1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Desiree Dunn, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, seeks 4 preliminary approval of a $160,000 wage-and-hour class and representative PAGA action 5 settlement (the “Gross Settlement Amount”) between roughly 25 Class Members¹ and Defendant 6 Suzuki Motor USA, LLC, (“Defendant” or “Suzuki Motor”) (collectively, “the Parties”).

7 Under the terms of the fully-executed Settlement Agreement,² Defendant will not oppose 8 Plaintiff’s Counsel’s application for a reasonable award of attorney’s fees not to exceed the total 9 amount of $53,333.33 (1/3 of the Gross Settlement Amount), Plaintiff’s Counsel’s litigation 10 costs not to exceed $20,000, Administrator Costs of $5,000, and PAGA penalties of $10,000 (of 11 which $6,500 or 65% will be paid to the LWDA and the remaining $3,500 or 35% will be paid 12 pro rata to the Aggrieved Employees). (S.A. ¶ 44).

13 After all Court-approved deductions from the Settlement Amount, it is estimated that 14 $71,666.67 will be available to pay the Individual Class Payments of approximately 25 Class 15 Members, who do not opt out of the settlement, as follows:

	Total Amount
Gross Settlement Amount	$ 160,000.00
Attorneys’ Fees (1/3)	$ 53,333.33
Litigation Costs	$ 20,000.00
Administration Costs	$ 5,000.00
PAGA Penalties	$ 10,000.00
Class Representative’s Service Award	$ 0
Net Settlement Amount	$ 71,666.67

20 21 Assuming a class size of 25 Class Members, the average payment will be approximately 22 $2,866 to each Class Member ($71,666.67 / 25). Of course, the actual payments will be 23 calculated on a pro rata basis according to the number of Workweeks worked by each Class 24

25 ¹ The “Class Members” are defined as “all current and former nonexempt (hourly paid) 26 employees employed by Defendant in California during the Class Period (April 23, 2021, through September 18, 2025).
27

28 ² The fully executed “Class Action and PAGA Representative Action Settlement Agreement and Release of Claims” shall be referred to herein as the “Settlement Agreement” or “Settlement” or “S.A.” and is attached as Exhibit A to the Declaration of Brian Mankin in support of Plaintiff’s Renewed Motion for Preliminary Approval (“Mankin Decl.”).

Member. In addition, Aggrieved Employees (defined in S.A. ¶ 4 as “all current and former nonexempt (hourly paid) employees employed by Defendant in California during the PAGA Period”) will receive a pro rata share of the $3,500 PAGA Penalties (accounting for 35% of the total $10,000 allocation). (S.A. ¶ 44(h)).

The Settlement is non-reversionary and Class Members will not be required to submit claim forms to receive payment, but each Class Member will receive the Class Notice containing information about his/her share, the opportunity to dispute the number of Weeks Worked or Pay Periods, and the opportunity to opt out or object to the Settlement as to the Class Claims. All Class Members who do not affirmatively opt out will receive a settlement check upon the Court granting Final Approval. Likewise, all Aggrieved Employees will receive a share of the PAGA Penalties once the Settlement receives Final Approval.

Because the Settlement is fair and reasonable and was negotiated at arm’s length by experienced counsel and an experienced mediator following a sufficient exchange of information and documents prior to mediation, it should be preliminarily approved. Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court enter an order preliminarily approving the settlement, conditionally certifying the Class under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 for settlement purposes only, approving the proposed Class Notice, appointing Plaintiff’s counsel as Class Counsel, appointing Phoenix Class Action Administration as the Administrator, and scheduling a hearing for Final Approval of the Settlement.

II. BACKGROUND

A. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT CLASS

The putative Class in this case consists of:

All current and former nonexempt (hourly paid) employees employed by Defendant in California during the Class Period of April 23, 2021, through September 18, 2025. (S.A. ¶¶ 6, 10).

B. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On April 23, 2025, Plaintiff submitted a letter to the California Labor Workforce Development Agency (the “LWDA”) for civil penalties under the Private Attorney General Act of 2004 (the “PAGA”), and simultaneously sent a letter to Defendant requesting the production

1 of her personnel and timekeeping records to further evaluate her wage and hour claims. (Mankin 2 Decl. ¶ 11, Exhibit C). That same day, Plaintiff filed a putative class action Complaint in this 3 Court. Subsequently, the LWDA declined to assert jurisdiction over the PAGA Claims, so on 4 July 1, 2025, Plaintiff filed a separate PAGA only complaint in this Court (Case No. 30-2025-5 01495109-CU-OE-CXC), and then filed a Notice of Related Cases. The Complaints allege class 6 and representative PAGA claims, including: (1) failure to pay minimum wages; (2) failure to pay 7 overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal breaks; (4) failure to provide rest breaks; (5) failure 8 to reimburse business expenses; (6) failure to timely pay final wages; (7) failure to pay vested 9 vacation wages; (8) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and (9) unfair and 10 unlawful competition pursuant to Business and Professions Code §17200 et seq., and (10) related 11 claims under PAGA. (Mankin Decl. ¶ 12).

12 Defendant retained counsel and has denied, and continues to deny, the allegations and 13 any and all liability or wrongdoing of any kind associated with Plaintiff's claims, disputed and 14 continues to dispute, the damages and penalties claimed by Plaintiff, and contends that Plaintiff's 15 claims are not appropriate for class or representative treatment. However, before incurring 16 significant costs and expenses in engaging in protracted discovery and a class certification battle, 17 the Parties agreed to explore an early resolution through mediation. In preparation for the 18 mediation, the Parties informally exchanged documents and information that allowed both sides 19 to calculate the potential damages and evaluate potential risk. Notably, in advance of mediation, 20 Defendant provided big-picture data points regarding the number of Class Members during the 21 Class Period, the number of Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period, the total former 22 employees for purposes of Labor Code §§ 201-203, the number of workweeks worked by Class 23 Members during the Class Period, the number of pay periods during the PAGA Period, and the 24 average rate of pay for Class Members. Additionally, Defendant produced 613 pages of 25 documents that covered applicable policies and practices, and also included the various iterations 26 of employee handbooks in effect during the Class Period. Finally, Defendant provided the 27 payroll and timekeeping data for all Class Members from 2021 to 2025 (not a sampling), 28 spanning over 59,000 rows of excel data. Plaintiff's counsel used these records to evaluate the 1 potential claims, risks, and defenses as to all similarly situated employees. (Mankin Decl. ¶ 13).

2 On August 18, 2024, Plaintiff and Defendant participated in a full-day mediation with 3 Hon. Jonathan Cannon (Ret.), who served on the Orange County Complex Panel for many years
4 handling class actions and PAGA cases, and now serves as a private mediator. At the conclusion
5 of mediation, Judge Cannon issued a mediator's proposal calling for a class and PAGA 6 settlement for $160,000. The Parties accepted the mediator's proposal and memorialized the 7 terms of the settlement in an MOU and then in a long-form settlement agreement (see Exhibit A 8 to Mankin Decl.). As part of the Settlement, the Parties agreed to join/consolidate the Class 9 Action and PAGA Action together by way of a first amended complaint that was filed in the 10 Class Action on April 21, 2026. Plaintiff now seeks preliminary approval of the Settlement.

11 C. SUMMARY OF THE CLAIMS AND DEFENSES

12 Suzuki is a publicly traded global motor company known for its vehicles, including 13 motorcycles. Its United States subsidiary (the Defendant here) operates a regional corporate 14 headquarters in Brea, California, where the approximately 25 similarly situated Class Members 15 worked. Plaintiff alleged numerous wage and hour violations on behalf of these Class Members, 16 but Defendant vigorously contested and denied Plaintiff's material allegations on the merits and 17 as to the propriety of a class action or PAGA representative action. (Mankin Decl. ¶ 15).

18 Causes of Action ("COA") 1, 2, 10, 11: Unpaid Minimum and Overtime Wage Claims

19 In this matter, Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to pay her and the Class for all 20 required minimum and overtime wage under several theories of liability. For instance, Plaintiff 21 alleged that the Class Members were required to perform off-the-clock work due to a computer-22 based timekeeping system that was not accessible until employees completed various boot-up 23 tasks (at the beginning of shifts) and through which employees had to clock out and then perform 24 various shut down tasks (at the end of shifts). Cadena v. Customer Connexx LLC (9th Cir. 2022) 25 51 F.4th 831 (booting up and shutting down computers is compensable under the FLSA [and 26 therefore the Labor Code]). Plaintiff also alleges that she and the other Class Members were 27 frequently required to perform other pre- and post-shift tasks, without compensation, in violation 28 of California law. These claims were based on well-established authority that employees must 1 be paid for all time that the employer either knew, or reasonably should have known, that its 2 employees are subject to its control or otherwise working. Morillion v. Royal Packing Co. (2000)

3 22 Cal. 4th 575, 585. And this was further reinforced by two recent cases from the California 4 Supreme Court regarding this type of uncompensated time. See Troester v. Starbucks 5 Corporation (2018) 5 Cal.5th 829 (California law “do[es] not allow employers to require 6 employees to routinely work for minutes off the clock without compensation”); Frlekin v. Apple 7 Inc. (2020) 8 Cal.5th 1038 (tasks are compensable when the employee is under company’s 8 control and where tasks served the employer’s interests).

9 In response, Defendant presented strong defenses. Notably, Defendant argued that it 10 maintained lawful policies and that its timekeeping policies and procedures which noted that 11 employees were required to accurately record their time worked, including the time work begins 12 and ends. For this reason, Defendant argued that its lawful written policy creates a “presumption 13 [that employees] are doing no work” when they are clocked out. Brinker v. Superior Court 14 (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1051. Thus, any claim for off-the-clock work would require 15 unmanageable individualized inquiries into why an employee failed to follow the company’s 16 lawful policy and whether that employee actually performed compensable (but unpaid) work.

17 COA 3, 4, 12, and 13: Meal Period and Rest Break Violations

18 Plaintiff’s meal and rest break claims were not based on an unlawful written policy.
19 Instead, Plaintiff alleged that due to inadequate staffing and other work requirements, Plaintiff 20 and the Class were frequently denied compliant meal and rest breaks.

21 However, Defendant countered that it provided and made available meal and rest breaks 22 to all employees, and any employee who did not take a meal or rest break did so entirely of his or 23 her own volition. In this regard, Defendant produced its written policies and practices, which it 24 argued show full compliance with the law.

25 Therefore, Plaintiff’s theory of liability (and Defendant’s theory of defense) boiled down 26 to whether timekeeping records showing noncompliant meal periods are sufficient for class 27 certification and eventual summary judgment/adjudication. Plaintiff argued that this was 28 sufficient, relying on the California Supreme Court decision in Donohue v. AMN Services, LLC

(2021) 11 Cal.5th 58, 61, where it was held that “time records showing noncompliant meal periods raise a rebuttable presumption of meal period violations, including at the summary judgment stage.” But Defendant argued against this stance, and argued that because it had lawful written policies, it could not be liable absent proof that an employee was impeded or discouraged from taking the break. And Defendant further argued that this analysis would require improper individualized assessments into why a break was noncompliant/nonexistent, because if it was by the employee’s choice, no liability attaches.

COA 5 and 14: Unreimbursed Business Expense Claims

Plaintiff also advanced a claim for failure to reimburse expenses incurred by Plaintiff and the Class to carry out their tasks for Defendant, including cellular phone costs, along with expenses associated with working remotely out of a home office (such as internet costs).

However, Defendant argued that it reimbursed all necessary expenses and provided records indicating that it reimbursed Plaintiff and the Class on a per-pay-period basis for such expenses. Thus, Defendant contended that this claim would fail at class certification (based on individualized issues) and on the merits, if certification were granted.

COA 6 and 15: Failure to Pay Vested Vacation

Additionally, Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to pay all vested vacation wages due and owing to the Class upon separation of employment, as required by Labor Code § 227.3. Specifically, Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to pay for all accrued but unused vacation hours and did not receive pay such hours at the “final rate”, as required by Labor Code § 227.3. But Defendant vehemently opposed this claim and argued that it, at all times, paid the departing Class Members for all accrued and unused vested vacation at the proper “final rate of pay.”

COA 7 and 16: Failure to Timely Pay Final Wages

Plaintiff further argued that Defendant was liable for waiting time penalties under Labor Code § 203 for the failure to timely pay all wages due and owing to its employees. This claim is often referred to as “derivative” because it rises or falls based on the answers as to whether Defendant failed to pay all required compensation under other claims (e.g., did Defendant pay all required minimum and overtime? Did Defendant pay all meal and rest break premiums it was 1 required to pay?). Due to the derivative nature of this claim, the evidence is the same as the 2 underlying claims discussed above.

3 In response, Defendant argued that it would not be liable for waiting time penalties 4 because it would not be found liable for the underlying alleged violations. And where there is no 5 underpayment of wages, there is no basis for waiting time penalties. Defendant also argued that, 6 even if it was found liable for unpaid/underpaid wages, it would not be held liable for waiting 7 time penalties based on a “good faith defense.” In this sense, Defendant argued that there was a 8 good faith dispute as to whether it properly calculated and paid minimum wages, overtime 9 wages, and meal premiums.

10 COA 7 and 16: Wage Statement Violations

11 Plaintiff’s claim for wage statement violations was also “derivative” because it rises or 12 falls based on the answers as to whether Defendant failed to pay all required compensation under 13 other claims (e.g., did Defendant pay all required minimum and overtime? Did Defendant pay all 14 meal and rest break premiums it was required to pay?). Due to the derivative nature of this 15 claim, the evidence is the same as the underlying claims discussed above.

16 Despite the disputed nature of the claims, the Parties concluded that further litigation of 17 the Action would be protracted and expensive, and that it is desirable that the Action be fully and 18 finally settled to limit further risk, expense, and protracted litigation.

19 COA 9: Unfair Competition

20 Plaintiff also advanced a claim under the Unfair Competition Law, California Business & 21 Professions Code § 17200, et seq. This claim was not based on any new facts or theories; 22 instead, it was utilized to extend the class action recovery period to four years in order to broaden 23 the time frame and provide more coverage to Class Members and permit additional class 24 members to potentially recover from this suit (Murphy v. Kenneth Cole Productions, Inc., (2007) 25 56 Cal. Rptr. 3d 880).

26 Despite the disputed nature of the claims, the Parties concluded that further litigation of 27 the Action would be protracted and expensive, and that it is desirable that the Action be fully and 28 finally settled to limit further risk, expense, and protracted litigation.

1 III. SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

2 The following is a summary of the principal terms of the Settlement Agreement.

3 A. SETTLEMENT CONSIDERATION AND ALLOCATION

4 The $160,000 Gross Settlement Amount is non-reversionary and will be paid out to Class 5 Members without the need to submit a claim form or take any affirmative action. It includes (1) 6 Plaintiff's attorneys' fees and costs, as approved by the Court; (2) Administration Costs of 7 $5,000; (3) a $10,000 PAGA award, 65 percent of which is to be paid to the LWDA pursuant to 8 California Labor Code § 2699(i) and 35 percent of which is to be paid to the Aggrieved 9 Employees; and (4) the aggregate of all Individual Class Payments of the Participating Class 10 Members. (S.A. ¶ 44). Defendant will separately pay its share of employer's payroll taxes and 11 withholdings. (S.A. ¶ 44(a)).

12 After all Court-approved deductions from the Settlement Amount, it is estimated that 13 $71,666.67 will be available to pay Individual Class Payments to approximately 25 Class 14 Members; thus, the average settlement payment to each Class Member is approximately $2,866.

15 B. NOTICE PROCEDURES

16 The proposed Notice Packet (consisting of the Class Notice, Exclusion Form and Dispute 17 Form) will be provided to the Class in English only, showing how each Class Member's 18 Individual Class Payment and, if applicable, Individual PAGA Payment will be calculated, the 19 number of Workweeks credited as a Class Member and/or Aggrieved Employee (See Exhibit B 20 to Mankin Decl.). Within 20 calendar days after entry by the Court of its Order of Preliminary 21 Approval, Defendant shall provide the Administrator with the "Class Data" consisting of Class 22 Member's full names, last known mailing addresses, Social Security Numbers, and the total 23 Weeks Worked during the Class and PAGA Period. (S.A. ¶¶ 9, 58).

24 The Administrator will initially determine if the Escalator Clause³ has been triggered and 25 if so, will provide Defendant with its options. (S.A. ¶ 59). The Administrator shall calculate the 26

27 ³ Under the "Escalator Clause" (S.A. ¶ 17), if the total Workweeks exceed 3,850, Defendant has 28 the option to either: (1) increase the Gross Settlement Amount by $45.71 for each workweek above 3,850, or (2) modify the end date of the Class Period so that Workweeks do not exceed 3,850 (but not to a date earlier than the date of mediation, August 18, 2025).

1 number of Weeks Worked during the Class Period and PAGA Period, populate the Notice for 2 each Class Member, and send each Class Member the Notice Packet via first-class mail in 3 English and Spanish.

4 In the event that any Class Notice mailed to a Class Member is returned as having been 5 undelivered by the U.S. Postal Service, the Administrator shall perform a skip trace search and 6 seek an address correction for such Class Member(s), and a second Class Notice will be sent to 7 any new or different address obtained. The re-mailed Class Notice shall be identical to the 8 original Class Notice, except that it shall notify the Class Member that the exclusion (opt-out) 9 request or objection must be returned by no later than 15 (fifteen) days from the original 10 Response Deadline.

11 C. EXCLUSION AND OBJECTION PROCEDURES

12 Class Members who do not timely opt-out of the Settlement as to the Class Claims will 13 be deemed to participate in the Settlement and shall become a Participating Class Member 14 without having to submit a claim form or take any other action. (S.A. ¶ 63). To Opt-Out of the 15 Class Settlement, the Class Member must complete and submit a Request for Exclusion Form to 16 the Administrator no later than 45 days after being mailed the Class notice by the Administrator 17 (“Response Deadline”). Any Opt-Out request that is not postmarked by the Response Deadline 18 will be invalid, unless a Notice Packet was remailed in which case the Class Member’s exclusion 19 or objection must be submitted by the later of the original Response Deadline or 15 calendar 20 days after the remailing of the Notice Packet.

21 The Class Notice shall inform Class Members of their right to object to the Settlement.
22 Any Participating Class Member who wishes to object to the Settlement must submit the 23 objection to the Administrator no later than the Response Deadline, or may object orally at the 24 final approval hearing.

25 D. SETTLEMENT ALLOCATION FORMULA FOR SETTLEMENT SHARES

26 The amount of each Class Member’s Individual Class Payment is tied to the number of 27 Weeks Worked by each Class Member for Defendant in California during the Class Period.
28 Individual Class Payments are calculated by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total

1 number of Weeks Worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period, and (b) 2 multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Weeks Worked. (S.A. ¶ 44(c)).

3 Additionally, each Aggrieved Employee will receive an Individual PAGA Payment based 4 on a pro-rata basis. Thus, the $3,500 PAGA Penalties allocated to the Aggrieved Employees will 5 be divided by and paid based on the number of Weeks worked during the PAGA Period. (S.A. ¶ 6 44(h)). Aggrieved Employees may not opt out of the Released PAGA Claims. (S.A. ¶ 48).

7 The Class Notice will inform Class Members of the estimated share and the number of 8 Weeks Worked during the Class Period and PAGA Period. Class Members may dispute their 9 Weeks Worked if they feel they worked more weeks than Defendant's records show, by timely 10 submitting evidence to the Administrator.

11 As noted, assuming a class size of approximately 25 Class Members, the average 12 payment to each Class Member will be approximately $2,866, although the actual payment will 13 be calculated on a pro-rata basis as shown above. Assuming an estimated 3,500 Weeks Worked 14 by the Class Members, each Workweek will have a net value of approximately $20.48. Thus, if 15 a Class Member worked the entire Class Period (approximately 230 Workweeks), their estimated 16 share will be approximately $4,710. Indeed, this is an excellent result for the Class Members.

17 Moreover, it is estimated that there will be approximately 15 Aggrieved Employees who 18 will share in the $3,500 PAGA award on a pro rata basis.

19 E. TIMING OF SETTLEMENT DISBURSEMENTS

20 Within 15 calendar days of the Effective Date, Defendant shall deposit the Gross 21 Settlement Amount into the Qualified Settlement Fund to pay: (1) the Attorneys' Fees and Costs 22 Award, as approved by the Court; (2) Administrator Costs, as approved by the Court; (3) the 23 PAGA Penalties; and (4) the aggregate of all Individual Class Payments to Participating Class 24 Members. (S.A. ¶ 66). Defendant shall also fund its share of payroll taxes, as directed by the 25 Administrator. Within 10 days thereafter, the Administrator shall issue payments to cover all 26 court-approved payments. (S.A. ¶ 67)

27 Class Members will have 180 days to cash his/her settlement check. If a Class Member 28 fails to cash their check by the deadline, then the Administrator shall issue the unclaimed funds

1 to the State Controller's Office for the State of California in the name of the Class Member.
2 (S.A. ¶ 67(a)).

3 F. TAX TREATMENT

4 Since this matter was primarily driven by penalty claims (i.e., wage statements, waiting 5 time penalties and PAGA penalties), the Parties agree that 20% of each Individual Class 6 Payment shall constitute wages (for which each Participating Class Member will be issued an 7 IRS Form W-2 for such payment), and the remaining 80% shall constitute interest and penalties 8 (for which each Participating Class Member will be issued an IRS Form 1099 for the interest and 9 penalty allocation). (S.A. ¶ 44(d)). Additionally, the PAGA Penalties payable to the Aggrieved 10 Employees will be classified entirely as civil penalties and be reported on an IRS Form 1099.

11 G. PARTICIPATING CLASS MEMBERS' RELEASE OF CLAIMS

12 Upon the Effective Date occurring, and after the Court's Judgment is final and Defendant 13 fully funding the Gross Settlement Amount and separate amount of payroll taxes described 14 herein, Plaintiff and the Participating Class Members will fully release and discharge the 15 Released Parties of the Released Class Claims (S.A. ¶ 45), with the "Released Class Claims" 16 defined at S.A. ¶ 30 as follows:

17 "Released Class Claims" means all claims arising out of the claims expressly 18 pleaded in the Complaint and all amendments thereto, and all claims, that 19 reasonably could have been asserted based on the facts alleged in the 20 Complaint, including: (1) failure to pay minimum wages, (2) failure to pay 21 overtime wages, (3) failure to provide meal periods, (4) failure to provide rest 22 breaks, (5) failure to reimburse business expenses, (6) failure to pay vested 23 vacation, (7) failure to timely pay final wages, (8) failure to provide accurate 24 itemized wage statements, (9) failure to pay sick pay; and (10) unfair and 25 unlawful competition, as well as related claims arising under state, federal, or 26 local law, the California Labor Code, Wage Orders, regulations, and/or other 27 provisions of law that were based on the facts or claims alleged in the 28 Complaint. The time period governing the Released Class Claims shall be the Class Period.

25 Naturally, the Settlement Agreement will not release any person, party or entity from 26 claims by Class Members not covered by the release, including claims for wrongful termination, 27 violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social 28 security, or workers' compensation.

1 H. RELEASE OF PAGA CLAIMS

2 The S.A. at ¶ 31 also defines the “Released PAGA Claims” as follows:

3 “Released PAGA Claims” means the PAGA claims for civil penalties based 4 upon all underlying wage and hour claims alleged in the Complaint and PAGA 5 Notice Letter(s) filed with the LWDA, and all amendments thereto, as well as 6 all other PAGA claims that reasonably could have been asserted based on the 7 facts alleged or premised upon: (1) failure to pay minimum wages, (2) failure 8 to pay overtime wages, (3) failure to provide meal periods, (4) failure to provide 9 rest breaks, (5) failure to reimburse business expenses, (6) failure to pay vested 10 vacation, (7) failure to timely pay wages each period, (8) failure to timely pay 11 wages upon separation of employment, (9) failure to provide accurate itemized 12 wage statements, (10) failure to pay sick pay, and (11) all other claims for civil 13 penalties recoverable under the Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code §§ 14 2698 et seq., whether arising out of state, federal or local law, California Labor 15 Code, Wage Orders or regulations that are based on the facts or claims alleged 16 in the LWDA notice letters and the Complaint. The time period governing the 17 PAGA Released Claims shall be the PAGA Period. The PAGA Released 18 Claims do not release any Aggrieved Employees’ claims for wages or statutory 19 penalties.

20 Even if an Aggrieved Employee requests exclusion from the Class settlement, that 21 individual will still be subject to the Released PAGA Claims to the fullest extent permitted by 22 law and will receive a pro-rata share of PAGA Penalties. (S.A. ¶ 48).

23 IV. PROVISIONAL CERTIFICATION OF THE SETTLEMENT CLASS IS 24 APPROPRIATE FOR PURPOSES OF SETTLEMENT

25 California Rule of Court 3.769(d) provides that the Court may make an order approving 26 certification of a provisional settlement class at the preliminary approval stage. It is well-27 established that trial courts should use a “lesser standard of scrutiny” for determining the 28 propriety of certifying a settlement class, as opposed to a litigation class. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1807 at n.19. The reasons include that no trial is anticipated in a settlement class, so the case management issues inherent in determining if the class should be certified need not be confronted; and the trial court’s fairness review of the settlement protects the interests of the non-representative class members. Id.; see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com. (9th Cir. 19150) 688 F.2d 615, 633 (“Th[e] relationship between the certification determination and the merits of the case is further attenuated within the context of the settlement

1 evaluation process . . . [C]ertification issues raised by class action litigation that is resolved short 2 of a decision on the merits must be viewed in a different light.”); Amchem Prods., Inc. v.
3 Windsor (1997) 521 U.S. 591, 620 (“Confronted with a request for settlement-only class 4 certification, a district court need not inquire whether the case, if tried, would present intractable 5 management problems . . . for the proposal is that there be no trial.”).

6 As discussed below, for the purposes of this settlement only, Plaintiff requests that this 7 Court provisionally certify the Class, as defined above, under Code of Civil Procedure § 3150.

8 A. NUMEROSITY AND ASCERTAINABILITY

9 Numerosity is met if a proposed class is so large that joinder of all members would be 10 impracticable. See Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 3150. A proposed settlement class is ascertainable if 11 the class members can be objectively identified and given notice of the litigation without 12 unreasonable time or expense. See Medrazo v. Honda of N. Hollywood (2008) 166 Cal.App.4th 13 89, 101. Here, according to Defendant’s records, there are approximately 25 Class Members.
14 This figure satisfies the numerosity requirement.

15 B. WELL-DEFINED COMMUNITY OF INTEREST

16 1. Commonality

17 To justify certification, the class proponent must show that questions of law or fact 18 common to the class predominate over the questions affecting the individual members. See 19 Arenas v. El Torito Rests., Inc. (2010) 183 Cal.App.4th 723, 732 (citing Washington Mut. Bank 20 v. Superior Court (2001) 24 Cal.4th 906, 913). Plaintiff contends that the Class was subject to 21 common policies and practices relating to the payment of wages, including wage statements and, 22 the provision of meal and rest breaks, among other things. While the Parties dispute whether a 23 class would be appropriate if the litigation were to continue, they agree to class certification for 24 the purposes of this settlement.

25 2. Typicality

26 Typicality “focuses on whether there exists a relationship between the Plaintiff’s claims 27 and the claims alleged on behalf of the class.” See Herbert B. Newberg & Alba Conte, Newberg 28 on Class Actions (“Newberg”) § 3:13 (4th ed. 2002). Again, the Parties dispute whether

1 Plaintiff's claims are typical of the Class for any continued litigation of the Action, but agree for 2 the purposes of this settlement only, that Plaintiff asserts claims regarding Defendant's payment 3 of wages, meal and rest break practices, wage statements, and the provisions governing the 4 timely and complete payment of wages, which are at the core of the lawsuit.

5 3. Adequacy of Representation

6 The proposed class representative must establish that he or she will adequately represent 7 the proposed class. See Barboza v. West Coast Digital GSM, Inc. (2009) 179 Cal.App.4th 540, 8 546. Specifically, Plaintiff is adequate to represent the class because he was employed by 9 Defendant during the Class Period, experienced the same wage and hour practices as the rest of 10 the Class, understood his duties as a Class Representative, has been willing to undergo the risks 11 of litigation, and has no conflict of interest.

12 Adequacy may be established by the fact that counsel are experienced practitioners. See 13 Local Joint Exec. Bd. of Culinary/Bartender Trust Fund v. Las Vegas Sands, Inc. (9th Cir. 2001)
14 244 F.3d 1152, 1162. Here, Plaintiff is represented by Class Counsel with extensive experience 15 in wage and hour class actions like the instant matter. (Mankin Decl. ¶¶ 2-6).

16 4. Superiority

17 Certification of the Class for settlement purposes is superior here because there will be a 18 global resolution of all claims at once, which fosters judicial economy. Class certification for 19 settlement purposes is also vastly superior to litigation of numerous individual claims because 20 most of the claims are too small to litigate outside of the class context.

21 V. THE COURT SHOULD PRELIMINARILY APPROVE THE SETTLEMENT, 22 WHICH IS FAIR, ADEQUATE, AND REASONABLE

23 A. CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS ARE SUBJECT TO JUDICIAL REVIEW

24 The law favors settlements. Bush v. Superior Court (1992) 10 Cal.App.4th 1374. This is 25 particularly true in class actions where substantial resources can be conserved by avoiding the 26 time, cost, and rigors of formal litigation. However, a class action may not be dismissed, 27 compromised, or settled without the Court's approval. Cal. R. Ct. 3.769(a). The California Rules 28 of Court set forth the procedures for court approval of a class action settlement: (1) the Court

1 preliminarily approves the settlement; (2) class members receive notice as directed by the Court; 2 and (3) the Court conducts a final approval hearing to inquire into the fairness of the proposed 3 settlement. See Cal. R. Ct. 3.769(c), (e-g).

4 The decision to approve or reject a proposed settlement lies within the Court’s sound 5 discretion. See Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 234-35. The 6 Court’s ultimate duty is to determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.
7 See Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801 (setting forth the “fair, adequate, and reasonable” standard) 8 (citing Officers for Justice, supra).

9 At the preliminary approval stage, the Court need only determine that the settlement falls 10 within the “range of possible judicial approval,” so that notice to the class and the scheduling of 11 the fairness hearing are worthwhile. See Newberg § 11:25. Indeed, the Court should grant 12 preliminary approval if there are no “grounds to doubt its fairness or other obvious deficiencies .
13 . . and [the settlement] appears to fall within the range of possible approval.” Manual For 14 Complex Litigation (Third) § 30.41 (1995; see Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802. A “presumption 15 of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) 16 investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) 17 counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.” Dunk, 18 supra (citing Newberg § 11:41). As shown below, the settlement falls well within the range of 19 approval because there are no grounds to doubt its fairness.

20 B. THE SETTLEMENT RESULTED FROM SERIOUS, INFORMED, NON-COLLUSIVE
21 NEGOTIATIONS

22 The settlement was the product of extensive arm’s length negotiations between counsel 23 and was facilitated by a retired judge and experienced wage-and-hour class action mediator.
24 Courts favor “deference to the ‘private consensual decision of the [settling] parties,’ particularly 25 where the parties are represented by experienced counsel and negotiation has been facilitated by 26 a neutral party—in this instance, a private mediator.” Beck-Ellman v. Kaz USA, Inc. (S.D. Cal.
27 2013) 2013 WL 1748729, *5-6 (quoting Rodriguez v. West Pub. Corp. (9th Cir. 2009) 563 F.3d 28 948, 965). Though cordial and professional, the settlement negotiations were adversarial and

1 non-collusive in nature. The settlement reached is the product of substantial effort by the parties 2 and their counsel. Although Plaintiff and his counsel believed that there was a possibility of 3 certifying the claims, they recognized the potential risk, expense, and complexity posed by 4 litigation, such as unfavorable decisions on class certification, summary judgment, at trial and/or 5 on the damages awarded, and/or on an appeal that can take several more years to litigate. In 6 addition, if Defendants prevailed on any of the defenses, the employees may not have received 7 any monetary recovery.

8 C. THE EXTENT OF THE INVESTIGATION WAS MORE THAN SUFFICIENT

9 Plaintiff thoroughly investigated and evaluated the factual and legal strengths and 10 weaknesses of this case before reaching the settlement. As described above, the settlement was 11 reached after extensive investigation and research, thorough calculations and risk evaluation, and 12 a substantial exchange of information relating to the Class Members prior to mediation. See 13 Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal. App. 4th 399, 410 14 (approving settlement where “considerable information [exists] from which to assess the strength 15 of the class claims” and litigation risks). (Mankin Decl. ¶¶ 13, 21).

16 D. THE SETTLEMENT IS A REASONABLE COMPROMISE OF CLAIMS

17 To evaluate a settlement, the parties must provide the trial court with “basic information 18 about the nature and magnitude of the claims in question and the basis for concluding that the 19 consideration being paid for the release of those claims represents a reasonable compromise.” 20 Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133. The Kullar requirement was 21 further explained in Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 22 Cal.App.4th 399, which held that an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical amount that 23 the class could recover was not necessary:

24 Greenwell misunderstands Kullar, apparently interpreting it to 25 require the record in all cases to contain evidence in the form of an 26 explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could 27 recover if it prevailed on all its claims – a number which appears 28 nowhere in the record of the case. But Kullar does not, as Greenwell claims, require any such explicit statement of value; it requires a record which allows “an understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.

1 A settlement is not judged against what might have been recovered had a plaintiff 2 prevailed at trial, nor does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair 3 and reasonable. Wershba, 91 Cal. App. 4th at 250 (“Compromise is inherent and necessary in 4 the settlement process ... even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is substantially 5 narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no bar to a class 6 settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which 7 each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”) (citation and internal quotation 8 marks omitted).

9 Here, Defendant raised significant legal and factual defenses that weigh in favor of the 10 reasonableness of the proposed Settlement. First, in addition to disputing the merits of Plaintiff’s 11 claims, Defendant strongly disputed that Plaintiff could obtain class certification, arguing a lack 12 of commonality of the legal claims and injuries. Defendant further argued that it complied with 13 the applicable law and that any purported deviations therefrom were individualized in nature, 14 thereby limiting Plaintiff’s ability to certify the class. While Plaintiff asserts that this is a suitable 15 case for certification, he realizes that there is always a significant risk associated with class 16 certification proceedings, which could limit the claims that he could pursue on a class basis.

17 In light of the uncertainties of protracted litigation, this negotiated settlement reflects the 18 best practicable recovery for the Class. While the total settlement amount is, of course, a 19 compromise figure, the potential risks and opportunities of both parties were effectively weighed 20 and considered by the parties, resulting in a fair and equitable settlement.

21 Following the informal exchange and other information provided by Defendant, we 22 estimated the following data points through the date of mediation: (1) 25 Class Members, (2) 5 23 former Class Members for purposes of Labor Code § 203, (3) 3,500 workweeks, (4) 16,100 24 shifts worked, (4) approximately 450 wage statements during the PAGA Period, and (5) an 25 average rate of pay of $26.31 for the Class. (Mankin Decl. ¶ 31).

26 For the unpaid minimum and overtime wage claims, Plaintiff calculated the maximum 27 potential value as $143,464, based on an alleged 10 minutes of unpaid time on each shift worked 28 during the Class Period multiplied by the applicable rate of pay. However, as detailed above,

1 Defendant vehemently opposed these unpaid wage claims on the merits and as to the propriety of 2 class certification. Moreover, in addition to its other defenses on the merits, Defendant argued 3 that Plaintiff would be unable to meet its evidentiary burden at summary judgment and/or trial
4 because Plaintiff and the Class would be unable to introduce evidence as to the amount of unpaid 5 wages (since certain claims are not apparent from the timekeeping records alone), thus defeating 6 liability. Due to these defenses and arguments, Plaintiff assigned appropriate risks for these 7 unpaid wage claims at the class certification stage and on the merits, and calculated the risk-8 adjusted value of the unpaid wage claims as $80,340. (Mankin Decl. ¶ 32).

9 Plaintiff also alleged meal and rest break claims against Defendant. Based on analysis of 10 the timekeeping records, the objective violation rate (i.e., the instances of meal violations shown 11 in the timekeeping records themselves) was low, but Plaintiff argued that the records did not 12 accurately reflect the frequency of meal period violations. Thus, based on the records and 13 incorporating Plaintiff's theories of liability, we applied a 20% violation rate for meal breaks and 14 another 20% for rest breaks (since the rest break claim was based on the same theory that the 15 hectic workload did not permit compliant breaks). Thus, this results in maximum potential value 16 of $84,718 for meal periods and another $84,718 for rest breaks (with each calculation based on 17 3,220 multiplied by $26.31, the applicable premium rate under Labor Code § 226.7). However, 18 Defendant raised numerous arguments in response to this claim, including that it maintained 19 fully compliant written policies and specifically authorized the Class Members to take meal and 20 rest breaks, meaning that no one had a reason or cause to miss a break or take a short/late break 21 (which Defendant argued is reflected by the small meal violation rate). Therefore, Defendant 22 asserted that a fact-finder would have to determine for each Class Member whether a break was 23 missed and why, and why a break was noncompliant or nonexistent, because if it was by the 24 employee's choice, no liability attaches to Defendant. These defenses are factored into 25 Plaintiff's analysis in two ways. First, these issues raise questions regarding whether the meal 26 and rest break claims could be certified; second, these defenses also go toward the merits given 27 the evidentiary question of proving the number of meal and rest violations. As such, we 28 calculated the risk-adjusted value for the combined meal and rest break claims at $35,582 each,

1 for a combined total of $71,164. (Mankin Decl. ¶ 33).

2 Then, as to the claims for unreimbursed expenses, the maximum potential value (without 3 incorporating any risks or defenses) is $70,000, based on $20 in unreimbursed expenses during 4 each workweek worked by the Class. However, as noted previously, Defendant had several 5 strong defenses to this claim, including that the company did reimburse on a per-pay-period basis 6 for certain expenses. Thus, when incorporating the previously discussed defenses and risks (and 7 when considering the offset for previously paid reimbursements), Plaintiff calculated the risk-8 adjusted value as $25,200 for the Labor Code § 2802 claims. (Mankin Decl. ¶ 34)

9 Plaintiff's claims for failure to pay vested vacation had a maximum value of less than 10 $4,000 based on the claims that Defendant failed to properly account for and "cash out" all 11 accrued and unused vested vacation upon separation of employment. As noted previously, 12 Defendant raised defenses to this claim and, given the small number of employees impacted by 13 this violation and relatively small value of this claim, Plaintiff assigned a de minimis risk-14 adjusted value of $2,000 to this claim. (Mankin Decl. ¶ 35).

15 Finally, Plaintiff alleged "derivative" claims for waiting time penalties and wage 16 statement violations (i.e., these claims only had merit if the claims for unpaid wages or meal/rest 17 breaks were successful). The maximum values for these claims were as follows: (1) $31,572 for 18 waiting time penalties [estimated 5 former employees x $26.31 per hour x 8 hours per day x 30 19 days], and (2) $44,250 for wage statement violations [450 wage statements at the $50/$100 20 formula under § 226(e)]. (Mankin Decl. ¶¶ 36-37)

21 But Defendant raised a variety of defenses to these derivative claims that impacted the 22 valuation. Namely, as to the wage statement violations, Defendant argued that its wage 23 statements did not violate Labor Code §§ 226, and even if there was a "technical" violation, that 24 Plaintiff would be unable to prove the required "knowing and intentional" and "injury" elements.
25 Based on these facts and defenses, Plaintiff calculated a risk-adjusted value of $18,585 for the 26 wage statement claims. (Mankin Decl. ¶ 37).

27 Then, as to the waiting time penalty claim, Plaintiff's valuation had to account for the 28 fact that this claim was derivative of the unpaid wage and meal/rest break claims (e.g., the

1 unpaid wage premiums) and, if those claims failed at certification or on the merits, there would 2 be no waiting time penalties owed, so the same risks for those claims applied to this claim.
3 Furthermore, even if the unpaid wage and/or meal/rest claims succeeded at certification and on 4 the merits, Plaintiff would have to prove that the violations (if any existed) were “willful” under 5 the meaning of Labor Code § 203. And, here, Defendant argued that there could not be a finding 6 of a “willful” violation since it had compliant written policies and any deviations there from 7 were inadvertent and unintentional. As a result of this analysis, Plaintiff’s counsel calculated a 8 risk-adjusted value of $15,786. (Mankin Decl. ¶ 36).

9 Plaintiff also calculated that the PAGA claim had a maximum potential value in the high-10 five-figures. For instance, if Plaintiff succeeded in proving that there were two distinct 11 violations in each PAGA pay period and if the Court permitted “stacking” of penalties in this 12 fashion, then the maximum potential PAGA value would be $90,000 [450 PAGA pay periods x 2 13 violations x $100 per violation = $90,000]. However, this maximum value did not account for 14 the risks and defenses raised herein, and it also did not acknowledge that courts have wide 15 latitude to reduce the civil penalties “based on the facts and circumstances of a particular case” 16 and if “to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or 17 confiscatory.” Labor Code § 2699(e)(2). Moreover, this maximum value did not consider 18 Defendant’s arguments that: (1) “stacking” of multiple PAGA penalties per period is not 19 permitted, especially where Class Members have already received a recovery and/or statutory 20 penalties for the same violation, (2) the underlying claims would fail on the merits and, therefore, 21 the PAGA claims would also fail, and (3) the “willfulness” standard and/or “good faith” defenses 22 mitigated the civil penalty claims, especially where Defendant utilized facially compliant written 23 policies and took affirmative steps to educate the employees on the same. Courts have often 24 awarded significantly lesser amounts in cases when they assess a penalty. See, e.g., Carrington v.
25 Starbucks Corp. (2017) 30 Cal. App. 5th 504, 669 (PAGA penalties reduced by 90%); Morales
26 v. Bridgestone, Case No. 30-2017-00900244 (Orange County Super. Ct.) (Aug. 2, 2018) (PAGA 27 penalties reduced by 94%). Given these factors, Plaintiff allocated $10,000 of the total Gross 28 Settlement Amount to civil penalties (which equates to $22.22 per PAGA pay period).

1 Allocating less of the settlement to PAGA Penalties is justified because it maximizes payments
2 to Class Members and furthers the public policies underlying PAGA by providing a “robust” 3 remedy for alleged violations of the Labor Code. See Mejia v. Walgreen Co. (E.D. Cal. Mar. 24, 4 2021) 2021 WL 1122390, at *5. (Mankin Decl. ¶ 38).

5 In sum, Plaintiff calculated the maximum potential value of the claims as $552,722 and,
6 when factoring in the defenses and risks of ongoing litigation, Plaintiff estimates the risk-7 adjusted recovery as $226,075. Thus, the reasonableness of the settlement is apparent from the 8 fact that the proposed settlement is 70% of the risk-adjusted value. See, e.g., Hopson v.
9 Hanesbrands Inc. (N.D. Cal. 2009) 2009 WL 928133, *8 (“The settlement ... represents less 10 than two percent of that amount,” but “may be justifiable ... given ... significant defenses that 11 increase the risks of litigation.”); Balderas v. Massage Envy Franchising (N.D. Cal. 2014) 2014 12 WL 3610945 (settlement approved despite only 5% of projected maximum recovery). Villegas v.
13 J.P. Morgan Chase (N.D. Cal. 2012) 2012 WL 5878390 (approved settlement that was 15% of 14 potential recovery). Thus, the Parties submit that this settlement is fair and reasonable.

15 E. PLAINTIFF’S COUNSEL IS EXPERIENCED IN SIMILAR WAGE-AND-HOUR
16 LITIGATION

17 The view of the attorneys conducting the litigation is entitled to significant weight in 18 deciding whether to approve the settlement. Ellis v. Naval Air Rework (N.D. Cal. 1980) 87 19 F.R.D. 15, 18; Kullar, supra at 128 (court must consider “the experience and view of counsel”).

20 Plaintiff’s Counsel is also highly experienced in Class/PAGA litigation, having been 21 named by the LA Times as one “Southern California Leading Lawyers” in the May 2023 issue of 22 Consumer Attorney’s of Southern California, being named as a “Super Lawyer” in employment 23 litigation (a distinction awarded to only 5% of litigators), having achieved large settlements and 24 verdicts, including one of the largest PAGA awards in California’s history, collecting over $300 25 million for its clients, having tried class and PAGA cases against Fortune 100 companies, among 26 other things. (Mankin Decl. ¶¶ 2-6; Carlson Decl. ¶¶ 3-6). Plaintiff’s counsel, operating at arm’s 27 length, weighed the strengths and risks of this case, and are of the view that this is a fair and 28 reasonable settlement considering the nature of the claims, realistic risk adjusted value, the 1 complexities of the case, state of the law, and uncertainties of class certification and litigation.

2 F. THE CLASS NOTICE CONFORMS TO ALL APPLICABLE STATUTES AND RULES

3 The proposed Notice Packet should be approved, as it fully informs the Class Members 4 of the nature of the lawsuit and each Class Member's rights under terms of the Settlement 5 Agreement and applicable law. The manner in which the Class Notice shall be disseminated, 6 ensures that all or nearly all of the Class Members shall be properly notified of the proposed 7 settlement.

8 The proposed Notice Packet and proposed plan for the Administrator to mail the Notice 9 Packet to the last known address of all Class Members complies with all the requirements of Cal.
10 Rule of Court 3.769(f) and 3.766(b). The contents of the proposed Notice include (1) the material 11 terms of the settlement; (2) the proposed attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, and the costs of 12 administration; (3) details about the final fairness hearing and how Class Members may elect to 13 exclude themselves or make an objection; and (4) how Class Members can obtain additional 14 information. See Notice Packet (Exhibit B to Mankin Decl.). In addition, it will inform Class 15 Members of their estimated Individual Class Payment and Individual PAGA Payment.

16 The Court has wide discretion in approving the means of providing Class Notice, so long 17 as the process "provide(s) meaningful notice in a form that should have a reasonable chance of 18 reaching a substantial percentage of class members." Archibald v. Cinerama Hotels, (1976) 15 19 Cal.3d 853, 861. Here, the notice of the Settlement will be disseminated directly to the Class 20 Members by first class mail by the Administrator, since Defendant has the last known addresses 21 of all Class Members and the Administrator will perform a skip trace and update addresses for 22 any Class Notices that are returned and re-send the Class Notice.

23 The Class Notice satisfies the requirements of Rule of Court 3.766 and affords Class 24 Members with all due process protections required by the U.S. Constitution. Moreover, the 25 contents of the Class Notice comply with Cal. R. Ct. 3.766(d), because the Class Notice includes, 26 without limitation (1) a detailed explanation of the case, including the basic contentions or 27 denials of the parties; (2) a statement that the court will exclude the member from the Class if the 28 member so requests by a specified date; (3) a procedure for the member to follow in requesting

1 exclusion from the Class; (4) a statement that the judgment, whether favorable or not, will bind 2 all members who do not request exclusion; and (5) a statement that any member who does not 3 request exclusion may, if the member so desires, enter an appearance through counsel. The 45-4 day deadline to opt-out or object is also reasonable, as it provides Class Members sufficient time
5 to do so and, if they so choose, to seek independent legal advice in the interim. If a Class 6 Member does not opt-out, he or she will automatically be sent a settlement check.

7 G. THE NON-REVERSIONARY “CHECKS CASHED” DISTRIBUTION ENSURES 8 MAXIMAL RECOVERY FOR CLASS MEMBERS

9 The fact that each member who does not opt out of the Settlement shall be mailed a check 10 ensures that every Class Member will be paid unless he or she affirmatively acts to exclude 11 himself or herself. Moreover, the Settlement Amount is non-reversionary, which means that no 12 settlement funds will revert to Defendant; instead, if any checks are not cashed before the 13 objection deadline, the funds will be transferred to the state’s unclaimed property department 14 subject to approval of the Court. Such terms are favored by Courts and demonstrate that there 15 was no collusion between counsel for the Parties and that the Settlement is fair and favorable to 16 the Class Members.

17 H. THE ATTORNEY FEE AND COST ALLOCATION IS FAIR

18 Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Class Counsel is seeking reimbursement 19 of up to $20,000 in litigation costs, along with attorneys’ fees equal to one-third of the 20 Settlement Amount, which will result in a steep negative lodestar. See, e.g., Laffitte v. Robert 21 Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th. 480 (approving 1/3 fee in the amount of $6.33 million at a 2.13 22 lodestar multiplier, and holding that when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for 23 the benefit of the class members, the trial court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee 24 by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund created); Stuart v. RadioShack Corp. (N.D.
25 Cal. Aug. 9, 2010) 2010 WL 3155645 (approving fee 1/3 of the total maximum settlement 26 amount of $4.5 million since 1/3 was “well within the range of percentages which courts have 27 upheld as reasonable in other class action lawsuits”); Singer v. Becton Dickinson and Co. (S.D.
28 Cal. June 1, 2010) 2010 WL 2196104, at *8 (approving fee award of 33.33% of the common

1 fund); Romero v. Producers Dairy Foods, Inc. (E.D. Cal. Nov. 14, 2007), 2007 WL 3492841, 2 at *4 (awarding fees of 1/3 of common fund, noting: “[f]ee awards in class actions average 3 around one-third of the recovery).

4 Once the Court grants preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement and Class 5 Notice is disseminated, Plaintiff’s counsel will submit a comprehensive request for attorneys’ 6 fees and costs with its Final Approval motion.

7 I. A SERVICE AWARD IS NOT REQUESTED

8 Plaintiff is not seeking an enhancement payment in light of a separate and confidential 9 individual settlement.

10 VI. THE COURT SHOULD APPOINT PHOENIX AS ADMINISTRATOR

11 Subject to the Court’s approval, Phoenix Settlement Administrators shall serve as the 12 Administrator. Phoenix is experienced in administering class action settlements and has 13 provided a flat-fee proposal to administer this settlement for $5,000. (Mankin Decl. ¶ 52 and 14 Exhibit D; Decl. of Mike Moore).

15 VII. OTHER TOPICS

16 A. ANY RELATED CASES?

17 Plaintiff’s counsel is not aware of any other individual, class, or PAGA case (pending or 18 in the pre-filing LWDA stage) that would be affected by this settlement. Moreover, after 19 conferring with defense counsel, they have not advised of any either. (Mankin Decl. ¶ 54).

20 B. HAS COUNSEL SPOKEN WITH OTHER CLASS MEMBERS?

21 No, Plaintiff’s counsel did not speak with any other putative class members; instead, the 22 claims and theories of recovery were based on common claims, policies, and analysis of the 23 sampled data. (Mankin Decl., p. 5, fn. 1).

24 C. SHOULD THE NOTICE BE PROVIDED IN ANY OTHER LANGUAGES?

25 According to Defendant’s counsel, all Class Members read and write in English.

26 VIII. TIMELINE AND SCHEDULING A FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

27 The last step in the approval process is the Final Approval Hearing, whereby proponents 28 of the settlement may explain and describe its terms and conditions and offer argument in support of approval, and Class Members or their counsel may be heard in support of or in opposition to the settlement. Subject to the Court's approval, the Settlement Agreement stipulates that the Court schedule a hearing for Final Approval of the settlement approximately 140 days after the Preliminary Approval Hearing Date, in accordance with the following schedule:

July 31, 2026	Preliminary Approval (PA) Order is Entered
August 31, 2026 30 days after PA	Deadline for Administrator to complete first mailing of the Notice Packet to all Class Members.
October 15, 2026 45 days after mailing Notice	Deadline for Class Members to submit Disputes, Requests for Exclusion and Objections to the settlement.
16 court days before FA hearing	Deadline for Plaintiff to file and serve Motion for Final Approval and application for award of fees, costs and Service Payment.
9 court days before FA hearing	Deadline for filing of any written Opposition to Plaintiff's Motion for Final Approval.
5 court days before FA hearing	Deadline for filing of any written reply to Opposition to Motion for Final Approval, or filing response to any objections submitted by objecting Class Members.
December 18, 2026	Proposed Final Approval Hearing Date

IX. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant the motion for preliminary approval of the settlement.
