Attorneys for Plaintiff

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF SACRAMENTO

ROGELIO VALENCIA, individually, and on behalf of aggrieved employees pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA");

Plaintiff,

v.

AMERICAN PASTEURIZATION
COMPANY, LLC, a Wisconsin limited liability company; and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive;

Defendants.

Case No.:

COMPLAINT FOR CIVIL PENALTIES
FOR VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE
§ 2698, et seq. (PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 2004)

1 Plaintiff Rogelio Valencia (“Plaintiff”) hereby submits this Complaint against Defendants
2 American Pasteurization Company, LLC and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive (collectively, 3 “Defendants”), individually and on behalf of other current and former aggrieved employees of 4 Defendants for penalties as follows:

5 INTRODUCTION

6 1. This representative action is brought pursuant to Labor Code § 2698, et
7 seq. (the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”)) for Defendants’ violations of Labor
8 Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a)-(c), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a),
9 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage
10 Orders.

11 2. This Complaint challenges Defendants’ systemic illegal employment
12 practices resulting in violations of the stated provisions of the Labor Code against the identified 13 group of employees.

14 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges Defendants jointly 15 and severally acted intentionally and with deliberate indifference and conscious disregard to the 16 rights of all employees in (1) failing to pay all meal period wages and rest break wages, (2) failing
17 to properly calculate and pay all minimum and overtime wages, (3) failing to provide accurate
18 wage statements, (4) failing to pay all wages due and owing during employment and upon 19 termination of employment, (5) failing to provide paid sick leave, (6) failing to keep payroll
20 records showing hours worked daily and wages paid to employees in a central location, (7) failing
21 to reimburse all necessary business expenses, and (8) failing to timely produce Plaintiff’s payroll
22 records and personnel file.

23 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24 4. This action is brought pursuant to PAGA. The civil penalties sought by 25 Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established
26 according to proof at trial.

27 ///

28 ///

5. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the Superior Court original jurisdiction in all causes except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

6. This Court has jurisdiction over the violations of PAGA and Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a)-(c), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 2800 and 2802.

7. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information and belief, each party has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of California law so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

8. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, the named Defendants transact business and/or have offices in this county, and the acts and omissions alleged herein took place in this county. Moreover, this action is brought on behalf of the State of California as a private attorney general and has jurisdiction in this venue.

PARTIES

9. Plaintiff Rogelio Valencia is an individual residing in the State of California. Plaintiff was formerly employed by Defendants.

10. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants are licensed to do business and actually doing business in the State of California, including the County of Sacramento.

1 11. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual,
2 partner or corporate, of Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, and for that
3 reason, said Defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff prays for leave to 4 amend this complaint when the true names and capacities are known. Plaintiff is informed and 5 believes and thereon alleges that each of Defendants designated as a DOE was responsible in 6 some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Plaintiff and other current and 7 former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries
8 complained of herein.

9 12. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, were agents,
10 partners, joint venturers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-
11 conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the 12 course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, representatives,
13 servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and assigns, and that all acts or omissions
14 alleged herein were duly committed with ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement,
15 authorization and consent of each Defendant designated herein.

16 13. As such, and based upon all the facts and circumstances incident to 17 Defendants' business in California, Defendants are subject to PAGA and Labor Code §§ 201,
18 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a)-(c), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 19 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 2800 and 2802.

20 CAUSE OF ACTION

21 VIOLATION OF PAGA

22 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS BY PLAINTIFF)

23 14. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 13
24 as though fully set forth herein.

25 ///

26 ///

27 ///

1 15. PAGA expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor
2 Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA, or any of its 3 departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the 4 California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved
5 employee on behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

6 16. On July 26, 2022, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and 7 Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code he contends were violated, and the 8 theories supporting his contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference
9 is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff believes that on or about September 29,
10 2022, the sixty-five (65) days' notice period expired as to all Defendants, and the LWDA did not 11 take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Thus, Plaintiff exhausted his administrative 12 remedies.

13 17. Plaintiff and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are 14 "aggrieved employees" as defined by California Labor Code § 2699(c) in that they are all current 15 or former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants who worked for Defendants or 16 were subjected to Defendants' illegal conduct at any time during the period from July 26, 2021,
17 to the present, and one or more of the alleged violations was committed against them.

18 Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages

19 18. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their 20 non-exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours
21 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek, pursuant to the 22 mandate of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

23 19. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate aggrieved
24 current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay all minimum
25 wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 Failure to Provide Paid Sick Leave

2 20. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to provide
3 employees with paid sick leave of not less than one (1) hour per every thirty (30) hours worked,
4 pursuant to California Labor Code § 246.

5 21. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay paid sick
6 leave at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee
7 uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including 8 overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 9 ninety (90) days of employment, pursuant to California Labor Code § 246(l).

10 22. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide aggrieved current
11 and former employees with compliant paid sick leave of one (1) hour worked per every thirty (30)
12 hours worked, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at the proper rate of pay.

13 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

14 23. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512,
15 Defendants were required to authorize and permit their non-exempt employees to take a 16 10-minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof, and were further
17 required to provide their non-exempt employees with a 30-minute meal period for every five (5)
18 hours worked.

19 24. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide aggrieved current
20 and former employees with legally-mandated meal periods and rest breaks and failed to pay
21 proper compensation for this failure.

22 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

23 25. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their 24 employees within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code § 204.

25 26. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay aggrieved current and 26 former employees all wages due and owing them within the required time period.

27 ///

28 ///

1 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

2 27. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their
3 employees all wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to California
4 Labor Code §§ 201 to 204.

5 28. As a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged above,
6 Defendants failed to pay aggrieved former employees their final wages pursuant to Labor Code
7 §§ 201 to 204 and accordingly owe waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

8 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

9 29. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate
10 records regarding their California employees pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code §§ 226 and 11 1174.

12 30. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants
13 failed to keep accurate records regarding aggrieved current and former employees. For example,
14 Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding aggrieved
15 current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours worked, all deductions, net wages
16 earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

17 Failure to Keep Complete and Accurate Payroll Records

18 31. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep, at a central 19 location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll
20 records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate
21 unit earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants
22 or establishments, pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174(d).

23 32. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to keep accurate and complete 24 payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid to current and former 25 aggrieved employees.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

2 33. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse its 3 employees for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct
4 consequences of the discharge or his or her duties pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code §§ 2800
5 and 2802.

6 34. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay aggrieved current and
7 former employees all business expenses incurred and owing them within the required time period.

8 Failure to Timely Produce Payroll Records and Personnel File

9 35. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to produce their 10 employees' payroll records upon an employee's request within 21 calendar days pursuant to 11 Labor Code §§ 226(a) and (b). Moreover, Defendants were required to produce their employees'
12 personnel files upon an employee's request within 30 calendar days pursuant to California Labor
13 Code § 1198.5.

14 36. On June 24, 2022, Plaintiff requested his payroll records and personnel file
15 from Defendant American Pasteurization Company, LLC. Defendants failed to produce the 16 requested documents by their respective statutory deadlines of July 15, 2022, and July 24, 2022.

17 Penalties

18 37. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699, Plaintiff, individually, and on 19 behalf of current and former aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover from 20 Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant,
21 including but not limited to:

- 22 a. Penalties under California Labor Code § 2699 in the amount of one 23 hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the 24 initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved
25 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

- b. Penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 § 11040 in the amount of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- c. Penalties under California Labor Code § 210 in addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the California Labor Code in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- d. Penalties under Labor Code § 1197.1 in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- e. Any and all additional penalties as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes; and
- f. Attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code §§ 210, 1194, and 2699, and any other applicable statute.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually and as a representative of current and former aggrieved employees pursuant to PAGA, prays for judgment as follows:

1. Upon the Cause of Action, for civil penalties pursuant to statute as set forth in Labor Code § 2698, et seq., for Defendants' violations of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a)-(c), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 2800 and 2802;
2. Upon the Cause of Action, for costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code §§ 210, 218.5, 1194, 1198.5 and 2699, and any other applicable statute; and

3. For such other and further relief the court may deem just and proper.

Re: AMERICAN PASTEURIZATION COMPANY, LLC

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Rogelio Valencia against American Pasteurization Company, LLC (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer and managing agent, DOES 1-10 as an "Employer" or person acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 11-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "APC").

Mr. Valencia is pursuing his California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Mr. Valencia may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

American Pasteurization Company, LLC is a Wisconsin limited liability company located at 2675 N. Mayfair Road #680, Wauwatosa, Wisconsin 53226.

APC employed Mr. Valencia as an hourly-paid non-exempt Maintenance Technician during the relevant time period in the State of California. APC directly controlled the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Mr. Valencia and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

The "aggrieved employees" that Mr. Valencia may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through a staffing agency) of APC within the State of California.

¹ Mr. Valencia does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Mr. Valencia will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Mr. Valencia is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Mr. Valencia and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

APC failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly provide or compensate minimum and overtime wages and for meal and rest breaks, failed to issue compliant wage statements and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in other Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services, 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751 (2018), an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Mr. Valencia has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all the aggrieved employees at APC, regardless of their classification, job title, location, or whether they were hired directly or through a staffing agency.

APC has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a)-(c), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 2800, 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay time-and-a-half, or double-time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. APC failed to compensate aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks. APC also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses and incentives in aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, APC failed to pay aggrieved employees with paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, APC routinely required aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with APC's policies and expectations, and meet production quotas. APC failed to provide coverage to aggrieved employees so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally mandated meal and rest breaks. Lastly, APC also failed to authorize and permit aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, APC failed to compensate aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay.

California Labor Code section 551 states "[e]very person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven." Section 552 further states "[n]o employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven." APC required aggrieved employees to work seven days in a row or more without one day's rest.

California Labor Code section 432.5 states "[n]o employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law." APC required aggrieved employees to execute arbitration agreements as a condition of employment despite knowing that such agreements are prohibited under Labor Code section 432.6.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, APC failed to pay aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 203 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, APC failed to pay aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, APC did not provide aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from APC were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by aggrieved employees (4) all deductions for aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 226(b) and (c) requires an employer to produce an employee's payroll records upon request within 21 calendar days. California Labor Code section 1198.5 requires an employer to produce an employee's personnel file upon request within 30 calendar days. On June 24, 2022, Mr. Valencia requested his payroll records and personnel file from APC. APC's deadlines to produce the requested documents were July 15 and July 24, 2022, respectively. To date, APC has yet to produce Mr. Valencia's payroll records and personnel file.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code sections 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than two years. During the relevant time period, APC failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid, to aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, APC did not provide aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by APC, including for purchasing tools and equipment they were required to use and wear while working.

We believe that Mr. Valencia and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a)-(b), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 2800, 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in questions and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Mr. Valencia will seek these penalties on his own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of APC within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.

If you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us. Thank you for your attention to this matter and the noble cause you advance each and every day.

Very truly yours,
