DECLARATION OF HELENE MAYER

I, Helene Mayer, hereby declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of California. I am a member of Lawyers for Justice, PC, attorneys of record for Plaintiff Felissia Fry (“Plaintiff”) and the Class in the above-captioned matter. The facts set forth in this declaration are within my personal knowledge or based on information and belief, and, if called as a witness, I could and would competently testify as follows.

PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT

2. On August 20, 2025, in Department C-64 of the above-entitled Court, the Honorable Loren G. WORK PERFORMED BY CLASS COUNSEL

5. Several attorneys at Lawyers for Justice, PC have been actively performing work in this matter since prior to its commencement on August 22, 2022.

6. Before initiating the case, Lawyers for Justice, PC investigated and researched the facts and circumstances underlying the pertinent factual and legal issues and applicable law. This required thorough discussions and interviews between attorneys at Lawyers for Justice, PC and Plaintiff and research into the various legal issues involved in the case, namely, the current state of the law as it applied to class certification, representative adjudication, and trial; the law relating to class certification, manageability, off-the-clock theory, regular rate, meal and rest periods, expense reimbursements, recordkeeping and wage statement requirements, representative Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) claims and penalties, and wage-and-hour law and enforcement, Plaintiff’s claims and allegations, and potential defenses. After conducting an initial investigation, Lawyers for Justice, PC determined that the claims of Plaintiff were well-suited for class-wide and representative adjudication, owing to what appeared to be a common course of conduct affecting a similarly situated group of current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendant in California, who were not properly compensated for, inter alia, all hours worked, non-compliant meal and rest periods, and business expenses.

7. Class Counsel conducted significant informal discovery and investigation into the facts of the case, to assess the veracity, strength, and scope of the claims, and were preparing the case for class certification and trial, prior to reaching the Settlement. The Parties exchanged a large volume of information, documents, and data throughout the course of the litigation and in connection with the mediation and settlement negotiations. The volume of data and documents that Class Counsel reviewed and analyzed included, and were not limited to: a sampling of Class Members’ time and payroll data, Plaintiff’s personnel records, Defendant’s Handbooks, earning statements, company policy acknowledgements (e.g., Addendum to Merakey Employee Handbook of Personnel Policies and PolicySTAT, Employee Handbook and PolicyStat Addendum Acknowledgment Form), job descriptions, Defendant’s operations and employment practices, policies, and procedures (Sick Leave: California-Specific Addendum, Employee Timecards and e-Time Requirements Policy, Timekeeping Policy, Missed Punch Form, Lunch Time Policy, Meal and Break Policy, Break Waiver, Business Expense Reimbursement), among other information and documents. Class Counsel had the opportunity to interview and obtain information from Plaintiff, Class Members, PAGA Group Members and/or percipient witnesses, and reviewed and analyzed a volume of information, data, and documents obtained from Plaintiff, Defendant, and other sources. Class Counsel developed liability, damages, violation, and penalties valuation models in the course of litigation and in connection with the mediation and settlement negotiations, and met and conferred with Defendant's counsel on numerous occasions, e.g., to discuss issues relating to the pleadings, case management, informal discovery, and the production of information, documents, and data in the course of litigation and in connection with mediation and settlement negotiations, and settlement. Other work performed by Class Counsel included, and was not limited to, case strategy and analysis; researching, drafting, reviewing, and/or revising the pleadings, the mediation briefing and supporting materials, and settlement documents; and preparing for and attending court proceedings, mediation, and settlement negotiations, among other tasks.

8. As outlined herein, the Parties have conducted significant investigation and informal discovery during the course of litigating this matter, mediation, and extensive settlement negotiations. Class Counsel analyzed a large volume of information, documents, and data obtained from Plaintiff, Defendant, and other sources that provided a critical understanding of the nature of the work performed by the Class Members and PAGA Group Members, as well as Defendant's organizational structure and its operations and employment policies, practices, and procedures. The information, documents, and data were used in analyzing liability, damages, penalties, and other valuation issues in connection with all phases of the litigation, and ultimately, in connection with the mediation and settlement negotiations process. Class Counsel also performed significant research into the applicable law, which is evolving as it relates to class certification, manageability, off-the-clock theory, meal and rest periods, representative PAGA claims and penalties, wage-and-hour enforcement, regular rate, Plaintiff's claims and allegations,

1 and Defendant's defenses thereto, as well as facts discovered.

2 9. After conducting significant investigation of the facts and law during the 3 prosecution of this matter, counsel for the Parties engaged in extensive settlement negotiations to 4 try to resolve the case. These efforts included participating in a mediation session conducted by 5 Deborah C. Saxe, Esq., a well-regarded mediator experienced in handling complex labor and 6 employment matters. During all settlement discussions, the Parties conducted their negotiations
7 at arm's length in an adversarial position. In the course of the mediation and settlement
8 negotiations, the Parties exchanged documents and data, and discussed various aspects of the 9 case, including and not limited to, the risks and delays of further litigation, the risks and 10 expenses to the Parties of proceeding with class certification, representative adjudication, and 11 trial; the law relating to class certification, manageability, off-the-clock theory, regular rates of 12 pay, meal and rest periods, expense reimbursements, recordkeeping and wage statement
13 requirements, representative PAGA claims and penalties, and wage-and-hour law and 14 enforcement; Plaintiff's claims and allegations, and Defendant's defenses thereto, as well as the 15 evidence produced and analyzed; and the possibility of appeals, among other things. Arriving at 16 a settlement that was acceptable to the Parties was not easy. Defendant contended that 17 individualized questions of fact predominate over any common issues, and these issues would 18 pose challenges to class certification and representative adjudication. Defendant and its counsel
19 felt strongly about Defendant's ability to avoid class certification and prevail on the merits and,
20 while Plaintiff and Class Counsel believed that they would be able to obtain class certification
21 and prevail at trial. With the aid of the mediator's evaluation, the Parties ultimately agreed that 22 this matter was well-suited for settlement given the legal issues relating to Plaintiff's principal 23 claims, as well as the costs and risks to the Parties that would attend further litigation. These 24 risks of further litigation include, and are not limited to, a determination that the claims are 25 unsuitable for class treatment and/or representative adjudication, class de-certification after 26 certification of a class, allowing a jury to decide the claims asserted in this matter, and the real 27 possibility of no monetary recovery after years of litigation.

28 ///

10. The Settlement Administrator confirmed that there were 42,575 Workweeks during the Class Period, therefore the Workweeks threshold provided in Paragraph 38 of the Settlement Agreement was exceeded by 2,975 Workweeks (42,575 – 39,600), and the Gross Settlement Amount was escalated by 8.26% resulting in the escalated Gross Settlement Amount of $1,948,750.00.

11. By way of the accompanying Motion for Fees, and consistent with the Settlement Agreement, Class Counsel seeks attorneys' fees in the amount of $682,062.50, which is thirty-five percent (35%) of the Escalated Gross Settlement Amount of $1,948,750.00. Pursuant to the contingency-fee agreement entered into by and between Plaintiff and Class Counsel, Plaintiff has agreed to a contingency fee of at least thirty-five percent (35%) of the recovery.

12. The attorneys' fees sought are commensurate with: (1) the risk that Class Counsel took in commencing the case; (2) the time, effort, and expense that Class Counsel dedicated to the case; (3) the skill and determination that Class Counsel has shown; (4) the results that Class Counsel has achieved throughout the litigation; (5) the value of the settlement that Class Counsel has achieved in this matter; and (6) the other cases that Class Counsel has turned down in order to devote their time and efforts to this case. The nature of the work performed, skill exercised, and the outcome in this matter which involves an outstanding monetary recovery involving an Escalated Gross Settlement Amount of $1,948,750.00 (with a Net Settlement Amount of approximately at least $1,086,381.23 to be paid to Settlement Class Members (with gross Individual Settlement Payments averaging approximately more than $981.37) and payment of $112,500.00 to the State of California)—support the percentage fee sought and the application of a lodestar multiplier.

13. I am aware that common and acceptable rates for contingency representation in wage and hour class action and representative action litigation are normally in the range from 33.3% to 50%.

14. While not necessarily required to be demonstrated because a percentage fee is proper for this settlement, it should be noted that Class Counsel has incurred many hours of work in connection with prosecuting this matter such that the award of attorneys' fees is also justified under a lodestar analysis. Attorneys at Lawyers for Justice, PC have spent a total of 345.20 hours performing tasks and obtaining recovery in this matter. Attached hereto as “EXHIBIT 1” is an Attorney Task and Time Chart that sets forth in detail the nature of the legal services provided by attorneys at Lawyers for Justice, PC and the time incurred by them in performing those services. These hours include work done by several attorneys at Lawyers for Justice, PC. Also, separate from the hours referenced herein and in the chart, Lawyers for Justice, PC had litigation support personnel actively engaged in assisting with the prosecution of this matter.

15. The work performed in this particular matter, the background of Lawyers for Justice, PC, as well as the individual backgrounds, training, and experience of the attorneys who worked on this matter, in litigating complex wage-and-hour actions, and in particular, employment class action and representative action cases, support a reasonable blended hourly rate of compensation of at least $1,000 per hour for work performed by Lawyers for Justice, PC. Lawyers for Justice, PC has been awarded attorneys’ fees, compensating the firm at the rate of at least $1,000 per hour for legal services performed, by courts granting approval of settlements in other wage-and-hour class action and/or representative action cases: final approval of the class and representative action settlement in Roel Galicia vs. Jif-Pak Manufacturing, LLC (San Diego Superior Court Case No. 37-2020-00005233-CU-OE-CTL before the Honorable Kenneth J. Medel) was granted on November 17, 2023, and the award of attorneys’ fees involved compensation at the blended rate of $1,000 per hour; and final approval of the class and representative action settlement in Latisha Anquetette Johnson vs. Americare Health and Retirement, Inc. (San Diego Superior Court Case No. 37-2022-0005 1286-CU-OE-CTL before the Honorable Joel R. Wohlfeil) was granted on July 12, 2024, and the award of attorneys’ fees involved compensation at the blended rate of $1,000 per hour.
