1           I.       INTRODUCTION

2           Plaintiff DIANA VASQUEZ ("Plaintiff") reached a settlement of the California Private 3 Attorneys General Act, Cal. Labor Code §2699, et seq. ("PAGA") claim asserted in this action
4 against Defendant BOB'S DISCOUNT FURNITURE LLC, ("Defendant"). The only claim in this 5 action is the representative PAGA claim. In accordance with California Labor Code §2699(l), 6 Plaintiff now asks this Court to review and approve the settlement of Plaintiff's PAGA claims.
7 This is only a settlement of the PAGA claims for civil penalties, and is not a class settlement and 8 does not release the individual claims, if any, of the affected employees other than the Plaintiff.
9 Cal. Labor Code § 2699(g)(1); Iskanian v. CLS Transportation, 59 Cal. 4th 348, 381 (2014).

10          The PAGA settlement is set forth in the accompanying Joint Stipulation of Settlement and 11 Release of PAGA Action ("Settlement", "Agreement" or "Settlement Agreement"). A true and 12 correct copy of the Settlement Agreement, which sets forth the terms for the settlement of the 13 PAGA claims, is attached as Exhibit 1 to the Declaration of James Hawkins, filed herewith.
14 Capitalized terms shall have the same meaning as defined in the Settlement Agreement. The 15 LWDA was served notice of this Settlement and this motion as set forth in the accompanying 16 proof of service. The Notice of Settlement to PAGA Members is attached to the James Hawkins 17 declaration as Exhibit A.

18          A proposed order confirming review and approval of the PAGA settlement is submitted 19 herewith.

20           II.       RELEVANT FACTS

21          On August 24, 2022, Plaintiff sent the PAGA Notice to the Labor and Workforce 22 Development Agency ("LWDA"). (Settlement Agreement ¶2.1).

23          On October 31, 2022, Plaintiff filed the PAGA Representative Action in the Superior 24 Court of California in and for the County of Ventura, styled Diana Vasquez, on behalf of the 25 general public as private attorney general v. Bob's Discount Furniture LLC., et al., and Does 1
26 through 50, Inclusive, Case No. 56-2022-00569476-CU-OE-VTA and alleged a singular cause of 27 action under PAGA for Defendant's alleged (a) failure to pay wages including overtime, (b) 28 failure to provide meal periods for every work period exceeding more than five (5) or ten (10)

1 hours per day and failure to pay an additional hour's of pay or accurately pay an additional hour's 2 of pay in lieu of providing a meal period; (c) failure to provide rest breaks for every four (4) hours 3 or major fraction thereof worked and failure to pay an additional hour's of pay or accurately pay 4 an additional hour's of pay in lieu of providing a rest period; (d) failing to pay all wages earned 5 and owed upon separation from Defendant's employ, (e) failing to provide accurate itemized 6 wage statements, (f) failing to accurately calculate sick pay, (g) failing to reimburse necessary 7 business expenses, (h) for unlawful deductions. (Hawkins Decl., at ¶ 3).

8 During the course of this action Defendant and Plaintiff exchanged numerous documents 9 and information as well as time and pay records for the aggrieved employees. Defendant also 10 produced policies and other relevant data points for Plaintiff to conduct a thorough analysis. With 11 this information, Plaintiff and Defendant agreed to mediate this action with mediator Kevin 12 Barnes, Esq, a respected and experienced wage and hour class action mediator. On July 24, 2024, 13 the Parties participated in an all day mediation with the mediator. During the mediation the 14 Parties engaged in extensive, arms-length negotiations. As a result of the Parties' efforts, the 15 matter was fully resolved. The Parties engaged in significant efforts to obtain the facts regarding 16 the claims asserted, including the exchange of detailed statistical data regarding weeks and pay 17 periods worked by individuals and Plaintiff. Thereafter, the parties worked together to finalize 18 the terms of the long form settlement agreement that is now placed before this Court for approval.
19 (Hawkins Decl., at ¶ 4).

20 As part of the settlement, the Parties agreed that Plaintiff would file a First 21 Amended Complaint, as well as amend Plaintiff's PAGA Notice, to add allegations of 22 violations of all California Labor Code provisions related to the PAGA Claims of the PAGA 23 Aggrieved Employees, including claims relating to Defendant's alleged misclassification of 24 employee exempt status and alleged failure to pay supplemental COVID-19 sick pay, so that all 25 PAGA claims based on the facts alleged therein may be released via the settlement. (Settlement 26 Agreement ¶2.4).

1 On September 20, 2024, Plaintiff notified the Labor & Workforce Development Agency 2 (LWDA) of a proposed amendment to the PAGA complaint. The First Amended Complaint was 3 filed on July 25, 2025. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 6).

4 III. TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT

5 The Agreement negotiated by the parties provides for Defendant to pay $350,000.00 as 6 the Gross Settlement Amount (“GSA”). (Agreement at § 1.10). The “Net Settlement Amount” 7 (“NSA”) is the amount remaining of the GSA minus the Court-approved amounts awarded for the 8 Attorneys Fees and Costs, Settlement Administration Fees, and the Enhancement Award to 9 Plaintiff (if any). (Agreement at § 1.12). The Net Settlement Amount is estimated to be 10 $203,644.96. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 8).

11 The NSA is calculated as follows: (1) $116,666.67 (i.e. one third of the GSA) shall be 12 paid to Plaintiff’s Counsel for payment of attorneys’ fees; (2) Plaintiff’s Counsel’s litigation 13 expenses not to exceed $20,000.00 (Plaintiff’s counsel’s litigation costs to date is $14,698.37, 14 (Agreement at § 1.16); (3) $10,000.00 Enhancement Award to the Plaintiff for Plaintiff’s time 15 and risks in prosecuting this case and Plaintiff’s service to the PAGA Members as well as for 16 Plaintiff’s general release of Plaintiff’s Released Claims; (4) Administration costs not to exceed 17 $4,990.00. (Agreement at §§ 1.9, 1.26). Any difference from these maximum amounts will be 18 added to the Net Settlement Amount. (Hawkins Decl., ¶ 9).

19 The Gross Settlement Amount is subject to Court approval consistent with Labor Code § 20 2699. Should the Net Settlement Amount increase or decrease, the amount to be distributed shall 21 be adjusted according to the changes made by the Court. Upon approval, the Net Settlement 22 Amount shall be allocated 65% ($132,369.22) to the LWDA and 35% ($71,275.74) among 23 PAGA Group Members. The share of the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed to each PAGA 24 Member is based on the number of his or her Pay Periods worked in the PAGA Period in relation 25 to the aggregate number of Pay Periods worked by the Settlement Group during the PAGA 26 Period. (Agreement at § 1.11). Pursuant to the 2024 amendments under Assembly Bill 2288 and 27 Senate Bill 92, for any PAGA notice filed on or after June 19, 2024, California Labor Code 28 § 2699(i) now mandates a 65/35 split of civil penalties — 65% to the LWDA and 35% to 1 aggrieved employees. The prior 75/25 allocation applies only to notices filed before that date.

2 Here the most recent PAGA notice was filed on September 20, 2024. Thus, the new 65/35
3 allocation should apply. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 10). This equates to approximately $419.24 on average 4 to each aggrieved employee.

5 The “PAGA Members” are defined as “All exempt managers and assistant managers who 6 worked for Defendant in California at any time during the PAGA Period, from October 31, 2021, 7 through September 22, 2024.” There are approximately 170 PAGA Members who worked 8 approximately 17,558 pay periods. (Agreement at § 5.7). The PAGA Period is October 31, 2021, 9 through September 22, 2024. (Agreement at §1.18). (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 11).

10 Defendant provided Plaintiff’s Counsel with information concerning the PAGA Members, 11 including statistical data concerning the weeks and pay periods worked. Defendant represented 12 that PAGA Group Members consisted of approximately 170 employees who worked 13 approximately 17,558 pay periods during the PAGA Period. (Agreement at § 5.7).

14 Within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date <sup>1</sup> Defendant will provide the Settlement 15 Administrator with the Gross Settlement Amount. (Agreement at § 7.1).

16 Within 30 calendar days of the Effective Date, the Administrator will pay to Settlement
17 Group Members, their Individual Settlement Payments via first-class regular U.S. Mail; to PAGA 18 Counsel, the Court-awarded Attorneys Fees and Litigation Expenses Payment; to the LWDA, the 19 Court-approved LWDA Payment; Enhancement Award to Plaintiff (if any); and to the 20 Administrator, the Court-awarded Administration Fees and Expenses. (Agreement at § 7.2).

21 <sup>1</sup> “Effective Date” shall mean the date on which the terms of 22 settlement embodied in this Agreement along with all associated releases become effective, which 23 occur only after all of the following events have first occurred: (i) this Settlement has been executed 24 by all Parties and their respective counsel; (ii) the date of final affirmance of the Judgment on an 25 appeal of the Judgment, the expiration of the time for, or the denial of, a petition to review the 26 Judgment, or if review is granted, the date of final affirmance of the Judgment following review 27 pursuant to that grant, (iii) the date of final dismissal of any appeal from the Judgment or the final 28 dismissal of any proceeding to review the Judgment, provided that the Judgment is affirmed and/or not reversed in any part, (iv) the final resolution (or withdrawal) of any filed appeal in a way that affirms the Final Approval Order and Judgment in a form substantially identical to the form of the Final Approval Order entered by the Court, and the time to petition for review with respect to any appellate decision affirming the Final Approval Order has expired; or (v) if no appeal is filed, the sixty-sixth (66th) day after the Court enters final approval of the Settlement and enters Judgment approving this Agreement. (Agreement at § 1.8).

1 Settlement Group Members shall have one hundred eighty days (180) to cash their checks.
2 Any funds associated with uncashed checks after one hundred eighty (180) days will be sent to 3 the Controller of the State of California to be held pursuant to the Unclaimed Property Law, 4 California Civil Code § 1500 et seq., for the benefit of those Settlement Group Members whose 5 checks were voided. (Agreement at § 7.3).

6 Each PAGA Member will grant in favor of each Released Party, and be subject to, 7 the settlement Release. The Released Claims means All PAGA claims for civil 8 penalties under Labor Code §§ 2698.3, et seq., arising from or related to this case based on the 9 facts alleged in the operative PAGA action complaint and/or the underlying initial PAGA Notice
10 sent to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) by Plaintiff on August 24, 11 2022, the amended PAGA Notice dated September 20, 2024, and/or the second amended PAGA
12 Notice dated December 18, 2024, which arise out of or relate to such facts, including PAGA 13 penalties for alleged violations of failure to properly calculate or pay wages including minimum 14 and overtime wages (Labor Code §§ 223, 510, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198), the failure to provide 15 meal periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512), the failure to pay meal period premium pay (Labor 16 Code § 226.7), the failure to provide rest periods (Labor Code § 226.7), the failure to pay rest 17 period premium pay (Labor Code §§ 226.2, 226.7), the failure properly calculate or pay all sick 18 pay (Labor Code § 246), the failure to pay supplemental COVID-19 sick pay, the failure to timely 19 pay wages throughout employment (Labor Code §§ 204 and 558), the failure to timely pay final 20 wages upon separation of employment (Labor Code §§ 201-203), the failure to provide accurate 21 itemized wage statements (Labor Code §§ 226, 226.3), the failure to reimburse reasonable and 22 necessary business expenses (Labor Code § 2802), the failure to maintain accurate records (Labor 23 Code §§ 1174, and 1174.5), unlawful deductions from employee wages (Labor Code § 221), 24 and/or any claims related to misclassification of employee exempt statuses. This release is 25 intended only to release aggrieved employees’ PAGA claims. (Agreement at §1.23).

26 The California Labor Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) is being served with a 27 copy of this motion with the Settlement Agreement through the online process as required by 28

1 Labor Code § 2699(l). This service on the LWDA is verified in the separately filed proof of 2 service. (Hawkins Decl., ¶ 33).

3 IV. THE PARTIES HAVE SETTLED THE PAGA CLAIMS

4 The claim before this court is the representative claim under PAGA on behalf of the State 5 of California for civil penalties pursuant to the PAGA. The parties have agreed to settle this 6 PAGA claim in its entirety after discovery and arm's length mediation. (Hawkins Decl., at ¶¶ 3-7 6.) The settlement is intended to fully and finally resolve the PAGA claims asserted by Plaintiff 8 on behalf of the State of California. This is only a settlement of the PAGA claims for civil 9 penalties, and is not a class settlement and does not release the individual claims, if any, of the 10 PAGA Members. Attorneys' fees equal to $116,666.67 and actual litigation costs in the amount 11 of $14,698.37 will also be paid to Plaintiff's Counsel, subject to Court approval as part of the 12 settlement in accordance with California Labor Code § 2699(g)(1) as set forth in the Agreement.
13 There is also payment of up to $4,990.00 to the Settlement Administrator to perform the 14 administrative duties to distribute the settlement money and a $10,000.00 Enhancement Award to 15 Plaintiff. (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 3-9.)

16 V. THE PARTIES REQUEST REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF THE 17 SETTLEMENT OF THE PAGA CLAIM

18 Labor Code § 2699(l) requires that the Court "shall review and approve any settlement of 19 any civil [PAGA] action filed pursuant to this part. The proposed settlement shall be submitted to 20 the agency at the same time that it is submitted to the court." Consequently, the parties 21 respectfully ask the Court to review and approve the settlement of the PAGA claims and the 22 Maximum and Net Settlement Amounts to be paid as part of the proposed settlement.

23 A. The PAGA Group Recovery to Be Paid Is Fair and Reasonable

24 The Parties believe that the PAGA Group Recovery is fair and reasonable and therefore 25 "shall" be reviewed and approved. The Labor and Workforce Development Agency has released 26 data on PAGA settlement amounts. The Gross Settlement Amount of $350,000.00 constitutes 27 approximately $19.93 per pay period before deductions for fees, costs, enhancement award, and 28 administration costs. The Gross Settlement Amount accounts for approximately 20% to 50% of

1 the maximum potential recovery of between $1,755,800 to $887,900 given the reasonable applied
2 risks factors. (Hawkins Decl. ¶20).

3 Since the filing of the complaint, the Parties have exchanged extensive discovery and 4 engaged in numerous discussions regarding the factual and legal issues surrounding this case.
5 Throughout the litigation, Defendant produced voluminous pages of information and data, 6 including policies, handbooks, time and payroll records for the PAGA Members reflecting time 7 punches at the start of employees' shifts, and at the end of the shift, and meal period punches as 8 well as the applicable pay rates. Defendant also provided Plaintiff's personnel file, records 9 regarding documents identifying the non-exempt positions and information regarding the number 10 of employees holding these positions during the relevant time period. Defendant also provided 11 substantial information concerning the total number of potential size of the PAGA group, the total 12 number of workweeks and pay periods at issue, and the applicable hourly rates and other 13 summary data related to the alleged PAGA Members. The Parties have conducted themselves in 14 informed, good faith arms-length negotiations after conducting discovery and exchanging 15 extensive evidence and information about the claims and defenses of this lawsuit and engaging in 16 pre-mediation discussions, telephone conferences, and correspondence all aimed at settling their 17 dispute (Hawkins Decl., ¶ 13).

18 In preparation for the mediation, Plaintiff reviewed the entire discovery produced. The 19 information had to be extrapolated and processed to figure out the amount of compensation 20 Plaintiff contends are due to the PAGA Members. Defendants also provided substantial 21 information concerning the total number of potential PAGA Members, the total number of 22 workweeks at issue, and the applicable hourly rates and other summary data related to the alleged 23 class. The evidence and information gathered and reviewed by Plaintiff's counsel provided a 24 factual framework for a comprehensible and reliable damage model pertaining to all Settlement 25 PAGA Members. The mediation included discussion and examination of the PAGA Members 26 and the Parties' respective positions on the legal and factual issues raised in the Complaint.
27 (Hawkins Decl., ¶14).

1 The PAGA Members recovery compares favorably to the estimated amount of PAGA 2 penalties. With the assistance of an expert, Plaintiff calculated that the maximum amount of 3 statutory PAGA civil penalties for one alleged violation per pay period was potentially 4 $1,755,800 assuming multiple varying violations per pay period based on 17,558 pay periods 5 multiplied by a reasonable per pay period violation rate of $100. These alleged penalties were for 6 the various violations of Labor Code as alleged in the complaint. For instance, the § 226.7/ 512/
7 (meal periods) for one violation per pay period could be at a maximum of $1,755,800. This 8 would be similarly true to the extent the aggrieved employees were proven to be misclassified and 9 they actually worked overtime in a workweek. Penalties for violation of Labor Code §§ 10 201/202/203 for approximately 55 former employees would be $5,500. The sick pay under 11 Labor Code 204 was valued at $16,600 and the meal period premium miscalculation was valued 12 at $5,700. The remaining claims could potentially be valued at maximum rates. However, 13 importantly, in total, these calculations were performed at the $100 statutory rate for the penalties 14 for the first violation, and it is likely that any penalties awarded would be at a much lower rate 15 given the facts of this case. California Labor Code Section 2699(e)(1) permits a Court to award a 16 lesser amount than the maximum civil penalty if based on the facts and circumstances to do 17 otherwise would result in an award that is "unjust, arbitrary and oppressive or confiscatory."
18 Further, the amended PAGA statute provides for lesser penalties in the range of potentially $25
19 per pay period. The maximum exposure here could be higher if the Court awarded 100% 20 penalties for each and every pay period. Of course, these amounts would probably have been 21 reduced given the policies in place, and manageability issues, the issues of whether someone 22 worked more than 50% of the time doing non exempt work on any given workday or workweek, 23 or why someone missed a meal break on any occasion or worked off the clock, and the issues of 24 payment of meal period premiums. Given the risks involved, a reasonable Risk Value reduction 25 would put the realistic possibility of recovery of penalties at approximately $877,900 taking into 26 account for a reasonable 50% chance of recovery. The risks include manageability issues, not 27 prevailing on the merits, prevailing on certain claims for certain periods, reduced penalty amounts 28

1 awarded by the trial Court, no liability found at all, and reversal on appeal. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 12-2 24).

3 In Carrington v. Starbucks Corp., 30 Cal. App. 5th 504 (2018), the Court of Appeal
4 affirmed a judgment after trial which only provided for a PAGA penalty of $5 per pay period.
5 Therefore, at trial, any PAGA penalties awarded could be significantly less than Plaintiffs'
6 calculation even where Plaintiffs prevailed on the PAGA claim. If the amount of $5 per pay 7 period from Carrington v. Starbucks is used, the potential recovery of civil penalties would be 8 only $65,000, which is less than this settlement provides.

9 Under PAGA, Courts have considerable discretion to reduce the penalty award. In 10 Fleming v. Covidien, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 154590 (C.D. Cal. 2011), a federal court reduced 11 PAGA penalties from $2,800,000 to $500,000, a reduction of 82.2%, because the court found 12 maximum penalties "unjust" because the employees had suffered no injuries. Some trial courts 13 have actually awarded no civil penalties, even when Labor Code violations are established. See 14 Makabi v. Gedalia, 2016 Cal. App. Unpub. 1489, *5-7 (2nd Dist. Ct. of App. Mar. 6, 2016) (no
15 PAGA penalties were awarded by the Los Angeles County Superior Court) (unpublished 16 decision); In re Taco Bell Wage & Hour Actions, 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 48557, *40-43 (E.D.
17 Cal. Apr. 6, 2016) (PAGA penalties denied after trial).

18 In order to recover any PAGA penalties, Plaintiff would be required at trial to prove each 19 of the underlying Labor Code violations. See Cardenas v. McLane Foodservice, Inc., 2011 U.S.
20 Dist. LEXIS 13126, *10 (C.D. Cal. 2011) ("Given the statutory language [of PAGA], a plaintiff 21 cannot recover on behalf of individuals whom the plaintiff has not proven suffered a violation of 22 the Labor Code by the defendant."). Here, Plaintiff would need to prove that each PAGA Group 23 Member suffered all violations for each pay period the employee worked.

24 The claims in this PAGA action are based upon the wage and hour practices of 25 Defendant. The settlement provides a recovery of approximately $19.93 per pay period before 26 deductions. This provides the aggrieved employees money now rather than in the future to some 27 undetermined date and undetermined amounts. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 20).

1 Defendant contends that Plaintiff and the PAGA Members were properly compensated, 2 and that they did not violate the Labor Code as to any of them. Defendant asserted additional 3 defenses to the PAGA claim as discussed above. These defenses present a risk to the 4 PAGA claim and the potential that some or all of the PAGA penalties sought may not be 5 awarded. (Id.)

6 Given Defendant's potential defenses to the violations at issue, the risks and costs of 7 continued litigation, Plaintiff and her attorneys believe that the PAGA Settlement is fair and 8 reasonable. (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 19.) Plaintiff's Counsel have significant experience litigating 9 wage and hour claims including claims for PAGA penalties, and the PAGA Group Recovery here
10 is similar to or greater than similar settlements that courts have approved. (Hawkins Decl., ¶ 29) 11 The PAGA employees recovery, along with the other terms of the proposed settlement, were 12 negotiated by experienced counsel at arm's length with the assistance of a private mediator, Kevin 13 Barnes, Esq. (Hawkins Decl., at ¶ 4)

14 As set forth in the accompanying proof of service, the LWDA has been provided notice of 15 this motion and the PAGA settlement. The decision of LWDA to accept the PAGA settlement 16 and not oppose the motion should be given considerable weight. This is not a situation where the 17 Court needs to be concerned about the rights of absent employees as in a class settlement, as this 18 PAGA-only settlement does not release the individual claims of absent employees, and the 19 LWDA is a sophisticated government entity that is more than able to look out for its own rights.

20 B. The Remaining Settlement Terms Are Fair and Reasonable

21 Although PAGA requires that a court approve the proposed PAGA settlement, Labor 22 Code § 2699(1) does not require that a court approve any other elements of the proposed 23 settlement. Because there are no class allegations, the approval provisions applicable to class 24 settlements under Cal. Code Civil Proc. §382 do not apply. Accordingly, the Court only needs to 25 approve the settlement of the civil penalties sought in the PAGA claim. Nevertheless, as 26 explained herein, the settlement terms for attorneys' fees and costs are reasonable.

27 VI. THE ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS ARE FAIR AND REASONABLE

28 PAGA does not have any requirements for reviewing attorneys' fees, and Plaintiffs'

1 position is that the payment of attorneys' fees and costs in this settlement is a matter of contract
2 for a contingent representation. Nevertheless, should this Court review the requested attorneys' 3 fees, it is clear that the requested fees and costs are reasonable.

4 First, the requested fees are justified by the result achieved. Plaintiff's Counsel negotiated 5 a recovery of $350,000.00 and this result justifies the requested fees equal to one third of this 6 recovery. This amount is within the standard contingent recovery. Second, the fee award is 7 justified by the work performed. As detailed in the accompanying Declaration of Plaintiff's 8 Counsel, the fee award is reasonable as Plaintiff's Counsel represents its current lodestar far 9 exceeds the requested amount of $116,666.67.<sup>2</sup> (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 25-28).

10 Generally, the Ninth Circuit and California Courts award multipliers between 2 to 4 times 11 the lodestar to reward counsel for accepting the contingent risks of the litigation or obtaining 12 good results. See, e.g., Laffitte, 1 Cal. 5th at 506 (approving one-third fee award with multiplier 13 between 2.03 and 2.13); Pellegrino v. Robert Half Intern., Inc., 182 Cal.App.4th 278 (2010) 14 (noting reasonable multipliers of 2.0 to 4.0 are often applied and affirming 1.75 multiplier); 15 Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 254 (2001) (noting that multipliers can 16 range from 2 to 4 or higher); Vandervort v. Balboa Capital Corp., 8 F.Supp. 3d 1200, 1210 (C.D.
17 Cal. 2014) (awarding one-third of fund, which was a 2.52 multiplier of lodestar); Boyd v. Bank of 18 America, 2014 WL 6473804, at *11 (C.D. Cal. 2014) (awarding one-third of fund, which was a 19 2.58 multiplier of lodestar); Hopkins v. Stryker Sales Corp., No. 11-CV-02786-LHK, 2013 WL 20 496358, at *6 (N.D. Cal. Feb. 6, 2013) (approving fee award that represented a multiplier of 2.76 21 as falling within the "majority" range for risk multipliers). Here, no multiplier is requested as 22 Plaintiff's Counsel's lodestar exceeds the amount of requested fees. Plaintiff's counsel's lodestar 23 amount is $133,092.00. (Hawkins at ¶ 31).

24 Finally, the award of litigation expenses is based upon the actual expenses incurred by the 25 Plaintiff's Counsel. (Hawkins at ¶¶ 31-32). Plaintiff's Counsel will be recovering litigation 26 expenses in the total amount of $14,698.37. These expenses are documented in the billing 27 statement attached to the Declaration of Hawkins as Exhibit 2.

1           VII. THE ENHANCEMENT TO THE PLAINTIFF IS REASONABLE

2           “[T]he rationale for making enhancement or incentive awards to named plaintiffs is that they 3 should be compensated for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 4 members of the class.” Clark v. American Residential Services LLC, 175 Cal. App. 4th 785 (2009).

5           Approximately 170 PAGA Members will share a $350,000.00 settlement fund due entirely to the 6 effort and commitment of Plaintiff. Subject to Court approval, therefore, the Settlement provides for an 7 Enhancement Payment of $10,000.00. The Enhancement Payment is fair and reasonable compensation 8 for Plaintiff’s efforts in pursuing the action, serving as private attorneys general under PAGA, assisting 9 counsel with the litigation and settlement, regularly conferring with counsel on the status of their case and 10 the strategies for prosecuting the claims, and reviewing the proposed settlement to ensure that its terms are 11 fair and provide adequate relief for the Settlement Class. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 25; see generally Declaration of 12 Plaintiff Vasquez filed concurrently herewith.)

13           Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court approve the PAGA 14 enhancement to Plaintiff in the amount of $10,000.00.

15           VIII. CONCLUSION

16           Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff respectfully request this Court approve the PAGA 17 settlement and the PAGA Member recovery as set forth in the Agreement and enter the proposed 18 order submitted herewith.
