Demand for Jury Trial

1 Plaintiff Lucia Magana (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of herself, the State of California, as a private 2 attorney general, and all other similarly situated employees within the State of California, complains
3 and alleges of defendants Bay Contract Maintenance, Inc., JSN Bay Contract, Inc., and Does 1 to 50
4 (collectively, “Defendants”), and each of them, as follows:

5 I. INTRODUCTION

6 1. This is a class action complaint brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure 7 section 382.

8 2. The “Class Period” as used herein, is defined as the period from April 4, 2021, and 9 continuing into the present and ongoing. Defendants’ violations of California’s laws as described more 10 fully below have been ongoing throughout the Class Period and are still ongoing.

11 3. Plaintiff brings this class action on behalf of herself and the following class: All 12 individuals who are or were employed by Defendants as non-exempt employees in California during 13 the Class Period (the “Class Members”). (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.)

14 4. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and the Class Members, as a class action, 15 against Defendants for:

- 16 A. Failure to pay all minimum wages,
- 17 B. Failure to pay all overtime wages,
- 18 C. Failure to pay accrued vacation wages,
- 19 D. Failure to provide rest periods and pay missed rest period premiums,
- 20 E. Failure to provide meal periods and pay missed meal period premiums,
- 21 F. Failure to maintain accurate employment records,
- 22 G. Failure to pay wages timely during employment,
- 23 H. Failure to pay all wages earned and unpaid at separation,
- 24 I. Failure to indemnify all necessary business expenditures,
- 25 J. Failure to furnish accurate itemized wage statements,
- 26 K. Failure to fully pay all sick leave wages, and
- 27 L. Violations of California’s Unfair Competition Law (“UCL”) (Bus. & Prof.
28 Code, §§ 17200–17210).

1 5. This action is also a representative action brought pursuant to the California Labor Code
2 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), codified at California Labor Code sections 2698 3 through 2699.6.

4 6. The “PAGA Period” as used herein, is defined as the period from April 4, 2024, and 5 continuing into the present and ongoing.

6 7. This PAGA action is brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California as private 7 attorney general, and on behalf of the following aggrieved employees: All individuals who are or were 8 employed by Defendants as non-exempt employees in California during the PAGA Period (the 9 “Aggrieved Employees”).

10 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the California Industrial 11 Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order applicable to the facts of this case is IWC Wage Order 5-12 2001 (the “Applicable Wage Order”) and possibly others that may be applicable. (Cal. Code of Regs., 13 tit. 8, § 11050.) Plaintiff reserves the right to amend or modify the definition of “Applicable Wage 14 Order” with greater specificity or add additional IWC Wage Orders if additional applicable wage orders 15 are discovered in litigation.

16 II. JURISDICTION & VENUE

17 9. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over all causes of action asserted herein 18 pursuant to Article VI, section 10, of the California Constitution and Code of Civil Procedure section 19 410.10 because this is a civil action in which the matter in controversy, exclusive of interest, exceeds 20 $25,000, and because each cause of action asserted arises under the laws of the State of California or 21 is subject to adjudication in the courts of the State of California.

22 10. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants have caused 23 injuries in the County of Alameda and the State of California through their acts, and by their violation 24 of the California Labor Code and California state common law. Defendants transact millions of dollars 25 of business within the State of California. Defendants own, maintain offices, transact business, have an 26 agent or agents within the County of Alameda, and/or otherwise are found within the County of 27 Alameda, and Defendants are within the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of service of process.
28

1 11. Venue as to Defendants is proper in this judicial district, pursuant to section 395 of the 2 Code of Civil Procedure. Defendants operate within California and do business within Alameda 3 County, California. The unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and all of 4 Defendants' employees identified above within Alameda County and surrounding counties where 5 Defendants may remotely operate.

6 12. This matter is not appropriate for removal under the Class Action Fairness Act (28 7 U.S.C. § 1332) as the amount in controversy for Plaintiff's and the Class Members' claims, in 8 aggregate, is less than $5 million. Additionally, all the allegations herein occurred in the State of 9 California. As such, even if the amount in controversy did exceed $5 million this matter would still not 10 be appropriate for removal under the "local controversy" exception to the Class Action Fairness Act.
11 (28 U.S.C. § 1332, subd. (d)(4)(A).)

12 III. THE PARTIES

13 A. PLAINTIFF

14 13. At all relevant times, Plaintiff, who is over the age of 18, was and currently is a citizen 15 of California residing in the State of California. Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt hourly 16 employee in the County of Alameda.

17 14. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and the following class pursuant to 18 section 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure as follows: All individuals who are or were employed by 19 Defendants as non-exempt employees in California during the Class Period (the "Class Members").

20 15. Plaintiff also brings this action on behalf of herself and the State of California, as a 21 private attorney general, and on behalf of the following group of aggrieved employees: All individuals
22 who are or were employed by Defendants as non-exempt employees in California during the PAGA 23 Period (the "Aggrieved Employees").

24 16. The Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees, at all times pertinent hereto, are or 25 were employees of Defendants during the relevant statutory period.

26 B. DEFENDANTS

27 17. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants were authorized 28 to and doing business in Alameda County and is and/or was the legal employer of Plaintiff, the other

1 Aggrieved Employees, and the other Class Members during the applicable statutory periods. Plaintiff, 2 the other Aggrieved Employees, and the other Class Members were, and are, subject to Defendants' 3 policies and/or practices complained of herein and have been deprived of the rights guaranteed to them 4 by: California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 5 1174, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2802, 2804, and others that may be 6 applicable; California Business and Professions Code sections 17200 through 17210 ("UCL"); and the 7 Applicable Wage Order (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, § 11050).

8 18. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the Class 9 Period and PAGA Period, Defendants did (and continue to do) business in the State of California, 10 County of Alameda.

11 19. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 12 corporate, of the defendants sued herein as Does 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said defendants 13 are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to amend this 14 complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed, and believes, and 15 thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual, partners, or corporate, were 16 responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein, and proximately caused Plaintiff, 17 the other Aggrieved Employees, and the other Class Members to be subject to the unlawful employment 18 practices, wrongs, injuries, and damages complained of herein.

19 20. Plaintiff is informed, and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times mentioned 20 herein, Defendants were and/or are the employers of Plaintiff, the other Aggrieved Employees, and the 21 other Class Members. At all times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing 22 of the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendants. Furthermore, the 23 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, representatives, and employees of each and every one 24 of the other Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned were acting within the course and scope of 25 said agency, representation, and employment. Defendants, and each of them, approved of, condoned, 26 or otherwise ratified every one of the acts or omissions complained of herein.

27 21. Plaintiff is further informed, and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times
28 mentioned herein, that Defendants, and each of them, are the alter egos of one another and that there

1 existed and now exists a unity of interest and ownership between them such that the individuality and 2 separateness of each of them has ceased. Plaintiff is further informed, and believes, and thereon alleges,
3 that at all times mentioned herein, that Defendants, and each of them, have been and now are mere 4 shells and naked frameworks that their principal uses for the conduct of that Defendant's own business, 5 property, and affairs, for which Defendants, and each of them, have concealed and misrepresented their 6 identities as the entities responsible for their ownership, management, and financial interests.

7 22. Plaintiff is further informed, and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times
8 mentioned herein, Defendants, and each of them, were members of and engaged in a joint venture, 9 partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course and scope of and in pursuance of said 10 joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise. Further, Plaintiff is informed, and believes, and 11 thereon alleges, that all Defendants were joint employers for all purposes of Plaintiff, the other 12 Aggrieved Employees, and the other Class Members.

13 IV. COMMON FACTS & ALLEGATIONS

14 23. Plaintiff and the other Class Members (collectively, the "Class Members") are, and were 15 at all relevant times, employed by the Defendants within the State of California.

16 24. Likewise, Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees (collectively, the "Aggrieved 17 Employees") are, and were at all relevant times, employed by the Defendants within the State of 18 California.

19 25. The Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees are, and were, at all relevant times, 20 non-exempt employees for the purposes of minimum wages, overtime, rest breaks, meal periods, and 21 the other claims alleged in this complaint.

22 26. Specifically, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants within the statutory Class Period 23 and PAGA Period, working as an hourly, non-exempt Janitor for Defendants. Plaintiff's duties included 24 cleaning of building, including but not limited to, dusting, sweeping, mopping and taking out the trash, 25 ordering supplies/snacks for the kitchen, taking inventory of kitchen supplies/snacks and putting away 26 kitchen supplies/snacks.

1 A. MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS

2 27. Labor Code section 1197 requires employees to be paid at least the minimum wage fixed 3 by the IWC, and any payment of less than the minimum wage is unlawful. Similarly, Labor Code 4 section 1194 entitles “any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage . . . to recover in a 5 civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage.” Likewise, the Applicable 6 Wage Order also obligates employers to pay each employee minimum wages for all hours worked.
7 (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, § 11050.) Labor Code section 1198 makes unlawful the employment of an 8 employee under conditions that the IWC Wage Orders prohibit.

9 28. These minimum wage standards apply to each hour that employees work. Therefore, an 10 employer’s failure to pay for any particular time worked by an employee is unlawful, even if averaging 11 an employee’s total pay over all hours worked, paid or not, results in an average hourly wage above 12 minimum wage. (Armenta v. Osmose, Inc. (2005) 135 Cal.App.4th 314, 324.)

13 29. Here, Defendants failed to fully conform their pay practices to the requirements of the 14 law during the relevant statutory periods. The Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees were not 15 compensated for all hours worked including, but not limited to, all hours they were subject to the control
16 of Defendants and/or suffered or permitted to work under the California Labor Code and the Applicable 17 Wage Order. Among other violations, the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees were subject 18 to the control of Defendants while off-the-clock and did not receive minimum wage for each hour 19 worked.

20 30. Additionally, the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees were not paid all wages 21 for all hours worked due to Defendants’ uniform payroll policies and practices that unfairly rounded 22 employees’ wages to the detriment of the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees. This rounding 23 policy routinely failed to capture the entirety of the hours the Class Members and the Aggrieved 24 Employees worked and was structured in a way that in favored underpayment. (See See’s Candy Shops, 25 Inc. v. Superior Court (2012) 210 Cal.App.4th 889, 907.) As a result, the Class Members and the 26 Aggrieved Employees suffered periodic shortages in the hours for which they were compensated. This 27 uncompensated time violated California’s requirement that employees be compensated for all hours 28

1 worked. As a result of this practice, the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees were not 2 compensated their minimum wages for all hours worked.

3 31. Labor Code sections 1194, subdivision (a), and 1194.2, subdivision (a), provide that an 4 employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay those employees 5 the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages 6 due and interest thereon.

7 32. When employees, such as the Class Members, are not paid for all hours worked under 8 Labor Code section 1194, they are entitled to recover minimum wages for the time which they received
9 no compensation. (See Sillah v. Command International Security Services (N.D. Cal. 2015) 154 10 F.Supp.3d 891 [employees suing for failure to pay overtime could recover liquidated damages under 11 Labor Code section 1194.2 if they also showed they were paid less than minimum wage].)

12 33. Labor Code section 1197.1 authorizes employees who are paid less than the minimum 13 wage fixed by an applicable state or local law, or by an order of the IWC, a civil penalty, among other 14 damages, as follows:

15 (1) “For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred 16 dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for 17 which the employee is underpaid.”

18 (2) “For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two 19 hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay 20 period for which the employee is underpaid regardless of whether the 21 initial violation is intentionally committed.” (Lab. Code, § 1197.1, subd.
22 (a).)

23 34. As set forth above, Defendants failed to fully compensate the Class Members and the 24 Aggrieved Employees for all minimum wages. Accordingly, the Class Members are entitled to recover 25 liquidated damages for violations of Labor Code section 1197.1.

26 35. Based upon these same factual allegations, the Class Members are likewise entitled to 27 penalties under Labor Code sections 1199.
28

1 B. OVERTIME VIOLATIONS

2 36. Labor Code section 510 requires employers to compensate employees who work more 3 than eight hours in one workday, forty hours in a workweek, and for the first eight hours worked on 4 the seventh consecutive day no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee.
5 (Lab. Code, § 510, subd. (a).) Further, Labor Code section 510 obligates employers to compensate 6 employees at no less than twice the regular rate of pay when an employee works more than twelve 7 hours in a day or more than eight hours on the seventh consecutive day of work. (Lab. Code, § 510, 8 subd. (a).) These rules are also reflected in the Applicable Wage Order.

9 37. In accordance with Labor Code section 1194 and the Applicable Wage Order, the Class 10 Members and the Aggrieved Employees could not then agree and cannot now agree to work for a lesser 11 wage than the amount provided by Labor Code sections 510 or the Applicable Wage Order.

12 38. Here, Defendants violated their duty to accurately and completely compensate the Class 13 Members and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime worked. The Class Members and the 14 Aggrieved Employees periodically worked hours that entitled them to overtime compensation under 15 the law but were not fully compensated for those hours.

16 39. Defendants also had a policy and practice of denying the Class Members and the 17 Aggrieved Employees meal breaks, but nevertheless deducting meal break time from the Class 18 Members' and the Aggrieved Employees' pay. As a result, the Class Members' and the Aggrieved 19 Employees' on-the-clock hours were unlawfully reduced below what was actually worked and, by 20 extension, overtime hours were also reduced below what was actually worked. The Class Members 21 and the Aggrieved Employees were thus periodically shorted the full amount of overtime pay lawfully 22 owed.

23 40. Moreover, during the relevant statutory periods, Defendants had a policy and practice 24 of failing to pay overtime wages at the proper rate when it actually paid overtime. Specifically, when 25 Defendants paid overtime wages to the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees, Defendants 26 failed to include all compensation when calculating the regular rate of pay used in overtime calculations 27 and when paying overtime.
28

1 41. For instance, the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees would often receive, 2 along with their hourly rates of pay for their working hours, additional remuneration and/or non-3 discretionary bonus pay. Defendants, however, calculated the regular rate of pay for the Class Members 4 and the Aggrieved Employees without factoring into the regular rate of pay all other non-hourly pay
5 earnings received during the pay period. As a result, the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees 6 were underpaid overtime wages when they worked in excess of eight hours in any workday and/or forty 7 hours in a workweek when such additional forms of remuneration were earned. By its practice of 8 periodically requiring the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of eight 9 hours in a workday and/or forty hours in a workweek without compensating them at the rate of one and 10 one-half (1½) their regular rate of pay, Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Labor Code 11 sections 510, 1194, and 1199.

12 42. These actions were and are in clear violation of California’s overtime laws as set forth 13 in Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1199, and the Applicable Wage Order. (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, § 14 11050.) As a result of Defendants’ faulty policies and practices, the Class Members and the Aggrieved 15 Employees were not compensated for all hours worked or paid accurate overtime compensation.

16 C. UNPAID ACCRUED VACATION TIME

17 43. California Labor Code section 227.3 states that:

18 “[W]hensoever a contract of employment or employer policy provides for paid 19 vacations, and an employee is terminated without having taken off his vested 20 vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to him as wages at his final rate 21 in accordance with such contract of employment or employer policy respecting 22 eligibility or time served; provided, however, that an employment contract or 23 employer policy shall not provide for forfeiture of vested vacation time upon 24 termination.”

25 44. Thus, when an employer has a vacation policy, it must pay out all accrued but unused 26 vacation time upon termination. An employer may not adopt policies that require forfeiture of vested 27 vacation time without compensation. (Rhea v. General Atomics (2014) 227 Cal.App.4th 1560, 1571 28 [“California law prohibits an employer from requiring the forfeiture of vacation time”].)

1 45. Here, Defendants had a vacation policy, and the Class Members and the Aggrieved 2 Employees had completed all prerequisites and/or necessary limitations of service required by 3 Defendants' vacation policy to accumulate vested vacation pay. Despite that fact, many of the Class 4 Members and the Aggrieved Employees were denied all accrued but unused vacation time at 5 termination in violation of California law.

6 46. By failing to pay accrued vacation time at termination of employment, Defendants have 7 violated California Labor Code provisions including, but not limited to, sections 201, 202, and 227.3.

8 D. REST BREAK VIOLATIONS

9 47. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7 and the Applicable Wage Order, Defendants were 10 and are required to provide the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees with compensated, duty-11 free rest periods of not less than ten minutes for every major fraction of four hours worked. Under the 12 Applicable Wage Order, an employer must authorize and permit all employees to take ten minute duty
13 free rest periods for every major fraction of four hours worked. (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, § 11050.)

14 48. Likewise, Labor Code section 226.7 provides that “[a]n employer shall not require an 15 employee to work during a meal or rest or recovery period mandated pursuant to an applicable statute, 16 or applicable regulation, standard, or order of the Industrial Welfare Commission” (Lab. Code, § 17 226.7, subd. (b).) Labor Code section 226.7 also provides that employers must pay their employees one 18 additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate for each workday that a “meal or rest or recovery 19 period is not provided.” (Lab. Code, § 226.7, subd. (c).) The “regular rate” for these purposes must 20 factor in all nondiscretionary payments for work performed by the employee, including non-21 discretionary bonuses, commissions, and other forms of wage payments exceeding the employees’ base 22 hourly rate. (Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC (2021) 11 Cal.5th 858, 878.) Thus, the Wage 23 Orders set when and for how long the rest period must take place and the Labor Code establishes that 24 violations of the IWC Wage Orders are unlawful and sets forth the premium pay employer must pay 25 their employees when employers fail to provide rest periods.

26 49. The California Supreme Court has held that, during required rest periods, “employers 27 must relieve their employees of all duties and relinquish any control over how employees spend their 28 break time.” (Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 260.) Relinquishing

1 control over employees during rest periods requires that employees be “free to leave the employer’s 2 premises” and be “permitted to attend to personal business.” (Id. at p. 275.) The Brinker Court 3 explained in the context of rest breaks that employer liability attaches from adopting an unlawful 4 policy:

5 “An employer is required to authorize and permit the amount of rest break time 6 called for under the wage order for its industry. If it does not—if, for example, 7 it adopts a uniform policy authorizing and permitting only one rest break for 8 employees working a seven-hour shift when two are required—it has violated 9 the wage order and is liable.” (Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Superior Court (2012) 53
10 Cal.4th 1004, 1033.)

11 50. Here, Defendants periodically did not permit the Class Members and the Aggrieved 12 Employees to take compliant duty-free rest breaks, free from Defendants’ control as required by Labor 13 Code section 226.7, the Applicable Wage Order, and applicable precedent. (See Augustus v. ABM 14 Security Services, Inc. (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 269 [concluding that “during rest periods employers must 15 relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time.”].) At all 16 relevant times, the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees were periodically not provided with 17 legally-compliant and timely rest periods of at least ten minutes for each four hour work period, or 18 major fraction thereof due to Defendants’ unlawful rest period policies/practices. The Class Members 19 and the Aggrieved Employees were often expected and required to continue working through rest 20 periods to meet the expectations Defendants and finish the workday. In some cases when the Class 21 Members and the Aggrieved Employees worked more than ten hours in a shift, Defendants failed to 22 authorize and/or permit a third mandated rest period. As a result, the Class Members and the Aggrieved 23 Employees were periodically unable to take compliant rest periods.

24 51. In such cases where Defendants did not offer the Class Members and the Aggrieved 25 Employees the opportunity to receive a compliant off-duty rest period, “the court may not conclude 26 employees voluntarily chose to skip those breaks.” (Alberts v. Aurora Behavioral Health Care (2015)
27 241 Cal.App.4th 388, 410 (2015) [“If an employer fails to provide legally compliant meal or rest 28 breaks, the court may not conclude employees voluntarily chose to skip those breaks.”]; Brinker Rest.

1 Corp. v. Superior Court, supra, 53 Cal.4th at p. 1033 [“No issue of waiver ever arises for a rest break 2 that was required by law but never authorized; if a break is not authorized, an employee has no
3 opportunity to decline to take it.”].)

4 52. In addition to failing to authorize and permit compliant rest periods, the Class Members
5 and the Aggrieved Employees were not compensated with one hour’s worth of pay at their regular rate
6 of compensation when they were not provided with a compliant rest period in accordance with Labor 7 Code section 226.7, subdivision (c). Thus, Defendants have violated Labor Code section 226.7 and the 8 Applicable Wage Order.

9 53. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff seeks to recover, on behalf of herself and other non-10 exempt employees, rest period premiums and penalties.

11 E. MEAL BREAK VIOLATIONS

12 54. Labor Code section 512 and the Applicable Wage Order require employers to provide 13 employees with a thirty-minute uninterrupted and duty-free meal period within the first five hours of 14 work. (Lab. Code, § 512, subd. (a) [“An employer shall not employ an employee for a work period of 15 more than five hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than 30
16 minutes”]; Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, § 11050 [“No employer shall employ any person for a work 17 period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes”].)
18 Additionally, an employee who works more than ten hours per day is entitled to receive a second thirty-19 minute uninterrupted and duty-free meal period. (Lab. Code, § 512, subd. (a) [“An employer shall not 20 employ an employee for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the employee 21 with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes”].)

22 55. “An on-duty meal period is permitted only when the nature of the work prevents an 23 employee from being relieved of all duty and the parties agree in writing to an on-duty paid meal 24 break.” (Lubin v. The Wackenhut Corp. (2016) 5 Cal.App.5th 926, 932.) The written agreement must 25 include a provision allowing the employee to revoke it at any time. (Ibid.) Generally, the California
26 Department of Industrial Relations, Division of Labor Standards Enforcement (“DLSE”) and courts 27 have “found that the nature of the work exception applies: (1) where the work has some particular 28 external force that requires the employee to be on duty at all times, and (2) where the employee is the

1 sole employee of a particular employer.” (Id. at p. 945, internal quotation marks omitted; Abdullah v.
2 U.S. Security Associates, Inc. (9th Cir. 2013) 731 F.3d 952, 958–959.) “[I]t is the employer’s obligation 3 to determine whether the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved before requiring 4 an employee to take an on-duty meal period.” (Lubin v. The Wackenhut Corp., supra, 5 Cal.App.5th at 5 p. 946.)

6 56. Here, the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees were never asked to sign any 7 enforceable document agreeing to an on-duty meal period. Moreover, nothing in the nature of their 8 work involved the kind of “external force” that might justify on-duty meal breaks. (Lubin v. The 9 Wackenhut Corp., supra, 5 Cal.App.5th at p. 945.) Nevertheless, Defendants periodically did not 10 provide compliant off-duty meal periods within the first five hours of work for the Class Members and 11 the Aggrieved Employees.

12 57. As with rest breaks, meal breaks must be duty-free. (Brinker Restaurant Corp. v.
13 Superior Court (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1035 [“The IWC’s wage orders have long made a meal period’s 14 duty-free nature its defining characteristic.”].) Relinquishing control over employees during meal 15 periods requires that employees be “free to leave the employer’s premises” and be “permitted to attend 16 to personal business.” (Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., supra, 2 Cal.5th at p. 275.) Under 17 Labor Code section 512, if an employer maintains a uniform policy that does not authorize and permit 18 the amount of meal time called for under the law (as specified in the Labor Code and/or applicable 19 IWC Wage Order), “it has violated the wage order and is liable.” (Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior 20 Court, supra, 53 Cal.4th at p. 1033.)

21 58. During the applicable statutory periods here, the Class Members and the Aggrieved 22 Employees were periodically denied legally-compliant and timely off-duty meal periods of at least 23 thirty minutes due to Defendants’ unlawful meal period policy and practices. As a result of Defendants’ 24 uniform meal period policies and practices, the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees were 25 often not permitted to take compliant first meal periods before the end of the fifth hour of work. The 26 Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees were also periodically not permitted to take second meal 27 periods for shifts in excess of ten hours. Defendants thus violated Labor Code section 512 and the 28

1 Applicable Wage Order by failing to advise, authorize, or permit the Class Members and the Aggrieved
2 Employees to receive thirty-minute, off-duty meal periods within the first five hours of their shifts.

3 59. Labor Code section 226.7 provides that “[a]n employer shall not require an employee 4 to work during a meal or rest or recovery period mandated pursuant to an applicable statute, or 5 applicable regulation, standard, or order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.” (Lab. Code, § 226.7, 6 subd. (b).) Labor Code section 226.7, subdivision (c), and the Applicable Wage Order further obligate 7 employers to pay employees one additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation 8 for each workday that the meal period is not provided. (Lab. Code, § 226.7, subd. (c); Cal. Code of 9 Regs., tit. 8, § 11050 [“If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with 10 the applicable provisions of this order, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the 11 employee’s regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period is not provided.”].)
12 The “regular rate” for these purposes must factor in all nondiscretionary payments for work performed 13 by the employee, including non-discretionary bonuses, commissions, and other forms of wage 14 payments exceeding the employees’ base hourly rate. (Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC (2021) 15 11 Cal.5th 858, 878.)

16 60. Accordingly, for each day that the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees did 17 not receive compliant meal periods, they were and are entitled to receive meal period premiums 18 pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7 and the Applicable Wage Order. Defendants, however, failed to 19 pay the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees applicable meal period premiums for many 20 workdays that the employees did not receive a compliant meal period. Thus, Defendants have violated 21 Labor Code section 226.7 and the Applicable Wage Order.

22 61. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff seeks to recover, on behalf of herself and other non-23 exempt employees, meal period premiums and penalties.

24 F. UNTIMELY WAGES DURING EMPLOYMENT

25 62. Labor Code section 204 expressly requires employers who pay employees on a weekly, 26 biweekly, or semimonthly basis to pay all wages “not more than seven calendar days following the 27 close of the payroll period.” Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a), makes employers who violate 28 Labor Code section 204 subject to a penalty of:

1 “(1) For any initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to 2 pay each employee.

3 “(2) For each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two 4 hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25
5 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.” (Lab. Code, § 210, subd.
6 (a).)

7 63. Notably, the penalty provided by Labor Code section 210 is “[i]n addition to, and 8 entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this article” (Lab. Code, § 210, 9 subd. (a).)

10 64. Due to Defendants’ failure to pay the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees the 11 wages described above, along with rest and meal break premiums, Defendants failed to timely pay the 12 Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees within seven calendar days following the close of payroll 13 in accordance with Labor Code section 204 on a regular and consistent basis. (See Parson v. Golden
14 State FC, LLC (N.D. Cal., May 2, 2016, No. 16-CV-00405-JST) 2016 WL 1734010, at p. *3–5, 2016 15 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 58299 [finding that a failure to pay rest period premiums can support claims under 16 Labor Code sections 203 and 204].)

17 G. UNTIMELY WAGES AT SEPARATION

18 65. Labor Code section 203 provides “if an employer willfully fails to pay . . . any wages 19 of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty” 20 for up to thirty days. (Lab. Code § 203; Mamika v. Barca (1998) 68 Cal.App.4th 487, 492.) As a result 21 of Defendants’ failure to pay the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees for the wages described 22 above, along with rest and meal break premiums, Defendants violated and continue to violate Labor 23 Code section 203.

24 66. Due to Defendants’ faulty pay policies, those Class Members and Aggrieved Employees 25 whose employment with Defendants concluded were not compensated for each and every hour worked 26 at the appropriate rate. Defendants have failed to pay formerly-employed Class Members and 27 Aggrieved Employees whose sums were certain at the time of termination within at least seventy-two 28 hours of their resignation and have failed to pay those sums for thirty days thereafter.

1 H. FAILURE TO REIMBURSE BUSINESS EXPENSES

2 67. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were subject to Labor Code section 2802, which 3 states that “an employer shall indemnify his or her employees for all necessary expenditures or losses 4 incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her 5 obedience to the directions of the employer.” The purpose of this section is to “prevent employers from 6 passing along their operating expenses onto their employees.” (Gattuso v. Harte-Hanks Shoppers, Inc.
7 (2007) 42 Cal.4th 554, 562.)

8 68. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were subject to Labor Code section 2804, which 9 states that “any contract or agreement, express or implied, made by any employee to waive the benefits 10 of this article or any part thereof, is null and void, and this article shall not deprive any employee or his 11 personal representative of any right or remedy to which he is entitled under the laws of this State.”

12 69. Thus, the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees were and are entitled to 13 reimbursement for the expenses they incurred during the course of their duties. The duty to reimburse 14 even extends to the use of equipment the employee may already own and would be required to pay for 15 anyway. (Cochran v. Schwan’s Home Serv., Inc. (2014) 228 Cal.App.4th 1137, 1144 [“The threshold
16 question in this case is this: Does an employer always have to reimburse an employee for the reasonable 17 expense of the mandatory use of a personal cell phone, or is the reimbursement obligation limited to 18 the situation in which the employee incurred an extra expense that he or she would not have otherwise 19 incurred absent the job? The answer is that reimbursement is always required. Otherwise, the employer 20 would receive a windfall because it would be passing its operating expenses on to the employee.”].)

21 70. Here, Defendants failed to fully reimburse the Class Members and the Aggrieved 22 Employees for necessary expenditures incurred as a direct consequence and requirement of performing 23 their job duties, including the costs associated with their personal cell phone they required to perform 24 their work. Consequently, Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 2802.

25 I. WAGE STATEMENT VIOLATIONS

26 71. Defendants also failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements in accordance with 27 Labor Code sections 226, subdivisions (a)(1), (2), (5), and (9). Labor Code section 226, subdivision 28

1 (a), obligates employers, semi-monthly or at the time of each payment to furnish an itemized wage 2 statement in writing showing:

- 3 (1) The gross wages earned;
- 4 (2) The total hours worked by the employee;
- 5 (3) The number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if 6 the employee is paid on a piece rate basis;
- 7 (4) All deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of 8 the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item;
- 9 (5) The net wages earned;
- 10 (6) The inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid;
- 11 (7) The name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social 12 security number or an employee identification number other than a social 13 security number;
- 14 (8) The name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and
- 15 (9) All applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 16 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the 17 employee.

18 72. Due to Defendants' failure to pay the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees 19 properly as described above, the wage statements issued do not indicate the correct amount of gross 20 wages earned, total hours worked, or the net wages earned, or the applicable hourly rates in effect 21 during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate. Thus, 22 Defendants have violated Labor Code section 226, subdivisions (a)(1), (2), (5), and (9).

23 73. Defendants also failed to include the accrued sick hours on the wage statements 24 provided to the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees as required by Labor Code section 246, 25 subdivision (i).

26 74. In addition to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), Defendants also knowingly and 27 intentionally failed to provide the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate itemized 28 wage statements in violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e). Defendants knew that they

1 were not providing the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees with wage statements required
2 by California law but nevertheless failed to correct their unlawful practices and policies. (See Garnett 3 v. ADT LLC (E.D. Cal. 2015) 139 F.Supp.3d 1121, 1134 [finding the defendant knowingly and 4 intentionally violated Labor Code section 226 because the “[d]efendant knew that it was not providing 5 total hours worked to plaintiff or other employees paid on commission” even though it believed that 6 employees paid solely on commission or commission and salary “are exempt and therefore we do not 7 record hours on a wage statement.”].)

8 J. RECORDKEEPING VIOLATIONS

9 75. Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), requires employers to keep an accurate record 10 of, among other things, all hours worked by employees. Labor Code section 226.3 provides, in pertinent 11 part, as follows:

12 “Any employer who violates subdivision (a) of Section 226 shall be subject to a 13 civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per 14 violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee 15 for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to 16 provide the employee a wage deduction statement or fails to keep the records 17 required in subdivision (a) of Section 226. The civil penalties provided for in 18 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law.” (Lab. Code, § 19 226.3, emphasis added.)

20 76. Likewise, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d), requires every employer, including 21 Defendants, to:

22 “Keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which 23 employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by 24 and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any 25 applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or 26 establishments. These records shall be kept in accordance with rules established 27 for this purpose by the commission, but in any case shall be kept on file for not 28 less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units earned.” (Lab. Code, § 1174, subd. (d), emphasis added.)

77. As explained in detail above, Defendants failed to provide the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate itemized wage statements. Defendants did so, in part, because they failed to accurately track hours worked by the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees. Defendants have thus failed to keep accurate records of the “total hours worked by the employee[s]” in violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), and are therefore subject to the penalties provided by Labor Code section 226.3. These penalties are “in addition to any other penalty provided by law.” (Lab. Code, § 226.3.)

78. The failure to accurately track hours worked also resulted in a failure of Defendants to keep a record of all “payroll records showing the hours worked daily by” Defendants’ employees, including Plaintiff and the other Class Members, in violation of Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d).

K. SICK PAY VIOLATIONS

79. Labor Code section 246 provides that every employee who works in California for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of employment is entitled to paid sick days. (Lab. Code, § 246, subd. (a).) These paid sick days generally accrue at a rate of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked, and must be paid out using the employees’ regular rate of pay. (Lab. Code, § 246, subds. (b), (l).) The “regular rate of pay” for these purposes must factor in all nondiscretionary payments for work performed by the employee, including non-discretionary bonuses, commissions, and other forms of wage payments exceeding the employees’ base hourly rate. (Lab. Code, § 246, subds. (l)(1), (2); see, e.g., Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC (2021) 11 Cal.5th 858, 878.)

80. Here, Defendants employed the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of employment. Defendants nevertheless failed to fully pay the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees for all sick pay that was lawfully earned and accrued.

1 81. By failing to fully pay accrued sick time, Defendants have underpaid the Class Members
2 and the Aggrieved Employees and have violated California Labor Code provisions including, but not 3 limited to, section 246.

4 V. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

5 82. As mentioned above, Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and the Class 6 Members pursuant to section 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

7 83. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all 8 members would be unfeasible and not practicable. The membership of the class is unknown to Plaintiff 9 at this time; however, it is estimated that the number of Class Members is greater than 100 individuals.
10 The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendants' employment 11 records.

12 84. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well Defined Community of 13 Interest: There are common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and all other similarly situated 14 non-exempt employees, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members 15 including, without limitation to:

16 A. Whether Defendants' pay policies/practices resulted in a failure to pay the Class 17 Members for all hours worked, including all minimum wages;

18 B. Whether Defendants' pay policies/practices resulted in a failure to pay the Class 19 Members for all required overtime wages at the Class Members' regular rate of pay;

20 C. Whether Defendants' pay policies/practices resulted in a failure to pay out all 21 accrued vacation time to the Class Members at termination of employment;

22 D. Whether Defendants' rest period policies and practices afforded legally 23 compliant rest periods or compensation in lieu thereof;

24 E. Whether Defendants' meal period policies and practices afforded legally 25 compliant meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof;

26 F. Whether Defendants maintained accurate employment records;

27 G. Whether Defendants timely paid all wages during employment;

28 H. Whether Defendants timely paid all wages earned and unpaid at separation;

1 I. Whether Defendants indemnified their employees for all necessary business 2 expenditures;

3 J. Whether Defendants furnished legally-compliant wage statements to the Class 4 Members pursuant to Labor Code section 226;

5 K. Whether Defendants fully paid all sick pay wages as required by Labor Code 6 section 246; and

7 L. Whether Defendants' violations of the Labor Code and the Applicable Wage 8 Order amounted to a violation of California's UCL.

9 85. Predominance of Common Questions: Common questions of law and fact 10 predominate over questions that affect only individual Class Members. The common questions of law 11 set forth above are numerous and substantial and stem from Defendants' uniform policies and practices 12 applicable to each individual class member, such as Defendants' uniform policy and practice of failing 13 to pay for all hours worked, Defendants' uniform policies and practices which failed to provide 14 compliant rest periods, Defendants' uniform policies and practices which failed to provide compliant 15 meal periods, Defendants' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, Defendants' uniform 16 policies and practices which failed to provide complete and accurate sick pay, and others. As such, the 17 common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual class member's 18 showing as to his or her eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of his or her damages.

19 86. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Class Members 20 because Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the 21 statute(s) of limitation applicable to each cause of action pleaded in this complaint. As alleged herein, 22 Plaintiff, like the other Class Members, was deprived of minimum, regular, and overtime wages 23 because of Defendants' unlawful timekeeping policies and practices, was deprived of rest periods and 24 premium wages in lieu thereof, was deprived of meal periods and premium wages in lieu thereof, was 25 subject to Defendants' uniform rest period policies and practices, was subject to Defendants' uniform 26 meal period policies and practices, was not provided accurate itemized wage statements, was not paid 27 all wages in full and on time, was not paid all sick pay wages as required by law, and was subject to 28 other similar policies and practices to which the Class Members were subject.

1 87. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps to 2 represent fairly and adequately the interests of the Class Members. Moreover, Plaintiff's attorneys are 3 ready, willing, and able to fully and adequately represent the Class Members and Plaintiff. Plaintiff's 4 attorneys have prosecuted numerous wage-and-hour class actions in state and federal court in the past 5 and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the Class Members.

6 88. Superiority: The California Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an 7 important public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California.
8 These laws and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by employers 9 who have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of superior 10 economic and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The nature of 11 this action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and the Class Members make the class action 12 format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations alleged herein. If each 13 employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily gain an 14 unconscionable advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited resources of 15 each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources.

16 89. Moreover, requiring each Class Member to pursue an individual remedy would also 17 discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file an action 18 against their former or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and permanent 19 damages to their careers at subsequent employment. Further, the prosecution of separate actions by the 20 individual Class Members, even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying 21 verdicts or adjudications with respect to the individual Class Members against Defendants herein, and 22 which would establish potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants or legal 23 determinations with respect to individual Class Members which would, as a practical matter, be 24 dispositive of the interest of the other Class Members not parties to adjudications or which would 25 substantially impair or impede the ability of the Class Members to protect their interests.

26 90. Further, the claims of the individual Class Members are not sufficiently large to warrant 27 vigorous individual prosecution considering the concomitant costs and expenses attending thereto. As 28

1 such, the Class Members identified above are maintainable as a class under section 382 of the Code of 2 Civil Procedure.

3 VI. EXHAUSTION OF REMEDIES

4 91. Plaintiff has fully and completely exhausted administrative remedies under PAGA prior 5 to proceeding with the PAGA claims stated in this complaint. Plaintiff filed a PAGA notice online with 6 the Labor Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and sent a letter by certified mail to Defendants 7 setting forth the facts and theories of the violations alleged against Defendants, as prescribed by PAGA.
8 (Lab. Code, §§ 2698–2699.6.)

9 92. As required by PAGA, Plaintiff submitted the $75.00 filing fee with the LWDA by 10 regular mail. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), no notice was received by 11 Plaintiff from the LWDA evidencing its intention to investigate within sixty-five calendar days of the 12 postmark date of the PAGA notice. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to commence and proceed with a civil 13 action pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.

14 VII. CAUSES OF ACTION

15 First Cause of Action

16 Failure to Pay All Minimum Wages

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 93. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

19 94. Section 4 of the Applicable Wage Order and Labor Code section 1197 establish the right 20 of employees to be paid minimum wages for all hours worked, in amounts set by state law. (Lab. Code, 21 § 1197; Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, § 11050.) Labor Code sections 1194, subdivision (a), and 1194.2, 22 subdivision (a), provide that an employee who has not been paid the legal minimum wage as required
23 by Labor Code section 1197 may recover the unpaid balance, together with attorneys’ fees and costs 24 of suit, as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the unpaid wages and interest accrued 25 thereon.

26 95. Here, Defendants failed to fully conform their pay practices to the requirements of the 27 law during the relevant statutory periods. Plaintiff and the other Class Members were not compensated 28

1 for all hours worked including, but not limited to, all hours they were subject to the control of 2 Defendants and/or suffered or permitted to work under the Labor Code and the Applicable Wage Order.

3 96. Labor Code section 1198 makes unlawful the employment of an employee under 4 conditions that the IWC Wage Orders prohibit. Labor Code sections 1194, subdivision (a), and 1194.2, 5 subdivision (a), provide that an employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage 6 is liable to pay those employees the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages 7 in an amount equal to the wages due and interest thereon.

8 97. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct as alleged herein, 9 Plaintiff and the other Class Members have sustained economic damages, including but not limited to 10 unpaid wages and lost interest, in an amount to be established at trial, and they are entitled to recover 11 economic and statutory damages and penalties and other appropriate relief because of Defendants' 12 violations of the Labor Code and Applicable Wage Order.

13 98. Defendants' practices and policies regarding illegal employee compensation are 14 unlawful and create an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and the other Class Members in a civil 15 action for the unpaid amount of minimum wages, liquidated damages, including interest thereon, 16 statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code sections 204, 218.5, 1194, 17 1194.2, 1197, and 1198, and Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

18 Second Cause of Action

19 Failure to Pay All Overtime Wages

20 (Against All Defendants)

21 99. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

22 100. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code sections 204, 510, 1194, and 23 1198, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to overtime wages for all overtime hours 24 worked and provide a private right of action for the failure to pay all overtime compensation for 25 overtime work performed. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to properly pay 26 Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all overtime wages earned pursuant to Labor Code section 27 1194 and the Applicable Wage Order. Defendants caused Plaintiff and the other Class Members to 28 work overtime hours but did not compensate them at one and one-half times their regular rate of pay

1 for such hours in accordance with California law. Likewise, Defendants caused Plaintiff and the other 2 Class Members to work double-time hours but did not compensate them at twice their regular rate of 3 pay for such hours in accordance with California law.

4 101. Defendants failed to fully conform their pay practices to the requirements of California
5 law. This unlawful conduct includes but is not limited to Defendants' uniform and unlawful pay 6 policies and practices of failing to accurately record all the time that non-exempt employees were under 7 the supervision and control of Defendants. The foregoing policies and practices are unlawful and allow 8 Plaintiff and the other Class Members to recover in a civil action the unpaid amount of overtime 9 premiums owing, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit 10 according to Labor Code section 204, 510, 1194, and 1198, the Applicable Wage Order, and Code of 11 Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

12 Third Cause of Action

13 Failure to Pay Accrued Vacation Wages

14 (Against All Defendants)

15 102. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

16 103. Under California law, accrued vacation and/or paid time off are considered earned 17 wages and cannot be forfeited if unused. (Lab. Code, § 227.3.) A vacation policy and/or paid time off 18 policy that provides for forfeiture of vested vacation pay if not used within a designated time, such as 19 before termination, is impermissible. (Boothby v. Atlas Mechanical, Inc. (1992) 6 Cal.App.4th 1595, 20 1602.)

21 104. As explained above, Plaintiff and other Class Members accrued vested vacation pay 22 under a "contract of employment," for purposes of Labor Code section 227.3. When they ended their 23 employment with Defendants, Defendants failed to pay their vested vacation pay in violation of Labor 24 Code sections 201, 202, and 227.3. Accordingly, pursuant to section 227.3 of the California Labor 25 Code, Plaintiff and other Class Members are entitled to recover their accrued, vested, and unpaid 26 vacation time.

105. Pursuant to sections 218.5 and 227.3 of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are also entitled to recover interest, costs, and attorneys' fees associated with this cause of action.

Fourth Cause of Action

Failure to Provide Rest Periods and Pay Missed Rest Period Premiums

(Against All Defendants)

106. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

107. Section 12 of the Applicable Wage Order, and Labor Code section 226.7 establish the right of employees to be provided with a rest period of at least ten minutes for each four hour period worked, or major fraction thereof. (See Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, § 11050.)

108. Due to Defendants' unlawful rest period policies and practices described in detail above, Defendants did not authorize and permit Plaintiff and the other Class Members to take all rest periods to which they were legally entitled. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants have not paid an additional hour of pay to Plaintiff and the other Class Members at their respective regular rates of pay for each violation, in accordance with California Labor Code section 226.7.

109. The foregoing violations create an entitlement to recovery by Plaintiff and the other Class Members in a civil action for the unpaid amount of rest period premiums owing, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit pursuant to the Applicable Wage Order, and California Labor Code section 226.7.

Fifth Cause of Action

Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Pay Missed Meal Period Premiums

(Against All Defendants)

110. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

111. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges, that Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to provide their hourly non-exempt employees, including Plaintiff and the other Class Members, with all required meal periods in accordance with the mandates of the Labor Code and the Applicable Wage Order, for the reasons set forth herein above. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants have not paid an additional hour of pay to Plaintiff and the other Class Members at their

1 respective regular rates of pay for each violation, in accordance with California Labor Code section 2 226.7.

3 112. As a result, Defendants are responsible for paying premium compensation for meal 4 period violations, including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit pursuant to the 5 Applicable Wage Order and Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512, and Civil Code sections 3287, 6 subdivision (b), and 3289. (See Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, § 11050.)

7 Sixth Cause of Action

8 Failure to Maintain Accurate Employment Records

9 (Against All Defendants)

10 113. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

11 114. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d), an employer shall keep 12 at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, 13 payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and wages paid to employees employed at the 14 respective plants or establishments. These records must be kept in accordance with rules established 15 for this purpose by the commission, but in any case shall be kept on file for not less than two years.

16 115. Labor Code section 1174.5 imposes a civil penalty of $500 for an employer's failure to 17 maintain accurate and complete records.

18 116. Defendant has intentionally and willfully failed to keep accurate and complete records 19 showing the hours worked daily and wages paid to Plaintiff and the other Class Members. Thus, 20 Plaintiff and the other Class Members have been denied their legal right and protected interest in having 21 available at a central location at the plant or establishment where they are employed, accurate and 22 complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily by, and the wages paid to, employees at those 23 respective locations pursuant to Labor Code 1174.

24 Seventh Cause of Action

25 Failure to Pay Wages Timely during Employment

26 (Against All Defendants)

27 117. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.
28

1 118. Labor Code section 200 provides that “wages” include all amounts for labor performed 2 by employees of every description, whether the amount is fixed or ascertained by the standard of time, 3 task, pieces, commission basis, or other method of calculation. Labor Code section 204 states that all 4 wages earned by any person in any employment are payable twice during the calendar month and must 5 be paid not more than seven days following the close of the period when the wages were earned. Labor 6 Code section 210, subdivision (a), makes employers who violate Labor Code section 204 subject to a 7 penalty of $100 for any initial failure to timely pay each employee’s full wages and $200 for each 8 subsequent violation, plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld.

9 119. Labor Code section 216 establishes that it is a misdemeanor for any person, with regards 10 to wages due, to “falsely deny the amount or validity thereof, or that the same is due, with intent to 11 secure himself, his employer or other person, any discount upon such indebtedness, or with intent to 12 annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, or defraud, the person to whom such indebtedness is due.”

13 120. Defendants as a matter of established company policy and procedure in the State of 14 California, scheduled, required, suffered, and/or permitted Plaintiff and the other Class Members, to 15 work without full compensation, to work without legally-compliant off-duty meal periods, to work
16 without legally-compliant off-duty rest periods, and thereby failed to fully pay Plaintiff and the other 17 Class Members within seven days of the close of payroll, as required by law.

18 121. Defendants, as a matter of established company policy and procedure in the State of 19 California, falsely deny they owe Plaintiff and the other Class Members these wages, with the intent of 20 securing for itself a discount upon its indebtedness and/or to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, 21 and/or defraud Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

22 122. Defendants’ pattern, practice, and uniform administration of its corporate policy of 23 illegally denying employees compensation, as described herein, is unlawful and entitles Plaintiff and 24 the other Class Members to recover, pursuant to Labor Code section 218, the unpaid balance of the 25 compensation owed to them in a civil action and any applicable penalties, attorney fees, and interest 26 owed to them pursuant to Labor Code sections 210 and 218.5.

129. California Labor Code Section 2802 states that employers must “indemnify” an employee for “all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.” Likewise, Labor Code section 2804 states that “any contract or agreement, express or implied, made by any employee to waive the benefits of this article or any part thereof, is null and void, and this article shall not deprive any employee or his personal representative of any right or remedy to which he is entitled under the laws of this State.”

130. Here, Plaintiff and the other Class Members paid out of pocket for necessary business expenditures incurred as a direct consequence and requirement of performing their job duties, including the costs associated with their personal cell phone they required to perform their work. Despite knowing that Plaintiff and the other Class Members incurred these necessary business expenses, and requiring Plaintiff and the other Class Members to use such items, Defendants did not reimburse them.

131. Thus, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover the cost of such necessary business expenses, plus interest from the date each incurred such business expenses, plus fees and costs. (Lab. Code, § 2802, subds. (b), (c).)

Tenth Cause of Action

Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

(Against All Defendants)

132. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

133. Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), obligates employers, semi-monthly or at the time of each payment to furnish an itemized wage statement in writing showing:

- (1) The gross wages earned;
- (2) The total hours worked by the employee;
- (3) The number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece rate basis;
- (4) All deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item;
- (5) The net wages earned;

- 1 (6) The inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid;
- 2 (7) The name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social
- 3 security number or an employee identification number other than a social
- 4 security number;
- 5 (8) The name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and
- 6 (9) All applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the
- 7 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the
- 8 employee.

9 134. As set forth above, Defendants issued and continues to issue wage statements to its non-

10 exempt employees including Plaintiff and the other Class Members that are inadequate under Labor

11 Code section 226, subdivision (a). By failing to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members properly as

12 described above, Defendants failed to include required information on their wage statements, including,

13 but not limited to, the gross wages earned, the net wages earned in violation of Labor Code section 14 226, subdivision (a).

15 135. Defendants also failed to include the accrued sick hours on the wage statements

16 provided to Plaintiff and the other Class Members as required by Labor Code section 246, subdivision 17 (i).

18 136. Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), of the 19 Labor Code was knowing and intentional. (Lab. Code, § 226, subd. (e)).

20 137. As a result of Defendants' issuance of inaccurate itemized wage statements to Plaintiff

21 and the other Class Members in violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), Plaintiff and the

22 other Class Members are each entitled to recover an initial penalty of $50, and subsequent penalties of 23 $100, up to an amount not exceeding an aggregate penalty of $4,000 per Plaintiff and per each Class

24 Member from Defendants pursuant to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e), along with costs and 25 reasonable attorneys' fees.

26

27

28

Eleventh Cause of Action

Failure to Pay Sick Leave

(Against All Defendants)

138. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

139. Labor Code section 246 provides that an employee who works for the same employer for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of employment is entitled to paid sick days. (Lab. Code, § 246, subd. (a).) These paid sick days generally accrue at a rate of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. (Lab. Code, § 246, subd. (b).)

140. The employer must calculate paid sick leave by using one of two calculations: (1) “Paid sick time for nonexempt employees shall be calculated in the same manner as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time, whether or not the employee actually works overtime in that workweek,” or (2) “Paid sick time for nonexempt employees shall be calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.” (Lab. Code, § 246, subds. (1)(1), (2).)

141. Here, Defendants employed Plaintiff and the other Class Members for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of employment. Defendants nevertheless failed to fully pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all sick pay that was lawfully earned and accrued. This resulted in Plaintiff and the other Class Members being underpaid for their lawfully-accrued sick leave, and resulted in derivative violations including, among others, of Labor Code section 201, 202, and 203, because Defendants did not pay, or timely pay, Plaintiff and the other Class Members all owing and unpaid wages for work performed by them during their employment and at the end of their employment.

142. As a consequence for violating Labor Code section 246, Plaintiff and the other Class Members have sustained damages in an amount to be established at trial, are entitled to attorneys’ fees and costs of suit, and Defendants are subject to all applicable penalties.

1 Twelfth Cause of Action

2 Violations of California's Unfair Competition Law

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 143. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

5 144. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business 6 practices in California in violation of California Business and Professions Code section 17200 through 7 17210, by committing the unlawful acts described above. Defendants' utilization of these unfair and 8 unlawful business practices deprived and continue to deprive Plaintiff and the other Class Members of 9 compensation to which they are legally entitled. These practices constitute unfair and unlawful 10 competition and provide an unfair advantage over Defendants' competitors who have been and/or are 11 currently employing workers and attempting to do so in honest compliance with applicable wage and 12 hour laws.

13 145. Because Plaintiff is a victim of Defendants' unfair and unlawful conduct alleged herein, 14 Plaintiff for herself and on behalf of the Class Members, seeks full restitution of monies, as necessary 15 and according to proof, to restore any and all monies withheld, acquired and/or converted by 16 Defendants pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 17203 and 17208.

17 146. The acts complained of herein occurred within the four years prior to the initiation of 18 this action and are continuing into the present and ongoing.

19 147. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this Court action to 20 protect her interests and those of the Class Members, to obtain restitution and injunctive relief on behalf 21 of Defendants' current non-exempt employees and to enforce important rights affecting the public 22 interest. Plaintiff has thereby incurred the financial burden of attorneys' fees and costs, which Plaintiff 23 is entitled to recover under Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

Thirteenth Cause of Action

Penalties Pursuant to PAGA for Violations of California Labor Code Sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 1174, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2802, 2804, and Other Provisions of the Labor Code
(Against All Defendants)

148. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

149. Based on the above allegations incorporated by reference, Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 1174, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2802, 2804, and others that may be applicable; and the Applicable Wage Order (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, § 11050), and others that may be applicable.

150. As a result of the acts alleged above, Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code sections 2698 through 2699.6 because of Defendants' violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 1174, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2802, 2804, and others that may be applicable; and the Applicable Wage Order (Cal. Code of Regs., tit. 8, § 11050), and others that may be applicable.

151. Under Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f)(2), and 2699.5, for each such violation, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to penalties in an amount to be shown at the time of trial subject to the following formula:

A. $100 for the initial violation per employee per pay period; and

B. $200 for each subsequent violation per employee per pay period.

152. These penalties must be allocated sixty-five percent to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and thirty-five percent to the affected employees. In addition, to the extent permitted by law, these penalties may be stacked separately for each of Defendants violations of the California Labor Code.

153. In addition, to the extent permitted by law, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and all Aggrieved Employees with accurate itemized wage statements in compliance with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a). Plaintiff seeks separate PAGA penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code

1 section 226, subdivisions (a) and (e). (Lopez v. Friant & Associates, LLC, supra, 15 Cal.App.5th at pp.
2 780, 788.)

3 154. For violations of Labor Code section 226, Plaintiff and all Aggrieved Employees are 4 entitled to recover penalty amounts established by California Labor Code Section 2699(f)(2)(A)(i) and 5 California Labor Code Section 226.3. Accordingly, through PAGA and to the extent permitted by law 6 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees seek PAGA penalties for each of Defendants' numerous 7 violations of Labor Code section 226.

8 155. Labor Code section 210 provides that "in addition to, an entirely independent and apart 9 from, any other penalty provided in this article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each 10 employee as provided in Sections . . . 204 . . . shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 11 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee; (2) For each 12 subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure 13 to pay each employee, plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld." As a result of the faulty 14 compensation policies and practices, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are also entitled to recover 15 penalties under Labor Code section 210 through PAGA.

16 156. Labor Code section 1197.1 authorizes a civil penalty, restitution of wages, and 17 liquidated damages, in the amount of: (1) one hundred dollars ($100) for any initial violation that is 18 intentionally committed for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee is 19 underpaid, and (2) two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each subsequent violation for the same specific 20 offense for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee is underpaid 21 regardless of whether the initial violation is intentionally committed. Accordingly, through PAGA and 22 to the extent permitted by law, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover pursuant 23 to Labor Code section 1197.1.

24 157. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this action to protect her 25 interests and those of the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the wages and penalties owed 26 by Defendants. Plaintiff has thereby incurred attorneys' fees and costs, which Plaintiff is also entitled 27 to recover under Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (g)(1).
28

1 VIII. DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

2 158. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of Plaintiff's and the Class Members' claims 3 against Defendants.

4 IX. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

5 Plaintiff prays for judgment for herself and for all others on whose behalf this suit is brought 6 against Defendants, as follows:

- 7 1. For an order certifying the proposed class;
- 8 2. For an order appointing Plaintiff as representative of the class;
- 9 3. For an order appointing Plaintiff's counsel as counsel for the class;
- 10 4. For the failure to pay all minimum wages, compensatory, consequential, general, and 11 special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code sections 1194, 1194.2, 12 1197, and others as may be applicable;
- 13 5. For the failure to pay all overtime wages, compensatory, consequential, general, and 14 special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code sections 204, 510, 1194,
15 1198, and others as may be applicable;
- 16 6. For the failure to pay all accrued vacation, compensatory damages in the amount of the 17 unpaid vacation accrued and owed, as may be proven;
- 18 7. For the failure to provide rest periods and pay missed rest period premiums, 19 compensatory, consequential, general, and special damages according to proof pursuant 20 to Labor Code section 226.7;
- 21 8. For the failure to provide meal periods and pay missed meal period premiums, 22 compensatory, consequential, general, and special damages according to proof pursuant 23 to Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512;
- 24 9. For the failure to maintain accurate employment records, penalties pursuant to Labor 25 Code sections 226.3, 1174.5, and others that may be applicable;
- 26 10. For the failure to pay wages timely during employment, the unpaid balance of the 27 compensation owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members and any applicable 28 penalties owed to them pursuant to Labor Code section 210;

- 1 11. For the failure to pay all wages earned and unpaid at separation, statutory waiting time
2 penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 201 through 203, for the Class Members who 3 quit or were fired in an amount equal to their daily wage multiplied by thirty days, as 4 may be proven;
- 5 12. For the failure to indemnify all necessary business expenditures, all unreimbursed
6 business expenses, and interest thereon, that are owed, pursuant to Labor Code section 7 2802, and attorney fees, pursuant to Labor Code section 2802, subdivision (c);
- 8 13. For the failure to pay all sick time wages due and owed, compensatory, consequential, 9 general, and special damages according to proof pursuant to Labor Code section 246, 10 and others as may be applicable;
- 11 14. For the violations of California's Unfair Competition Law, restitution to Plaintiff and 12 the other Class Members of all money and/or property unlawfully acquired by 13 Defendants by means of any acts or practices declared by this Court to be in violation 14 of Business and Professions Code sections 17200 through 17210;
- 15 15. For the claim of penalties pursuant to PAGA and other provisions of the California 16 Labor Code, a civil penalty in the amount of $100 for the initial violation and $200 for 17 each subsequent violation as specified in Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f)(2), 18 in the representative action brought on behalf of Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees 19 pursuant the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, and for civil penalties 20 available under Labor Code section 210;
- 21 16. Prejudgment interest on all due and unpaid wages pursuant to Labor Code section 218.6 22 and Civil Code sections 3287 and 3289;
- 23 17. On all causes of action for which attorneys' fees may be available, for attorneys' fees
24 and costs as provided by Labor Code sections 218.5, 226, Code of Civil Procedure 25 section 1021.5, and others as may be applicable;
- 26 18. For an order enjoining Defendants, and each of them, and their agents, servants, and 27 employees, and all persons acting under, in concert with, or for them, from acting in 28 derogation of any rights or duties adumbrated in this complaint; and 1 19. For such other and further relief, this Court may deem just and proper.
