JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiff ELIU SAMIR FIGUEROA CERVANTES (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself, all
2 others similarly situated, the State of California, and the general public, complains and alleges as 3 follows:

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. Plaintiff brings this class and representative action against Defendants
6 NEMATZADEH ENTERPRISES, INC., a California corporation; and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, 7 (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for alleged violations of the California Labor Code and 8 California Business and Professions Code. As set forth below, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants have:

- 9 a. failed to pay them overtime wages at the correct rate;
- 10 b. failed to pay them double time wages at the correct rate;
- 11 c. failed to pay them overtime and/or double time wages by failing to include all 12 applicable remuneration in calculating the regular rate of pay;
- 13 d. failed to provide them with meal periods;
- 14 e. failed to provide them with rest periods;
- 15 f. failed to pay them premium wages for missed meal and rest periods;
- 16 g. failed to provide them with accurate written wage statements;
- 17 h. failed to reimburse them with necessary business expenditures; and
- 18 i. failed to pay them all their final wages following separation of employment.

19 Based on these alleged Labor Code violations, Plaintiff now brings this class and 20 representative action to recover unpaid wages, liquidated damages, civil and statutory penalties,
21 restitution, and related relief on behalf of himself, all others similarly situated, the State of California,
22 and the general public.

23 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24 2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction to hear this case because the monetary
25 damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff from Defendants’ conduct exceeds the minimal 26 jurisdiction of the Superior Court of the State of California.

27 3. Venue is proper in the County of Los Angeles pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure
28 sections 395(a) and 395.5 in that liability arose this county because at least some of the transactions

1 that are the subject matter of this Complaint occurred therein and/or each defendant is found,
2 maintains offices, transacts business and/or has an agent therein.

3 4. Venue is proper in Los Angeles County because Defendants' have at all times alleged 4 herein, conducted business in Los Angeles County, and throughout California. As such, venue is 5 proper in any county in California.

6 PARTIES

7 5. Plaintiff ELIU SAMIR FIGUEROA CERVANTES is, and at all relevant times
8 mentioned herein, an individual residing in the State of California.

9 6. Defendant BIZHAN NEMATZADEH ("BIZHAN "), is, and at all relevant times
10 mentioned herein, an individual residing in the State of California.

11 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendant
12 NEMATZADEH ENTERPRISES, INC. is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, a California
13 corporation doing business in the State of California.

14 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendant TBS FOODS, 15 INC. is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, a California corporation doing business in the 16 State of California.

17 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendant FRESNO
18 FOODS LLC is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, a California limited liability company
19 doing business in the State of California.

20 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendant YOSI FOODS
21 LLC is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, a California limited liability company doing 22 business in the State of California.

23 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant BIZHAN
24 NEMATZADEH ("BIZHAN "), at all times relevant to this Complaint, was the alter ego of Defendant
25 NEMATZADEH ENTERPRISES, INC. Defendant TBS FOODS, INC., Defendant FRESNO
26 FOODS LLC. And Defendant YOSI FOODS LLC (collectively "the Company") Plaintiff alleges, 27 upon information and belief, that BIZHAN, either individually or with members of his family, owned,
28 controlled, and dominated the Company; that he commingled the funds of the Company with his

1 personal assets, as well as the assets of other entities owned in whole or in part by him; that he failed
2 to segregate the funds of these separate entities; that he wrongly diverted corporate funds or assets to 3 non-corporate uses; that he treated the assets of the Company as his own; that he held himself out as 4 being personally liable for the debts of the Company; that he failed to maintain minutes or adequate
5 corporate records and confused the records of various entities; that he used the same office or business
6 location and employed the same employees and attorneys for all entities; that he failed to adequately
7 capitalize the Company; that he used the Company as a mere shell, instrumentality, or conduit for the 8 business of an individual or individuals, namely, themselves and their families; that he disregarded
9 legal formalities and failed to maintain arm's-length relationships among related entities; that he used 10 the corporate entity to procure labor, services, and merchandise for himself or other entities; that he 11 diverted assets from the Company to the detriment of creditors, or manipulated assets and liabilities 12 between entities so as to concentrate the assets in one and the liabilities in another; that he used the 13 Company as subterfuges of illegal transactions; and that he formed and used the Company to transfer 14 to it his existing liabilities. Plaintiff further avers that recognizing the acts and conduct described in 15 this Complaint as those only of the Company would promote an inequitable and unjust result, namely,
16 the deprivation of Plaintiff's fundamental rights under the Labor Code, as described herein.

17 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes that BIZHAN is a natural person who is the owner,
18 director, officer, or managing agent of the Company, who violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor
19 Code Sections alleged herein, and are liable under Labor Code §558.1.

20 13. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of the defendants sued herein as 21 DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff 22 will amend this Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the DOE defendants when 23 ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that each of the fictitiously 24 named defendants are responsible in some manner for the occurrences, acts and omissions alleged 25 herein and that Plaintiff's alleged damages were proximately caused by these defendants, and each of 26 them. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege both the true names and capacities of the DOE 27 defendants when ascertained.

28 14. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times

1 mentioned herein, some or all of the defendants were the representatives, agents, employees, partners,
2 directors, associates, joint venturers, joint employers, owners, principals or co-participants of some 3 or all of the other defendants, and in doing the things alleged herein, were acting within the course
4 and scope of such relationship and with the full knowledge, consent, and ratification by such other 5 defendants.

6 15. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times
7 mentioned herein, some of the defendants pursued a common course of conduct, acted in concert and 8 conspired with one another, and aided and abetted one another to accomplish the occurrences, acts 9 and omissions alleged herein.

10 16. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted in all
11 respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, that Defendants carried out a 12 joint scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and that the acts of each 13 Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants acted in all 14 respects as the employers or joint employers of Employees. Defendants, and each of them, exercised
15 control over the wages, hours or working conditions of Employees, or suffered or permitted
16 Employees to work, or engaged, thereby creating a common law employment relationship, with 17 Employees. Therefore, Defendants, and each of them, employed or jointly employed Employees.

18 17. This action has been brought and may be maintained as a class action pursuant to Code 19 of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined community of interest among the 20 persons who comprise the readily ascertainable classes defined below and because Plaintiff is 21 unaware of any difficulties likely to be encountered in managing this case as a class action.

22 18. Relevant Time Period: The relevant time period is defined as the time period 23 beginning four years prior to the filing of this action until judgment is entered.

24 a. Hourly Employee Class: All persons employed by Defendants, collectively or 25 separately, and/or any staffing agencies and/or any other third parties in hourly or 26 non-exempt positions in California four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action (“Hourly Employee Class”).

27 b. Meal Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked in 28 a shift in excess of five hours during the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.

- c. Rest Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked a shift of at least three and one-half (3.5) hours the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- d. Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who separated from their employment with Defendants during the period beginning three years before the filing of this action and ending when final judgment is entered.
- e. Wage Statement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California during the period beginning one year before the filing of this action and ending when final judgment is entered.
- f. Expense Reimbursement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California who incurred business expenses during the Relevant Time Period.
- g. UCL Class: All Hourly Employee Class and Expense Reimbursement Class members employed by Defendants in California during the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.

19. Reservation of Rights: Pursuant to Rule of Court 3.765(b), Plaintiff reserves the right to amend or modify the class definitions with greater specificity, by further division into sub-classes and/or by limitation to particular issues.

20. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that the individual joinder of each individual class member is impractical. While Plaintiff does not currently know the exact number of class members, Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that the actual number exceeds the minimum required for numerosity under California law.

21. Commonality and Predominance: Common questions of law and fact exist as to all class members and predominate over any questions which affect only individual class members.

These common questions include, but are not limited to:

- a. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide employees with their rest periods;
- b. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide employees with their meal periods;
- c. Whether Defendants failed to pay premium wages to class members when they have not been provided with meal and rest periods at the appropriate rates of pay;
- d. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum and/or overtime wages to class

1 members for all time worked;

- 2 e. Whether Defendants failed to provide class members with accurate written wage 3 statements as a result of providing them with written wage statements with 4 inaccurate entries for, among other things, amounts of gross and net wages, and 5 total hours worked;
- 6 f. Whether Defendants applied policies or practices that result in late and/or 7 incomplete final wage payments;
- 8 g. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse class members for all necessary business 9 expenses incurred during the discharge of their duties;
- 10 h. Whether Defendants are liable to class members for waiting time penalties under 11 Labor Code section 203; and
- 12 i. Whether class members are entitled to restitution of money or property that 13 Defendants may have acquired from them through unfair competition;

14 22. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the other class members' claims. Plaintiff
15 is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that Defendants have a policy or practice of failing to 16 comply with the California Labor Code and Business and Professions Code as alleged in this 17 Complaint.

18 23. Adequacy of Class Representative: Plaintiff is an adequate class representative and 19 has no interests that are adverse to, or otherwise conflict with, the interests of absent class members 20 and is dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on their behalf. Plaintiff will fairly and 21 adequately represent and protect the interests of the other class members.

22 24. Adequacy of Class Counsel: Plaintiff's counsel are adequate class counsel in that 23 they have no known conflicts of interest with Plaintiff or absent class members, are experienced in 24 wage and hour class action litigation, and are dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf 25 of Plaintiff and absent class members.

26 25. Superiority: A class action is vastly superior to other available means for fair and 27 efficient adjudication of the class members' claims and would be beneficial to the parties and the 28 Court. Class action treatment will allow a number of similarly situated persons to simultaneously and

1 efficiently prosecute their common claims in a single forum without the unnecessary duplication of 2 effort and expense that numerous individual actions would entail. In addition, the monetary amounts
3 due to many individual class members are likely to be relatively small and would thus make it
4 difficult, if not impossible, for individual class members to both seek and obtain relief. Moreover, a 5 class action will serve an important public interest by permitting class members to effectively pursue
6 the recovery of monies owed to them. Further, a class action will prevent the potential for inconsistent 7 or contradictory judgments inherent in individual litigation.

8 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

9 26. Plaintiff worked for Defendants as a non-exempt employee during the relevant and 10 statutory periods.

11 27. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Plaintiff
12 and Class Members proper wages and overtime for all hours worked at the proper rates of pay.
13 Plaintiff and Class Members were also consistently required to perform work, off-the-clock, for which 14 they were not paid wages. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to wait in line for 15 a timeclock to become available for them to clock in. Next, after clocking out for the day, Plaintiff
16 and Class Members were required to continue working. Additionally, Plaintiff and Class Members 17 were required to perform work-related tasks and duties during unpaid meal periods, which were 18 systemically denied. Moreover, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to remain on-call, 19 restricted from engaging in their own activities, and ready to report to work, with no advance notice.
20 Finally, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to use their personal cell phone for work-related 21 purposes while off-the-clock, for which no wages were paid. The forgoing and uncompensated
22 working time was under the direction and control of Defendants, for which no wages were paid.

23 28. This uncompensated time caused Plaintiff and Class Members to work in excess of 24 eight (8), ten (10) and/or twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, entitling Plaintiff
25 and Class Members to minimum and overtime wages, which they were systemically denied.

26 29. Defendants also failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members overtime wages at the 27 proper and applicable regular rates of pay. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members earned 28 commissions, spiff pay, as well as performance-based non-discretionary bonuses in addition to their

1 hourly pay. However, these supplemental earnings were not accounted for when determining Plaintiff
2 and Class Members' regular rates of pay, and respective and proper overtime rates of pay.

3 30. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Plaintiff and 4 Class Members the opportunity to take meal periods in compliance with the California Law.
5 Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members were prohibited from leaving the work premises during 6 meal periods, when such meal periods were taken. Additionally, due to understaffing and heavy
7 workloads, Plaintiff and Class Members were denied the opportunity to take timely meal periods prior 8 to the completion of their fifth hour of work. Furthermore, Plaintiff and Class Members were not 9 relieved of all work duties during unpaid meal periods and were required to keep working during 10 meal breaks. Moreover, the uncompensated pre-shift duties discussed herein, delayed Plaintiff and 11 Class Members' meal periods to commence after the completion of their fifth and tenth hours of work.

12 31. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with meal periods of at least thirty (30)
13 minutes for each five (5) hour work period due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each meal 14 period as part of each work shift; (2) no formal written meal policy that encouraged employees to 15 take their meal periods, or that advised Class Members of their meal and rest period rights; and (3)
16 Defendants' practice of requiring putative class members to continue working through their meal and 17 rest periods due to the excessive workload.

18 32. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Plaintiff and 19 Class Members the opportunity to take rest periods in compliance with the California Law. Plaintiff
20 and Class Members were not provided with rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4)
21 hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest
22 period as part of each work shift, including second rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2)
23 no formal compliant written rest period policy that encouraged employees to take their rest periods,
24 or that properly advised Plaintiff and Class Members of their rest period rights; (3) Defendants' policy
25 and practice of requiring Plaintiff and Class Members to remain on the premises during their rest
26 breaks; (4) Defendants' policy and practice of requiring putative class members to continue working 27 through their rest breaks due to the excessive workload.

28 33. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members premium pay

1 wages at their appropriate regular rates of pay for each meal and rest period denied.

2 34. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with accurate wage statements as 3 mandated by law pursuant to Labor Code section 226. Specifically, Defendants failed to issue wage 4 statements as “a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee’s wages, or 5 separately if wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing.”
6 Additionally, the wage statements issued to Plaintiff and Class Members were not recorded in “ink 7 or other indelible form.”

8 35. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(1) as “gross wages 9 earned” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

10 36. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(2) as “total hours worked 11 by the employee” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were 12 not included.

13 37. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(5) as “net wages earned”
14 were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

15 38. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(9) as “all applicable
16 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 17 hourly rate by the employee” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including 18 overtime, were not included.

19 39. Furthermore, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with paper pay 20 stubs as required by Labor Code § 226, applicable Wage Orders, and DLSE Opinion Letters.
21 Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ wage statement were only provided in electronic format in violation 22 of Labor Code § 226.

23 40. Plaintiff and Class Members were not reimbursed for business expenses incurred in 24 executing their duties under Defendant’s employ. Specifically, Plaintiffs and Class Members were 25 required to use their personal cellular phones for work-related duties. Plaintiff and Class members 26 were not reimbursed for these necessary work-related expenses.

1 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

3 (Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512, 1174, and 1198)

4 (Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class)

5 41. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if 6 fully alleged herein.

7 42. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-Class members have been 8 non-exempt employees of Defendant entitled to the full meal period protections of both the Labor
9 Code and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order.

10 43. Labor Code section 512 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare
11 Commission Wage Order impose an affirmative obligation on employers to provide non-exempt
12 employees with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty minutes for each work period
13 of five hours, and to provide them with two uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty 14 minutes for each work period of ten hours.

15 44. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare
16 Commission Wage Order (“Wage Order”) both prohibit employers from requiring employees to work 17 during required meal periods and require employers to pay non-exempt employees an hour of 18 premium wages on each workday that the employee is not provided with the required meal period.

19 45. Compensation for missed meal periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor
20 Code section 200.

21 46. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that 22 violate the applicable Wage Order.

23 47. Section 11 of the applicable Wage Order states:

24 No employer shall employ any person for a work period of more than 25 five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except 26 that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete 27 the day’s work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of 28 the employer and employee. Unless the employee is relieved of all duty during a 30 minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an ‘on duty’ meal period and counted as time worked. An ‘on duty’ meal period shall be permitted only when the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty and when by written

1 agreement between the parties an on-the-job paid meal period is agreed
2 to. The written agreement shall state that the employee may, in writing, revoke the agreement at any time.

3 48. At all relevant times, Plaintiff was not subject to a valid on-duty meal period
4 agreement. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Meal Period Sub-Class
5 members were not subject to valid on-duty meal period agreements with Defendants.

6 49. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
7 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period
8 Sub-Class with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for at least thirty (30) minutes for each five (5)
9 hour work period, as required by Labor Code section 512 and the applicable Wage Order.
10 Specifically, Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-Class were prohibited from leaving the work
11 premises during meal periods, when such meal periods were taken. Additionally, due to understaffing 12 and heavy workloads, Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-Class were denied the opportunity to take 13 timely meal periods prior to the completion of their fifth hour of work. Furthermore, Plaintiff and the 14 Meal Period Sub-Class were not relieved of all work duties during unpaid meal periods and were 15 required to keep working during meal breaks. Moreover, the uncompensated pre-shift duties 16 discussed herein, delayed Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-Class Members' meal periods to 17 commence after the completion of their fifth and tenth hours of work.

18 50. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
19 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to pay premium wages to Meal Period Sub-
20 Class members when they worked five (5) hours without clocking out for any meal period.

21 51. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
22 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period
23 Sub-Class with a second meal period when they worked shifts of ten (10) or more hours and failed
24 to pay them premium wages as required by Labor Code 512 and the applicable Wage Order.

25 52. Moreover, Defendants written policies fail to inform Meal period Class Members of 26 their meal period rights under the Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

27 53. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-
28 Class members additional premium wages, and/or were not paid premium wages at the employees'

1 regular rates of pay when required meal periods were not provided.

2 54. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6, 226.7 and 512, Plaintiff, on behalf of 3 himself and the Meal Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover unpaid premium wages, interest
4 thereon, and costs of suit.

5 55. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the 6 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the 7 Meal Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

8 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

9 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST PERIODS

10 (Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 226.7 and 1198)

11 (Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class)

12 56. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 13 herein.

14 57. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class members have been 15 non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full rest period protections of both the Labor
16 Code and the applicable Wage Order.

17 58. Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order imposes an affirmative obligation on 18 employers to permit and authorize employees to take required rest periods at a rate of no less than ten 19 (10) minutes of net rest time for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, that must 20 be in the middle of each work period insofar as practicable.

21 59. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order both prohibit 22 employers from requiring employees to work during required rest periods and require employers to 23 pay non-exempt employees an hour of premium wages at the employees' regular rates of pay, on each 24 workday that the employee is not provided with the required rest period(s).

25 60. Compensation for missed rest periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor
26 Code section 200.

27 61. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that 28 violate the Wage Order.

62. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing members of the Rest Period Sub-Class with net rest period of at least ten (10) uninterrupted minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, as required by the applicable Wage Order.

63. Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class members were not provided with rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest period as part of each work shift, including second rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2) no formal compliant written rest period policy that encouraged employees to take their rest periods, or that properly advised Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class members of their rest period rights; (3) Defendants' policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class members to remain on the premises during their rest breaks; (4) Defendants' policy and practice of requiring putative class members to continue working through their rest breaks due to the excessive workload.

64. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class members additional premium wages when required rest periods were not provided.

65. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6 and 226.7, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Rest Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover unpaid premium wages, interest thereon, and costs of suit.

66. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Rest Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY HOURLY AND OVERTIME WAGES

(Lab. Code §§ 223, 510, 1194, 1197 and 1198)

(Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class)

67. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

68. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members are or have been

1 non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full protections of the Labor Code and the 2 applicable Wage Order.

3 69. Section 2 of the applicable Wage Order defines “hours worked” as “the time during 4 which an employee is subject to the control of the employer, and includes all the time the employee
5 is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.”

6 70. Section 4 of the applicable Wage Order requires an employer to pay non-exempt
7 employees at least the minimum wage set forth therein for all hours worked, which consist of all hours 8 that an employer has actual or constructive knowledge that employees are working.

9 71. Labor Code section 1194 invalidates any agreement between an employer and an 10 employee to work for less than the minimum or overtime wage required under the applicable Wage 11 Order.

12 72. Labor Code section 1194.2 entitles non-exempt employees to recover liquidated
13 damages in amounts equal to the amounts of unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon in addition 14 to the underlying unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon.

15 73. Labor Code section 1197 makes it unlawful for an employer to pay an employee less 16 than the minimum wage required under the applicable Wage Order for all hours worked during a 17 payroll period.

18 74. Labor Code section 1197.1 provides that it is unlawful for any employer or any other 19 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent or employee of another person, to pay an 20 employee, or cause an employee to be paid, less than the applicable minimum wage.

21 75. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful for employers to employ employees under 22 conditions that violate the applicable Wage Order.

23 76. Labor Code section 204 requires employers to pay non-exempt employees their earned 24 wages for the normal work period at least twice during each calendar month on days the employer 25 designates in advance and to pay non-exempt employees their earned wages for labor performed in 26 excess of the normal work period by no later than the next regular payday.

27 77. Labor Code section 223 makes it unlawful for employers to pay their employees lower 28 wages than required by contract or statute while purporting to pay them legal wages.

1 78. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order require employees
2 to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than one and one-half (1.5) times their 3 respective regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, all
4 hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in one workweek, and/or for the first eight (8) hours
5 worked on the seventh consecutive day of one workweek.

6 79. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order also require 7 employers to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than two (2) times their respective 8 regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in one workday and for all 9 hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on a seventh consecutive workday during the workweek.

10 80. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Defendants have applied 11 centrally devised policies and practices to him and Hourly Employee Class members with respect to 12 working conditions and compensation arrangements.

13 81. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay hourly wages to Plaintiff and Hourly
14 Employee Class members for all time worked, including but not limited to, overtime hours at 15 statutory and/or agreed rates.

16 82. Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were not paid proper wages and 17 overtime for all hours worked, at the proper rates of pay. Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class
18 members were also consistently required to perform work, off-the-clock, for which they were not paid 19 wages. Specifically, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were required to wait in line for 20 a timeclock to become available for them to clock in. Next, after clocking out for the day, Plaintiff
21 and Hourly Employee Class members were required to continue working. Additionally, Plaintiff and 22 Hourly Employee Class members were required to perform work-related tasks and duties during 23 unpaid meal periods, which were systemically denied. Moreover, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee
24 Class members were required to remain on-call, restricted from engaging in their own activities, and 25 ready to report to work, with no advance notice. Finally, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class
26 members were required to use their personal cell phone for work-related purposes while off-the-clock, 27 for which no wages were paid. The forgoing and uncompensated working time was under the 28 direction and control of Defendants, for which no wages were paid.

1 83. This uncompensated time caused Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to 2 work in excess of eight (8), ten (10), and twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week,
3 entitling Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to minimum and overtime wages, which 4 they were systemically denied.

5 84. Defendants also failed to Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members overtime
6 wages at the proper and applicable regular rates of pay. Specifically, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee
7 Class members earned commissions, spiff pay, as well as performance-based non-discretionary 8 bonuses in addition to their hourly pay. However, these supplemental earnings were not accounted 9 for when determining Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members' regular rates of pay, and 10 respective and proper overtime rates of pay.

11 85. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class 12 members have suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid the 13 full amount of wages earned during each pay period during the applicable limitations period, 14 including overtime wages.

15 86. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 204, 218.6, 223, 510, 1194 and 1194.2, Plaintiff, on 16 behalf of himself and Hourly Employee Class members, seeks to recover unpaid straight time and 17 overtime wages, interest thereon and costs of suit.

18 87. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the 19 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and 20 Hourly Employee Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

21 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE WRITTEN WAGE STATEMENTS

23 (Lab. Code § 226)

24 (Plaintiff and Wage Statement Penalties Sub-Class)

25 88. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged
26 herein.

27 89. Labor Code section 226(a) states:

28 An employer, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages,

1 shall furnish to his or her employee, either as a detachable part of the 2 check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately if 3 wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized
4 statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours
5 worked by the employee, except as provided in subdivision (j), (3) the 6 number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the 7 employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that 8 all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be 9 aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the 10 inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the 11 name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social 12 security number or an employee identification number other than a 13 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that 14 is the employer and, if the employer is a farm labor contractor, as 15 defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1682, the name and address of the 16 legal entity that secured the services of the employer, and (9) all 17 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 18 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the 19 employee and, beginning July 1, 2013, if the employer is a temporary 20 services employer as defined in Section 201.3, the rate of pay and the 21 total hours worked for each temporary services assignment. The 22 deductions made from payment of wages shall be recorded in ink or 23 other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, 24 and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions shall be 25 kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of 26 employment or at a central location within the State of California. For purposes of this subdivision, 'copy' includes a duplicate of the itemized statement provided to an employee or a computer-generated record that accurately shows all of the information required by this subdivision.

90. The Division of Labor Standards Enforcement ("DLSE") has sought to harmonize the "detachable part of the check" provision and the "accurate itemized statement in writing" provision of Labor Code section 226(a) by allowing for electronic wage statements so long as each employee retains the right to elect to receive a written paper stub or record and that those who are provided with electronic wage statements retain the ability to easily access the information and convert the electronic statements into hard copies at no expense to the employee. (DLSE Opinion Letter July 6, 2006).

91. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members with written wage statements as described above. Additionally, the wage statements issued to class members failed to account for the unpaid minimum wages, overtime, and premium pay wages described above.

92. Furthermore, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class
Members with paper pay stubs as required by Labor Code § 226, applicable Wage Orders, and DLSE

1 Opinion Letters. Plaintiff's and Wage Statement Class members' wage statements were only 2 provided in electronic format in violation of Labor Code § 226.

3 93. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(8) as the wage statements
4 issues to Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class Members failed to state "the name and address of the 5 legal entity that is the employer."

6 94. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiff and 7 Wage Statement Class members with accurate written wage statements was intentional in that 8 Defendants have the ability to provide them with accurate wage statements but have intentionally
9 provided them with written wage statements that Defendants have known do not comply with Labor
10 Code section 226(a).

11 95. Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members have suffered injuries, in that 12 Defendants have violated their legal rights to receive accurate wage statements and have misled them
13 about their actual rates of pay and wages earned. In addition, inaccurate information on their wage
14 statements has prevented immediate challenges to Defendants' unlawful pay practices, has required
15 discovery and mathematical computations to determine the amount of wages owed, has caused 16 difficulty and expense in attempting to reconstruct time and pay records, and/or has led to the 17 submission of inaccurate information about wages and deductions to federal and state government 18 agencies.

19 96. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226(e), Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Wage
20 Statement Class members, seeks the greater of actual damages or $50.00 for the initial pay period in 21 which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, and $100.00 for each subsequent pay period
22 in which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of 23 $4000.00 per class member, as well as awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

24 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

25 FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY ALL FINAL WAGES

26 (Lab. Code §§ 201-203)

27 (Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class)

28 97. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged

1 herein.

2 98. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members have 3 been entitled, upon the end of their employment with Defendants, to timely payment of all wages
4 earned and unpaid before termination or resignation.

5 99. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 201, employees who have been 6 discharged have been entitled to payment of all final wages immediately upon termination.

7 100. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 202, employees who have 8 resigned after giving at least seventy-two (72) hours' notice of resignation have been entitled to 9 payment of all final wages at the time of resignation.

10 101. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
11 limitations period, Defendants have failed to timely pay Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class
12 members all their final wages in accordance with the Labor Code.

13 102. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
14 limitations period, Defendants have maintained a policy or practice of paying Waiting Time
15 Penalties Sub-Class members their final wages without regard to the requirements of Labor Code 16 sections 201 or 202 by failing to timely pay them all final wages.

17 103. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that Defendants' failure to 18 timely pay all final wages to him and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members has been willful
19 in that Defendants have the ability to pay final wages in accordance with Labor Code sections 201
20 and/or 202 but have intentionally adopted policies or practices that are incompatible with those 21 requirements.

22 104. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 203 and 218.6, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and 23 Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members, seeks waiting time penalties from the dates that their 24 final wages have first become due until paid, up to a maximum of thirty days, and interest thereon.

25 105. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
26 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-
27 Class members, seeks awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

28 ///

1 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO INDEMNIFY

3 (Lab. Code § 2802)

4 (Plaintiff and Reimbursement Class)

5 106. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged
6 herein.

7 107. Labor Code section 2802(a) states:

8 An employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary
9 expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence 10 of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful.

11 108. Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members were not reimbursed for 12 business expenses incurred in executing their duties under Defendant's employ. Specifically, Plaintiff 13 and Expense Reimbursement Class Members were required to pay the costs of maintaining and 14 cleaning their work gloves, safety vests, goggles, hard hats, boots, and various other safety gear all 15 necessary to perform, their duties under Defendants' employ. Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement
16 Class Members were not reimbursed for these necessary work-related expenses.

17 109. Accordingly, Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members are entitled to 18 restitution for all unpaid amounts due and owing to within four (4) years of the date of the filing of 19 the Complaint and until the date of entry of judgment.

20 110. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, and Expense Reimbursement Class members, seeks 21 interest thereon and costs pursuant to Labor Code section 218.6, and reasonable attorneys' fees and 22 costs pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

23 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 UNFAIR COMPETITION

25 (Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 et seq.)

26 (Plaintiff and UCL Class)

27 111. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 28 herein.

1 112. Business and Professions Code section 17200 defines “unfair competition” to include
2 any unlawful business practice.

3 113. Business and Professions Code sections 17203-17204 allow a person who has lost
4 money or property as a result of unfair competition to bring a class action in accordance with Code
5 of Civil Procedure section 382 to recover money or property that may have been acquired from 6 similarly situated persons by means of unfair competition.

7 114. California law requires employers to pay hourly, non-exempt employees for all hours 8 they are permitted or suffered to work, including hours that the employer knows or reasonable should 9 know that employees have worked.

10 115. Plaintiff and the UCL Class members re-allege and incorporate the FIRST, SECOND,
11 THIRD AND, SIXTH causes of action herein.

12 116. Plaintiff lost money or property as a result of the aforementioned unfair competition.

13 117. Defendants have or may have acquired money by means of unfair competition.

14 118. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that by committing the Labor
15 Code violations described in this Complaint, Defendants violated Labor Code sections 215, 216, 225,
16 226.6, 226.7, 354, 408, 512, 510, 553, 1175, 1174, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, and 2802
17 as well as applicable Wage Orders, which make it a misdemeanor to commit the violations alleged 18 herein.

19 119. Defendants have committed criminal conduct through their policies and practices of,
20 inter alia, failing to comport with their affirmative obligations as an employer to: provide non-exempt
21 employees with compliant meal and rest periods; pay for all hours worked at the proper rates of pay;
22 and reimbursement for necessary business expenditures.

23 120. Defendants’ unlawful conduct as alleged in this Complaint amounts to and constitutes 24 unfair competition within the meaning of Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq.
25 Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq. protects against unfair competition and allows 26 a person who has suffered an injury-in-fact and has lost money or property as a result of an unfair, 27 unlawful or fraudulent business practice to seek restitution on his own behalf and on behalf of 28 similarly situated persons in a class action proceeding.

1 121. As a result of Defendants' violations of the Labor Code during the applicable
2 limitations period, Plaintiff has suffered an injury-in-fact and has lost money or property in the form
3 of earned wages. Specifically, Plaintiff has lost money or property as a result of Defendants' conduct.

4 122. Plaintiff is informed and believes that other similarly situated persons have been 5 subject to the same unlawful policies or practices of Defendants.

6 123. Due to the unfair and unlawful business practices in violation of the Labor Code, 7 Defendants have gained a competitive advantage over other comparable companies doing business in 8 the State of California that comply with their legal obligations.

9 124. California's Unfair Competition Law ("UCL") permits civil recovery and injunctive
10 relief for "any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice," including if a practice or act 11 violates or is considered unlawful under any other state or federal law.

12 125. Accordingly, pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 17200 and 17203,
13 Plaintiff requests the issuance of temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief enjoining
14 Defendants, and each of them, and their agents and employees, from further violations of the Labor
15 Code and applicable Wage Orders.

16 126. Accordingly, pursuant to Bus. & Prof. Code sections 17200 and 17203, Plaintiff
17 requests the issuance of temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief enjoining
18 Defendants, and each of them, and their agents and employees, from further violations of the Labor
19 Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders; and upon a final hearing seeks 20 an order permanently enjoining Defendants, and each of them, and their respective agents and 21 employees, from further violations of the Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission 22 Wage Orders.

23 127. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff, on behalf of 24 himself and UCL Class members, seeks declaratory relief and restitution of all monies rightfully 25 belonging to them that Defendants did not pay them or otherwise retained by means of its unlawful 26 and unfair business practices.

27 128. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
28 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff and UCL Class members are entitled to recover

1 reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with their unfair competition claims.

2 129. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff, on behalf of

5 and unfair business practices.

6 130. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
7 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff and UCL Class members are entitled to recover
8 reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with their unfair competition claims.

9 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 CIVIL PENALTIES

11 (Lab. Code §§ 2698, et seq.)

12 131. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if fully alleged herein.

13 132. During the applicable limitations period, Defendants have violated Labor Code §§
14 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 515, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 15 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2698, 2699, et seq., and 2802.

16 133. Labor Code §§ 2699(a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, on behalf of himself
17 and other current and former employees, to bring a representative civil action to recover civil penalties
18 pursuant to the procedures set forth in Labor Code § 2699.3 that may, but need not, be brought or 19 maintained as a class action pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

20 134. Plaintiff, a former employee against whom Defendants committed one or more of the 21 alleged Labor Code violations during the applicable limitations period, is an aggrieved employee
22 within the meaning of Labor Code § 2699(c). Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt 23 hourly employee in California. Aggrieved Employees include all non-exempt hourly employees of 24 Defendants within the state of California from one year prior to the date of this letter and continuing 25 through the present (Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees are collectively referred to herein as 26 "Aggrieved Employees")

27 135. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code §

2 investigate.

3 136. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff seeks the following civil 4 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 226.7, 226(a), 510, 512,
5 1174, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and 2802:
