NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR COUNSEL OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on September 9, 2025 at 10:00 a.m., in Department 11 of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, located at 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, CA 90012, Plaintiff Lorena Yopez (“Plaintiff”) will, and hereby does, move for an order as follows:

1. Certifying the Class for settlement purposes;
2. Approving the settlement as fair and reasonable and finding that class members were given notice of the settlement, and advised of their rights to participate in the settlement, object to the settlement, or exclude themselves from the settlement, in a reasonable manner;
3. Appointing Plaintiff Lorena Yopez as Class Representative for settlement purposes, and approving a Class Representative Service Award of $5,000.00 to Plaintiff Lorena Yopez;
4. Appointing Plaintiff’s Counsel, Alan Wilcox and Bradford Smith of Wilshire Law Firm, PLC as Class Counsel for settlement purposes, and approving payment of $83,333.33 in attorneys’ fees, which is 33 1/3% of the Gross Settlement Amount;
5. Approving costs in the amount of $19,103.02 for litigating this action to Class Counsel;
6. Approving payment of administrative expenses to ILYM Group, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator in the amount of $4,995.00;
7. Directing that the clerk of the Court to enter the Court’s order as a final judgment; and,
8. Without affecting the finality of the final judgment, reserving continuing jurisdiction over the Parties for the purposes of implementing, enforcing and/or administering the Settlement or enforcing the terms of the judgment.

This Motion will be based on the accompanying Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Declarations of Alan Wilcox, Nathalie Hernandez, and Lorena Yopez, and such oral argument as may be heard by the Court, and all other papers on file in this action.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Lorena Yepez (“Plaintiff”) seeks final approval of a proposed $250,000.00 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendant East Los Angeles Remarkable Citizen’s Association, Inc. (“Defendant”, and together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”). The Settlement will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 149 class members. And, as set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law.

The proposed settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. A presumption of fairness exists as the Settlement was reached through extensive, mediated arm’s-length negotiations, sufficient investigation and discovery, which allowed Class Counsel to act intelligently, and Class Counsel is experienced in similar wage and hour litigation. Upon the Court’s approval of the settlement, participating class members will receive an average estimated individual net settlement payment of approximately $729.20, with the highest individual estimated net settlement payment to be paid of approximately $2,294.06. (Declaration of Nathalie Hernandez of ILYM Group, Inc., in support of Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement [“Hernandez Decl.”], ¶ 14.) As of filing this Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement (the “Motion”), there no objections to the settlement and no requests for exclusion. (Id. at ¶¶ 11-12.) The administrator will provide a supplemental declaration once the responsive deadline passes. Thus, the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members.

Final approval of the settlement is warranted as it satisfies all the criteria for approval under California law. As demonstrated in the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement, the proposed Settlement provides excellent benefits to the class, particularly considering the complexities and risks of the case. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court grant final approval of the proposed Settlement.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiff's Claims

This is a wage and hour class and Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA") (Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) representative action. Plaintiff and the putative class members worked in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for Defendant during the class period. Defendant is a non-profit 501(c)(3) corporation operating since 1965 that works with people who have developmental disabilities. (Declaration of Alan Wilcox in Support of Plaintiff's Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement ["Wilcox Decl."], ¶ 2.)

Plaintiff alleges that Defendant's payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices resulted in Labor Code violations. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay for all hours worked. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant failed to provide employees with legally compliant meal and rest periods and Defendant failed to reimburse business expenses. Based on these allegations, Plaintiff asserts related claims for failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to pay all final wages at termination, unfair business practices, and civil penalties under the PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 3.)

On September 29, 2022, Plaintiff filed a putative wage and hour class action complaint against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures; and (8) unfair business practices. (Id. at ¶ 4.) On September 29, 2022, Plaintiff sent a notice to Defendant and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") alleging similar wage and hour violations pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act "PAGA" (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) On January 13, 2023, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint against Defendant adding claims for civil penalties under PAGA. (Id.)

B. Discovery and Investigation

Following the filing of the initial complaint, the Parties exchanged documents and information before mediating this action. (Wilcox Decl., ¶ 5.) Defendant produced a sample of 1 time and pay records for the class members. Defendant also provided employee handbooks 2 outlining its wage and hour policies and practices during the class period and information regarding 3 the total number of current and former employees in its informal discovery responses. (Id.)

4 After reviewing documents regarding Defendant's wage and hour policies and practices 5 and analyzing Defendant's timekeeping and payroll records, Class Counsel was able to evaluate 6 the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendant's maximum monetary 7 exposure for all claims. (Id. at ¶ 6.) Class Counsel also investigated the applicable law regarding 8 the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Class Counsel reviewed these records and 9 prepared a damage analysis assessing Defendant's potential liability prior to mediation. (Id.)

10 C. Settlement Negotiations and Agreement

11 On June 15, 2023, the Parties participated in private mediation with experienced class 12 action mediator, Lynn Frank. (Wilcox Decl., ¶ 7.) The mediation was conducted via Zoom.
13 The settlement negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a professional 14 manner, were adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential 15 for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through 16 trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and 17 discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and Defendant's 18 defenses, the Parties reached a settlement, the material terms of which are encompassed within 19 the Settlement Agreement. (Id., Ex. 1 [Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and 20 Class Notice].)

21 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. Based 22 on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 23 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best 24 interests of the Settlement Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk 25 of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant both to certification and 26 on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Id. at ¶ 8.)

1 D. Preliminary Approval and Overwhelming Support for the Settlement

2 Plaintiff filed her Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement on 3 February 28, 2024. (Wilcox Decl., ¶ 9.) On April 24, 2024, the Court continued the MPA 4 hearing in order for the Parties to correct deficiencies identified by the Court regarding the 5 Settlement. (Id.) Plaintiff filed her amended Motion for Preliminary Approval on September 6 13, 2024. (Id.) On January 30, 2025, the Court granted Plaintiff's Amended Motion for 7 Preliminary Approval. (Id.) The deadline for class members to opt out or object to the 8 Settlement was April 21, 2025. (Id.) The reaction of the Class to the settlement so far has been 9 overwhelmingly positive. Indeed, as of the filing of this Motion, no Class Member has opted 10 out of the settlement and no Class Member has objected to the settlement. (Id.)

11 E. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

12 Under the Settlement Agreement, Defendants will pay $250,000.00 to resolve this 13 litigation. The key terms include:

14 1. Settlement Class: For purposes of this Settlement Agreement only, the Parties 15 agree to the certification of the classes pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 16 defined as: "all current and former non-exempt, hour paid employees who worked for Defendant 17 EAST LOS ANGELES REMARKABLE CITIZEN'S ASSOCIATION, INC., within the State 18 of California at any time during the Class Period." (Settlement, ¶ 1.5.)

19 2. Class Period: "shall mean the period of time from September 29, 2018 to 20 September 24, 2024." (Settlement, ¶ 1.12.)

21 3. Participating Class Members: "means a Class Member who does not submit a 22 valid and timely Request for Exclusion from the Settlement." (Settlement, ¶ 1.35.)

23 4. Aggrieved Employee: "means all current and former non-exempt, hour paid 24 employees who worked for Defendant EAST LOS ANGELES REMARKABLE CITIZEN'S 25 ASSOCIATION, INC., within the State of California at any time during the PAGA Period"
26 (Settlement, ¶ 1.4.)

27 5. PAGA Period: "means the period from September 29, 2021 to September 24, 28 2023." (Settlement, ¶ 1.31.)

6. Gross Settlement Amount: “means $250,000.00 which is the total Defendant agrees to pay under the Settlement except as provided in Paragraph 9 below, and not including the employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments. The Gross Settlement Amount will be used to pay Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Counsel Fees, Class Counsel Expenses, Class Representative Service Payment and the Administrator’s Expenses.” (Settlement, ¶ 1.22.)

7. Uncashed Checks: :”For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Controller’s Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no ‘unpaid residue’ subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b).” (Settlement, ¶ 4.5.3.)

8. Participating Class Members Released Claims: “All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from any and all claims that were or reasonably could have been alleged in the Operative Complaint that arose during the Class Period including the following claims: (a) failure to pay minimum wages owed; (b) failure to pay all overtime wages owed; (c) failure to provide meal periods, or premium pay for non-compliant meal periods; (d) failure to authorize and permit rest periods, or provide premium pay for non-compliant rest periods; (e) failure to timely pay all wages due upon separation of employment; (f) failure to timely pay all wages due during employment; (g) failure to issue accurate, itemized wage statements and maintain payroll records; (h) failure to reimburse for necessary business expenses; (i) all claims under California Business & Professions Code § 17200 for unfair business practices that could have been premised on the facts, claims, causes of action or legal theories described above; (j) violation of or claims under the following sections of the California Labor Code, sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1174, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, 2802; and (j) violation of the California Industrial Wage Orders that could have been premised on the facts, claims, causes of 1 action or legal theories described above, as well as any potential penalties, interest or attorneys’

2 fees associated with all of such causes of action under California law. (“Released Class 3 Claims”). Except for Plaintiff’s Release by Plaintiff and as set forth in Section 5.3 of this 4 Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for 5 vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, 6 unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers’ compensation, or claims based on 7 facts occurring outside the Class Period.” (Settlement, ¶ 5.2.)

8 1. Released PAGA Claims by Aggrieved Employees: “All Aggrieved Employees, 9 regardless of whether they are Participating Class Members or Non-Participating Class 10 Members, no behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, 11 agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release the Released Parties 12 from all claims, demands, rights, liabilities and causes of action under the California Labor 13 Code Private Attorneys General Act that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, 14 based on the claims asserted in the Operative Complaint, the PAGA Notice (including any 15 amendments thereto) and ascertained in the course of the Action, arising during or with respect 16 to the PAGA Period (“Released PAGA Claims”). The foregoing release shall be binding on 17 Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California, and shall bar buy res judicata 18 any claims under the PAGA brought by any person, including the Aggrieved Employees, on 19 behalf of the State of California, as to any claims predicated on the Released PAGA Claims.
20 Except for Released Class Claims being released by Participating Class Members as set forth in 21 Section 5.2 of this Agreement, Aggrieved Employees do no release any other claims, including 22 the underlying wage-and-hour claims upon which the Released PAGA Claims are based on.”
23 (Settlement, ¶ 5.3.)

24 2. PAGA Allocation: The settlement includes $20,000.00 allocated to Plaintiff’s 25 claims under PAGA, with 75% of which ($15,000.00) being paid to the LWDA and 25% 26 ($5,000.00) being paid to the Aggrieved Employees. (Settlement ¶ 3.2.5.) Class Counsel 27 submitted the proposed settlement to the LWDA before filing the Motion for Preliminary 28 Approval. (Wilcox Decl., ¶ 11.)

1 3. Net Settlement Amount: “means the Gross Settlement Amount, less the following 2 payments in the amounts approved by the Court: Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA 3 Payment, Class Representative Service Payment, and the Administration Expense Payment.
4 The remainder is to be paid to Participating Class Members as Individual Class Payments.”
5 (Settlement, ¶ 1.28.)

6 4. Distribution Formula: “An Individual Class Payment calculated by (a) dividing 7 the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class 8 Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class 9 Member’s Workweeks.” (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.4.) As to PAGA: “The Administrator will calculate 10 each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of Aggrieved Employees’ 25% share 11 of PAGA Penalties ($5,000.00) by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all 12 Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved 13 Employee’s PAGA Pay Periods.” (Settlement ¶ 3.2.5.1.)

14 5. Tax Allocation: “20% of each Participating Class Member’s Individual Class 15 Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims (the “Wage Portion”). The Wage 16 Portions are subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. 80% of each 17 Participating Class Member’s Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of claims 18 for interest and penalties (the “Non-Wage Portion”). The Non-Wage Portions are not subject 19 to wage withholdings and will be reported on IRS 1099 Forms.” (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.4.1.)

20 6. Class Representative Service Award: “Class Representative Service Payment to 21 the Class Representative of not more than $5,000.00 (in addition to any Individual Class 22 Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment the Class Representative is entitled to receive as a 23 Participating Class Member).” (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.1.)

24 7. Attorneys’ Fees and Costs: “A Class Counsel Fees Payment of not more than one-25 third of the Gross Settlement Amount, which is currently estimated to be $83,333.33 and a Class 26 Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of not more than $20,000.00. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.2.)

27 8. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Notice set forth in plain terms, 28 a statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount of attorneys' fees, costs, and service awards being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement allocations are calculated. (Hernandez Decl., ¶ 3, Settlement, Ex. A.) Class Members were notified by first-class mail of the settlement. (Settlement, ¶ 7.4.2.) ILYM Group, Inc., the Settlement Administrator, undertook its best efforts to ensure that the notice was provided to the current addresses of class members, including conducting a national change of address search and re-mailing the notice to updated addresses. (Id.)

III. THE SETTLEMENT MERITS FINAL APPROVAL

The law favors the settlement of lawsuits, particularly in class actions and other complex cases. (See e.g., Neary v. Regents of Univ. of California (1992) 3 Cal.4th 272, 277-81.) Factors to be considered in evaluating a class action settlement include "the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a government participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement." (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) A presumption that a settlement is fair and reasonable exists where, as here, the following four factors are present: "(1) the settlement is reached through arm's length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small." (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245.)

Whether a class action settlement should be approved is a question committed to the trial court's broad discretion. (Id. at pp. 234-35.) In exercising its discretion, the Court should give "[d]ue regard ...to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties." (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801.) "The inquiry 'must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.'" (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

A. The Settlement Reflects a Reasonable Compromise

A settlement is not judged against what the plaintiff might recover had he or she prevailed

1 at trial, nor does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and 2 reasonable. (Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at pp. 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent and 3 necessary in the settlement process...even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is 4 substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no bar 5 to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in 6 which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

7 The settlement obviates the significant risk that this Court may deny certification of all or 8 some of Plaintiff’s claims. (Wilcox Decl., ¶ 10.) While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of her 9 claims, a legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id.) Plaintiff also recognizes 10 that proving the amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-11 consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id.) Furthermore, even if Plaintiff obtained certification 12 of all or some of the claims, continued litigation would be expensive, involving a trial and possible 13 appeals, and would substantially delay and reduce any recovery by the class. (Id.)

14 Because of the proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief 15 and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the 16 uncertainties involved in achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish 17 liability, the probability of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount of 18 $250,000.00 is within the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and settlement approval is appropriate.
19 Indeed, each Settlement Class Member is eligible to receive an average benefit of approximately 20 $729.20, and the highest estimated net payout is expected to be approximately $2,294.06.
21 (Hernandez Decl., ¶ 14.)

22 B. The Settlement was Reached After Arms-Length Negotiations Following 23 Formal and Informal Discovery

24 The Settlement was reached over the course of a full-day mediation with experienced 25 employment mediator, Lynn Frank. (Wilcox Decl., ¶ 7.) The settlement negotiations were at arm’s 26 length and, although conducted in a professional manner, were adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went 27 into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was 28 also prepared to litigate their or its position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been

1 reached. (Id.)

2 Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 3 the claims set forth in the litigation, such as a sample of class member timekeeping and payroll 4 records, Defendant's policies and procedures concerning the payment of wages, the provision of 5 meal and rest breaks, issuance of wage statements, and providing all wages at separation, as well 6 as information regarding the number of putative class members and the mix of current versus 7 former employees, the wage rates in effect, and the amount of meal and rest period premium wages 8 paid to class members. (Id. at ¶¶ 5-6.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, 9 Class Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the 10 litigation. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff and her counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in 11 negotiating the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

12 C. Plaintiff's Counsel Has Substantial Class Action Experience

13 Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with 14 litigating wage and hour class actions. (Wilcox Decl., ¶¶ 27-38.) Class Counsel has substantial 15 experience in all facets of litigation in state and federal court, including discovery, law and motion, 16 trial, appeals, arbitration and mediation. Class Counsel has litigated numerous class actions on 17 behalf of plaintiffs and have been lead counsel or otherwise exercised significant case handling 18 responsibilities in numerous cases resulting in millions of dollars in class action settlements. (Id.)

19 Based on Class Counsel's experience as employment and class action attorneys, Class 20 Counsel is eminently qualified to evaluate the strength of Plaintiff's claims, the strength of 21 Defendant's defenses against certification, the strength of Defendant's defenses on the merits, and 22 the fairness of the Settlement. Their opinion that final approval of the Settlement would be in the 23 best interests of class members in light of the significant risks of litigation is entitled to great 24 weight. (See Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at p. 129 ["The court undoubtedly should give 25 considerable weight to the competency and integrity of counsel and the involvement of a neutral 26 mediator in assuring itself that a settlement agreement represents an arms' length transaction 27 entered without self-dealing or other potential misconduct"].)

28 ///

1 D. There Are No Objections to the Settlement

2 To date, no class member has objected to the Settlement, and no class member has requested 3 exclusion from the Settlement. (Hernandez Decl., ¶¶ 11-12.) The overwhelmingly positive 4 response of the class strongly supports final approval of the Settlement. (See, e.g., In re Lifelock, 5 Inc. Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation (D. Ariz. 2010) 2010 WL 3715138, *6 [relatively 6 few objections and requests for exclusion support approval].)

7 Factors to be considered in evaluating a class action settlement include “the reaction of the 8 class members to the proposed settlement.” (Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at p. 128.) The 9 reaction here has been overwhelmingly positive. Courts have approved class action settlements in 10 lesser circumstances. (See, e.g., Hughes v. Microsoft Corp. (W.D.Wash. 2001) 2001 U.S. Dist.
11 LEXIS 5976, 2001 WL 34089697, *8 [court found that the “class members overwhelmingly 12 support[ed] the settlement” where there were over 37,000 notices sent out, 2,745 class members 13 participated in the settlement, “only nine objections were submitted”, and there were 86 timely 14 opt-outs and over 20 additional defective or untimely opt-outs, “these indicia of the approval of 15 the class of the terms of the settlement support a finding of fairness under Rule 23”], citing Hanlon 16 v. Chrysler Corp. (9th Cir.1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 1027 [despite vigorous objections and appeal by 17 objectors, the “fact that the overwhelming majority of the class willingly approved the offer and 18 stayed in the class presents at least some objective positive commentary as to its fairness,” and the 19 court did not abuse its discretion in approving settlement].)

20 IV. THE COURT SHOULD AWARD PLAINTIFF THE REQUESTED AMOUNTS OF 21 FEES, COSTS AND ENHANCEMENT PAYMENTS.

22 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant has agreed to pay Class 23 Counsel reasonable attorneys’ fees in the amount of $83,333.33, which is 33 1/3% of the Gross 24 Settlement Amount, costs up to $20,000.00 for litigating this action, and enhancement awards of 25 $5,000.00 to named Plaintiff Lorena Yopez. Defendant has also agreed that it would not oppose 26 an application for these payments addressed above, and no class member has objected to these 27 amounts.

28 In common fund cases like this one, the primary method California courts use for calculating attorneys' fees is the percentage of the common fund method, which may be followed by a lodestar cross-check. In Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, the California Supreme Court affirmed an award of 33 1/3% of a $19 million wage and hour class action settlement with a 2.03 to 2.13 multiplier. (Id. at p. 506.) In doing so, the California Supreme Court explained:

As to the incentives a lodestar cross-check might create for class counsel, we emphasize the lodestar calculation, when used in this manner, does not override the trial court's primary determination of the fee as a percentage of the common fund and thus does not impose an absolute maximum or minimum on the potential fee award. If the multiplier calculated by means of a lodestar cross-check is extraordinarily high or low, the trial court should consider whether the percentage used should be adjusted so as to bring the imputed multiplier within a justifiable range, but the court is not necessarily required to make such an adjustment. Courts using the percentage method have generally weighed the time counsel spent on the case as an important factor in choosing a reasonable percentage to apply.

(Id. at p. 505, emphasis added; see also Beaver v. Tarsadia Hotels (S.D. Cal. Sept. 28, 2017) 2017 WL 4310707, at *9 [applying Laffitte standard to fee request for 33 1/3% of common fund].)

A. A Fee Award Based on One-Third of the Common Fund is Standard

According to a leading treatise on class actions, "[n]o general rule can be articulated on what is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages are not unprecedented." (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.) Attorneys' fees at fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating that most cases where 30-50% was awarded involved "smaller" settlement funds of under $10 million].)

The settled-for 33 1/3% fee award is consistent with the average fee award in class actions. Indeed, the custom and practice in class actions is to award approximately one-third of a fund as a fee award. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 ["Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in

1 class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].) Thus, Plaintiff’s fee request is in line 2 with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic literature and is 3 consistent with awards in California. Accordingly, the Court should approve the attorneys’ fees 4 requested herein.

5 B. While the Lodestar Method is Not Necessary in Common Fund Cases, Courts
6 May Perform a Cross-Check to Award Fees.

7 Although California supports the common fund doctrine, the lodestar method can be used 8 to cross-check fee awards. “It may be appropriate in some cases, assuming the class benefit can 9 be monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty, to “cross-check” or adjust the lodestar in 10 comparison to a percentage of the common fund to ensure that the fee awarded is reasonable and 11 within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation.” (In 12 re Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557.)

13 Applying the lodestar method requires a two-step process. The first step is to multiply the 14 number of hours reasonably expended by a reasonable hourly rate. The second step is to apply a 15 multiplier to the lodestar to take into account various factors. “The purpose of such adjustment is 16 to fix a fee at the fair market value for the particular action. In effect, the court determines, 17 retrospectively, whether the litigation involved a contingent risk or required extraordinary legal 18 skill justifying augmentation of the unadorned lodestar in order to approximate the fair market rate 19 for such services.” (Id. at pp. 556-57.) “Under certain circumstances, a lodestar calculation may 20 be enhanced on the basis of a percentage-of-the-benefit analysis.” (Id. at p. 557.)

21 Detailed timesheets are not necessary to a lodestar cross-check. “The law is clear ... that 22 an award of attorney fees may be based on counsel’s declarations, without production of detailed 23 time records.” (Raining Data Corp. v. Barrenechea (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 1363, 1375.) As the 24 California Supreme Court explained in Laffitte:

25 With regard to expenditure of judicial resources, we note that trial courts 26 conducting lodestar cross-checks have generally not been required to closely 27 scrutinize each claimed attorney-hour, but have instead used information on attorney time spent to “focus on the general question of whether the fee award appropriately reflects the degree of time and effort expended by the attorneys.”

28 (5 Newberg on Class Actions, supra, § 15:86, p. 331; see, e.g., Goldberger v.

Integrated Resources, Inc., supra, 209 F.3d at p. 50 [2d Cir.; “where used as a mere cross-check, the hours documented by counsel need not be exhaustively scrutinized by the district court”]; In re Prudential Ins. Co. America Sales Practice Litigation Agent Actions (3d Cir.1998) 148 F.3d 283, 342 [agreeing with district court that “detailed time summaries were unnecessary where, as here, it was merely using the lodestar calculation to double check its fee award.”]; Barbosa v. Cargill Meat Solutions Corp. (E.D.Cal.2013) 297 F.R.D. 431, 451 [“Where the lodestar method is used as a cross-check to the percentage method, it can be performed with a less exhaustive cataloguing and review of counsel’s hours.”].)

(Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th at p. 505.)

Class Counsel’s lodestar is at least $132,477.50 based on over 139.2 hours of work performed thus far. (Wilcox Decl., ¶¶ 18-19.) Accordingly, the requested fee of $83,333.333 is reasonable and fair as it is based on an approximate multiplier of 0.63. To be sure, trial courts have substantial discretion in adjusting the lodestar to account for various factors. (See Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 26, 39-45; see also Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 49.) In addition, it has been held that “[m]ultipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher.” (See Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at p. 255; see also Van Vranken, supra, 901 F. Supp. At p. 298 [“[m]ultipliers in the 3-4 range are common in lodestar awards for lengthy and complex class action litigation.”].) Similar multipliers have been found to be reasonable for Class Counsel. (See, e.g., Moreno v. Pretium Packaging, L.L.C. (C.D. Cal. Aug. 6, 2021) No. 8:19-cv-02500-SB, 2021 WL 3673845, *3 [finding Wilshire Law Firm, PLC’s multiplier of 2.57 reasonable “in light of the contingent nature of recovery, the complexity of the issues, and the result obtained”].)

1. Class Counsel’s Rates Have Been Approved by Several Courts.

Class Counsel provides a declaration to support their lodestar hourly rates. “Affidavits of the plaintiffs’ attorney and other attorneys regarding prevailing fees in the community, and rate determinations in other cases, particularly those setting a rate for the plaintiffs’ attorney, are satisfactory evidence of the prevailing market rate.” (United Steelworkers of America v. Phelps Dodge Corp. (9th Cir. 1990) 896 F.2d 403, 407.) Class Counsel has received final approval of their hourly rates in other wage and hour class action settlements.

1 2. Class Counsel’s Requested Fees are Derived Using a Negative
2 Multiplier.

3 Once this lodestar figure has been determined, the Court may take into account other 4 “enhancement” factors to adjust the lodestar award. While Plaintiff seeks a negative multiplier of 5 0.63 here, the overall reasonableness of Plaintiff’s request is underscored by the fact that a 6 significantly higher multiplier would be justified under applicable law.

7 Multiplying the total hours billed by Class Counsel to the litigation by their reasonable 8 hourly rates yields a lodestar of $132,477.50, which is more than the $83,333.33 in attorney’s fees 9 Class Counsel are requesting. This disparity is important to note because when plaintiffs seek an 10 amount in fees that is less than what they actually billed, the requested fee amount is generally 11 considered reasonable. (Chun-Hoon v. McKee Foods Corp. (N.D. Cal. 2010) 716 F. Supp. 2d 848, 12 854 [finding that, if the court is asked to apply a negative multiplier, it “suggests the negotiated 13 fee award is a reasonable and fair valuation of the services rendered to the class by Plaintiff’s 14 Counsel.”].) Indeed, there is no reason for the Court to reduce Class Counsel’s lodestar with a 15 negative multiplier. (Roos v. Honeywell Int’l, Inc. (2015) 241 Cal. App. 4th 1472, 1495 [“a trial 16 court acts appropriately . . . when it accepts in a common-fund case a cap on fees . . . when the 17 application of the cap results in a lower award than would be authorized under the lodestar 18 method.”], disapproved on another ground in Hernandez v. Restoration Hardware, Inc. (2018) 4 19 Cal.5th 260.)

20 Contingency fees should be higher than fees for the same legal services paid concurrently 21 with the provision of the services. (Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-33.) “A 22 lawyer who both bears the risk of not being paid and provides legal services is not receiving the 23 fair market value of his work if he is paid only for the second of these functions. If he is paid 24 no more, competent counsel will be reluctant to accept fee award cases.” (Id. at p. 1133.)
25 Application of that rule is particularly appropriate where the case is brought to redress important 26 rights of vulnerable persons. (Id.) A risk enhancement is “earned compensation; unlike a 27 windfall, it is neither unexpected nor fortuitous. Rather it is intended to approximate market-28 level compensation for such services which typically pay a premium for the risk of nonpayment

1 or delay in payment of attorney’s fees.” (Id. at p. 1138.)

2 “Multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher.” (Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 3 p. 255; see also Sutter Health Uninsured Pricing Cases (2009) 171 Cal.App.4th 495, 512
4 [applying a 2.52 multiplier on a cross-check in an antitrust class action]; Chavez, supra, 162 5 Cal.App.4th at p. 60 [applying a 2.5 multiplier on a lodestar cross-check]; Vizcaino v. Microsoft
6 Corp. (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1051 n.6 [“most” common fund cases apply a multiplier 7 of 1.0-4.0]; Been v. O.K. Industries Inc. (E.D. Okla. 2011) 2011 WL 4478766, *11, citing a 8 study “reporting [an] average multiplier of 3.89 in survey of 1,120 class action cases” and 9 finding that a multiplier of 2.43 would be “per se reasonable.”) The intermediate court in 10 Laffitte, after finding that “2 to 4” is a reasonable range for multipliers on a cross-check, 11 affirmed a 2.13 multiplier. (Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l (2014) 231 Cal.App.4th 860, 881-82.)
12 The intermediate court opinion was affirmed in full by the California Supreme Court in its new 13 decision guiding lower courts on assessing fees.

14 Factors considered in determining whether a lodestar multiplier is appropriate generally 15 include: (1) the risks presented by the contingent nature of the case; (2) the novelty and difficulty 16 of the questions involved and the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly; (3) the 17 nature of the opposition; (4) the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to 18 acceptance of the case; and (5) the result obtained and the importance of the lawsuit to the 19 public. (Serrano, supra, 20 Cal.3d at pp. 48-49.) All of these factors favor approval of a 20 multiplier along the lines of those approved in the cases above.

21 The major consideration in determining the necessity of a multiplier is the contingent nature 22 of the award. (Ketchum, supra, 24 Cal.4th at pp. 1132-33.) Further, the possibility of no recovery 23 is only one of the uncertainties involved in taking on such a case. Other uncertainties are the 24 amount that will be recovered, uncertainty as to the cost, both in effort and expenses, and 25 uncertainty about how much time will pass before the recovery is obtained. (Id. at pp. 1132-1133, 26 1138.) Here, Class Counsel have been the only counsel to represent Class Members in this matter 27 and have borne the entire risk and costs of litigation purely on a contingency basis. Class Counsel’s 28 outlay of time and money in this case has been significant.

1 The other factors are also present here. Class Counsel are skilled attorneys who have 2 had success in wage and hour class actions. This case required experienced and competent 3 lawyers and expertise in the issues presented herein. Defendant's contentions underscore the 4 risk of prevailing at class certification and trial, and any of these obstacles could have prevented 5 recovery completely. Further, proceeding to trial would have added years to the resolution of 6 this case because of the difficult legal and factual issues raised and the likelihood of appeals.
7 Despite these risks, Class Counsel took this case on a contingency basis. Yet, there are only so 8 many cases that Class Counsel can take at any one time. Consequently, there were other 9 meritorious cases presented to Class Counsel that would have generated substantial fees, but 10 were declined, during the pendency of this action in order to devote the attention necessary to 11 achieve favorable results. (Wilcox Decl., ¶ 25.) Considered against the risks of continued 12 litigation, and the importance of the employment rights and a speedy recovery, the relief 13 provided under the Settlement represents a very strong result for the Class.

14 C. Costs Are Reasonable.

15 As of the date of filing this Motion, Class Counsel has incurred around $19,103.02 in costs, 16 and Defendant has agreed that they will not oppose any cost award request up to $20,000.00.
17 (Wilcox Decl., ¶ 26.) Accordingly, Class Counsel respectfully requests reimbursement of up to 18 $19,103.02 in costs. The categories of costs are set forth in the accompanying Declaration of Alan 19 Wilcox, and these costs are easily seen to be both reasonable and necessary.

20 Counsel can recover "out-of-pocket expenses that 'would normally be charged to a fee 21 paying client'" including costs for "service of summons and complaint, service of trial 22 subpoenas, fee for defense expert at deposition, postage, investigator, copying costs, hotel bills, 23 meals, messenger service and employment record reproduction." (Harris v. Marhoefer (9th Cir.
24 1994) 24 F.3d 16, 19.) Such costs are properly recoverable on motions for settlement approval.
25 (See Nunez v. BAE Sys. San Diego Ship Repair Inc. (S.D. Cal. 2017) 292 F. Supp. 3d 1018, 26 1057; Rutti v. Lojack Corp. (C.D. Cal. July 31, 2012) No. CV 06-00350 DOC, 2012 WL 27 3151077, at *12 ["Expenses such as reimbursement for travel, meals, lodging, photocopying, 28 long-distance telephone calls, computer legal research, postage, courier service, mediation, exhibits, documents scanning, and visual equipment are typically recoverable.”].)

D. The Enhancement Payments to the Plaintiff is Reasonable.

Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other members of the class.” (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 412.) Courts routinely grant approval of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp. (9th Cir. 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.) The California Supreme Court has also noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) Plaintiff should therefore be rewarded for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co. (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

Under the settlement agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agreed to pay a Class Representative Service Payment in the amount of $5,000.00 to Plaintiff Lorena Yopez. This amount is also in exchange for Plaintiff’s general releases of all claims against Defendant. Plaintiff has submitted a declaration demonstrating her devotion to this case, including her efforts assisting counsel in the case, communicating with counsel frequently for litigation, preparing for mediation, and reviewing case-related documents. (See, generally, Declaration of Plaintiff submitted in support of Motion for Preliminary Approval.)

When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive award given to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Theodore Eisenberg & Jeffrey P. Miller, “Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study”, 53 UCLA L. Rev. 1303, 1308 (2006).) Courts routinely approve a $10,000 enhancement award for plaintiffs represented by Class Counsel. (See, e.g., Moreno, supra, 2021 WL 3673845 at *3

1 ["The Court concludes a $10,000 incentive award is appropriate."]; Suarez, supra, 2024 WL
2 150721 at p. *4 ["The court approves awards of $10,000 for each class representative."].)

3 "Since without a named plaintiff there can be no class action, such compensation as may 4 be necessary to induce him to participate in the suit." (Clark v. Am. Residential Services LLC 5 (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 804.) "[T]he rationale for making enhancement or incentive 6 awards to named plaintiffs is that they should be compensated for the expense or risk they have 7 incurred in conferring a benefit on other members of the class." (Id. at p. 806.) "An incentive 8 award is appropriate 'if it is necessary to induce an individual to participate in the suit.'" (Cellphone Term. Fee Cases (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 1380, 1394, quoting Clark, 175 9 Cal.App.4th at p. 804.) The "criteria courts may consider in determining whether to make an 10 incentive award include: (1) the risk to the class representative in commencing suit, both 11 financial and otherwise; (2) the notoriety and personal difficulties encountered by the class 12 representative; (3) the amount of time and effort spent by the class representative; (4) the 13 duration of the litigation; and (5) the personal benefit (or lack thereof) enjoyed by the class 14 representative as a result of the litigation." (Id. at pp. 1394–95.) Plaintiff's declaration 15 describes how each of the five Cellphone Termination factors are present here.
16

17 E. Administration Expenses Should be Approved.

18 ILYM Group, Inc., the Settlement Administrator, estimates that it will incur a total of 19 $4,995.00 in costs associated with the administration of this Settlement. (Hernandez Decl., ¶ 15.) 20 These expenses are reasonable, based upon the size of the class, claim and exclusion tracking, and 21 Class Member payment processing.

22 V. CONCLUSION

23 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant final approval 24 of the proposed settlement.
