1 Plaintiff JOSE IVAN ORELLANA MORALES A.K.A. JOSE RUBEN ORELLANA
2 MORALES (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of other members of the general public
3 similarly situated, and as Private Attorney General, based upon facts that either have evidentiary
4 support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further 5 investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

6 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendant PITMAN FAMILY FARMS and 8 DOES 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively referred to as “Defendant”) for California
9 Labor Code violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties stemming from Defendant’s 10 failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and 11 permit rest periods, failure to pay minimum wage, failure to timely pay wages, failure to provide 12 accurate wage statements, and failure to maintain accurate time and payroll records.

13 2. Plaintiff’s First through Eighth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 14 behalf of himself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendant (hereinafter
15 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” as defined more fully in paragraph 16 13, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages
17 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court
18 and will be established according to proof at trial.

19 3. Plaintiff’s Ninth Cause of Action is brought solely as a representative action, and 20 solely as a Private Attorney General, on behalf of the State of California for all aggrieved
21 employees, including himself and other aggrieved employees of Defendants against whom a 22 violation of the same provision was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 23 “Aggrieved Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq; Balderas v.
24 Fresh Start Harvesting, Inc., 101 Cal.App.5th 533 (2024), as modified (April 18, 2024); and 25 Johnson v. Maxim Healthcare Services, Inc., 66 Cal.App.5th 924 (2021). Plaintiff is an aggrieved
26 employee against whom the alleged violations occurred. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff 27 exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to 28

1 proof at trial.

2 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution,
3 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes”
4 except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do
5 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

6 5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief,
7 Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise
8 intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction
9 over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial 10 justice.

11 6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant
12 maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, County of 13 Fresno.

14 PARTIES

15 7. Plaintiff JOSE IVAN ORELLANA MORALES A.K.A. JOSE RUBEN
16 ORELLANA MORALES, is an individual residing in the County of Fresno, State of California.

17 8. Defendant PITMAN FAMILY FARMS, is and at all times herein mentioned was,
18 a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California and registered to do
19 business in the state of California.

20 9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, 21 and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be 22 individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges,
23 that, at all times mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, 24 servant, employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants and was at 25 all times mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and 26 authorization of such agency, employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this 27 Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible in some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged were proximately caused by its conduct. PITMAN FAMILY FARMS and Doe Defendants 1 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as "Defendant."
28

10. Defendant is and at all times herein mentioned was, (a) conducting business in the County of Fresno, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders ("Wage Orders").

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendant employers and employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action as a class action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt employees of any of the Defendant within the State of California at any time commencing four (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice of the certified class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members.>").

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

15. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

- a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendant's employment records.

- 1 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated
2 herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class
3 Members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.
- 4 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class
5 Member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality
6 of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to 7 the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are 8 versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
9 Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to 10 incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 11 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class 12 Member.
- 13 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and 14 efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class
15 Members is impractical.
- 16 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will 17 advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate 18 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to 19 assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class
20 actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint
21 anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

22 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over 23 questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact,
24 among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

- 25 a. Whether Defendant's failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in 26 accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;
- 27 b. Whether Defendant had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff
- 28

1 and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late or 2 interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;

3 c. Whether Defendant deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal
4 and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work
5 during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;

6 d. Whether Defendant failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members
7 when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;

8 e. Whether Defendant failed to pay rest period premium wages to Class Members
9 when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest
10 periods;

11 f. Whether Defendant failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class
12 Members for all hours worked;

13 g. Whether Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the 14 required minimum wage pursuant to California law;

15 h. Whether Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper 16 overtime compensation pursuant to California law;

17 i. Whether Defendant failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class 18 Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from 19 employment;

20 j. Whether Defendant failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other
21 Class Members during their employment;

22 k. Whether Defendant complied with wage reporting as required by the California
23 Labor Code, including section 226;

24 l. Whether Defendant's conduct was with malice, fraud or oppression;

25 m. Whether Defendant's conduct was willful or reckless;

26 n. Whether Defendant engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California
27 Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on their improper 28

withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;

o. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendant's violation of California law; and

p. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. Defendant PITMAN FAMILY FARMS is a chicken and poultry farm.

18. Defendant employed Plaintiff to work as a General Worker from approximately February 1, 2025 to April 1, 2025.

19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendant employed Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

20. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; to directly or indirectly control work rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; and to hire and terminate the employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

21. At all times herein mentioned, Defendant was subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendant engaged in an ongoing and systematic scheme of wage abuse against its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees. As set forth in more detail below, this scheme involved, inter alia, regularly requiring Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work off the clock without compensation, thereby failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum and overtime wages.. In addition, Defendant routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California law.

23. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant implemented policies and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with

1 timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendant routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class, and
2 the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish
3 control over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods,
4 regularly failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable
5 opportunity to take their meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class,
6 and the Aggrieved Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later
7 than the end of their fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute
8 uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten 9 (10) hours. Defendant also failed to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, 10 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

11 24. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant did not adequately
12 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under
13 California law. Moreover, Defendant systematically disregarded its own written policies
14 regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
15 Employees. Instead, Defendant's actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
16 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free
17 meal periods, and to require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through 18 their meal periods, for which they were not compensated.

19 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff,
20 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were missed, late,
21 interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendant knew or should have known
22 that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all meal periods
23 or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was 24 missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendant routinely
25 failed to provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
26 Employees, and routinely failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 27 Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late,
28

1 and/or interrupted.

2 26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant implemented policies
3 and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from taking
4 timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendant regularly failed to provide, authorize, and permit
5 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods
6 for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full, uninterrupted, off-
7 duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to make a good faith
8 effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each work period.

9 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant did not adequately
10 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under
11 California law. Moreover, Defendant systematically disregarded its own written policies
12 regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
13 Employees. Instead, Defendant's actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
14 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and 15 duty free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 16 to work through their rest periods.

17 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff,
18 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were missed, late,
19 interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendant knew or should have known
20 that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all rest periods or 21 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, 22 short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendant routinely failed to 23 authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free rest
24 periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
25 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late and/or 26 interrupted.

27 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly required
28

1 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock. Although 2 Defendant prohibited overtime, Defendant still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class, and the 3 Aggrieved Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 4 Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to perform work off the clock for which they were 5 not compensated.

6 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant failed to pay overtime
7 to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked based on 8 regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

9 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 10 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours
11 worked. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 12 Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they 13 were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendant's failure to pay
14 minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
15 Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiff, the 16 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock.

17 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 18 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or 19 resignation. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
20 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time
21 permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
22 Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, 23 including overtime compensation and minimum wages within any time permissible under 24 California Labor Code section 202.

25 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 26 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible
27 under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendant knew 28

1 or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to
2 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
3 Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum
4 wages, meal and rest period premiums.

5 34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 6 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
7 Employees. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
8 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 9 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 10 Defendant. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours 11 worked, the actual gross wages earned, the correct rates of pay, and the name and address of the 12 legal entity of Defendant.

13 35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 14 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
15 Defendant knew or should have known that Defendant was required to keep complete and 16 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 17 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

18 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 19 maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff's and the Class's work periods, meal periods, total 20 daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.

21 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant knew or should have 22 known that it had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
23 pursuant to California law. Defendant had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but 24 willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the 25 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase 26 Defendant's profits.

27 38. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
28

Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against All Defendants)

39. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

40. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

41. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendant are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendant, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

42. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendant is and was required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

43. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

44. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

45. During the relevant time period, Defendant intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

46. Defendant's failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

47. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

(Against All Defendants)

48. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

49. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by Defendant.

50. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

51. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

52. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more

1 than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal
2 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 3 twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and 4 the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

5 53. During the relevant time period, Defendant intentionally and willfully required
6 Plaintiff and the other Class Members to miss their meal periods and to take meal periods that 7 were late, shortened, or interrupted, and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other Class
8 Members the full meal period premium for missed, shortened, late, or interrupted meal periods.
9 On the occasions that Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees did take a meal period, their meal
10 periods were frequently interrupted or cut short. Plaintiff's meal breaks were regularly interrupted
11 and often cut short. Approximately once per week, Plaintiff received phone calls from supervisors
12 on his personal cell phone during his meal break period. These calls typically concerned work-13 related matters, such as inquiries about his location or instructions regarding job duties, which 14 disrupted his designated off-duty time. In addition, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees meal
15 breaks were consistently shortened due to the distance between their work area and the designated 16 break room. On every shift, they were required to clock in and out for meal periods, and the walk
17 to and from the time lock took approximately four (4) minutes. As a result, the actual time 18 available for their meal period was reduced, and Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were unable 19 to utilize the full 30 minutes.

20 54. During the relevant time period, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
21 Class Members the full meal period premiums due pursuant to California Labor Code section 22 226.7.

23 55. Defendant's conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order and California
24 Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

25 56. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section
26 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendant one 27 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the 28 meal period was not provided.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

(Against All Defendants)

57. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

58. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by Defendant.

59. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

60. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3.5) hours."

61. During the relevant time period, Defendant required Plaintiff and other Class Members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

62. During the relevant time period, Defendant willfully required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work during rest periods, failed to allow Plaintiff and the other Class Member to take any rest period and/or failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the other Class Members to take uninterrupted, duty-free rest breaks. Plaintiff missed rest breaks during his employment and as a result no compensation was provided for the missed break.

63. During the relevant time period, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the other

1 Class Members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7
2 for work performed during rest periods, and/or for failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and 3 other Class Members from taking uninterrupted rest periods.

4 64. Defendant's conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor
5 Code section 226.7.

6 65. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section
7 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendant one
8 additional hour of pay at the employees' regular hourly rate of compensation for each work day
9 that the rest period was not provided.

10 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

12 (Against All Defendants)

13 66. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
14 every allegation set forth above.

76. Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer employed by Defendant are entitled to recover from Defendant the statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid, up to a thirty (30) day maximum pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 204 and 210)

(Against All Defendants)

77. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above

78. SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

(Against All Defendants)

83. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and

1 every allegation set forth above.

2 84. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a)
3 provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized
4 statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3)
5 the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a 6 piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the 7 employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates
8 of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her social 9 security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all
10 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours
11 worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions made from payments of wages shall 12 be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and 13 a copy of the statement or a record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at 14 least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California.

15 85. Defendant intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with 16 complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, but are not limited to the failure 17 list the total number of hours worked, the actual gross wages earned, the correct rates of pay, and 18 the name and address of the legal entity of Defendant. On several occasions, Plaintiff observed 19 that his pay stubs reflected a pay rate less than the rate he had been promised and typically 20 received.

21 86. Because of Defendant's violation of California Labor Code section 226(a), 22 Plaintiff and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

23 87. More specifically, Plaintiff and the Class have been injured by Defendant's 24 intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because they were 25 denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and 26 itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

27 88. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendant the greater of their 28

1 actual damages caused by Defendant's failure to comply with California Labor Code section
2 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

3 89. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure compliance
4 with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(g).

5 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

6 (Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

7 (Against All Defendants)

8 90. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
9 every allegation set forth above.

10 91. Defendant's conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
11 unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff and the Class, to the general public, and Defendant's
12 competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest
13 within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

14 92. Defendant's activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and 15 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
16 Code section 17200, et seq.

17 93. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may 18 be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendant's policies
19 and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the Class, to work overtime without 20 paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198.
21 Additionally, Defendant's policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and 22 the Class, to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation
23 violate California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Moreover, Defendant's policies and 24 practices of failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and the Class violate California Labor Code 25 sections 201, 202, 203 and 204.

26 94. Defendant also violated California Labor Code sections 221, 226(a), 1194, 1197, 27 1197.1, 510, 1174(d).

95. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendant unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

96. Plaintiff and the Class have been personally injured by Defendant's unlawful business acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to the loss of money and/or property.

97. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendant during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

(Against All Defendants)

98. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

99. Plaintiff brings his Ninth cause of action solely as a representative action pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), on behalf of the State of California for all aggrieved employees, including himself and other aggrieved employees of Defendants against whom the alleged violations were committed.

100. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties for violations of the Labor Code as follows: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of the employee and other current or former employees against whom a violation of the same provision was committed pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a).

101. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged above were committed against him during his time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA.

102. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendants have routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor Codes by:

- a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.
- b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.
- c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at the end of their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203.
- f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.
- g. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.
- h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees’ work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, total wages and compensation, and applicable pay rates in violation of Labor Code § 1174(d) and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

103. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above, including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11140, penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 210, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, and 1197.1, and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

104. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3. On April 29, 2025, Plaintiff, through his counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of Plaintiff’s intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee required under Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than sixty-five (65) days have elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff’s April 29, 2025 notice, and the LWDA has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for himself and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

105. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to protect his interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties owed by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

106. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods

1 specified in Labor Code § 2699.3.
