1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Pursuant to California Rules of Court 3.769 (d) and (e), Plaintiff Patricia Cruz (“Plaintiff”)
3 requests that the Court grant preliminary approval of a class action settlement of wage and hour claims,
4 including a claim under the California Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code
5 §§ 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), entered into with Defendant Wellnest Emotional Health & Wellness 6 (“Defendant”). The Settlement Agreement will release claims asserted in this action on behalf of 7 approximately 270 persons currently or formerly employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee in 8 the State of California during the Class Period of July 22, 2018 to July 1, 2024 (the “Class”). The basic 9 terms of the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Class Notice (“Settlement Agreement” 10 or “Settlement”)¹ provide for the following:

- 11 (1) A non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of $615,000.00 allocated to 12 approximately 270 Class Members on a pro rata basis according to the number of 13 weeks each Class Member worked during the Class Period; 14 (2) An award of up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently 15 $205,000.00) and up to $20,000.00 in reimbursement of costs to Plaintiff’s 16 Counsel for services rendered as counsel on this matter; 17 (3) Service Payment of up to $10,000.00 to the Named Plaintiff; 18 (4) Settlement Administration fees and costs of up to $5,950.00; and 19 (5) Allocations of $30,000 for resolution of civil penalties under PAGA. Seventy-five 20 percent (75%) of this payment will be paid to the California Labor and Workforce 21 Development Agency (“LWDA Payment”), and twenty-five percent (25%) will be 22 paid to Class Members who worked for Defendant during the PAGA Period (the 23 “Aggrieved Employees”).

24 With each Class Member allocated an average recovery of approximately $1,274 from the Net 25

26 ¹ A true and correct copy of the fully-executed “Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and 27 Class Notice” is attached as Exhibit 1 to the Declaration of Kristy R. Connolly in Support of Plaintiff’s 28 Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Connolly Decl.”), filed concurrently herewith. Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms in this Motion will be used as such terms are defined and used in the Settlement.

1 Settlement Amount, the Settlement satisfies the criteria for preliminary approval and falls well within 2 the range of reasonableness given the risks and costs of continued litigation. The Settlement was reached 3 through informed, arms-length bargaining at and after mediation between experienced attorneys. As 4 such, Plaintiff requests that the Court grant preliminary approval of the Settlement, conditionally certify
5 the Class for settlement purposes only, appoint Plaintiff as the Class Representative, appoint Plaintiff's 6 Counsel as Class Counsel, appoint ILYM Group, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator, authorize the 7 Settlement Administrator to send notice of the Settlement, and set a final approval hearing date.

8 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION

9 On July 22, 2022, Plaintiff commenced this Action by filing a Complaint alleging causes of action 10 against Defendant for (1) failure to pay minimum wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to 11 provide meal periods; (4) failure to permit rest breaks; (5) failure to reimburse business expenses; (6) 12 failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to pay wages timely during employment; 13 (8) failure to pay all wages due upon separation of employment; and (9) violation of Business and 14 Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. Connolly Decl., ¶ 3.

15 On July 22, 2022, Plaintiff's counsel also provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendant 16 regarding Defendant's alleged Labor Code violations, as required by Labor Code section 2699.3(a).
17 Connolly Decl., ¶ 4, Ex. 3. The LWDA did not respond to this notice, indicating it did not intend to 18 investigate, thus allowing Plaintiff to bring a PAGA claim against Defendant. Id. Therefore, on November 19 15, 2022, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint alleging an additional cause of action under PAGA.
20 Id. Plaintiff also submitted a conformed copy of the First Amended Complaint on the LWDA. Id.; Exhibit 21 4.

22 Plaintiff initially served Defendant with written discovery, seeking, inter alia, contact information 23 for Defendant's employees, their time and pay records, and policy documents. Connolly Decl., ¶ 5. After 24 initial discussions about the case, the Parties agreed to early mediation with an informal exchange of 25 discovery. Id. To this end, Defendant informally produced Plaintiff's personnel file, all putative class 26 member's time and pay records, all handbooks in effect during the relevant liability period, and data 27 regarding the class demographics, such as the list of class members' dates of employment. Id.

28 On December 6, 2023, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation presided over by Jeffrey

Owensby, a respected wage and hour mediator. Connolly Decl., ¶ 6. The Parties did not settle at mediation, but continued to engage in settlement discussions, which ultimately led to this agreement to settle the Action. Id. The Parties spent the next few months negotiating the terms of the Settlement Agreement, which was finalized in May of 2025. Id. A copy of the Parties' Settlement Agreement, which shows revisions in redline from the Los Angeles Model Settlement Agreement, is attached to the Connolly Decl. as Exhibit 3.

On June 4, 2024, Plaintiff submitted the Settlement and this Motion to the LWDA pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(1)(2). Connolly Decl., ¶ 7, Exhibit 5.

III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT

A. Terms of Settlement

Plaintiff and Defendant agreed to settle the claims alleged in this Action in exchange for a Gross Settlement Amount of $615,000. Settlement Agreement, § 3.1. The Gross Settlement Amount will be used to make payments for the following: (1) Individual Settlement Payments to Participating Class Members; (2) attorneys' fees to Class Counsel of up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount; (3) reimbursement of Class Counsel's litigation costs of up to $20,000; (4) a Service Payment to Plaintiff of up to $10,000; (5) Settlement Administration fees and costs of $5,9500; and (6) an allocation of $30,000 in civil penalties, of which $22,500 will be paid to the LWDA pursuant to PAGA. Id. at §§ 3.2.1 – 3.2.5.

Defendant will have 60 days from the date the Court grants final approval and judgment is final to send the Gross Settlement Amount, and the amount necessary to satisfy all payroll taxes, to the Settlement Administrator. Settlement Agreement, § 4.3. Class Members' Individual Settlement Payments will be distributed within 14 days of receipt of the funds, without the need for Class Members to submit a claim form to participate in the Settlement. Id. at §§ 4.4, 3.1. Individual Settlement Payments will be calculated by comparing the total Qualifying Workweeks for the Class to each individual Class Member's Qualifying Workweeks. Id. at § 3.2.4. The Individual Settlement Payments to Class Members will be allocated for tax purposes as follows: 20% to wages; 80% to penalties and interest. Id. at § 3.2.4.1. No portion of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant. Id. at § 3.1. Funds from uncashed or undeliverable checks will be tendered by the Settlement Administrator to the State Controller

1 Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member for whom the funds are designated. Id. at § 2 4.4.3.

3 The Settlement Administrator will calculate the actual estimated recovery to include in each Class
4 Member's Class Notice and will provide the estimated low, high, and average range of recovery at final 5 approval. Id. at § 7.4.2; Settlement Agreement, Ex. A. The Class Notice will only be provided in 6 English; Defendant communicated with its employees in English, therefore the Parties agreed that 7 English-only notice will be sufficient. See Settlement Agreement, § 1.11; Connolly Decl., ¶ 38. Once the 8 Court grants final approval and enters judgment, Plaintiff will provide Notice of Entry of Judgment, which 9 the Settlement Administrator will post on its website. Id. at § 7.8.1.

10 B. Proposed Opt-Out and Objection Process

11 Once the Court grants preliminary approval, Defendant will have 15 days to deliver the Class Data 12 to the Settlement Administrator. Settlement Agreement, § 4.2. The Settlement Administrator will then 13 have 14 days to send Class Members the Class Notice by first-class mail after checking for updated 14 addresses through the National Change of Address database. Id. at § 7.4.2. The Class Notice provides 15 information regarding the nature of the lawsuit, a summary of the substance of the settlement terms, the 16 formula for calculating Individual Settlement Payments, the individual's estimated payout, a statement 17 that Class Members who take no action will release their claims and receive settlement checks, 18 instructions regarding how to dispute the calculations, instructions regarding how to request exclusion
19 or object to the Settlement, the date for the final approval hearing, the amounts sought for attorneys' 20 fees and costs, the Settlement Administration Costs, the Class Representative's Service Payment, and 21 the PAGA allocation. See Settlement Agreement, Ex. A.

22 The Class Notice provides instructions for Class Members who choose to exclude themselves 23 from the Settlement. See Settlement Agreement § 7.5.1; Ex. A. To opt out, Class Members are instructed 24 to submit a Request for Exclusion to the Settlement Administrator by a specified date (60 days after the 25 date of mailing of the Class Notice). See Settlement Agreement, Ex. A at pp. 1, 6. Class Members do not 26 need to submit a claim form to participate in the Settlement. Id. at p. 2. Class Members are informed of 27 how they can object to the Settlement, and the Class Notice informs Class Members of the date, time, and 28 location of the final fairness and approval hearing so that they can appear in person. Id. at pp. 2, 8. The

1 Class Notice also informs Class Members to check the Administrator's website or contact Class Counsel
2 to verify the date and time of the Final Approval Hearing. Id. at p. 8. Accordingly, the content of the Class 3 Notice complies with the requirements of California Rules of Court Rule 3.766(d).

4 If Class Notice packets are returned as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator will perform a 5 skip-trace or other search, and re-mail the Class Notice with an extended response deadline to opt out or 6 object, of 14 days from the original deadline. Settlement Agreement, § 7.4.4. The initial 60-day notice
7 period and extension process ensures the notice program provides due process by giving Class Members 8 enough time to determine whether they want to participate in the Settlement. This means of notice is 9 reasonably calculated to apprise Class Members of the pendency of the action. See California Rules of 10 Court Rule 3.766 (d)-(f).

11 C. Proposed Release

12 The release to be given by Class Members is limited to Defendant and its former and present 13 directors, officers, shareholders, owners, members, attorneys, insurers, predecessors, successors, 14 assigns subsidiaries and affiliates. (the “Released Parties”). Settlement Agreement, § 1.40. Under the 15 proposed release, Class Members who do not exclude themselves from the Settlement will be deemed 16 to have released the Released Parties from all claims arising during the Class Period that were alleged, 17 or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the Operative Complaint. Id. at § 18 5.2. Aggrieved Employees will release the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA Penalties arising 19 during the PAGA Period that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts 20 stated in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notice, regardless of whether they opted-out of the 21 class portion of the Settlement. Id. at §§ 5.3, 7.5.4. Only Plaintiff will agree to a general release of any 22 and all claims, whether known or unknown, which exist or may exist on her behalf as of the date of the 23 Settlement, and a waiver of Civil Code section 1542. Id. at § 5.1.

24 IV. LEGAL ARGUMENTS SUPPORTING PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

25 A. Provisional Certification of the Class is Appropriate

26 Class certification is appropriate when there exists (1) an ascertainable and sufficiently numerous 27 class, (2) a well-defined community of interest among class members, and (3) when certification would 28

1 be a fair and efficient means of adjudicating the action, rendering class litigation superior to alternative 2 means. See Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004, 1021 (2012).

3 1. The Proposed Class is Numerous and Ascertainable

4 Whether a class is “ascertainable” is “determined by examining (1) the class definition, (2) the 5 size of the class, and (3) the means available for identifying class members.” Reyes v. Bd. of Supervisors, 6 196 Cal. App. 3d 1263, 1271 (1987). Here, the Class consists of all current and former non-exempt 7 employees who are or were employed by Defendant in California at any time during the Class Period.
8 Settlement Agreement, § 1.5. Defendant’s records show the Class consists of at least 270 individuals, 9 making joinder of all Class Members impracticable. Connolly Decl., ¶ 8. Further, the Class is readily 10 ascertainable from Defendant’s business records because all Class Members are current or former 11 employees of Defendant. Id.

12 2. A Well-Defined Community of Interest Exists Among Class Members

13 “[T]he ‘community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common 14 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) 15 class representatives who can adequately represent the class.’” Fireside Bank v. Superior Court, 40 Cal.
16 4th 1069, 1089 (2007) (quoting Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc., 29 Cal. 3d 462, 470 (1981)).

17 a. Common Questions Predominate

18 To assess whether common questions predominate, courts focus on whether the theories of 19 recovery advanced are likely to prove amenable to class treatment. See Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v.
20 Superior Court, 34 Cal. 4th 319, 327 (2004). In other words, courts determine whether the elements 21 necessary to establish liability are susceptible of common proof, even if the class members must 22 individually prove their damages. Brinker, supra, 53 Cal. 4th at 1021-1022, 1024.

23 Plaintiff alleged that Defendant maintained uniform employment policies and/or practices that 24 illegally deprived Class Members of lawful wages, meal periods, rest breaks, accurate wage statements, 25 and waiting time pay. Connolly Decl., ¶ 9. Plaintiff’s allegations present common legal and factual 26 questions of, inter alia, whether Defendant applied the same scheduling, timekeeping, minimum and 27 overtime pay, meal period, and rest break policies to all Class Members; whether these policies and 28 practices resulted in Labor Code violations; whether Defendant’s conduct was intentional; and whether

1 Class Members are entitled to penalties. Id. These common questions could be resolved using Class
2 Members' schedules, time punches, and payroll records, Defendant's corporate representative's 3 testimony, written communications between Defendant and Class Members, and Class Member 4 declarations. Id. Thus, the Court can and should exercise its discretion to grant conditional class 5 certification for settlement purposes.

6 b. Plaintiff's Claims are Typical of the Class Claims

7 The typicality requirement is satisfied when the legal theories and facts supporting Plaintiff's 8 claims are substantially similar to other class members. See Classen v. Weller, 145 Cal. App. 3d 27, 46 9 (1983). Here, Plaintiff alleges that she and other Class Members were employed by Defendant and 10 injured by Defendant's common wage and hour policies and practices, including Defendant's 11 scheduling, timekeeping, compensation, meal period, and rest break practices and policies. Connolly 12 Decl., ¶ 10; See also Declaration of Patricia Cruz ("Cruz Decl."). Through documents and information 13 exchanged in discovery, including production of Class Members' time and payroll records by 14 Defendant, Plaintiff confirmed that these common policies and practices similarly affected Plaintiff and 15 the Class. Connolly Decl., ¶ 10. Thus, Plaintiff's claims arise from the same employment practices and 16 are based on the same legal theories as those applicable to other Class Members, as further explained in 17 Plaintiff's exposure analysis below.

18 c. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel Will Adequately Represent the Interests of 19 the Proposed Class

20 Certification requires adequacy of both the proposed class representative(s) and proposed class 21 counsel. With respect to the class representative, a plaintiff must adequately represent and protect the 22 interests of other members of the class and demonstrate that his or her claim is not inconsistent with the 23 claims of other members of the class. See Capitol People First v. State Dep't of Developmental Servs., 24 155 Cal. App. 4th 676, 696-697 (2007). Here, Plaintiff's interests are coextensive with the interests of 25 the Class. See Cruz Decl. Plaintiff also demonstrated an ability to advocate for the interests of the Class 26 by litigating this action, gathering documents and information, being available on the day of mediation 27 to answer questions, meeting with her attorneys on several occasions to understand the claims and 28 theories of liability at issue, assisting attorneys in preparing for mediation, reviewing the proposed

1 settlement agreement to understand its legal effect, and obtaining a fair settlement on behalf of Class
2 Members who stand to recover a substantial amount under the Settlement. Connolly Decl., ¶ 19.

3 Likewise, Aegis Law Firm, PC has expended considerable time and effort on this case and will 4 continue to do so through final approval. See generally, Connolly Decl. Accordingly, Plaintiff should 5 be appointed Class Representative, and Plaintiff's Counsel should be appointed Class Counsel

6 3. A Class Action is Superior to a Multitude of Individual Lawsuits

7 Class treatment is superior to other methods of adjudication when the probability is small that 8 each class member will come forward to prove his or her claim and when the class approach would deter 9 and redress the alleged wrongdoing. See Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal. 4th 429, 435, 446 (2000); 10 Ghazaryan v. Diva Limousine, Ltd., 169 Cal. App. 4th 1524, 1537-1538 (2008). Here, none of the other 11 270 Class Members had shown any interest in bearing the expense and burden of litigating their own 12 claims. Connolly Decl. ¶ 21. Thus, a class action is the superior method for seeking relief.

13 B. The Settlement Meets the Standards for Preliminary Approval

14 Preliminary approval is warranted if the settlement falls within a "reasonable range." See North 15 County Contractor's Ass'n., Inc. v. Touchstone Ins. Servs., 27 Cal. App. 4th 1085, 1089-90 (1994);
16 Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions, § 11.26 (4th ed. 2002). In reviewing the fairness of a 17 class action settlement, due regard should be given to what is "otherwise a private consensual 18 agreement between the parties." Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 1380, 1389 19 (2010). The inquiry "must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the 20 agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, 21 and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned." Id.

22 Reasonableness and fairness are presumed where (1) the settlement is reached through "arms-23 length bargaining"; (2) investigation and discovery are "sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act 24 intelligently"; (3) counsel is "experienced in similar litigation"; and (4) the percentage of objectors "is 25 small." Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1802 (1996). The Settlement satisfies the first 26 three factors. Plaintiff will analyze the fourth factor at the final approval stage.

27 1. The Settlement is Entitled to a Presumption of Fairness

28 a. The Settlement is the Result of Arm's-Length Negotiations

1 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 2 evidence to the contrary is offered. Thus, there is a presumption that settlement negotiations are 3 conducted in good faith. Here, the Settlement was the product of extensive investigation and a full day 4 mediation session with a respected mediator after extensive informal discovery. Connolly Decl. ¶¶ 5-6.
5 The negotiations were adversarial, conducted at arm's length and tempered by the efforts of both sides 6 to serve the interests of their clients. Id. at ¶ 6. The amount of Plaintiff's requested Service Award was 7 not negotiated until after the Parties agreed to the Gross Settlement Amount and many other terms. Id.
8 at ¶ 20.

9 b. Plaintiff's Counsel Conducted Sufficient Investigation and Discovery

10 Plaintiff's Counsel thoroughly investigated the class claims, applicable law, and potential 11 defenses. See generally, Connolly Decl. In particular, Plaintiff's Counsel assessed the value of the class 12 claims using Defendant's data and documents produced through discovery. Connolly Decl., ¶ 10.
13 Plaintiff's counsel extensively reviewed policy documents and compared Class Members' time records 14 to their pay records to perform a thorough analysis. Id. Further, Plaintiff's Counsel engaged an expert 15 to quantify the potential exposure using the time and payroll records, and then assessed the risks
16 associated with each of the claims meriting reductions in the likely recovery at trial. Id. Accordingly, 17 Plaintiff's Counsel fully understood the strengths and weaknesses of the claims before the Parties 18 reached a settlement. Id.

19 c. Plaintiff's Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation

20 Plaintiff is represented by Aegis Law Firm, PC ("Class Counsel"). Class Counsel prosecute wage 21 and hour class actions on behalf of employees and others who have had their rights violated. Connolly 22 Decl. ¶¶ 22-35. The attorneys working on this case have been appointed class counsel in many cases, 23 through both contested motions and settlement approval motions. Id. Thus, Plaintiff's Counsel has 24 extensive experience in similar litigation and should be appointed as Class Counsel.

25 2. The Settlement is Reasonable Given the Strengths of Plaintiff's Claims and 26 the Risks and Expense of Litigation

27 Courts have discretion to approve class settlements by assessing several factors, including the 28 "strength of plaintiffs' case, risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation and risk

1 of maintaining the class action through trial.” Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A., 186 Cal.
2 App. 4th 399, 407 (2010); see Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 129 (2008).

3 While Plaintiff and her counsel believed and continue to believe this is a strong case for 4 certification, the significant risks and expenses associated with class certification and liability 5 proceedings were taken into account. Connolly Decl., ¶ 12. To determine if the amount offered at 6 mediation was reasonable, Plaintiff’s Counsel weighed that figure against many risk factors. If Plaintiff
7 continued to prosecute the claims rather than accept a settlement, Plaintiff would have faced deadlines 8 to file a motion for class certification, had to have engaged in more formal written discovery and taken 9 depositions, expended time and resources to resolve disputes, prepared and filed potential dispositive 10 motions and/or discovery motions, and engaged in extensive trial preparation. An adverse ruling at any 11 one of these stages could have prevented the Class from obtaining any recovery. Id. at ¶ 13.

12 a. Exposure Analysis

13 A settlement does not have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be considered a fair and 14 reasonable settlement. See Rebney v. Wells Fargo Bank, 220 Cal. App. 3d 1117, 1139 (1991). Rather, 15 compromise is expected:

16 Compromise is inherent and necessary in the settlement process . . . even if “the relief afforded 17 by the proposed settlement is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be 18 successfully litigated,” this is no bar to a class settlement because “the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”

19 Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 250 (2001) (citation omitted). Here, Plaintiff 20 contends that his claims are based on Defendant’s common, class-wide policies and procedures, and 21 that liability could be determined on a class-wide basis without dependence on individual assessments 22 of liability. Connolly Decl., ¶ 11. Although the amount of Defendant’s potential exposure – if proven – 23 is substantial, the legitimate and serious risks of succeeding at class certification and trial compelled a 24 serious consideration of the benefit of a settlement. Id. at ¶ 13.

25 Minimum and Overtime Wage Claims: Plaintiff’s minimum and overtime wage claims were 26 premised on the theory that Defendant failed to compensate class members for all time worked by 27 requiring them to respond to work calls when they were not working. Connolly Decl., ¶ 14. Assuming 28 unpaid wages of five minutes per shift, Plaintiff’s expert calculated a maximum exposure of $374,548.

1 Id. However, Plaintiff believed she would face difficulty showing commonality because this off-the-2 clock work may have been limited to her role as an interpreter. Id. Plaintiff alleged that she was required
3 to answer work calls to cover if another interpreter was not available. Id. Defendant argued that there
4 was no evidence that Class Members who did not work as interpreters, like Plaintiff, were not required
5 to answer calls outside of working hours. Id. As such, this claim could become highly individualized
6 and difficult to certify. Id. Plaintiff ultimately assumed there was a 10% chance of success at class 7 certification and 10% chance of success on the merits at trial, rendering the claim worth approximately 8 $3,745. Id.

9 Meal Period Claims: Plaintiff's meal period claim was potentially worth about $80,664 in light 10 of the violations shown in the records (e.g., where the records showed that a meal period was late, short, 11 or missed). Connolly Decl., ¶ 15. It was also based on the allegation that Defendant's meal period 12 policies failed to expressly provide for a second meal period. Id. However, Defendant provided evidence 13 that it updated its policies in 2019 to make them facially compliant and that notwithstanding the prior 14 policies, Class Members were still provided with a second meal period as shown by the timekeeping
15 records. Id. Furthermore, Defendant argued that employees could waive their right to a second meal
16 period when they worked between 10-12 hours. Id. If the Court considered that there were valid meal 17 waivers, then the violation rate would drop significantly. Id. Thus, Plaintiff discounted this claim for 18 the risk that the damages could at least be reduced, and that the claim would be hard to certify with an 19 updated compliant policy. Id. As such, Plaintiff's counsel believed there was a 60% chance succeeding 20 at class certification and a 30% chance at trial, resulting in a value of $14,520. Id.

21 Rest Break Claim: Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to authorize duty-free rest breaks due 22 to its written rest break policies which required Class Members to remain on-premises during their rest 23 breaks. Connolly Decl., ¶ 16. If Plaintiff could prove a 100% violation rate for each shift over 3.5 hours, 24 then damages could reach up to $3,083,424. Id. However, like the meal period claim, Defendant argued 25 that it updated its written policies in 2019 to provide duty-free breaks that can be taken off-premises.
26 Id. Additionally, this claim would have relied on Class Member testimony as to whether they were 27 actually able to take duty-free rest breaks, making it a riskier claim at class certification and liability 28

1 stages. Id. Plaintiff’s counsel believed there was a 60% chance succeeding at class certification and a 2 30% chance at trial, resulting in a value of $555,016. Id.

3 Waiting Time and Wage Statement Penalties: Plaintiff’s Counsel also considered the arguable 4 presence of various derivative penalties, and weighed the potential recoveries against probable defenses.
5 Connolly Decl., ¶ 17. Specifically, Defendant could argue that Plaintiff could not prove the “willful”
6 prong needed to obtain waiting time penalties under Labor Code section 203. Id. Additionally, Defendant
7 could argue that Plaintiff could not show that Class Members suffered an “injury” as a result of wage 8 statement violations, as required by Labor Code section 226. Id. Moreover, Plaintiff would not recover
9 any of these derivative penalties if she failed to prove the underlying claims. Id. Although the Class 10 arguably could have seen a payout of approximately $626,658 for waiting time penalties and $581,000 11 for wage statement penalties, Plaintiff would not recover any of these derivative penalties if she failed to 12 prove the underlying claims. Id. Thus, Plaintiff discounted these claims assuming a 30% chance of class 13 certification and 10% chance at the merits for both claims, resulting in a realistic value of $18,800 for the 14 waiting time claim and $17,430 for the wage statement claim. Id.

15 PAGA Claim: The PAGA claim presented even higher hurdles. Connolly Decl., ¶ 18. Although 16 Plaintiff’s Counsel found Defendant’s exposure could potentially reach up to $708,000 under Labor 17 Code section 2699(f), assuming the initial penalty rate of $100 for all 7,080 pay periods, Plaintiff would 18 have to prove a violation in every pay period. Id. Most importantly, the Court would have discretion to 19 reduce the PAGA award based on whether the amount of the award would be “unjust, arbitrary and 20 oppressive, or confiscatory.” Labor Code § 2699(e)(2). In other words, were this matter to go to trial, 21 any award granted would be at the discretion of the Court. See, e.g. Carrington v. Starbucks Corp., 30 22 Cal.App.5th 504, 528 (2018) (awarding PAGA penalties of only 0.2% of the maximum). In theory, the 23 Court could reduce the award by 99% if it so wished. Plaintiff was doubtful she could recover significant 24 PAGA penalties, especially if a large class judgment was entered for the same violations. Connolly 25 Decl., ¶ 18. Accordingly, Plaintiff could not place a high value on the PAGA penalties. Id. Therefore, 26 the Parties allocated $30,000 of the Gross Settlement Amount to settle these claims. Id.

27 C. The Requested Service Award for Plaintiff
28

1 Plaintiff seeks a Service Award of up to $10,000 for accepting the responsibilities of representing 2 the interests of the Class and assuming risks and potential costs that were not borne by any other Class 3 Members. A named plaintiff is eligible for payment that reasonably compensates him or her for 4 undertaking and fulfilling a fiduciary duty to represent absent class members. See Cellphone
5 Termination Fee Cases, supra, 186 Cal. App. 4th at 1393; Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 115 Cal. App. 4th 6 715, 726 (2004).

7 Here, Plaintiff had the option to pursue her claims individually, but instead chose to pursue this 8 class action, delaying individual recovery until approval of a class action settlement. Connolly Decl., ¶ 9 19. Throughout the case, Plaintiff assisted counsel in gathering the evidence necessary to prosecute the 10 class claims, maintained regular contact with counsel, was available on the day of mediation and 11 communicated with her attorneys during the day of mediation to answer critical questions, and reviewed 12 the Settlement to make sure it was fair to the Class. Id. No action would likely have been taken by Class
13 Members individually, and no compensation would have been recovered for them, but for Plaintiff's 14 services on behalf of the Class. Id.

15 By actively pursuing this action, Plaintiff furthered the California public policy goal of enforcing 16 the State's wage and hour laws. See Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc., supra, 34 Cal. 4th at 340. The requested 17 Service Award for Plaintiff's service as the class representative and for a general release of all 18 employment claims is reasonable and should be preliminarily approved. At the final approval stage, 19 Plaintiff will further support the request for the Service by declarations addressing the factors for the 20 award. Connolly Decl., ¶ 21.

21 D. The Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs

22 The purpose of an attorneys' fee award in class action litigation is to reward counsel who invested 23 in a case despite the risk of non-payment and achieved a substantial positive result for the class.
24 Attorneys' fees are awarded as a matter of equity. California courts routinely award attorneys' fees 25 equaling one-third or more of the potential value of the common fund. See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162
26 Cal. App. 4th 43, 66, n.11 (2008) ("Empirical studies show that, regardless of whether the percentage 27 method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the 28 recovery").

1 Plaintiff seeks appointment of Aegis Law Firm, PC as Class Counsel. The attorneys performed 2 significant work and expended litigation costs in prosecuting the matter with no guarantee of any 3 payment. Connolly Decl., ¶ 36. Plaintiff's Counsel seeks preliminary approval for $205,000 in 4 attorneys' fees, which is up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, and up to $20,000.00 in 5 reimbursement of litigation costs. Given the work performed in this matter, the extensive information
6 exchange, and substantial recovery obtained on behalf of Plaintiff and the Class, Plaintiff's Counsel 7 achieved a settlement through efficient and diligent work. See generally, Connolly Decl. At final 8 approval, Plaintiff's Counsel will fully brief the merits of its request for the award of attorneys' fees 9 and litigation costs. Id. at ¶ 37.

10 V. CONCLUSION

11 The Parties have negotiated a fair and reasonable Settlement of the class claims in light of the 12 risks present in this case. Plaintiff has appropriately presented the materials and information necessary 13 for preliminary approval, and therefore, respectfully requests that the Court preliminarily approve the 14 Settlement and schedule a date to conduct the final approval hearing.
