DECLARATION OF MARIA HALWADJIAN

I, Maria Halwadjian, hereby declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of California. I am a member of Lawyers for Justice, PC, attorneys of record for Plaintiff Efiong Alize McKelvy (“Plaintiff McKelvy”) and Guadalupe Citlalli Saldana Ponce (“Plaintiff Ponce”) (together, “Plaintiffs”). The facts set forth in this declaration are within my personal knowledge or based on information and belief, and if called as a witness, I could and would competently testify thereto.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

2. On June 30, 2023, Plaintiff McKelvy provided written notice by certified mail to the LWDA and Defendants of specific provisions of the California Labor Code that were alleged to be violated (“McKelvy 2023 PAGA Notice”), a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as “EXHIBIT 4”. Aside from confirmation of receipt of the McKelvy 2023 PAGA Notice, the LWDA did not respond to the McKelvy 2023 PAGA Notice. On September 5, 2023, Plaintiff McKelvy filed a PAGA Complaint For Enforcement Under the Private Attorney Generals Act, California Labor Code § 2698, Et Seq. in the Superior Court for the County of Fresno, thereby commencing the above-captioned lawsuit.

3. On September 5, 2023, Plaintiff McKelvy filed a PAGA Complaint for Enforcement Under the Private Attorneys General Act, California Labor Code § 2698, Et Seq. in the Superior Court for the County of Fresno, thereby commencing the above-captioned lawsuit.

4. On November 29, 2023 Defendants filed a Motion to Compel Arbitration and Stay Proceedings (“Motion to Compel Arbitration”).

5. On March 12, 2025, Plaintiff McKelvy provided an amended written notice by certified mail to the LWDA and Defendants (“McKelvy 2025 PAGA Notice”), a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as “EXHIBIT 5,” and Plaintiff Ponce provided written notice by certified mail to the LWDA and Defendants of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code that were alleged to be violated (“Ponce PAGA Notice”) (collectively, the McKelvy 2023 PAGA Notice, McKelvy 2025 PAGA Notice, and Ponce PAGA notice are the “PAGA Notices”), a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as “EXHIBIT 6”. Aside from confirmation of

1 receipt, the LWDA did not respond to the McKelvy 2025 PAGA Notice or Ponce PAGA Notice.

2 6. On March 25, 2024, prior to ruling on Defendants' Motion to Compel Arbitration,
3 the Parties filed a Stipulation and [Proposed] Order to Stay Acton Pending Completion of 4 Mediation ("Stipulation"). On April 2, 2024, the Court issued an order granting the Parties'
5 Stipulation.

6 7. On October 23, 2025, pursuant to the Parties' joint stipulation, Plaintiffs filed a First
7 Amended Complaint for Damages and Enforcement Under the Private Attorneys General Act,
8 Cal. Lab. Code § 2698, Et Seq. ("Operative Complaint"), thereby adding Plaintiff Ponce as an 9 additional named Plaintiff and Defendants' affiliated California entities as additional defendants (
10 Defendants CCS Facility Services-Fresno, Inc., CCS Facility Services-Orange County, Inc., CCS
11 Facility Services-Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Facility Services San Diego, Inc., CCS Los Angeles
12 Janitorial, Inc., CCS Orange County Janitorial, Inc., CCS San Diego Janitorial, Inc., CCS
13 Engineering Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Engineering Orange County, Inc., CCS Engineering San 14 Diego, Inc.; and CCS Engineering Fresno, Inc.).

15 8. The Parties have actively litigated the Action since it was commenced on September 16 5, 2023. This included litigating a motion to compel arbitration, investigating the claims by 17 reviewing plaintiffs' personnel documents, timekeeping and pay records, interviewing employees,
18 participating in an initial mediation in June 2024, further investigating the claims and scope of the 19 class and expanding it based on communications from additional CCS employees who worked at 20 other branches in California besides Fresno who shared similar experiences as we had heard from 21 the initial Fresno employees we spoke with, and then preparing for an participating in a second
22 mediation in January 2025, followed by preparation of an amended complaint, settlement
23 documents, and approval papers.

24 9. Settlement followed two arms-length mediations on June 10, 2024 and January 28,
25 2025 with Mediator David Rotman, Esq. ("Mediator"), a respected mediator of complex wage and 26 hour actions. With the aid of the mediator, the Parties reached the Settlement described herein to 27 resolve the Action in its entirety.

28 ///

10. On November 11, 2025, Plaintiffs filed a Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Original Motion for Preliminary Approval”) and supporting documents seeking approval of the Settlement reached by the Parties as set forth in the Settlement Agreement (“Original Agreement”), entered into by and between Plaintiffs, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated and other aggrieved employees, on the one hand, and Defendants CCS Facility Services-Fresno, Inc., CCS Facility Services-Orange County, Inc., CCS Facility Services-Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Facility Services-San Diego, Inc., CCS Los Angeles Janitorial, Inc., CCS Orange County Janitorial, Inc., CCS San Diego Janitorial, Inc., PBC SolutionOne, Inc., CCS Engineering Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Engineering Orange County, Inc., CCS Engineering San Diego, Inc.; and CCS Engineering Fresno, Inc. (collectively, “Defendants”), on the other hand (together, the “Parties”). A true and correct copy of the Original Agreement is attached hereto as “EXHIBIT 1.”

11. On January 28, 2026, the Court issued a tentative ruling (“January 28, 2026 Tentative Ruling”), thereby raising multiple points of inquiry regarding the Original Motion for Preliminary Approval, and the Court’s tentative was to deny the Original Motion for Preliminary Approval without prejudice.

12. On February 4, 2026, the Court issued a minute order adopting the January 28, 2026 Tentative Ruling as the order of the Court (“February 4, 2026 Order”). A true and correct copy of the February 4, 2026 Order is attached hereto “EXHIBIT 7”.

REVISIONS TO THE SETTLEMENT

13. The Parties negotiated and entered into Amendment No. 1 to Settlement Agreement (“Amendment No. 1”) (together with the Original Agreement, “Settlement,” “Agreement,” or “Settlement Agreement”), a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as “EXHIBIT 2.” The Parties also prepared a revised Court Approved Notice of Class Action Settlement and Hearing Date for Final Court Approval (“Revised Class Notice”), a true and correct copy of which is attached to Amendment No. 1 as “Exhibit A.” A redline version of the Revised Class Notice showing how it has been revised is attached hereto as “EXHIBIT 3.”

1 14. When negotiating the Original Agreement, the Parties agreed to propose Simpluris,
2 Inc. as the Administrator (Original Agreement, § 1.1), and set the Administration Expenses
3 Payment to not exceed $20,000.00 (Original Agreement, § 3.2.3). However, my office later
4 learned that Simpluris was going to significantly exceed the allotted costs, providing an estimate
5 of $30,000-$37,000 to administer the settlement. As such, we obtained an additional 6 administration quote from ILYM Group, Inc., who estimated that the costs would not exceed 7 $29,950. As such, the Parties agreed to use ILYM to administer the settlement and revised the 8 settlement agreement provision on the administrator and costs accordingly but provided for 9 administrative costs not to exceed $35,000 just in case there is any unexpected increase in 10 administrative costs beyond the $29,950 quoted. Of course, any amount not spent will remain part 11 of the Net Settlement paid to the class. (Amendment No. 1, § A, D).

12 15. To provide further clarity for the Court, the Parties also agreed to resolve the 13 Settlement's escalator clause prior to filing the Renewed Motion for Preliminary Approval. Based 14 on information provided by Defendants on February 18, 2026, the total number of Workweeks
15 worked had exceeded the 10% threshold of additional workweeks to trigger the escalator clause.
16 (Settlement Agreement § 4.1). Defendants have elected to exercise their option under the escalator
17 clause to end the Class Period and PAGA Period on the last date prior to exceeding the Workweeks
18 threshold of 320,100 (i.e., June 9, 2025) and to keep the Gross Settlement Amount at 19 $2,500,000.00. Defendants estimated that there were 319,717 workweeks worked through that 20 date. The Parties revised the applicable provisions of the Settlement Agreement to reflect this 21 change, i.e. that the Class and PAGA Periods will end on June 9, 2025. (Amendment No. 1, § B, 22 C, E).

23 16. The Parties further revised the Class Notice to provide for the amended Class Period
24 and PAGA Period end dates (Revised Class Notice, Pg. 1), the updated Administration Expenses
25 Payment of no more than $35,000.00 (Revised Class Notice, Pg. 4), and the updated Administrator
26 to ILYM Group, Inc. (Revised Class Notice, Pgs. 6, 9, 10).

CLAIM VALUATION

17. By way of the February 4, 2026 Order, the Court noted that “plaintiffs’ counsel has provided no information regarding whether any attempt was made to estimate damages here.” (February 4, 2026 Order, Pg. 10). To address the Court’s concerns, Class Counsel included more information concerning their calculated potential values of each claim, as discussed in paragraphs 41-45 infra.

PLAINTIFFS’ DECLARATIONS

18. By way of the February 4, 2026 Order, the Court stated that Plaintiffs’ declarations “are insufficient to establish a community of interest here.” (February 4, 2026 Order, Pg. 9). To address the Courts’ concerns, Class Counsel has obtained detailed declarations from both Plaintiffs. The declarations explain in further detail the experiences of Plaintiffs working for Defendants, as well as their job descriptions. Plaintiffs’ declarations are filed concurrently herewith.

ADMINISTRATOR’S DECLARATION

19. By way of the Court’s February 4, 2026 Order, the Court noted that a declaration from the Administrator was not provided to address the anticipated administration costs. To address the Court’s concerns, the Parties have provided the Court with the Declaration of Lisa Mullins of ILYM Group, Inc. which details the anticipated administration costs of the Settlement, currently estimated not to exceed $35,000.00. The Administrator’s declaration is filed concurrently herewith.

THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

20. The Settlement provides for a Gross Settlement Amount of $2,500,000.00 to be paid in a single payment on a non-reversionary basis. The Net Settlement Amount is the Gross Settlement Amount less the following amounts, subject to approval by the Court: attorneys’ fees in an amount not to exceed thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $875,000.00 if the Gross Settlement Amount remains $2,500,000.00) (“Class Counsel Fees Payment”) and litigation costs and expenses in an amount not to exceed $35,000.00 (“Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Agreement”) to Class Counsel, payments in the amount of up to

1 $10,000.00 each to Plaintiffs (combined total of $20,000.00) (“Class Representative Service
2 Payments”), Administration Expenses Payment, which are currently estimated not to exceed
3 $35,000.00 to the Administrator (“Administration Expenses Payment”), and PAGA Amount of 4 $375,000.00 (“PAGA Amount”). Assuming that the amounts allocated under the Settlement
5 toward these payments are awarded by the Court, the Net Settlement Amount that will be available
6 for distribution to Settlement Class Member is currently estimated to be $1,160,000.00.
7 Additionally, 25% of the $375,000 PAGA Amount (the “Aggrieved Employee Amount”), which 8 is $93,750.00, will also be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees, for their respective portion of 9 the PAGA Amount. The Gross Settlement Amount will be fully distributed in accordance with the 10 terms of the Settlement and there is no reversion to Defendants.

11 21. The Settlement Agreement provides for Class Counsel to apply for attorneys’ fees
12 in an amount of up to thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $875,000.00, 13 if the Gross Settlement Amount remains $2,500,000.00) and expenses and costs of not more than 14 $35,000.00, which will be paid out of the Gross Settlement Amount, subject to approval by the 15 Court. It should be noted that Class Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation and 16 will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained. A description of the qualifications
17 of Class Counsel, the work performed by Class Counsel, and the results achieved by Class Counsel 18 in this matter can be found in paragraphs 29 through 40, infra.

19 22. The Settlement Agreement provides for payment of up to $10,000.00 to each
20 Plaintiff as Class Representative Service Payments, to be paid out of the Gross Settlement Amount
21 subject to approval by the Court. Plaintiffs spent considerable time and effort to produce relevant 22 documents and past employment records and to provide the facts and evidence necessary to 23 attempt to prove the allegations. Plaintiffs were available whenever Class Counsel needed them
24 and actively tried to obtain information that would benefit the Class. Accordingly, it is appropriate
25 and just for Plaintiffs to receive a Class Representative Service Payment each, in addition to their 26 individual settlement payments, for their services on behalf of the Class, PAGA Employees, and 27 the State of California.

28 ///

23. The Parties have agreed to retain ILYM Group, Inc. (“Administrator”) to handle the notice and settlement administration process. The Parties respectfully request that the Court appoint ILYM to handle these procedures and serve as the Administrator. Defendants will provide the Administrator with the Class List, and the Administrator will calculate each Class Member’s estimated share of the Net Settlement Amount (“Individual Settlement Share”) and each PAGA Aggrieved Employee’s estimated pro rata share of the 25% portion of the PAGA Amount. The Administrator will be responsible for printing, distributing, and tracking Class Notices and other documents for the Settlement, calculating and distributing payments due under the Settlement, issuing of 1099 and W-2 IRS Forms and all required tax reporting, filings, withholdings, and remittances, providing necessary reports and declarations, transmitting funds representing uncashed checks after the void date to the California Controller’s Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of each Class Member and/or PAGA Aggrieved Employee to whom the checks were issued, and other duties and responsibilities set forth to process the Settlement, and as requested by the Parties. Settlement Administration Costs are currently estimated not to exceed $35,000.00 and will be paid out of the Gross Settlement Amount, subject to approval of the Court.

24. Under the Settlement Agreement, Defendants are responsible for any employer-side tax obligations associated with the Gross Settlement Amount and will deposit that amount into the settlement fund in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. Each Settlement Class Member’s Individual Settlement Share will be allocated 25% to wages and 75% to penalties and interest. The Administrator will withhold the employee’s share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages portion of the Individual Settlement Shares.

CONDITIONAL CERTIFICATION OF THE PROPOSED CLASS IS APPROPRIATE

25. Ascertainability: The proposed Class is defined as all non-exempt/hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California at any time during the Class Period, which is as follows: (1) for employees of Fresno CCS Entities, from August 15, 2019 to June 9, 2025; and (2) for employees of non-Fresno CCS Entities in California, from July 19, 2020 to June 9, 2025. The reason for the different starting periods is that initially the case was brought only against the Fresno CCS entity. The other entities were added later based on outreach by employees who

1 worked at other facilities under the same policies, resulting in our office's addition of an additional
2 plaintiff and naming additional entities by way of amendment. Defendants produced their
3 statewide policies in advance of mediation, demonstrating that all hourly employees were subject
4 to the same timekeeping, pay, and meal and rest break policies.

5 26. Numerosity: Based on data provided by Defendants, the Class is estimated to be 6 approximately 5,459 individuals who worked an estimated total of 319,717 workweeks.

7 27. Commonality: Based on investigation and information discovered, Class Counsel
8 believes that there is sufficient evidence to support the allegations made in the lawsuit, including 9 the allegations that Defendants, with respect to Plaintiffs, Class Members, and PAGA Employees,
10 inter alia, failed to properly pay overtime and minimum wages and associated premium pay, failed
11 to provide compliant meal and rest periods and to provide accurate wage statements, failed to pay
12 timely wages upon termination, failed to maintain requisite payroll records, and failed to reimburse 13 necessary business expenses, and thereby engaged in unfair business practices and conduct giving
14 rise to civil penalties recoverable under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (California 15 Labor Code sections 2698, et seq.). Plaintiffs also asserted that Class Members were expected to 16 perform similar job duties and were subject to the same or similar operations and employment
17 policies, practices, and procedures. Additionally, Plaintiffs asserted that Defendants'
18 recordkeeping practices with respect to Plaintiffs, Class Members, and PAGA Aggrieved
19 Employees were substantially the same during the time period at issue. As a result of said alleged 20 uniform practices, Plaintiffs claim that the Class Members were not paid all of the compensation
21 that was owed to them by Defendants. Thus, in Class Counsel's view, it is clear that the outcome
22 of this litigation would be determined by Defendants' uniform operations and employment
23 practices, policies, and procedures that Plaintiffs allege applied across their hourly-paid or non-24 exempt employees in California during the relevant time period.

25 28. Adequacy and Typicality: Plaintiffs undertook the responsibilities of representing 26 a class action against their former employer. Plaintiffs spent considerable time and effort to 27 produce relevant documents and past employment records and to provide the facts and evidence
28 necessary to attempt to prove the allegations. Plaintiffs were available whenever Class Counsel

1 needed her and actively tried to obtain information that would benefit the Class. Plaintiffs have no
2 interests that are adverse to the Class. Plaintiffs were employed by Defendants during the Class
3 Period and subject to the same alleged violations and the same policies, practices, and procedures.
4 Plaintiffs took on the challenge and risk of commencing and maintaining this action, and they have
5 not yet received any monetary benefit for their service to date. Plaintiffs put their own interests 6 aside and brought a publicly filed lawsuit against an employer not just for their own benefit, but,
7 instead, on behalf of other hourly-paid employees and the State of California.

THE SETTLEMENT AND SUMMARY OF WORK PERFORMED

35. The effectiveness of Lawyers for Justice, PC (“Class Counsel”) in prosecuting this matter has translated into tangible monetary benefits in the following respects: (1) Class Members, PAGA Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California recover over a reasonably short period of time as opposed to waiting additional years for the same, or possibly worse, result; (2) a guaranteed result that compares favorably with other similar class action settlements of this type given the strengths and weaknesses of the case; and (3) significant savings in Class Counsel's fees and/or costs that would have only increased significantly had the case progressed through certification, trial, and/or appeals.

36. Class Counsel has litigated the case for over two years and was actively preparing the matter for class certification and trial. The Parties have engaged in extensive settlement negotiations and participated in two full-days of mediation conducted by mediator David Rotman, a well-respected mediator experienced in mediating complex labor and employment matters. In the course of the this lawsuit and in connection with the mediation and settlement negotiations, the Parties exchanged extensive information and engaged in discussions regarding their evaluations of the case and various aspects of the case, including but not limited to, the risks and delays of further litigation, the law relating to failing to pay overtime and minimum wages and associated premium pay, failed to provide compliant meal and rest periods and to provide accurate wage statements, failed to pay timely wages upon termination, failed to maintain requisite payroll records, and failed to reimburse necessary business expenses, and thereby engaged in unfair business practices and conduct giving rise to civil penalties recoverable under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq; the evidence produced and analyzed; and the possibility of appeals, among other things. During all settlement discussions, the Parties conducted their negotiations at arm’s length in an adversarial position.

1 Arriving at a settlement that was acceptable to all Parties was not easy. Defendants and its counsel
2 felt strongly about its ability to prevail on the merits, and Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believed
3 that they would be able to prevail at trial. After conducting investigations and formal and informal
4 discovery, exchange of information, extensive settlement negotiations, and with the aid of the 5 mediator's evaluation, the Parties have agreed that the matter is well-suited for settlement given
6 the legal issues relating to Plaintiffs' principal claims, as well as the costs and risks to both sides
7 that would attend further litigation. The Settlement is a fair, reasonable, and adequate resolution
8 of the Released Class Claims of Plaintiff and Participating Class Members, and of the Released
9 PAGA Claims of Plaintiff, Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California, with respect to 10 aggrieved employees, Released Parties.

11 37. Prior to reaching the Settlement, Class Counsel investigated the veracity, strength,
12 and scope of the claims, and was preparing the action for class certification and trial. Plaintiffs 13 conducted significant investigation and formal and informal discovery regarding the facts of the 14 case, including and not limited to, the exchange, review, and analysis of thousands of pages of 15 documents and data obtained from Defendants, Plaintiffs, and other sources. The volume of data
16 and documents that Class Counsel reviewed and analyzed included and was not limited to:
17 Plaintiffs' employment records, a detailed sampling of Plaintiffs' and other Class Members' time 18 data and pay records (including timekeeping and pay records for a random sample of 20% of the 19 statewide class), Defendants' California Employee Handbook and California Handbook
20 Addendum, internal memoranda, job descriptions, company policy acknowledgements, forms,
21 procedures and policies (including but not limited to Mutual Agreement to Arbitration Agreement,
22 CA Meal Break Waiver Agreements, Meal Periods and Rest Breaks Policy, Overtime Policy, and 23 Attendance and Punctuality Policy), among other information and documents. We learned that
24 Defendants' policies with respect to timekeeping, meal and rest breaks, expense reimbursements
25 wage statements, and pay practices are statewide and do not vary from location to location and that
26 the vast majority of hourly employees (over 95%) perform the same role of janitorial/maintenance
27 employees with the small remaining employees performing administrative roles. Class Counsel, 28 with the assistance of a data analyst, reviewed and analyzed the timekeeping and payroll data and

1 the accompanying data points to assess and value the class and PAGA claims and to prepare
2 violation, damages, and penalties analyses. Class Counsel applied its expertise in wage-and-hour
3 class action and representative litigation to review and analyze the data and concluded that the 4 data was sufficiently representative of the Class and statistically reliable to be extrapolated to the 5 Class as a whole. Class Counsel had the opportunity to interview Plaintiffs and other Class
6 Members to gather facts and to identify potential witnesses. Counsel for the Parties met and 7 conferred on numerous occasions, e.g., to discuss issues relating to the pleadings, and the 8 production of documents and data prior to the mediations. Class Counsel drafted Plaintiffs'
9 pleadings and mediation briefs and prepared for and attended court proceedings, settlement
10 negotiations, and the mediations, among other tasks.

11 38. Counsel for the Parties have also invested time researching and investigating the 12 applicable law, which is constantly evolving as it relates to failing to properly pay overtime and 13 minimum wages and associated premium pay, failed to provide compliant meal and rest periods
14 and to provide accurate wage statements, failed to pay timely wages upon termination, failed to 15 maintain requisite payroll records, and failed to reimburse necessary business expenses, and 16 thereby engaged in unfair business practices and conduct giving rise to civil penalties recoverable
17 under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq.;
18 PAGA representative claims, and wage-and-hour enforcement; the evidence produced and 19 analyzed; and the possibility of appeals, among other things, Plaintiffs' claims and damages, and 20 Defendants' defenses thereto, as well as facts discovered. Based on Class Counsel's analysis, the 21 result achieved in this lawsuit is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

22 39. Class Counsel is aware of the defenses and position of Defendants, but believes that 23 Plaintiffs could potentially obtain class certification despite many obstacles. However, Defendant
24 also produced arbitration agreements for Plaintiffs and information that the vast majority of the 25 class have arbitration agreements, which could have precluded the class claims entirely.
26 Additionally, Defendant produced written statewide policies on time recording and meal and rest
27 breaks that have no unlawful provisions on their face, making it possible that a court could 28 conclude that liability determinations would require individualized inquiries that make class

1 treatment inappropriate. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have taken into account the uncertainty and 2 risk of the outcome of further litigation, and the difficulties and delays inherent in such litigation.
3 Plaintiffs further recognize the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability for the claims
4 asserted in the lawsuit, Defendants' defenses, and the difficulties in establishing entitlement to 5 monetary recovery. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have also considered the Parties' settlement
6 discussions, as well as the evaluations of the mediator, who is experienced and well-regarded in 7 complex labor and employment matters.

8 40. Defendants denied and continue to deny any liability and wrongdoing of any kind
9 associated with the claims alleged in the lawsuit, and further denies that this lawsuit is appropriate
10 for class treatment or representative adjudication for any purpose other than this Settlement.
11 Defendants believe that they would ultimately succeed in the matter. Both sides have also had the 12 opportunity to interview witnesses and review documents and information relating to Plaintiffs', 13 Class Members', and PAGA Aggrieved Employees' employment with Defendants, and 14 Defendants' operations and employment policies, practices, and procedures. The Parties also 15 reviewed and analyzed thousands of pages of documents and data (including a random sample of 16 timekeeping and pay data for 20% of the statewide class) to determine the potential value and 17 strength of the claims. The available information enabled Class Counsel to assess and value the 18 class and PAGA claims and prepare violation, damages, and penalties analyses models.
19 Accordingly, counsel for the Parties have conducted adequate investigation and discovery to be 20 sufficiently informed of the nature and extent of the Class Members' claims, and to enable both 21 sides to fully evaluate the Settlement for its fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness. The 22 Settlement takes into account the strengths and weaknesses of each side's position and the 23 uncertainty of how the case might have concluded at trial and/or appeals.

24 ESTIMATE OF THE VALUE OF THE CLAIMS

25 41. Plaintiffs' action alleges that Defendants have violated the California Labor Code
26 and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders by engaging in a uniform policy and systematic 27 scheme of wage abuse against Plaintiffs and the Class Members, including inter alia, failing to 28 properly compensate overtime and minimum wages, failing to provide compliant meal and rest

1 periods and associated premium pay, failing to timely pay wages during employment, failing to 2 timely pay wages upon termination and associated waiting-time penalties, failing to provide
3 compliant wage statements, failing to maintain requisite payroll records, and failing to reimburse
4 necessary business expenses. Plaintiff further contends that Defendants' aforementioned conduct
5 constitutes unfair business practices (under the California Business and Professions Code ("UCL")
6 and gives rise to civil penalties recoverable under PAGA.

7 42. Based on data provided by Defendants, the total number of Class Members during 8 the period from August 15, 2019 to June 9, 2025 ("relevant time period") was estimated to be 9 approximately 5,459 individuals who worked an estimated total of 319,717 workweeks with an 10 average hourly rate of pay of $16.52.

11 43. Plaintiffs contended that Defendants required Class Members to perform work
12 before clocking-in and after clocking-out of their scheduled shifts and during meal and rest
13 periods. Plaintiffs contended that Defendants discouraged the recordation of overtime hours and 14 required Class Members to perform work off-the-clock. Plaintiffs contended that Defendants
15 failed to include non-discretionary bonuses and incentives in the calculation of the regular rate
16 when paying overtime wages. Plaintiffs also contended that meal and rest periods were regularly
17 missed, later, shortened, and/or interrupted, that Class Members were required to remain on 18 premises during rest breaks, readily available to assist with work tasks, and that Defendants failed
19 to properly pay premiums for all non-compliant meal and rest periods. Additionally, Plaintiffs
20 alleged that Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiffs and Class Members all
21 wages due to them while they were employed by Defendants, within the time period permissible
22 under California law, and that Defendants failed to pay all wages due upon termination, within the 23 time period permissible under California law, thereby triggering waiting-time penalties under 24 California Labor Code section 203. Plaintiffs contended that, based on the violations described
25 herein, the wage statements provided by Defendants and the payroll records kept by Defendants
26 were inaccurate. Finally, Plaintiffs contended that Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and 27 the other Class Members for necessary business expenses, including, but not limited to, the costs
28 associated with the usage of personal cell phones and vehicles for work duties, and costs associated

1 with the purchase of uniforms, footwear, and use of personal cell phone to perform their work
2 duties.

3 44. Class Counsel considered Defendants' arguments, e.g., that the employer's
4 practices, policies, and procedures complied with the law, that Defendants paid Class Members
5 over the California minimum wage for all hours worked, that Defendants correctly paid overtime
6 for all overtime hours worked and did not have extra forms of non-discretionary compensation,
7 that no waiting-time penalties were due because waiting-time penalties only arise from "willful"
8 failure to pay wages due and owing at the time of termination or resignation, that Plaintiffs and 9 Class Members suffered no actual injury from the alleged wage statement violations and that this
10 alleged violation and the alleged recordkeeping violation are entirely derivative of the other causes
11 of action, and that a policy and practice of reimbursing employees for necessary business-related
12 expenses exists and that employees are not required to use their personal phones for work or buy
13 uniform items. Class Counsel also considered the likelihood of Plaintiffs' success in establishing 14 that any of provisions of the California Labor Code, on which the civil penalties under PAGA and 15 the UCL claim are predicated, were violated and that such violations could be proven on a class
16 basis (in the face of arbitration agreements and individualized issues) and/or warranted imposition
17 of civil penalties. Class Counsel also considered that trial courts have wide discretion when 18 assessing penalties under PAGA, and that it could be determined that individual liability issues
19 predominate (e.g., due to purported variation in shifts, locations, job duties, and other 20 circumstances which could raise individualized questions of fact) and could pose challenges to 21 certification, manageability, and the merits of Plaintiffs' claims.

22 45. Class Counsel considered information, data, and documents obtained from 23 Plaintiffs, Defendants, and other sources, and created violation, damages, and penalties valuations
24 and models prior to reaching the Settlement. Based thereon, Plaintiffs calculated the potential
25 value of the claims. However, the potential value of each claim assumed an exposure based on the 26 above-captioned action having been certified and Plaintiffs having proven all elements of the 27 claims and entitlement to monetary recovery in the above-captioned action (on a class-wide and a 28 representative basis), despite risks associated with obtaining and maintaining certification and demonstrating manageability, risks to establishing liability and any underlying California Labor Code and IWC Wage Order violations and damages, and significant additional costs that would have to be incurred in order to certify the above captioned action and establish liability, damages, and penalties amounts in the cases. Plaintiffs faced the risk of the Court finding that class claims were barred by arbitration agreements and/or because individualized issues predominate, such that the cases are not suitable for class treatment. While Class Counsel disagreed with Defendants' arguments and factual contentions, Class Counsel recognized the circumstances and realities of the cases, applicable case law and regulations, the extensive time and pay records produced by Defendants, the costs and expenses of further litigation and certification, and risks to recovery, and applied appropriate discounts for them. Class Counsel calculated the potential and realistic values of each claim as follows:

- a. Failure to Pay Overtime Wages: The potential value of this claim was estimated to be $15,845,174.52 (319,717 workweeks x 2 hours of unpaid overtime wages x overtime hourly rate of $24.78, which is based on the average hourly rate of $16.52). At this juncture, a discount of 50% was applied to account for the risks associated with obtaining and maintaining class certification due to facially compliant written policies, arbitration agreements with class action waivers, and individualized issues inherent in establishing off-the-clock work (bringing the value of this claim closer to $7,922,587.26), a discount of 65% was applied to account for the risks associated with succeeding on the merits and establishing liability due to the same issues (bringing the value of this claim closer to $2,772,905.54), and a discount of 75% was applied to account for the risks associated with proving the extent of damages and obtaining an award thereof (bringing the value of this claim closer to $693,226.39).
- b. Failure to Pay Minimum Wages: The potential value of this claim was estimated to be $5,281,724.84 (319,717 workweeks x 1 hour of unpaid minimum wages x average hourly rate of $16.52). At this juncture, a discount of 60% was applied to account for the risks associated with obtaining and maintaining class certification

1 due to facially compliant written policies, arbitration agreements with class action
2 waivers, and individualized issues inherent in establishing off-the-clock work
3 (bringing the value of this claim closer to $2,112,689.94, a discount of 70% was
4 applied to account for the risks associated with succeeding on the merits and
5 establishing liability due to the same issues (bringing the value of this claim closer
6 to $633,806.98), and a discount of 80% was applied to account for the risks
7 associated with proving the extent of damages and obtaining an award thereof
8 (bringing the value of this claim closer to $126,761.40).

9 c. Failure to Provide Compliant Meal Periods and Associated Premiums: The potential
10 value of this claim was estimated to be $10,563,449.68 (319,717 workweeks x 2
11 meal period premium x average hourly rate of $16.52). At this juncture, a discount 12 of 50% was applied to account for the risks associated with obtaining and 13 maintaining class certification due to facially compliant policies, arbitration
14 agreements with class action waivers, and meal break waiver issues that present
15 individualized issues (bringing the value of this claim closer to $5,281,724.84), a 16 discount of 65% was applied to account for the risks associated with succeeding on 17 the merits and establishing liability for similar reasons (bringing the value of this 18 claim closer to $1,848,603.69), and a discount of 75% was applied to account for 19 the risks associated with proving the extent of damages and obtaining an award
20 thereof (bringing the value of this claim closer to $462,150.92).

21 d. Failure to Provide Compliant Rest Periods and Associated Premiums: The potential
22 value of this claim was estimated to be $5,281,724.84 (319,717 workweeks x 1 rest
23 period premium x average hourly rate of $16.52). At this juncture, a discount of 50%
24 was applied to account for the risks associated with obtaining and maintaining class
25 certification due to facially compliant statewide policies, arbitration agreements with 26 class action waivers, and individualized issues surrounding proving individual
27 employees could not take rest breaks as well as Defendants' defense of waiver
28 (bringing the value of this claim closer to $2,640,862.42), a discount of 65% was

1 applied to account for the risks associated with succeeding on the merits and
2 establishing liability for similar reasons (bringing the value of this claim closer to 3 $924,301.85), and a discount of 80% was applied to account for the risks associated 4 with proving the extent of damages and obtaining an award thereof (bringing the 5 value of this claim closer to $184,860.37).

6 e. Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment: The value of this claim is 7 considered as a part of the valuation of the PAGA claim contained infra.

8 f. Failure to Timely Pay Wages After Termination (and Waiting-Time Penalties):
9 Based on information and data provided by Defendants, it was estimated that 10 approximately 2,938 Class Members had been terminated during the three-year
11 statute of limitations (i.e., from September 5, 2020). Assuming that these individuals 12 were not timely paid all wages due to them upon termination, the potential value of 13 waiting-time penalties was estimated to be $11,648,582.40 collectively (2,938 14 individuals x [30 days x hourly rate of $16.52 x 8 hours]), or approximately 15 $3,964.80 per individual. At this juncture, because this claim is derivative of the 16 underlying claims discussed above, a discount of 60% was applied to account for 17 the risks associated with obtaining and maintaining class certification (bringing the 18 value of this claim closer to $4,659,432.96), a discount of 70% was applied to 19 account for the risks associated with succeeding on the merits and establishing 20 liability (bringing the value of this claim closer to $1,397,829.89), and a discount of 21 90% was applied to account for the risks associated with proving the extent of 22 damages and obtaining an award thereof given that Defendant would assert a defense
23 that any failure to pay wages was not willful (bringing the value of this claim closer 24 to $139,782.99).

25 g. Failure to Provide Compliant Wage Statements: The potential value of this claim
26 was calculated to be $5,40,950.00 ([2,889 initial violations x $50 statutory penalty]
27 + [52,605 subsequent violations x $100 statutory penalty]). At this juncture, because 28 this claim is derivative of the underlying claims discussed above, a discount of 60% was applied to account for the risks associated with obtaining and maintaining class certification (bringing the value of this claim closer to $2,161,980.00), a discount of 70% was applied to account for the risks associated with succeeding on the merits and establishing liability (bringing the value of this claim closer to $648,594.00), and a discount of 90% was applied to account for the risks associated with proving the extent of damages and obtaining an award thereof (bringing the value of this claim closer to $64,859.40), particularly given that this claim, like the waiting time penalty claim, is subject to a defense that the employer did not knowingly or intentionally fail to provide accurate wage statements and that it in good faith believed employees were paid correctly as reflected on the wage statements.

- h. Failure to Maintain Payroll Records: Arguably, civil penalties would only be recoverable by the Labor Commissioner, therefore, the value of this claim is considered as a part of the valuation of the PAGA claim contained infra.
- i. Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business Expenses: The potential value of this claim was estimated to be $2,238,019.00 (319,717 workweeks x $7.00 unreimbursed business expenses). At this juncture, a discount of 60% was applied to account for the risks associated with obtaining and maintaining class certification given arbitration agreements with class action waivers, lack of a uniform policy requiring employees to incur expenses, and individualized issues surrounding whether any individual employee incurred expenses (bringing the value of this claim closer to $895,207.60), a discount of 65% was applied to account for the risks associated with succeeding on the merits and establishing liability (bringing the value of this claim closer to $313,322.66), and a discount of 80% was applied to account for the risks associated with proving the extent of damages and obtaining an award thereof (bringing the value of this claim closer to $62,664.53).
- j. PAGA Penalties: The amount of civil penalties at issue, which the Court could determine whether or not to assess and whether or not to reduce based on the facts and circumstances of the case (to avoid an award that is unjust, arbitrary and 1 oppressive, or confiscatory, pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(e)(2)),

2 were estimated to be approximately $4,911,300.00 (2,889 aggrieved employees
3 estimated to have worked during one-year statutory period x $1,700 civil penalties).
4 At this juncture a discount of 70% was applied to account for the risks associated 5 with succeeding on the merits and establishing liability (bringing the value of this 6 claim closer to $1,473,390.00), and a discount of 80% was applied to account for 7 the risks associated with the Court's discretion to reduce civil penalties and obtaining 8 an award of civil penalties (bringing the value of this claim closer to $294,678.00).
9 The reduction also factors in the potential that a court could reduce any penalties
10 awarded in its discretion. Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Management, Inc. (2012)
11 203 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1135 (disapproved on other grounds). In a recent trial, the 12 Court found liability, but then reduced the PAGA penalties by 90%, from $50 per 13 violation down to $5 a violation. See Carrington v. Starbucks Corp. (2018) 30
14 Cal.App.5th 504; See accord Fleming v. Covidien, Inc., No. ED-CV-10-1487-
15 RGK(OPx), 2011 WL 7563047 at *4 (C.D. Cal. Aug. 12, 2011) (reducing PAGA 16 penalties by over 82%, in part because employer was "not aware" of violations). And 17 in Carrington, the trial court declined to award penalties under Labor Code §§ 203
18 and 226, noting that other trial courts have declined to "stack" (impose multiple)
19 penalties based on the same underlying Labor Code violation. See Ruelas v. Costco
20 Wholesale Corporation (N.D. Cal. 2014) 67 F.Supp.3d 1137. The Settlement
21 Agreement allocates $375,000 to PAGA penalties, which is 20% of the Gross
22 Settlement Amount. This is an even greater percentage than other PAGA settlements
23 approved by courts. See Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc. (E.D. Cal., Oct. 31, 2012,
24 No. 1:10-CV-0324 AWI SKO) 2012 WL 5364575, at *7 (approving $10,000 PAGA
25 penalty for a California class with a $3.7 million gross settlement payment); Syed v.
26 M-I, L.L.C. (E.D. Cal., Feb. 22, 2017, No. 112CV01718DADMJS) 2017 WL 14367, 27 at *13 (approving 2.53% of the estimated $3.95 million Net Settlement Amount
28 allocated to the California class); Viceral v. Mistras Group, Inc. (N.D. Cal., Oct. 11, 2016, No. 15-CV-02198-EMC) 2016 WL 5907869 (approving allocation of $20,000 to the PAGA claim (0.15% of its total value of $12,952,000) as reasonable in the context of the settlement as a whole); In re Uber FCRA Litigation (N.D. Cal., June 29, 2017, No. 14-CV-05200-EMC) 2017 WL 2806698 (approving a settlement agreement of $7.5 million, where the amount allocated to the PAGA claims was only $7,500.00 – .01% of the total settlement amount). Additionally, my office notified the LWDA of the settlement in this case and the LWDA did not respond or object.

46. The foregoing discussion confirms that the amount of the Settlement is adequate in light of Plaintiffs' allegations and causes of action, the evidence at issue with respect to those allegations and causes of action, and legal and factual arguments and circumstances which pose challenges to certification, manageability, merits, and monetary recovery. The conclusion to be drawn from the foregoing analysis is that neither class certification, manageability, liability, nor the ability to adjudicate and/or recover monetary relief on a class-wide or representative basis is clear-cut, which is why the Parties elected to settle this matter. Class Counsel also recognized that additional discounts could be made to the risk-adjusted value to account for the costs and expenses associated with further litigation and the present value of obtaining a settlement now as opposed to monetary recovery, if any, that may be obtained in the future after further litigation. Class Counsel recognized the circumstances and realities of the case, applicable case law and regulations, and risks to recovery and applied appropriate discounts.

47. Class Counsel submits that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and is in the best interest of Plaintiffs, the Class, and the State of California. Class Counsel further submits that the Settlement is within an acceptable range of recovery for this type of litigation given the strengths and weaknesses of the case, the inherent costs and risks of further litigation, and the costs and risks associated with class certification, representative adjudication, trial, and/or appeals.

If there is a ten percent (10%) increase in the number of reported class workweeks, such increase shall, at CCS's option, trigger an escalation of the Gross Settlement Amount in the amount equivalent to one percent (1%) for every one percent (1%) increase in workweeks over the ten percent (10%) threshold, or CCS may choose to have the Class Period end on the last workweek prior to exceeding the 10% threshold (the "Alternate End Date").

The Administrator will cancel all checks not cashed by the void date. The Administrator will send checks for Individual Settlement Payments to all Participating Class Members (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). The Administrator will send checks for Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees including Class Members who submitted a Request for Exclusion from the Settlement Class but who qualify as Aggrieved Employees (and including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). 7.4.3 Not later than 3 business days after the Administrator's receipt of any Class Notice returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using any forwarding address provided by the USPS. If the USPS does not provide a forwarding address, the Administrator shall conduct a Class Member Address Search, and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. The Administrator has no obligation to make further attempts to locate or send Class Notice to Class Members whose Class Notice is returned by the USPS a second time.

7.4.4 The deadlines for Class Members' written objections, Challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods, and Requests for Exclusion will be extended an additional 14 days beyond the 60 days otherwise provided in the Class Notice for all Class Members whose notice is re-mailed. The Administrator will inform the Class Member of the extended deadline with the re-mailed Class Notice.

7.4.5 If the Administrator, Defendants or Class Counsel is contacted by or otherwise discovers any persons who believe they should have been included in the Class Data and should have received Class Notice, the Parties will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, in an effort to agree on whether to include them as Class Members. If the Parties agree, such persons will be Class Members entitled to the same rights as other Class Members, and the Administrator will send, via email or overnight delivery, a Class Notice requiring them to exercise options under this Agreement not later than 14 days after receipt of Class Notice, or the deadline dates in the Class Notice, whichever are later.

7.5 Requests for Exclusion (Opt-Outs).

7.5.1 Class Members who wish to exclude themselves (opt-out of) the Class Settlement must send the Administrator, by email or mail, a signed written Request for Exclusion by the Response Deadline (i.e., no later than 60 days after the Administrator mails the Class Notice, plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed). A Request for Exclusion is a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative that reasonably communicates the Class Member's election to be excluded from the Settlement and includes the Class Member's name, address and email address or telephone number. To be valid, a Request for Exclusion must be timely emailed or postmarked by the Response Deadline.

7.5.2 The Administrator may not reject a Request for Exclusion as invalid because it fails to contain all the information specified in the Class Notice. The Administrator shall accept any Request for Exclusion as valid if the Administrator can reasonably ascertain the identity of the person as a Class Member and the Class Member's desire to be excluded. The Administrator's determination shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. If the Administrator has reason to question the authenticity of a Request for Exclusion, the Administrator may demand additional proof of the Class Member's identity. The Administrator's determination of authenticity shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

7.5.3 Every Class Member who does not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion is deemed to be a Participating Class Member under this Agreement, entitled to all benefits and bound by all terms and conditions of the Settlement, including the Participating Class Members' Releases under Sections 5.2 and 5.3 of this Agreement, regardless whether the Participating Class Member actually receives the Class Notice or objects to the Settlement.

7.5.4 Every Class Member who submits a valid and timely Request for Exclusion shall not receive an Individual Class Payment nor have the right to object to the Class Settlement. Because PAGA claims are subject to claim preclusion upon entry of the Judgment, Class Members who submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion from the Class Settlement but who are Aggrieved Employees are still deemed to release the claims identified in Section 5.3 of this Agreement and are eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment.

7.6 Challenges to Calculation of Workweeks/Pay Periods. Each Class Member may challenge the number of Workweeks and Pay Periods (if any) allocated to the Class Member in the Class Notice. The Class Member may challenge the allocation by communicating with the Administrator via email or mail by the Response Deadline (i.e., no later than 60 days after the Administrator's mailing of the Class Notice, plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice was re-mailed). The Administrator must encourage the challenging Class Member to submit supporting documentation. In the absence of any contrary documentation, the Administrator is entitled to presume that the Workweeks contained in the Class Notice are correct so long as they are consistent with the Class Data. The Administrator's determination of each Class Member's allocation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. The Administrator shall promptly provide copies of all challenges to calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods to Defense Counsel and Class Counsel and the Administrator's determination of the challenges.

7.7 Objections to Settlement.

7.7.1 Only Participating Class Members may object to the Class Settlement, including contesting the fairness of the Settlement, and/or amounts requested for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Class Representative Service Payment.

7.7.2 Participating Class Members may send written objections to the Administrator, by email or mail. In the alternative, Participating Class Members may appear in Court (or hire an attorney to appear in Court) to present verbal objections at the Final Approval Hearing. A Participating Class Member who elects to send a written objection to the Administrator must do so by the Response Deadline (i.e., not later than 60 days after the Administrator's mailing of the Class Notice, plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice was re-mailed).

7.7.3 Class Members who submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion have no right to object to the Class Settlement.

7.8 Administrator Duties. The Administrator has a duty to perform or observe all tasks to be performed or observed by the Administrator contained in this Agreement or otherwise.

7.8.1 Email Address and Toll-Free Number. The Administrator will maintain and monitor an email address and a toll-free telephone number to receive Class Member calls and emails.

7.8.2 Requests for Exclusion (Opt-outs) and Exclusion List. The Administrator will promptly review on a rolling basis Requests for Exclusion to ascertain their validity. Not later than 5 days after the expiration of the deadline for submitting Requests for Exclusion, the Administrator shall email a list to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel containing (a) the names of Class Members who have timely submitted valid Requests for Exclusion ("Exclusion List"); (b) the names of Class Members who have submitted invalid Requests for Exclusion; (c) copies of all Requests for Exclusion from Settlement submitted (whether valid or invalid).

7.8.3 Weekly Reports. The Administrator must, on a weekly basis, provide written reports to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel that, among other things, tally the number of: Class Notices mailed or re-mailed, Class Notices returned undelivered, Requests for Exclusion (whether valid or invalid) received, objections received, challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods received and/or resolved, and checks mailed for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments ("Weekly Report"). The Weekly Reports must include the Administrator's assessment of the validity of Requests for Exclusion and attach copies of all Requests for Exclusion and objections received.

7.8.4 Workweek and/or Pay Period Challenges. The Administrator has the authority to address and make final decisions consistent with the terms of this Agreement on all Class Member challenges over the calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods. The Administrator's decision shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

7.8.5 Administrator's Declaration. Not later than 14 days before the date by which Plaintiffs are required to file the Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement, the Administrator will provide to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its due diligence and compliance with all of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, its mailing of Class Notice, the Class Notices returned as undelivered, the re-mailing of Class Notices, attempts to locate Class Members, the total number of Requests for Exclusion from Settlement it received (both valid or invalid), the number of written objections and attach the Exclusion List. The Administrator will supplement its declaration as needed or requested by the Parties and/or the Court. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration(s) in Court.

7.8.6 Final Report by Settlement Administrator. Within 10 days after the Administrator disburses all funds in the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will provide Class Counsel and Defense Counsel with a final report detailing its disbursements by employee identification number only of all payments made under this Agreement. At least 15 days before any deadline set by the Court, the Administrator will prepare, and submit to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its disbursement of all payments required under this Agreement. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration in Court.

8. DEFENDANTS' RIGHT TO WITHDRAW. If the number of valid Requests for Exclusion identified in the Exclusion List exceeds 10% of the total of all Class Members, Defendants may, but are not obligated to, elect to withdraw from the Settlement. The Parties agree that, if Defendants withdraw, the Settlement shall be void ab initio, have no force or effect whatsoever, and that neither Party will have any further obligation to perform under this Agreement; provided, however, Defendants will remain responsible for paying all Settlement Administration Expenses incurred to that point. Defendants must notify Class Counsel and the Court of its election to withdraw not later than 10 days after the Administrator sends the final Exclusion List to Defense Counsel.

9. MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL. Not later than 16 court days before the calendared Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiffs will file in Court, a motion for final approval of the Settlement that includes a request for approval of the PAGA settlement under Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l), a Proposed Final Approval Order and a proposed Judgment (collectively "Motion for Final Approval"). Plaintiffs shall provide drafts of these documents to Defense Counsel not later than 7 days prior to filing the Motion for Final Approval. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve any disagreements concerning the Motion for Final Approval.

9.1 Response to Objections. Each Party retains the right to respond to any objection raised by a Participating Class Member, including the right to file responsive documents in Court no later than 5 court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, or as otherwise ordered or accepted by the Court.

9.2 Duty to Cooperate. If the Court does not grant Final Approval or conditions Final Approval on any material change to the Settlement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), the Parties will expeditiously work together in good faith to address the Court's concerns by revising the Agreement as necessary to obtain Final Approval. The Court's decision to award less than the amounts requested for the Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Administrator Expenses Payment shall not constitute a material modification to the Agreement within the meaning of this paragraph.

9.3 Continuing Jurisdiction of the Court. The Parties agree that, after entry of Judgment, the Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, Action, and the Settlement solely for purposes of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters, and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.

9.4 Waiver of Right to Appeal. Provided the Judgment is consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, specifically including the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment reflected set forth in this Settlement, the Parties, their respective counsel, and all Participating Class Members who did not object to the Settlement as provided in this Agreement, waive all rights to appeal from the Judgment, including all rights to post-judgment and appellate proceedings, the right to file motions to vacate judgment, motions for new trial, extraordinary writs, and appeals. The waiver of appeal does not include any waiver of the right to oppose such motions, writs or appeals. If an objector appeals the Judgment, the Parties' obligations to perform under this Agreement will be suspended until such time as the appeal is finally resolved and the Judgment becomes final.

9.5 Appellate Court Orders to Vacate, Reverse, or Materially Modify Judgment. If the reviewing Court vacates, reverses, or modifies the Judgment in a manner that requires a material modification of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), this Agreement shall be null and void. The Parties shall nevertheless expeditiously work together in good faith to address the appellate court's concerns and to obtain Final Approval and entry of Judgment, sharing, on a 50-50 basis, any additional Administration Expenses reasonably incurred after remittitur. An appellate decision to vacate, reverse, or modify the Court's award of the Class Representative Service Payment or any payments to Class Counsel shall not constitute a material modification of the Judgment within the meaning of this paragraph, as long as the Gross Settlement Amount remains unchanged.

10. AMENDED JUDGMENT. If any amended judgment is required under Code of Civil Procedure section 384, the Parties will work together in good faith to jointly submit and a proposed amended judgment.

11. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

- 11.1 No Admission of Liability, Class Certification or Representative Manageability for Other Purposes. This Agreement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. Nothing in this Agreement is intended or should be construed as an admission by Defendants that any of the allegations in the Action or Operative Complaint have merit or that Defendants have any liability for any claims asserted; nor should it be intended or construed as an admission by Plaintiff that Defendants' defenses in the Action have merit. The Parties agree that class certification and representative treatment is for purposes of this Settlement only. If, for any reason the Court does not grant Preliminary Approval, Final Approval or enter Judgment, Defendants reserve the right to contest certification of any class for any reasons, and Defendants reserve all available defenses to the claims in the Action, and Plaintiff reserves the right to move for class certification on any grounds available and to contest Defendants' defenses. The Settlement, this Agreement and Parties' willingness to settle the Action will have no bearing on, and will not be admissible in connection with, any litigation (except for proceedings to enforce or effectuate the Settlement and this Agreement).
- 11.2 Confidentiality Prior to Preliminary Approval. Plaintiffs, Class Counsel, Defendants and Defense Counsel separately agree that, until the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Settlement is filed, they and each of them will not disclose, disseminate and/or publicize, or cause or permit another person to disclose, disseminate or publicize, any of the terms of the Agreement directly or indirectly, specifically or generally, to any person, corporation, association, government agency, or other entity except: (1) to the Parties' attorneys, accountants, or spouses, all of whom will be instructed to keep this Agreement confidential; (2) counsel in a related matter; (3) to the extent necessary to report income to appropriate taxing authorities; (4) in response to a court order or subpoena; or (5) in response to an inquiry or subpoena issued by a state or federal government agency. Each Party agrees to immediately notify each other Party of any judicial or agency order, inquiry, or subpoena seeking such information. Plaintiffs, Class Counsel, Defendants and Defense Counsel separately agree not to, directly or indirectly, initiate any conversation or other communication, before the filing of the Motion for Preliminary Approval, any with third party regarding this Agreement or the matters giving rise to this Agreement except to respond only that "the matter was resolved," or words to that effect. This paragraph does not restrict Class Counsel's communications with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.
- 11.3 No Solicitation. The Parties separately agree that they and their respective counsel and employees will not solicit any Class Member to opt out of or object to the Settlement, or appeal from the Judgment. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict Class Counsel's ability to communicate with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.
- 11.4 Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the Settlement, superseding any and all oral representations, warranties, covenants, or inducements made to or by any Party.

- 11.5 Attorney Authorization. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and represent that they are authorized by Plaintiffs and Defendants, respectively, to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.
- 11.6 Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other and use their best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the Settlement Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and authorities as requested by the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the Agreement that may become necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the assistance of mediator David Rotman and/or the Court for resolution.
- 11.7 No Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or encumber to any person or entity and portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action, or right released and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.
- 11.8 No Tax Advice. Neither Plaintiffs, Class Counsel, Defendants nor Defense Counsel are providing any advice regarding taxes or taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement be relied upon as such within the meaning of United States Treasury Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 10, as amended) or otherwise.
- 11.9 Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be amended, modified, changed, or waived only by an express written instrument signed by all Parties or their representatives, and approved by the Court.
- 11.10 Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.
- 11.11 Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits will be governed by and interpreted according to the internal laws of the state of California, without regard to conflict of law principles.
- 11.12 Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against any Party on the basis that the Party was the drafter or participated in the drafting.
- 11.13 Confidentiality. To the extent permitted by law, all agreements made, and orders entered during Action and in this Agreement relating to the confidentiality of information shall survive the execution of this Agreement.
- 11.14 Use and Return of Class Data. Information provided to Class Counsel pursuant to

Cal. Evid. Code §1152, and all copies and summaries of the Class Data provided to Class Counsel by Defendants in connection with the mediation, other settlement negotiations, or in connection with the Settlement, may be used only with respect to this Settlement, and no other purpose, and may not be used in any way that violates any existing contractual agreement, statute, or rule of court.

- 11.15 Headings. The descriptive heading of any section or paragraph of this Agreement is inserted for convenience of reference only and does not constitute a part of this Agreement.
- 11.16 Calendar Days. Unless otherwise noted, all reference to “days” in this Agreement shall be to calendar days. In the event any date or deadline set forth in this Agreement falls on a weekend or federal legal holiday, such date or deadline shall be on the first business day thereafter.
- 11.17 Notice. All notices, demands or other communications between the Parties in connection with this Agreement will be in writing and deemed to have been duly given as of the third business day after mailing by United States mail, or the day sent by email or messenger, addressed as follows:

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND HEARING
DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

Efiong Alize McKelvy, et al. v. PBC SolutionOne, Inc., et al.

(Filed September 5, 2023; Case No. 23CECG03633)

The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!
It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit ("Lawsuit") against PBC SolutionOne, Inc., CCS Facility Services – Fresno, Inc., CCS Facility Services – Orange County, Inc., CCS Facility Services – Los Angeles County, Inc., CCS Facility Services – San Diego, Inc., CCS Los Angeles Janitorial, Inc., CCS Orange County Janitorial, Inc., CCS San Diego Janitorial, Inc., CCS Engineering Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Engineering Orange County, Inc., CCS Engineering San Diego, Inc., and CCS Engineering Fresno, Inc. (collectively, "CCS") for alleged wage and hour violations. The Lawsuit was filed by two former CCS employees ("Plaintiffs") and seeks payment of back wages, expense reimbursement, associated penalties, and other relief for a class of hourly non-exempt employees ("Class Members") who worked for CCS in California during the applicable Class Period (August 15, 2019 to present for the Fresno CCS entities (CCS Facility Services – Fresno, Inc., CCS Engineering Fresno, Inc., and PBC SolutionOne, Inc.); and/or all other CCS entities in California from July 19, 2020 to present). The Lawsuit also seeks penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA") based on the aforementioned alleged violations. The PAGA Class consists of all hourly non-exempt employees in California from: (a) for employees of the Fresno CCS entities from June 11, 2022 to the date of preliminary approval of the settlement; and (b) for employees of all other CCS entities in California, from July 17, 2023 to the date of preliminary approval of the settlement ("PAGA Members").

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring CCS to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring CCS to fund individual PAGA Payments and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA").

Based on CCS' records, and the Parties' current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $_____ (less withholding). Your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $_____. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to CCS' records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn't work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on CCS' records showing that you worked _____ workweeks during the Class Period and _____ Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more workweeks and/or pay periods during these periods, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs’ attorneys (“Class Counsel”). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires CCS to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and PAGA Members to give up their rights to assert certain claims against CCS.

If you worked for CCS during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

- (1) Do Nothing. You don’t have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims against CCS.
- (2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting a written Request for Exclusion to the Administrator. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue any Class Period wage claims against CCS, and, if you are a PAGA Member, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

CCS will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

You Don’t Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment. In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against CCS that are covered by this Settlement (Released Claims).
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is _____	If you don’t want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 6 of this Notice. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. CCS must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all PAGA Members and the PAGA Members must give up their rights to pursue Released Claims (defined below).

Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement Written Objections Must be Submitted by _____	All Class Members who do not opt-out (“Participating Class Members”) can object to any aspect of the proposed Class Settlement. The Court’s decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiffs who pursued the Lawsuit on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiffs, but every dollar paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiffs reduces the overall amount paid to Participating Class Members. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiffs if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 7 of this Notice.
You Can Participate in the _____ Final Approval Hearing	The Court’s Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on _____. You don’t have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court’s virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section 8 of this Notice.
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks/Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by _____	The amount of your Individual Class Payment and PAGA Payment (if any) depends on how many workweeks you worked at least one day during the Class Period and how many Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Period, respectively. The number of Class Period Workweeks and number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked according to CCS’ records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with this number, you must challenge it by _____. See Section 4 of this Notice.

1. WHAT IS THE LAWSUIT ABOUT?

Plaintiffs are former CCS employees. The Lawsuit accuses CCS of violating California labor laws by failing to pay all wages owed during employment (including overtime wages, straight time wages, and minimum wages), failing to pay all wages due upon separation, failing to timely pay wages during employment, failing to reimburse expenses, failing to provide compliant meal periods and rest breaks, failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements, failing to keep complete and accurate payroll records, and failing to produce requested employment records. Based on the same claims, Plaintiffs have also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) (“PAGA”). Plaintiffs are represented by attorneys in the Lawsuit: Lawyers for Justice, PC (“Class Counsel”).

CCS strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE LAWSUIT HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether CCS or Plaintiffs are correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiffs and CCS hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Lawsuit by negotiating an end to the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement (“Agreement”) and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Lawsuit and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiffs and CCS have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court’s Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, CCS does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiffs and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) CCS has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and PAGA Members. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. CCS Will Pay $2,500,000.00 (Two Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars) as the Gross Settlement Amount (Gross Settlement). CCS has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement. The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement to pay the Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel’s attorney’s fees and expenses, and the Administrator’s expenses, and penalties to be paid to the California Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”). Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, CCS will fund the Gross Settlement not more than 14 days after the Judgment entered by the Court become final. The Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if Participating Class Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.

2. Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiffs and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:
 - A. Up to $875,000.00 (35% of the Gross Settlement) to Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and up to $35,000.00 for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Lawsuit without payment.
 - B. Up to $10,000.00 per Plaintiff as a Class Representative Award for filing the Lawsuit, working with Class Counsel, representing the Class, and generally releasing claims against CCS. A Class Representative Award will be the only monies Plaintiffs will receive other than Plaintiffs' Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
 - C. Up to $20,000.00 to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.
 - D. Up to $375,000.00 for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% to the LWDA and 25% in Individual PAGA Payments to the PAGA Members based on their PAGA Period Pay Periods.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement (the "Net Settlement") by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Period Workweeks.
4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiffs and CCS are asking the Court to approve an allocation of twenty-five percent (25%) of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages ("Wage Portion") and seventy-five percent (75%) to penalties, interest, and non-wage recovery ("Non-Wage Portion."). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. CCS will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage Portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiffs and CCS have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.

5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don't cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be deposited with the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in your name.

If the monies represented by your check is sent to the Controller's Unclaimed Property, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.

6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than _____, that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by the sixty-day Response Deadline. The Request for Exclusion should be a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative setting forth a Class Member's name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments, but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against CCS.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA claims against CCS based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Lawsuit.

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline to enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiffs and CCS have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: CCS will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against CCS.
8. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, Simpluris, Inc. (the "Administrator"), to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members' Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks and Pay Periods, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator's contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.
9. Participating Class Members' Release. After the Judgment is final and CCS has fully funded the Gross Settlement and separately paid all employer payroll taxes, Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against CCS or related entities for claims released by the Settlement.

The Released Class Claims means any and all claims and relief asserted or that could have been asserted in the Lawsuit that arise out of or relate to the factual allegations in the Lawsuit during the Class Period, including for alleged failure to pay all wages owed for all hours worked (whether during the workday, pre-shift, post-shift, travel, training/orientation, attending meetings or other time when suffered or permitted to work and/or subject to the control of the employer), including minimum, straight, and overtime wages at correct rates; failure to provide compliant meal and rest breaks; failure to pay all missed meal and/or rest break premium pay; failure to timely pay all wages owed during employment; failure to maintain accurate records; failure to produce personnel and/or pay records, failure to correctly and timely pay all wages owed on separation of employment, including but not limited to any accrued, unused vacation/paid time off; failure to provide accurate and/or complete wage statements; failure to provide a day of rest; failure to pay reporting time pay; failure to pay split shift pay; failure to provide expense reimbursement (including but not limited to use of personal cell phones or other personal devices, work attire and footwear, mileage, tools, equipment, supplies, and/or stools); and failure to provide required written wage notices to employees. The Released Class Claims expressly include, without limitation, all such claims under the California Labor Code including, but not limited to, California Labor Code sections 201-204, 210, 213, 218.5, 223, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 226.6, 226.7, 227.3, 256, 432, 510, 512, 551, 552, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2698 et seq., 2800, 2802, 2810.5, and IWC wage orders 4 and 5 and CCR Title 8 section 11010 et seq., California Business and Professions Code section 17200, as well as any tort, contract, and/or common law claims arising out these allegations and theories. Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.

10. PAGA Members' PAGA Release. After the Court's judgment is final, and CCS has paid the Gross Settlement (and separately paid the employer-sided payroll taxes), all PAGA Members will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against CCS, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all PAGA Members, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against CCS or its related entities based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Lawsuit or resolved by this Settlement.

The Released PAGA Claims means all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Lawsuit and the PAGA Notices and/or ascertained in the course of the Lawsuit, including any and all claims involving alleged failure to pay all wages owed for all hours worked (whether during the workday, pre-shift, post-shift, travel, training/orientation, attending meetings or other time when suffered or permitted to work and/or subject to the control of the employer), including minimum, straight, and overtime wages at correct rates; failure to provide compliant meal and rest breaks; failure to pay all missed meal and/or rest break premium pay; failure to timely pay all wages owed during employment; failure to maintain accurate records; failure to produce personnel and/or pay records, failure to timely and correctly pay all wages owed on separation of employment, including but not limited to any accrued, unused vacation/paid time off; failure to provide accurate and/or complete wage statements; failure to provide a day of rest; failure to pay reporting time pay; failure to pay split shift pay; failure to provide expense reimbursement (including but not limited to use of personal cell phones or other personal devices, work attire and footwear, mileage, tools, equipment, supplies, and/or stools); and failure to provide required written wage notices to employees. The Released PAGA Claims expressly include, without limitations, claims arising under California Labor Code sections 201-204, 210, 213, 218.5, 223, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 226.6, 226.7, 227.3, 256, 432, 510, 512, 551, 552, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2698 et seq., 2800, 2802, 2810.5, and IWC wage orders 4 and 5; and CCR Title 8 section 11010 et seq.

4. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member.
2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing the PAGA portion of the Settlement by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all PAGA Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Pay Period worked by each individual PAGA Member.
3. Workweek/Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Period, as recorded in CCS' records, are stated in the first page of this Notice. You have until _____ to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail, email or fax. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept CCS' calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods based on CCS' records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or Pay Period challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and CCS' Counsel. The Administrator's decision is final. You can't appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

5. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

1. Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (i.e., every Class Member who doesn't opt-out) including those who also qualify as PAGA Members. The single check will combine the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment.
2. Non-Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single Individual PAGA Payment check to every PAGA Member who opts out of the Class

Settlement (i.e., every Non-Participating Class Member).

Your check will be sent to the same address as this Notice. If you change your address, be sure to notify the Administrator as soon as possible. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

3. HOW DO I OPT-OUT OF THE CLASS SETTLEMENT?

Submit a written and signed letter with your name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement that you do not want to participate in the Settlement. The Administrator will exclude you based on any writing communicating your request be excluded. Be sure to personally sign your request, identify the Lawsuit as Efiong McKelvy, et al. v. PBC SolutionOne, Inc., et al., and include your identifying information (full name, address, telephone number, approximate dates of employment, and social security number for verification purposes). You must make the request yourself. If someone else makes the request for you, it will not be valid. The Administrator must be sent your request to be excluded by __, or it will be invalid. Section 9 of the Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

4. HOW DO I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

Only Participating Class Members have the right to object to the Settlement. Before deciding whether to object, you may wish to see what Plaintiffs and CCS are asking the Court to approve. At least 16 court days before the _____ Final Approval Hearing, Class Counsel and/or Plaintiffs will file in Court (1) a Motion for Final Approval that includes, among other things, the reasons why the proposed Settlement is fair, and (2) a Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award stating (i) the amount Class Counsel is requesting for attorneys' fees and litigation expenses; and (ii) the amount Plaintiffs are requesting as a Class Representative Service Award. Upon reasonable request, Class Counsel (whose contact information is in Section 9 of this Notice) will send you copies of these documents at no cost to you. You can also view them on the Administrator's Website <https://www.simpluris.com/> or the Court's website <https://www.fresno.courts.ca.gov/>.

A Participating Class Member who disagrees with any aspect of the Agreement, the Motion for Final Approval and/or Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award may wish to object, for example, that the proposed Settlement is unfair, or that the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff are too high or too low. The deadline for sending written objections to the Administrator is _____. Be sure to tell the Administrator what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. Make sure you identify the Lawsuit as Efiong McKelvy, et al. v. PBC SolutionOne, Inc., et al., and include your name, current address, telephone number, and approximate dates of employment for CCS and sign the objection. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

Alternatively, a Participating Class Member can object (or personally retain a lawyer to object at your own cost) by attending the Final Approval Hearing. You (or your attorney) should be ready to tell the Court what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. See Section 8 of this Notice (immediately below) for specifics regarding the Final Approval Hearing.

5. CAN I ATTEND THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING?

You can, but don't have to, attend the Final Approval Hearing on _____ at (time) in Department 403 of the Fresno County Superior Court, located at 1100 Van Ness Ave., Fresno, CA 93724. At the Hearing, the judge will decide whether to grant Final Approval of the Settlement and how much of the Gross Settlement will be paid to Class Counsel, Plaintiffs, and the Administrator. The Court will invite comment from objectors, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel before making a decision. You can attend (or hire a lawyer to attend) either personally or virtually via CourtCall (https://www.fresno.courts.ca.gov/system/files/general/court-call-information_1.pdf). Check the Court's website for the most current information.

It's possible the Court will reschedule the Final Approval Hearing. You should check the Administrator's website <https://www.simpluris.com/> beforehand or contact Class Counsel to verify the date and time of the Final Approval Hearing.

Plaintiffs Efiong Alize McKelvy and Guadalupe Citlalli Saldana Ponce (together, “Plaintiffs”) and Defendants CCS Facility Services-Fresno, Inc., CCS Facility Services-Orange County, Inc., CCS Facility Services-Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Facility Services San Diego, Inc., CCS Los Angeles Janitorial, Inc., CCS Orange County Janitorial, Inc., CCS San Diego Janitorial, Inc., PBC SolutionOne, Inc., CCS Engineering Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Engineering Orange County, Inc., CCS Engineering San Diego, Inc., and CCS Engineering Fresno, Inc. (collectively, “Defendants”) (collectively with Plaintiffs, the “Parties”), pursuant to Section 11.9 of the Settlement Agreement entered into on or around June 11, 2025 (“Original Agreement”), hereby agree to amend the terms of the Original Agreement, as stated herein. Other than as expressly set forth herein, the terms and conditions of the Original Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

A. Section 1.2 of the Original Agreement is hereby amended as follows:

“Administrator” means ILYM Group, Inc., the neutral entity the Parties have agreed to appoint to administer the Settlement.

B. Section 1.12 of the Original Agreement is hereby amended as follows:

“Class Period” means: (1) for employees of Fresno CCS Entities, from August 15, 2019 to June 9, 2025, and (2) for employees of Non-Fresno CCS entities in California, from July 19, 2020 to June 9, 2025.

C. Section 1.31 of the Original Agreement is hereby amended as follows:

“PAGA Period” means: (1) for employees of the Fresno CCS Entities, from June 11, 2022 to June 9, 2025, and (2) for employees of all Non-Fresno CCS entities in California, from July 17, 2023 to June 9, 2025.

D. Section 3.2.3 of the Original Agreement is hereby amended as follows:

To the Administrator: An Administrator Expenses Payment not to exceed $35,000.00 except for a showing of good cause and as approved by the Court. To the extent the Administration Expenses Payment is less, or the Court approves payment less, than $35,000.00, the Administrator will retain the remainder in the Net Settlement Amount.

E. Section 4.1 of the Original Agreement is hereby amended as follows:

Based on a review of their records, Defendants estimate that there are 291,000 Total

Workweeks from the start of the Class Period through January 28, 2025. If there is a ten percent (10%) increase in the number of reported Workweeks, such increase shall, at CCS's option, trigger an escalation of the Gross Settlement Amount in the amount equivalent to one percent (1%) for every one percent (1%) increase in Workweeks over the ten percent (10%) threshold, or CCS may choose to have the Class Period end on the last Workweek prior to exceeding the 10% threshold of 320,100 Workweeks (the "Alternate End Date"). Based on information provided by Defendants on February 18, 2026, there are 319,717 Workweeks during the period from August 15, 2019 to June 9, 2025. As such, Defendants have elected to exercise their option to end the Class Period and PAGA Period as of June 9, 2025 (i.e., the date prior to reaching the Workweeks threshold of 320,100), and keep the Gross Settlement Amount as $2,500,000.00.

F. Section 7.1 of the Original Agreement is hereby amended as follows:

The Parties have jointly selected ILYM Group, Inc. to serve as the Administrator and verified that, as a condition of appointment, ILYM Group, Inc. agrees to be bound by this Agreement and to perform, as a fiduciary, all duties specified in this Agreement in exchange for payment of the Administration Expenses Payment. The Parties and their Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the Administrator other than a professional relationship arising out of prior experiences administering settlements.

G. Exhibit A. Exhibit A to the Original Agreement, which consisted of the Court Approved Notice of Class Action Settlement and Hearing Date for Final Court Approval ("Class Notice"), is replaced with the revised Class Notice attached hereto as "Exhibit A."

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND HEARING
DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

Efiong Alize McKelvy, et al. v. PBC SolutionOne, Inc., et al.

(Filed September 5, 2023; Case No. 23CECG03633)

The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!
It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit (“Lawsuit”) against PBC SolutionOne, Inc., CCS Facility Services – Fresno, Inc., CCS Facility Services – Orange County, Inc., CCS Facility Services – Los Angeles County, Inc., CCS Facility Services – San Diego, Inc., CCS Los Angeles Janitorial, Inc., CCS Orange County Janitorial, Inc., CCS San Diego Janitorial, Inc., CCS Engineering Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Engineering Orange County, Inc., CCS Engineering San Diego, Inc., and CCS Engineering Fresno, Inc. (collectively, “CCS”) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Lawsuit was filed by two former CCS employees (“Plaintiffs”) and seeks payment of back wages, expense reimbursement, associated penalties, and other relief for a class of hourly non-exempt employees (“Class Members”) who worked for CCS in California during the Class Period, which is the period from August 15, 2019 to June 9, 2025 for the Fresno CCS entities (i.e., CCS Facility Services – Fresno, Inc., CCS Engineering Fresno, Inc., and PBC SolutionOne, Inc.); and/or the period from July 19, 2020 to June 9, 2025 for the Non-Fresno CCS entities (i.e., CCS Facility Services-Orange County, Inc., CCS Facility Services-Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Facility Services-San Diego, Inc., CCS Los Angeles Janitorial, Inc., CCS Orange County Janitorial, Inc., CCS San Diego Janitorial, Inc., CCS Engineering Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Engineering Orange County, Inc., and CCS Engineering San Diego, Inc.) in California. The Lawsuit also seeks penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) based on the aforementioned alleged violations. The PAGA class consists of all hourly non-exempt employees in California from: (a) for employees of the Fresno CCS entities from June 11, 2022 to June 9, 2025; and (b) for employees of all Non-Fresno CCS entities in California, from July 17, 2023 to June 9, 2025 (“Aggrieved Employees”).

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring CCS to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring CCS to fund Individual PAGA Payments and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”).

Based on CCS’ records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $ [REDACTED] (less withholding), and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $ [REDACTED]. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to CCS’ records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn’t work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on CCS’ records showing that you worked [REDACTED] Workweeks during the Class Period and [REDACTED] PAGA Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods during these periods, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' attorneys ("Class Counsel"). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires CCS to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against CCS.

If you worked for CCS during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

- (1) Do Nothing. You don't have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims against CCS.
- (2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting a written Request for Exclusion to the Administrator. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue any Class Period wage claims against CCS, and, if you are an Aggrieved Employee, you remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

CCS will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

You Don't Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment. In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against CCS that are covered by this Settlement (Released Class Claims).
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is [REDACTED].	If you don't want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 6 of this Notice. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. CCS must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees and the Aggrieved Employees must give up their rights to pursue Released PAGA Claims (defined below).

Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement Written Objections Must be Submitted by [REDACTED].	All Class Members who do not opt-out (“Participating Class Members”) can object to any aspect of the proposed Class Settlement. The Court’s decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiffs who pursued the Lawsuit on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiffs, but every dollar paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiffs reduces the overall amount paid to Participating Class Members. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiffs if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 7 of this Notice.
You Can Participate in the [REDACTED] Final Approval Hearing	The Court’s Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on [REDACTED]. You don’t have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court’s virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section 8 of this Notice.
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks/PAGA Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by [REDACTED].	The amount of your Individual Class Payment and Individual PAGA Payment (if any) depends on how many workweeks you worked at least one day during the Class Period and how many PAGA Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Period, respectively. The number of Class Period Workweeks and number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked according to CCS’ records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with this number, you must challenge it by [REDACTED]. See Section 4 of this Notice.

1. WHAT IS THE LAWSUIT ABOUT?

Plaintiffs are former CCS employees. The Lawsuit accuses CCS of violating California labor laws by failing to pay all wages owed during employment (including overtime wages, straight time wages, and minimum wages), failing to pay all wages due upon separation, failing to timely pay wages during employment, failing to reimburse expenses, failing to provide compliant meal periods and rest breaks, failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements, failing to keep complete and accurate payroll records, and failing to produce requested employment records. Based on the same claims, Plaintiffs have also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) (“PAGA”). Plaintiffs are represented by attorneys in the Lawsuit: Lawyers for Justice, PC (“Class Counsel”).

CCS strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTIONS HAVE SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether CCS or Plaintiffs are correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiffs and CCS hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Lawsuit by negotiating an end to the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement (“Agreement”) and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Lawsuit and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiffs and CCS have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court’s Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, CCS does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiffs and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) CCS has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and Aggrieved Employees. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. CCS Will Pay $2,500,000.00 (Two Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars) as the Gross Settlement Amount. CCS has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement, no later than 14 days after the Effective Date (defined below). The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement to pay the Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel’s attorney’s fees and expenses, and the Administrator’s expenses, and penalties to be paid to the California Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”). Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, CCS will fund the Gross Settlement not more than 14 days after the Judgment entered by the Court become final. The Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if Participating Class Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.
2. Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiffs and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:
 - A. Up to $875,000.00 (35% of the Gross Settlement) to Class Counsel for attorneys’ fees and up to $35,000.00 for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Lawsuit without payment.
 - B. Up to $10,000.00 per Plaintiff as a Class Representative Service Payment for filing the Lawsuit, working with Class Counsel, representing the Class, and generally releasing claims against CCS. A Class Representative Service Payment will be the only monies Plaintiffs will receive other than Plaintiffs’ Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
 - C. Up to $35,000.00 to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.
 - D. Up to $375,000.00 for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% to the LWDA and 25% in Individual PAGA Payments to the Aggrieved Employees based on their PAGA Pay Periods.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement Amount (the “Net Settlement Amount”) by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Period Workweeks.
4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Participating Class Members. Plaintiffs and CCS are asking the Court to approve an allocation of twenty-five percent (25%) of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages (“Wage Portion”) and seventy-five percent (75%) to penalties, interest, and non-wage recovery (“Non-Wage Portion.”). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. CCS will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage Portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiffs and CCS have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement

5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don’t cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be deposited with the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in your name.

If the monies represented by your check are sent to the California Controller’s Unclaimed Property, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.

6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than [REDACTED], that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by the sixty (60) day Response Deadline. The Request for Exclusion should be a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative setting forth a Class Member’s name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments, but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against CCS.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA claims against CCS based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Lawsuit.

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline to enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiffs and CCS have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: CCS will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against CCS.
8. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, ILYM Group, Inc. (the “Administrator”) to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members’ Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator’s contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.
9. Participating Class Members’ Release. After the Judgment is final and CCS has fully funded the Gross Settlement and separately paid all employer payroll taxes, Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against CCS or related entities for claims released by the Settlement.

The Released Class Claims means any and all claims and relief asserted or that could have been asserted in the Lawsuit that arise out of or relate to the factual allegations in the Lawsuit during the Class Period, including for alleged failure to pay all wages owed for all hours worked (whether during the workday, pre-shift, post-shift, travel, training/orientation, attending meetings or other time when suffered or permitted to work and/or subject to the control of the employer), including minimum, straight, and overtime wages at correct rates; failure to provide compliant meal and rest breaks; failure to pay all missed meal and/or rest break premium pay; failure to timely pay all wages owed during employment; failure to maintain accurate records; failure to produce personnel and/or pay records, failure to correctly and timely pay all wages owed on separation of employment, including but not limited to any accrued, unused vacation/paid time off; failure to provide accurate and/or complete wage statements; failure to provide a day of rest; failure to pay reporting time pay; failure to pay split shift pay; failure to provide expense reimbursement (including but not limited to use of personal cell phones or other personal devices, work attire and footwear, mileage, tools, equipment, supplies, and/or stools); and failure to provide required written wage notices to employees. The Released Class Claims expressly include, without limitation, all such claims under the California Labor Code including, but not limited to, California Labor Code sections 201-204, 210, 213, 218.5, 223, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 226.6, 226.7, 227.3, 256, 432, 510, 512, 551, 552, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2698 et seq., 2800, 2802, 2810.5, and IWC wage orders 4 and 5 and CCR Title 8 section 11010 et seq., California Business and Professions Code section 17200, as well as any tort, contract, and/or common law claims arising out these allegations and theories. Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.

10. Aggrieved Employees' PAGA Release. After the Court's judgment is final, and CCS has paid the Gross Settlement Amount (and separately paid the employer-sided payroll taxes), all Aggrieved Employees will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against CCS, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all Aggrieved Employees, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against CCS or its related entities based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Lawsuit or resolved by this Settlement.

The Released PAGA Claims means all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Lawsuit and the PAGA Notices and/or ascertained in the course of the Lawsuit, including any and all claims involving alleged failure to pay all wages owed for all hours worked (whether during the workday, pre-shift, post-shift, travel, training/orientation, attending meetings or other time when suffered or permitted to work and/or subject to the control of the employer), including minimum, straight, and overtime wages at correct rates; failure to provide compliant meal and rest breaks; failure to pay all missed meal and/or rest break premium pay; failure to timely pay all wages owed during employment; failure to maintain accurate records; failure to produce personnel and/or pay records, failure to timely and correctly pay all wages owed on separation of employment, including but not limited to any accrued, unused vacation/paid time off; failure to provide accurate and/or complete wage statements; failure to provide a day of rest; failure to pay reporting time pay; failure to pay split shift pay; failure to provide expense reimbursement (including but not limited to use of personal cell phones or other personal devices, work attire and footwear, mileage, tools, equipment, supplies, and/or stools); and failure to provide required written wage notices to employees. The Released PAGA Claims expressly include, without limitations, claims arising under California Labor Code sections 201-204, 210, 213, 218.5, 223, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 226.6, 226.7, 227.3, 256, 432, 510, 512, 551, 552, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2698 et seq., 2800, 2802, 2810.5, and IWC wage orders 4 and 5; and CCR Title 8 section 11010 et seq.

4. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member.
2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing the PAGA portion of the Settlement by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Pay Period worked by each individual Aggrieved Employee.

Workweek/PAGA Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Period, as recorded in CCS' records, are stated in the first page of this Notice. You have until [REDACTED] to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods credited to you. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail, email or fax. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept CCS' calculation of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods based on CCS' records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or PAGA Pay Period challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and CCS' Counsel. The Administrator's decision is final. You can't appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

5. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

1. Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (i.e., every Class Member who doesn't opt-out) including those who also qualify as Aggrieved Employees. The single check will combine the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment.
2. Non-Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single Individual PAGA Payment check to every Aggrieved Employee who opts out of the Class Settlement (i.e., every Non-Participating Class Member).

Your check will be sent to the same address as this Notice. If you change your address, be sure to notify the Administrator as soon as possible. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

6. HOW DO I OPT-OUT OF THE CLASS SETTLEMENT?

Submit a written and signed letter with your name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement that you do not want to participate in the Settlement. The Administrator will exclude you based on any writing communicating your request be excluded. Be sure to personally sign your request, identify the Lawsuit as Efiong McKelvy, et al. v. PBC SolutionOne, Inc., et al., and include your identifying information (full name, address, telephone number, approximate dates of employment, and social security number for verification purposes). You must make the request yourself. If someone else makes the request for you, it will not be valid. The Administrator must be sent your request to be excluded by [REDACTED], or it will be invalid. Section 9 of the Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

7. HOW DO I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

Only Participating Class Members have the right to object to the Settlement. Before deciding whether to object, you may wish to see what Plaintiffs and CCS are asking the Court to approve. At least 16 court days before the [REDACTED] Final Approval Hearing, Class Counsel and/or Plaintiffs will file in Court (1) a Motion for Final Approval that includes, among other things, the reasons why the proposed Settlement is fair, and (2) a Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award stating (i) the amount Class Counsel is requesting for attorneys' fees and litigation expenses; and (ii) the amount Plaintiffs are requesting as a Class Representative Service Payment. Upon reasonable request, Class Counsel (whose contact information is in Section 9 of this Notice) will send you copies of these documents at no cost to you. You can also view them on the Administrator's Website <https://www.simpluris.com/> or the Court's website <https://www.fresno.courts.ca.gov/>.

A Participating Class Member who disagrees with any aspect of the Agreement, the Motion for Final Approval and/or Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award may wish to object, for example, that the proposed Settlement is unfair, or that the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff are too high or too low. The deadline for sending written objections to the Administrator is [REDACTED]. Be sure to tell the Administrator what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. Make sure you identify the Lawsuit as Efiong McKelvy, et al. v. PBC SolutionOne, Inc., et al., and include your name, current address, telephone number, and approximate dates of employment for CCS and sign the objection. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

Alternatively, a Participating Class Member can object (or personally retain a lawyer to object at your own cost) by attending the Final Approval Hearing. You (or your attorney) should be ready to tell the Court what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. See Section 8 of this Notice (immediately below) for specifics regarding the Final Approval Hearing.

8. CAN I ATTEND THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING?

You can, but don't have to, attend the Final Approval Hearing on [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] in Department 403 of the Fresno County Superior Court, located at 1100 Van Ness Ave., Fresno, CA 93724. At the Hearing, the judge will decide whether to grant Final Approval of the Settlement and how much of the Gross Settlement will be paid to Class Counsel, Plaintiffs, and the Administrator. EXHIBIT 3

DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

Efiong Alize McKelvy, et al. v. PBC SolutionOne, Inc., et al.

(Filed September 5, 2023; Case No. 23CECG03633)

The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!
It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit (“Lawsuit”) against PBC SolutionOne, Inc., CCS Facility Services – Fresno, Inc., CCS Facility Services – Orange County, Inc., CCS Facility Services – Los Angeles County, Inc., CCS Facility Services – San Diego, Inc., CCS Los Angeles Janitorial, Inc., CCS Orange County Janitorial, Inc., CCS San Diego Janitorial, Inc., CCS Engineering Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Engineering Orange County, Inc., CCS Engineering San Diego, Inc., and CCS Engineering Fresno, Inc. (collectively, “CCS”) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Lawsuit was filed by two former CCS employees (“Plaintiffs”) and seeks payment of back wages, expense reimbursement, associated penalties, and other relief for a class of hourly non-exempt employees (“Class Members”) who worked for CCS in California during the ~~applicable~~ Class Period ~~of, which is the period from August 15, 2019 to present~~ June 9, 2025 for the Fresno CCS entities (i.e., CCS Facility Services – Fresno, Inc., CCS Engineering Fresno, Inc., and PBC SolutionOne, Inc.); and/or ~~all other CCS entities in California from July 19, 2020 to present~~ the period from July 19, 2020 to June 9, 2025 for the Non-Fresno CCS entities (i.e., CCS Facility Services-Orange County, Inc., CCS Facility Services-Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Facility Services-San Diego, Inc., CCS Los Angeles Janitorial, Inc., CCS Orange County Janitorial, Inc., CCS San Diego Janitorial, Inc., CCS Engineering Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Engineering Orange County, Inc., and CCS Engineering San Diego, Inc.) in California. The Lawsuit also seeks penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) based on the aforementioned alleged violations. The PAGA ~~Class~~ class consists of all hourly non-exempt employees in California from: (a) for employees of the Fresno CCS entities from June 11, 2022 to ~~the date of preliminary approval of the settlement~~ June 9, 2025; and (b) for employees of all ~~other~~ Non-Fresno CCS entities in California, from July 17, 2023 to ~~the date of preliminary approval of the settlement~~ (“PAGA Members June 9, 2025 (“Aggrieved Employees”)).

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring CCS to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring CCS to fund ~~individual~~ Individual PAGA Payments and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”).-

Based on CCS’ records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $- $ (less withholding). ~~Your~~, and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to CCS’ records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn’t work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on CCS’ records showing that you worked - workweeks Workweeks during the Class Period and PAGA Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more workweeks Workweeks and/or ~~pay periods~~PAGA Pay Periods during these periods, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

 The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs’ attorneys (“Class Counsel”). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires CCS to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and ~~PAGA—Members~~Aggrieved Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against CCS._

 If you worked for CCS during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

- (1) Do Nothing. You don’t have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims against CCS.
- (2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting a written Request for Exclusion to the Administrator. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue any Class Period wage claims against CCS, and, if you are ~~a PAGA—Member,~~an Aggrieved Employee, you remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.-

CCS will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the ~~proposed~~ Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

You Don’t Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment. In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against CCS that are covered by this Settlement (Released Class Claims).

You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is _____.	If you don't want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 6 of this Notice. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. CCS must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all PAGA MembersAggrieved Employees and the PAGA MembersAggrieved Employees must give up their rights to pursue Released PAGA Claims (defined below).
Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement Written Objections Must be Submitted by _____.	All Class Members who do not opt-out ("Participating Class Members") can object to any aspect of the proposed Class Settlement. The Court's decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiffs who pursued the Lawsuit on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiffs, but every dollar paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiffs reduces the overall amount paid to Participating Class Members. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiffs if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 7 of this Notice.
You Can Participate in the _____. _____ Final Approval Hearing	The Court's Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on _____. You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks/PAGA Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by _____. The number of Class Period Workweeks and number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked according to CCS' records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with this number, you must challenge it by _____. See Section 4 of this Notice.

1. WHAT IS THE LAWSUIT ABOUT?

Plaintiffs are former CCS employees. The Lawsuit accuses CCS of violating California labor laws by failing to pay all wages owed during employment (including overtime wages, straight time wages, and minimum wages), failing to pay all wages due upon separation, failing to timely pay wages during employment, failing to reimburse expenses, failing to provide compliant meal periods and rest breaks, failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements, failing to keep complete and accurate payroll records, and failing to produce requested employment records. Based on the same claims, Plaintiffs have also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) (“PAGA”). Plaintiffs are represented by attorneys in the Lawsuit: Lawyers for Justice, PC (“Class Counsel”).

CCS strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ~~LAWSUIT HAS ACTIONS HAVE~~ SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether CCS or Plaintiffs are correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiffs and CCS hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Lawsuit by negotiating an end to the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement (“Agreement”) and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Lawsuit and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiffs and CCS have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court’s Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, CCS does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiffs and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) CCS has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and ~~PAGA Members~~. Aggrieved Employees. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. CCS Will Pay $2,500,000.00 (Two Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars) as the Gross Settlement Amount ~~-(Gross Settlement)-~~. CCS has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement-, no later than 14 days after the Effective Date (defined below). The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement to pay the Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel’s attorney’s fees and expenses, and the Administrator’s expenses, and penalties to be paid to the California Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”). Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, CCS will fund the Gross Settlement not more than 14 days after the Judgment entered by the Court become final. The Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if Participating Class

Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.

2. Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiffs and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:
 - A. Up to $875,000.00 (35% of the Gross Settlement) to Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and up to $35,000.00 for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Lawsuit without payment.
 - B. Up to $10,000.00 per Plaintiff as a Class Representative AwardService Payment for filing the Lawsuit, working with Class Counsel, representing the Class, and generally releasing claims against CCS. A Class Representative AwardService Payment will be the only monies Plaintiffs will receive other than Plaintiffs' Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
 - C. Up to $~~20~~35,000.00 to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.
 - D. Up to $375,000.00 for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% to the LWDA and 25% in Individual PAGA Payments to the PAGA-MembersAggrieved Employees based on their PAGA ~~Period~~-Pay Periods.-

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement Amount (the "Net Settlement Amount") by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Period Workweeks.
4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Participating Class Members. Plaintiffs and CCS are asking the Court to approve an allocation of twenty-five percent (25%) of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages ("Wage Portion") and seventy-five percent (~~75%~~25%) to penalties, interest, and non-wage recovery ("Non-Wage Portion."). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. CCS will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage Portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiffs and CCS have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement-.

5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual

Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don't cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies —will be deposited with the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in your name.

If the monies represented by your check ~~is~~are sent to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.

6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than _____, _____, that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by the sixty- (60) day Response Deadline. The Request for Exclusion should be a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative setting forth a Class Member's name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments, but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against CCS.

____ You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude ____ themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible ____ for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA ____ claims against CCS based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Lawsuit.

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline to enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiffs and CCS have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: CCS will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against CCS.
8. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, SimplurisILYM Group, Inc. (the "Administrator";) to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members' Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator's contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.

~~The Administrator's contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.~~

9. Participating Class Members' Release. After the Judgment is final and CCS has fully funded the Gross Settlement and separately paid all employer payroll taxes, Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against CCS or related entities for claims released by the Settlement.

The Released Class Claims means any and all claims and relief asserted or that could have been asserted in the Lawsuit that arise out of or relate to the factual allegations in the Lawsuit during the Class Period, including for alleged failure to pay all wages owed for all hours worked (whether during the workday, pre-shift, post-shift, travel, training/orientation, attending meetings or other time when suffered or permitted to work and/or subject to the control of the employer), including minimum, straight, and overtime wages at correct rates; failure to provide compliant meal and rest breaks; failure to pay all missed meal and/or rest break premium pay; failure to timely pay all wages owed during employment; failure to maintain accurate records; failure to produce personnel and/or pay records, failure to correctly and timely pay all wages owed on separation of employment, including but not limited to any accrued, unused vacation/paid time off; failure to provide accurate and/or complete wage statements; failure to provide a day of rest; failure to pay reporting time pay; failure to pay split shift pay; failure to provide expense reimbursement (including but not limited to use of personal cell phones or other personal devices, work attire and footwear, mileage, tools, equipment, supplies, and/or stools); and failure to provide required written wage notices to employees. The Released Class Claims expressly include, without limitation, all such claims under the California Labor Code including, but not limited to, California Labor Code sections 201-204, 210, 213, 218.5, 223, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 226.6, 226.7, 227.3, 256, 432, 510, 512, 551, 552, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2698 et seq., 2800, 2802, 2810.5, and IWC wage orders 4 and 5 and CCR Title 8 section 11010 et seq., California Business and Professions Code section 17200, as well as any tort, contract, and/or common law claims arising out these allegations and theories. Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.

PAGA Members'

10. Aggrieved Employees' PAGA Release. After the Court's judgment is final, and CCS has paid the Gross Settlement Amount (and separately paid the employer-sided payroll taxes), all PAGA MembersAggrieved Employees will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against CCS, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all PAGA MembersAggrieved Employees, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against CCS or its related entities based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Lawsuit or resolved by this Settlement.

The Released PAGA Claims means all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Lawsuit and the PAGA Notices and/or ascertained in the course of the Lawsuit, including any and all claims involving alleged failure to pay all wages owed for all hours worked (whether during the workday, pre-shift, post-shift, travel, training/orientation, attending meetings or other time when suffered or permitted to work and/or subject to the control of the employer), including minimum, straight, and overtime wages at correct rates; failure to provide compliant meal and rest breaks; failure to pay all missed meal and/or rest break premium pay; failure to timely pay all wages owed during employment; failure to maintain accurate records; failure to produce personnel and/or pay records, failure to timely and correctly pay all wages owed on separation of employment, including but not limited to any accrued, unused vacation/paid time off; failure to provide accurate and/or complete wage statements; failure to provide a day of rest; failure to pay reporting time pay; failure to pay split shift pay; failure to provide expense reimbursement (including but not limited to use of personal cell phones or other personal devices, work attire and footwear, mileage, tools, equipment, supplies, and/or stools); and failure to provide required written wage notices to employees. The Released PAGA Claims expressly include, without limitations, claims arising under California Labor Code sections 201-204, 210, 213, 218.5, 223, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 226.6, 226.7, 227.3, 256, 432, 510, 512, 551, 552, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2698 et seq., 2800, 2802, 2810.5, and IWC wage orders 4 and 5; and CCR Title 8 section 11010 et seq.-

4. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member.
2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing the PAGA portion of the Settlement by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all ~~PAGA Members~~Aggrieved Employees, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Pay Period worked by each individual ~~PAGA Member~~Aggrieved Employee.

4. Workweek/PAGA Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Period, as recorded in CCS' records, are stated in the first page of this Notice. You have until _____ to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods credited to you. You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or PAGA Pay Period challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and CCS' Counsel. The Administrator's decision is final. You can't appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

1. Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (i.e., every Class Member who doesn't opt-out) including those who also qualify as ~~PAGA Members~~Aggrieved Employees. Re: PBC SOLUTIONONE, INC.

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Efiong Alize McKelvy against PBC SolutionOne Inc. (including any and all affiliates, subsidiaries, parents, directors, officers, agents, and executive employees) (collectively referred to as "PBC") for violations of California wage-and-hour laws. Mr. McKelvy seeks penalties for violations of the California Labor Code, which are recoverable under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") and all other remedies available under PAGA.

Mr. McKelvy seeks these remedies on behalf of the State of California and "aggrieved employees," as defined herein. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

PBC employed Mr. McKelvy as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately July 2022 to approximately February 2023, in the State of California.

The "aggrieved employees" that Mr. McKelvy may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the above-referenced entities within the State of California.

Based on the following facts and theories, PBC has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and IWC Wage Orders including inter alia, Wage Orders 4-2001, and 5-2001.

PBC required aggrieved employees to perform work before their scheduled shifts, after their scheduled shifts, during off-the-clock meal breaks, and/or during rest breaks and failed to compensate aggrieved employees for this time. Such work included, but was not limited to, responding to work-related inquiries.

California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198 require employers to pay time-and-a-half or double time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates at one-and-one-half times or double the regular rate of pay, including additional remuneration. During the relevant time period, Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. Therefore, Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each meal or rest period that is not provided. During the relevant time period, PBC required Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees to work during meal and rest periods and failed to compensate them properly for non-compliant meal and rest periods including, inter alia, short, late, interrupted, and missed meal and rest periods.

California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. During the relevant time period, PBC failed to pay Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202, including earned and unpaid minimum, overtime, and premium wages as discussed above.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, PBC failed to pay Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204, including earned and unpaid minimum, overtime, and premium wages as discussed above.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, PBC did not provide Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from PBC were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include the total hours worked by Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees, including time spent working off-the-clock and during meal and rest periods as discussed above, and the naming of the incorrect business entity on Plaintiff's records.

California Labor Code sections 551 and 552 require that every person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest in a seven-day workweek, that no employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in a workweek, and that an employer shall pay a civil penalty in the amounts of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation. During the relevant time period, Mr. McKelvy and the aggrieved employees were required to regularly and/or consistently work in excess of six (6) days in a workweek. During the relevant time period, Mr. McKelvy and the aggrieved employees were required to work in excess of thirty (30) hours in a week and/or six (6) hours in any one (1) day thereof, during workweeks in which they were required to work in excess of six (6) days. During the relevant time period, Mr. McKelvy and the aggrieved employees were required to work in excess of six (6) days in a workweek without accumulating or being provided the opportunity to take at least one (1) day of rest, and when Mr. McKelvy and the aggrieved employees accumulated days of rest, they were not actually provided the opportunity to take the equivalent of one (1) day's rest in seven (7) during each calendar month.

California Labor Code sections 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case shall be kept on file for not less than two years. During the relevant time period, PBC failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the actual hours worked daily and the wages earned by Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees, including earned and unpaid minimum, overtime, and premium wages as discussed above.

California Labor Code section 2810.5 requires an employer to provide written notice to an employee, at the time of hiring, containing the following information:

The rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or otherwise, including any rates for overtime, as applicable. Allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including meal or lodging allowances. The regular payday designated by the employer in accordance with the requirements of this code. The name of the employer, including any "doing business as" names used by the employer. The physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address, if different. The telephone number of the employer. The name, address, and telephone number of the employer's workers' compensation insurance carrier. That an employee: may accrue and use sick leave; has a right to request and use accrued paid sick leave; may not be terminated or retaliated against for using or requesting the use of accrued paid sick leave; and has the right to file a complaint against an employer who retaliates. Any other information the Labor Commissioner deems material and necessary.

PBC failed to accurately provide aggrieved employees with the requisite notice in violation of California Labor Code section 2810.5.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, PBC did not provide Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled for work performed “off-the-clock.”

California Labor Code section 1198 provides that “The employment of any employee ... under conditions of labor prohibited by the [Industrial Wage Orders] is unlawful.” The applicable Industrial Wage Orders, including inter alia, Wage Orders 4-2001, and 5-2001, require that for each workday an employee is required to report for work and does report, but is not put to work or is furnished less than half said employee’s usual or scheduled day’s work, the employee shall be paid for half the usual or scheduled day’s work, but in no event for less than two (2) hours nor more than four (4) hours, at the employee’s regular rate of pay. Further, if an employee is required to report for work a second time in any one workday and is furnished less than two (2) hours of work on the second reporting, said employee shall be paid for two (2) hours at the employee’s regular rate of pay. During the relevant time period, PBC failed to pay Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees half the usual or scheduled day’s work in an amount no less than two (2) hours nor more than four (4) hours at the employee’s regular rate of pay for workdays in which Mr. McKelvy and the other aggrieved employees reported to work and were furnished less than half the usual or scheduled day’s work. During the relevant time period, PBC failed to pay Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees for two (2) hours at the employee’s regular rate of pay on days in which Mr. McKelvy and the other aggrieved employees were required to report for work a second time in one workday and were furnished less than two (2) hours of work upon the second reporting.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. During the relevant time period, Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by PBC. These costs include, but are not limited to, the use of a personal phone for work-related tasks, the purchasing and maintenance of footwear in compliance with the dress code, and the purchasing and maintenance of tools, equipment, and supplies.

Therefore, on behalf of all aggrieved employees, Mr. McKelvy seeks all applicable penalties arising out of the above-referenced wage, hour, and payroll practices, or which could be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, for violation of the California Labor Code pursuant to PAGA, including civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 558.

Re: CCS FACILITY SERVICES

Dear Representative:

On June 30, 2023, we submitted a PAGA Notice on behalf of Efiong Alize McKelvy against PBC SolutionOne, Inc. dba CCS Facility Services and any affiliated entities that employ non-exempt employees in California, seeking penalties under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") on behalf of Mr. McKelvy and all aggrieved employees working for these entities in California.

The purpose of this letter is to supplement the prior notice to name the affiliated entities of PBC SolutionOne, Inc. referenced in the original notice and clarify and amend certain facts and theories. With respect to the affiliated entities, Mr. McKelvy asserts that these include CCS Engineering Fresno, Inc. and CCS Facility Services-Fresno, Inc. (collectively referred to herein as "CCS"), which entities Mr. McKelvy alleges were predecessor, successor, and affiliated integrated and/or joint employers that engaged in violations against Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees.

Mr. McKelvy continues to seek these remedies on behalf of the State of California and "aggrieved employees," as defined previously and herein to include all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees working for CCS within the State of California. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3. It incorporates the allegations in Mr. McKelvy's original PAGA notice.

CCS employed Mr. McKelvy as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee beginning in July 2022 in the State of California.

Based on the following facts and theories, CCS has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201-204, 213, 226, 226.7, 227.3, 432, 510, 512, 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 2800, 2802, 2810.5 and IWC Wage Orders including inter alia, Wage Orders 4-2001 and 5-2001.

Failure to Pay All Minimum, Straight, and Overtime Wages

CCS required Mr. McKelvy and aggrieved employees to perform uncompensated work before, during, and/or after their scheduled shifts, during off-the-clock meal breaks, and/or during rest breaks and failed to compensate aggrieved employees for this time. Such work included, but was not limited to, responding to work-related inquiries, traveling during the workday, and performing other work and/or being subject to the control of CCS.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and 1198 require employers to pay employees for all hours worked at no less than the minimum wage rates fixed by state and local law and further require employers to pay time-and-a-half or double time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates at one-and-one-half times or double the regular rate of pay, including additional remuneration. During the relevant time period, Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. Therefore, Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked and/or overtime was not calculated correctly based on the “regular rate of pay” as defined by California law.

Failure to Provide Compliant Meal and Rest Breaks and Premium Pay for Missed Breaks

California Labor Code section 512 and the IWC Wage Orders require that employers provide employees with an uninterrupted meal period of at least 30 minutes after no more than five hours of work and a second 30-minute meal period after no more than ten hours of work. The IWC Wage Orders also require that employers authorize and permit an uninterrupted 10-minute rest period for each four-hour period (or major fraction thereof) that an employee works. Labor Code section 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each meal or rest period that is not provided. During the relevant time period, CCS failed to provide Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees with compliant meal and rest breaks by failing to completely and timely relieve them of duties and employer control during these breaks and causing them to work and/or remain on call and/or on the premises during meal and rest periods. CCS failed to compensate them properly and at the correct rate for non-compliant meal and rest periods including, inter alia, short, late, interrupted, and missed meal and rest periods.

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Owed on Separation of Employment

California Labor Code sections 201 through 204 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. Final wages must include any accrued, unused vacation. Cal. Labor Code § 227.3. During the relevant time period, CCS failed to timely pay Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them on separation of employment, including earned and unpaid minimum, overtime, premium and vacation wages as discussed herein. CCS also violated Labor Code section 213(d) by paying final wages via direct deposit without obtaining Mr. McKelvy's and other aggrieved employees' authorization to do so.

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Owed During Employment

California Labor Code sections 201-204 require payment of all wages for non-exempt employees at least twice each calendar month and further require that all wages due must be paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Labor Code section 210 provides that “every person who fails to pay the wages of an employee as provided in Section ... 204 ... shall be subject to a civil penalty” of $100 for an initial violation and $200 plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld for a subsequent violation. During the relevant time period, CCS failed to pay Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201-204, including earned and unpaid minimum, overtime, and premium wages as discussed herein.

Failure to Provide Accurate and Complete Wage Statements

California Labor Code sections 226 and 226.3 require employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees each pay period that show (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked, (3) the number of piece rate units earned and applicable piece-rate in effect, (4) all deductions, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period, (7) the name of the employee and last four digits of SSN or an EIN, (8) the name and address of the legal name of the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. During the relevant time period, CCS did not provide Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include the total hours actually worked and the applicable hourly rates and wages actually earned by Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees, including time spent working off-the-clock and during meal and rest periods as discussed herein, as well as the naming of the incorrect business entity and/or address.

Failure to Provide Day of Rest

California Labor Code sections 551 and 552 require that every person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest in a seven-day workweek, that no employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in a workweek, and that an employer shall pay a civil penalty in the amounts of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation. During the relevant time period, Mr. McKelvy and the aggrieved employees were required to regularly and/or consistently work in excess of six (6) days in a workweek. During the relevant time period, Mr. McKelvy and the aggrieved employees were required to work in excess of thirty (30) hours in a week and/or six (6) hours in any one (1) day thereof, during workweeks in which they were required to work in excess of six (6) days. During the relevant time period, Mr. McKelvy and the aggrieved employees were required to work in excess of six (6) days in a workweek without accumulating or being provided the opportunity to take at least one (1) day of rest, and when Mr. McKelvy and the aggrieved employees accumulated days of rest, they were not actually provided the opportunity to take the equivalent of one (1) day's rest in seven (7) during each calendar month.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

California Labor Code section 1174(d) and 1174.5 require an employer to-keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. IWC Order section 7(A)(3) requires employers to keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods and total hours worked each day are also to be recorded. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than two years. During the relevant time period, CCS failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the actual hours worked daily and the wages earned by Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees, including earned and unpaid minimum, overtime, and premium wages as discussed herein.

Failure to Provide Wage Theft Act Notices

California Labor Code section 2810.5 requires an employer to provide written notice to an employee, at the time of hiring, containing specified information, including the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or otherwise, including any rates for overtime, as applicable; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including meal or lodging allowances; the regular payday designated by the employer; the name of the employer, including any "doing business as" names used by the employer, the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address, if different; the telephone number of the employer; the name, address, and telephone number of the employer's workers' compensation insurance carrier; information regarding paid sick leave; and any other information the Labor Commissioner deems material and necessary.

CCS failed to provide Mr. McKelvy and aggrieved employees with the requisite notice accurately containing all information required in violation of California Labor Code section 2810.5.

Failure to Provide Reporting Time and Split Shift Pay

California Labor Code section 1198 provides that "The employment of any employee ... under conditions of labor prohibited by the [Industrial Wage Orders] is unlawful." The applicable Industrial Wage Orders, including inter alia Wage Orders 4-2001, and 5-2001, require that for each workday an employee is required to report for work and does report, but is not put to work or is furnished less than half said employee's usual or scheduled day's work, the employee shall be paid for half the usual or scheduled day's work, but in no event for less than two (2) hours nor more than four (4) hours, at the employee's regular rate of pay. Further, if an employee is required to report for work a second time in any one workday and is furnished less than two (2) hours of work on the second reporting, said employee shall be paid for two (2) hours at the employee's regular rate of pay. During the relevant time period, CCS failed to pay Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees half the usual or scheduled day's work in an amount no less than two (2) hours nor more than four (4) hours at the employee's regular rate of pay for workdays in which Mr. McKelvy and the other aggrieved employees at times reported to work and were furnished less than half the usual or scheduled day's work. During the relevant time period, CCS failed to pay Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees for two (2) hours at the employee's regular rate of pay on days in which Mr. McKelvy and the other aggrieved employees at times were required to report for work a second time in one workday and were furnished less than two (2) hours of work upon the second reporting.

Section 4(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders requires that when “an employee works a split shift” the employer must pay one additional hour’s pay at the minimum wage “in addition to the minimum wage for that workday.” A “split shift” is defined as a work schedule that is “interrupted by non-paid non-working periods established by the employer, other than bona fide rest or meal periods.” During the relevant period, Mr. McKelvy and the aggrieved employees at times worked split shifts but were not paid the required split shift premiums.

Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. During the relevant time period, Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by CCS. These costs include, but are not limited to, the use of personal cell phones or other personal devices, mileage, and costs for purchase and maintenance of required work attire and footwear, tools, equipment, and supplies.

Failure to Produce Personnel and Pay Records

Labor Code section 226 provides current and former employees with the right to inspect or receive a copy of payroll records pertaining to their employment no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days from the date of the request. Labor Code section 1198.5(a) provides current and former employees with the right to inspect and receive a copy of personnel records the employer maintains relating to the employee’s performance or to any grievance concerning the employee not later than thirty (30) calendar days from the date the employer receives the written request with certain limited exceptions. Labor Code section 432 provides that if an employee or applicant signs any instrument relating to obtaining or holding employment, they shall be given a copy upon request. CCS failed to timely and completely respond to records requests made by Mr. McKelvy and other aggrieved employees in accordance with these laws.

Civil Penalties Under PAGA

Based on the foregoing, on behalf of all aggrieved employees, Mr. McKelvy seeks all applicable penalties arising out of the above-referenced violations, or which could be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, for violation of the California Labor Code pursuant to PAGA, including civil penalties under Labor Code sections 210, 225.5, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, 2699, and any other applicable penalty provision.

Re: NOTICE PURSUANT TO LABOR CODE §§ 2698 et seq
CCS FACILITY SERVICES

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Guadalupe Citlalli Saldana Ponce on claims against CCS Facility Services-Orange County, Inc. and its predecessors and affiliated entities that have employed non-exempt employees in California, for penalties under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"). These predecessor and affiliated entities include CCS Orange County Janitorial, Inc., CCS Engineering Orange County, Inc., CCS Facility Services-Fresno, Inc., PBC SolutionOne, Inc. dba CCS Facility Services, CCS Engineering Fresno, Inc., CCS Facility Services-Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Los Angeles Janitorial, Inc., CCS Engineering Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Facility Services-San Diego, Inc., CCS San Diego Janitorial, Inc., and CCS Engineering San Diego, Inc. (collectively referred to herein as "CCS"), which entities Ms. Saldana Ponce alleges were and/or are integrated and/or joint employers that engaged in violations against Ms. Saldana Ponce and other aggrieved employees during the relevant time period.

Ms. Saldana Ponce seeks remedies on behalf of the State of California and "aggrieved employees," as defined herein to include all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees working for CCS within the State of California. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

CCS employed Ms. Saldana Ponce as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from June 2023 to February 2025 in California.

Based on the following facts and theories, CCS has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201-204, 213, 226, 226.7, 227.3, 432, 510, 512, 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 2800, 2802, 2810.5 and IWC Wage Orders including inter alia, Wage Orders 4-2001 and 5-2001.

Failure to Pay All Minimum, Straight, and Overtime Wages

CCS required Ms. Saldana Ponce and aggrieved employees to perform uncompensated work before, during, and/or after their scheduled shifts, during off-the-clock meal breaks, and/or during rest breaks and failed to compensate aggrieved employees for this time. Such work included, but was not limited to, responding to work-related inquiries, traveling during the workday, and performing other work and/or being subject to the control of CCS.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and 1198 require employers to pay employees for all hours worked at no less than the minimum wage rates fixed by state and local law and further require employers to pay time-and-a-half or double time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates at one-and-one-half times or double the regular rate of pay, including additional remuneration. During the relevant time period, Ms. Saldana Ponce and other aggrieved employees worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. Therefore, Ms. Saldana Ponce and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked and/or overtime was not calculated correctly based on the “regular rate of pay” as defined by California law.

Failure to Provide Compliant Meal and Rest Breaks and Premium Pay for Missed Breaks

California Labor Code section 512 and the IWC Wage Orders require that employers provide employees with an uninterrupted meal period of at least 30 minutes after no more than five hours of work and a second 30-minute meal period after no more than ten hours of work. The IWC Wage Orders also require that employers authorize and permit an uninterrupted 10-minute rest period for each four-hour period (or major fraction thereof) that an employee works. Labor Code section 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each meal or rest period that is not provided. During the relevant time period, CCS failed to provide Ms. Saldana Ponce and other aggrieved employees with compliant meal and rest breaks by failing to completely and timely relieve them of duties and employer control during these breaks and causing them to work and/or remain on call and/or on the premises during meal and rest periods. CCS failed to compensate them properly and at the correct rate for non-compliant meal and rest periods including, inter alia, short, late, interrupted, and missed meal and rest periods.

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Owed on Separation of Employment

California Labor Code sections 201 through 204 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. Final wages must include any accrued, unused vacation. Cal. Labor Code § 227.3. During the relevant time period, CCS failed to timely pay Ms. Saldana Ponce and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them on separation of employment, including earned and unpaid minimum, overtime, premium and vacation wages as discussed herein. CCS also violated Labor Code section 213(d) by paying final wages via direct deposit without obtaining Ms. Saldana Ponce's and other aggrieved employees' authorization to do so.

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Owed During Employment

California Labor Code sections 201-204 require payment of all wages for non-exempt employees at least twice each calendar month and further require that all wages due must be paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Labor Code section 210 provides that “every person who fails to pay the wages of an employee as provided in Section ... 204 ... shall be subject to a civil penalty” of $100 for an initial violation and $200 plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld for a subsequent violation. During the relevant time period, CCS failed to pay Ms. Saldana Ponce and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201-204, including earned and unpaid minimum, overtime, and premium wages as discussed herein.

Failure to Provide Accurate and Complete Wage Statements

California Labor Code sections 226 and 226.3 require employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees each pay period that show (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked, (3) the number of piece rate units earned and applicable piece-rate in effect, (4) all deductions, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period, (7) the name of the employee and last four digits of SSN or an EIN, (8) the name and address of the legal name of the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. During the relevant time period, CCS did not provide Ms. Saldana Ponce and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include the total hours actually worked and the applicable hourly rates and wages actually earned by Ms. Saldana Ponce and other aggrieved employees, including time spent working off-the-clock and during meal and rest periods as discussed herein, as well as the naming of the incorrect business entity and/or address.

Failure to Provide Day of Rest

California Labor Code sections 551 and 552 require that every person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest in a seven-day workweek, that no employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in a workweek, and that an employer shall pay a civil penalty in the amounts of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation. During the relevant time period, Ms. Saldana Ponce and the aggrieved employees were required to regularly and/or consistently work in excess of six (6) days in a workweek. During the relevant time period, Ms. Saldana Ponce and the aggrieved employees were required to work in excess of thirty (30) hours in a week and/or six (6) hours in any one (1) day thereof, during workweeks in which they were required to work in excess of six (6) days. During the relevant time period, Ms. Saldana Ponce and the aggrieved employees were required to work in excess of six (6) days in a workweek without accumulating or being provided the opportunity to take at least one (1) day of rest, and when Ms. Saldana Ponce and the aggrieved employees accumulated days of rest, they were not actually provided the opportunity to take the equivalent of one (1) day's rest in seven (7) during each calendar month.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

California Labor Code section 1174(d) and 1174.5 require an employer to-keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. IWC Order section 7(A)(3) requires employers to keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods and total hours worked each day are also to be recorded. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than two years. During the relevant time period, CCS failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the actual hours worked daily and the wages earned by Ms. Saldana Ponce and other aggrieved employees, including earned and unpaid minimum, overtime, and premium wages as discussed herein.

Failure to Provide Wage Theft Act Notices

California Labor Code section 2810.5 requires an employer to provide written notice to an employee, at the time of hiring, containing specified information, including the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or otherwise, including any rates for overtime, as applicable; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including meal or lodging allowances; the regular payday designated by the employer; the name of the employer, including any "doing business as" names used by the employer, the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address, if different; the telephone number of the employer; the name, address, and telephone number of the employer's workers' compensation insurance carrier; information regarding paid sick leave; and any other information the Labor Commissioner deems material and necessary.

CCS failed to provide Ms. Saldana Ponce and aggrieved employees with the requisite notice accurately containing all information required in violation of California Labor Code section 2810.5.

Failure to Provide Reporting Time and Split Shift Pay

California Labor Code section 1198 provides that "The employment of any employee ... under conditions of labor prohibited by the [Industrial Wage Orders] is unlawful." The applicable Industrial Wage Orders, including inter alia Wage Orders 4-2001, and 5-2001, require that for each workday an employee is required to report for work and does report, but is not put to work or is furnished less than half said employee's usual or scheduled day's work, the employee shall be paid for half the usual or scheduled day's work, but in no event for less than two (2) hours nor more than four (4) hours, at the employee's regular rate of pay. Further, if an employee is required to report for work a second time in any one workday and is furnished less than two (2) hours of work on the second reporting, said employee shall be paid for two (2) hours at the employee's regular rate of pay. During the relevant time period, CCS failed to pay Ms. Saldana Ponce and other aggrieved employees half the usual or scheduled day's work in an amount no less than two (2) hours nor more than four (4) hours at the employee's regular rate of pay for workdays in which Ms. Saldana Ponce and the other aggrieved employees at times reported to work and were furnished less than half the usual or scheduled day's work. During the relevant time period, CCS failed to pay Ms. Saldana Ponce and other aggrieved employees for two (2) hours at the employee's regular rate of pay on days in which Ms. Saldana Ponce and the other aggrieved employees at times were required to report for work a second time in one workday and were furnished less than two (2) hours of work upon the second reporting.

Section 4(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders requires that when "an employee works a split shift" the employer must pay one additional hour's pay at the minimum wage "in addition to the minimum wage for that workday.” A “split shift” is defined as a work schedule that is “interrupted by non-paid non-working periods established by the employer, other than bona fide rest or meal periods.” During the relevant period, Ms. Saldana Ponce and the aggrieved employees at times worked split shifts but were not paid the required split shift premiums.

Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. During the relevant time period, Ms. Saldana Ponce and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by CCS. These costs include, but are not limited to, the use of personal cell phones or other personal devices, mileage, and costs for purchase and maintenance of required work attire and footwear, tools, equipment, and supplies.

Failure to Produce Personnel and Pay Records

Labor Code section 226 provides current and former employees with the right to inspect or receive a copy of payroll records pertaining to their employment no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days from the date of the request. Labor Code section 1198.5(a) provides current and former employees with the right to inspect and receive a copy of personnel records the employer maintains relating to the employee’s performance or to any grievance concerning the employee not later than thirty (30) calendar days from the date the employer receives the written request with certain limited exceptions. Labor Code section 432 provides that if an employee or applicant signs any instrument relating to obtaining or holding employment, they shall be given a copy upon request. CCS failed to timely and completely respond to records requests made by Ms. Saldana Ponce and other aggrieved employees in accordance with these laws.

Civil Penalties Under PAGA

Based on the foregoing, on behalf of all aggrieved employees, Ms. Saldana Ponce seeks all applicable penalties arising out of the above-referenced violations, or which could be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, for violation of the California Labor Code pursuant to PAGA, including civil penalties under Labor Code sections 210, 225.5, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, 2699, and any other applicable penalty provision.

If you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us. Thank you for your attention to this matter and the noble cause you advance each and every day.

1. Class Certification

Settlements preceding class certification are scrutinized more carefully to make sure that absent class members' rights are adequately protected, although there is less scrutiny of manageability issues. (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 240; see Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1803, fn. 9.) The trial court has a "fiduciary responsibility" as the guardian of the absentee class members' rights to decide whether to approve a settlement of a class action. (Luckey v. Superior Court (2014) 228 Cal.App.4th 81, 95.)

A precertification settlement may stipulate that a defined class be conditionally certified for settlement purposes. The court may make an order approving or denying certification of a provisional settlement class after the preliminary settlement hearing. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769(d).) Before the court may approve the settlement, however, the settlement class must satisfy the normal prerequisites for a class action. (Amchem Products, Inc. v. Windsor (1997) 521 US 591, 625-627.)

"Class certification requires proof (1) of a sufficiently numerous, ascertainable class, (2) of a well-defined community of interest, and (3) that certification will provide substantial benefits to litigants and the courts, i.e., that proceeding as a class is superior to other methods. In turn, the community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class." (In re Tobacco II Cases (2009) 46 Cal.4th 298, 313.)

Plaintiffs bear the burden of establishing the propriety of class treatment with admissible evidence. (Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc. (1981) 29 Cal.3d 462, 470 [trial court's ruling on certification supported by substantial evidence generally not disturbed on appeal]; Lockheed Martin Corp. v. Superior Court (2003) 29 Cal.4th 1096, 1107-1108 [plaintiff's burden to produce substantial evidence].)

Here, the class members are all non-exempt, hourly paid employees who worked for Defendants during the PAGA Periods. Notably, the Settlement Agreement distinguishes the PAGA Period for Fresno and Non-Fresno Entities. The putative class consists of an estimated 5,100 members. (Halwadjian Decl., ¶ 13.) The numerosity and ascertainability criteria are satisfied.

Under the community of interest requirement, the class representative must be able to represent the class adequately. (Caro v. Procter & Gamble (1993) 18 Cal.App.4th 644, 669.) "[I]t has never been the law in California that the class representative must have identical interests with the class members . . . The focus of the typicality requirement entails inquiry as to whether the plaintiff's individual circumstances are markedly different or whether the legal theory upon which the claims are based differ from that upon which the claims of the other class members will be based." (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 46.)

Usually, in wage and hour class actions, the distinctive feature that permits class certification is that the employees have the same job title or perform similar jobs, and the employer treats all in that discrete group in the same allegedly unlawful fashion. In Brinker Restaurant v. Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1017, "no evidence of common policies or means of proof was supplied, and the trial court therefore erred in certifying a subclass."

Common questions in this class include that defendant failed to pay overtime and minimum wages and associated premium pay, failed to provide compliant meal and rest periods and accurate wage statements, failed to pay timely wages upon termination, failed to maintain payroll records, and failure to reimburse business expenses. (Halwadjian Decl., ¶ 14.) The motion is supported by a declaration from counsel. However, plaintiffs' declarations are insufficient. They do not establish a basis for belief that other employees had similar experiences. They do not describe plaintiffs' experiences working for defendants and do not include any job descriptions.

The adequacy of representation component of the community of interest requirement for class certification comes into play when the party opposing certification brings forth evidence indicating widespread antagonism to the class suit. "'The adequacy inquiry ... serves to uncover conflicts of interest between named parties and the class they seek to represent.' [Citation.] '... To assure "adequate" representation, the class representative's personal claim must not be inconsistent with the claims of other members of the class. [Citation.]' [Citation.]" (J.P. Morgan & Co., Inc. v. Superior Court (2003) 113 Cal.App.4th 195, 212.)

"[T]he adequacy inquiry should focus on the abilities of the class representative's counsel and the existence of conflicts between the representative and other class members." (Caro v. Procter & Gamble Co. (1993) 18 Cal.App.4th 644, 669.) Counsel has shown that the law firm is experienced and that the firm has successfully litigated other class actions. (Halwadjian Decl., ¶¶ 16-19.) Therefore, it does appear that class counsel has shown that the firm is adequate to represent the interests of the class. However, the issue remains that plaintiffs' declarations are insufficient to establish a community of interest here.

The community of interest element is not satisfied.

2. Settlement Approval

"[I]n the final analysis it is the Court that bears the responsibility to ensure that the recovery represents a reasonable compromise, given the magnitude and apparent merit of the claims being released, discounted by the risks and expenses of attempting to establish and collect on those claims by pursuing litigation. The court has a fiduciary responsibility as guardians of the rights of the absentee class members when deciding whether to approve a settlement agreement." (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129.) "[T]o protect the interests of absent class members, the court must independently and objectively analyze the evidence and circumstances before it in order to determine whether the settlement is in the best interests of those whose claims will be extinguished ... [therefore] the factual record must be before the ... court must be sufficiently developed." (Id. at p. 130.)

In support of the proposed settlement amounts, counsel has provided counsel's declaration. The declaration states that counsel reviewed the records. (Halwadjian Decl., ¶ 22.) A sampling of records was provided by defendant. (Ibid.) A declaration by an expert is required to rely on a sample to determine damages issues such as those before the Court here. "When using surveys or other forms of random sampling, it is crucial to utilize a properly credentialed expert who will be able to explain to the court the methods used to arrive at his or her conclusions and persuade the court concerning the soundness of the methodology." (Chin, Wiseman et al. Employment Litigation (TRG, 2017) section 19:975.3.)

"The essence of the science of inferential statistics is that one may confidently draw inferences about the whole from a representative sample of the whole. Whether such inferences are supportable, however, depends on how representative the sample is. Inferences from the part to the whole are justified [only] when the sample is representative. Several considerations determine whether a sample is sufficiently representative to fairly support inferences about the underlying population."

(Duran v. U.S. Bank National Ass'n. (2014) 59 Cal.4th 1, 38.)

Those considerations include variability in the population, whether size of the sample is appropriate, whether the sample is random or infected by selection bias, and whether the margin of error in the statistical analysis is reasonable. (Id. at pp. 38–46.)

In the case at bench the declaration provides that there are 5,100 class members. There is no discussion of the average hours worked, hourly wages of the class members and no discussion of the evidence supporting any figures used by the parties to arrive at the settlement before the court. Plaintiff has not submitted an expert declaration or provided sufficient discussion or analysis as to how the information submitted supports plaintiffs' counsel's damages estimates. In fact, plaintiffs' counsel has provided no information regarding whether any attempt was made to estimate damages here.

Plaintiffs' counsel seeks a fee award based on 35% of the gross settlement. While it is true that courts have found fee awards based on a percentage of the common fund are reasonable, the California Supreme Court has also found that the trial court has discretion to conduct a lodestar "cross-check" to double check the reasonableness of the requested fees. (Laffitte v. Robert Half Intern. Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 503-504 [although class counsel may obtain fees based on a percentage of the class settlement, courts may also perform a lodestar cross-check to ensure that the fees are reasonable in light of the number of hours worked and the attorneys' reasonable hourly rates].) Here, plaintiffs' counsel has not provided any information about the amount of work done on the case, the hourly rates charged, or whether a lodestar multiplier is sought. Plaintiffs' counsel simply seeks a percentage of the total gross settlement as fees without any evidence linking that number to the actual work done in the case. Failure to provide such information makes it impossible for the court to double check the requested fees against some objective evidence of the work done in the case. With any final approval motion, counsel shall submit a full lodestar analysis, supported by full and complete billing records and evidence supporting the hourly rates claimed.

The motion seeks preliminary approval of a $10,000 "service award" to each of the plaintiffs. This award is in addition to plaintiffs' share of the settlement fund as a class member. There is no "presumption of fairness" in review of an incentive fee award. (Clark v. Residential Services LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 806.) This amount is high. A lower amount may be awarded at final approval, as there is limited evidence indicating any substantive contributions by the plaintiffs during the period of time between the case being filed and ultimately settled, neither is there evidence of any real risk to plaintiffs in being named in a representative action apart from the theoretical.

The parties agreed to use Simpluris, Inc. as settlement administrator. The motion represents that the cost of administration will not exceed $20,000. A declaration from a representative at Simpluris, Inc. was not included to address what costs are anticipated by the settlement administrator. Therefore, the court finds this information is insufficient at this time.

Plaintiffs have not provided sufficient information to establish whether there is a community of interest in this matter. Also, plaintiffs' counsel has not presented sufficient evidence for the determination of whether the settlement agreement is fair. Therefore, the court denies the motion for preliminary approval of the class action settlement agreement, without prejudice.

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 3.1312(a), and Code of Civil Procedure section 1019.5, subdivision (a), no further written order is necessary. The minute order adopting this tentative ruling will serve as the order of the court and service by the clerk will constitute notice of the order.
