Attorneys for Plaintiff ALFREDO E. ORTIZ BARRERA, on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES – CENTRAL DISTRICT

ALFREDO E. ORTIZ BARRERA, on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees

Plaintiff,

vs.

DOWNEY HYUNDAI, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 25STCV18570

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF ALFREDO E. ORTIZ BARRERA’S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff ALFREDO E. ORTIZ BARRERA ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants DOWNEY HYUNDAI, INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, himself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with Defendants’ violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants’ failure to pay wages for all hours

1 worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to pay 2 overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay; failure to authorize or permit all legally required 3 and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium wages; failure to authorize or permit 4 all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest period premium wages; indemnification 5 for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by employees in direct consequence of discharging 6 their duties; statutory penalties for failure to timely pay earned wages during employment; statutory 7 penalties for failure to provide accurate wage statements; statutory waiting time penalties in the 8 form of continuation wages for failure to timely pay employees all wages due upon separation of 9 employment. Plaintiff experienced these violations personally, as well as is informed and believes 10 other aggrieved employees did as well. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice 11 to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees 12 pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of 13 California, and others aggrieved.

14 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

15 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 16 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 17 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 18 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars 19 ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-20 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 21 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 22 California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County, at 7550 Firestone Blvd, Downey, CA 23 90241.

24 III. PARTIES

25 1. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 26 Development Agency on behalf of himself and other current and former employees subject to 27 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 28 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will work

1 for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp 2 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the currently 3 named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was employed by 4 Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Los Angeles County from in or around 5 June 1, 2024, until on or about January 19, 2025.

6 2. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant DOWNEY 7 HYUNDAI, INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing business
8 in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all times relevant hereto 9 were persons acting on behalf of Defendant DOWNEY HYUNDAI, INC. in the establishment of, 10 or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies. Defendant 11 DOWNEY HYUNDAI, INC. operates in Los Angeles County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved 12 employees in Los Angeles County, including but not limited to, at 7550 Firestone Blvd, Downey, 13 CA 90241.

14 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 15 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 16 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 17 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working 18 conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

19 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
20 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued 21 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 22 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to be 23 violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of the 24 Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

25 5. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff 26 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 27 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 28 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously

1 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 2 complaint.

3 6. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 4 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff 5 reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

6 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

7 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 8 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

9 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and 10 Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

11 7. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

12 8. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 13 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 14 2802, and the applicable Wage Orders.

15 9. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California 16 Labor Code:

17 10. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
18 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt 19 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 20 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee 21 is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or 22 indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

23 11. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 24 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 25 Wage Orders.

26 12. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 27 non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with having 28 worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved

1 California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum wage for all 2 hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited 3 to:

4 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 5 non-exempt employees to perform work off-the-clock and without being paid, including during 6 what should have been their meal periods, which resulted in unpaid minimum and overtime 7 wages.

8 (b) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 9 hourly non-exempt employees timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes 10 for every five hours worked due to missed, late, short and/or on-duty meal breaks.

11 13. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 12 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' 13 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 14 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 15 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable 16 Wage Order.

17 14. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 18 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
19 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
20 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

21 15. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay 22 and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of 23 their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer 24 is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," which includes all time that an employee 25 is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This 26 includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to 27 the benefit of the employer.'

28 16. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 1 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40) 2 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

3 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours 4 in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in 5 any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half 6 (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours 7 in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay 8 for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a 9 workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an 10 employee.

11 Labor Code section 510.

12 17. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 13 California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due 14 to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

15 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 16 non-exempt employees to perform work off-the-clock and without being paid, including during 17 what should have been their meal periods, which resulted in unpaid minimum and overtime 18 wages.

19 (b) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 20 hourly non-exempt employees timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes
21 for every five hours worked due to missed, late, short and/or on-duty meal breaks.

22 18. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 23 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
24 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
25 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

26 19. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each 27 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 28 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed

1 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 2 sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

3 20. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 4 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to 5 pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 6 hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and 7 shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

8 21. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 9 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 10 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 11 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 7 at §11; 12 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ 13 an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee 14 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh 15 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period 16 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal 17 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved 18 of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

19 22. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 20 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay 21 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code 22 sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 7 at §11.

23 23. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 24 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-25 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 26 limited to:

27 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 28 non-exempt employees to perform work off-the-clock and without being paid, including during

1 what should have been their meal periods.

2 (b) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 3 hourly non-exempt employees timely, uninterrupted, duty-free meal breaks of at least 30 minutes
4 for every five hours worked due to missed, late, short and/or on-duty meal breaks.

5 (c) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 6 hourly non-exempt employees a second uninterrupted duty-free meal period of no less than thirty 7 (30) minutes for each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-8 based hourly non-exempt employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

9 24. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 10 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 11 hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that 12 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did 13 not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

14 25. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 15 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 16 wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal 17 periods in compliance with California law.

18 26. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 19 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
20 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
21 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

22 27. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 23 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay
24 rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 25 non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

26 28. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest 27 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code 28 section 226.7; Wage Order 7 at §12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes'

1 rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six 2 hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on.” Brinker
3 Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7; 4 Wage Order 7 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period.
5 Wage Order 7 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement ““obligates employers to permit – 6 and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc.
7 (2016) 2 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all 8 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

9 29. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must 10 pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday the 11 employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage 12 Order 7 at § 12.

13 30. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 14 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 15 non-exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 16 limited to:

17 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 18 hourly non-exempt employees with net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four (4) hours worked 19 or major fraction thereof.

20 (b) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 21 hourly non-exempt employees a third uninterrupted duty-free rest period of no less than ten (10) net 22 minutes on each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 23 hourly non-exempt employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

24 31. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 25 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 26 hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday 27 they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 28 226.7.

2 32. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and
3 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 4 wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods 5 in compliance with California law.

6 33. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 7 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
8 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
9 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

10 34. Failure to Indemnify for Losses and Expenditures Incurred as Part of 11 Employment: California law requires that every employer must indemnify its employees for all 12 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in discharge of his or her duties or at the 13 obedience of the directions of the employer. Moreover, an employer is prohibited from passing the 14 ordinary business expenses and losses of the employer onto the employee. (Lab. Code, § 2802.)

15 35. Defendants have violated Labor Code Section 2802 by failing to indemnify Plaintiff 16 and other current and former aggrieved California-based non-exempt hourly employees' necessary 17 expenditures they incurred in the discharge of their duties. Specifically, Defendants employed 18 policies, practices, and/or procedures included, but not limited to:

19 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 20 non-exempt employees to use or purchase their own tools and/or resources in order to work for 21 Defendants, including but not limited to their cell phone (including both telephone use and cellular 22 data use) for work-related purposes – without reimbursing Plaintiff and other current and former 23 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees for such use.

24 36. Moreover, Defendants employed policies and procedures which ensured Plaintiff and 25 aggrieved employees would not receive indemnification for their employment related expenses.
26 This practice resulted in Plaintiff and aggrieved employees not receiving such indemnification in 27 compliance with California law.

28 37. Therefore, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and aggrieved employees for their

1 employment related expenses, including but not limited to costs related to use of their personal cell 2 phones and costs associated with their uniforms pursuant to Labor Code section 2802.

3 38. Employee is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 4 Employer's conduct above that gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
5 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
6 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

7 39. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 8 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 9 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 10 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 11 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 12 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll 13 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7) 14 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 15 section 204(d).

16 40. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 17 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 18 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages 19 and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants' 20 aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and 21 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned 22 wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

23 41. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
24 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
25 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

26 42. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 27 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 28 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage

1 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by 2 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful 3 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246, 4 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor 5 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 6 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

7 43. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
8 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
9 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

10 44. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 11 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee 12 his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 13 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any 14 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 15 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare 16 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee 17 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders 18 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive 19 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her 20 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 21 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 22 worked at each hourly rate by the employee."

23 45. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff 24 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages 25 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period 26 premium wages) rendered Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based 27 hourly non-exempt employees' wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 28 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

1 46. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

2 47. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
3 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
4 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

5 48. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 6 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee's employment ends. The 7 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) 8 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

9 49. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
10 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all 11 their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, 12 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 13 employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

14 50. Plaintiff believes these failures were willful and intentional.

15 51. Plaintiff also believes these failures were malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
16 Employer would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
17 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

18 52. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, 19 on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to 20 recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code 21 section 2699.3.

22 53. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code 23 section 2699.3. On April 3, 2025, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and provided 24 notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of the Labor 25 Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations alleged.

26 54. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 27 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 28 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the
