. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the required minimum wage pursuant to California law;
- i. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper overtime compensation pursuant to California law;
- j. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from employment;
- k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs in violation of California

Labor Code section 2802;

- l. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code, including section 226;
- m. Whether Defendants' conduct was with malice, fraud or oppression;
- n. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- o. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on their improper withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;
- p. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- q. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. Defendants are a roofing and waterproofing business specializing in residential and commercial buildings.

18. Defendants employed Plaintiff to work as a Painter from approximately April 28, 2019 to December 20, 2019.

19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

20. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; to directly or indirectly control work rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; and to hire and terminate the employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

21. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants engaged in an ongoing and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees. As set forth in more detail below, this scheme involved, inter alia, regularly requiring Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work off the clock without compensation, thereby failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum and overtime wages. Defendants also implemented time rounding practices that resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, including minimum and overtime wages. Defendants also implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed. In addition, Defendants routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California law. Defendants also failed to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses.

23. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented policies and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendants routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish control over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods, regularly failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable opportunity to take their meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later than the end of their fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten (10) hours. Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

1 24. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
2 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under
3 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
4 regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
5 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
6 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way the prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free meal
7 periods, and to require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through their 8 meal periods, for which they were not compensated.

9 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
10 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were 11 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should
12 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
13 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal
14 period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants 15 routinely failed to provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 16 Aggrieved Employees, and routinely failed pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class,
17 and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short,
18 late, and/or interrupted.

19 26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
20 policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from 21 taking timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly failed to provide, authorize, and 22 permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest
23 periods for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full,
24 uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to 25 make a good faith effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each 26 work period.

1 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
2 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under
3 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
4 regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
5 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
6 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and 7 duty free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
8 to work through their rest periods.

9 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
10 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were 11 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should
12 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
13 rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period
14 was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely
15 failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free
16 rest periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
17 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late and/or 18 interrupted.

19 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly required 20 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock. Although 21 Defendants prohibited overtime, Defendants still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class, and 22 the Aggrieved Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class, and 23 the Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to perform work off the clock for which they 24 were not compensated.

25 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants employed a time
26 rounding policy that was not neutral and designed to consistently round time in Defendants' favor, ensuring that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were oftentimes not paid for all time worked.
27

31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed.

32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week.

33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay all overtime compensation owed to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when they worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single work day and/or forty (40) hours in a single work week, or in excess of twelve (12) hours in a single work day and/or eighty (80) hours in a single work week. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay overtime to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiff, the

1 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock, and implementing time
2 rounding policies that resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Plaintiff, the Class,
3 and the Aggrieved Employees.

4 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 5 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or 6 resignation. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
7 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time
8 permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
9 Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, 10 including overtime compensation and minimum wages within any time permissible under 11 California Labor Code section 202.

12 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 13 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible
14 under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendants knew 15 or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to 16 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
17 Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum 18 wages, and meal and rest period premiums.

19 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 20 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
21 Employees. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
22 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 23 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 24 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours 25 worked, the actual gross wages earned and the correct rates of pay.

26 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 27

1 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
2 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required keep complete and
3 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 4 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

5 40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 6 maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff's, the Class's, and the Aggrieved Employees' work
7 periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.

8 41. Throughout the time period involved in this Case, Defendants failed to reimburse
9 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses,
10 including but not limited to shirts, tools, gasoline, and personal cell phone. Defendants knew or 11 should have known that Defendants were required to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the 12 Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses and costs, but, in fact, failed to 13 do so in violation of California law.

14 42. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants knew or should have 15 known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
16 pursuant to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but 17 willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the 18 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase 19 Defendants' profits.

20 43. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
21 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due 22 to him [or her] under this article."

23 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

25 (Against All Defendants)

26 44. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 27

every allegation set forth above.

45. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

46. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

47. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

48. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

49. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

50. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

51. Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

52. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

(Against All Defendants)

53. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

54. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by Defendants.

55. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

56. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

57. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

1 58. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were
2 scheduled to work for a period of time longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their 3 legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than 4 five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

5 59. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 6 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of ten (10) hours were required to work for 7 periods longer than ten (10) hours without a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than 8 thirty (30) minutes.

9 60. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required
10 Plaintiff and the other Class Members to miss their meal periods and to take meal periods that 11 were late, shortened, or interrupted, and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other Class
12 Members the full meal period premium for missed, shortened, late, or interrupted meal periods.

13 61. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
14 Class Members the full meal period premiums due pursuant to California Labor Code section 15 226.7.

16 62. Defendants' conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order and California
17 Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

18 63. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section
19 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants one 20 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the 21 meal period was not provided.

22 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

24 (Against All Defendants)

25 64. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
26 every allegation set forth above.

65. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by Defendants.

66. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

67. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3.5) hours."

68. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other Class Members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

69. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work during rest periods, failed to allow Plaintiff and the other Class Member to take any rest period and/or failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the other Class Members to take uninterrupted, duty-free rest breaks.

70. 105. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties for violations of the Labor Code as follows: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3." Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a).

106. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant and the Labor Code violations alleged above were committed against him during his time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an "aggrieved employee” under PAGA.

107. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendant have routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor Codes by:

Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for himself and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

110. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to protect his interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties owed by Defendant. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.
