MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. SUMMARY OF MOTION

Plaintiffs Efiong Alize McKelvy ("Plaintiff McKelvy") and Guadalupe Citlalli Saldana Ponce ("Plaintiff Ponce") (together, "Plaintiffs" or "Class Representatives") seek preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement ("Settlement," "Agreement," or "Settlement Agreement") entered into by and between Plaintiffs, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated and other aggrieved employees, on the one hand, and Defendants CCS Facility Services-Fresno, Inc., CCS Facility Services-Orange County, Inc., CCS Facility Services-Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Facility Services-San Diego, Inc., CCS Los Angeles Janitorial, Inc., CCS Orange County Janitorial, Inc., CCS San Diego Janitorial, Inc., PBC SolutionOne, Inc., CCS Engineering Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Engineering Orange County, Inc., CCS Engineering San Diego, Inc.; and CCS Engineering Fresno, Inc. (collectively, "Defendants"), on the other hand. Subject to approval by the Court, Plaintiffs and Defendants (collectively, the "Parties") have agreed to settle the lawsuits for a Gross Settlement Amount of $2,500,000.00.[1]

Plaintiffs also seek to provisionally certify the following Class for settlement purposes, which Defendants do not oppose:

> All non-exempt/hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California at any time during the Class Period ("Class" or "Class Members").[2]

Class Members who do not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion from the Class Settlement ("Participating Class Member") will receive a pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount ("Individual Class Payment") based upon the number of weeks each Class Member worked for Defendants as a non-exempt/hourly employee in California during the Class Period ("Workweeks").[3]

[1] Settlement Agreement, attached as "EXHIBIT 1" to Declaration of Maria Halwadjian ("Halwadjian Decl."), § 1.22. If the number of Workweeks worked by Class Members during this period is more than ten percent (10%) greater than this figure (i.e., there are more than 291,000 Workweeks), Defendants agree to increase the Gross Settlement Amount on a proportional basis (i.e., if there was a 1% increase in the number of Workweeks worked by Class Members, Defendants would increase the Gross Settlement Amount by 1%). See id., § 4.1.

[2] Id., § 1.12. "Class Period" is defined as follows: (1) for employees of Fresno CCS Entities, from August 15, 2019 to (a) the date of preliminary approval of the settlement, or (b) the Alternate End Date, whichever is sooner; and (2) for employees of non-Fresno CCS Entities in California, from July 19, 2020 to (a) the date of preliminary approval of the settlement or (b) the Alternate End Date, whichever is sooner. See id., § 1.12.

The Settlement, upon final approval by the Court and funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, will operate to resolve the Released Class Claims of Plaintiffs and Participating Class Members and the Released PAGA Claims of Aggrieved Employees and the State of California.[4]

II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Defendants are janitorial and engineering services contractors who deliver a variety of periodic specialty cleaning services support. Plaintiffs are former employees of Defendants.

On June 30, 2023, Plaintiff McKelvy provided written notice by certified mail to the LWDA and Defendants of specific provisions of the California Labor Code that were alleged to be violated ("McKelvy 2023 PAGA Notice"). Aside from confirmation of receipt of the McKelvy 2023 PAGA Notice, the LWDA did not respond to the McKelvy 2023 PAGA Notice

On September 5, 2023, Plaintiff McKelvy filed a PAGA Complaint for Enforcement Under the Private Attorney Generals Act, California Labor Code § 2698, Et Seq. in the Superior Court for the County of Fresno, thereby commencing the above-captioned lawsuit.

On November 29, 2023, Defendants filed a Motion to Compel Arbitration and Stay Proceedings.

On March 12, 2025, Plaintiff McKelvy provided an amended written notice by certified mail to the LWDA and Defendants ("McKelvy 2025 PAGA Notice") and Plaintiff Ponce provided written notice by certified mail to the LWDA and Defendants of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code that were alleged to be violated ("Ponce PAGA Notice) (collectively, the McKelvy 2023 PAGA Notice, McKelvy 2025 PAGA Notice, and Ponce PAGA notice are the "PAGA Notices"). Aside from confirmation of receipt, the LWDA did not respond to the McKelvy 2025 PAGA Notice or Ponce PAGA Notice.

On October 23, 2025, pursuant to the Parties' joint stipulation, Plaintiffs filed a First Amended Complaint for Damages and Enforcement Under the Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698, Et Seq. ("Operative Complaint"), thereby adding Plaintiff Ponce as an additional named Plaintiff, Defendants CS Facility Services-Fresno, Inc., CCS Facility Services-

Orange County, Inc., CCS Facility Services-Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Facility Services San Diego, Inc., CCS Los Angeles Janitorial, Inc., CCS Orange County Janitorial, Inc., CCS San Diego Janitorial, Inc., CCS Engineering Los Angeles, Inc., CCS Engineering Orange County, Inc., CCS Engineering San Diego, Inc.; and CCS Engineering Fresno, Inc. as additional named Defendants, and additional claims and causes of action consistent with the settlement reached by the Parties.

Plaintiffs' core allegations are that Defendants have violated California wage and hour law, including but not limited to laws set forth in the California Labor Code, by engaging in a uniform practice and procedure, with respect to Plaintiffs, Class Members, and Aggrieved Employees of, inter alia, failing to pay all overtime, straight time and minimum wages, at all or at the correct rate of pay, failing to provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated premium pay, failing to timely pay wages during employment and upon termination of employment, failing to provide compliant wage statements, failing to maintain requisite payroll records, and failing to reimburse necessary business expenses, and thereby engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code section 17200, et seq., and conduct giving rise to civil penalties recoverable under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq.). Plaintiffs contend that they, and the Class Members, are entitled to, inter alia, unpaid wages, penalties (including and not limited to, penalties pursuant to PAGA), and attorneys' fees and costs.

The Parties have actively litigated the Action since it was commenced on September 5, 2023. On June 10, 2024 and subsequently on January 28, 2025, the Parties participated in arm's-length and informed negotiations with Mediator David Rotman, Esq. ("Mediator"), a respected mediator of complex wage and hour actions. With the aid of the mediator, the Parties reached the Settlement described herein to resolve the Action in its entirety.

III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

Under the terms of the Settlement, Defendants will pay a Gross Settlement Amount of $2,500,000.00 to resolve the Action.[5] Subject to approval by the Court, the Net Settlement

Amount will be calculated by deducting the following amounts from the Gross Settlement Amount: (1) attorneys' fees in an amount not to exceed thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $875,000.00 if the Gross Settlement Amount remains $2,500,000.00) ("Class Counsel Fees Payment") and litigation costs and expenses in an amount not to exceed $35,000.00 ("Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Agreement")[6] to Class Counsel; (2) Administration Expenses Payment, which are currently estimated not to exceed $20,000.00 to the Settlement Administrator ("Administration Expenses Payment")[7]; (3) PAGA Amount of $375,000.00 ("PAGA Amount"); and (4) payments in the amount of up to $10,000.00 each to Plaintiffs ("Class Representative Service Payments").[8] The Parties have agreed to retain Simpluris, Inc. ("Simpluris" or "Settlement Administrator") to handle the notice and settlement administration process.[9]

The Parties have agreed that the Settlement Administrator will determine each Participating Class Member's share of the available Net Settlement Amount ("Individual Class Payment"), in accordance with the Settlement Agreement on a pro rata per Workweeks basis, by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks.[10] The Parties have agreed that the Settlement Administrator will determine each Aggrieved Employee's pro rata share of the 25% share of the PAGA Amount, in accordance with the Settlement Agreement on a pro rata per PAGA Pay Periods basis, by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods.[11]

The Parties agree, for purposes of this Settlement, that Individual Class Payments will be allocated 25% to wages subject to withholdings and 75% to penalties and interest.[12] The Settlement Administrator will withhold the employee's share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages portion of the Individual Class Payment.[13] Each Individual PAGA Payment will be allocated as 100% penalties and will not be subjected to withholdings.[14] Defendants will provide the funds for any employer-side taxes related to the Individual Class Payments.[15]

Individual Class Payment and Individual PAGA Payment checks will be negotiable for 180 calendar days from the date of their issuance, and thereafter, shall be canceled.[16] Thereafter, funds from uncashed Individual Class Payment and/or Individual PAGA Payment checks shall be transmitted to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of each Class Member and/or Aggrieved Employee to whom the checks were issued.[17]

Any Class Member may request to be excluded from the Class Settlement by mailing a Request for Exclusion postmarked on or before the date that is 60 calendar days from the date of the initial mailing of the Class Notice by the Settlement Administrator ("Response Deadline").[18] Aggrieved Employees shall be bound to the PAGA Settlement irrespective of whether they exercise their option to opt out of the Class Settlement.[19]

Only Class Members who have not submitted a Request for Exclusion (i.e., Participating Class Member) may object to the Class Settlement by submitting a Notice of Objection, to the Settlement Administrator prior to the Response Deadline or by presenting their objection orally at the Final Approval hearing, regardless of whether they submitted a written objection.[20]

IV. LEGAL STANDARD FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

The settlement of a class action requires approval by the court. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800; Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 1781(f). Courts review class action settlements in a two-step process: (1) an earlier conditional review by the court; and (2) a later detailed review after the period during which notice is distributed to class members for their comments or objections. Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions § 11.24 (4th Ed. 2002). Preliminary approval of a settlement does not require a court to make a final determination that the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. Rather, that decision is made only at the final approval stage. Cal. R. Ct. 3.769(g).

In considering a potential class settlement, a court need not reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute and need not engage in a trial on the merits. See City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corporation (2d Cir. 1974) 495 F.2d 448, 456; Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Commission of City and County of San Francisco (9th Cir. 1982) 688 F.2d 615, 625. Neither formal notice nor a hearing is required for the trial court to grant provisional class certification and preliminary approval; the court may grant such relief upon an informal application by the settling parties and may conduct any necessary hearing in court or in chambers, at the court's discretion. Newberg, § 11.25.

V. THE COURT SHOULD PRELIMINARY APPROVE THE SETTLEMENT

The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether a proposed settlement is fair under the circumstances of the case. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1800. To make this fairness determination, courts must consider several relevant factors, including "the strength of the Plaintiff's case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and view of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement." Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801. "The list of factors is not exclusive and the court is free to engage in a balancing and weighing of the factors depending on the circumstances of each case." Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245. Furthermore, courts give "proper deference to the private consensual decision of the parties." Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1027 (citation omitted).

The proponent of the settlement has the burden to show that it is fair and reasonable. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245. "A presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small." Id.; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802; 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1151.

A. The Settlement Resulted from Arm's-Length Negotiations Based Upon Extensive Investigation and Discovery.

The Parties have actively litigated the Action since it commenced on September 5, 2023. Both sides investigated the veracity, strength, and scope of the claims throughout the case, and Class Counsel was actively preparing the matter for class certification and trial.[22]

Class Counsel conducted significant investigation and formal and informal discovery regarding the facts of the case, including and not limited to, the exchange, review, and analysis of thousands of pages of documents and data from Plaintiffs, Defendants, and other sources.[23] The volume of data and documents that Class Counsel reviewed and analyzed included and was not limited to: Plaintiffs' employment records, a detailed sampling of Plaintiffs' and other Class Members' time data and pay records, Defendants' California Employee Handbook and California Handbook Addendum, internal memoranda, job descriptions, company policy acknowledgements, forms, procedures and policies (including but not limited to Mutual Agreement to Arbitration Agreement, CA Meal Break Waiver Agreements, Meal Periods and Rest Breaks Policy, Overtime Policy, and Attendance and Punctuality Policy), among other information and documents.[24] Class Counsel had the opportunity to interview Plaintiffs and others to gather facts and to identify potential witnesses.[25] In addition, Class Counsel has extensive experience in California wage-and-hour class actions.[26]

The Parties engaged in extensive settlement negotiations and participated in two full-day mediation sessions conducted by David Rotman, Esq., a well-respected mediator experienced in mediating complex labor and employment matters.[27] Prior to and during the mediations and settlement negotiations, the Parties exchanged extensive information and engaged in discussions regarding their evaluations of the case and various aspects of the case, including but not limited to, the risks and delays of further litigation, including the risks of proceeding with class certification and/or representative adjudication, the law relating to overtime, minimum wages, wages upon termination, wages during employment, wage statements, payroll records, reimbursement of business expenses, off-the-clock theory, arbitration agreements, meal and rest periods, PAGA representative claims, and wage-and-hour enforcement; the evidence produced and analyzed; and the possibility of appeals.[28] During all settlement discussions, the Parties conducted their negotiations at arm's length in an adversarial position.[29] Arriving at a settlement that was acceptable to both Parties was not easy. Both sides felt strongly about their ability to prevail at certification and at trial.[30] After conducting investigations, formal and informal discovery, extensive settlement negotiations, and with the aid of the mediator's evaluation, the Parties have agreed that the matter is well-suited for settlement given the legal issues relating to Plaintiffs' principal claims, as well as the costs and risks to both sides that would attend further litigation.[31]

B. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate.

The Settlement represents a fair, adequate, and reasonable resolution of the matter.[32] The Settlement was calculated using the information and data uncovered during litigation, case investigation, and the formal and informal exchange of information.[33] The Settlement takes into account the potential risks and rewards inherent in any case and, in particular, in the matter at issue.[34] Moreover, considering all of the facts and circumstances of the lawsuit, the Settlement represents a fair, reasonable, and adequate recovery for the Class.[35]

Assuming that the Attorneys Fees and Costs, Class Representative Service Payments, PAGA Amount, and Administration Expenses Payment are approved by the Court and paid in the full amounts provided for by the Settlement, the Settlement provides for a Net Settlement Amount that is currently estimated to be $1,180,000.00.[36] Additionally, 25% of the PAGA Amount (i.e., Aggrieved Employee Amount), which is $93,750.00 out of $375,000.00, will be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees. The entire Net Settlement Amount will be fully paid out to the Participating Class Member, in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.

The amount of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment and each Aggrieved Employee's Individual PAGA Payment will be calculated based on their Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods during the Class Period and PAGA Period, respectively.[37] "An allocation formula need only have a reasonable, rational basis [to warrant approval], particularly if recommended by experienced and competent class counsel." In re American Bank Note Holographics, Inc., Securities Litigation (S.D.N.Y. 2001) 127 F.Supp.2d 418, 429-30. Here, the allocation is reasonably related to the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods actually worked for Defendants during the relevant period and should be approved.

In light of the foregoing considerations, Class Counsel believes that the Settlement as a whole is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and is in the best interest of the Class Members, Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California.[38] Although the recommendations of Class Counsel are not conclusive, the Court can properly take the recommendations into account, particularly if Class Counsel appear to be competent, and have experience with this type of litigation, and investigation have been completed, as is the case here. Newberg, §11.47. Accordingly, the Court should grant preliminary approval of the Settlement.

C. The Settlement Is of Significant Value.

Pursuant to Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, the Parties conducted extensive formal and informal discovery and exchanged thousands of pages of documents, data, and information prior to mediation.[39] The information that Class Counsel obtained from Plaintiffs, Defendants, and other sources allowed Class Counsel to develop valuation models in order to evaluate the potential value and merit of the claims, and perform a complete evaluation of Defendants' defenses thereto.[40] As outlined in the Declaration of Maria Halwadjian, Class Counsel performed an extensive analysis of each and every claim pursuant to Kullar prior to entering into the Settlement.[41]

VI. CERTIFICATION OF THE CLASS IS APPROPRIATE

The requisites for establishing class certification are met, and the Parties have stipulated to conditional certification of the Class for settlement purposes only.[42] California Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 "authorizes class actions when the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the Parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court." Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court (2004) 34 Cal.4th 319, 326. California courts certify class actions where the Plaintiff identifies "both [1] an ascertainable class and [2] a well-defined community of interest among class members." Id.

City of Hayward* (1981) 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934-35 (indicating that a class of 30 to 40 individuals satisfies the numerosity requirement as joinder is not practical at that point). The Class here is estimated to be approximately 5,100 individuals, which is sufficiently numerous.[43] Further, all Class Members can and will be identified by Defendants to the Settlement Administrator through a review of Defendants' employment records non-exempt/hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California during the Class Period. As such, the Class is ascertainable and sufficiently numerous.

B. The Share a Well-Defined Community of Interest.

The community of interest requirement “embodies three factors: (1) predominant common questions of law or fact; (2) Class Representative with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) Class Representative who can adequately represent the class.” Sav-On, supra, 34 Cal.4th at 326. “[T]he community of interest requirement for certification does not mandate that class members have uniform or identical claims.” Capitol People First v. Dep't of Developmental Services (2007) 155 Cal.App.4th 676, 692 (emphasis in original). Rather, courts focus on the Defendants' internal policies and “pattern and practice . . . in order to assess whether that common behavior toward similarly situated Plaintiff renders class certification appropriate.” Id. (citing Sav-On, 34 Cal.4th at 333).

Here, common issues of law and fact predominate as to each of the claims alleged and asserted in the Action. Based on the documents and information obtained through formal and informal discovery and exchange of information in the case, Plaintiffs contend that Class Members performed similar job duties and were subject to uniform operations and employment policies, practices, and procedures during the Class Period, including payroll and recordkeeping practices.[44] As a result, Plaintiffs claim that all of the Class Members were uniformly not paid all compensation due to them from Defendants during the time period at issue. Plaintiffs maintain that the outcome of this litigation would be determined by Defendants' alleged uniform operations and employment policies and procedures that applied across its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked in California during the Class Period.

As a member of the Class who were subject to these same policies, practices, and procedures, Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the Class. Moreover, Plaintiffs have no interests adverse to the Class. Plaintiffs have taken steps to initiate and maintain this action and to ensure that it comes to a fair and reasonable resolution.[45] Importantly, Plaintiffs have retained a law firm well-versed in wage and hour class actions, which has at all times represented the best interests of Plaintiffs and the Class.[46]

Accordingly, the proposed Class shares a community of interest, and the Court should certify the Class for settlement purposes only.

VII. APPOINTMENT OF CLASS COUNSEL AND ALLOCATION FOR ATTORNEYS FEES AND COSTS

Class Counsel has litigated the matter for over 2 years and was actively preparing the matter for class certification and trial.[47] The ongoing work has been extensive, demanding, and ultimately successful in achieving a substantial settlement resolution. Class Counsel reviewed thousands of pages of documents and data[48] and also interviewed and obtained information from Plaintiffs and other percipient witnesses, researched applicable law, undertook damages/valuation calculations, and met and conferred with Defendants' counsel regarding the pleadings and the production of documents and data prior to mediation.[49] Counsel for the Parties also undertook extensive settlement discussions, which included participating in mediation.[50]

Class Counsel is well-experienced in wage-and-hour class action litigation and used that experience to obtain a great result for the Class.[51]

The Settlement establishes a Gross Settlement Amount of $2,500,000.00, and provides for Class Counsel to apply to the Court consisting of attorneys' fees in an amount not to exceed thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $875,000.00 if the Gross Settlement Amount remains $2,500,000.00) and reimbursement of actual costs and expenses in an amount up to $35,000.00.[52] The attorneys' fees provided for by the Settlement are commensurate with: (1) the risk that Class Counsel took in bringing and litigating the case, (2) the extensive time, effort and expense that Class Counsel dedicated to the case, (3) the skill and determination that Class Counsel has shown, (4) the results that Class Counsel has achieved throughout the litigation, (5) the value of the Settlement that Class Counsel has achieved for the Class Members, Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California, and (6) the other cases that Class Counsel had to turn down in order to devote its time and efforts to this matter. The proposed Class Notice provides Class Members that an award of the Attorneys Fees and Costs will be sought, and the amount allocated toward the Attorneys Fees and Costs by the Settlement.[53]

Trial courts have "wide latitude" in assessing the value of attorneys' fees and their decisions will "not be disturbed on appeal absent a manifest abuse of discretion." Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 41. Indeed, it is long settled that the "experienced trial judge is the best judge of the value of professional services rendered in his court." Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132. California law provides that attorney fee awards should be equivalent to fees paid in the legal marketplace to compensate for the result achieved and risk incurred. Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 503 (citing Lealao, 82 Cal.App.4th at 48-49). In Lealao, the court held that when an action leads to a recovery that can be "monetized" with a reasonable degree of certainty, the trial court should "ensure that the fee awarded is within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation." Id. at 50.

The California Supreme Court has confirmed the propriety of calculating and awarding attorneys' fees as a percentage of a settlement that has, by litigation, been preserved or recovered for the benefit of others. Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th 480 at 486 & 506. The Court has taken the position that while "[t]rial courts have discretion to conduct a lodestar cross-check on a percentage fee," "they also retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check and use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee[,]" and "[t]he percentage of fund method survives in California." Id. (internal quotation marks omitted).

Historically, courts have awarded fees as high as fifty percent (50%) of the settlement, depending on the circumstances of the case. Newberg, § 14.03; see also In re Ampicillin Antitrust Litig. (D.D.C. 1981) 526 F.Supp. 494 (awarding attorneys' fees in the amount of 45% of the $7.3 million settlement); Beech Cinema, Inc. v. Twentieth-Century Fox Film Corp. (S.D.N.Y. 1979) 480 F.Supp. 1195 (awarding approximately 53% of the settlement as attorneys' fees). California courts routinely approve class action attorneys' fee awards "averag[ing] around one-third of the recovery." Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 n.11 (lower court found 20 to 40 percent range of contingency fee in marketplace was appropriate in class actions); see also Estrada v. Dr. Pepper/Seven-Up, Los Angeles County Superior Court Case No. BC262247 (May 2005) (wage and hour); Moore v. IKEA, Los Angeles County Superior Court Case No. BC263646 (Sept. 2006) (wage and hour).

Class Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.[54]

Class Counsel will provide extensive evidence as to the time worked, litigation efforts, and further argument at the time of filing Plaintiffs' Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement and application for the Attorneys Fees and Costs at the Final Approval Hearing. Considering the work performed and the risks incurred, the attorneys' fees provided for by the Settlement are well within the range of reasonableness for preliminary approval.

VIII. THE PROPOSED CLASS NOTICE IS ADEQUATE

California statutory authority and case law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning appropriate class notice. See Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 1781; Cartt v. Superior Court (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74. A class notice is adequate if it "present[s] a fair recital of the subject matter and proposed terms" of the Settlement. Mendoza v. United States (9th Cir. 1980) 623 F.2d 1338, 1351 (quoting Marshall v. Holiday Magic (9th Cir. 1977) 550 F.2d 1173, 1177).

"Sufficient information about the case should be provided to enable class members to make an informed decision about their participation." Manual for Complex Litigation § 21.311 at 413 (4th ed. 2004). The proposed Class Notice describes the Settlement, the deadlines and procedures to submit an objection to the Class Settlement, submit a Request for Exclusion from the Class Settlement, and/or dispute regarding Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods, and the date and time set for the Final Approval Hearing.[55] The proposed Class Notice summarizes the proceedings to date and the terms and conditions of the Settlement in an informative and coherent manner.[56] The proposed Class Notice recognizes that the Court has not yet granted final approval of the settlement.[57] The proposed Class Notice also apprises the Class Members and Aggrieved Employees of, inter alia, how their Individual Class Payment and if applicable, their Individual PAGA Payment is calculated and the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods credited to them.[58] The proposed Class Notice fulfills the requirement of neutrality in notice procedure. Newberg, at § 8.39.

Thus, the proposed Class Notice satisfies all due process requirements and complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2) and 23(e); Newberg, §§ 8.21, 8.39; Manual, §§ 21.311, 21.312; see also Cartt, supra, 50 Cal.App.3d at 960. Accordingly, the Court should approve the proposed Class Notice.

IX. APPOINTMENT OF THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR

The Parties have selected Simpluris, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator. Within 14 calendar days of receipt of the Class List, the Settlement Administrator will perform an NCOA check and will mail the Class Notice to each Class Member and Aggrieved Employee.[59] The Settlement Administrator will skip-trace returned Class Notice and re-mail the Class Notice to the new addresses within three calendar days.[60] In the case of a re-mailed Class Notice, the Response Deadline will be the later of 60 calendar days after initial mailing or 14 calendar days from re-mailing.[61] The Administrator will receive and process Request for Exclusion, Notice of Objection, and any challenges to Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods.[62] In addition, the Settlement Administrator will be responsible for printing, distributing, and tracking Class Notices and other documents for the Settlement; calculating and distributing payments due under the Settlement; issuing of 1099 and W-2 IRS Forms and all required tax reporting, filings, withholdings, and remittances; providing necessary reports and declarations; and other duties and responsibilities to process the Settlement and as requested by the Parties.[63] The Administration Expenses Payment is currently estimated to be $20,000.00 and will be paid out of the Gross Settlement Amount, subject to approval by the Court.[64] Accordingly, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court appoint Simpluris, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator and direct the mailing of the Class Notice to the Class Members and Aggrieved Employee in the manner outlined and based on the proposed deadlines as described herein and set forth in the Settlement Agreement.

XI. CLASS REPRESENTATIVE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE SERVICE PAYMENTS

Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court appoint them as the Class Representatives and preliminarily approve the Class Representative Service Payments in an amount up to each $10,000.00.[65] It is within the Court's discretion to award payment to a Class Representative for their efforts and work. Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F.Supp. 294, 299. The factors that courts may consider in determining whether to make an Class Representative Service Payments include: (1) the risk to the Class Representative in commencing suit, both financial and otherwise; (2) the notoriety and personal difficulties encountered by the Class Representative; (3) the amount of time and effort spent by the Class Representative; (4) the duration of the litigation; and (5) the personal benefit (or lack thereof) enjoyed by the Class Representative as a result of the litigation. Id.

The Class Representative Service Payments are fair and appropriate. Plaintiffs spent a substantial amount of time and effort in producing relevant documents and past employment records and providing the facts and evidence necessary to attempt to prove the allegations.[66] Plaintiffs were available whenever Class Counsel needed them and actively tried to obtain and provide information that would facilitate the pursuit of the class and PAGA claims.[67] Accordingly, it is appropriate and just for Plaintiffs to receive $10,000.00 for their services on behalf of the Class, Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California, in addition to their Individual Class Payment.

XII. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court grant Preliminary Approval of the Settlement; conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes; preliminary appoint and designate Lawyers for Justice, PC as Class Counsel; appoint Plaintiffs Efiong Alize McKelvy and Guadalupe Citlalli Saldana Ponce as Class Representatives; appoint Simpluris,
