MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Maria Cristina Suarez (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a proposed $450,000.00 non-reversionary, wage-and-hour class action settlement (the “Settlement”) with Defendant Addlife, Inc. (“Defendant”) (together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”). The Settlement will provide substantial monetary payments to an estimated 250 Class Members who worked an estimated aggregate of 24,000 Workweeks, of which roughly 119 are Aggrieved Employees who worked an estimated aggregate of 3,938 PAGA Pay Periods. As set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, informal discovery, and negotiations between the Parties. The negotiations were at arm’s-length and were facilitated through private mediation by an experienced and neutral class action mediator, Steve Rottman, Esq. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests the Court preliminarily approve the Settlement, certify the proposed Class, approve the proposed Class Notice to Class Members, and set a final approval hearing at least 120 days from the date of preliminary approval.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiff’s Claims and Procedural History

This is a wage-and-hour class action and representative action for alleged Labor Code violations and claims for civil penalties pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). (Declaration of Kane Moon in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class and Representative Action Settlement [“Moon Decl.”], ¶ 2.) Plaintiff seeks to represent a class of all persons employed by Defendant as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees in the State of California during the Class Period, as set forth in the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (the “Settlement”). (Id.)

Defendant provides interior plant design and maintenance services. (Id. at ¶ 3.) Defendant employed Plaintiff and other non-exempt, hourly-paid employees during the Class Period. (Id.) Plaintiff worked for Defendant in a non-exempt, hourly-paid position from approximately July 2023 to October 2024 as a maintenance worker. (Declaration of Plaintiff Maria Cristina Suarez in Support of Class and Representative Action Settlement [“Plaintiff Decl.”], ¶ 2.) Plaintiff contends she and her coworkers

1 were subjected to the same unlawful labor practices, including failure to pay wages for all hours
2 worked. (Id. at ¶ 6; Moon Decl., ¶ 3.)

3 Plaintiff’s claim for unpaid minimum and overtime wages stem from allegations that Defendant
4 failed to compensate Plaintiff and others Class Members for off-the-clock and overtime work and failed
5 to incorporate all remuneration into Class Members’ regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime 6 pay, meal premiums, and sick pay. (Moon Decl., ¶ 4.) Plaintiff’s meal and rest period claims are based 7 on allegations that due to the nature of their work, Class Members’ breaks were often short, late, 8 interrupted, and sometimes missed altogether, and that Defendant did not pay all premium wages for 9 non-compliant breaks. (Id.) Plaintiff further brings a claim for unreimbursed necessary business
10 expenses based on allegations that Class Members were required to purchase gloves and protective gear
11 and use their personal cellphone for work purposes without reimbursement from Defendant. (Id.)
12 Finally, Plaintiff also brings derivative claims for waiting time penalties, wage statement violations, 13 unfair business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA. (Id.)

14 Because of the foregoing alleged violations of various provisions of the Labor Code, Plaintiff 15 filed a class action on March 19, 2025, which alleges Defendant systematically: (1) failed to pay 16 minimum wages, (2) failed to pay overtime compensation, (3) failed to provide meal periods, (4) failed 17 to authorize and permit rest periods, (5) failed to indemnify necessary business expenses, (6) failed to 18 timely pay final wages at termination, (7) failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and (8)
19 engaged in unfair business practices. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

20 Pursuant to PAGA, on March 15, 2025, Plaintiff gave written notice to the California Labor and 21 Workforce Development Agency (the “LWDA”) of the alleged Labor Code violations, with certified 22 mail service on Defendant, and paid the required filing fee. (Id. at ¶ 6, Ex. 2.) On May 21, 2025, Plaintiff
23 timely filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint to add a ninth cause of action
24 for civil penalties under PAGA (the “Operative Complaint”). (Id. at ¶ 6.) In compliance with Labor 25 Code section 2699(s)(1), Plaintiff subsequently submitted to the LWDA a file-stamped copy of the 26 Operative Complaint containing the Court-assigned case number. (Id.) To date, the LWDA has not 27 indicated its intent to investigate the alleged violations or intervene in this Action. (Id.)

28 Defendant ardently opposes the merits of this case and denies Plaintiff’s factual allegations. (Id.)

1 at ¶ 7.) Defendant asserts it complied with all its compensation obligations, including compensating
2 Class Members for any and all off-the-clock work and overtime work, and therefore, Plaintiff and other 3 Class Members were paid all wages owed. (Id.) Defendant argues it did not fail to incorporate any non-4 discretionary bonuses into the regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime, meal premium, or 5 sick pay, and that all bonuses were discretionary. (Id.) Defendant maintains compliance with all its 6 meal and rest period obligations. (Id.) Defendant asserts it complied with all its reimbursement
7 obligations, and that Plaintiff and other employees were compensated for any and all business expenses 8 necessarily incurred. (Id.) To the extent employees received wage statements that were allegedly 9 inaccurate, Defendant asserts employees suffered no actual damage or harm as a result. (Id.; see, e.g., 10 Angeles v. U.S. Airways, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2013, No. C 12–05860 CRB) 2013 WL 622032, at 11 *10 [“A plaintiff must adequately plead an injury arising from an employer’s failure to provide full and 12 accurate wage statements, and the omission of the required information alone is not sufficient.”].) With 13 respect to Plaintiff’s claim for waiting time penalties, Defendant alleges its good-faith belief that it paid
14 all wages precludes the imposition of waiting time penalties since Plaintiff cannot prove Defendant’s 15 alleged failure to pay all final wages at the time of separation was “willful.” (Moon Decl., ¶ 7; see, e.g., 16 Pedroza v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. June 14, 2012, No. ED CV 11–298 GHK (DTBx)) 2012 WL 17 9506073, *5.) For these reasons, among others, Defendant denies all of Plaintiff’s claims and 18 allegations, and further claims it did not engage in any unfair business practices and denies liability 19 under PAGA. (Moon Decl., ¶ 7.) Defendant also maintains the claims are improper for class treatment, 20 in part, due to the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the wage claims that could bar class
21 certification or significantly reduce Defendant’s overall liability. (Id.)

22 B. Discovery and Investigation

23 The Parties agreed to mediate this action with Steve Rottman, Esq., an experienced class and 24 PAGA action mediator. (Id. at ¶ 8.) In preparation for mediation, the Parties agreed to a protocol for an 25 informal production of documents and information before mediation. (Id.) Prior to mediation, Plaintiff 26 obtained from Defendant, through informal discovery, documents and data that were necessary and 27 helpful to evaluate the claims asserted in this action. (Id.) Defendant produced a statistically sound
28 sample of electronic time and pay records for approximately 20.4% of the putative Class, Plaintiff’s

1 personnel file and time and pay records, and Defendant's written employment policies in effect during 2 the Class Period. (Id.) Defendant also provided information regarding the estimated number of current 3 and formerly employed Class Members, Aggrieved Employees, and PAGA Pay Periods. (Id.)

4 In preparation for mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel reviewed and analyzed all the information 5 Defendant provided, including the sample records and documents regarding Defendant's wage-and-6 hour policies. (Id. at ¶ 9.) Plaintiff's Counsel retained a statistics expert to analyze the sample records
7 and prepare a damage analysis prior to the mediation. (Id.) The sample time and pay records analyzed
8 contained 17,569 actual shifts worked (representing about 16.63% of total shifts worked in the Class 9 Period), which allowed Plaintiff's expert to prepare an analysis with a reasonable degree of certainty.
10 (Id.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, Plaintiff's Counsel also investigated the 11 applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiff's 12 Counsel was able to evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and 13 Defendant's maximum and realistic monetary exposure for all claims. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff's and her 14 Counsel's familiarity with the facts of the case and the legal issues raised by the pleadings allowed 15 them to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement. (Id.)

16 C. Settlement Negotiations and Notice of Settlement to the LWDA

17 On February 5, 2026, the Parties participated in a full day of private mediation with Steve 18 Rottman, Esq. (Id. at ¶ 10.) The negotiations were at arm's-length and, although conducted in a 19 professional manner, were adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the 20 potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through 21 trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After a full discussion regarding the strengths 22 and weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and Defendant's defenses and with the assistance of the mediator, 23 the Parties reached a resolution, the material terms of which are set out in the Settlement. (Id., Ex. 1.)

24 In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), notice of settlement and a copy of the 25 proposed Settlement has been submitted to the LWDA along with a copy of Plaintiff's preliminary 26 approval motion and the hearing date. (Id. at ¶ 11, Ex. 3.) To date, the LWDA has not indicated any 27 objection to the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 11.)

1 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

2 Under the Settlement, Defendant will pay a non-reversionary amount of no less than 3 $450,000.00 (“GSA”), subject to potential increase under an Escalator Clause, to resolve this action.
4 (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.) Defendant will separately pay its employer-side payroll taxes owed on the Wage
5 Portion of Individual Class Payments. (Id.) Other key terms of the Settlement are outlined in the counsel
6 declaration submitted concurrently herewith. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 12–30.) The proposed Settlement
7 Administrator— Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions —was jointly selected by the Parties
8 based on its bid of $7,500.00. (Id. at ¶ 16, Ex. 5; Settlement, ¶¶ 1.2, 7.1.)

9 The Class is defined as all persons employed by Defendant as hourly-paid or non-exempt
10 employees in the State of California during the period from March 19, 2021 to the date Class Members 11 have worked an aggregate of 24,000 workweeks, as determined by the Settlement Administrator based 12 on Defendant's records, but in no event later than the date the Court grants preliminary approval of the 13 Settlement. (“Class Period”). (Id. at ¶¶ 1.5, 1.12.) “Aggrieved Employees” is defined all persons 14 employed by Defendant as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees in the State of California during the 15 period from March 19, 2024, to the date Class Members have worked an aggregate of 24,000
16 workweeks, as determined by the Settlement Administrator based on Defendant's records, but in no 17 event later than the date the Court grants preliminary approval of the Settlement (“PAGA Period”). (Id.
18 at ¶¶ 1.4, 1.30.) The Settlement allocates PAGA Penalties in the amount of $30,000.00 to be paid from 19 the Gross Settlement Amount, with 65% ($19,500.00) allocated to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 20 35% ($10,500.00) allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments. (Id. at ¶¶ 1.33, 3.2.5.) Each Aggrieved 21 Employee will be entitled to a pro rata share of the 35% share of the PAGA Penalties directly 22 proportional to their number of PAGA Pay Periods. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.5.1.) This results in an average 23 Individual PAGA Payment of roughly $88.24 for each of the estimated 119 Aggrieved Employees
24 ($10,500.00 / 119), and a PAGA Pay Period value of roughly $2.67 for each of the 3,938 estimated Pay
25 Periods in the PAGA Period ($10,500.00 / 3,938). (Moon Decl., ¶ 18.)

26 The Net Settlement Amount is the Gross Settlement Amount and less the following payments 27 in the amounts approved by the Court: Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class
28 Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses

1 Payment, and the Administration Expenses Payment. (Settlement, ¶¶ 1.27, 3.1.) The remainder is to be 2 paid to Participating Class Members as Individual Class Payments. (Id. at ¶ 1.27.) Accordingly, the Net
3 Settlement Amount will be no less than $224,500.00 for an estimated Class of 250 individuals.¹ (Moon
4 Decl., ¶ 19.) Each Class Member who does not opt-out will be entitled to a pro rata share of the Net
5 Settlement Amount that is directly proportional to the number of Workweeks worked during the Class
6 Period. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.4.) The estimated $224,500.00 Net Settlement Amount results in an average
7 Individual Class Payment of roughly $898.00 for each of the estimated 250 Class Members 8 ($224,500.00 / 250),² and a Workweek value of roughly $9.35 for each of the 24,000 estimated 9 Workweeks in the Class Period ($224,500.00 / 24,000). (Moon Decl., ¶ 21.)

10 The Parties, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel represent that they are not aware of any other 11 pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or affected by the Settlement.
12 (Settlement, ¶ 2.8.)

13 III. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

14 The law favors the settlement of lawsuits, particularly in class actions and other complex cases.
15 (See, e.g., Neary v. Regents of Univ. of Cal. (1992) 3 Cal.4th 272, 277–81.) To prevent fraud, collusion, 16 or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor 17 Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800–01 [citing authority omitted].) To approve a settlement, the 18 Court must find “the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.” (Id.) This Court has wide discretion 19 in making this determination. (Mallick v. Super. Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness, 20 adequacy, and reasonableness are presumed, as here, when: “(1) the settlement is reached through 21 arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court 22 to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors

24 ¹ The Net Settlement Amount was calculated by deducting the following from the $450,000.00 25 GSA: $7,500.00 for the Class Representative Service Payment, up to $8,000.00 for the 26 Administration Expenses Payment, $30,000.00 for the PAGA Penalties to the LWDA and Aggrieved
Employees, $150,000.00 for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, and up to $30,000.00 for the Class
Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment. (Moon Decl., ¶ 19, n.1; Settlement, ¶¶ 3.1–3.2.5.)

27 ² At this time, the actual amounts to Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees are unknown 28 and will be calculated by the Administrator following preliminary approval and receipt and processing of the Class Data. (Moon Decl., ¶ 21, n.2; Settlement, ¶ 7.4.) The high and low range of payments will be provided to the Court in a motion for final approval. (Moon Decl., ¶ 21, n.2.)

1 is small.” (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1802 [citing Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd ed. 1992)
2 § 11.41].)

3 In evaluating a settlement, the trial court considers the following factors: (1) the strength of 4 plaintiff’s case; (2) the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation; (3) the risk 5 of maintaining class action status through trial; (4) the settlement amount offered; (5) the extent of 6 discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings; (6) counsel’s experience and views; (7) the 7 presence of a governmental participant; and (8) the class members’ reaction to the proposed settlement.
8 (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) To approve a class action 9 settlement, “the court must satisfy itself that the class settlement is within the ‘ballpark’ of 10 reasonableness.” (Id. at p. 133.) The record need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum 11 theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408– 12 09 [holding that Kullar does not require “an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff 13 class could recover if it prevailed on all its claims,” but instead, only an “understanding of the amount 14 that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation”].)

15 As discussed below, Plaintiff’s Counsel have provided materials and information exceeding the 16 threshold required for this Court to conclude the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

17 A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of Investigation, 18 Litigation, and Negotiation

19 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, Informed and Non- 20 Collusive Arm’s-Length Negotiations, and Realistic Claims Analysis

21 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 22 evidence to the contrary is offered. (Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd ed. 1992) § 11.51.)
23 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super. Ct.
24 (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The fact that 25 the plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not to approve 26 the settlement.”].) Thus, there is a presumption here that negotiations were conducted in good faith.

27 Here, Plaintiff’s Counsel have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case.
28 (Moon Decl., ¶ 31.) As previously noted, the Settlement at issue was reached through arm’s-length

1 negotiations, private mediation, and the assistance of a statistics expert. (Id.) Based on Defendant's 2 informal class-wide discovery production, on Plaintiff's Counsel's independent investigation and 3 evaluation, and on their extensive experience in wage-and-hour litigation, Plaintiff's Counsel are of the 4 opinion that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Id.)

5 Based on Plaintiff's Counsel's review of the time, payroll, and additional data provided by 6 Defendant, on Plaintiff's expert's analysis of the sample records provided by Defendant, and on 7 information from Plaintiff, Plaintiff's Counsel evaluated the estimated maximum and risk-adjusted 8 exposure that Defendant faced. (Id. at ¶ 32.) Specifically, based on the information provided for 9 mediation, the total estimated realistic recovery (adjusted for risks at certification and proof on the 10 merits) for the alleged claims, including penalties, is estimated to be $671,574.41. (Id. at ¶¶ 32, 39.)
11 This amount was calculated as follows: $2,922.50 (50% discount) for the regular rate claim; 12 $158,149.33 (75% discount) for the off-the-clock work claim; $8,299.90 (50% discount) for the meal 13 period claim; $321,030.78 (75% discount) for the rest period claim; $22,500.00 (75% discount) for the 14 unreimbursed business expenses claim; $71,691.90 (90% discount) for the waiting time penalties claim; 15 $47,600.00 (90% discount) for the wage statement claim; and $39,380.00 (90% discount) for the PAGA 16 penalties claim. (Id. at ¶¶ 32–38.) The foregoing discounts were based on the evidence presented for 17 mediation and arguments made during arm's-length settlement negotiations. (Id.)

18 The $450,000.00 gross settlement figure represents about 67% of the total realistic 19 recovery. (Id. at ¶ 39.) This is an excellent result for the Class, particularly because, under the 20 Settlement, Class Members will receive timely and guaranteed relief, avoiding the risk of not being 21 able to recover anything. (Id.)

22 2. The Class Settlement Is Fair Considering the Parties' Respective Positions and 23 Significant Risks to Certification and Proof on the Merits

24 A settlement is not judged against what a plaintiff might recover had he prevailed at trial, nor 25 does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable. (Wershba 26 v. Apple Comp., Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent and necessary in 27 the settlement process . . . even if ‘the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is substantially 28 narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated,’ this is no bar to a class settlement

1 because ‘the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives 2 ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.’”] [quoting Air Line Stewards v. Am. Airlines, Inc. (7th
3 Cir. 1972) 455 F.2d 101, 109].)

4 Here, considering all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, trial risk, 5 appellate risk, and the defenses Defendant may assert both to certification and on the merits, the 6 Settlement is in the best interest of the Class and LWDA. (Moon Decl., ¶ 31.) While Plaintiff is 7 confident in the merits of her claims, a legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at 8 ¶ 42.) Plaintiff also recognizes that proving the amount owed to each Class Member would be an 9 expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id.)

10 The Settlement obviates the significant risk that this Court may deny certification of all or some 11 of Plaintiff’s claims. (Id. at ¶ 43.) Plaintiff’s Counsel took into account the risk of not prevailing at trial 12 due to low or no participation by Class Members. (Id.) Indeed, the individualized and testimony-13 intensive nature of the claims could bar manageability of the representative claims or otherwise 14 significantly reduce any recovery whatsoever. (Id.) For example, the rest period and unreimbursed 15 expense claims are testimony-driven claims and assume a 50% and 100% violation rate, respectively, 16 which would not likely be demonstrated at trial, as it assumes either the participation of a majority or 17 all employees (which would be difficult given the reality that many, if not all, employees would be 18 unwilling to participate due to fear of retaliation), or alternatively, the use of surveys or statistical data 19 as a surrogate (which would still require the participation of a majority of employees to establish a 20 sound representation of all non-exempts). (Id.) Even assuming employees would be willing to 21 participate, obtaining declarations would potentially reveal that each individual employee had a 22 different experience. (Id.)

23 Furthermore, even if Plaintiff was able to pursue her claims on a class-wide basis and obtain 24 certification of all or some of the claims, continued litigation would be expensive, involving a trial and 25 possible appeals, and would substantially delay and reduce any recovery by the Class. (Id. at ¶ 44.)
26 Although the Parties have engaged in a significant amount of investigation, informal discovery, and 27 class-wide data analysis, they have not conducted formal discovery. (Id.) Moreover, preparation for 28 class certification and a trial would remain for the Parties as well as the prospect of appeals in the wake

1 of a disputed class certification ruling for Plaintiff and/or any summary judgment ruling. (Id.) As a 2 result, the Parties would incur considerably more attorneys’ fees and costs through trial. (Id.) In sum,
3 this Settlement avoids the risks, burdens, and the accompanying expense of further litigation. (Id.)

4 The proposed $450,000.00 Settlement therefore represents a substantial recovery when 5 compared to the reasonably forecasted recovery for the Class. (Id. at ¶ 45.) When considering the risks 6 of litigation, the uncertainties involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to 7 establish liability, and the probability of appeal, it is clear the Settlement amount is within the 8 “ballpark” of reasonableness, and that preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.; (Kullar, 9 supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at p. 133; see Munoz, supra, 186 Cal.App.4th at pp. 408–09.)

10 3. The PAGA Settlement Is Fair Considering the Parties’ Respective Positions
11 and Significant Risks

12 With regards to the PAGA claims, the Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution that satisfies 13 PAGA’s dual statutory purposes of deterrence and punishment, on the one hand, and providing 14 Aggrieved Employees with genuine and meaningful relief, on the other. (Moon Decl., ¶ 40; Lab. Code 15 §§ 2698, et seq.) As a result of this litigation, Defendant has had to hire legal counsel, engage in informal 16 class-wide discovery, and participate in mediation. Defendant will also have to pay civil penalties to the 17 LWDA under the Settlement, assuming final settlement approval is granted. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.5.) Not 18 including its own attorneys’ fees and costs as well as the employer’s share of payroll taxes, Defendant
19 will pay $450,000.00 to resolve this matter—of which $30,000.00 is allocated toward the PAGA claims
20 and will be distributed, in compliance with Labor Code section 2699 as 65% ($19,500.00) to the LWDA
21 and 35% ($10,500.00) to Aggrieved Employees—and the release obtained under the Settlement does 22 not preclude Aggrieved Employees from pursuing any individual claims they may have against 23 Defendant or the other Released Parties. (Moon Decl., ¶ 40.)

24 Moreover, Plaintiff’s Counsel are of the opinion that because the issues here are fairly contested, 25 there is a possibility of the Court not awarding the PAGA penalties even if Plaintiff prevailed on the 26 merits due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. (Id.) Indeed, under PAGA, 27 a Court can reduce penalties “if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do 28 otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” (Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2).) In other words, were this matter to go to trial, any award granted would be at the discretion of the Court and subject to a substantial reduction. (Moon Decl., ¶ 40.) Further, Plaintiff’s Counsel took into account the risk of not being able to proceed on a representative basis due to the potential manageability issues and that even if Plaintiff prevailed at trial, penalties would likely be limited due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties and in light of other defenses available to Defendant. (Id. at ¶ 41.) Thus, it is entirely possible that even if Plaintiff would be successful at trial, assuming she is first able to certify the claims and defeat the manageability issues presented at litigation, Plaintiff could be awarded substantially less than what was obtained through the Settlement. (Id.)

In sum, the $30,000 PAGA Penalties allocation under the Settlement constitutes “genuine and meaningful” relief that is “consistent with the underlying purpose of the statute to benefit the public.” (See O’Connor v. Uber Tech., Inc. (N.D. Cal. 2016) 201 F.Supp.3d 1110, 1133–35 [denying settlement approval where allocation for PAGA claims was 0.1% of the estimated full worth].)

4. Plaintiff’s Counsel Have Extensive Experience in Class and PAGA Action Litigation, Which Was Integral to Negotiating the Settlement

The Settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable counsel with considerable experience and demonstrated competence with litigating wage-and-hour class actions. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 50–71.) Plaintiff’s Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are experienced in handling complex wage-and-hour class action litigation. (Id.) Their experience was helpful in assessing the reasonableness of the Settlement at issue here, and from this experience they concluded that this litigation could not have been settled on better terms than provided under the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 72.) Although Plaintiff and her counsel were prepared to try the claims alleged in the litigation, they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interest of the Class based on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed against the risks, expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation. (Id. at ¶¶ 10, 31.)

B. The Proposed Attorneys’ Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

Subject to the Court’s approval, the Settlement provides for attorneys’ fees payable to Class Counsel in an amount up to 33 1/3% of the Gross Settlement Amount, which is currently estimated to 1 be $150,000.00, and litigation costs up to $30,000.00.³ (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.2.) These amounts are 2 disclosed to Class Members in the proposed Class Notice and are reasonable. (Id. at Ex. A.)

3 1. Counsel Request a Fees Award Based On the “Common Fund” Method

4 California courts have long awarded attorneys’ fees as a percentage of the benefit created by 5 counsel in pursuing claims on behalf of a class. (See, e.g., Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25.) The 6 California Supreme Court has held, “when a number of persons are entitled in common to a specific 7 fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the creation or 8 preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded attorney’s fees out of the fund.”
9 (Id. at p. 34.)

10 Plaintiff’s Counsel seek an award of attorneys’ fees on the “percentage of recovery/common 11 fund” theory. (Moon Decl., ¶ 74.) The purpose of this approach is to “spread litigation costs 12 proportionately among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden 13 alone.” (Vincent v. Hughes Air W., Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of 14 California (1975) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated, “one who expends attorneys’ 15 fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits, may require those passive 16 beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and County of 17 San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized that the 18 common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an action brought by one 19 party creates a fund in which other persons[] are entitled to share.” (Id. at pp. 110–11 [pincite omitted].)

20 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half International Inc. (2016) 1 21 Cal.5th 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 22 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 23 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund 24 created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage method—25 including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the class, a better 26

27
28 ³ Plaintiff’s Counsel’s current litigation costs are $25,734.48, and they anticipate incurring additional costs up to final approval. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 15, 79, Ex. 4.)

1 approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it provides counsel 2 to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation[]—convince us the 3 percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.” (Id. [internal citations 4 omitted].) This line of legal authority supports a request for attorneys’ fees based on the percentage of 5 recovery/common fund method.

6 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

7 According to a leading treatise on class actions: “No general rule can be articulated on what is 8 a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a reasonable 9 fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a disproportionate part 10 of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages are not unprecedented.” 11 (Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd ed. 1992) § 14.03.) Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of 12 the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty to forty percent commonly awarded in 13 cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (N.D.
14 Cal. 1995) 901 F.Supp. 294, 297 [stating that most cases where 30–50% was awarded involved 15 “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 million].)

16 Here, Plaintiff’s Counsel’s fees request for 33 1/3% of the GSA, is in line with the prevailing 17 guidelines established in California case law and academic literature and is consistent with awards in 18 California. (Compare Settlement, ¶ 3.2.2, with Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, 19 n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method 20 is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].) Accordingly, Plaintiff 21 requests the Court preliminarily approve the attorneys’ fees as negotiated by the Parties.

22 3. This Matter Involves a “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

23 Labor Code sections 218.5, 226, 1194, 2699, and 2802 provide for the recovery of reasonable 24 fees and costs of suit, for the claims made in this action. (Lab. Code §§ 218.5, 226, 1194, 2699(k)(1), 25 2802(d).) Under these sections, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover her actual attorneys’ fees, even 26 if those fees were larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. (Id.) This Settlement 27 is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and 28 resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding Plaintiff’s Counsel for their decision to

1 assume risk by taking on this matter on a contingent basis with no guarantee of recovery. (Moon Decl., 2 ¶¶ 75–78.) In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Plaintiff’s Counsel.
3 (Id.) Once Plaintiff’s Counsel undertook this litigation, they committed to pursue it to its conclusion,
4 placing their fiduciary duty to the Class ahead of all other concerns. (Id. at ¶ 77.)

5 4. Counsel’s Experience, Reputation, and Ability Support the Fees Request

6 As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers and 7 employees, Plaintiff’s Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 50– 8 71.) Plaintiff’s Counsel have been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in numerous class actions 9 that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) As noted above, their experience in wage-and-hour litigation 10 was integral in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the 11 reasonableness of the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 72.) Practice in the narrow field of wage-and-hour litigation 12 requires skill and knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal) as well 13 as the procedural law of class action litigation. (Id. at ¶ 70.) Based on these and other factors, Plaintiff’s 14 Counsel have frequently received fee awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class.
15 (See id. at ¶¶ 54, 59.) Because it is reasonable to compensate counsel commensurate with their skill, 16 reputation, and experience, the requested fee award is supported here.

17 C. The Service Payment to Plaintiff Is Reasonable

18 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 19 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other members 20 of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 186 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval of class action 21 settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which are necessary to 22 provide incentive to represent the class and are appropriate given the benefit the class representatives 23 help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp. (9th Cir. 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958– 24 59.) Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage-and-hour cases because they 25 promote the important public policies underlying the wage-and-hour laws. This strong policy is 26 codified in California Labor Code section 90.5, which provides, “[i]t is the policy of this state to 27 vigorously enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or permitted 28 to work under substandard unlawful conditions . . .” (Lab. Code § 90.5.) Nonetheless, the California

1 Supreme Court has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the 2 Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v.
3 Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460–61.) In this context, class representatives should be rewarded for 4 assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co.
5 (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

6 Under the Settlement here, subject to the Court’s approval, a Class Representative Service
7 Payment of $7,500.00 will go to Plaintiff, in addition to the amount she is eligible to receive as a Class 8 Member. (Settlement, ¶¶ 1.14, 3.2.1.) This award is for initiating the Action and providing services in 9 support of the Action. (Id. at ¶ 1.14.) Plaintiff has devoted a great deal of time and work assisting counsel 10 in the case and communicated with counsel frequently for litigation and to prepare for mediation. (Moon 11 Decl., ¶¶ 46–49; Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 11–21.) The requested payment is fair and reasonable, particularly 12 considering the substantial benefits Plaintiff generated for all Class Members. (Moon Decl., ¶ 46–49.)

13 When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount requested 14 here is particularly reasonable. A 2006 study examining the average incentive award given to class 15 action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class representative was $15,992 16 and the median award per class representative was $4357.” (Eisenberg & Miller, Incentive Awards to 17 Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study (2006) 53 UCLA L. Rev. 1303, 1307–08.) The same study 18 found that named plaintiffs in employment discrimination class actions received an average award of 19 $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, while named plaintiffs in other employment class actions 20 received an average award of $12,121 and a median award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1333.) The authors of 21 the study found that higher awards in employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make 22 representative plaintiffs whole by compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, 23 including risks of stigmatization or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

24 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

25 A. Legal Standard

26 The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. The claims all derive from 27 a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 4– 28 5.) For the reasons set forth more fully below, the Class, for purposes of Settlement, satisfies the

1 prerequisites for certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382. (Code Civ. Proc. § 382.)
2 Section 382 provides that “when the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, 3 or when the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more
4 may sue or defend for the benefit of all.” (Id.) There are two requirements to section 382: “(1) there 5 must be an ascertainable class[]; and (2) there must be a well defined community of interest in the 6 questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v. Yellow Cab Co.
7 (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 [internal citations omitted].) To clarify these requirements, the California 8 Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to explain that the community-of-9 interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant common questions of law or fact; 10 (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who 11 can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

12 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device. (Id.
13 at pp. 469–73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a means to 14 prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of consumers are at 15 issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to the appropriateness of 16 class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473– 17 75.)

18 B. The Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied

19 1. The Class Is Ascertainable and Numerous

20 When determining whether a class is ascertainable, California courts focus on the following 21 three factors: “(1) the class definition, (2) the size of the class and (3) the means of identifying class 22 members.” (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 Cal.App.3d 862, 873.) Here, Plaintiff maintains there is an 23 easily ascertainable Class, defined by objective and precise criteria. (Settlement, ¶¶ 1.4, 1.11.) The 24 proposed Class that Plaintiff seeks to represent is ascertainable because (1) the Class definition is 25 sufficiently precise, (2) the Class consists of about 250 individuals, and (3) Class Members can be 26 readily identified by Defendant’s records. (Id.) Because Class Members are identified using specific 27 criteria in the regular business records of Defendant—their employment by Defendant in California, 28 non-exempt classification, hourly wage, and actual work during the Class Period—the Class is ascertainable. (See Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co. (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959–60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make the class ascertainable].) “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id. [citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 574]; see also Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a class of 9 plaintiffs and 35 members].) Therefore, numerosity is plainly satisfied.

2. There Are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

To satisfy the community of interest requirement, a proponent must show (1) common questions of law and fact that predominate over individual issues, (2) class representatives have claims or defenses typical of the class, and (3) class representatives adequately represent the class. (Dunk, supra, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1806.) This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to rationally warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 605, 611–12.)

Here, Plaintiff’s claims satisfy all three requirements. The employment practices at issue include whether Defendant: paid employees all minimum, overtime, meal premium, and sick pay wages owed; reimbursed employees for necessary business expenses; provided employees with and authorize meal and rest periods or paid premiums for non-compliant breaks; paid all final wages to employees at the time of termination; intentionally failed to pay all final wages; provided inaccurate itemized wage statements and whether Class Members were harmed; engaged in unfair business practices; and violated civil penalty provisions under PAGA. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 4–5.) Plaintiff contends the factual and legal issues are the same for all Class Members, and further that all Class Members suffered from and seek redress for the same alleged injuries. (Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 5–6.) Considering Class Members would need to prove the same issues of law and fact to prevail, and their legal remedies are identical, it would

1 be preferable to resolve all claims through a settlement than to force each Class Member to litigate their 2 own individual claims. Thus, the Court should grant conditional class certification for settlement 3 purposes because common questions of law and fact predominate over any individual questions within 4 the Class.

5 3. Plaintiff's Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

6 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances of 7 the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather, upon the 8 typicality of the proposed representative's claims as they relate to the defendant's conduct and 9 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 ["The only requirements are [sic] that 10 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly situated" 11 vis-à-vis the class.] [emphasis in original].) A representative plaintiff's claims are typical of the class 12 if they arise from the same event, practice, or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal 13 theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant and alleges 14 she was subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated employees. (Plaintiff Decl., 15 ¶¶ 2–6.)

16 4. Plaintiff and Her Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

17 The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: (1) a named 18 plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation, and (2) a named 19 plaintiff's interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of Am. (1976) 60 20 Cal.App.3d 442, 450.)

21 Here, all requirements are met. Plaintiff retained counsel with extensive experience in 22 prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that previously settled. (Moon Decl., 23 ¶¶ 50–71.) Based on their experience, Plaintiff's Counsel unquestionably are "qualified, experienced 24 and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation." (Miller, supra, 148 Cal.App.3d at p. 874.)
25 Plaintiff has, with counsel, litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, showing 26 dedication, and with full knowledge and acceptance of duties, she has committed to her role as Class 27 Representative. (Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 11–21.) In addition, Plaintiff and her Counsel have no conflicts with 28 one another, other Class Members, or the proposed Administrator. (Id. at ¶¶ 8–10; Moon Decl., ¶ 73.)

1 5. A Class Action Is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

2 Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class action 3 would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation. (See 4 Leyva v. Medline Indus. Inc. (9th Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 514–15.) By consolidating many potential 5 individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court’s use of the class action device enables it to 6 manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of time, effort, and expense for the litigants 7 and the judicial system. (Id.) Absent class treatment, similarly situated employees with small, but 8 nevertheless meritorious, claims for damages would, as a practical matter, have no means of redress 9 because of the time, effort, and expense required to prosecute individual actions. (Id. at p. 515; Gentry, 10 supra, 42 Cal.4th at pp. 457–62.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the superiority concerns are 11 essentially non-existent. (See generally, e.g., Stamburgh, supra, 62 Cal.App.3d.)

12 V. THE PROPOSED CLASS NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND AND 13 SATISFIES RULES OF COURT

14 Class Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, 15 rule 3.766(e)–(f), rule 3.769(f).) Here, the proposed Class Notice, in the form attached to the Settlement 16 as Exhibit A, meets all the requirements of California Rules of Court. The Class Notice summarizes 17 the proceedings to date and the terms and conditions of the proposed Settlement in an informative and 18 coherent manner. (Settlement, ¶ 7.5.2, Ex. A.) It also states that the final approval decision has yet to 19 be made, and provides the date, time, and location of the Final Approval Hearing. (Id.) It explains the 20 right and procedures to opt-out or submit any written objections and/or arrange to appear at the Final 21 Approval Hearing and verbally state any objections. (Id. at ¶¶ 7.5.2–7.8.3, Ex. A.) It makes clear the 22 Settlement does not constitute an admission of liability by Defendant, who denies all liability, and it
23 recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits of the action. (Id., Ex. A.) Thus, the proposed 24 Class Notice meets all the requirements of California Rule of Court 3.769(f). (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 25 3.769(f).)

26 The Class Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Newberg, Newberg 27 on Class Actions (3rd ed. 1992) § 8.39.) Accordingly, the Class Notice complies with the standards of 28 fairness, completeness, and neutrality required of a combined settlement-certification class notice.

1 California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an appropriate notice 2 program. (Cartt v. Super. Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 970, 973–74.) There is no statutory or due 3 process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, Class Members will 4 receive direct mailed notice, which is the best possible form of notice under the circumstances.
5 (Settlement, ¶ 7.5.2.) As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he notice given should have a 6 reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class Members . . .” (Cartt, 50
7 Cal.App.3d at p. 974.)

8 VI. CONCLUSION

9 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court grant this motion, enter the 10 proposed order submitted herewith regarding preliminary approval, and set a final approval hearing no 11 earlier than 120 days from the preliminary approval order.

12 Respectfully submitted,
