COMES NOW plaintiffs MARIA CHRISTINA LUNA, ANA PARRA, and JUSTAN TORRES (“Plaintiffs”), on behalf of themselves and all other employees similarly situated in the state of California (collectively referred to as “Plaintiffs”), allege as follows:

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Class Action, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other California current and former similarly situated employees employed by or formerly employed by defendants COALITION FOR ENGAGED EDUCATION and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, (collectively "Defendants"). Plaintiffs allege as follows:

2. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the present, Defendants have had a policy or practice of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiffs and other non-exempt employees in the State of California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, Plaintiffs and similarly situated employees routinely working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and seven consecutive work days on a work week without being properly compensated for hours worked in excess of (8) hours per day in a work day, forty (40) hours per week in a work week, and/or hours worked on the seventh consecutive work day in a work week by, among other things, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock (including directing employees to clock out and continue working, among other violations); failing to pay overtime hours at the proper overtime rate of pay, including, without limitation, by paying overtime hours at the improper rate(s) of pay and/or recharacterizing overtime hours worked to appear that they worked at a different time or pay period; by failing to pay for reporting time pay; and/or by manipulating or editing time records to show lesser hours than actually worked during the pay period, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees.

Further, Defendants have had a policy of not properly paying sick pay leave pursuant to Labor Code section 246, et al.

3. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the

1 present, Defendants have had a policy or practice of failing to pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs and 2 other non-exempt employees in the State of California in violation of California state wage and
3 hour laws as a result of, among other things, Defendants failing to accurately track and/or pay for 4 all hours actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock;
5 failing to pay for reporting time pay; and/or by manipulating or editing time records to show lesser
6 hours than actually worked during the pay period, to the detriment of Plaintiffs and other similarly 7 situated employees.

8 4. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the 9 present, Defendants have had a policy or practice of failing to provide Plaintiffs and other similarly 10 situated employees or former employees within the State of California a thirty (30) minute
11 uninterrupted meal period for days on which the employees worked more than five (5) hours in a 12 work day and a second thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal period for days on which employees 13 worked in excess of ten (10) hours in a work day, and failing to provide compensation for such 14 unprovided meal periods as required by California wage and hour laws. Defendants failed to 15 provide timely meal periods to Plaintiffs and other similarly situated employees or former 16 employees.

17 5. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 18 present, Defendants have had a policy or practice of failing to provide Plaintiffs and similarly 19 situated employees or former employees within the State of California rest periods of at least ten 20 (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof and failing to provide 21 compensation for such unprovided rest periods as required by California wage and hour laws.

22 6. For at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 23 present, Defendants have failed to pay Plaintiffs and other similarly situated employees the full
24 amount of their wages owed to them upon termination and/or resignation as required by Labor
25 Code sections 201 and 202 as a result of their failure to pay overtime wages as herein mentioned.

26 7. For at least one (1) year prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the 27 present, Defendants have had a policy or practice of failing to furnish Plaintiffs and similarly 28 situated employees within the State of California with itemized wage statements that accurately

1 reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; all applicable hourly rates in 2 effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate;
3 the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and other such information as 4 required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a). As a result thereof, Defendants have further
5 failed to furnish employees with an accurate calculation of gross and gross wages earned, as well
6 as gross and net wages paid.

7 8. For at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the 8 present, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of, upon written request to inspect or receive 9 copies of records pursuant to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (b), pertaining to a current or 10 former employee, complying with the request within 21 days from the date thereof.

11 9. For at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the 12 present, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of making the contents of personnel records
13 that the employer maintains relating to the employee's performance or to any grievance 14 concerning the employee available for inspection within 30 calendar days from the date of a 15 written request, as required by Labor Code section 1198.5.

16 10. For at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the 17 present, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to indemnify Plaintiffs and other
18 similarly situated employees or former employees within the State of California for expenses
19 incurred by in furtherance of their work duties in violation of, among other authorities, Labor Code
20 section 2802.

21 11. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and all other similarly situated employees, bring this 22 action pursuant to, including but not limited to, Labor Code sections 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 23 226.7, 227.3, 246, 350, 351, 510, 512, 558.1, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198.5, 2802, and 24 California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11050, seeking overtime wages, minimum wages, 25 payment of premium wages for missed meal and rest periods, penalties, reimbursement for 26 expenses incurred in furtherance of job duties, other such provisions of California law, and 27 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all other similarly situated 28 employees, pursuant to California Business and Professions Code sections 17200 through 17208,

1 also seeks (an) injunction(s) prohibiting Defendants from further violating the Labor Code and 2 requiring the establishment of appropriate and effective means to prevent further violations, as well
3 as all monies owed but withheld and retained by Defendants to which Plaintiff and Class Members
4 are entitled, as well as restitution of amounts owed.

5 Plaintiffs intend to amend the complaint to include a cause of action under the Private 6 Attorney General Act ("PAGA").

24 At all times mentioned herein, Plaintiff performed her duties in a satisfactory manner during 25 her employment with Defendants.

26 B. Defendants

27 15. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant COALITION
28 FOR ENGAGED EDUCATION ("Coalition"), at all times relevant hereto was, a California non-profit corporation doing business in the County of Los Angeles, State of California. Coalition's principal place of business is in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

16. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that the named defendants and DOES 1- 100 (collectively, "Defendants") employed Plaintiffs and similarly situated employees within the relevant statutory period, by, among other things, exercising control over their wages, hours and/or working conditions.

Plaintiff is further informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendants' owners and managing agents, violated, or caused to be violated, the above-referenced and below-referenced Labor Code provisions in violation of Labor Code section 558.1.

17. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and based thereon allege that all the times mentioned herein, each of the Defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

18. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, acquiesced, authorized, and approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

19. Based on information and belief, all named defendants are owned and operated by the same individuals, with the same policies and procedures, and exercised control over the wages, hours, and working conditions of Plaintiffs and all similarly situated hourly employees at the various

1 business establishments throughout California so as to create a joint employer relationship.

2 20. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or 3 otherwise, of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to 4 Plaintiffs, who therefore sue defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure
5 section 474.

6 21. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that each of the 7 defendants designated herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts
8 referred to herein. Plaintiffs will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true
9 names and capacities of the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities 10 become known.

11 22. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that each defendant
12 acted in all respects pertinent to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a 13 joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each joint 14 defendant are legally attributable to the other defendants.

15 23. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that there exists such 16 a unity of interest and ownership between Defendants, and each of them, that their individuality 17 and separateness have ceased to exist.

18 24. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege that despite the 19 formation of the purported corporate existence of the named Defendants, and DOES 1 through 30,
20 inclusive (the "Alter Ego Defendants"), they, and each of them, are one and the same with DOES 31
21 through 100 ("Individual Defendants"), and each of them, due to, but not limited to, the following 22 reasons:

23 a. The Alter Ego Defendants are completely dominated and controlled by the 24 Individual Defendants, or some of them, who personally committed the wrongful and illegal acts
25 and violated the laws as set forth in this Complaint, and who has hidden and currently hide behind
26 the Alter Ego Defendants to perpetrate frauds, circumvent statutes, or accomplish some other 27 wrongful or inequitable purpose;

28 b. The Individual Defendants derive actual and significant monetary benefits by and

1 through the Alter Ego Defendants' unlawful conduct, and by using the Alter Ego Defendants as 2 the funding source for the Individual Defendants' own personal expenditures;

3 c. Plaintiffs are informed and believes and thereon alleges that the Individual
4 Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants, while really one and the same, were segregated to 5 appear as though separate and distinct for purposes of perpetrating a fraud, circumventing a 6 statute, or accomplishing some other wrongful or inequitable purpose;

7 d. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the business affairs of the 8 Individual Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 9 herein were, so mixed and intermingled that the same cannot reasonably be segregated, and the 10 same are inextricable confusion. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times 11 mentioned herein were, used by the Individual Defendants as mere shells and conduits for the 12 conduct of certain of their, and each of their affairs. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all 13 relevant times mentioned herein were, the alter egos of the Individual Defendants;

14 e. The recognition of the separate existence of the Individual Defendants and the Alter
15 Ego Defendants would promote injustice insofar that it would permit defendants to insulate
16 themselves from liability to Plaintiff for violations of the California Government Code, Civil 17 Code, Labor Code, and other statutory violations. The corporate existence of these defendants 18 should thus be disregarded in equity and for the ends of justice because such disregard is necessary
19 to avoid fraud and injustice to Plaintiff, and all other similarly situated employees, herein;

20 f. Accordingly, the Alter Ego Defendants constitute the alter ego of the Individual 21 Defendants (and vice versa), and the fiction of their separate corporate existence must be 22 disregarded;

23 g. As a result of the aforementioned facts, among others, Plaintiffs are informed and 24 believes, and based thereon alleges that the Individual Defendants, the Alter Ego Defendants, and 25 each of them, are joint employers by virtue of a joint enterprise, and that Plaintiff was an 26 employee of the Alter Ego Defendants and the Individual Defendants. Plaintiff performed 27 services for each and every defendant, and to the mutual benefit of all defendants, and all
28 defendants shared control of Plaintiff and all other similarly situated employees, either directly or

1 indirectly, and in the manner in which defendants' business was and is conducted.

2 As such, Defendants, and each of them, are either solely, and/or jointly and 3 severally, liable for the damages alleged in Plaintiff's operative complaint.

4 JURISDICTION

5 25. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code
6 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

7 26. Venue is proper Los Angeles County, California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure
8 sections 395, et seq. because, among other things, Defendants committed the wrongful conduct
9 herein alleged in this County. Venue is also proper in Los Angeles County as the unlawful acts
10 alleged herein have a direct effect on the purported California class within Los Angeles County and 11 the State of California, and because Defendants employ numerous Class Members in Los Angeles
12 County.

13 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

14 27. Plaintiffs and other similarly situated employees have not been paid, during the 15 relevant liability periods, wages for all time worked, including overtime wages, as a result of,
16 including but not limited to, failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiffs and other non-exempt
17 employees in the State of California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result
18 of, without limitation, Plaintiffs and similarly situated employees working over eight (8) hours per 19 day, forty (40) hours per week or seven (7) consecutive work days in a work week without being 20 properly compensated for the hours worked in excess of (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per 21 week, or seven (7) consecutive work days in a workweek at the proper overtime rate of pay.

22 28. Specifically, among other things, Defendants had a policy or practice of failing to accurately 23 track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to 24 work off the clock (including by requiring employees to work after clocking out and offsite work);
25 failing to pay overtime hours at the proper overtime rate of pay, including, without limitation, by 26 paying overtime hours at the improper rate(s) of pay and/or recharacterizing overtime hours worked 27 to appear that they worked at a different time or pay period; by failing to pay for reporting time pay;
28 and/or by manipulating or editing time records to show lesser hours than actually worked during the

1 pay period. Further, Plaintiffs were not properly paid sick pay leave required under the Labor
2 Code.

3 29. Plaintiffs and other similarly situated employees have not been paid during the 4 relevant liability periods, minimum wages for all regular hours worked, as a result of, among other
5 things, Defendants failing to accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; engaging,
6 suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock; failing to pay for reporting time
7 pay; and/or by manipulating or editing time records to show lesser hours than actually worked 8 during the pay period.

9 30. Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of failing during the relevant
10 liability periods, Plaintiffs and similarly situated employees or former employees within the State
11 of California a thirty (30) minute, uninterrupted, and timely meal period for days on which the 12 employees worked more than five (5) hours in a workday; a second thirty (30) minute,
13 uninterrupted, and timely meal periods for days on which employees worked in excess of ten (10) 14 hours in a workday; and/or compensation for such unprovided meal periods as required by 15 California wage and hour laws.

16 31. Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of failing to provide Plaintiffs
17 and similarly situated employees or former employees within the State of California rest periods 18 of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof and failing to 19 provide compensation for such unprovided rest periods as required by California wage and hour 20 laws.

21 32. At the time Plaintiffs' employment and the employment of other former employees 22 of Defendants ended, Defendants willfully failed to pay overtime and minimum wages at the 23 proper rate and failed to pay one hour of wages in lieu of each non-compliant meal and/or rest 24 period, among other things.

25 33. Defendants have failed to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by 26 not providing itemized wage statements accurately showing, including but not limited to, gross 27 wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; all applicable hourly rates in effect during 28 the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; the legal name

1 and address of the employer; and other such information as required by Labor Code section 226,
2 subdivision (a).

3 34. Defendants have failed, during the relevant liability periods, to comply with Labor
4 Code section 226, subdivision (c) by failing to, upon written request to inspect or receive copies of 5 records pursuant to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (b), pertaining to a current or former 6 employee, complying with the request within 21 days from the date thereof, in connection with 7 Plaintiff and all others similarly situated.

8 35. Defendants have failed to comply, during the relevant liability periods, with Labor Code
9 section 1198.5 by failing to make the contents of personnel records that the employer maintains 10 relating to the employee's performance or to any grievance concerning the employee available for 11 inspection within 30 calendar days from the date of a written request, as required by Labor Code
12 section 1198.5.

13 36. Defendants have failed to reimburse Plaintiff and similarly situated employees,
14 during the relevant liability periods, as required under Labor Code section 2802 for business
15 expenses in furtherance of their work duties, including but not limited to mileage and cell phone 16 usage, in violation of, among other authorities, Labor Code section 2802.

17 37. Plaintiffs and other similarly situated employees or former employees at all times
18 pertinent hereto were not exempt from the payment of overtime wages, minimum wages, payment 19 of premium wages for missed rest periods, waiting time penalties, wage statement penalties, being 20 permitted to inspect documents requested by employees under Labor Code sections 226 and 21 1198.5, reimbursement for expenses incurred in furtherance of job duties, being paid all gratuities
22 left to them without sharing them with Defendants or their agents, and other such provisions of 23 California law, and the implementing rules and regulations of the IWC California Wage Orders.

24 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

25 38. Plaintiffs bring this action on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, as a 26 class action pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class of 27 all current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any 28 time commencing four (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that

1 notice of the class action is provided to the class (collectively referred to as "Class Members").

2 39. Plaintiffs reserve the right under California Rule of Court rule 3.765, subdivision
3 (b) to amend or modify the class description with greater specificity or further division into 4 subclasses or limitation to particular issues.

5 40. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
6 under the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined
7 community of interest in the litigation and the proposed Class is easily ascertainable.

8 A. Numerosity

9 41. The potential Class Members as defined are so numerous that joinder of all the 10 members of the Class is impracticable. While the precise number of Class Members has not been 11 determined yet, Plaintiff is informed and believes that there are over one hundred (100) Class
12 Members employed by Defendants within the State of California.

13 42. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant periods necessarily increases
14 this number substantially. Plaintiff alleges Defendants' employment records would provide 15 information as to the number and location of all Class Members. Joinder of all members of the 16 proposed Class is not practicable.

17 B. Commonality

18 43. There are questions of law and fact common to Class Members. These common 19 questions include, but are not limited to:

20 (a) Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1197
21 by failing to adequately track, and therefore adequately pay,
22 wages for time worked by Class Members?

23 (b) Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1197
24 by editing and/or manipulating Class Members' time entries to 25 show lesser hours than actually worked during a pay period?

26 (c) Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 510, 1194 and 1197
27 by recharacterizing overtime hours worked to appear that they 28 worked at a different time or pay period to avoid payment of overtime wages?

(d) Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1197 by requiring that employees work off-the-clock?

(e) Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 510, 1194 and 1197 by failing to provide reporting time pay?

(f) Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1197 by failing to pay employees for all hours worked during training?

(g) Are Class Members entitled to liquidated damages under Labor Code section 1194.2 for Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages for all hours worked?

(h) Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 512 by not providing Class Members with compliant meal periods?

(i) Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 226. 7 by not providing Class Members with additional wages for missed or interrupted meal periods?

(j) Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 512 by not providing Class Members with rest periods?

(k) Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 226. 7 by not providing Class Members with additional wages for missed or interrupted rest periods?

(l) Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 201 and 202 by failing to pay Class Members upon termination or resignation all wages earned?

(m) Are Defendants liable to Class Members for penalty wages under Labor Code section 203?

(n) Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by not furnishing Class Members with accurate wage statements?

(o) Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 226, subdivision (c)

1 by not timely providing Class Members with (or permitting them
2 to inspect) a complete set of the documents described in Labor
3 Code section 226, subdivision (b) upon request?

4 (p) Are Defendants liable to Class Members for penalties under Labor
5 Code section 226, subdivision (f)?

6 (q) Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 1198.5 by not
7 providing Class Members with timely and complete personnel
8 records described under Labor Code section 1198.5, subdivision
9 (a) upon request?

10 (r) Are Defendants liable to Class Members for penalties under Labor
11 Code section 1198.5, subdivision (k)?

12 (s) Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 2802 by not 13 reimbursing for business expenses?

14 (t) Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 246 by not properly
15 paying sick pay?

16 (u) Did Defendants violate the Unfair Competition Law, Business and 17 Professions Code section 17200, et seq., by their unlawful 18 practices as alleged herein?

19 (v) Are Class Members entitled to restitution of wages under 20 Business and Professions Code section 17203?

21 (w) Are Class Members entitled to costs and attorneys' fees?

22 C. Typicality

23 44. The claims of Plaintiffs herein alleged are typical of those claims which could be 24 alleged by any Class members, and the relief sought is typical of the relief which would be sought
25 by each Class Member in separate actions. Plaintiffs and Class Members sustained injuries and 26 damages arising out of and caused by Defendants' common course of conduct in violation of laws
27 and regulations that have the force and effect of law and statutes as alleged herein.

28 D. Adequacy of Representation

1 45. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interest of Class Members.
2 Counsel who represents Plaintiffs is competent and experienced in litigating wage and hour class
3 actions.

4 E. Superiority of Class Action

5 46. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of 6 this controversy. Individual joinder of all Class Members is not practicable, and questions of law
7 and fact common to Class Members predominate over any questions affecting only individual Class
8 Members. Class Members, as further described therein, have been damaged and are entitled to 9 recovery by reason of Defendants' illegal policy and/or practices, including, without limitation, 10 failing to pay overtime wages, minimum wages; failing to provide meal and rest breaks or 11 compensation in lieu thereof; failing to provide accurate wage statements; failing to pay all wages
12 due upon termination and/or resignation; failing to timely permit inspection of complete records
13 under Labor Code sections 226 and 1198.5; failing to reimburse employees for expenses incurred in 14 furtherance of job duties; and failing to pay over all gratuities left for Class Members to those Class
15 Members.

16 47. Class action treatment will allow those similarly situated to litigate their claims in a
17 manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system. Plaintiffs are 18 unaware of any difficulties that are likely to be encountered in the management of this action that 19 would preclude its maintenance as a class action.

20 PAGA ALLEGATIONS

21 48. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 22 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), against Defendants, and any of their 23 respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California, and individual owners,
24 as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of California ("LWDA"),

12 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiffs and all other aggrieved current and former 13 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

14 51. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative action
15 permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court. Class certification of the PAGA allegations 16 described herein is not required.

17 52. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the LWDA
18 regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), Defendants

12 week, and seven consecutive work days on a work week without being properly compensated for 13 hours worked in excess of (8) hours per day in a work day, forty (40) hours per week in a work week,
14 and/or hours worked on the seventh consecutive work day in a work week by, among other things,
15 failing to accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting
16 employees to work off the clock, failing to pay overtime hours at the proper overtime rate of pay, 17 including, without limitation, by paying overtime hours at the improper rate(s) of pay and/or 18 recharacterizing overtime hours worked to appear that they worked at a different time or pay period;

20 manipulating or editing time records to show lesser hours than actually worked during the pay period,
21 to the detriment of Plaintiffs and other aggrieved employees.

22 57. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of failing to 23 pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs and other non-exempt employees in the State of California in 24 violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, among other things, Defendants failing

2 provide Plaintiffs and other similarly situated employees or former employees within the State of 3 California a thirty (30) minute, uninterrupted meal period for days on which the employees worked 4 more than five (5) hours in a work day, and a second thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal period for 5 days on which employees worked in excess of ten (10) hours in a work day, and failing to provide 6 compensation for such unprovided meal periods as required by California wage and hour laws.

7 59. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of failing to 8 provide Plaintiff and similarly situated employees or former employees within the State of California
9 rest periods of at least ten(10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof and failing
10 to provide compensation for such unprovided rest periods as required by California wage and hour

12 60. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and other similarly 13 situated employees the full amount of their wages owed to them upon termination and/or resignation
14 as required by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 as a result of their failure to pay overtime wages as 15 herein mentioned.

16 61. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of failing to 17 furnish Plaintiffs and similarly situated employees within the State of California with itemized wage 18 statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; all 19 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked 20 at each hourly rate; the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and other such 27 date thereof.

28

63. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of making the contents of personnel records that the employer maintains relating to the employee's performance or to any grievance concerning the employee available for inspection within 30 calendar days from the date of a written request, as required by Labor Code section 1198.5.

64. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to indemnify Plaintiffs and other similarly situated employees or former employees within the State of California for business expenses incurred in furtherance of their work duties, in violation of, among other authorities, Labor Code section 2802.

65. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves, and all other aggrieved employees, seeks civil penalties under, but not limited to, Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699, for the herein-described acts, which violate the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

66. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth hereto.

67. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Labor Code section 510 was in effect and provided: "(a) Eight hours of labor constitutes a day's work. Any work in excess of eight hours in one workday and any work in excess of forty hours in any one workweek . . . shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee."

68. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Labor Code section 510 further provided that "[a]ny work in excess of 12 hours in one day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay."

69. At all times mentioned, Plaintiffs and Class Members, worked for Defendants during shifts that consisted of more than eight (8) hours in a workday and/or more than forty hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) consecutive workdays in a workweek, without being paid overtime wages for all hours worked as a result of, including but not limited to, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, failing to pay overtime hours at the proper overtime rate of pay, including, without limitation, by paying overtime hours at the improper rate(s) of pay and/or recharacterizing overtime hours worked to appear that they worked at a different time or pay period; by failing to pay for reporting time pay; and/or by manipulating or editing time records to show lesser hours than actually worked during the pay period, by Plaintiffs and other similarly situated employees in the State of California.

70. Accordingly, by requiring Plaintiffs and Class Members to work greater than eight (8) hours per workday, forty (40) hours per workweek, and/or seven (7) straight workdays without properly compensating overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay, Defendants willfully violated the provisions of the Labor Code, among others, sections 510, 1194, and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and California law.

71. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiffs and Class Members have been deprived of overtime wages in amounts to be determined at trial, and are entitled to recovery of such amounts, plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees and costs, pursuant to Labor Code section 1194 and 1199, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287.

74. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197 and applicable Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and Class Members were entitled to receive minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under Defendants' control.

75. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and Class Members minimum wages for all hours worked as a result of, including but not limited to, Defendants failing to accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock (including by requiring employees to be on-call and failing to pay for all hours worked during training); failing to pay for reporting time pay; and/or by manipulating or editing time records to show lesser hours than actually worked during the pay period by Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees in the State of California.

76. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiffs and Class Members have suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid minimum wages for all minutes worked or otherwise due.

79. Pursuant to Labor Code section 512 and applicable Wage Orders, no employer shall employ an employee for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a timely meal break of not less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of all of his or her duties. Furthermore, no employer shall employ an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second timely meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of all of his or her duties.

1 81. Plaintiffs and Class Members were during the relevant time period, not provided
2 with requisite uninterrupted meal periods as contemplated under the law.

3 82. By their failure to provide Plaintiffs and Class Members with the meal periods
4 contemplated by Labor Code section 512, among other California authorities, and failing to provide
5 compensation for such unprovided meal periods, as alleged above, Defendants willfully
6 violated the provisions of Labor Code section 512 and applicable Wage Orders.

7 83. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiffs and Class Members have suffered
8 damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid additional pay owed for 9 missed, untimely, interrupted and/or incomplete meal periods.

10 84. Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to recover the full amount of their unpaid 11 additional pay for missed meal periods, in amounts to be determined at trial, and are entitled to 12 recovery of such amounts, plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs, under

15 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (Failure to Provide Rest Periods - Against All Defendants)

17 85. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference all of the allegations contained in 18 the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth hereto.

19 86. California law and applicable Wage Orders require that employers "authorize and 20 permit" employees to take ten (10) minute rest periods in about the middle of each four (4) hour
21 work period "or major fraction thereof." Accordingly, employees who work shifts of three and-a-22 half (3 1/2) to six (6) hours must be provided ten (10) minutes of paid rest period, employees who 23 work shifts of more than six (6) and up to ten (10) hours must be provided with twenty (20) minutes
24 of paid rest period, and employees who work shifts of more than ten (10) hours must be 25 provided thirty (30) minutes of paid rest period.

26 87. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226. 7, if an employer fails to provide an employee with a
27 meal period or rest period as provided in the applicable Wage Order of the Industrial Welfare
28 Commission, the employer shall pay the employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's

1 regular rate of compensation for each work day that the rest period is not provided.

2 88. By their failure to provide Plaintiffs and Class Members with the rest periods contemplated
3 by California law, and failure to provide compensation for such unprovided rest periods, as alleged 4 above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Labor Code section 226.7 and applicable
5 Wage Orders.

12 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13 (Failure to Pay All Wages Due Upon Termination -Against All Defendants)

14 91. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference all of the allegations contained in 15 the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth hereto.

16 92. At all relevant times, Plaintiffs and Class Members were employees of Defendants 17 covered by Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

18 93. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 201 and 202, Plaintiff and Class Members were 19 entitled upon termination to timely payment of all wages earned and unpaid prior to termination.
20 Discharged employees were entitled to payment of all wages earned and unpaid prior to discharge
21 immediately upon termination. Employees who resigned were entitled to payment of all wages 22 earned and unpaid prior to resignation within 72 hours after giving notice of resignation or, if they 23 gave 72 hours' previous notice, they were entitled to payment of all wages earned and unpaid at the 24 time of resignation.

25 94. Plaintiffs are informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, due to the 26 failure to provide overtime and minimum wages mentioned above, failed to pay Plaintiffs and Class
27 Members all wages earned and unpaid, including overtime wages and minimum wages, prior to 28 resignation or termination in accordance with Labor Code sections 201 or 202.

95. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and Class Members all wages earned prior to termination in accordance with Labor Code sections 201 and 202 was willful. Defendants had the ability to pay all wages earned by Plaintiff and Class Members at the time of termination in accordance with Labor Code sections 201 and 202, but intentionally adopted policies or practices incompatible with the requirements of Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

96. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 201 and 202, Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to all wages earned prior to termination that Defendants failed to pay them.

97. Pursuant to Labor Code section 203, Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to penalty wages from the date their earned and unpaid wages were due, upon termination, until paid, up to a maximum of thirty (30) days.

100. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 203, 218 and 218.5, Code of Civil Procedure sections 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to recover the full amount of their unpaid wages, and penalty wages under Labor Code section 203, reasonable attorneys' fees on their unpaid wages, and costs of suit.

101. Pursuant to Labor Code section 203 and 218.6, Code of Civil Procedure sections 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to recover waiting time penalties, interest, and other costs of suit on the waiting time penalties, as well.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements -Against All Defendants)

102. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference all of the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth hereto.

103. At all relevant times, Plaintiffs and Class Members were employees of Defendants covered

1 by Labor Code section 226.

2 104. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), Plaintiffs and Class Members were 3 entitled to receive, semi-monthly or at the time of each payment of wages, an accurate itemized
4 statement that accurately reflects, among other things, gross wages earned; total hours worked; net
5 wages earned; all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding 6 number of hours worked at each hourly rate; and the name and address of the legal entity that is the 7 employer.

8 105. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that at all relevant times,
9 Defendants, due to the failure to pay due wages for the reasons described herein, also failed to issue
10 wage statements that accurately set out amounts due to, among other things, gross wages earned;
11 total hours worked; net wages earned; and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period 12 and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; and the name and address of the 13 legal entity that is the employer.

14 106. Thus, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and Class Members accurate itemized
15 wage statements in accordance with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

16 107. Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiffs and Class Members with accurate wage statements
17 was knowing, intentional, and willful. Defendants had the ability to provide Plaintiffs and Class
18 Members with accurate wage statements, but willfully provided wage statements that Defendants 19 knew were not accurate.

20 108. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiffs and Class Members have suffered
21 injury. The absence of accurate information on their wage statements has delayed timely challenge 22 to Defendants' unlawful pay practices; requires discovery and mathematical computations to 23 determine the amount of wages owed; causes difficulty and expense in attempting to reconstruct 24 time and pay records; and led to submission of inaccurate information about wages and amounts 25 deducted from wages to state and federal governmental agencies.

26 109. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e), Plaintiffs and Class Members
27 are entitled to recover $50 for the initial pay period during the period in which violation of Labor
28 Code section 226 occurred and $100 for each violation of Labor Code section 226 in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate $4,000.00 per employee.

110. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 226, subdivisions (e) and (g), Code of Civil Procedure section 1032, Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover the full amount of penalties due under Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e), reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs of suit.

112. At all relevant times, Plaintiffs and Class Members were employees or former employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code section 226.

113. At all relevant times, under Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), all deductions made from payment of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California.

114. At all relevant times, under Labor Code section 226, subdivision (b), an employer required to keep information required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) must afford current and former employees the right to inspect or receive a copy of records pertaining to their employment, upon reasonable request to the employer.

117. Defendants violated Labor Code section 226 by failing to timely permit Plaintiffs and Class Members to inspect or records described in Labor Code section 226, subdivision (b) that Defendants were required to maintain under subsection (a) upon reasonable request. Moreover, Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that at all relevant times within the applicable limitations period, Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to timely permit current or former employees inspect or copy their complete personnel records.

118. As a result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiffs and Class Members did not receive documents to which they were entitled under Labor Code section 226, subdivision (b) and thus were not able to fully assess potential Labor Code and/or common law violations pertaining to unpaid wages by Defendants against Plaintiff and Class Members while applicable statutes of limitations continue to run, resulting in irreparable injuries without adequate remedies at law. Additionally, Plaintiff and Class Members bear the risk of being irreparably injured should the documents and records responsive to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (b) be lost and/or destroyed.

119. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 226, subdivisions (f) and (g), Code of Civil Procedure section 1032, Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover the full amount of penalties due under Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e), reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit.

5 informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all relevant times within the applicable
6 limitations period, Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to timely permit current or 7 former employees inspect or copy their complete personnel records.

8 125. As a result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiffs and Class Members did not receive their 9 complete personnel records as contemplated by Labor Code section 1198.5 and were not able to 10 fully assess potential Labor Code and/or common law workplace-based violations by Defendants
11 against Plaintiffs and Class Members while applicable statutes of limitations continue to run,
12 resulting in irreparable injuries without adequate remedies at law. Additionally, Plaintiffs and Class 13 Members bear the risk of being irreparably injured should the documents and records responsive to 14 Labor Code section 1198.5 be lost and/or destroyed.

15 126. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1198.5, Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to a 16 statutory $750 penalty each from Defendants and injunctive relief to obtain compliance with this

28 Plaintiffs and Class Members for the costs incurred, including but not limited to, supplies and

1 expenses required to perform their job duties.

2 131. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiffs and Class Members have suffered
3 damages in an amount subject to proof, to the extent they were not reimbursed for costs incurred in 4 furtherance of their work duties for Defendants.

5 132. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2802, Code of Civil Procedure section 1032, and Civil Code
6 section 3287, Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to recover actual costs incurred, reasonable 7 attorney's fees and costs of suit.

8 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Failure to Pay Sick Pay-Against All Defendants)

19 damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid sick pay.

20 138. Pursuant to Labor Code and Code of Civil Procedure, and Civil Code, Plaintiff and Class
21 Members are entitled to recover the full amount of unpaid sick pay, interest and penalties thereon, 22 liquidated damages, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit.

23 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Unfair Competition - Against All Defendants)

25 139. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference all of the allegations contained in the 26 preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth hereto.

27 140. The unlawful conduct of Defendants alleged herein constitutes unfair competition within the 28 meaning of Business and Professions Code section 17200. Due to their unlawful business practices

1 in violation of the Labor Code, Defendants have gained a competitive advantage over other
2 comparable companies doing business in the State of California that comply with their obligations
3 to compensate employees in accordance with the Labor Code.

4 141. As a result of Defendants' unfair competition as alleged herein, Plaintiffs and Class
5 Members have suffered injury in fact and lost money or property. Plaintiffs and Class Members
6 have been deprived of overtime compensation; minimum wage compensation; provision of meal
7 breaks or compensation in lieu thereof; provision of rest breaks or compensation in lieu thereof;
8 provision of all wages upon termination or resignation; from being provided with accurate wage
9 statements; inspection of complete sets of documents to which they are entitled under Labor Code 10 sections 226 and 1198.5; reimbursement for costs incurred in furtherance of job duties; and from 11 receipt of gratuities left to them, among other things.

12 142. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiffs and Class Members are 13 entitled to restitution of all wages and other monies owed to them under the Labor Code, including 14 interest thereon, in which they had a property interest and which Defendants nevertheless failed to 15 pay them and instead withheld and retained for themselves. Restitution of the money owed to 16 Plaintiffs and Class Members is necessary to prevent Defendants from becoming unjustly enriched
17 by their failure to comply with the Labor Code.

18 143. Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to costs of suit under Code of Civil Procedure
19 section 1032 and interest under Civil Code section 3287.

20 TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Civil Penalties Under Labor Code Section 2699 (PAGA))

22 (Against All Defendants and Does 1-30)

23 144. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference into this cause of action all allegations set 24 forth above.

25 145. Plaintiffs are aggrieved employees under the Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA"), as 26 they suffered one or more Labor Code violations set forth in this Complaint and identified in Labor 27 Code section 2699.5. They bring this claim on behalf of themselves and other workers working for 28 Defendants to recover civil penalties provided by PAGA and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

146. Defendants committed against aggrieved employees violations of the Labor Code, including but not limited to violations of Sections 98.6, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198.5, 1199, 2802, and 2699, among others. Further, Defendants committed violations of Labor Code section 1102.5 against Plaintiff, as alleged above. Section 1102.5(c) provides that “an employer, or any person acting on behalf of the employer, shall not retaliate against an employee for refusing to participate in an activity that would result in a violation of state or federal statute, or a violation of or noncompliance with a local, state, or federal rule or regulation.” Moreover, Labor Code section 1102.5(d) provides that “an employer, or any person acting on behalf of the employer, shall not retaliate against an employee for having exercised their rights under subdivision (a), (b), or (c) in any former employment.”

147. On or about April 23, 2025, Plaintiffs filed a claim with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and provided proper notice by certified mail to the LWDA and Defendants in accordance with Labor Code section 2699.3 (the “PAGA Notice”). Over 65 calendar days have elapsed since the postmark date of the PAGA Notice, and Plaintiff has not received a notice from the LWDA of the LWDA’s intention to investigate Defendants’ alleged violations.

148. As a result of the above violations, Plaintiffs seek all civil penalties owed, reasonable attorneys’ fees, and costs of suit.

WHEREFORE, on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated, Plaintiffs pray for judgment against Defendants as follows:

- a. An order certifying this case as a Class Action;
- b. An Order appointing Plaintiffs as Class Representatives and appointing Plaintiffs’ counsel as class counsel;
