DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiffs Abigail Barco and Madison McCrindle (“Plaintiff,” “Plaintiff Barco,” and “Plaintiff McCrindle”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and allege as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Sonoma. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff took place in the State of California. Defendants employed Plaintiff within the State of California.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff Barco is an individual residing in the State of California. Plaintiff McCrindle is an individual residing in the State of California.

1 6. Defendant Lifewest Northern California at all times herein mentioned, was and 2 is, upon information and belief, a California corporation headquartered in the State of 3 California, and at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are 4 engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Sonoma. Defendant
5 Lifewest Southern California at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and
6 belief, a California corporation headquartered in the State of California, and at all times herein
7 mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of 8 California, including the County of Sonoma.

9 7. At all relevant times, Defendants Lifewest Northern California and Lifewest
10 Southern California were each the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable
11 laws and statutes.

12 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendants Lifewest Northern California, Lifewest
13 Southern California, and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners,
14 joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest,
15 co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting
16 within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint 17 employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and 18 assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification,
19 knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization, and consent of each defendant
20 designated herein.

21 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 22 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who sues
23 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 24 information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
25 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 26 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
27 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 28 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

10. Defendants Lifewest Northern California, Lifewest Southern California, and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time from June 24, 2020, through April 20, 2025.

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time. However, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants’ employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff’s claims are typical of all other class members’ claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom Plaintiff has a well-defined community of interest.

1 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of
2 each class member, with whom Plaintiff has a well-defined community
3 of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has 4 no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's
5 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing 6 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 7 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur,
8 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 9 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 10 each class member.

11 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 12 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
13 of all class members is impractical.

14 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
15 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great 16 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
17 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
18 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 19 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 20 their rights.

21 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 22 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common 23 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

24 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 25 reduction, in accordance with the Labor Code, was willful;

26 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt
27 employees within the State of California for all hours worked;

28 ///

- 1 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to
2 work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week
3 and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff
4 and the other class members;
- 5 d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiff and 6 the other class members who worked overtime and earned incentive pay;
- 7 e. Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class 8 members legally mandated meal and/or rest periods and failed to 9 compensate them the related premium wages pursuant to Labor Code
10 section 226.7(c);
- 11 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the 12 other class members for all hours worked;
- 13 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other 14 class members within the required time upon their discharge or 15 resignation;
- 16 h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and 17 the other class members during their employment;
- 18 i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 19 Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- 20 j. Whether Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records
21 for Plaintiff and the other class members;
- 22 k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class 23 members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 24 l. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 25 m. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 26 Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;
- 27 n. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary 28 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of the law; and

- 1 o. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to 2 compensatory damages pursuant to the Labor Code.

3 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

4 17. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff

20 24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
21 engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid
22 or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia,
23 failing to pay them for all hours worked, and failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest
24 breaks or pay related premium wages in lieu thereof, in violation of the law.

25 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
26 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
27 certain wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 28 not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

1 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members the required meal and rest periods
3 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”)
4 Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

5 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
7 all timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s 8 and the other class members’ regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or 9 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all timely and proper
10 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal
11 period was missed.

12 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
13 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all
14 timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s 15 and the other class members’ regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late or 16 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all rest periods or 17 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was 18 missed.

19 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
21 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 22 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

23 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
24 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
25 the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum
26 wages and meal and rest period premiums, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did
27 not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

28 ///

31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive their wages within a specified time during their employment, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not, in fact, receive such wages within the specified time period during their employment.

32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with the law, but, in fact, Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with the law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class members pursuant to the law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

9 other than a social security number, (h) the name and address of the legal entity that is the 10 employer, and (i) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 11 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions
12 made from payments of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated,
13 showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions
14 shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at 15 a central location within the State of California.

16 90. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the 17 other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include,
18 but are not limited to, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and 19 other class members.

20 91. As a result of Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226(a), Plaintiff and 21 the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

22 92. Plaintiff and the other class members have been injured by Defendants'
23 intentional and willful violation of Labor Code section 226(a) because they were denied both
24 their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and itemized
25 wage statements pursuant to Labor Code section 226(a).

26 93. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the 27 greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code
28 section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

1 94. Plaintiff and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to 2 ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to Labor Code section 226(h).

3 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 95. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
8 through 94, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set

10 96. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must reimburse its 11 employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the 12 discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to the directions of the 13 employer.

14 97. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the 15 other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the 16 other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and 17 costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the 18 date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments
19 in civil actions in the State of California.

22 (Against Lifewest Northern California, Lifewest Southern California, and DOES 1

1 99. The Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) expressly establishes that
2 any provision of the Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected
3 by the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), or any of its 4 departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees for a violation of the 5 Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on 6 behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

7 100. On February 4, 2025, Plaintiff McCrindle provided written notice to the LWDA
8 and Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code she contends were violated and 9 the theories supporting her contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by 10 reference is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff McCrindle believes that on or 11 about April 10, 2025, the sixty-five (65) day notice period expired, and the LWDA did not
12 take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Thus, Plaintiff McCrindle exhausted 13 the statutory time period to bring this action.

14 101. Plaintiff McCrindle and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are 15 “aggrieved employees” as defined by Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current
16 and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California
17 at any time from February 4, 2024, through April 20, 2025, and one or more of the alleged 18 violations was committed against them.

19 Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages

20 102. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their non-
21 exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours
22 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek, pursuant to the 23 mandate of Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

24 103. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff McCrindle
25 and the other aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a 26 failure to pay all minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

27 ///

28 ///

1 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

2 104. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512,
3 Defendants were required to authorize and permit their non-exempt employees to take a 10-
4 minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof and were further
5 required to provide their non-exempt employees with a 30-minute meal period for every five 6 (5) hours worked.

7 105. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff McCrindle and 8 the other aggrieved current and former employees with legally mandated meal periods and 9 rest breaks and failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

10 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

11 106. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees
12 within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code section 204.

13 107. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff McCrindle and the 14 other aggrieved current and former employees all wages due and owing them within the 15 required time period.

16 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

17 108. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees
18 all wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to Labor Code sections
19 201 to 204.

20 109. As a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged above, Defendants
21 failed to pay Plaintiff McCrindle and the other aggrieved former employees their final wages
22 pursuant to Labor Code sections 201 to 204 and accordingly owe waiting time penalties
23 pursuant to Labor Code section 203.

24 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

25 110. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records
26 regarding their California employees pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code sections 226,
27 1174, and 1776.

28 ///

111. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff McCrindle and the other aggrieved current and former employees. For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff McCrindle and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

112. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse its employees for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct consequences of the discharge or his or her duties pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802.

113. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff McCrindle and the other aggrieved current and former employees for all business expenses incurred and owing them within the required time period.

Penalties

114. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, Plaintiff McCrindle, individually, and on behalf of the other current and former aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover from Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs, including but not limited to:

- a. Penalties under Labor Code section 2699 in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- b. Penalties under Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11040 in the amount of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

- 1 c. Penalties under Labor Code section 210 in addition to, and entirely
2 independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the Labor
3 Code in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved
4 employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars
5 ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 6 violation;
- 7 d. Penalties under Labor Code section 1197.1 in the amount of a hundred 8 dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial 9 violation, and two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved
10 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- 11 e. Attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 1194, and 12 2699, and any other applicable statute; and
- 13 f. Any and all additional penalties as provided by the Labor Code and/or 14 other statutes.

15 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (Violation of California Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq.)
17 (Against Lifewest Northern California, Lifewest Southern California, and DOES 1 18 through 100)

19 115. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 20 through 114, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully 21 set forth herein.

22 116. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be unfair,
23 unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff, the other class members, to the general public, and 24 Defendants' competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the 25 public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

26 117. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of the law, and constitute 27 unlawful business acts and practices in violation of Business & Professions Code sections 28 17200, et seq.

118. A violation of Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and the other class members work overtime hours without paying them proper compensation violate Labor Code sections 510 and 1198. Additionally, Defendants' policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and the other class members to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation violate Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Moreover, Defendants' policy and practice of failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and the other class members violate Labor Code sections 201 and 202. Defendants also violated Labor Code sections 226(a), 1194, 1197, 2800, and 2802.

119. As a result of the herein described violations of the law, Defendants unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

120. Plaintiff and the other class members have been personally injured by Defendants' unlawful business acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to the loss of money and/or property.

121. Pursuant to Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to Code of Civil procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

Re: LIFEWEST NORTHERN CALIFORNIA and LIFEWEST SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, both doing business as LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Madison McCrindle against LIFEWEST NORTHERN CALIFORNIA and LIFEWEST SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, both doing business as LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer or managing agent acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 1-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE").

Ms. McCrindle is pursuing her California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Ms. McCrindle may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

LIFEWEST NORTHERN CALIFORNIA is a California corporation located at 5460 Skylane Blvd, Ste A, Santa Rosa, CA 95403. LIFEWEST SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA is a California corporation located at 451 Aviation Blvd., Suite 203, Santa Rosa, CA 95403.

LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE employed Ms. McCrindle as an hourly-paid non-exempt EMT within one year of the date of this letter (until in or around July of 2024) in the State of California. LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE directly controlled the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Ms. McCrindle's and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

¹ Ms. McCrindle does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Ms. McCrindle will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Ms. McCrindle is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Ms. McCrindle and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

The “aggrieved employees” that Ms. McCrindle may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through a staffing agency) of LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE within the State of California.

LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly compensate minimum and overtime wages, failed to properly provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks or pay premium wages in lieu thereof, failed to issue compliant wage statements, and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in Labor Code violations as stated below.

LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay time-and-a-half or double-time overtime wages and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE failed to compensate Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks. LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses into Ms. McCrindle’s and other aggrieved employees’ regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee’s regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee’s total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee’s total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE failed to pay Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at a non-exempt employee’s regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee’s total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee’s total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE routinely required Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE's policies and expectations and fulfill orders. LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE failed to provide coverage to Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally mandated meal and rest breaks. Lastly, LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE failed to authorize and permit Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE failed to compensate Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay.

California Labor Code section 551 states "[e]very person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven." Section 552 further states "[n]o employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven." LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE required Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees to work seven days in a row or more without one day's rest.

California Labor Code section 432.5 states "[n]o employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law." LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE required Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees to execute arbitration agreements as a condition of employment despite knowing that such agreements are prohibited under Labor Code section 432.6.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits their employment, their wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours' previous notice of their intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to their wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE failed to pay Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE failed to pay Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204, and is therefore liable under California Labor Code section 210.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE did not provide Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by aggrieved employees, (4) all deductions for Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. Pursuant to the code, (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code section 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. During the relevant time period, LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid to Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE did not provide Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Ms. McCrindle and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE, including for using their personal cellular phones and vehicles for work-related purposes.

We believe that Ms. McCrindle and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in question and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor Code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Ms. McCrindle will seek these penalties on her own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of LIFEWEST AMBULANCE SERVICE within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
