1 Plaintiff ZULMA GALVAN (“Plaintiff”), individually, on behalf of other members of the 2 general public similarly situated, and as Private Attorney General, based upon facts that either 3 have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity 4 for further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. Plaintiff brings this Action against Defendants CANGREJO LA MIRADA, INC.
7 and DOES 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for 8 California Labor Code violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties stemming from 9 Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to 10 authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay minimum wage, failure to timely pay wages, 11 failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to maintain accurate time and payroll records, 12 and failure to reimburse necessary business-related expenses.

13 2. Plaintiff’s First through Eight Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 14 behalf of herself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter 15 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” as defined more fully in paragraph 16 13, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages 17 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court 18 and will be established according to proof at trial.

19 3. Plaintiff’s Ninth Cause of Action is brought solely as a representative action, and 20 solely as a Private Attorney General, on behalf of the State of California for all aggrieved 21 employees, including himself and other aggrieved employees of Defendants against whom one 22 or more of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 23 “Aggrieved Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq; Balderas v.
24 Fresh Start Harvesting, Inc., 101 Cal.App.5th 533 (2024), as modified (April 18, 2024); and 25 Johnson v. Maxim Healthcare Services, Inc., 66 Cal.App.5th 924 (2021). Plaintiff is an aggrieved 26 employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil penalties sought 27 by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established 28

1 according to proof at trial.

2 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to the California Constitution, 3 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” 4 except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this Action is brought do 5 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

6 5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, 7 Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or 8 otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of 9 jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and 10 substantial justice.

11 6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants 12 maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of Los 13 Angeles.

14 PARTIES

15 7. Plaintiff ZULMA GALVAN is an individual residing in the County of Los 16 Angeles, State of California. Plaintiff is not suing in her individual capacity with respect to her 17 Ninth Cause of Action. Instead, she is proceeding therein solely under the PAGA, on behalf of 18 the State of California for all aggrieved employees. Plaintiff is an Aggrieved Employee as defined 19 under PAGA because she was employed by Defendant and suffered the labor code violations 20 alleged herein.

21 8. Defendant CANGREJO LA MIRADA, INC. is, and at all times herein mentioned 22 was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California and registered 23 to do business in the State of California.

24 9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, 25 and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be 26 individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, 27 that, at all times mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, 28

1 servant, employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at 2 all times mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and 3 authorization of such agency, employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this 4 Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and 5 believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible in 6 some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged 7 were proximately caused by its conduct. CANGREJO LA MIRADA, INC. and Doe Defendants 8 1 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as "Defendants".

9 10. Defendants are, and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business 10 in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent 11 with the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders ("Wage 12 Orders").

13 11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants, directly or indirectly controlled or 14 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 15 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendants 16 employers and employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

17 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

18 12. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action as a class action on her 19 own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, 20 seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

21 13. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt 22 employees of any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four 23 (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice of the certified 24 class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members").

25 14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

26 15. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the 27 litigation:
28

- 1 a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class 2 Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to 3 Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50) 4 individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by 5 inspection of Defendants' employment records.
- 6 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated 7 herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class 8 Members with whom she has a well-defined community of interest.
- 9 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class 10 Member, with whom she has a well-defined community of interest and typicality 11 of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to 12 the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are 13 versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
14 Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this Action will continue to 15 incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 16 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class 17 Member.
- 18 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and 19 efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class 20 Members is impractical.
- 21 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will 22 advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate 23 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to 24 assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class 25 actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint 26 anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

27 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over 28

1 questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, 2 among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

- 3 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in 4 accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;
- 5 b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff 6 and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late, or 7 interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- 8 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more 9 than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed 10 to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class 11 Members;
- 12 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal 13 and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work 14 during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- 15 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members 16 when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;
- 17 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premium wages to Class Members 18 when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest 19 periods;
- 20 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class 21 Members for all hours worked;
- 22 h. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the 23 required minimum wage pursuant to California law;
- 24 i. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper 25 overtime compensation pursuant to California law;
- 26 j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members 27 for all necessary business-related expenses and costs in violation of California 28

Labor Code section 2802;

- k. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class Members during their employment;
- l. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code, including section 226;
- m. Whether Defendants' conduct was with malice, fraud, or oppression;
- n. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- o. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on their improper withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;
- p. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- q. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. Defendants are a Mexican seafood restaurant.

18. Defendants employed Plaintiff to work as a hostess, waitress and bartender from approximately February 2018 to March 2025.

19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

20. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; to directly or indirectly control work rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; and to hire and terminate the employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

21. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

1 22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants engaged in 2 an ongoing and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt 3 employees. As set forth in more detail below, this scheme involved, inter alia, regularly requiring 4 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work off-the-clock without compensation, 5 thereby failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum and overtime wages.
6 Defendants also implemented time rounding practices that resulted in the systematic 7 underpayment of wages to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, including minimum 8 and overtime wages. Defendants also implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, 9 and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a 10 failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed. In addition, 11 Defendants routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take 12 timely and duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California law. Defendants also 13 failed to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-14 related expenses.

15 23. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
16 policies and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 17 with timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendants routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class, 18 and the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish 19 control over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods, 20 regularly failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable 21 opportunity to take their meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class, 22 and the Aggrieved Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later 23 than the end of their fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute 24 uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten 25 (10) hours. Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, 26 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

27 24. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately 28

1 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under 2 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
3 regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
4 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, 5 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free 6 meal periods, and to require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through 7 their meal periods, for which they were not compensated.

8 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay 9 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were 10 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should 11 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all 12 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal 13 period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants 14 routinely failed to provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 15 Aggrieved Employees, and routinely failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the 16 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, 17 short, late, and/or interrupted.

18 26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented 19 policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from 20 taking timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly failed to provide, authorize, and 21 permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest 22 periods for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full, 23 uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to 24 make a good faith effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each 25 work period.

26 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately 27 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under 28

1 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
2 regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
3 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, 4 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and 5 duty-free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 6 to work through their rest periods.

7 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay 8 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were 9 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should 10 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all 11 rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period 12 was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely 13 failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free 14 rest periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 15 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late, and/or 16 interrupted.

17 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly required 18 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock. Although 19 Defendants prohibited overtime, Defendants still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class, and 20 the Aggrieved Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class, and 21 the Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to perform work off-the-clock for which they 22 were not compensated.

23 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants employed a time 24 rounding policy that was not neutral and designed to consistently round time in Defendants' favor, 25 ensuring that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were oftentimes not paid for all 26 time worked.

27 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants implemented 28

1 policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately 2 recording the actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the 3 Aggrieved Employees all wages owed.

4 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 5 Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a 6 week.

7 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 8 pay all overtime compensation owed to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when 9 they worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single workday and/or forty (40) hours in a single 10 work week, or in excess of twelve (12) hours in a single workday and/or eighty (80) hours in a 11 single work week. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the 12 Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that 13 they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

14 34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay 15 overtime to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked 16 based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

17 35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 18 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours 19 worked. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 20 Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they 21 were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay 22 minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 23 Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiff, the 24 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock, implementing time rounding 25 policies that resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 26 Aggrieved Employees.

27 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 28

1 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or 2 resignation. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 3 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time 4 permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 5 Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, 6 including overtime compensation and minimum wages within any time permissible under 7 California Labor Code section 202.

8 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 9 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible 10 under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendants knew 11 or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to 12 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 13 Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum 14 wages, and meal and rest period premiums.

15 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 16 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 17 Employees. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 18 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 19 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 20 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours 21 worked, the actual gross wages earned, the correct rates of pay, the inclusive pay period dates, 22 net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates.

23 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 24 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
25 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to keep complete and 26 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 27 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff's, the Class's, and the Aggrieved Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.

41. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses, including but not limited to uniform apparel consisting of polo shirts, anti-slip shoes, slacks and aprons, and travel expenses such as mileage when reporting to work and traveling between Defendant's different locations. Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses and costs, but, in fact, failed to do so in violation of California law.

42. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees pursuant to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

43. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against All Defendants)

44. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

45. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

46. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

47. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

48. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

49. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

50. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

51. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

52. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

2 business-related expenses and costs included their failure to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for 3 costs incurred as a result of, including but not limited to, simple negligence.

4 94. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the 5 Class for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to 6 recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and 7 scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred 8 the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

9 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

11 (Against All Defendants)

12 95. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 13 every allegation set forth above.

14 96. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, 15 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff and the Class, to the general public, and Defendants' 16 competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest 17 within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

18 97. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and 19 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions 20 Code section 17200, et seq.

21 98. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may 22 be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' policies 23 and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the Class, to work overtime without 24 paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198.
25 Additionally, Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and 26 the Class, to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation 27 violate California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Moreover, Defendants' policies and 28

1 practices of failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and the Class violate California Labor Code 2 section 204.

3 99. Defendants also violated California Labor Code sections 221, 226(a), 510, 4 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 2800, and 2802.

5 100. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendants 6 unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

7 101. Plaintiff and the Class have been personally injured by Defendants' unlawful 8 business acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to the loss of 9 money and/or property.

10 102. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq., 11 Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants 12 during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an award of 13 attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable 14 laws; and an award of costs.

15 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 103. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 19 every allegation set forth above.

20 104. Plaintiff brings her ninth cause of action solely as a representative action pursuant 21 to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq.
22 ("PAGA"), on behalf of the State of California for all aggrieved employees, including herself and 23 other aggrieved employees of Defendants against whom one or more of the alleged violations 24 was committed.

25 105. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties 26 for violations of the Labor Code as follows: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any 27 provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor 28

1 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, 2 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through 3 a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current 4 or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code § 5 2699(a).

6 106. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged 7 above were committed against her during her time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an 8 “aggrieved employee” under PAGA.

9 107. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendants 10 have routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor 11 Codes by:

- 12 a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage 13 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.
- 14 b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime 15 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.
- 16 c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 17 Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional 18 hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 19 226.7 and 512.
- 20 d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to 21 take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 22 Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in 23 violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- 24 e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed 25 during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.
- 26 f. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, 27 itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.

1 g. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 2 Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, 3 total wages and compensation, and applicable pay rates in violation of Labor Code 4 § 1174(d) and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

5 h. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for necessary 6 business-related expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.

7 108. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, 8 individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and 9 is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above, 10 including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11050, 11 penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 210, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, and 12 1197.1, and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code 13 and/or other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is an amount to be 14 shown according to proof at trial.

15 109. Plaintiff has exhausted her administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 16 2699.3. On March 28, 2025, Plaintiff, through her counsel of record, by online filing with the 17 Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and by certified mail to the Defendants, 18 notified Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage 19 Orders that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, 20 and of Plaintiff's intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the 21 filing fee required under Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than sixty-22 five (65) days have elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff's March 28, 2025 notice, and the LWDA 23 has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, 24 Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for herself and other Aggrieved 25 Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

26 110. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 27 protect her interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties 28

owed by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

111. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods specified in Labor Code § 2699.3.
