1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT on February 3, 2026 at 2:30 p.m. in Department 21 of 3 the above-captioned Court located at 1221 Oak Street, Oakland, California 94612, pursuant to 4 California Code of Civil Procedure section 382, Rule 3.769 of the California Rules of Court, and 5 California Labor Code section 2699(l), Chardriana Jean (“Plaintiff”) will and hereby does move the 6 Court for an Order granting final approval of the proposed class action and Labor Code Private 7 Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) settlement 8 between Plaintiff and Defendant Woodruff-Sawyer & Co. (“Defendant”).

9 Plaintiff requests that the Court enter an Order:

- 10 1. Granting final approval of the class action and PAGA settlement;
- 11 2. Approving the settlement as fair, adequate, and reasonable, based upon the terms as set 12 forth in the Court-approved Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Settlement 13 Agreement” or “Settlement”), including payment by Defendant of the Gross Settlement Amount of 14 Eight Hundred Forty-Nine Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($849,000.00) equal to the amounts to 15 pay (1) the Settlement Class Members and PAGA Employees pursuant to the terms of the Settlement;
16 (2) the Court-approved Attorneys’ Fees and Costs; (3) the Court-approved Enhancement Payment; (4) 17 the Court-approved Settlement Administration Costs; and (5) the Court-approved payment to the 18 California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) pursuant to PAGA;
- 19 3. Approving Class Counsel’s request for thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross 20 Settlement Amount, i.e., Two Hundred Ninety-Seven Thousand One Hundred Fifty Dollars and Zero
21 Cents ($297,150.00) in attorneys’ fees, plus reimbursement of actual costs and expenses in the amount 22 of Eighteen Thousand Two Hundred Twelve Dollars and Sixty-Four Cents ($18,212.64);
- 23 4. Approving the Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff in the amount of Seven Thousand 24 Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($7,500.00) in recognition of her services to the Class Members;
- 25 5. Approving the Settlement Administration Costs to Apex Class Action LLC in the 26 amount of Five Thousand Nine Hundred Ninety Dollars and Zero Cents ($5,990.00); and 27 ///

28 ///

8. Approving Twenty-Two Thousand Seventy-Four Dollars and Zero Cents ($22,074.00) to be paid to the LWDA as seventy-five percent (65%) of the Thirty-Three Thousand Nine Hundred Sixty Dollars and Zero Cents ($33,960.00) allocated to civil penalties under PAGA.

This Motion is made pursuant to Rule 3.769 and Rule 3.1113(e) of the California Rules of Court, which require approval by the Court of a class action settlement and permit the Court to extend the page limit for memoranda.

This Motion is based on the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Settlement Agreement, the Declarations of Class Counsel (Alexandra Rose), the Class Representative (Chardriana Jean), and the Settlement Administrator (Stacey Shim on behalf of Apex Class Action LLC), the pleadings and other records on file with the Court in this matter, and such evidence or oral argument as may be presented at the hearing on this Motion.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: January 9, 2026

Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769(g)..... 10

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Chardriana Jean (“Plaintiff” or “Class Representative”) seeks final approval of the 4 class action settlement reached with Defendant Woodruff-Sawyer & Co. (“Defendant”). Subject to 5 Court approval, Plaintiff and Defendant (together, the “Parties”) have settled the Released Class
6 Claims and Released PAGA Claims as defined in the Joint Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA
7 Settlement (“Settlement Agreement” or “Settlement”) for a total amount of Eight Hundred Forty-Nine 8 Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($849,000.00) (“Gross Settlement Amount”). (See Declaration of 9 Alexandra Rose in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA
10 Settlement, Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Enhancement Payment, and Settlement Administration Costs 11 [“Rose Decl.”], ¶ 12 and Exh. 1).

12 The Court conditionally certified, for settlement purposes only, the Class defined as: “All 13 current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the State 14 of California at any time during the Class Period” (“Class” or “Class Member(s)”). (Settlement 15 Agreement, ¶ 9.b; Rose Decl., ¶ 10). The “Class Period” is defined as the period from December 6, 16 2020 through June 4, 2025. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.f; Rose Decl., ¶ 10). The “Settlement Class 17 Member(s)” consist of all Class Members who did not submit a timely and valid Request for 18 Exclusion. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.mm; Rose Decl., ¶ 10). The “PAGA Employees” consist of 19 “all current and former hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant in the 20 State of California at any time during the PAGA Period.” (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.y; Rose Decl., 21 ¶ 10). The “PAGA Period” is defined as the period from April 9, 2024 through June 4, 2025.
22 (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.aa; Rose Decl., ¶ 10).

23 As discussed herein, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for final settlement 24 approval under California law because it is fair, adequate, and reasonable. (Rose Decl., Exh. 1; See 25 also, Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129-30; Dunk v. Ford Motor 26 Company (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 180 1). The response of the Class to the Settlement confirms 27 that final settlement approval is appropriate. There have been no objections to or requests to opt-out
28 from the Class Settlement. (Declaration of Stacey Shim of Apex Class Action LLC Regarding Notice

1 and Settlement Administration [“Apex Decl.”], ¶¶ 9 and 10).

2 Because the Settlement achieves outstanding results for the Settlement Class Members, the 3 PAGA Employees, and the State of California, Plaintiff respectfully requests, on behalf of the Class 4 and without opposition from Defendant, that the Court approve the Settlement as fair, adequate, and 5 reasonable, and enter judgment in accordance with the Settlement’s terms.

6 Plaintiff seeks the Court’s approval of an attorneys’ fee award of thirty-five percent (35%) of 7 the Gross Settlement Amount, equaling Two Hundred Ninety-Seven Thousand One Hundred Fifty 8 Dollars and Zero Cents ($297,150.00), plus reimbursement of actual litigation costs and expenses in 9 the amount of Eighteen Thousand Two Hundred Twelve Dollars and Sixty-Four Cents ($18,212.64) 10 (together, “Attorneys’ Fees and Costs”). Class Counsel’s request for an award of attorneys’ fees and 11 costs is reasonable and appropriate in light of the outstanding work performed by Class Counsel in the 12 matter, the contingent nature of this action, and the results achieved under the Settlement. (See Lealao 13 v. Beneficial California, Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19).

14 Plaintiff also requests the Court’s approval of the amount to be paid to Plaintiff in the amount 15 of Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($7,500.00) (“Enhancement Payment”) for 16 her services on behalf of the Class. This amount proposed to be awarded to Plaintiff is fair and 17 reasonable for the reasons Plaintiff provided in her declaration. (See Declaration of Plaintiff 18 Chardriana Jean in Support of Motion for Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement, 19 Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Enhancement Payment, and Settlement Administration Costs [“Jean 20 Decl.”]. Courts approve incentive awards to plaintiffs when justified and appropriate to compensate 21 plaintiffs for their time, effort, and inconvenience. (See e.g., Van Vranken v. Atlantic Riclifield Co.
22 (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294, 299).

23 Finally, Plaintiff requests that the Court approve the payment of Five Thousand Nine Hundred 24 Ninety Dollars and Zero Cents ($5,990.00) (“Settlement Administration Costs”) to Apex Class Action 25 LLC (“Apex” or “Settlement Administrator”) as compensation for its administration services it has 26 and will provide in connection with the Settlement. (See, generally, Apex Decl.”]).

28 ///

1 In order to efficiently present the Court with adequate information to determine whether to 2 grant final approval of the Settlement and award the Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Enhancement
3 Payment, and Settlement Administration Costs, Plaintiff also moves for an order permitting the filing
4 of this single consolidated memorandum, although it exceeds the page limit established by California 5 Rules of Court, Rule 3.1113(d), instead of filing several separate motions.

6 II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND

7 Defendant is an independent brokerage and consulting firm that has been in operation since 8 1918. In April 2025, it was acquired by Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. Plaintiff was employed by 9 Defendant as an hourly-paid, non-exempt Talent Administrator from approximately May 2021 to 10 approximately March 2022 at its location in San Francisco, California. (Jean Decl., ¶ 2).

11 On December 6, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint in the action entitled 12 Chardriana Jean v. Woodruff-Sawyer & Co., Alameda County Superior Court Case No. 24CV102594
13 ("Action"), thereby commencing a putative class action against Defendant. (Rose Decl., ¶ 2).

14 On March 14, 2025, the Parties participated in a formal mediation conducted by Brandon 15 McKelvey, Esq. ("Mediator"), a neutral and respected mediator with extensive experience in complex 16 wage and hour matters, which did not result in a settlement at that time. (Id., ¶ 3).

17 On March 21, 2025, Plaintiff propounded written formal discovery onto Defendant 18 (specifically, Form Interrogatories - General (Set One), Form Interrogatories - Employment Law (Set 19 One), Special Interrogatories (Set One), Requests for Admission (Set One), and Requests for 20 Production of Documents (Set One)) and served a proposed Belaire-West notice. (Id., ¶ 4).

21 On April 5, 2025, after further negotiations and with the assistance of the Mediator's 22 evaluations, the Parties were able to reach an agreement to resolve this dispute on a class and 23 representative basis. (Id., ¶ 5). The Parties then worked diligently to negotiate and memorialize the 24 terms in a long form settlement agreement. (Ibid.).

25 On April 9, 2025, Plaintiff provided written notice to the California Labor and Workforce 26 Development Agency ("LWDA") by online submission and to Defendant by U.S. Certified Mail, 27 pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2699.3, of the specified provisions of the California Labor 28 Code alleged to have been violated by Defendant ("PAGA Letter"). (Id., ¶ 6).

1 On June 13, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint
2 (“Operative Complaint”) in the Action, which added a cause of action under the Private Attorneys 3 General Act (“PAGA”). (Id., ¶ 7). The Operative Complaint alleges ten (10) causes of action for 4 violations of the California Labor Code for failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime 5 wages, failure to provide compliant meal periods and premium payments in lieu thereof, failure to 6 provide compliant rest periods and premiums payments in lieu thereof, failure to timely pay wages 7 during employment, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to timely pay wages upon 8 termination, and failure to reimburse necessary business expenses, for violations of California 9 Business & Professions Code Section 17200, et seq. based on the aforementioned California Labor
10 Code violations, and for civil penalties under PAGA based on the aforementioned California Labor 11 Code violations. (Ibid.)

12 On July 22, 2025, the Parties executed the Settlement Agreement. (Id., ¶ 8 and Exh. 1).

13 On July 31, 2025, Plaintiff filed a Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA
14 Settlement (“Motion for Preliminary Approval”) and supporting documents. (Id., ¶ 9). On August 15 26, 2025, the Court entered the Order re: Hearing on Motion – Other Motion for Preliminary Approval 16 of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Preliminary Approval Order”), thereby preliminary 17 approving the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the Notice of Class Action Settlement (“Class 18 Notice”), and the proposed administration procedures and associated deadlines). (Id., ¶ 9 and Exh. 2).

19 The Parties agree that the Class described herein may be certified for settlement purposes only.
20 If for any reason the Settlement is not approved, the certification will have no force or effect and will 21 immediately be revoked. The Parties further agree that certification for purposes of approving the 22 Settlement Agreement is in no way an admission that class certification is proper under the more 23 stringent standard applied for litigation and that evidence of this limited stipulation for settlement 24 purposes only will not be admissible for any purpose in this or any other proceeding.

25 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS AND PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

26 The Parties have agreed to settle the Class and PAGA claims at issue in the Operative 27 Complaint for a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of Eight Hundred Forty-Nine Thousand 28 Dollars and Zero Cents ($849,000.00), which is exclusive of employer-side payroll taxes. (Settlement

1 Agreement, ¶ 9.q; Rose Decl., ¶ 12). The Gross Settlement Amount includes: (1) Class Counsel’s fees
2 in the amount of thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount, equaling Two Hundred 3 Ninety-Seven Thousand One Hundred Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents ($297,150.00); (2) Class
4 Counsel’s actual litigation costs and expenses, in the amount of Eighteen Thousand Two Hundred 5 Twelve Dollars and Sixty-Four Cents ($18,212.64); (3) Settlement Administration Costs in the amount 6 Five Thousand Nine Hundred Ninety Dollars and Zero Cents ($5,990.00); (4) Enhancement Payment
7 in the amount of Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($7,500.00); and (5) PAGA
8 Amount in the amount of Thirty-Three Thousand Nine Hundred Sixty Dollars and Zero Cents
9 ($33,960.00). (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 12, 13, 14, 15; Rose Decl., ¶ 12). After the above Court-
10 approved amounts are deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount, the Settlement Class Members 11 will share in a Net Settlement Amount of approximately Four Hundred Eighty-Six Thousand One 12 Hundred Eighty-Seven Dollars and Thirty-Six Cents ($486,187.36). (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.v; 13 Rose Decl., ¶ 12).

14 The Settlement does not require Settlement Class Members to submit claims as a prerequisite 15 to receiving their pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount (“Individual Settlement Share”) nor 16 does it require PAGA Employees to submit claims as a prerequisite to receiving their pro rata share 17 of thirty-five percent (35%) of the PAGA Amount (“Individual PAGA Payment”). (Settlement 18 Agreement, ¶¶ 9.r, 9.t, and 37; Rose Decl., ¶ 13). Individual Settlement Shares are calculated by the 19 Settlement Administrator by dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of weeks each 20 Class Member worked for Defendant as an hourly-paid and/or non-exempt employee in California
21 during the Class Period (“Workweeks”) and multiplying the result by each Settlement Class Member’s 22 Workweeks worked during the Class Period. (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 9.nn and 17; Rose Decl., ¶ 23 13). Individual PAGA Payments are calculated by the Settlement Administrator by dividing the 24 amount of the PAGA Employees’ thirty-five percent (35%) share of the PAGA Amount ($11,886.00) 25 by the number of weeks each PAGA Employee worked for Defendant as an hourly-paid and/or non-26 exempt employee in California during the PAGA Period (“PAGA Workweeks”) and multiplying the 27 result by each PAGA Employee’s PAGA Workweeks worked during the PAGA Period. (Settlement 28 Agreement, ¶¶ 9.cc and 18; Rose Decl., ¶ 13).

1 Each Individual Settlement Share will be allocated as twenty percent (20%) wages and eighty 2 percent (80%) penalties, interest, and non-wage damages. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 19; Rose Decl., 3 ¶ 15). The portion allocated to wages will be reported on an IRS Form W-2 and the portions allocated 4 to penalties, interest, and non-wage damages will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by 5 the Settlement Administrator. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 19; Rose Decl., ¶ 15). The Settlement
6 Administrator will withhold the employee's share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages 7 portion of the Individual Settlement Shares, and issue checks to Settlement Class Members for their 8 net payment of their Individual Settlement Share ("Individual Settlement Payment"). (Settlement 9 Agreement, ¶¶ 9.s and 19; Rose Decl., ¶ 15). The employer's share of taxes and contributions in 10 connection with the wages portion of Individual Settlement Shares will be paid by Defendant 11 separately and in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 19; Rose Decl., 12 ¶ 15). Each Individual PAGA Payment will be allocated as one hundred percent (100%) penalties and 13 will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the Settlement Administrator. (Settlement 14 Agreement, ¶ 19; Rose Decl., ¶ 15).

15 Each Individual Settlement Payment and Individual PAGA Payment check will be valid and 16 negotiable for one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days from the date the checks are issued, and 17 thereafter, shall be canceled. (Preliminary Approval Order, pg. 1; Rose Decl., ¶ 16). Any funds 18 associated with such canceled checks shall be distributed by the Settlement Administrator to Legal 19 Aid at Work (the proposed cy pres recipient) in accordance with California Code of Civil Procedure 20 Section 384. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 37; Rose Decl., ¶ 16).

21 Upon Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff and all 22 Settlement Class Members will be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, 23 compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties of all released Class Claims.
24 (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 38).

25 Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff and the 26 State of California with respect to all PAGA Employees will be deemed to have fully, finally, and 27 forever released, settled, compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties of all 28 Released PAGA Claims. (Id., ¶ 39).

1           “Released Class Claims” means any and all claims which were alleged or which could have 2 been reasonably alleged based on the factual allegations in the Operative Complaint, arising during 3 the Class Period, including, but not limited to, claims for Defendant’s alleged failure to pay overtime 4 and minimum wages, provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated premium payments, 5 timely pay wages during employment and upon termination, provide accurate wage statements, and 6 reimburse necessary business-related expenses; Defendant’s alleged violation of California Labor
7 Code Sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, 8 and 2802, the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order, and California Business and 9 Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.; any unpaid wages or compensation related to any or all of 10 the foregoing; any premium payments related to any or all of the foregoing; restitution for any or all 11 of the foregoing; any penalties, statutory and civil (except penalties under PAGA), related to any or 12 all of the foregoing; interest related to any or all of the foregoing; and attorneys’ fees or costs related 13 to any or all of the foregoing. (Id., ¶¶ 9.ff).

14           “Released PAGA Claims” means any and all claims arising from any of the factual allegations 15 in the PAGA Letter, arising during the PAGA Period, for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys 16 General Act of 2004, California Labor Code Sections 2698 et seq., which shall specifically include 17 claims for Defendant’s alleged failure to pay overtime and minimum wages, provide compliant meal 18 and rest periods and associated premium payments, timely pay wages during employment and upon 19 termination, provide compliant wage statements, maintain complete and accurate payroll records, and 20 reimburse necessary business-related expenses; Defendant’s alleged violation of California Labor 21 Code Sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 22 2800, and 2802, and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order; any unpaid wages or 23 compensation related to any or all of the foregoing; any premium payments related to any or all of the 24 foregoing; and attorneys’ fees or costs related to any or all of the foregoing. (Id., ¶¶ 9.gg).

25           Upon the Effective Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff, 26 individually and on her own behalf, will be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever released, settled, 27 compromised, relinquished, and discharged the Released Parties from any and all claims, debts, 28 liabilities, demands, obligations, guarantees, costs, expenses, attorneys’ fees, damages, or causes of 1 action of any kind or nature whatsoever, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, asserted or 2 unasserted, arising out of, relating to, or resulting from her employment and/or separation of 3 employment with Defendant, which Plaintiff, at any time up until the execution of the Settlement

4 Agreement, had or claimed to have or may have. (Id., ¶ 40). It is agreed that this is a general release 5 and is to be broadly construed as a release of all claims, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, 6 this Paragraph expressly does not include a release of any claims that cannot be released hereunder by 7 law. (Ibid). Any and all rights granted under any state or federal law or regulation limiting the effect 8 of the Settlement Agreement, including the provisions of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, 9 ARE HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVED. (Ibid). Section 1542 of the California Civil Code reads as 10 follows:

11 A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR 12 RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT 13 THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, 14 WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR 15 OR RELEASED PARTY. (Ibid).

16 The “Released Parties” means Defendant and Arthur J. Gallagher & Co.; and their current, 17 former, and future acquired companies/entities, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, successors, 18 parents, and assigns; each of the foregoing’s current, former, and future officers, directors, members, 19 insurers, shareholders, owners, partners, members, managing agents, agents, attorneys, legal 20 representatives, executives, employees, and contractors; and any entity alleged to be a joint employer 21 with Defendant and/or Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. (Id., ¶ 9.hh).

22 IV. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION PROCESS

23 Apex has taken all necessary steps to effectuate the notice and settlement administration 24 process, as set forth in the Preliminary Approval Order.

25 On August 27, 2025, Apex received the Court approved text for the Class Notice from Class 26 Counsel. (Apex Decl., ¶ 4).

27 On September 9, 2025, Apex received the class data file from Defendant’s counsel, which 28 contained the full name, last known mailing address, Social Security number, and dates worked for Defendant during the Class Period (collectively, “Class List”). (Id., ¶ 5). The Class List was uploaded to Apex’s database and checked for duplicates and other possible discrepancies. (Ibid). The Class

1 List contained 174 individuals identified as Class Members who worked 22,162 Workweeks during 2 the Class Period and 108 individuals identified as PAGA Members who worked 5,588.29 PAGA 3 Workweeks during the PAGA Period. (Id., ¶¶ 5 and 15).

4 As part of the preparation for mailing, all 174 names and addresses contained in the Class List 5 were then processed against the National Change of Address (“NCOA”) database, maintained by the 6 United States Postal Service (“USPS”), for purposes of updating and confirming the mailing addresses
7 of the Class Members before mailing of the Class Notice. (Id., ¶ 6). The NCOA contains requested 8 change of addresses filed with the USPS. (Ibid.). To the extent that an updated address was found in 9 the NCOA database, the updated address was used for the mailing of the Class Notice. (Ibid.). To the 10 extent that no updated address was found in the NCOA database, the original address provided by 11 Defendant’s counsel was used for the mailing of the Class Notice. (Ibid.).

12 On September 29, 2025, the Class Notice was mailed, via U.S. First Class Mail, to all 174 13 individuals contained in the Class List. (Id., ¶ 7). 6 Class Notices were returned to Apex as 14 undeliverable. (Id., ¶ 8). Apex performed a computerized skip trace on the 6 returned Class Notices 15 that did not have a forwarding address in an effort to obtain an updated address for the purpose of re-16 mailing the Class Notice. (Ibid.). As a result of this skip trace, 3 updated addresses were obtained and 17 the Class Notice was promptly re-mailed to those Class Members, via U.S First Class Mail. (Ibid.). A 18 total of 3 Class Notices have been deemed undeliverable as no updated address was found 19 notwithstanding the skip tracing. (Ibid.).

20 Class Members had sixty (60) calendar days after the Settlement Administrator mailed the 21 Class Notices to submit a Request for Exclusion, Notice of Objection, and/or Dispute (“Response 22 Deadline”). (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 9.jj). The Response Deadline was November 28, 2025. (Apex 23 Decl., ¶¶ 9-11). The Settlement Administrator did not receive any Requests for Exclusion, Notice of 24 Objections, and/or Disputes. (Ibid.).

25 The estimated average gross Individual Settlement Share is $2,783.91, the estimated highest 26 gross Individual Settlement Share is $5,123.96, and the estimated lowest gross Individual Settlement 27 Share is $71.82; the estimated average Individual PAGA Payment is $110.06, the estimated highest 28 Individual PAGA Payment is $127.92, and the estimated lowest Individual PAGA Payment is $6.99.

(Id., ¶¶ 14 and 16).<sup>1</sup>

V. COMPLIANCE WITH PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS OF PAGA

On July 24, 2025, Class Counsel submitted a copy of the Settlement Agreement to the LWDA through its online submission portal in compliance with California Labor Code § 2699(1)(2). (Rose Decl., ¶ 17). The LWDA has not objected or otherwise responded to the submission. (Ibid.)

VI. EVALUATION OF SETTLEMENT FOR FINAL APPROVAL

A. The Legal Standard for Final Approval

Before granting final approval of a class action settlement, the Court must review the settlement for fairness. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769(g); Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801). A court must take into account relevant factors, including, for example, the strength of the plaintiff's case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement. (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 244-45; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801 ["The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case"]; Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n (9th Cir. 1982) 688 F.2d 615, 625). Considering such factors, a presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802). "The settlement or fairness hearing is not to be turned into a trial or rehearsal for trial on the merits. [The trial court is not] to reach any ultimate conclusions on the contested issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute, for it is the very uncertainty of outcome in litigation and avoidance of wasteful and expensive litigation that induce consensual settlements." (Officers for Justice, supra, 688 F.2d at 625).

<sup>1</sup> The actual average, highest, and lowest Individual Settlement Shares will be slightly larger than the amounts stated in the Apex Decl. because the Net Settlement Amount is larger due to Class Counsel's request for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in an amount that is less than $20,000.00 (the difference between the amount sought and the amount authorized under the Settlement, i.e., $1,787.36 will be part of the Net Settlement Amount).

1                   B.       The Settlement Should be Finally Approved

2           California courts recognize that “a presumption of fairness exists where . . . [a] settlement is 3 reached through arm’s-length bargaining.” (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245; see also Clark v. Am.
4 Residential Servs. LLC, 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 799 (2009)). Here, the Parties’ settlement negotiations
5 were at all times made at arm’s-length and were adversarial. (Rose Decl., ¶ 18). The Parties engaged 6 in extensive informal discovery prior to reaching a settlement. (Id., ¶ 19).

7                   C.       The Settlement is Fair and Reasonable

8           Courts typically assess the status of discovery in determining whether a class action settlement 9 agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801). Prior to mediation, 10 Defendant produced a random twenty-five percent (25%) sampling of putative class members’ time 11 and pay data as well as Defendant’s relevant wage and hour policies, and information regarding the 12 total number of putative class members, the number of current versus former employees, the total 13 workweeks worked by the putative class members, and the average rate of pay for the putative class 14 members. (Rose Decl., ¶ 19). This allowed Class Counsel to conduct an informed assessment and 15 analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and the potential class-wide damages. (Ibid.).
16 Plaintiff’s investigation was sufficient to satisfy the criteria for court approval set forth in Dunk v. Foot
17 Locker Retail, Inc. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 and Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 18 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129-130 (“Dunk/Kullar”).

19           Based on the information exchanged, the Parties extensively briefed issues regarding class 20 certification and liability and provided their analyses to the Mediator who helped the Parties debate 21 the strengths and weakness of their respective positions. (Rose Decl., ¶ 20). At all times, Plaintiff 22 was willing and prepared to litigate this matter through class certification and trial if the Parties had 23 been unable to reach a favorable resolution. (Ibid.). Additionally, settlement negotiations were 24 conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel. (Ibid.). Class Counsel are respected members 25 of the California State Bar with strong records of vigorous and effective advocacy and are experienced 26 in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Ibid.). Accordingly, Class Counsel had 27 sufficient information and experience to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement.

28 ///

1 A settlement is not judged against what might have been recovered had a plaintiff prevailed at 2 trial, nor does the settlement have to obtain 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
3 (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 246, 250). In evaluating the reasonableness of a settlement, a trial court 4 must consider “the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of 5 further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in 6 settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and 7 views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to 8 the proposed settlement.” (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (2008)).

9 Here, the reasonableness of the Settlement is underscored by the fact that Defendant has legal 10 and factual grounds for defending the Action. Based upon Class Counsel’s experience litigating 11 similar complex matters, Plaintiff reasonably expected a vigorous and lengthy defense to both class 12 certification and the merits of the Action absent a settlement.

13 Class Counsel is aware of Defendant’s defenses and arguments and has also taken into account 14 the uncertainty and risk of the outcome of further litigation, and the difficulties and delays inherent in 15 such litigation, including those involved in class and/or representative adjudication. (Rose Decl., ¶ 16 22). Plaintiff further recognizes the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability for the claims 17 asserted in the Action, Defendant’s defenses, and the difficulties in establishing entitlement to 18 monetary recovery. (Ibid). Plaintiff has also considered the Parties’ settlement discussions, as well 19 as the evaluations of the Mediator, who is experienced and well-regarded in complex labor and 20 employment matters. (Ibid).

21 Defendant denied and continues to deny any liability and wrongdoing of any kind associated 22 with the claims alleged in the Action, and further denies that class certification is appropriate for any 23 purpose other than the Settlement. (Id., ¶ 23). Defendant believes that it would ultimately prevail in 24 the Action. (Ibid). Defendant proffered defenses to both certification and to the merits of Plaintiff’s 25 claims. (Ibid). Defendant contended that Plaintiff’s claims are not suitable for class certification 26 because individual issues would predominate should this case go to trial. (Ibid). As with all class 27 actions, these complex cases raise difficult management and proof issues and, accordingly, there is a 28 significant risk that the Court may deny class certification. (Ibid).

1 Class Counsel also recognized that, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification, proving the 2 amount of wages due to each Class Member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and extremely 3 uncertain proposition. (Id., ¶ 24). In order to prove liability and damages, Class Counsel would need 4 to request and analyze thousands of pages of documents, obtain the Class Members' contact 5 information, contact them, and obtain declarations at great expense. (Ibid.). Obtaining the cooperation 6 of current employees would also be difficult, given the likely reluctance to aid prosecution of a lawsuit 7 against a current employer. (Ibid.). On the other hand, Defendant would likely be able to obtain the 8 cooperation of its employees. (Ibid.). Moreover, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification and 9 trial, possible appeals would substantially delay any recovery by the Class. (Ibid.).

10 In light of the Parties' respective legal positions and the risks of continued litigation, the Gross 11 Settlement Amount for resolution of the Class and PAGA claims, is fair, adequate, and reasonable.
12 (Id., ¶ 25).

13 VII. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS ARE REASONABLE
14 AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

15 Class Counsel seeks thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., 16 $297,150.00) for fees for the time spent litigating this matter and reimbursement of actual costs and 17 expenses totaling Eighteen Thousand Two Hundred Twelve Dollars and Sixty-Four Cents 18 ($18,212.64) incurred in the prosecution of the Action. (Rose Decl., ¶ 26). The requested fees and 19 costs are fair compensation for undertaking complex, risky, expensive, and time-consuming litigation 20 on a contingent fee basis, especially in light of the substantial benefits achieved by Class Counsel for 21 the Class Members. (Ibid.).

22 A. Plaintiff's Fee Request of 35% of the Gross Settlement Amount 23 is Proper Under the Common Fund Doctrine

24 Courts have long recognized the "common fund" or "common benefit" doctrine, under which 25 attorneys who create a common fund or benefit for a group of persons may be awarded their fees and 26 costs to be paid out of the fund. (See Serrano v. Priest ("Serrano III") (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 27 quoting D'Amico v. Board of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1; Glendale City Employees'
28 Association v. City of Glendale (1975) 15 Cal.3d 328, 341 fn.19; Quinn v. State of California (1995)

1 15 Cal.3d 162, 16 7; see also Boeing Co. v. Van Gernert (1980) 444 U.S. 472,478; Mills v. Electric 2 Auto-Lite Co. (1970) 396 U.S. 375, 391-392).

3 The California Supreme Court has held that, “when a number of persons are entitled in 4 common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results 5 in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded attorneys’ fees 6 out of the fund.” (Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 34, quoting D’Amico, 11 Cal.3d 1; see also Boeing, 7 supra, 444 U.S. at 478 (“[A] lawyer who recovers a common fund for the benefit of persons other than 8 himself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorney’s fee from the fund as a whole.”); Mills, supra, 9 396 U.S. at 391-392 (United States Supreme Court endorsing the common fund approach in class 10 actions)). California Practice Guide: Civil Trials and Evidence (The Rutter Group) at § 17:172.3 11 explains the common fund doctrine as follows:

12 Where the lawsuit results in the recovery of a fund or property benefiting 13 others as well as plaintiff (e.g., a class action), the court has inherent 14 equitable power to order plaintiffs attorney fees paid out of the common fund or property [citations]. Such fee spreading assures that all of those benefited by the litigation pay their fair share of obtaining the recovery.

15 The percentage-of-the-fund approach appears to be the preferred method of awarding fees in 16 traditional common fund cases, such as this case. Where the settlement amount is a “certain or easily 17 calculable sum of money,” use of the percentage-of-the-fund method is appropriate. (Serrano III, 20 18 Cal. 3d at 35).

19 In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 162, 167, the California Supreme Court stated:
20 “[O]ne who expends attorneys’ fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive 21 benefits may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” Similarly, 22 in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, 110-111, the California Supreme 23 Court recognized that the common benefit doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when 24 an action brought by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.”

25 Numerous appellate courts have similarly found. (See e.g., Knoff v. City and County of San 26 Francisco (1969) 1 Cal.App.3d 184, 203-204 (court upheld a “contingent percentage” award of 27 attorneys’ fees in a representative action as the proper exercise of the court’s broad equitable powers); 28 Rider v. County of San Diego (1992) 1 I Cal.App.4th 1410, 1423 (attorneys’ fees and expenses properly

1 awarded from common benefit composed of illegally imposed sales and use tax); Bank of America v.
2 Cory (1985) 164 Cal.App.3d 66, 89-92 (fees awarded from common benefit created by action 3 compelling state to claim dormant bank accounts)).

4 The Supreme Court noted that several courts have expressed frustration with the alternative 5 “lodestar” approach for deciding fee awards, which usually involves wading through voluminous and 6 often indecipherable time records. (Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 503; see Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc.
7 (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 31 n.5 citing In re Activision Sec. Litig. (N.D. Cal 1989) 723 F. Supp. 1373, 8 1375). The percentage approach is preferable to the lodestar because: (1) it aligns the interests of class 9 counsel and absent class members; (2) it encourages efficient resolution of the litigation by providing 10 an incentive for early, yet reasonable, settlement; and (3) it reduces the demands on judicial resources.
11 (In re Activision Sec. Litig., 723 F. Supp. at 1378-79). The Ninth Circuit now routinely uses the 12 percentage of the common fund approach to determine the award of attorney’s fees. (Lealao, 82
13 Cal.App.4th at 30-31; see e.g., In re Pac. Enters. Sec. Litig. (9th Cir. 1995) 47 F.3d 373, 378-79 14 (approving attorney’s fee of 33%)).

15 A fee of thirty-five percent (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $297,150.00) is easily 16 within the range of reasonableness. Historically, courts have awarded percentage fees in the range of 17 20% to 50%, depending on the circumstances of the case. (See In re Activision Sec. Litig., 723 F. Supp.
18 at 1378). According to Professor Newberg: “No general rule can be articulated on what is a reasonable 19 percentage of a common fund...Usually 50 per cent of the fund is the upper limit on a reasonable fee 20 award from a common fund, in order to assure that fees do not consume a disproportionate part of the 21 recovery obtained for the class, though somewhat larger percentages are not unprecedented.”
22 (Newberg on Class Actions (4th Ed.), § 14.6). Class Counsel’s requested fee is reasonable and falls 23 well within the historical range of attorney’s fee awards under the common fund theory. Based on 24 Class Counsel’s showing of reasonableness, the Court should approve the requested fees pursuant to 25 the common fund approach.

26 B. The Circumstances of this Case Support a 35% Fee Award

27 Given the significant results achieved under the circumstances of this litigation, the requested 28 fee award is reasonable. As discussed in Sumitomo Copper Litigation, supra, 74 F. Supp. 2d at 396:

2 No one expects a lawyer whose compensation is contingent on the 3 success of his services to charge, when successful, as little as he 4 would charge a client who in advance of the litigation has agreed to 5 pay for his services, regardless of success. Nor, particularly in 6 complicated cases producing large recoveries, is it just to make a fee 7 depend solely on the reasonable amount of time expended.

8 In that vein, this Court should consider the contingent nature of this case, the uncertainty of 9 the outcome, the quality of the counsel, and the preclusion from other employment.

10 C. The Contingent Nature of This Matter

11 From the outset of the Action to the present, prosecution of this matter has involved significant 12 financial risk for Class Counsel. Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, with 13 no guarantee of recovery. Class Counsel has placed its own resources at risk to prosecute this matter 14 with no guarantee of success. The risks of this matter are apparent in that class certification would 15 likely have been a hard-fought issue, especially given the uncertainty regarding certification of cases 16 such as this. Moreover, even if class certification were granted over Defendant's opposition, there 17 was no assurance that Plaintiff would succeed at trial. (Rose Decl., ¶¶ 22-24). Despite such 18 challenges, Class Counsel was able to persuade Defendant that it faced significant liability exposure 19 such that it was willing to pay $849,000.00 to settle the Class Members' claims.

20 D. The Experience, Reputation, Ability of Counsel, and Skill in Litigation

21 Class Counsel has substantial experience in wage-and-hour and other class action litigation, 22 including litigation involving the legal issues in this matter. (Id., ¶ 29). Class Counsel's skill in 23 developing a factual record and convincing Defendant of its litigation exposure under California law 24 was essential to achieving the Settlement. Through its skill and reputation, Class Counsel was able to 25 obtain a settlement that provides an outstanding result for Class Members. (See generally Rose Decl.).

26 E. The Results Achieved

27 The excellent results achieved by the Settlement support Class Counsel's request for attorneys' 28 fees. Class Members' support for the results achieved by Class Counsel is demonstrated by the absence of any objections to either the Class Settlement or to Class Counsel's request for fees, both of which were described clearly in the Class Notice. As of the date of this Motion, Settlement Class Members will be paid, on average, approximately $2,783.91 each, which is intended to compensate them for the 1 alleged wage and hour violations they suffered during their employment. (Id., ¶ 14). This is a 2 significant benefit for the Settlement Class Members here as it represents a recovery for highly 3 disputed claims. Equally important is the fact that the State of California will receive $22,074.00 for 4 enforcement of labor laws and education of employers. (Id., ¶ 36).

5 Furthermore, the efficiency with which this litigation was conducted and resolved should be 6 rewarded. After preparing and investigating the case prior to filing the Action, Class Counsel strongly 7 litigated and then resolved the case in an efficient manner. The Class Members will directly benefit 8 from the prompt and fair resolution of their claims. They will be receiving a significant award in a 9 relatively short period of time, as opposed to waiting years to recover some undetermined amount if 10 they succeeded at trial, which is an uncertainty in itself.

11 F. Preclusion of Other Employment

12 As California law recognizes, Class Counsel's commitment to this litigation should not be 13 assessed in a vacuum. (See Serrano, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 49). A relevant factor in determining 14 attorneys' fees is whether the litigation required Class Counsel to forego other employment. (See 15 ibid). Class Counsel had to consider its workload during this litigation when considering taking on 16 additional work that was available, and which Class Counsel had to forego in order to devote the time 17 necessary to pursue this litigation. (Rose Decl., ¶ 28).

18 G. The Requested Fees Are Also Justified Under the Lodestar Method

19 Fee calculations under the lodestar method would result in a similar award, demonstrating the 20 fairness of Class Counsel's percentage fee request. Under the lodestar method, a base fee amount is 21 calculated from a compilation of time reasonably spent on the case and the reasonable hourly 22 compensation of the attorney. The base amount is then adjusted by use of a multiplier in light of 23 various factors. (Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 48). Class Counsel's hourly rates are summarized 24 in the Rose Decl. at ¶¶ 29-30.

25 One difficulty in determining the hourly rate of attorneys of similar skill and experience in the 26 relevant community is the scarcity of hourly fee-paying clients in class action litigation. (Rose Decl., 27 ¶ 30). As a practical matter, few if any employees or consumers pay attorneys' fees on an hourly basis 28 for such extensive litigation, and thus retainer agreements in such cases are based on a stepped-up

1 contingency fee (with the percentage increasing from one third to forty-five – and sometimes even 2 fifty percent, which is on par with personal injury contingency fee agreements – if the case goes to 3 trial). (Ibid). Therefore, there is no customary hourly billing rate for work that is routinely based on 4 a contingent fee relationship, but the nature of class action work should be strongly considered by the 5 Court. (Ibid). Wage and hour work presents a specialized and challenging area of law that is not 6 within the knowledge of many lawyers. (Ibid). This kind of class action work requires specialized 7 learning and the willingness to take large risks. (Ibid).

8 Class Counsel has spent approximately 259.90 total hours litigating these claims to date.<sup>2</sup> (Id., 9 ¶ 30). Class Counsel expects to spend another 10 hours in connection with the final approval process 10 (including preparing for and attending the Final Approval Hearing, and managing the Settlement 11 through its conclusion, including anticipated communications with defense counsel, the Settlement 12 Administrator, our client, and Class Members). (Id., ¶ 31). In addition to time spent during litigation, 13 reasonable hours also include the time spent before the Action was filed, including time spent 14 interviewing the client, investigating the facts and the law, preparing the initial pleadings, as well as 15 litigating the case. (Webb v. Board of Educ. (1985) 471 U.S. 234). Further, the fee award should 16 include fees incurred to establish and defend the attorneys’ fee claim. (Serrano v. Priest (1982) 32
17 Cal.3d 621, 639 (“Serrano IV”). Based on the rates of Class Counsel, the total fees incurred to date 18 are $232,228. (Rose Decl., ¶ 30). By the conclusion of this matter, the total fees are estimated to be 19 approximately $239,718. (Id., ¶ 31).

20 In cases where a common fund analysis is not used, once the court establishes the lodestar 21 amount, it should adjust the fee award by a multiplier in order to make an appropriate fee award.
22 (Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 48). In applying the multiplier, Newberg on Class Actions states that 23 “[m]ultiples ranging from one to four frequently are awarded in common fund cases when the lodestar 24 method is applied. A large common fund award may warrant an even larger multiplier.” (4 Newberg
25

26 <sup>2</sup> In Martino v. Denevi (1986) 182 Cal.App.3d 553, 559, the court addressed the issue of what evidence is required in 27 California to support a fee application. The court held: “Testimony of an attorney as to the number of hours worked on a 28 particular case is sufficient evidence to support an award of attorney fees, even in the absence of detailed time records.”
Id. There is no need to attach the voluminous invoices prepared in a case as a basis for an award of fees and costs. Id.
Through Class Counsel's declaration in support of this application, however, Plaintiff presents a thorough breakdown of the hours spent and costs incurred in prosecuting this class action. Pursuant to Martino, supra, this presentation is sufficient to support the amount requested.

1 on Class Actions 4th (4th ed. 2002) § 14.6). If the class members paid the fees that the market would 2 bear, they would pay a fee of anywhere from one-third to forty-five percent of any recovery. Since 3 this is the market rate, the lodestar calculation should be enhanced to reflect what the class members 4 would pay on the open market. (Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 47-48).

5 In Lealao, the court held that trial courts should award lodestar fees by examining the 6 percentage-of-the-benefit and adjusting the lodestar calculation accordingly. (Id. at 49 and 53). The 7 court indicated that this is an upward adjustment and should be akin to a contingency fee recovery; 8 the court stated, “[a]n adjustment reflecting the amount of the class recovery is not significantly 9 different from an adjustment reflecting a percentage of that amount; and California courts have 10 evaluated a lodestar as a percentage of the benefit.” (Id. at 46). The Lealao method appears 11 particularly appropriate because class actions generally are contingency fee cases for plaintiffs - and 12 the class action clients do not expect to pay an hourly fee.

13 The rationale of Lealao comports with the purpose of the multiplier. The multiplier is 14 “primarily to compensate the attorney for the prevailing party at a rate reflecting the risk of 15 nonpayment in contingency cases.” (Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1138). The Lealao 16 court reasoned:

17 Given the unique reliance of our legal system on private litigants to enforce 18 substantive provisions of law through class and derivative actions, attorneys 19 providing the essential enforcement services must be provided incentives 20 roughly comparable to those negotiated in the private bargaining that takes 21 place in the legal marketplace, as it will otherwise be economic for 22 defendants to increase injurious behavior. It has therefore been urged (most 23 persistently by Judge Richard Posner) that in defining a reasonable fee in 24 such representative actions, the law should mimic the market.

25 In the class action context, that would mean attempting to award the fee that 26 informed private bargaining, if it were truly possible, might have reached.
27 The simplest way for the law to duplicate the bargain that informed parties 28 would reach if agency costs were low is to look to fee award levels in actions brought by sophisticated private parties under the same or comparable statutes.

(Lealao, 82 Cal.App.4th at 47-48 (internal citations and quotations omitted)). The court added:

[T]rial judges need the flexibility Serrano III provides, as it enables them to relate fee awards to the economic realities that determine the efficacy of the private enforcement contemplated by our civil justice system.
Accordingly, we hold that, in cases in which the value of the class recovery can be monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty and it is not otherwise inappropriate, a trial court has discretion to adjust the basic lodestar through the application of a positive or negative multiplier where

1 necessary to ensure that the fee awarded is within the range of fees freely 2 negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation.
(Id. at 49-50).

3 In looking at similar cases, including those set forth above, Class Counsel's requested fee 4 comports to the market. Based on the reasonable hourly rates suggested by Class Counsel and the 5 collective hours worked in this matter, the requested fee award would represent a modest multiplier of 6 1.28 over the current total fee lodestar. In this regard, Class Counsel's fee request is reasonable.

7 H. No Class Member Objected to the Requested Attorneys' Fee Award

8 Class Counsel's intention to request the Court's approval for payment of attorneys' fees was 9 clearly disclosed to each Class Member in the Court-approved Class Notice. (Rose Decl., ¶ 33). As 10 of the filing of this Motion, there has not been a single objection to the request for attorneys' fees.
11 (Apex Decl., ¶ 10). It is fair to conclude that the Class approves of/does not take issue with the 12 requested award of attorneys' fees. Based thereon, Class Counsel's request for thirty-five percent 13 (35%) of the Gross Settlement Amount, equaling Two Hundred Ninety-Seven Thousand One Hundred 14 Fifty Dollars and Zero Cents ($297,150.00), should be granted.

15 I. Plaintiff's Cost Request is Reasonable

16 Class Counsel seeks reimbursement of a total amount of Eighteen Thousand Two Hundred 17 Twelve Dollars and Sixty-Four Cents ($18,212.64) in costs and expenses in this matter, which includes 18 reasonable future costs for filing the Motion. (Rose Decl., ¶ 32 and Exh. 4). All costs and expenses 19 were reasonably incurred in prosecution of this matter.

20 VIII. THE REQUESTED ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT TO PLAINTIFF IS 21 REASONABLE

22 The named Plaintiff should be awarded an Enhancement Payment in the amount of Seven 23 Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($7,500.00) for her services as the Class
24 Representative and the risks in connection with that role. (Id., ¶ 34). Enhancement awards in wage 25 and hour cases typically range from $5,000.00 to $20,000.00, although some awards are higher. (Ibid.).
26 Often, multiple class representatives receive awards in the above range. (See e.g., Munoz v. BCI Coca-
27 Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 412 [approving an enhancement request 28 of $10,000.00 per named plaintiff in a 188 member class]; Cook v. Niedert, 142 F.3d 1004, 1016 (7th Cir. 1998); Thornton v. East Texas Motor Freight, 497 F.2d 416, 420 (6th Cir. 1974) ["We also think

1 there is something to be said for rewarding those drivers who protect and help to bring rights to a 2 group of employees who have been the victims of discrimination.”]). Here, the requested 3 Enhancement Payment is modest, reasonable, and should be approved.

4 Plaintiff’s actions establish that: (1) she sought to protect the interests of the Class above her 5 own personal interests; (2) the Settlement Class Members will be benefitted from her actions by 6 receiving a payment without having to do anything; and (3) Plaintiff has put forth a significant amount 7 of time and effort pursuing the litigation and seeing it through to resolution. (See, generally, Jean 8 Decl.; see also Clark v. American Residential Services LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 804).

9 The requested award for Plaintiff is also reasonable given the financial and personal risk she 10 took in commencing the Action, and in light of the benefits that her actions have conferred upon the 11 Class. (Jean Decl., ¶ 7; See also Van Vranken v. Atl. Richfield Co. (N.D.Cal. 1995) 901 F.Supp. 294, 12 299-300). Additionally, in considering a requested class representative enhancement award, courts 13 take into consideration a plaintiff’s reasonable fear of retaliation. (Staton v. Boeing Co. (9th Cir. 2003) 14 327 F.3d 938, 977). Here, it is easy to see that a potential future employer could expend little effort 15 to discover Plaintiff brought the lawsuit – and based thereon, decline to offer Plaintiff employment.

16 In sum, Plaintiff has performed considerable services on behalf of the Class during the 17 litigation. (See, generally, Jean Decl.). Class Counsel cannot understate the importance of the role of 18 an employee who is willing to search out an attorney and step forward to assume the risk of litigation 19 and retaliation in order to represent a class and put the interests of the class before their own interests.
20 Plaintiff has understood that this is a class action where she is serving as the Class Representative and 21 must protect the Class Members’ interests. (Jean Decl., ¶ 10). Plaintiff was the catalyst to the benefit 22 reached for the Class Members, and has actively protected the Class Members’ interests during the 23 pendency of this matter and will continue to do so even if the case was required to go to trial. (Ibid.).
24 Plaintiff spent numerous hours participating in this matter by searching for an attorney, 25 communicating with her attorneys on numerous occasions, searching for and producing relevant 26 documents related to her employment, responding to her attorneys’ inquiries, reviewing the settlement 27 documents, and approving the Settlement on behalf of all Class Members. (See, generally, Jean Decl.).

28 ///

1 In contrast, without having to take on any of the risk incurred by Plaintiff or time spent by 2 Plaintiff in litigating this matter, Settlement Class Members will automatically be issued a payment 3 for their claims. It appears that the Settlement Class Members recognize this enhancement was 4 justified because since the time the Class received notice of the requested Enhancement Payment, no 5 one has objected to the request. Thus, the Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff is warranted to 6 compensate her for her time and effort, the fear and stress associated with assuming the responsibility 7 of serving as the Class Representative, and the concrete risks she assumed as the Class Representative.

8 IX. THE REQUESTED SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION COSTS ARE 9 REASONABLE

10 In Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval, Plaintiff requested, and the Court approved, 11 Settlement Administration Costs not to exceed Eight Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($8,000.00).
12 (Rose Decl., ¶ 35). Apex Class Action LLC is the approved Settlement Administrator. (Ibid). It is 13 an experienced class administrator and has adequately performed the administration tasks required by 14 the Preliminary Approval Order. Apex Class Action LLC's actual costs to administer the Settlement 15 are only Five Thousand Nine Hundred Ninety Dollars and Zero Cents ($5,990.00). (Apex Decl., ¶ 17 16 and Exh. B). Based thereon, the requested costs should be approved.

17 X. THE PROPOSED LWDA ALLOCATION IS REASONABLE

18 Pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2699(1), the Superior Court shall review and 19 approve the settlement of penalties sought under that California Labor Code Section. (Cal. Lab. Code 20 § 2699(1)). For all of the reasons stated above, the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and 21 should be approved. As part of the Settlement, Defendant has agreed to pay Thirty-Three Thousand 22 Nine Hundred Sixty Dollars and Zero Cents ($33,960.00) to settle the claims of the PAGA Employees
23 brought pursuant to PAGA, of which the payment of Twenty-Two Thousand Seventy-Four Dollars
24 and Zero Cents ($22,074.00) (65% of the PAGA Amount) will be paid to the LWDA for education 25 and enforcement purposes. (Rose Decl., ¶ 36).

26 It is extremely common in approved wage and hour class action cases that settle that only a 27 small portion of the total settlement is paid to PAGA penalties "in order to maximize payments to 28 class members." (Magadia v. Wal-Mart Assocs. (N.D. Cal. May 31, 2019, No. 17-CV-00062-LHK) 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 91732, *90-91, citing as examples Ceja-Corona v. CVS Pharm., Inc. (E.D.

1 Cal. Jan. 14, 2015) 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 5118, 2015 WL 222500, at *2-3 [preliminarily approving 2 $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a total settlement amount of $900,000]; Thio v. Genji, LLC (N.D.
3 Cal. 2014) 14 F. Supp. 3d 1324, 1330 [preliminarily approving $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a 4 total settlement amount of $1,250,000]; Franco v. Ruiz Food Prods. (E.D. Cal. Nov. 27, 2012) 2012
5 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 169057, 2012 WL 5941801, at *14 [granting final approval of $10,000 in PAGA
6 penalties out of a total settlement amount of $2,500,000]; Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc. (E.D. Cal.
7 Oct. 31, 2012) 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 160052, 2012 WL 5364575, at *3 [granting final approval of 8 $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a total settlement amount of $3,700,000]; Chu v. Wells Fargo Invs., 9 LLC (N.D. Cal. Feb. 16, 2011) 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 15821, 2011 WL 672645, at *1 [granting final 10 approval of $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a total settlement amount of $6,900,000]). Like here, 11 in these approved settlements, the parties generally maximized statutory penalties and minimized 12 PAGA penalties to focus on claims to the class members, the persons who actually suffered the 13 California Labor Code violations. (Rose Decl., ¶ 37).

14 XI. THE CLASS RECEIVED THE BEST PRACTICABLE NOTICE

15 California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an appropriate notice 16 program. (See California Civil Code § 1781; Cartt v. Superior Court (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-17 74). To protect the rights of absent class members, the parties must provide class members with the 18 best notice practicable of a potential class action settlement. (Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts (1985)
19 472 U.S. 797, 811-12; Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin (1974) 417 U.S. 156, 174-76 [individual notice 20 must be sent to all class members who can be identified through reasonable efforts]; Mullane v. Central 21 Hanover Bank & Garretson Company (1950) 339 U.S. 306, 314 [best practicable notice is that which 22 is “reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of 23 the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections”]). The content and method of 24 the notice should be designed to apprise the class members of the terms of the proposed settlement 25 and of the class members’ rights regarding the settlement. (See Mullane, supra, 339 U.S. at 314;
26 Philadelphia Housing Authority v. American Radiator & Standard Sanitary Corp. (E.D. Pa. 1970) 323 27 F. Supp. 364, 378).

28 ///

1 The Class Notice approved by the Court met these requirements: it identified the Parties and 2 described the Action, the Class, the Gross Settlement Amount, the proposed method for distribution 3 of the Gross Settlement Amount, the amounts proposed to be paid as the Enhancement Payment to 4 Plaintiff, the Settlement Administration Costs to the Settlement Administrator, and the Attorneys' Fees
5 and Costs to Class Counsel. (Rose Decl., ¶ 38). The Class Notice described the proposed Settlement 6 with enough specificity to allow each Class Member to make an informed choice whether to accept 7 and participate in it. (Ibid). It also explained how and when Class Members may object to or opt out 8 of the Class Settlement. (Ibid). Finally, the Class Notice provided the date for the hearing on final 9 approval of the Settlement and informed Class Members how to obtain additional information about 10 the Settlement. (Ibid).

11 XII. CONCLUSION

12 For all of the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant Plaintiff's 13 Motion for Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement, and approve: (1) the requested 14 attorneys' fees to Class Counsel of $297,150.00; (2) the requested reimbursement of actual costs and 15 expenses to Class Counsel of $18,212.64; (3) the requested Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff of 16 $7,500.00; and (4) the requested Settlement Administration Costs to the Settlement Administrator of 17 $5,990.00; and permit the filing of a memorandum that exceeds the page limit.

18 Respectfully submitted,

19 Dated: January 9, 2026
