DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff Enrico Ivy (“Plaintiff”) on behalf of himself, and all other similarly situated non-
2 exempt employees, alleges and complains of defendant Made and Modern Hard Goods Incorporated,
3 and DOES 1 to 50 (collectively, “Defendants”) and each of them, as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. Defendant Made and Modern Hard Goods Incorporated offers personalized furniture
6 products. It blends AR with digital manufacturing and uses its proprietary software utilizing
7 commodity robotics for production, providing customers with novel and innovative furniture
8 alternatives. Plaintiff brings this class action against Defendant for alleged violations of the California
9 Labor Code and Business and Professions Code.

10 2. As set forth below, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to pay for all minimum
11 and/or overtime wages due to their timekeeping policy/practice of unevenly rounding/shaving time 12 entries and also requiring non-exempt employees to undergo mandatory temperature screening and 13 security checks. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants’ meal and rest period policies and practices 14 did not allow and permit all compliant and timely meal and rest periods or pay premium wages at the 15 “regular rate of pay” in lieu thereof.

16 3. Plaintiff also alleges that Defendants failed to reimburse all necessary business
17 expenses, including but not limited to costs associated with their personal cell phones. As a result of 18 the foregoing, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to provide non-exempt employees with accurate 19 written itemized wage statements.

20 4. Based on these alleged Labor Code violations, Plaintiff now brings this class and 21 PAGA representative action to recover unpaid wages, restitution, penalties, and other related relief 22 on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated.

23 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24 5. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated employees hereby brings 25 this class action for recovery of unpaid wages and penalties under California Labor Code §§ 201-
26 203, 204, 210, 221, 226(a), 226(e), 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 516, 1197.1, 1194, 1199,
27 2802-2804, 2698, et seq. and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders (“Wage 28 Orders”), in addition to seeking declaratory relief and restitution pursuant to California Business and

1 Professions Code § 17200, et. seq.

2 6. This class action is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

3 7. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants' violations of the California Labor Code
4 and applicable Wage Orders because the amount in controversy exceeds this Court's jurisdictional 5 minimum.

6 8. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure
7 §§ 395(a) and 395.5, Defendants own and/or operate a facility within the County of Solano, and/or 8 otherwise are found within the County of Solano and Defendants are within the jurisdiction of this 9 Court for purposes of service of process.

10 PARTIES

11 9. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff, who is over the age of 18, was and currently is a 12 California resident residing in the State of California. Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt
13 employee in the County of Solano.

14 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that defendant Made and Modern 15 Hard Goods Incorporated is a Delaware corporation authorized to do business in California and is 16 and/or was the legal employer of Plaintiff and the Class Members during the applicable statutory 17 periods. Plaintiff was, and is, a victim of Defendants' policies and/or practices complained of herein
18 and has been deprived of the rights guaranteed to him by California Labor Code §§ 226(a), 226(e),
19 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 516, 1194, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1199, 2802-2804 and the California
20 Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq., and applicable Wage Orders.

21 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the four years 22 preceding the filing of the Complaint and continuing to the present, Defendants did (and continue to 23 do) business in the State of California, County of Solano.

24 12. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 25 corporate, of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said
26 Defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to 27 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed, and 28 believes, and thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual, partners, or

1 corporate, were responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein, and
2 proximately caused Plaintiff and the Classes to be subject to the unlawful employment practices
3 alleged herein.

4 13. Plaintiff is informed, and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times mentioned
5 herein, Defendants were and are the employers of Plaintiff and all members of the Classes. At all
6 times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of the acts hereinafter
7 alleged to have been done by the named Defendants; and furthermore, the Defendants, and each of 8 them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each and every one of the other Defendants, as 9 well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned were acting within the course
10 and scope of said agency and employment. Defendants, and each of them, approved of, condoned, 11 and/or otherwise ratified each and every one of the acts or omissions complained of herein.

12 14. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants, and each of them, were members of and 13 engaged in a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course and 14 scope of and in pursuance of said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise. Further, Plaintiff
15 alleges that all Defendants were joint employers for all purposes of Plaintiff and all members of the 16 Classes.

17 COMMON FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

18 15. Defendants offers personalized furniture products. It blends AR with digital 19 manufacturing and uses its proprietary software utilizing commodity robotics for production, 20 providing customers with novel and innovative furniture alternatives.

21 16. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt “assembler” from 22 approximately November 7, 2021 to the present. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were 23 responsible for all aspects of Defendants’ operations in California.

24 17. First, during the relevant time period, Defendants have had a regular practice of 25 unevenly rounding/shaving Plaintiff’ and other non-exempt employees’ time entries, resulting in a
26 failure to pay all hours worked. As a result of this practice, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees 27 are not compensated for all the hours that they work and all of the overtime hours they work, in 28 violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 1194, 1197.1, 1199, and applicable Wage Orders.

1 18. California courts have held that rounding time policies can be lawful, “if the rounding
2 policy is fair and neutral on its face and ‘it is used in such a manner that it will not result, over a
3 period of time, in failure to compensate the employees properly for all the time they have actually
4 worked.” See’s Candy Shops v. Superior Court (2012) 210 Cal.App.4th 889, 907 (29 C.F.R. § 785.48;
5 see DLSE Manual, supra, §§ 47.1, 47.2.).

6 19. Here, Defendants’ rounding time policy is not neutral on its face or in practice, as 7 Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not paid for all the time they actually worked. Indeed,
8 Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees are subject to discipline, including termination for being 9 tardy in reporting to work, or returning from a meal or rest period. Moreover, because Defendants are 10 capable of tracking the time worked by non-exempt employees to the exact minute, the policy itself 11 exists not for the convenience or benefit of the employees who are trying to report their time on 12 timecards or otherwise, but for Defendants’ benefit.

13 20. As a result, over a period of time, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not 14 properly paid for all hours worked in violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 1194, 1197.1, 1199, 15 and applicable Wage Orders. Additionally, as a result of the unlawful rounding policy, Plaintiff and 16 other non-exempt employees were also not properly paid at the correct overtime rate for hours worked 17 in excess of eight hours per shift in violation of Labor Code § 510.

18 21. Furthermore, beginning in or around March 2020, Defendant has had a uniform
19 practice of requiring Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to undergo mandatory temperature 20 screening and security checks at the beginning of the workday. However, Defendants failed to 21 compensate Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees for the time spent undergoing temperature 22 screenings because the screenings were performed off-the-clock.

23 22. As a result of Defendants uniform screening procedures/practices, Plaintiff and other 24 non-exempt employees were not fully compensated for all hours they were waiting in line and 25 undergoing temperature screenings and thus, subject to the control of Defendants. As such,
26 Defendants systematically failed to pay Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees for all hours
27 worked and minimum and overtime wages due. Importantly, Defendants have no valid defense to 28 this claim given the California Supreme Court’s unanimous decision in Frlekin v. Apple, Inc. (2020)

1 8 Cal.5th 1038, which held that employees “must be paid” during security checks since “it is clear
2 that [employees] are subject to [the employer’s] control while awaiting, and during, [the] exit
3 searches.”

4 23. Labor Code § 1197.1 authorizes employees who are paid less than the minimum fixed 5 by an applicable state or local law, or by an order of the commission a civil penalty, restitution of 6 wages, and liquidate damages as follows: (1) for any initial violation that is intentionally committed,
7 one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee
8 is underpaid....[and] (2) [f]or each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred 9 fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee is 10 underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is intentionally committed.

11 24. Moreover, during the relevant time period, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees 12 were denied compliant and timely uninterrupted 30-minute off-duty meal periods as mandated by 13 California law. Specifically, as a result of Defendants’ uniform meal period policies and scheduling 14 practices, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were often unable to take timely and 15 uninterrupted 30-minute first meal periods before the end of the fifth hour of work. Further, when 16 Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees worked in excess of 10.0 hours in a shift, they were not 17 always allowed and permitted to take a mandated second meal period before the end of the tenth hour
18 of work in violation of the Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

19 25. Additionally, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not properly paid meal 20 period premiums for missed or non-compliant meal periods at the “regular rate of pay” pursuant to 21 Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC (2021) 11 5th 858 and Labor Code § 226.7.

22 26. Accordingly, due to Defendants’ uniform meal period policies/practices, Plaintiff and 23 other non-exempt employees were regularly denied legally compliant meal periods in violation of 24 Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 516, and applicable Wage Orders.

25 27. Next, during the relevant time period, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were 26 regularly not provided with all uninterrupted net 10-minute rest periods for every four hours worked,
27 or major fraction thereof due to Defendants’ uniform rest period policies and scheduling practices.
28 As a result, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were and are regularly unable to take an

1 uninterrupted net 10-minute duty free rest periods for every major fraction of four hours worked.

2 28. By not relieving all non-exempt employees of all duties during rest periods, Defendants
3 failed to provide legally compliant rest periods. See Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016)
4 2 Cal. 5th 257, 269 [concluding that “during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all
5 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time.”]. In Augustus, the California
6 Supreme Court expressly rejected the employers’ assertion that it could provide an on-duty rest period
7 to employees who worked as security guards and further explained “that employers [must] relinquish
8 any control over how employees spend their break time and relieve their employees of all duties.” Id.
9 at 273.

10 29. Each time Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were unable to take a compliant
11 rest period, Defendants failed and continue to fail to adequately pay rest period premium payments
12 at the “regular rate of pay” as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

13 30. Accordingly, due to Defendants’ uniform rest period policies/practices and work
14 demands, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were also regularly denied legally compliant rest
15 breaks in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and applicable Wage Orders.

16 31. Further, during the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other non-
17 exempt employees to incur necessary business expenses including, but not limited to, the costs
18 associated with using their personal cell phones. However, Defendants regularly failed to reimburse
19 non-exempt employees adequately for these necessary expenditures in violation of Labor Code §§
20 2802-2804. See Cochran v. Schwan’s Home Service, Inc., (2014) 228 Cal.App.4th 1137, 1144 [“[i]f 21 an employee is required to make work-related calls on a personal cell phone, then he or she is 22 incurring an expense for the purposes of section 2802...To show liability under section 2802, an 23 employee need only show that he or she was required to use a personal cell phone to make work-24 related calls, and he or she was not reimbursed”].

25 32. Accordingly, Defendants have failed to adequately reimburse Plaintiff and other non-26 exempt employees for necessary business expenditures in violation of Labor Code § 2802 and 27 applicable Wage Orders.

33. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees for all minimum and overtime wages, and for meal and rest period premiums at the "regular rate of pay", Defendants issued wage statements which failed to accurately identify the gross wages earned, the total hours worked, the net wages earned, and the correct corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(1, 2, 5, and 9).

34. Labor Code § 226.3 provides that “[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial violation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage deduction statement or fails to keep the required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.”

35. Consequently, because Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees would be entitled to recover penalties under Labor Code § 226(e).

36. Finally, because of Defendants' failure to pay all minimum and overtime wages, and premium wages for missed meal and rest periods, Defendants also often failed and continue to fail to pay Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees all wages owed at their time of separation from employment in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

37. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and the following Classes pursuant to § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure:

All non-exempt employees who work or worked for Defendants in California, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint through the date of trial. (“Class”);

All non-exempt employees who worked for Defendants in California and who worked overtime hours during at least one shift, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint through the date of trial. (“Overtime Subclass”);

All employees who work or worked for Defendants in California, during the one year immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint through the date of trial. (“Wage Statement Subclass”)

(collectively “the Classes”)

1 38. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The members of the Classes are so numerous that 2 joinder of all members would be unfeasible and not practicable. The membership of the Classes is 3 unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, it is estimated that the Classes consist of at least one
4 hundred (100) individuals. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of 5 Defendants' employment and payroll records.

6 39. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well Defined Community of 7 Interest: There are common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and all other similarly situated 8 employees, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, without 9 limitation to:

10 1. Whether Defendants' timekeeping policy/practice of unevenly rounding/shaving non-11 exempt employees' time entries and requiring non-exempt employees to undergo temperature
12 screenings and security checks resulted in a failure to pay all minimum and overtime wages;

13 2. Whether Defendants provided legally compliant meal and rest periods or proper
14 compensation in lieu thereof to members of the Class;

15 3. Whether Defendants reimbursed all necessary business expenses, including but not 16 limited to costs associated with the costs associated with using personal cell phones for work 17 purposes; and

18 4. Whether Defendants furnished legally compliant wage statements to members of the 19 Wage Statement Subclass pursuant to Labor Code § 226(a).

20 40. Predominance of Common Questions: Common questions of law and fact
21 predominate over questions that affect only individual members of the Classes. The common
22 questions of law set forth above are numerous and substantial and stem from Defendants' policies
23 and/or practices applicable to each individual class member, such as Defendants' failure to pay all
24 minimum and overtime wages due to their timekeeping policy/practice of unevenly rounding/shaving
25 non-exempt employees' time entries and requiring non-exempt employees to undergo temperature
26 screenings and security checks, Defendants' failure to provide all compliant meal and rest periods or 27 compensation at the "regular rate of pay" in lieu thereof, Defendants' failure to reimburse necessary
28 business expenses, and Defendants' resulting failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements.

1 As such, the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual
2 class member's showing as to his or her eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of his or her 3 damages.

4 41. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Classes because
5 Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the statute(s)
6 of limitation applicable to each cause of action pled in the Complaint in this action. As alleged herein,
7 Plaintiff, like the members of the Classes was deprived of minimum wages, was deprived of overtime
8 wages at the "regular rate," was deprived of meal and rest period premium wages, was subject to 9 Defendants' uniform meal and rest period policies/practices, was not reimbursed for necessary
10 business expenses associated with the use of his personal cell phone for work purposes and was not 11 provided accurate itemized wage statements.

12 42. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps to 13 represent fairly and adequately the interests of the members of the Classes. Moreover, Plaintiff's
14 attorneys are ready, willing and able to fully and adequately represent the members of the Classes.
15 Plaintiff's attorneys have prosecuted and are actively litigating several wage-and-hour class actions 16 in state and federal courts and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the 17 members of the Classes.

18 43. Superiority: The California Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an 19 important public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California.
20 These laws and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by 21 employers who have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of 22 superior economic and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The 23 nature of this action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and members of the Classes make 24 the class action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations
25 alleged herein. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would 26 necessarily gain an unconscionable advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the 27 limited resources of each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources.

44. Moreover, requiring each member of the Classes to pursue an individual remedy would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file an action against their former and/or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and permanent damages to their careers at subsequent employment. Further, the prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members, even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would establish potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or legal determinations with respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interest of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which would substantially impair or impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests. Further, the claims of the individual members of the class are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual prosecution considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending thereto. As such, the Classes identified in Paragraph 37 are maintainable as Classes under § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY ALL MINIMUM WAGES

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

45. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

46. Section 4 of the applicable Wage Orders and California Labor Code §§ 1197 and 1182.12 establish the right of employees to be paid minimum wages for all hours worked, in amounts set by state law. Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an employee who has not been paid the legal minimum wage as required by Labor Code § 1197 may recover the unpaid balance together with attorneys' fees and costs of suit, as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the unpaid wages and interest accrued thereon.

47. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to conform their pay practices to the requirements of the law. This unlawful conduct includes but is not limited to Defendants' timekeeping policy/practice of unevenly rounding/shaving non-exempt employees' time entries and requiring non-exempt employees to undergo temperature screenings and security checks, consequently resulting in

1 these individuals not being paid for all hours actually worked. Accordingly, Plaintiff and members of 2 the Classes were not compensated for all hours worked including, but not limited to, all hours they
3 were subject to the control of Defendants and/or suffered or permitted to work under the California
4 Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

5 48. Labor Code § 1198 makes unlawful the employment of an employee under conditions
6 that the IWC prohibits. California Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an employer
7 who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay those employees the 8 unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages
9 due and interest thereon.

10 49. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct as alleged herein,
11 Plaintiff and the Classes have sustained economic damages, including but not limited to unpaid wages 12 and lost interest, in an amount to be established at trial, and they are entitled to recover economic and 13 statutory damages and penalties and other appropriate relief as a result of Defendants' violations of 14 the California Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

15 50. Defendants' practice and uniform administration of corporate policy regarding illegal
16 employee compensation is unlawful and creates an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and members
17 of the Classes in a civil action for the unpaid amount of minimum wages, liquidated damages,
18 including interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorney's fees, and costs of suit according to Labor
19 Code §§ 204, 558, 1194 et seq., 1197, 1198, and Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

20 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO PAY ALL OVERTIME WAGES

22 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

23 51. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

24 52. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 558, 1194,
25 and 1198, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to overtime wages for all overtime
26 hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure to pay all overtime compensation
27 for overtime work performed.

53. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to properly pay Plaintiff and members of the Classes for all overtime hours worked pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194 and the applicable Wage Orders.

54. Nevertheless, at all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to conform their pay practices to the requirements of the law by unevenly rounding/shaving non-exempt employees' time entries and requiring members of the Classes to undergo mandatory temperature screening and security checks. To the extent that the foregoing uncompensated time occurred on workdays where employees already worked eight hours or in workweeks in which employees already worked 40 hours, the foregoing resulted in time which Plaintiff and members of the Classes were under control of Defendants but were not compensated at their overtime rate of pay.

55. The foregoing policies and practices are unlawful and create entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and the members of the Classes in a civil action for the unpaid amount of overtime wages, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorney's fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 510, 1194, and 1198, the applicable Wage Orders, and Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

56. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

57. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to provide all of their hourly non-exempt employees, including Plaintiff and members of the Class, with all required meal periods in accordance with the mandates of the California Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders, for the reasons set forth in the Common Allegations section of this Complaint.

58. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants have not paid an additional hour of pay at the "regular rate of pay" to Plaintiff and members of the Class at their respective regular rates of pay for each violation, in accordance with Ferra and Labor Code § 226.7.

59. As a result, Defendants are responsible for paying premium compensation for meal period violations, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit pursuant to the applicable Wage Orders, Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and Civil Code §§ 3287(b) and 3289.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

60. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

61. Section 12 of the applicable Wage Orders and Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516 establishes the right of non-exempt employees to be provided with a rest period of at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4) hour period worked, or major fraction thereof.

62. Due to their unlawful rest period policy and practices, Defendants did not authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Class to take all rest periods to which they were legally entitled. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants have not paid an additional hour of pay at the "regular rate of pay" to Plaintiff and members of the Class at their respective regular rates of pay for each violation, in accordance with California Labor Code § 226.7.

63. The foregoing violations create an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and members of the Class in a civil action for the unpaid amount of rest period premiums owing, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit pursuant to the applicable Wage Orders, Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516, and Civil Code §§ 3287(b) and 3289.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO REIMBURSE NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENDITURES

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

64. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

65. Labor Code 2802(a) states in pertinent part the following:
“(a) An employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful.”

66. As set forth above, Plaintiff and members of the Classes must be compensated for all necessary business expenditures, including, but not limited to, a reasonable portion of their personal cell phone bill, and other expenses necessarily incurred in their discharge of their duties. (See Cochran v. Schwan's Home Service, Inc. (2014) 228 Cal.App.4th 1137 (“We hold that when employees must use their personal cell phones for work-related calls, Labor Code section 2802 requires the employer to reimburse them. Whether the employees have cell phone plans with unlimited minutes or limited minutes, the reimbursement owed is a reasonable percentage of their cell phone bills.”); Aguilar v. Zep, Inc., 2014 WL 4245988 *17 (N.D. Cal. 2014) (granting Plaintiff’s motion for partial summary judgment on Plaintiff’s cell phone reimbursement claim); Ritchie v. Blue Shield of California, 2014 WL 6982943, at *21 (N.D. Cal. 2014) (certifying class of cell phone reimbursement claim and adopting the logic of Cochran).

67. At all relevant times, by failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Classes for all necessary business expenditures, Defendants have failed to comply with Labor Code Section 2802 and the applicable Wage Orders.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

68. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

69. Labor Code 226(a) states in pertinent part the following:

“(a) An employer, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, shall furnish to his or her employee, either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee’s wages, or separately if wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly

1 rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours
2 worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

3 70. As set forth above, during the Class Period, Defendants issued and continue to issue
4 wage statements to its employees including Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Subclass,
5 which are inadequate under Labor Code Section 226(a).

6 71. As a result of Defendants failure to pay Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Subclass for 7 all regular and overtime wages, and missed meal and rest period premiums at the appropriate legal 8 rate, Defendants failed to include required information on Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Subclass’
9 wage statements, including, but not limited to, the gross wages earned, the net wages earned in 10 violation of Labor Code section 226(a)(1,2,5, and 9).

11 72. Defendants’ failure to comply with section 226(a) of the Labor Code was knowing 12 and intentional.

13 73. As a result of Defendants’ issuance of inaccurate itemized wage statements to Plaintiff
14 and members of the Wage Statement Subclass in violation of section 226(a) of the California Labor
15 Code, Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Subclass are each entitled to recover an initial 16 penalty of $50, and subsequent penalties of $100, up to an amount not exceeding an aggregate penalty
17 of $4,000 per Plaintiff and per every member of the Wage Statement Subclass from Defendants 18 pursuant to section 226(e) of the Labor Code, costs and reasonable attorneys’ fees.

19 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 WAITING TIME PENALTIES

21 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

22 74. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

23 75. The actionable period for this cause of action is three years prior to the filing of this 24 Complaint through the present, and on-going until the violation is corrected, or the class is certified.

25 76. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 require Defendants to pay all compensation due and owing 26 to Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Subclass during the actionable period for this cause of action at or 27 around the time that their employment is or was terminated or ended.

84. The acts complained of herein occurred within the last four years immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint in this action.

85. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to protect his interests and those of the Classes, to obtain restitution and injunctive relief on behalf of Defendants' current hourly non-exempt employees and to enforce important rights affecting the public interest. Plaintiff has thereby incurred the financial burden of attorneys' fees and costs, which he is entitled to recover under Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT

(Labor Code § 2698 et seq.)

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

86. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

87. Defendants have committed several Labor Code violations against Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees. Plaintiff, an “aggrieved employee” within the meaning of Labor Code § 2698 et seq., acting on behalf of himself and other non-exempt employees, bring this representative action against Defendants to recover the civil penalties due to Plaintiff, other similarly non-exempt employees, and the State of California according to proof pursuant to Labor Code § 2699 (a) and (f) including, but not limited to (1) $100 for each initial violation and (2) $200 for each subsequent violation per employee per pay period for those violations of the Labor Code for which no civil penalty is specifically provided based on the following Labor Code violations:

a. Failing to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees all wages in violation of Labor Code § 204, 210, 510, 1194 & 1198;

b. Failing to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with all of their statutorily mandated meal periods or compensation at the “regular rate of pay” in lieu thereof in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 558, 1194 and 1198;

c. Failing to timely compensate Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with all earnings at their separation of employment in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203;

5 business expenditures in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802

8 g. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with complete, 9 accurate, itemized wage statements in violations of Labor Code § 226(a); and

10 88. On or about August 2, 2022, Plaintiff notified Defendant Made and Modern Hard
11 Goods Incorporated, via certified mail, and the California Labor and Workforce Development 12 Agency (“LWDA”) via its website of Defendant’s violations of the California Labor Code § 2698 et
13 seq., with respect to violations of the California Labor Code identified in Paragraph 80(a)-(e). Now 14 that sixty-five days have passed from Plaintiff notifying Defendant and the LWDA of these 15 violations, Plaintiff will have exhausted her administrative requirements for bringing a claim under 16 the Private Attorneys General Act with respect to these violations.

17 89. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 18 protect their interests and the interests of other non-exempt employees, and to assess and collect the 19 civil penalties owed by Defendants. Plaintiff has hereby incurred attorneys’ fees and costs, which she 20 is entitled to receive under California Labor Code § 2699.

22 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment for himself and for all others on whose behalf
