II. LITIGATION BACKGROUND

49. On August 26, 2022, Plaintiff filed with the LWDA a PAGA notice letter which stated that Plaintiff intended to seek civil penalties against Raising Cane's for various violations of the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders relating to alleged violations as to herself and other employees of Raising Cane's.

50. On August 26, 2022, Plaintiff filed a putative class action complaint in the Los Angeles County Superior Court, entitled Caya Rodriguez v. Raising Cane's USA, L.L.C., et al, Case No. 22STCV27956. On November 14, 2022, Raising Cane's removed the action to the United States District Court for the Central District of California; the Federal Action.

51. On February 7, 2023, Plaintiff filed a representative PAGA complaint in the Los Angeles County Superior Court, entitled Caya Rodriguez v. Raising Cane's USA, L.L.C., et al, Case No. 23STCV02673.

52. As part of this Agreement, the Parties agree that Plaintiff will file a new complaint (the Complaint) in the California Superior Court, County of Los Angeles, alleging causes of action for all Released Class Claims, including claims under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the Investigative Consumer Reporting Agency Act, and the Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies Act, and a cause of action for all Released PAGA Claims. The Parties further agree that Plaintiff will file a notice of settlement in the separate PAGA action filed by her and pending in the Los Angeles County Superior Court as Caya Rodriguez v. Raising Cane's USA, L.L.C., et al, Case No. 23STCV02673.

53. Raising Cane's denies Plaintiff's claims and asserts that Raising Cane's has complied with all applicable labor laws. Consequently, Raising Cane's does not believe that any liability to Plaintiff, the State of California or the LWDA, or to any other individual whom Plaintiff seeks to represent exists, or that Plaintiff, the State of California or the LWDA, or any other individual whom Plaintiff seeks to represent are entitled to any recovery in the State Action or the Federal Action.

54. Prior to mediation, Plaintiff obtained, through informal discovery: (1) class data points, including the number of weeks worked during the Class Period, the number of terminated/separated Class Members in the waiting time penalty period, the number of allegedly aggrieved employees, the number of hours worked, and the number of pay periods in the wage statement/PAGA Period; (2) all policy documents related to the claims in the case; (3) Plaintiff Rodriguez' personnel file; (4) time and payroll records for 100 of the employees during the PAGA period.

55. On March 27, 2023, the Parties participated in a mediation with experienced mediator Tripper Ortman, Esq. The mediation was unsuccessful. Thereafter, the Parties engaged in months of ensuing arms-length negotiations through the mediator, which resulted in this Settlement Agreement.

56. It is the intention of the Parties that this Settlement Agreement will constitute a full and complete settlement and release of the claims averred in the State Action by the Plaintiff individually, on behalf of the Class Members, and as the authorized proxy and agent of the State of California and the LWDA on behalf of all PAGA Members pursuant to PAGA. This release includes in its effect a release of all the Raising Cane's Releasees. The Parties agree that the consideration described herein constitutes adequate consideration for the Settlement and releases described herein.

III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

57. This Court has jurisdiction over the Parties and the subject matter of this Settlement. This Court will have continuing jurisdiction over the terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement, until all payments and obligations provided for herein have been fully executed.

IV. TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

58. NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants, promises, and undertakings set forth herein, the Parties agree, subject to the Court's approval, as follows:

A. Non-Admission of Liability

59. Nothing in this Settlement Agreement, or any communications, papers, or orders related to this Settlement Agreement, will be construed to be or deemed an admission by the Raising Cane's Releasees of any liability, culpability, negligence, or wrongdoing toward the Plaintiff, the Class Members, the PAGA Members, or any other person, and the Raising Cane's Releasees specifically disclaim any liability, culpability, negligence, or wrongdoing toward the Plaintiff, the Class Members, the PAGA Members, or any other person. Raising Cane's also maintains that, for any purpose other than settlement, the claims alleged in the Federal Action and State Action are not suitable or appropriate for class and/or representative action treatment pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, California Code of Civil Procedure Section 382, California Labor Code § 2698, et seq., or any other applicable laws or rule(s). Each of the Parties has entered into this Settlement Agreement with the intention to avoid further disputes and litigation with the attendant inconvenience, expenses, and contingencies, including in the State and Federal Actions. This Settlement Agreement and any communications, papers, or orders related to the Settlement Agreement may not be cited or otherwise admitted as evidence of liability, whether in the State Action or elsewhere. There has been no final determination by any Court as to the merits of the claims asserted by Plaintiff against Raising Cane's. Furthermore, nothing in this Settlement Agreement will be considered any form of waiver of any applicable alternative dispute resolution policy, and Raising Cane's expressly does not waive any right to enforce arbitration agreements and class, collective, and representative action waivers in any other circumstance.

60. Class Counsel have conducted significant investigation of the law and facts relating to the claims asserted in the Action and the PAGA Notice, and have concluded that the Settlement set forth herein is fair, reasonable, adequate and in the best interests of the Class Members and Aggrieved Employees, taking into account the sharply contested issues involved, the expense and time necessary to litigate the Action through trial and any appeals, the risks and costs of further litigation of the Action, the risk of an adverse outcome, the uncertainties of complex litigation, the information learned through discovery regarding Plaintiff's allegations, and the substantial benefits to be received by Class Members. In the event that this Agreement is not approved by the Court or any appellate court, is terminated, or otherwise fails to be enforceable, the Parties will not be deemed to have waived, limited or affected in any way any claims, rights, remedies, or defenses in connection with the Action or the PAGA Notice.

B. Certification

61. The Parties stipulate, for settlement purposes only, to the certification of the Class described in Paragraph 2 as to all claims asserted in the Complaint pursuant to applicable state and federal law. If for any reason the Court does not approve this Settlement, fails to enter the Final Approval Order, or fails to enter the Judgment or Final Judgment, or if this Settlement Agreement is lawfully terminated for any other reason, Raising Cane's shall retain the absolute right to dispute the propriety of class certification and/or the ability of this action to proceed as a class and/or representative action on all applicable grounds.

C. Non-Approval By The Court

62. In the event that this Settlement Agreement is not approved by the Court, fails to become effective, is reversed, withdrawn or modified by the Court:

- (a) The Settlement Agreement will have no force or effect, other than the confidentiality provisions set forth herein and the non-admission provisions in Paragraph 59;
- (b) The Settlement Agreement will not be admissible in any judicial, administrative or arbitral proceeding for any purpose or with respect to any issue, substantive or procedural;
- (c) None of the parties to this Settlement Agreement will be deemed to have waived any claims, objections, defenses or arguments with respect to the merits of Plaintiff's or the Individual Claimant's claims; and
- (d) Raising Cane's does not waive, and instead expressly reserves, its rights to challenge the propriety of the Federal Action and/or State Action proceeding as a class and/or PAGA action.

63. However, the Parties agree to cooperate in addressing any Court concerns regarding the Settlement, including amendments to this Agreement which are mutually acceptable by the Parties, and agree to cooperate in good faith to obtain approval of the Settlement.

D. Complaint

64. Within 5 days after the execution of this Settlement Agreement, Plaintiff will file the Complaint with the Court, which will allege causes of action for all Released Class Claims, including claims under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the Investigative Consumer Reporting Agency Act, and the Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies Act, and a cause of action for all Released PAGA Claims. The Parties agree that Defendants shall not be required to file a responsive pleading in response to the Complaint unless ordered to do so by the Court.

E. Settlement Payments

65. Raising Cane's agrees to pay a Gross Settlement Amount ("GSA") as set forth in Paragraph 20. The parties specifically agree, subject to Court approval, to the following allocations to be paid from the GSA:

- (a) From the GSA, Plaintiff's Counsel may seek from the Court the Class Counsel Fees Payment and the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment. Raising Cane's takes no position on Plaintiff's request for the Class Counsel Fees Payment and the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment provided it does not exceed the amounts set forth herein.
- (b) From the GSA, Plaintiff's Counsel may seek from the Court the Class Representative Service Payment. Raising Cane's takes no position on Plaintiff's request for the Class Representative Service Payment provided it does not exceed the amount set forth herein.
- (c) From the GSA, payment to the Settlement Administrator for the Settlement Administration Expenses.
- (d) From the GSA, a payment of $150,000.00 to the LWDA (the LWDA PAGA Penalty Amount), representing the LWDA's 75% share of the settlement attributable to PAGA penalties.
- (e) From the GSA, a payment of $50,000.00 to be allocated among PAGA Members based on their eligible employee service time for Covered PAGA Pay Periods (from the PAGA Group Payment). Individual PAGA Payments will be calculated as follows: the numerator shall be the number of the PAGA Member's individual Covered PAGA Pay Periods; the denominator shall be the total Covered PAGA Pay Periods for all PAGA Members; this fraction shall be multiplied by the total PAGA Group Payment amount.
- (f) From the Net Settlement Amount (i.e., from the remainder of the GSA, including interest accruing to it) Individual Class Payments will be allocated among Class Members based on their eligible employee service time for Covered Class Workweeks. Individual Class Payments will be calculated as follows: the numerator shall be the number of the Class Member's individual Covered Class Workweeks; the denominator shall be the total Covered Class Workweeks for all Class Members; this fraction shall be multiplied by the Net Settlement Amount.

- (g) Participating Class Members and PAGA Members may receive separate checks for their Individual Class Payment and Individual PAGA Payment, or may be combined into one (1) check.
- (h) If the Court approves a lesser amount of attorneys' fees and litigation costs, the Class Representative Service Payment, or the Settlement Administrator Expenses than the amount sought by Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel, any amount disallowed by the Court will be added to the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed in pro rata shares to the Participating Class Members the same as the settlement payments described herein. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel agree not to appeal an order reducing the requested amount of attorneys' fees, litigation costs, and/or the Class Representative Service Payment. The Parties agree that the Settlement Agreement will remain binding with such modification(s) as ordered by the Court, and its terms will be otherwise unchanged. This Settlement is not conditioned upon the Court's approval of Plaintiff's Counsel's petition for fees and costs or the amount of any Class Representative Service Payment. There will be no additional charge of any kind to either the Class Members or request for additional consideration from Defendants for such work unless, Defendants materially breach this Agreement and further efforts are necessary from Class Counsel to remedy said breach, including, without limitation, moving the Court to enforce the Agreement.
- (i) The Settlement Administrator will disburse monies from the GSA, including issuing all settlement payment checks, as and when authorized in this Settlement

Agreement and by order of the Court, will file and issue any necessary tax reporting documents, and will inform the Parties and (as required) the Court of its fulfillment of the duties imposed by this Settlement Agreement.

F. Released Class and PAGA Claims

66. The Parties agree that this Settlement Agreement is conditioned upon the release of all Released Class Claims and Released PAGA Claims, as set forth herein.

G. Entry of Judgment

67. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Parties will request that the Court, among other things: (a) finally certify the Class for purposes of settlement only; (b) enter a Final Approval Order in accordance with and incorporating the terms of this Settlement Agreement; and (c) approve the settlement as fair, adequate, reasonable, and binding on all Participating Class Members, and PAGA Members.

V. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION

A. Settlement Administrator Duties

68. The Settlement Administrator will create a Qualified Settlement Fund ("QSF"), to be funded by the GSA, and employer taxes, paid by Raising Cane's and administered by the Settlement Administrator. The Settlement Administrator shall have control over the distribution of funds from the QSF, once funded. With respect to the QSF, the Settlement Administrator shall: (1) satisfy all federal, state and local and income and other tax reporting, return, and filing requirements with respect to the QSF and any interest or other income earned by the QSF; and (2) satisfy out of the QSF all fees, expenses and costs incurred in connection with the opening and administration of the QSF and the performance of its duties and functions as described in this Settlement Agreement. The aforementioned fees, costs and expenses shall be treated as and included in the costs of administering the QSF and as Settlement Administration Expenses. The Parties agree to cooperate with the Settlement Administrator and one another to the extent reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this Section. The Settlement Administrator will use all appropriate tracing methods, including skip tracing, to ensure that the Class Notice is received by Class Members. The Settlement Administrator shall also take reasonable steps including skip tracing to locate any Class Member whose Class Notice is returned as undeliverable.

Class Members with Covered PAGA Pay Periods will be eligible to receive an Individual PAGA Payment whether or not they opted out of the non-PAGA portion of the settlement.

87. Each Class Notice mailed to a Class Member will identify his or her dates of employment for the Covered Class Workweeks and Covered PAGA Pay Periods, as applicable, based on Raising Cane's records, and will estimate each Class Member's Individual Class Payment and Individual PAGA Payment, as applicable.

Within seven (7) days after the expiration date of the settlement checks, the Settlement Administrator shall provide to Class Counsel and Raising Cane's Counsel a verification/declaration signed under penalty of perjury that it has mailed the settlement checks to Participating Class Members and/or PAGA Members, and if uncashed, that such amounts have been sent to the Controller of the State of California to be held by the Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the individual to whom the uncashed check was addressed, for the benefit of those individuals who did not cash their checks until such time as they claim their property.

If the data reported to the Settlement Administrator for Class Period reflects an increase of more than 5% of the 1,070,180 approximation (i.e., if there are more than 1,123,689 Workweeks worked by all Class Members during the Class Period), Raising Cane's shall have the option to: (a) increase the Gross Settlement Amount in proportion to the increase in Workweeks (for example, if there is a 7% increase in the total number of Workweeks worked by all Class Members, the Gross Settlement Amount shall increase by 2% (i.e., $84,520)) or (b) limit the end date of the Class Period (and PAGA Period) so that the cumulative Workweeks do not exceed 1,123,689.

obligations in communication with Class Members in assisting them with this Settlement nor identifying this Action for purposes of establishing Class Counsel's experience in class action and PAGA action settlements for approval purposes.

XIV. PARTIES' AUTHORITY

120. The signatories hereby represent that they are fully authorized to enter into this Settlement Agreement and bind the Parties hereto to the terms and conditions hereof.

XV. MUTUAL FULL COOPERATION

121. The Parties agree to fully cooperate with each other to accomplish the terms of this Settlement Agreement, including but not limited to, executing such documents and taking such other action as may reasonably be necessary to implement the terms of this Settlement Agreement. The Parties to this Settlement Agreement will use their best efforts, including all efforts contemplated by this Settlement Agreement and any other efforts that may become necessary by order of the Court or otherwise to effectuate this Settlement Agreement and the terms set forth herein. As soon as practicable after execution of this Settlement Agreement, Class Counsel will, with the assistance and cooperation of Raising Cane's and Raising Cane's counsel, take all necessary steps to secure the Court's approval of this Settlement Agreement.

122. The Parties and their counsel shall refrain from taking any action to encourage any Class Members to opt-out of and/or object to the Settlement. Raising Cane's shall not oppose Plaintiff's motion for preliminary approval or motion for final approval so long as the motions are in keeping with the terms of this Settlement Agreement.

XVII. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

A. Captions and Titles

124. Paragraph titles, headings, or captions contained herein are inserted as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way define, limit, extend, or describe the scope of this Settlement Agreement or any provision hereof. Each term of this Settlement Agreement is contractual and not merely a recital.

B. Drafting

125. The Parties hereto agree that the terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement are the result of lengthy, intensive arms-length negotiations between the Parties. Neither Party will be considered the "drafter" of the Settlement Agreement for purposes of having terms construed against that party, and this Settlement Agreement will not be construed in favor of or against any Party by reason of the extent to which any Party or his, her or its counsel participated in the drafting of this Settlement Agreement.

C. Extensions of Time

126. If a Party cannot reasonably comply with an obligation under this Settlement Agreement by the deadline set forth herein applicable to that obligation, that Party may request an extension from the other Party or apply to the Court for a reasonable extension of time to fulfill that obligation. Consent to such a request for an extension will not be unreasonably withheld by the other party.

D. Governing Law

127. The rights and obligations of the parties hereunder will be construed and enforced in accordance with, and will be governed by, the laws of the State of California, without regard to principles of conflict of laws.

E. No Impact on Benefit Plans

128. Neither the Settlement Agreement nor any amounts paid under the Settlement Agreement will modify any previously credited hours or service under any employee benefit plan, policy, or bonus program sponsored by Raising Cane's. Such amounts will not form the basis for additional contributions to, benefits under, or any other monetary entitlement under Raising Cane's sponsored benefit plans, policies, or bonus programs. The payments made under the terms of this Settlement will not be applied retroactively, currently, or on a going forward basis, as salary, earnings, wages, or any other form of compensation for the purposes of Raising Cane's benefit plan, policy, or bonus program. Raising Cane's retains the right to modify the language of its benefit plans, policies and bonus programs to effect this intent, and to make clear that any amounts paid pursuant to this Settlement Agreement are not for "hours worked," "hours paid," "hours of service," or any similar measuring term as defined by applicable plans, policies and bonus programs for purposes of eligibility, vesting, benefit accrual, or any other purpose, and that additional contributions or benefits are not required by this Settlement Agreement.

F. Integration

129. This Settlement Agreement contains the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the settlement of the State Action and transaction contemplated hereby, and all prior or contemporaneous agreements, understandings, representations, and statements relating to the Federal and State Action, whether oral or written and whether by a Party or such Party's legal counsel, are merged herein. No rights hereunder may be waived except in writing.

G. Waiver of Claims

130. Plaintiff and Raising Cane's waive any and all claims for fees, costs, indemnity, or contribution against Plaintiff, Raising Cane's, any Class Member, Plaintiff's Counsel, or Raising Cane's Counsel except for as provided herein.

H. No Prior Assignments

131. This Settlement Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective heirs, trustees, executors, administrators and successors. The Parties hereto represent, covenant, and warrant that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or encumber to any person or entity any portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action or rights herein released and discharged except as set forth herein.

I. Counterparts and Electronic Signatures

132. This Settlement Agreement may be executed in counterparts with signatures transmitted by facsimile or as an electronic image (including DocuSign) of the original signature. When each Party has signed and delivered at least one such counterpart, each counterpart will be deemed an original, and, when taken together with other signed counterparts, will constitute one Settlement Agreement, which will be binding upon and effective as to all Parties. A facsimile signature or electronic image will have the same force and effect as the original signature.

J. Jurisdiction of the Court

133. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 664.6, the Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to the interpretation, implementation, and enforcement of the terms of this Settlement Agreement and all orders and judgments entered in connection therewith. The Parties and their counsel hereto submit to the jurisdiction of the Court for purposes of interpreting, implementing, and enforcing the settlement embodied in this Settlement Agreement and all orders and judgments entered in connection therewith.

K. Severability

134. In the event that one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement shall for any reason be held invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability shall in no way effect any other provision if Defendant's Counsel and Class Counsel, on behalf of the Parties and the Settlement Class, mutually elect in writing to proceed as if such invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provision had never been included in this Agreement.
