SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FOR THE COUNTY OF CONTRA COSTA

SUZETTE L ALIDIO, on behalf of herself and current and former aggrieved employees

Plaintiff,

vs.

KSL ASSOCIATE GROUP, INC.; and DOES 1
to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: C25-01877

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF SUZETTE L ALIDIO'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

SUMMONS ISSUED

COMES NOW Plaintiff SUZETTE L ALIDIO ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants KSL ASSOCIATE GROUP, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively
"Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, herself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with

Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all hours worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to pay overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest period premium wages; failure to pay wages for accrued paid sick time at the regular rate of pay; statutory penalties for failure to timely pay earned wages during employment; statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the form of continuation wages for failure to timely pay employees all wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and others aggrieved.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout California, including but not limited to Contra Costa County, at 1700 Tice Valley Blvd, Walnut Creek, CA 94595.

III. PARTIES

1. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency on behalf of herself and other current and former employees subject to violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will work for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp

1 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the currently 2 named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was employed by 3 Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Contra Costa from in or around 2023, 4 until on or about February 2025.

5 2. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant KSL 6 ASSOCIATE GROUP, INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing 7 business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all times relevant 8 hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant KSL ASSOCIATE GROUP, INC. in the 9 establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies.
10 Defendant KSL ASSOCIATE GROUP, INC. operates in Contra Costa County and employed Plaintiff
11 and aggrieved employees in Contra Costa County, including but not limited to, at 1700 Tice Valley 12 Blvd, Walnut Creek, CA 94595.

13 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 14 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 15 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 16 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working 17 conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

18 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
19 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued 20 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 21 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to be 22 violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of the 23 Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

24 5. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff 25 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 26 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 27 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously

28 ///

1 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 2 complaint.

3 6. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 4 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff 5 reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

6 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

7 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 8 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

9 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and 10 Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

11 7. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

12 8. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 13 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 1194, 14 1197, 1198, and the applicable Wage Orders.

15 9. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California 16 Labor Code:

17 10. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
18 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt 19 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 20 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee 21 is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or 22 indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

23 11. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 24 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 25 Wage Orders.

26 12. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 27 non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with having 28 worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved

1 California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum wage for all 2 hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited 3 to:

4 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
5 non-exempt employees to complete off the clock work without Plaintiff and other current and former 6 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees being paid for time worked.

7 13. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 8 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' 9 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 10 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 11 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable 12 Wage Order.

13 14. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay 14 and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of 15 their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer 16 is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," which includes all time that an employee 17 is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This 18 includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to 19 the benefit of the employer.'

20 15. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 21 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40) 22 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

23 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours 24 in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in 25 any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half 26 (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours 27 in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay 28 for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

Labor Code section 510.

1 16. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 2 California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due 3 to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

4 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
5 non-exempt employees to complete off the clock work without Plaintiff and other current and former 6 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees being paid for time worked.

7 17. Furthermore, overtime is based upon an employee's regular rate of pay. "The regular 8 rate at which an employee is employed shall be deemed to include all remuneration for employment 9 paid to, or on behalf, of the employee." See Division of Labor Standards Enforcement – 10 Enforcement Policies and Interpretations Manual, Section 49.1.2.

11 18. In this case, Plaintiff alleges that when she and other current and former aggrieved 12 California-based hourly non-exempt employees earned overtime wages, Defendants failed to pay 13 them overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay due to Defendants' failure to include all 14 remuneration when calculating the overtime rate of pay. Specifically, Defendants maintained a 15 policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as retainment bonus 16 and end of year bonus pay for example, when calculating Plaintiff's and other current and former 17 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of 18 paying overtime.

19 19. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each 20 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 21 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 22 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 23 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, 24 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed 25 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 26 sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

27 20. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 28 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to

1 pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 2 hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and 3 shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

4 21. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 5 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 6 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 7 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 5 at §11; 8 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ 9 an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee 10 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh 11 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period 12 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal 13 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved 14 of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

15 22. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 16 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay 17 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code 18 sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 5 at §11.

19 23. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 20 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-21 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 22 limited to:

23 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 24 hourly non-exempt employees timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes 25 for every five hours worked.

26 24. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 27 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 28 hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that

1 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did 2 not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

3 25. Finally, on occasions when Defendants paid Plaintiff and other current and former 4 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a “premium” wage for late, missed, short, 5 on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted meal periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1) additional 6 hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-7 exempt employees’ regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, 8 practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such as retainment bonus and end 9 of year bonus pay for example, when calculating Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved 10 California-based hourly non-exempt employees’ regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying meal 11 period premium wages.

12 26. Defendants’ foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 13 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 14 wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal 15 periods in compliance with California law.

16 27. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 17 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay
18 rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 19 non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

20 28. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest 21 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code 22 section 226.7; Wage Order 5 at §12. Under California law, “[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes’ 23 rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six 24 hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on.” Brinker
25 Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7; 26 Wage Order 5 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period.
27 Wage Order 5 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement “obligates employers to permit – 28 and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

29. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday the employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage Order 5 at § 12.

30. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

(a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees with net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof.

31. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

32. Finally, on occasions when Defendants did pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees a "premium" wage for late, missed, short, on-premise, on-duty, and/or interrupted rest periods, Defendants failed to pay the one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of compensation. Specifically, Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration such retainment bonus and end of year bonus pay for example, when calculating Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay for the purpose of paying rest period premiums.

1 33. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 2 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 3 wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods 4 in compliance with California law.

5 34. Failure to provide sick pay wages: Defendants had a policy and/or procedure where 6 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees 7 accrued paid sick time.

8 35. Labor Code section 246, subdivision (a), states in relevant part "[a]n employee 9 who...works in California for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the 10 commencement of employment is entitled to paid sick days." Additionally, an employee accrues 11 paid sick days at the rate of no-less-than one (1) hour per every thirty (30) hours worked, beginning 12 at the commencement of employment. Labor Code section 246(b).

13 36. Here, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-14 exempt employees were employed by Defendants for 30 or more days and were entitled to paid sick 15 days. Defendants, however, lacked a policy, practice, and/or procedure whereby Plaintiffs and other 16 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees who were employed 17 by Defendants for 30 days or more could accrue paid sick days at the rate of no-less-than one (1) 18 hour per every thirty (30) hours worked, beginning at the commencement of employment as required 19 by Labor Code section 246(b).

20 37. In this case, Plaintiff alleges that when she and other current and former aggrieved 21 California-based hourly non-exempt employees elected to use paid sick time, Defendants failed to 22 pay them sick time wages at the proper sick time rate of pay due to Defendants' failure to include 23 all remuneration when calculating the sick time rate of pay. Specifically, Defendants maintained a 24 policy, practice, and/or procedure of failing to include all remuneration including but not limited to 25 retainment bonus and end of year bonus pay for example, when calculating Plaintiff and other 26 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' regular rate of pay 27 for the purpose of paying sick time.

28 ///

1 38. Defendants' foregoing policy, practice, and/or procedure resulted in Defendants 2 failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-3 exempt employees' paid sick days, in violation of Labor Code section 246.

4 39. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 5 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 6 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 7 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 8 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 9 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll 10 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7) 11 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 12 section 204(d).

13 40. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 14 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 15 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages 16 and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants' 17 aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and 18 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned 19 wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

20 41. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 21 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 22 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage 23 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by 24 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful 25 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246, 26 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor 27 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 28 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

1 42. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 2 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee 3 his or her wages, the employer must “furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 4 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any 5 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 6 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare 7 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee 8 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders 9 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive 10 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her 11 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 12 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 13 worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

14 43. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff 15 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages 16 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period 17 premium wages) rendered Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based 18 hourly non-exempt employees’ wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 19 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

20 44. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 21 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee’s employment ends. The 22 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) 23 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

24 45. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
25 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all 26 their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, 27 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 28 employee’s termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

1 46. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, 2 on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to 3 recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code 4 section 2699.3.

5 47. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code 6 section 2699.3. On April 23, 2025, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and 7 provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of 8 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the 9 violations alleged.

10 48. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 11 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 12 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 13 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 14 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

15 49. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 16 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 17 246, 510, 512, 1194, and 1198., During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, 18 preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the 19 following amounts:

20 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, and 1198; 21 one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and 22 two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 23 violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

24 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226(a), alternatively, two hundred fifty 25 dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each 26 subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period 27 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

2 appropriate.
