Attorneys for Plaintiff

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF SACRAMENTO

JAIME FARIAS, on behalf of the State of California and other aggrieved persons,

Plaintiff,

v.

LABOR RESOURCE GROUP, INC., a
California corporation; CEMCO, INC., a California corporation; and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 34-2022-00324254-CU-OE-GDS
Consolidated with 34-2022-00327461-CU-OE-GDS

FIRST AMENDED PAGA
REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT:

1. Civil Penalties Under PAGA [Cal. Lab.
Code § 2699, et seq.]

1 Plaintiff Jaime Farias (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary support or 2 are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation and 3 discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendant LABOR RESOURCE GROUP, INC., 6 Defendant CEMCO, INC., and DOES 1 through 10 (hereinafter collectively referred to as 7 “Defendants”) for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California 8 Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”) stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay for all hours 9 worked (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, 10 failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay all earned wages twice per month, failure 11 to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay final wages, 12 failure to furnish accurate wage statements, failure to pay vested vacation wages, failure to pay 13 sick leave at the proper rate, and failure to indemnify for necessary expenditures.

14 2. For over 50 years, California’s courts and legislature have recognized that this 15 State’s wage-and-hour laws serve a compelling public interest of fostering a stable job market.
16 Wages are not ordinary debts. Because of the economic position of the average worker and his or 17 her family, it is essential to the public welfare that employers obey the wage-and-hour laws so that 18 employees are promptly paid the minimum/overtime wages that the Legislature has required for 19 employees. So fundamental are California’s wage-and-hour laws that the Legislature has 20 criminalized certain types of violations. In extending extra protection to deter violations of these 21 underlying statutes—since Plaintiff is not seeking general and/or special damages, restitution, or 22 other damages other than civil penalties—California has enacted the PAGA to permit an individual 23 to bring an action for PAGA penalties only, which is the precise and sole nature of this action.

24 3. All California employees during the relevant statutes of limitations who are or were 25 harmed by Defendants’ illegal practices are “Aggrieved Employees.” The Aggrieved Employees 26 worked for Defendants as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the applicable statutory 27 period.

28 4. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants seeking only to recover penalties on

1 behalf of all Aggrieved Employees that worked for Defendants, and on behalf of the State of 2 California. Plaintiff does not seek to recover anything other than penalties as permitted by 3 California Labor Code Section 2699 at this time. To the extent that statutory violations are 4 mentioned for wage violations, Plaintiff does not seek underlying general and/or special damages
5 for those violations, but simply penalties as permitted by California Labor Code Section 2699, 6 declaratory relief, and injunctive relief for himself and all Aggrieved Employees as permitted by 7 the PAGA.

8 5. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 9 establishment within the State of California, including Sacramento County. As such and based 10 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' business in California, Defendants are 11 subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission 12 ("IWC"), and the California Business & Professions Code.

13 6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 14 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 15 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 16 willful and deliberate.

17 7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the 18 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the 19 foregoing paragraphs as the employers of Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees. Further, 20 Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under 21 the doctrine of "respondeat superior".

22 THE PARTIES

23 A. Plaintiff

24 8. Plaintiff Jaime Farias is a California resident who worked for Defendants in 25 Sacramento County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 26 September 2021 to approximately October 2021.

27 B. Defendants

28 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief

1 alleges, that Defendants LABOR RESOURCE GROUP, INC. and CEMCO, INC. are, and at all 2 times herein mentioned, were:

- 3 (a) Business entities qualified to do business and actually conducting business 4 in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in 5 Sacramento County; and
- 6 (b) The former employers of Plaintiff and the current and/or former employers
7 of the Aggrieved Employees because Defendants LABOR RESOURCE 8 GROUP, INC. and CEMCO, INC. suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the 9 Aggrieved Employees to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or 10 working conditions.

11 10. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued 12 herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each 13 of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by 14 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to set 15 forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together 16 with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

17 11. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and 18 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or 19 injured a significant number of the Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in the State of 20 California.

21 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times each 22 Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and the 23 other employees and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff 24 is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the 25 principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, 26 affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of 27 the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise
28 for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable

1 for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and 2 thereon alleges that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships
3 alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, 4 adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

5 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

6 13. Plaintiff Jaime Farias worked for Defendants in Sacramento County, California
7 from approximately September 2021 to approximately October 2021. At all times, Defendants 8 paid Plaintiff an hourly wage and classified him as non-exempt from overtime.

9 14. Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Defendants committed numerous labor code 10 violations under state law. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendants was 11 typical and illustrative.

12 A. Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked, Including Minimum, Straight Time, 13 and Overtime Wages

14 15. Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee.
15 "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer and 16 includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do 17 so.

18 16. Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more 19 than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional 20 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

21 17. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall not 22 be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation 23 beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states 24 that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the IWC is unlawful.

25 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not 26 paying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including minimum, straight 27 time, and overtime wages. Defendants required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work 28 "off-the-clock," uncompensated, by, for example, requiring Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees

1 to perform work during legally mandated meal periods. Some of this unpaid work should have 2 been paid at the overtime rate. In failing to pay for all hours worked, Defendants also failed to 3 maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

4 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not 5 paying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including minimum, straight 6 time, and overtime wages. Defendants regularly used a system of time rounding and/or synthetic 7 timekeeping that resulted, over a period of time, in failing to compensate Plaintiff and the 8 Aggrieved Employees properly for all the time they have actually worked, even though the realities 9 of Defendants' operations are such that it is possible, practical, and feasible to count and pay for 10 work time to the minute. Accordingly, Defendants frequently paid Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 11 Employees less than all their work time. Some of this unpaid work also should have been paid at 12 the overtime rate. In failing to pay for all hours worked, Defendants also failed to maintain accurate 13 records of the hours Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

14 B. Failure to Provide Meal Periods

15 20. Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve 16 employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal periods no later than the 17 start of the sixth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-minute, 18 duty-free meal period no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in a workday. Further, 19 employees are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not 20 provided with a required meal period(s).

21 21. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff 22 and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants regularly required 23 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without 24 providing a 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or 25 without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not 26 provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Instead, Defendants continued 27 to assert control over Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or 28 encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of

1 taking mandatory meal periods, or by denying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees permission
2 to take a meal period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was not to provide meal 3 periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

4 22. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of 5 additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s).
6 Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional 7 wages to which they were entitled for meal periods that were not provided.

8 C. Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

9 23. Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten 10 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than 11 two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the 12 employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself 13 a violation of California's rest break laws.

14 24. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize 15 and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take legally compliant rest periods.
16 Defendants regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of four 17 consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, 18 uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), 19 or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not 20 authorized or permitted. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiff and the 21 Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which 22 could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods, or by denying 23 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a rest period. Accordingly, Defendants' 24 policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take 25 rest periods in compliance with California law.

26 25. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of 27 additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all required 28 rest periods. Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees

1 the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods and that they were not authorized 2 and permitted to take.

3 D. Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

4 26. Based on its failure to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all wages as 5 discussed above, Defendants also violated Labor Code § 204.

6 27. Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times 7 per month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, 8 employees were entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period 9 premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for overtime hours 10 worked. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay the 11 employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not 12 paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendants, all wages for all rest periods not 13 authorized and permitted by Defendants, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, 14 Defendants owe employees the legally required wages not paid, and Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 15 Employees suffered damages in those amounts.

16 E. Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

17 28. Plaintiff seeks penalties under California Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to 18 California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully 19 fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by California Labor Code § 1174 is subject 20 to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall 21 keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods 22 and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded

23 29. Defendants, however, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all 24 meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees.

25 30. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by the California 26 Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the 27 ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the 28 accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the 1 Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which 2 resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the 3 Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use 4 and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in 5 seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective 6 damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendants' knowing failure to 7 comply with the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the 8 Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, 9 understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

10 F. Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

11 31. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, 12 the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if 13 an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and 14 payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-15 two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled 16 to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

17 32. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many 18 other Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e., was terminated by quitting or being discharged, and the 19 employment of others will be terminated. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants 20 failed, and continue to fail to pay Plaintiff and terminated Aggrieved Employees, without 21 abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of 22 discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employment. These 23 unpaid wages include wages for unpaid work time (including minimum, straight time, and overtime 24 wages), missed meal period premium wages, and missed rest period premium wages.

25 33. Defendants' conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 26 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 27 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and 28 at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for 1 more than thirty (30) days.

2 34. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from 3 Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular 4 hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

5 G. Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

6 35. Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her 7 employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, 8 including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-9 rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all 10 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated 11 and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the 12 employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security 13 number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name 14 and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect 15 during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the 16 employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if this information is missing. (Labor Code 17 § 226(e)(2)(B)(iii).)

18 36. The statute further provides: “An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing 19 and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the 20 greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation 21 occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, 22 not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award
23 of costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.” (Labor Code § 226(e)(1).)

24 37. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and the 25 Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, 26 and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages for meal periods 27 that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct wages for rest periods that 28 were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law).

1 38. Because Defendants violated Labor Code § 226, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved
2 Employees suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights. Accordingly, Plaintiff 3 and similarly Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 4 actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate 5 penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) dollars per employee.

6 H. Failure to Indemnify for Necessary Expenditures

7 39. Labor Code § 2802(a) provides that employers shall indemnify his or her employees 8 for all necessary business expenditures or losses that have been incurred by the employees in direct 9 discharge of his or her duties. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause 10 of action, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses 11 that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 12 Employees regularly paid out-of-pocket for necessary employment-related expenses, including, 13 without limitation, work tools and use of personal cell phones. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 14 Employees incurred substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for 15 Defendants, but Defendants failed to indemnify Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for these 16 employment-related expenses.

17 I. Failure to Pay Vested Vacation Wages Upon Termination

18 40. Labor Code § 227.3 provides that, "whenever a contract of employment or employer 19 policy provides for paid vacations, and an employee is terminated without having taken off his 20 vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to him as wages at his final rate in accordance 21 with such contract of employment or employer policy respecting eligibility or time served."
22 Defendants maintained a policy and practice of failing to pay employees all their vested vacation 23 wages owed at the time of termination. Thus, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 24 Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 227.3.

25 J. Failure to Calculate and Pay Employees Sick Leave

26 41. Labor Code § 246(l) allows an employer to calculate paid sick leave using three (3) 27 methods. For non-exempt employees, paid sick time shall be calculated either (1) in the same 28 manner as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time,

1 whether or not the employee actually works overtime in that workweek or (2) by dividing the 2 employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours 3 worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. Labor Code § 246(l)(1)-(2).
4 Paid sick time for exempt employees shall be calculated in the same manner as the employer 5 calculates wages for other forms of paid leave time. Labor Code § 246(l)(3). As their policies and 6 practices, Defendants failed to pay all sick leave and failed to pay sick leave at the proper rate.
7 Thus, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for applicable civil penalties 8 provided for in the Labor Code, including sections 248.5 and 246(l).

9 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the 11 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2698, et seq.)

12 42. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges all preceding paragraphs as though 13 fully set forth herein.

14 43. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 15 State of California and the applicable IWC Orders.

16 44. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action 17 to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, 18 any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor 19 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, 20 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a 21 civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself and other current or former 22 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3."

23 45. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor 24 Code § 2699.3. On July 26, 2022, he gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and 25 Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific 26 provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiff and current and former 27 Aggrieved Employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiff also paid 28 the filing fee on July 26, 2022. Plaintiff's PAGA case number is LWDA-CM-897818-22 (Jaime

1 Farias v. Labor Resource Group, Inc., et al.). On June 20, 2024, Plaintiff submitted his Amended 2 written notice by online filing to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and 3 by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have 4 violated against Plaintiff and current and former Aggrieved Employees, including the facts and 5 theories to support the violations.

6 46. The statute of limitations is tolled while a plaintiff exhausts his or her administrative 7 remedies with California’s LWDA prior to suit, which is required by the statute. (See Labor Code 8 § 2699.3(d).)

9 47. Sixty-five (65) days has elapsed since Plaintiff provided his amended notice, but the 10 LWDA has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants’ Labor Code violations discussed 11 in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties under Labor 12 Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code described in this Complaint.
13 These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 14 226.3, 248.5, 246, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2).

15 48. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to an award 16 of civil penalties on behalf of the State of California and similarly Aggrieved Employees of 17 Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown 18 according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

19 49. In addition, Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs pursuant 20 to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, “Any employee who prevails in any action shall be 21 entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs.”

22 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

23 Plaintiff, on behalf of all similarly aggrieved employees, prays for relief and judgment 24 against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

25 1. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California 26 Labor Code by failing to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), 27 failing to provide meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, failing to pay all earned 28 wages twice per month, failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods,

1 failing to timely pay final wages, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, failing to pay all 2 vested vacation wages upon termination, failing to pay all sick leave and at the proper rate, and 3 failing to indemnify for necessary expenditures;

4 2. An award of civil penalties on behalf of himself and all similarly aggrieved 5 employees pursuant to PAGA;

6 3. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed;

7 4. Attorneys' fees and costs reasonably incurred;

8 5. Injunctive and declaratory relief to the extent allowed by PAGA; and,

9 6. Such other and further relief that the Court deems proper.
