Demand for Jury Trial

Plaintiff Jesus Gonzalez (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself, the State of California, as a private attorney general, and all other similarly situated employees within the State of California, complains and alleges of defendants CC Wellness LLC and Does 1 to 50 (collectively, “Defendants”), and each of them, as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a class action complaint brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

2. The “Class Period” as used herein, is defined as the period from August 23, 2018, and continuing into the present and ongoing. Defendants’ violations of California’s laws as described more fully below have been ongoing throughout the Class Period and are still ongoing.

3. Plaintiff brings this class action on behalf of himself and the following class: All individuals who are or were employed by Defendants as non-exempt employees in California during the Class Period (the “Class Members”). (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.)

4. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and the Class Members, as a class action, against Defendants for:

- A. Failure to pay all minimum wages,
- B. Failure to pay all overtime wages,
- C. Failure to pay accrued vacation wages,
- D. Failure to provide rest periods and pay missed rest period premiums,
- E. Failure to provide meal periods and pay missed meal period premiums,
- F. Failure to maintain accurate employment records,
- G. Failure to pay wages timely during employment,
- H. Failure to pay all wages earned and unpaid at separation,
- I. Failure to indemnify all necessary business expenditures,
- J. Failure to furnish accurate itemized wage statements, and
- K. Violations of California’s Unfair Competition Law (“UCL”) (Bus. & Prof. Code, §§ 17200–17210).

1 5. This action is also a representative action brought pursuant to the California Labor Code
2 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), codified at California Labor Code sections 2698 3 through 2699.6.

4 6. The “PAGA Period” as used herein, is defined as the period from August 23, 2021, and 5 continuing into the present and ongoing.

6 7. This PAGA action is brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California as private 7 attorney general, and on behalf of the following aggrieved employees: All individuals who are or were 8 employed by Defendants as non-exempt employees in California during the PAGA Period (the 9 “Aggrieved Employees”).

10 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the California Industrial 11 Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders applicable to the facts of this case are IWC Wage Orders 12 1-2001 and/or 7-2001 (the “Applicable Wage Orders”) and possibly others that may be applicable.
13 (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070.) Plaintiff reserves the right to amend or modify the 14 definition of “Applicable Wage Orders” with greater specificity or add additional IWC Wage Orders 15 if additional applicable wage orders are discovered in litigation.

16 II. JURISDICTION & VENUE

17 9. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over all causes of action asserted herein 18 pursuant to Article VI, section 10, of the California Constitution and Code of Civil Procedure section 19 410.10 because this is a civil action in which the matter in controversy, exclusive of interest, exceeds 20 $25,000, and because each cause of action asserted arises under the laws of the State of California or 21 is subject to adjudication in the courts of the State of California.

22 10. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants have caused 23 injuries in the County of Los Angeles and the State of California through their acts, and by their 24 violation of the California Labor Code and California state common law. Defendants transact millions 25 of dollars of business within the State of California. Defendants own, maintain offices, transact 26 business, have an agent or agents within the County of Los Angeles, and/or otherwise are found within 27 the County of Los Angeles, and Defendants are within the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of 28 service of process.

1 11. Venue as to Defendants is proper in this judicial district, pursuant to section 395 of the 2 Code of Civil Procedure. Defendants operate within California and do business within Los Angeles 3 County, California. The unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and all of 4 Defendants' employees identified above within Los Angeles County and surrounding counties where 5 Defendants may remotely operate.

6 12. This matter is not appropriate for removal under the Class Action Fairness Act (28 7 U.S.C. § 1332) as the amount in controversy for Plaintiff's and the Class Members' claims, in 8 aggregate, is less than $5 million. Additionally, all the allegations herein occurred in the State of 9 California. As such, even if the amount in controversy did exceed $5 million this matter would still 10 not be appropriate for removal under the "local controversy" exception to the Class Action Fairness 11 Act. (28 U.S.C. § 1332, subd. (d)(4)(A).)

12 III. THE PARTIES

13 A. PLAINTIFF

14 13. At all relevant times, Plaintiff, who is over the age of 18, was and currently is a citizen 15 of California residing in the State of California. Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt hourly 16 employee in the County of Los Angeles.

17 14. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and the following class pursuant to 18 section 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure as follows: All individuals who are or were employed by 19 Defendants as non-exempt employees in California during the Class Period (the "Class Members").

20 15. Plaintiff also brings this action on behalf of himself and the State of California, as a 21 private attorney general, and on behalf of the following group of aggrieved employees: All individuals
22 who are or were employed by Defendants as non-exempt employees in California during the PAGA 23 Period (the "Aggrieved Employees").

24 16. The Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees, at all times pertinent hereto, are or 25 were employees of Defendants during the relevant statutory period.

26 B. DEFENDANTS

27 17. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants were authorized 28 to and doing business in Los Angeles County and is and/or was the legal employer of Plaintiff, the 1 other Aggrieved Employees, and the other Class Members during the applicable statutory periods.

2 Plaintiff, the other Aggrieved Employees, and the other Class Members were, and are, subject to 3 Defendants' policies and/or practices complained of herein and have been deprived of the rights 4 guaranteed to them by: California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 5 227.3, 256, 510, 512, 1174, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2802, 2804, and 6 others that may be applicable; California Business and Professions Code sections 17200 through 17210 7 ("UCL"); and the Applicable Wage Orders (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070).

8 18. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the Class 9 Period and PAGA Period, Defendants did (and continue to do) business in the State of California, 10 County of Los Angeles. Defendants operations are headquartered in Los Angeles County.

11 19. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 12 corporate, of the defendants sued herein as Does 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said defendants 13 are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to amend this 14 complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed, and believes, and 15 thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual, partners, or corporate, were 16 responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein, and proximately caused Plaintiff, 17 the other Aggrieved Employees, and the other Class Members to be subject to the unlawful employment 18 practices, wrongs, injuries, and damages complained of herein.

19 20. Plaintiff is informed, and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times mentioned 20 herein, Defendants were and/or are the employers of Plaintiff, the other Aggrieved Employees, and the 21 other Class Members. At all times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing 22 of the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendants. Furthermore, the 23 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each and every one of the 24 other Defendants, as well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned were acting 25 within the course and scope of said agency and employment. Defendants, and each of them, approved 26 of, condoned, or otherwise ratified every one of the acts or omissions complained of herein.

27 21. At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, were members of and engaged in a 28 joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course and scope of and in

1 pursuance of said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise. Further, Plaintiff is informed, 2 and believes, and thereon alleges, that all Defendants were joint employers for all purposes of Plaintiff, 3 the other Aggrieved Employees, and the other Class Members.

4 IV. COMMON FACTS & ALLEGATIONS

5 22. Plaintiff and the other Class Members (collectively, the “Class Members”) are, and were 6 at all relevant times, employed by the Defendants within the State of California.

7 23. Likewise, Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees (collectively, the “Aggrieved 8 Employees”) are, and were at all relevant times, employed by the Defendants within the State of 9 California.

10 24. The Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees are, and were, at all relevant times, 11 non-exempt employees for the purposes of minimum wages, overtime, rest breaks, meal periods, and 12 the other claims alleged in this complaint.

13 25. Specifically, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants within the statutory Class Period 14 and PAGA Period, working as an hourly, non-exempt lead for Defendants. Plaintiff’s duties included 15 mixing ingredients and monitoring temperatures to create products.

16 A. MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS

17 26. Labor Code section 1197 requires employees to be paid at least the minimum wage fixed 18 by the IWC, and any payment of less than the minimum wage is unlawful. Similarly, Labor Code 19 section 1194 entitles “any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage . . . to recover in a 20 civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage.” Likewise, the Applicable 21 Wage Orders also obligate employers to pay each employee minimum wages for all hours worked.
22 (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070.) Labor Code section 1198 makes unlawful the 23 employment of an employee under conditions that the IWC Wage Orders prohibit.

24 27. These minimum wage standards apply to each hour that employees work. Therefore, 25 an employer’s failure to pay for any particular time worked by an employee is unlawful, even if 26 averaging an employee’s total pay over all hours worked, paid or not, results in an average hourly wage 27 above minimum wage. (Armenta v. Osmose, Inc. (2005) 135 Cal.App.4th 314, 324.) 28

1 28. Here, Defendants failed to fully conform their pay practices to the requirements of the 2 law during the relevant statutory periods. The Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees were not 3 compensated for all hours worked including, but not limited to, all hours they were subject to the control
4 of Defendants and/or suffered or permitted to work under the California Labor Code and the Applicable
5 Wage Orders. Among other violations, the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees were subject 6 to the control of Defendants while off-the-clock and did not receive minimum wage for each hour 7 worked.

8 29. Labor Code sections 1194, subdivision (a), and 1194.2, subdivision (a), provide that an 9 employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay those employees 10 the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages 11 due and interest thereon.

12 30. When employees, such as the Class Members, are not paid for all hours worked under 13 Labor Code section 1194, they are entitled to recover minimum wages for the time which they received 14 no compensation. (See Sillah v. Command International Security Services (N.D. Cal. 2015) 154 15 F.Supp.3d 891 [employees suing for failure to pay overtime could recover liquidated damages under 16 Labor Code section 1194.2 if they also showed they were paid less than minimum wage].)

17 31. Labor Code section 1197.1 authorizes employees who are paid less than the minimum 18 wage fixed by an applicable state or local law, or by an order of the IWC, a civil penalty, among other 19 damages, as follows:

20 (1) “For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred 21 dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for 22 which the employee is underpaid.”

23 (2) “For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two 24 hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay 25 period for which the employee is underpaid regardless of whether the 26 initial violation is intentionally committed.” (Lab. Code, § 1197.1, subd.
27 (a).)
28

1 32. As set forth above, Defendants failed to fully compensate the Class Members and the 2 Aggrieved Employees for all minimum wages. Accordingly, the Class Members are entitled to recover 3 liquidated damages for violations of Labor Code section 1197.1.

4 33. Based upon these same factual allegations, the Class Members are likewise entitled to 5 penalties under Labor Code sections 1199.

6 B. OVERTIME VIOLATIONS

7 34. Labor Code section 510 requires employers to compensate employees who work more 8 than eight hours in one workday, forty hours in a workweek, and for the first eight hours worked on 9 the seventh consecutive day no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee.
10 (Lab. Code, § 510, subd. (a).) Further, Labor Code section 510 obligates employers to compensate 11 employees at no less than twice the regular rate of pay when an employee works more than twelve 12 hours in a day or more than eight hours on the seventh consecutive day of work. (Lab. Code, § 510, 13 subd. (a).) These rules are also reflected in the Applicable Wage Orders.

14 35. In accordance with Labor Code section 1194 and the Applicable Wage Orders, the Class 15 Members and the Aggrieved Employees could not then agree and cannot now agree to work for a lesser 16 wage than the amount provided by Labor Code sections 510 or the Applicable Wage Orders.

17 36. Here, Defendants violated their duty to accurately and completely compensate the Class 18 Members and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime worked. The Class Members and the 19 Aggrieved Employees periodically worked hours that entitled them to overtime compensation under 20 the law but were not fully compensated for those hours.

21 37. These actions were and are in clear violation of California's overtime laws as set forth 22 in Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1199, and the Applicable Wage Orders. (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, 23 §§ 11010, 11070.) As a result of Defendants' faulty policies and practices, the Class Members and the 24 Aggrieved Employees were not compensated for all hours worked or paid accurate overtime 25 compensation.

26 C. UNPAID ACCRUED VACATION TIME

27 38. California Labor Code section 227.3 states that:
28

1 “[W]henever a contract of employment or employer policy provides for paid 2 vacations, and an employee is terminated without having taken off his vested 3 vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to him as wages at his final rate 4 in accordance with such contract of employment or employer policy respecting 5 eligibility or time served; provided, however, that an employment contract or 6 employer policy shall not provide for forfeiture of vested vacation time upon 7 termination.”

8 39. Thus, when an employer has a vacation policy, it must pay out all accrued but unused 9 vacation time upon termination. An employer may not adopt policies that require forfeiture of vested 10 vacation time without compensation. (Rhea v. General Atomics (2014) 227 Cal.App.4th 1560, 1571 11 [“California law prohibits an employer from requiring the forfeiture of vacation time”].)

12 40. Here, Defendants had a vacation policy, and the Class Members and the Aggrieved 13 Employees had completed all prerequisites and/or necessary limitations of service required by 14 Defendants’ vacation policy to accumulate vested vacation pay. Despite that fact, many of the Class 15 Members and the Aggrieved Employees were denied all accrued but unused vacation time at 16 termination in violation of California law.

17 41. By failing to pay accrued vacation time at termination of employment, Defendants have 18 violated California Labor Code provisions including, but not limited to, sections 201, 202, and 227.3.

19 D. REST BREAK VIOLATIONS

20 42. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7 and the Applicable Wage Orders, Defendants 21 were and are required to provide the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees with compensated, 22 duty-free rest periods of not less than ten minutes for every major fraction of four hours worked. Under 23 the Applicable Wage Orders, an employer must authorize and permit all employees to take ten minute 24 duty free rest periods for every major fraction of four hours worked. (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 25 11010, 11070.)

26 43. Likewise, Labor Code section 226.7 provides that “[a]n employer shall not require an 27 employee to work during a meal or rest or recovery period mandated pursuant to an applicable statute, 28 or applicable regulation, standard, or order of the Industrial Welfare Commission” (Lab. Code, § 226.7, subd. (b).) Labor Code section 226.7 also provides that employers must pay their employees one additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate for each workday that a “meal or rest or recovery period is not provided.” (Lab. Code, § 226.7, subd. (c).) The “regular rate” for these purposes must factor in all nondiscretionary payments for work performed by the employee, including non-discretionary bonuses, commissions, and other forms of wage payments exceeding the employees’ base hourly rate. (Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC (2021) 11 Cal.5th 858, 878.) Thus, the Wage Orders set when and for how long the rest period must take place and the Labor Code establishes that violations of the IWC Wage Orders are unlawful and sets forth the premium pay employer must pay their employees when employers fail to provide rest periods.

44. The California Supreme Court has held that, during required rest periods, “employers must relieve their employees of all duties and relinquish any control over how employees spend their break time.” (Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 260.) Relinquishing control over employees during rest periods requires that employees be “free to leave the employer’s premises” and be “permitted to attend to personal business.” (Id. at p. 275.) The Brinker Court explained in the context of rest breaks that employer liability attaches from adopting an unlawful policy:

“An employer is required to authorize and permit the amount of rest break time called for under the wage order for its industry. If it does not—if, for example, it adopts a uniform policy authorizing and permitting only one rest break for employees working a seven-hour shift when two are required—it has violated the wage order and is liable.” (Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1033.)

45. Here, Defendants periodically did not permit the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees to take compliant duty-free rest breaks, free from Defendants’ control as required by Labor Code section 226.7, the Applicable Wage Orders, and applicable precedent. (See Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 269 [concluding that “during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time.”].) At all relevant times, the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees were periodically not provided with

1 legally-compliant and timely rest periods of at least ten minutes for each four hour work period, or 2 major fraction thereof due to Defendants’ unlawful rest period policies/practices. The Class Members
3 and the Aggrieved Employees were often expected and required to continue working through rest 4 periods to meet the expectations Defendants and finish the workday. In some cases when the Class 5 Members and the Aggrieved Employees worked more than ten hours in a shift, Defendants failed to 6 authorize and/or permit a third mandated rest period. As a result, the Class Members and the Aggrieved 7 Employees were periodically unable to take compliant rest periods.

8 46. In such cases where Defendants did not offer the Class Members and the Aggrieved 9 Employees the opportunity to receive a compliant off-duty rest period, “the court may not conclude 10 employees voluntarily chose to skip those breaks.” (Alberts v. Aurora Behavioral Health Care (2015) 11 241 Cal.App.4th 388, 410 (2015) [“If an employer fails to provide legally compliant meal or rest 12 breaks, the court may not conclude employees voluntarily chose to skip those breaks.”]; Brinker Rest.
13 Corp. v. Superior Court, supra, 53 Cal.4th at p. 1033 [“No issue of waiver ever arises for a rest break 14 that was required by law but never authorized; if a break is not authorized, an employee has no 15 opportunity to decline to take it.”].)

16 47. In addition to failing to authorize and permit compliant rest periods, the Class Members 17 and the Aggrieved Employees were not compensated with one hour’s worth of pay at their regular rate 18 of compensation when they were not provided with a compliant rest period in accordance with Labor 19 Code section 226.7, subdivision (c). Thus, Defendants have violated Labor Code section 226.7 and 20 the Applicable Wage Orders.

21 48. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff seeks to recover, on behalf of himself and other non-22 exempt employees, rest period premiums and penalties.

23 E. MEAL BREAK VIOLATIONS

24 49. Labor Code section 512 and the Applicable Wage Orders require employers to provide 25 employees with a thirty-minute uninterrupted and duty-free meal period within the first five hours of 26 work. (Lab. Code, § 512, subd. (a) [“An employer shall not employ an employee for a work period of 27 more than five hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than 30
28 minutes”]; Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070 [“No employer shall employ any person

1 for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes”].)

2 Additionally, an employee who works more than ten hours per day is entitled to receive a second thirty-

3 minute uninterrupted and duty-free meal period. (Lab. Code, § 512, subd. (a) [“An employer shall not

4 employ an employee for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the employee

5 with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes”].)

6 50. “An on-duty meal period is permitted only when the nature of the work prevents an

7 employee from being relieved of all duty and the parties agree in writing to an on-duty paid meal

8 break.” (Lubin v. The Wackenhut Corp. (2016) 5 Cal.App.5th 926, 932.) The written agreement must

9 include a provision allowing the employee to revoke it at any time. (Ibid.) Generally, the California

10 Department of Industrial Relations, Division of Labor Standards Enforcement (“DLSE”) and courts

11 have “found that the nature of the work exception applies: (1) where the work has some particular

12 external force that requires the employee to be on duty at all times, and (2) where the employee is the 13 sole employee of a particular employer.” (Id. at p. 945, internal quotation marks omitted; Abdullah v.

14 U.S. Security Associates, Inc. (9th Cir. 2013) 731 F.3d 952, 958–959.) “[I]t is the employer’s obligation

15 to determine whether the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved before requiring 16 an employee to take an on-duty meal period.” (Lubin v. The Wackenhut Corp., supra, 5 Cal.App.5th 17 at p. 946.)

18 51. Here, the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees were never asked to sign any 19 enforceable document agreeing to an on-duty meal period. Moreover, nothing in the nature of their 20 work involved the kind of “external force” that might justify on-duty meal breaks. (Lubin v. The 21 Wackenhut Corp., supra, 5 Cal.App.5th at p. 945.) Nevertheless, Defendants periodically did not

22 provide compliant off-duty meal periods within the first five hours of work for the Class Members and 23 the Aggrieved Employees.

24 52. As with rest breaks, meal breaks must be duty-free. (Brinker Restaurant Corp. v.

25 Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1035 [“The IWC’s wage orders have long made a meal period’s 26 duty-free nature its defining characteristic.”].) Relinquishing control over employees during meal 27 periods requires that employees be “free to leave the employer’s premises” and be “permitted to attend 28 to personal business.” (Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., supra, 2 Cal.5th at p. 275.) Under

1 Labor Code section 512, if an employer maintains a uniform policy that does not authorize and permit
2 the amount of meal time called for under the law (as specified in the Labor Code and/or applicable
3 IWC Wage Order), “it has violated the wage order and is liable.” (Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior
4 Court, supra, 53 Cal.4th at p. 1033.)

5 53. During the applicable statutory periods here, the Class Members and the Aggrieved 6 Employees were periodically denied legally-compliant and timely off-duty meal periods of at least 7 thirty minutes due to Defendants’ unlawful meal period policy and practices. As a result of Defendants’ 8 uniform meal period policies and practices, the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees were 9 often not permitted to take compliant first meal periods before the end of the fifth hour of work. The 10 Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees were also periodically not permitted to take second meal 11 periods for shifts in excess of ten hours. Defendants thus violated Labor Code section 512 and the 12 Applicable Wage Orders by failing to advise, authorize, or permit the Class Members and the 13 Aggrieved Employees to receive thirty-minute, off-duty meal periods within the first five hours of their 14 shifts.

15 54. Labor Code section 226.7 provides that “[a]n employer shall not require an employee 16 to work during a meal or rest or recovery period mandated pursuant to an applicable statute, or 17 applicable regulation, standard, or order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.” (Lab. Code, § 226.7, 18 subd. (b).) Labor Code section 226.7, subdivision (c), and the Applicable Wage Orders further obligate 19 employers to pay employees one additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation 20 for each workday that the meal period is not provided. (Lab. Code, § 226.7, subd. (c); Cal. Code of 21 Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070 [“If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance 22 with the applicable provisions of this order, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay 23 at the employee’s regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period is not 24 provided.”].) The “regular rate” for these purposes must factor in all nondiscretionary payments for 25 work performed by the employee, including non-discretionary bonuses, commissions, and other forms 26 of wage payments exceeding the employees’ base hourly rate. (Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC 27 (2021) 11 Cal.5th 858, 878.)
28

1 55. Accordingly, for each day that the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees did 2 not receive compliant meal periods, they were and are entitled to receive meal period premiums
3 pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7 and the Applicable Wage Orders. Defendants, however, failed 4 to pay the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees applicable meal period premiums for many 5 workdays that the employees did not receive a compliant meal period. Thus, Defendants have violated 6 Labor Code section 226.7 and the Applicable Wage Orders.

7 56. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff seeks to recover, on behalf of himself and other non-8 exempt employees, meal period premiums and penalties.

9 F. UNTIMELY WAGES DURING EMPLOYMENT

10 57. Labor Code section 204 expressly requires employers who pay employees on a weekly, 11 biweekly, or semimonthly basis to pay all wages “not more than seven calendar days following the 12 close of the payroll period.” Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a), makes employers who violate 13 Labor Code section 204 subject to a penalty of:

14 “(1) For any initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to 15 pay each employee.

16 “(2) For each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two 17 hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 18 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.” (Lab. Code, § 210, subd.
19 (a).)

20 58. Notably, the penalty provided by Labor Code section 210 is “[i]n addition to, and 21 entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this article” (Lab. Code, § 210, 22 subd. (a).)

23 59. Due to Defendants’ failure to pay the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees the 24 wages described above, along with rest and meal break premiums, Defendants failed to timely pay the 25 Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees within seven calendar days following the close of payroll 26 in accordance with Labor Code section 204 on a regular and consistent basis. (See Parson v. Golden
27 State FC, LLC (N.D. Cal., May 2, 2016, No. 16-CV-00405-JST) 2016 WL 1734010, at p. *3–5, 2016 28

1 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 58299 [finding that a failure to pay rest period premiums can support claims under 2 Labor Code sections 203 and 204].)

3 G. UNTIMELY WAGES AT SEPARATION

4 60. Labor Code section 203 provides “if an employer willfully fails to pay . . . any wages 5 of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty” 6 for up to thirty days. (Lab. Code § 203; Mamika v. Barca (1998) 68 Cal.App.4th 487, 492.) As a result 7 of Defendants’ failure to pay the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees for the wages described 8 above, along with rest and meal break premiums, Defendants violated and continue to violate Labor 9 Code section 203.

10 61. Due to Defendants’ faulty pay policies, those Class Members and Aggrieved Employees 11 whose employment with Defendants concluded were not compensated for each and every hour worked 12 at the appropriate rate. Defendants have failed to pay formerly-employed Class Members and 13 Aggrieved Employees whose sums were certain at the time of termination within at least seventy-two 14 hours of their resignation and have failed to pay those sums for thirty days thereafter.

15 62. Under Labor Code section 256, “[t]he Labor Commissioner shall impose a civil penalty 16 in an amount not exceeding 30 days pay as waiting time under the terms of Section 203.” (Lab. Code, 17 § 256.) This type of waiting time penalty can be recovered through PAGA because PAGA allows an 18 employee to recover civil penalties on behalf of the state against his or her employer for Labor Code 19 violations. (Villacres v. ABM Industries Inc. (2010) 189 Cal.App.4th 562, 579 [recovery of the section 20 256 “civil penalty falls within the PAGA”]); Iskanian v. CLS Transportation Los Angeles, LLC (2014) 21 59 Cal.4th 348, 381; Esparza v. KS Industries, L.P. (2017) 13 Cal.App.5th 1228, 1242.) Defendants 22 have failed to pay the Aggrieved Employees’ worked wages that were due within at least seventy-two 23 hours of their separation. Thus, the Aggrieved Employees were and are entitled to waiting time 24 penalties as civil penalties under PAGA and Labor Code section 256.

25 H. FAILURE TO REIMBURSE BUSINESS EXPENSES

26 63. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were subject to Labor Code section 2802, which 27 states that “an employer shall indemnify his or her employees for all necessary expenditures or losses 28 incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her

1 obedience to the directions of the employer.” The purpose of this section is to “prevent employers
2 from passing along their operating expenses onto their employees.” (Gattuso v. Harte-Hanks Shoppers, 3 Inc. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 554, 562.)

4 64. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were subject to Labor Code section 2804, which 5 states that “any contract or agreement, express or implied, made by any employee to waive the benefits 6 of this article or any part thereof, is null and void, and this article shall not deprive any employee or his 7 personal representative of any right or remedy to which he is entitled under the laws of this State.”

8 65. Thus, the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees were and are entitled to 9 reimbursement for the expenses they incurred during the course of their duties. The duty to reimburse 10 even extends to the use of equipment the employee may already own and would be required to pay for 11 anyway. (Cochran v. Schwan’s Home Serv., Inc. (2014) 228 Cal.App.4th 1137, 1144 [“The threshold 12 question in this case is this: Does an employer always have to reimburse an employee for the reasonable 13 expense of the mandatory use of a personal cell phone, or is the reimbursement obligation limited to 14 the situation in which the employee incurred an extra expense that he or she would not have otherwise 15 incurred absent the job? The answer is that reimbursement is always required. Otherwise, the employer 16 would receive a windfall because it would be passing its operating expenses on to the employee.”].)

17 66. Here, Defendants failed to fully reimburse the Class Members and the Aggrieved 18 Employees for necessary expenditures incurred as a direct consequence and requirement of performing 19 their job duties, including the costs associated with their personal cell phone they required to perform 20 their work. Consequently, Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 2802.

21 I. WAGE STATEMENT VIOLATIONS

22 67. Defendants also failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements in accordance with 23 Labor Code sections 226, subdivisions (a)(1), (2), (5), and (9). Labor Code section 226, subdivision 24 (a), obligates employers, semi-monthly or at the time of each payment to furnish an itemized wage 25 statement in writing showing:

- 26 (1) The gross wages earned;
- 27 (2) The total hours worked by the employee;
- 28

- (3) The number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece rate basis;
- (4) All deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item;
- (5) The net wages earned;
- (6) The inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid;
- (7) The name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number;
- (8) The name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and
- (9) All applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

68. Due to Defendants' failure to pay the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees properly as described above, the wage statements issued do not indicate the correct amount of gross wages earned, total hours worked, or the net wages earned, or the applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate. Thus, Defendants have violated Labor Code section 226, subdivisions (a)(1), (2), (5), and (9).

69. In addition to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), Defendants also knowingly and intentionally failed to provide the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e). Defendants knew that they were not providing the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees with wage statements required by California law but nevertheless failed to correct their unlawful practices and policies. (See Garnett v. ADT LLC (E.D. Cal. 2015) 139 F.Supp.3d 1121, 1134 [finding the defendant knowingly and intentionally violated Labor Code section 226 because the "[d]efendant knew that it was not providing total hours worked to plaintiff or other employees paid on commission" even though it believed that employees paid solely on commission or commission and salary "are exempt and therefore we do not record hours on a wage statement."].)

1 J. RECORDKEEPING VIOLATIONS

2 70. Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), requires employers to keep an accurate record 3 of, among other things, all hours worked by employees. Labor Code section 226.3 provides, in 4 pertinent part, as follows:

5 “Any employer who violates subdivision (a) of Section 226 shall be subject to a 6 civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per 7 violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee 8 for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to 9 provide the employee a wage deduction statement or fails to keep the records 10 required in subdivision (a) of Section 226. The civil penalties provided for in 11 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law.” (Lab. Code, 12 § 226.3, emphasis added.)

13 71. Likewise, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d), requires every employer, including 14 Defendants, to:

15 “Keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which 16 employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by 17 and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any 18 applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or 19 establishments. These records shall be kept in accordance with rules established 20 for this purpose by the commission, but in any case shall be kept on file for not 21 less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee from 22 maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, 23 piece-rate units earned.” (Lab. Code, § 1174, subd. (d), emphasis added.)

24 72. As explained in detail above, Defendants failed to provide the Class Members and the 25 Aggrieved Employees with accurate itemized wage statements. Defendants did so, in part, because 26 they failed to accurately track hours worked by the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees.
27 Defendants have thus failed to keep accurate records of the “total hours worked by the employee[s]” 28 in violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), and are therefore subject to the penalties provided by Labor Code section 226.3. These penalties are “in addition to any other penalty provided by law.” (Lab. Code, § 226.3.)

73. The failure to accurately track hours worked also resulted in a failure of Defendants to keep a record of all “payroll records showing the hours worked daily by” Defendants’ employees, including Plaintiff and the other Class Members, in violation of Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d).

V. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

74. As mentioned above, Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and the Class Members pursuant to section 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

75. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and not practicable. The membership of the class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, it is estimated that the number of Class Members is greater than 100 individuals. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendants’ employment records.

76. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well Defined Community of Interest: There are common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and all other similarly situated non-exempt employees, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, without limitation to:

A. Whether Defendants’ pay policies/practices resulted in a failure to pay the Class Members for all hours worked, including all minimum wages;

B. Whether Defendants’ pay policies/practices resulted in a failure to pay the Class Members for all required overtime wages at the Class Members’ regular rate of pay;

C. Whether Defendants’ pay policies/practices resulted in a failure to pay out all accrued vacation time to the Class Members at termination of employment;

D. Whether Defendants’ rest period policies and practices afforded legally compliant rest periods or compensation in lieu thereof;

E. Whether Defendants’ meal period policies and practices afforded legally compliant meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof;

- 1 F. Whether Defendants maintained accurate employment records;
2 G. Whether Defendants timely paid all wages during employment;
3 H. Whether Defendants timely paid all wages earned and unpaid at separation; 4 I. Whether Defendants indemnified their employees for all necessary business 5 expenditures;
6 J. Whether Defendants furnished legally-compliant wage statements to the Class 7 Members pursuant to Labor Code section 226; and 8 K. Whether Defendants' violations of the Labor Code and the Applicable Wage 9 Orders amounted to a violation of California's UCL.

10 77. Predominance of Common Questions: Common questions of law and fact 11 predominate over questions that affect only individual Class Members. The common questions of law 12 set forth above are numerous and substantial and stem from Defendants' uniform policies and practices 13 applicable to each individual class member, such as Defendants' uniform policy and practice of failing 14 to pay for all hours worked, Defendants' uniform policies and practices which failed to provide 15 compliant rest periods, Defendants' uniform policies and practices which failed to provide compliant 16 meal periods, Defendants' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and others. As such, 17 the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual class 18 member's showing as to his or her eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of his or her damages.

19 78. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Class Members 20 because Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the 21 statute(s) of limitation applicable to each cause of action pleaded in this complaint. As alleged herein, 22 Plaintiff, like the other Class Members, was deprived of minimum, regular, and overtime wages 23 because of Defendants' unlawful timekeeping policies and practices, was deprived of rest periods and 24 premium wages in lieu thereof, was deprived of meal periods and premium wages in lieu thereof, was 25 subject to Defendants' uniform rest period policies and practices, was subject to Defendants' uniform 26 meal period policies and practices, was not provided accurate itemized wage statements, was not paid
27 all wages in full and on time, , and was subject to other similar policies and practices to which the Class 28 Members were subject.

1 79. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps to 2 represent fairly and adequately the interests of the Class Members. Moreover, Plaintiff's attorneys are 3 ready, willing, and able to fully and adequately represent the Class Members and Plaintiff. Plaintiff's 4 attorneys have prosecuted numerous wage-and-hour class actions in state and federal court in the past 5 and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the Class Members.

6 80. Superiority: The California Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an 7 important public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California.
8 These laws and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by employers 9 who have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of superior 10 economic and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The nature 11 of this action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and the Class Members make the class action 12 format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations alleged herein. If 13 each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily gain an 14 unconscionable advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited resources of 15 each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources.

16 81. Moreover, requiring each Class Member to pursue an individual remedy would also 17 discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file an action 18 against their former or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and permanent 19 damages to their careers at subsequent employment. Further, the prosecution of separate actions by 20 the individual Class Members, even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or 21 varying verdicts or adjudications with respect to the individual Class Members against Defendants 22 herein, and which would establish potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants or 23 legal determinations with respect to individual Class Members which would, as a practical matter, be 24 dispositive of the interest of the other Class Members not parties to adjudications or which would 25 substantially impair or impede the ability of the Class Members to protect their interests.

26 82. Further, the claims of the individual Class Members are not sufficiently large to warrant 27 vigorous individual prosecution considering the concomitant costs and expenses attending thereto. As 28

1 such, the Class Members identified above are maintainable as a class under section 382 of the Code of 2 Civil Procedure.

3 VI. EXHAUSTION OF REMEDIES

4 83. Plaintiff has fully and completely exhausted administrative remedies under PAGA prior 5 to proceeding with the PAGA claims stated in this complaint. Plaintiff filed a PAGA notice online 6 with the Labor Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and sent a letter by certified mail to 7 Defendants setting forth the facts and theories of the violations alleged against Defendants, as 8 prescribed by PAGA. (Lab. Code, §§ 2698–2699.6.)

9 84. As required by PAGA, Plaintiff submitted the $75.00 filing fee with the LWDA by 10 regular mail. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), no notice was received by 11 Plaintiff from the LWDA evidencing its intention to investigate within sixty-five calendar days of the 12 postmark date of the PAGA notice. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to commence and proceed with a civil 13 action pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.

14 VII. CAUSES OF ACTION

15 First Cause of Action

16 Failure to Pay All Minimum Wages

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 85. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

19 86. Section 4 of the Applicable Wage Orders and Labor Code section 1197 establish the 20 right of employees to be paid minimum wages for all hours worked, in amounts set by state law. (Lab.
21 Code, § 1197; Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070.) Labor Code sections 1194, subdivision (a), 22 and 1194.2, subdivision (a), provide that an employee who has not been paid the legal minimum wage
23 as required by Labor Code section 1197 may recover the unpaid balance, together with attorneys’ fees 24 and costs of suit, as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the unpaid wages and interest 25 accrued thereon.

26 87. Here, Defendants failed to fully conform their pay practices to the requirements of the 27 law during the relevant statutory periods. Plaintiff and the other Class Members were not compensated 28 for all hours worked including, but not limited to, all hours they were subject to the control of

1 Defendants and/or suffered or permitted to work under the Labor Code and the Applicable Wage 2 Orders.

3 88. Labor Code section 1198 makes unlawful the employment of an employee under 4 conditions that the IWC Wage Orders prohibit. Labor Code sections 1194, subdivision (a), and 1194.2, 5 subdivision (a), provide that an employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage 6 is liable to pay those employees the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages 7 in an amount equal to the wages due and interest thereon.

8 89. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct as alleged herein, 9 Plaintiff and the other Class Members have sustained economic damages, including but not limited to 10 unpaid wages and lost interest, in an amount to be established at trial, and they are entitled to recover 11 economic and statutory damages and penalties and other appropriate relief because of Defendants' 12 violations of the Labor Code and Applicable Wage Orders.

13 90. Defendants' practices and policies regarding illegal employee compensation are 14 unlawful and create an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and the other Class Members in a civil 15 action for the unpaid amount of minimum wages, liquidated damages, including interest thereon, 16 statutory penalties, attorney's fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code sections 204, 218.5, 17 1194, 1194.2, 1197, and 1198, and Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

18 Second Cause of Action

19 Failure to Pay All Overtime Wages

20 (Against All Defendants)

21 91. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

22 92. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code sections 204, 510, 1194, and 23 1198, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to overtime wages for all overtime hours 24 worked and provide a private right of action for the failure to pay all overtime compensation for 25 overtime work performed. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to properly pay 26 Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all overtime wages earned pursuant to Labor Code section 27 1194 and the Applicable Wage Orders. Defendants caused Plaintiff and the other Class Members to 28 work overtime hours but did not compensate them at one and one-half times their regular rate of pay

1 for such hours in accordance with California law. Likewise, Defendants caused Plaintiff and the other 2 Class Members to work double-time hours but did not compensate them at twice their regular rate of 3 pay for such hours in accordance with California law.

4 93. Defendants failed to fully conform their pay practices to the requirements of California
5 law. This unlawful conduct includes but is not limited to Defendants' uniform and unlawful pay 6 policies and practices of failing to accurately record all the time that non-exempt employees were under 7 the supervision and control of Defendants. The foregoing policies and practices are unlawful and allow 8 Plaintiff and the other Class Members to recover in a civil action the unpaid amount of overtime 9 premiums owing, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorney's fees, and costs of suit 10 according to Labor Code section 204, 510, 1194, and 1198, the Applicable Wage Orders, and Code of 11 Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

12 Third Cause of Action

13 Failure to Pay Accrued Vacation Wages

14 (Against All Defendants)

15 94. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

16 95. Under California law, accrued vacation and/or paid time off are considered earned 17 wages and cannot be forfeited if unused. (Lab. Code, § 227.3.) A vacation policy and/or paid time off 18 policy that provides for forfeiture of vested vacation pay if not used within a designated time, such as 19 before termination, is impermissible. (Boothby v. Atlas Mechanical, Inc. (1992) 6 Cal.App.4th 1595, 20 1602.)

21 96. As explained above, Plaintiff and other Class Members accrued vested vacation pay 22 under a "contract of employment," for purposes of Labor Code section 227.3. When they ended their 23 employment with Defendants, Defendants failed to pay their vested vacation pay in violation of Labor 24 Code sections 201, 202, and 227.3. Accordingly, pursuant to section 227.3 of the California Labor 25 Code, Plaintiff and other Class Members are entitled to recover their accrued, vested, and unpaid 26 vacation time.

97. Pursuant to sections 218.5 and 227.3 of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are also entitled to recover interest, costs, and attorneys' fees associated with this cause of action.

Fourth Cause of Action

Failure to Provide Rest Periods and Pay Missed Rest Period Premiums

(Against All Defendants)

98. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

99. Section 12 of the Applicable Wage Orders, and Labor Code section 226.7 establish the right of employees to be provided with a rest period of at least ten minutes for each four hour period worked, or major fraction thereof. (See Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070.)

100. Due to Defendants' unlawful rest period policies and practices described in detail above, Defendants did not authorize and permit Plaintiff and the other Class Members to take all rest periods to which they were legally entitled. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants have not paid an additional hour of pay to Plaintiff and the other Class Members at their respective regular rates of pay for each violation, in accordance with California Labor Code section 226.7.

101. The foregoing violations create an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and the other Class Members in a civil action for the unpaid amount of rest period premiums owing, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit pursuant to the Applicable Wage Orders, and California Labor Code section 226.7.

Fifth Cause of Action

Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Pay Missed Meal Period Premiums

(Against All Defendants)

102. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

103. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges, that Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to provide their hourly non-exempt employees, including Plaintiff and the other Class Members, with all required meal periods in accordance with the mandates of the Labor Code and the Applicable Wage Orders, for the reasons set forth herein above. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants have not paid an additional hour of pay to Plaintiff and the other Class Members at their

1 respective regular rates of pay for each violation, in accordance with California Labor Code section 2 226.7.

3 104. As a result, Defendants are responsible for paying premium compensation for meal 4 period violations, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit pursuant to the 5 Applicable Wage Orders and Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512, and Civil Code sections 3287, 6 subdivision (b), and 3289. (See Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070.)

7 Sixth Cause of Action

8 Failure to Maintain Accurate Employment Records

9 (Against All Defendants)

10 105. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

11 106. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d), an employer shall keep 12 at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, 13 payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and wages paid to employees employed at the 14 respective plants or establishments. These records must be kept in accordance with rules established 15 for this purpose by the commission, but in any case shall be kept on file for not less than two years.

16 107. Labor Code section 1174.5 imposes a civil penalty of $500 for an employer's failure to 17 maintain accurate and complete records.

18 108. Defendant has intentionally and willfully failed to keep accurate and complete records 19 showing the hours worked daily and wages paid to Plaintiff and the other Class Members. Thus, 20 Plaintiff and the other Class Members have been denied their legal right and protected interest in having 21 available at a central location at the plant or establishment where they are employed, accurate and 22 complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily by, and the wages paid to, employees at those 23 respective locations pursuant to Labor Code 1174.

24 Seventh Cause of Action

25 Failure to Pay Wages Timely during Employment

26 (Against All Defendants)

27 109. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.
28

1 110. Labor Code section 200 provides that “wages” include all amounts for labor performed 2 by employees of every description, whether the amount is fixed or ascertained by the standard of time, 3 task, pieces, commission basis, or other method of calculation. Labor Code section 204 states that all 4 wages earned by any person in any employment are payable twice during the calendar month and must 5 be paid not more than seven days following the close of the period when the wages were earned. Labor 6 Code section 210, subdivision (a), makes employers who violate Labor Code section 204 subject to a 7 penalty of $100 for any initial failure to timely pay each employee’s full wages and $200 for each 8 subsequent violation, plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld.

9 111. Labor Code section 216 establishes that it is a misdemeanor for any person, with regards 10 to wages due, to “falsely deny the amount or validity thereof, or that the same is due, with intent to 11 secure himself, his employer or other person, any discount upon such indebtedness, or with intent to 12 annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, or defraud, the person to whom such indebtedness is due.”

13 112. Defendants as a matter of established company policy and procedure in the State of 14 California, scheduled, required, suffered, and/or permitted Plaintiff and the other Class Members, to 15 work without full compensation, to work without legally-compliant off-duty meal periods, to work 16 without legally-compliant off-duty rest periods, and thereby failed to fully pay Plaintiff and the other 17 Class Members within seven days of the close of payroll, as required by law.

18 113. Defendants, as a matter of established company policy and procedure in the State of 19 California, falsely deny they owe Plaintiff and the other Class Members these wages, with the intent of 20 securing for itself a discount upon its indebtedness and/or to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, 21 and/or defraud Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

22 114. Defendants’ pattern, practice, and uniform administration of its corporate policy of 23 illegally denying employees compensation, as described herein, is unlawful and entitles Plaintiff and 24 the other Class Members to recover, pursuant to Labor Code section 218, the unpaid balance of the 25 compensation owed to them in a civil action and any applicable penalties, attorney fees, and interest 26 owed to them pursuant to Labor Code sections 210 and 218.5.

1 121. California Labor Code Section 2802 states that employers must “indemnify” an 2 employee for “all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of 3 the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.”
4 Likewise, Labor Code section 2804 states that “any contract or agreement, express or implied, made 5 by any employee to waive the benefits of this article or any part thereof, is null and void, and this article 6 shall not deprive any employee or his personal representative of any right or remedy to which he is 7 entitled under the laws of this State.”

8 122. Here, Plaintiff and the other Class Members paid out of pocket for necessary business 9 expenditures incurred as a direct consequence and requirement of performing their job duties, including 10 the costs associated with their personal cell phone they required to perform their work. Despite 11 knowing that Plaintiff and the other Class Members incurred these necessary business expenses, and 12 requiring Plaintiff and the other Class Members to use such items, Defendants did not reimburse them.

13 123. Thus, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover the cost of such 14 necessary business expenses, plus interest from the date each incurred such business expenses, plus 15 fees and costs. (Lab. Code, § 2802, subds. (b), (c).)

16 Tenth Cause of Action

17 Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

18 (Against All Defendants)

19 124. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

20 125. Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), obligates employers, semi-monthly or at the 21 time of each payment to furnish an itemized wage statement in writing showing:

- 22 (1) The gross wages earned;
- 23 (2) The total hours worked by the employee;
- 24 (3) The number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if 25 the employee is paid on a piece rate basis;
- 26 (4) All deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of 27 the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item;
- 28 (5) The net wages earned;

- 1 (6) The inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid;
- 2 (7) The name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social
- 3 security number or an employee identification number other than a social
- 4 security number;
- 5 (8) The name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and
- 6 (9) All applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the
- 7 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the
- 8 employee.

9 126. As set forth above, Defendants issued and continues to issue wage statements to its non-

10 exempt employees including Plaintiff and the other Class Members that are inadequate under Labor

11 Code section 226, subdivision (a). By failing to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members properly as 12 described above, Defendants failed to include required information on their wage statements, including,

13 but not limited to, the gross wages earned, the net wages earned in violation of Labor Code section 14 226, subdivision (a).

15 127. Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), of the 16 Labor Code was knowing and intentional. (Lab. Code, § 226, subd. (e)).

17 128. As a result of Defendants' issuance of inaccurate itemized wage statements to Plaintiff

18 and the other Class Members in violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), Plaintiff and the

19 other Class Members are each entitled to recover an initial penalty of $50, and subsequent penalties of 20 $100, up to an amount not exceeding an aggregate penalty of $4,000 per Plaintiff and per each Class

21 Member from Defendants pursuant to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e), along with costs and 22 reasonable attorneys' fees.

23 Eleventh Cause of Action

24 Violations of California's Unfair Competition Law

25 (Against All Defendants)

26 129. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

27 130. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business

28 practices in California in violation of California Business and Professions Code section 17200 through

1 17210, by committing the unlawful acts described above. Defendants' utilization of these unfair and 2 unlawful business practices deprived and continue to deprive Plaintiff and the other Class Members of 3 compensation to which they are legally entitled. These practices constitute unfair and unlawful 4 competition and provide an unfair advantage over Defendants' competitors who have been and/or are 5 currently employing workers and attempting to do so in honest compliance with applicable wage and 6 hour laws.

7 131. Because Plaintiff is a victim of Defendants' unfair and unlawful conduct alleged herein, 8 Plaintiff for himself and on behalf of the Class Members, seeks full restitution of monies, as necessary 9 and according to proof, to restore any and all monies withheld, acquired and/or converted by 10 Defendants pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 17203 and 17208.

11 132. The acts complained of herein occurred within the four years prior to the initiation of 12 this action and are continuing into the present and ongoing.

13 133. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this Court action to 14 protect his interests and those of the Class Members, to obtain restitution and injunctive relief on behalf 15 of Defendants' current non-exempt employees and to enforce important rights affecting the public 16 interest. Plaintiff has thereby incurred the financial burden of attorneys' fees and costs, which Plaintiff 17 is entitled to recover under Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

18 Twelfth Cause of Action

19 Penalties Pursuant to PAGA for Violations of California Labor Code Sections 201, 20 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 256, 510, 512, 1174, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 21 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2802, 2804, and Other Provisions of the Labor
22 Code
23 (Against All Defendants)

24 134. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

25 135. Based on the above allegations incorporated by reference, Defendants violated Labor 26 Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 256, 510, 512, 1174, 1185, 1194, 27 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2802, 2804, and others that may be applicable; and the 28

1 Applicable Wage Orders (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070), and others that may be 2 applicable.

3 136. As a result of the acts alleged above, Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code sections 4 2698 through 2699.6 because of Defendants' violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 5 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 256, 510, 512, 1174, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199,
6 2802, 2804, and others that may be applicable; and the Applicable Wage Orders (Cal. Code of Regs., 7 tit. 8, §§ 11010, 11070), and others that may be applicable.

8 137. Under Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f)(2), and 2699.5, for each such violation, 9 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to penalties in an amount to be shown at the time 10 of trial subject to the following formula:

11 A. $100 for the initial violation per employee per pay period; and 12 B. $200 for each subsequent violation per employee per pay period.

13 138. Moreover, under Labor Code section 256, the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 14 penalties "in an amount not exceeding 30 days pay as waiting time under the terms of Section 203"
15 through PAGA. (Lab. Code, §§ 256, 2699.)

16 139. These penalties must be allocated seventy-five percent to the Labor and Workforce 17 Development Agency ("LWDA") and twenty-five percent to the affected employees. These penalties 18 may be stacked separately for each of Defendants violations of the California Labor Code. (Lopez v.
19 Friant & Associates, LLC (2017) 15 Cal.App.5th 773, 780–781 [citing with approval Stoddart v.
20 Express Services, Inc. (E.D. Cal., Sept. 16, 2015, No. 2:12-CV-01054-KJM) 2015 WL 5522142, at *9, 21 for the proposition that plaintiff could pursue separate claims for penalties under Labor Code section 22 226, subdivision (e), and penalties for Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), violations]; see also 23 Hernandez v. Towne Park, Ltd. (C.D. Cal., June 22, 2012, No. CV 12-02972 MMM JCGX) 2012 WL
24 2373372, at *17 fn. 70 [noting that federal courts applying California law have found that "PAGA 25 penalties can be stacked, i.e., multiple PAGA penalties can be assessed for the same pay period for 26 different Labor Code violations."], internal quotation marks omitted).

27 140. In addition, to the extent permitted by law, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and all 28 Aggrieved Employees with accurate itemized wage statements in compliance with Labor Code section

1 226, subdivision (a). Plaintiff seeks separate PAGA penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code
2 section 226, subdivisions (a) and (e). (Lopez v. Friant & Associates, LLC, supra, 15 Cal.App.5th at 3 pp. 780, 788.)

4 141. For violations of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), Plaintiff seeks the default 5 penalty provided by Labor Code section 226.3. Labor Code section 226.3 provides that "[a]ny 6 employer who violates subdivision (a) of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount 7 of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial violation and one thousand 8 dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails 9 to provide the employee a wage deduction statement or fails to keep the required in subdivision (a) of 10 Section 226." Accordingly, through PAGA and to the extent permitted by law Plaintiff and the 11 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover penalties for violations of Labor Code section 226.3 and 12 seeks default PAGA penalties for each of Defendants' numerous violations of Labor Code section 226, 13 subdivision (e).

14 142. Labor Code section 210 provides that "in addition to, an entirely independent and apart 15 from, any other penalty provided in this article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each 16 employee as provided in Sections . . . 204 . . . shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 17 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee; (2) For each 18 subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure 19 to pay each employee, plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld." As a result of the faulty 20 compensation policies and practices, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are also entitled to recover 21 penalties under Labor Code section 210 through PAGA.

22 143. Labor Code section 1197.1 authorizes a civil penalty, restitution of wages, and 23 liquidated damages, in the amount of: (1) one hundred dollars ($100) for any initial violation that is 24 intentionally committed for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee is 25 underpaid, and (2) two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each subsequent violation for the same specific 26 offense for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee is underpaid 27 regardless of whether the initial violation is intentionally committed. Accordingly, through PAGA and 28

1 to the extent permitted by law, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover pursuant 2 to Labor Code section 1197.1.

3 144. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this action to protect his 4 interests and those of the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the wages and penalties owed 5 by Defendants. Plaintiff has thereby incurred attorneys' fees and costs, which Plaintiff is also entitled 6 to recover under Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (g)(1).

7 VIII. DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

8 145. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of Plaintiff's and the Class Members' claims 9 against Defendants.

10 IX. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

11 Plaintiff prays for judgment for himself and for all others on whose behalf this suit is brought 12 against Defendants, as follows:

- 13 1. For an order certifying the proposed class;
- 14 2. For an order appointing Plaintiff as representative of the class;
- 15 3. For an order appointing Plaintiff's counsel as counsel for the class;
- 16 4. For the failure to pay all minimum wages, compensatory, consequential, general, and 17 special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code sections 1194, 1194.2, 18 1197, and others as may be applicable;
- 19 5. For the failure to pay all overtime wages, compensatory, consequential, general, and 20 special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code sections 204, 510, 1194, 21 1198, and others as may be applicable;
- 22 6. For the failure to pay all accrued vacation, compensatory damages in the amount of the 23 unpaid vacation accrued and owed, as may be proven;
- 24 7. For the failure to provide rest periods and pay missed rest period premiums, 25 compensatory, consequential, general, and special damages according to proof pursuant 26 to Labor Code section 226.7;
- 27
- 28

- 1 8. For the failure to provide meal periods and pay missed meal period premiums, 2 compensatory, consequential, general, and special damages according to proof pursuant 3 to Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512;
- 4 9. For the failure to maintain accurate employment records, penalties pursuant to Labor 5 Code sections 226.3, 1174.5, and others that may be applicable;
- 6 10. For the failure to pay wages timely during employment, the unpaid balance of the 7 compensation owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members and any applicable 8 penalties owed to them pursuant to Labor Code section 210;
- 9 11. For the failure to pay all wages earned and unpaid at separation, statutory waiting time 10 penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 201 through 203, for the Class Members who 11 quit or were fired in an amount equal to their daily wage multiplied by thirty days, as 12 may be proven;
- 13 12. For the failure to indemnify all necessary business expenditures, all unreimbursed 14 business expenses, and interest thereon, that are owed, pursuant to Labor Code section 15 2802, and attorney fees, pursuant to Labor Code section 2802, subdivision (c);
- 16 13. For the violations of California's Unfair Competition Law, restitution to Plaintiff and 17 the other Class Members of all money and/or property unlawfully acquired by 18 Defendants by means of any acts or practices declared by this Court to be in violation 19 of Business and Professions Code sections 17200 through 17210;
- 20 14. For the claim of penalties pursuant to PAGA and other provisions of the California 21 Labor Code, a civil penalty in the amount of $100 for the initial violation and $200 for 22 each subsequent violation as specified in Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f)(2), 23 in the representative action brought on behalf of Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees 24 pursuant the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, and for civil penalties 25 available under Labor Code section 210 and Labor Code section 256;
- 26 15. Prejudgment interest on all due and unpaid wages pursuant to Labor Code section 218.6 27 and Civil Code sections 3287 and 3289;
- 28

16. On all causes of action for which attorneys' fees may be available, for attorneys' fees and costs as provided by Labor Code sections 218.5, 226, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, and others as may be applicable;

17. For an order enjoining Defendants, and each of them, and their agents, servants, and employees, and all persons acting under, in concert with, or for them, from acting in derogation of any rights or duties adumbrated in this complaint; and

18. For such other and further relief, this Court may deem just and proper.
