DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Electronically Filed
12/18/2025 3:41 PM
Superior Court of California
County of Stanislaus
Hugh K. Swift
Clerk of the Court
By: Alecsondra Chavez, Deputy

COMES NOW, Plaintiff BRANDON BLAINE (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of Stanislaus. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff took place in the State of California, County of Stanislaus. Defendant employed Plaintiff within the State of California, County of Stanislaus.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff BRANDON BLAINE is an individual residing in the State of California.

6. Defendant ASSOCIATED FEED & SUPPLY CO., at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation headquartered in the State of California, and at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Stanislaus.

1 7. At all relevant times, Defendant ASSOCIATED FEED & SUPPLY CO. was the
2 “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

3 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendant ASSOCIATED FEED & SUPPLY CO.
4 and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint 5 employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and 6 assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and 7 scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers,
8 representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, and 9 all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge,
10 permission, encouragement, authorization, and consent of each defendant designated herein.

11 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 12 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who sues
13 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 14 information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
15 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 16 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
17 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 18 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

19 10. Defendant ASSOCIATED FEED & SUPPLY CO. and DOES 1 through 100 will 20 hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

21 11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or 22 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 23 Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants and employers
24 liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

1 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

2 12. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all other members of the 3 general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil 4 Procedure section 382.

5 13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

6 All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants
7 within the State of California at any time during the period from April 9, 2021
8 to final judgment.

9 14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

10 15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in 11 the litigation:

12 a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class 13 members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is 14 unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be 15 greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is 16 readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

17 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members'
18 claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect 19 the interests of the other class members with whom Plaintiff has a well-
20 defined community of interest.

21 ///

22 ///

23 ///

1 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of
2 each class member, with whom Plaintiff has a well-defined community
3 of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has 4 no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's
5 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing 6 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 7 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur,
8 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 9 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 10 each class member.

11 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 12 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
13 of all class members is impractical.

14 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
15 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great 16 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
17 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
18 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 19 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 20 their rights.

21 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 22 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common
23 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

24 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 25 reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;

26 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt
27 employees within the State of California for all hours worked;
28

- 1 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to
2 work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week
3 and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff
4 and the other class members;
- 5 d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiff and 6 the other class members who worked overtime and earned incentive pay;
- 7 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the 8 other class members for all hours worked;
- 9 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to class members within 10 the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- 11 g. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and 12 the other class members during their employment;
- 13 h. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 14 California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- 15 i. Whether Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records
16 for Plaintiff and the other class members;
- 17 j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class 18 members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 19 k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 20 l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 21 California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;
- 22 m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary 23 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- 24 n. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to 25 compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

1 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 4 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

5 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that class members were entitled to receive the wages owed to 7 them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages, and that class
8 members did not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or 9 resignation.

10 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
12 their wages within a specified time period during their employment, and that Plaintiff and the 13 other class members did not, in fact, receive such wages within the specified time period
14 during their employment.

15 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
17 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact,
18 Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements
19 from Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number 20 of hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

21 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that they had to keep complete and accurate payroll records for 23 Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did not
24 keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

25 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
26 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 27 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.
28

1 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class
3 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such
4 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
5 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all
6 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

7 33. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
8 overtime wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked. Plaintiff and 9 other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40)
10 hours per week without overtime compensation.

11 34. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
12 Plaintiff and the other class members at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

13 35. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay class
14 members the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

15 36. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
16 Plaintiff and the other class members wages within a specified time period during their 17 employment.

18 37. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide 19 complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff and the other class members.

20 38. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to keep 21 complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

22 39. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to reimburse
23 Plaintiff and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses.

24 40. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly
25 compensate Plaintiff and the other class members pursuant to California law in order to 26 increase Defendants' profits.

27 ///

41. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against ASSOCIATED FEED & SUPPLY CO. and DOES 1 through 100)

42. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 41, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

43. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

44. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, who work(ed) more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

45. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

46. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

47. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

48. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members.

49. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

50. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197)

(Against ASSOCIATED FEED & SUPPLY CO. and DOES 1 through 100)

51. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 50 and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

52. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed, is unlawful.

53. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members as required, pursuant to California Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197.

1 54. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the minimum
2 wage as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197. Pursuant to those
3 sections, Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their
4 minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees, and liquidated
5 damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

6 55. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the other class
7 members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages
8 unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

9 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202)

11 (Against ASSOCIATED FEED & SUPPLY CO. and DOES 1 through 100)

12 56. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
13 through 55, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
14 forth herein.

15 57. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code sections
16 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid 17 at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits their 18 employment, their wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours 19 thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of their intention to 20 quit, in which case the employee is entitled to their wages at the time of quitting.

21 58. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and 22 willfully failed to pay class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages,
23 earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

24 59. Defendants' failure to pay class members who are no longer employed by 25 Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving
26 Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

27 ///

60. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

61. Class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid, up to the thirty (30) day maximum as provided by Labor Code section 203.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

(Against ASSOCIATED FEED & SUPPLY CO. and DOES 1 through 100)

62. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 61, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

63. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of their employees an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions made from payment of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at

1 a central location within the State of California.

2 64. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the 3 other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include
4 but are not limited to: the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and 5 other class members.

6 65. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a),
7 Plaintiff and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily
8 protected rights.

9 66. More specifically, Plaintiff and the other class members have been injured by 10 Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because 11 they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving,
12 accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

13 67. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the 14 greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor
15 Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per 16 employee.

17 68. Plaintiff and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to 18 ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(h).

19 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

21 (Against ASSOCIATED FEED & SUPPLY CO. and DOES 1 through 100)

22 69. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
23 through 68, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
24 forth herein.

25 ///

26 ///

27 ///

70. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to the directions of the employer.

71. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”))

(Against ASSOCIATED FEED & SUPPLY CO. and DOES 1 through 100)

72. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 71, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

73. The Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of themselves, and other current or former employees.

1 74. On February 3, 2025, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and
2 Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code he contends were violated, and the 3 theories supporting his contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference
4 is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff believes that on or about April 9, 2025,
5 the sixty-five (65) days' notice period expired as to all Defendants, and the LWDA did not take 6 any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Therefore, Plaintiff exhausted his 7 administrative remedies.

8 75. Plaintiff and the other non-exempt employees are "aggrieved employees" as 9 defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they all are or were non-exempt
10 employees of Defendants employed in California at any time during the period from February 11 3, 2024, to the present, and one or more of the alleged violations was committed against them.

12 Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages

13 76. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their non-
14 exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours
15 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek, pursuant to the 16 mandate of Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

17 77. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other 18 aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay all 19 minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

20 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

21 78. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees
22 within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code section 204.

23 79. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
24 current and former employees all wages due and owing within the required time period.

25 ///

26 ///

27 ///

1 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

2 80. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees all
3 wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to the mandates of Labor
4 Code sections 201 and 202.

5 81. As a policy and practice, as a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations
6 alleged above, Defendants failed to pay aggrieved former employees their final wages,
7 pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 201 and 202. Accordingly, Defendants owe
8 waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 203.

9 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

10 82. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records
11 regarding their California employees, pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 226
12 and 1174.

13 83. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to 14 keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees.
15 For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding
16 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours 17 worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of 18 hours worked at each hourly rate.

19 Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

20 84. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse their 21 employees for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct
22 consequences of the discharge of their duties, pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections
23 2800 and 2802.

24 85. As a policy and practice, Defendants regularly failed to reimburse Plaintiff and 25 the other aggrieved current and former employees for all business expenses incurred and owed
26 to them within the required time period.

27 ///

Penalties

86. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of other current and former aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover from Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant, including but not limited to:

- a. Penalties under California Labor Code section 2699 in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- b. Penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11040 in the amount of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- c. Penalties under California Labor Code section 210 in addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the California Labor Code in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- d. Penalties under Labor Code section 1197.1 in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

Re: Associated Feed & Supply Co.

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Brandon Blaine against Associated Feed & Supply Co. (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer or managing agent acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 1-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Associated Feed & Supply Co.").

Mr. Blaine is pursuing his California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Mr. Blaine may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Associated Feed & Supply Co. is a California corporation located at 5213 W Main St, Turlock, CA 95380.

Associated Feed & Supply Co. employed Mr. Blaine as an hourly-paid non-exempt Truck Driver within one year of the date of this letter (until in or around April of 2024) in the State of California. Associated Feed & Supply Co. directly controlled the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Mr. Blaine's and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

¹ Mr. Blaine does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Mr. Blaine will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Mr. Blaine is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Mr. Blaine and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

The “aggrieved employees” that Mr. Blaine may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through a staffing agency) of Associated Feed & Supply Co. within the State of California.

Associated Feed & Supply Co. failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly compensate minimum and overtime wages, failed to properly provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks or pay premium wages in lieu thereof, failed to issue compliant wage statements, and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in Labor Code violations as stated below.

Associated Feed & Supply Co. has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay time-and-a-half or double-time overtime wages and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. Associated Feed & Supply Co. failed to compensate Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks. Associated Feed & Supply Co. also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses into Mr. Blaine’s and other aggrieved employees’ regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee’s regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee’s total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee’s total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, Associated Feed & Supply Co. failed to pay Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at a non-exempt employee’s regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee’s total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee’s total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, Associated Feed & Supply Co. routinely required Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with Associated Feed & Supply Co.'s policies and expectations and fulfill orders. Associated Feed & Supply Co. failed to provide coverage to Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally mandated meal and rest breaks. Lastly, Associated Feed & Supply Co. failed to authorize and permit Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, Associated Feed & Supply Co. failed to compensate Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay.

California Labor Code section 551 states "[e]very person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven." Section 552 further states "[n]o employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven." Associated Feed & Supply Co. required Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees to work seven days in a row or more without one day's rest.

California Labor Code section 432.5 states "[n]o employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law." Associated Feed & Supply Co. required Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees to execute arbitration agreements as a condition of employment despite knowing that such agreements are prohibited under Labor Code section 432.6.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits their employment, their wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours' previous notice of their intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to their wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, Associated Feed & Supply Co. failed to pay Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, Associated Feed & Supply Co. failed to pay Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204, and is therefore liable under California Labor Code section 210.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, Associated Feed & Supply Co. did not provide Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from Associated Feed & Supply Co. were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by aggrieved employees, (4) all deductions for Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. Pursuant to the code, (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code section 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. During the relevant time period, Associated Feed & Supply Co. failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid to Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, Associated Feed & Supply Co. did not provide Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Mr. Blaine and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Associated Feed & Supply Co., including for using their personal cellular phones and vehicles for work-related purposes.

We believe that Mr. Blaine and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in question and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor Code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Mr. Blaine will seek these penalties on his own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Associated Feed & Supply Co. within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
