Case No.: 22CV04267

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT:

1. Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197);
2. Failure to Pay Overtime Wages (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 1194 and 1198);
3. Failure to Provide Meal Periods (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512);
4. Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7);
5. Failure to Timely Pay Final Wages at Termination (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201-203);
6. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements (Cal. Lab. Code § 226);
7. Failure to Indemnify Employees for Expenditures (Cal. Lab. Code § 2802); and
8. Unfair Business Practices (Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.).

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiffs Cedric A. Beaty and Jorge L. Zaragoza Valdovinos (“Plaintiffs”), on information
2 and belief, allege as follows:

3 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

4 1. Plaintiffs bring this action against Defendants HOMER T. HAYWARD LUMBER
5 CO., and UNITED STAFFING ASSOCIATES, LLC, and DOES 1 through 10 (hereinafter
6 collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations and unfair business
7 practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time,
8 and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods,
9 failure to timely pay final wages, failure to furnish accurate wage statements, and failure to 10 indemnify employees for expenditures.

11 2. Plaintiffs bring the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually and as a class
12 action on behalf of themselves and certain current and former employees of Defendants
13 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” and defined more fully 14 below). The Class consists of Plaintiffs and all other persons who have been employed by any
15 Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations
16 period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

17 3. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 18 establishment within the State of California, including Santa Barbara and San Mateo County. As 19 such, and based upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California,
20 Defendants are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare
21 Commission (“IWC”), and the California Business & Professions Code.

22 4. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained 23 a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 24 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum,
25 straight time, and overtime in compliance with the California Labor Code
26 and IWC Wage Orders;
- 27 (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in 28 compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing

1 to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and failing
2 to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a meal period violation
3 occurred;

4 (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest
5 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage
6 Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a rest
7 period violation occurred;

8 (d) Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum, straight time, overtime,
9 meal period premium, and rest period premium wages due within the time
10 period specified by California law when employment terminates;

11 (e) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements
12 containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and 13 IWC Wage Orders;

14 (f) Failing to indemnify employees for expenditures incurred in direct discharge 15 of duties of employment; and,

16 (g) Failing to timely produce requested employment records as required by the 17 California Labor Code and IWC Wage Order;

18 5. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 19 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 20 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 21 willful and deliberate.

22 6. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the 23 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the 24 foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiffs and the Class. Further, Defendants are 25 responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of 26 "respondeat superior."

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiffs

7. Plaintiff Cedric A. Beaty is a resident of Santa Barbara County, California who worked for Defendants in Santa Barbara County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 2017 to approximately September 2021.

8. Plaintiff Jorge L. Zaragoza Valdovinos is a resident of Alameda County, California who worked for Defendants in San Mateo County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately August 2019 to approximately November 2019.

9. Plaintiffs reserve the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new Plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

B. Defendants

10. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based upon that information and belief allege, that Defendants HOMER T. HAYWARD LUMBER CO., and UNITED STAFFING ASSOCIATES, LLC are, and at all times herein mentioned, were:

(a) Business entities conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including Santa Barbara County and Alameda County; and,

(b) The former employers of Plaintiffs, and the current and/or former employer of the putative Class because Defendants HOMER T. HAYWARD LUMBER CO., and UNITED STAFFING ASSOCIATES, LLC suffered and permitted Plaintiffs and the Class to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

11. Plaintiffs do not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sue said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiffs and the Class as alleged herein. Plaintiffs will amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

12. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiffs and the Class in the State of California.

13. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all relevant times each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiffs and the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

14. Plaintiff Cedric A. Beaty worked for Defendant in Santa Barbara County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 2017 to approximately September 2021. During Plaintiff's employment for Defendants, Defendants paid Plaintiff an hourly wage and classified him as non-exempt from overtime. Defendants typically scheduled Plaintiff to work at least five days in a workweek and at least eight hours per day, but Plaintiff also worked more than eight hours in a workday and more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

15. Plaintiff Jorge L. Zaragoza Valdovinos worked for Defendants in San Mateo, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately August 2019 to approximately November 2019. During Plaintiff's employment for Defendants, Defendants paid

1 Plaintiffs an hourly wage and classified him as non-exempt from overtime. Defendants typically
2 scheduled Plaintiff to work at least five days in a workweek and at least eight hours per day, but
3 Plaintiff also worked more than eight hours in a workday and more than forty (40) hours in a 4 workweek.

5 16. Throughout Plaintiffs' employment, Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked
6 (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiffs with legally
7 compliant meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiffs to take rest periods, failed to 8 timely pay all final wages to Plaintiffs when Defendants terminated their employment, failed to 9 furnish accurate wage statements to Plaintiffs, and failed to indemnify Plaintiffs for expenditures.
10 As discussed below, Plaintiffs' experiences working for Defendants were typical and illustrative.

11 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not 12 paying Plaintiffs and the Class for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, and 13 overtime wages. Defendants would routinely manufacture time keeping records to falsely show
14 that Plaintiff and the Class took meal periods when in fact they worked "off-the-clock,"
15 uncompensated. The effect is that Plaintiffs and the Class routinely worked through meal periods
16 "off-the-clock," and continued to work after they had clocked out for the workday. Defendants
17 frequently paid Plaintiffs and the Class less than all their work time. Much of this unpaid work
18 should have been paid at the overtime rate. In failing to pay for all hours worked, Defendants also 19 failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiffs and the Class worked, including but not 20 limited to falsifying and unlawfully rounding meal period records.

21 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiffs
22 and the Class with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants regularly, but not always, required
23 Plaintiffs and the Class to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-
24 minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without 25 compensating Plaintiffs and the Class for all missed meal periods that were not provided by the 26 end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control
27 over Plaintiffs and the Class by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks
28 which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory meal periods, or by

1 denying Plaintiffs and the Class permission to take a meal period. Defendants also never permitted
2 them to take a second meal period when Plaintiffs worked at least ten hours of work in a workday.
3 As described above, Defendants would routinely manufacture time keeping records to falsely show
4 that Plaintiffs and the Class took meal periods by the fifth hour of work or took meal periods when
5 in fact they worked off-the-clock, uncompensated. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice
6 was not to provide meal periods to Plaintiffs and the Class in compliance with California law.

7 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize
8 and permit Plaintiffs and the Class to take legally compliant rest periods. Defendants regularly
9 required Plaintiffs and the Class to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without
10 Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest
11 period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating
12 Plaintiffs and the Class for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Instead, Defendants
13 continued to assert control over Plaintiffs and the Class by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging
14 them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking 15 mandatory rest periods, or by denying Plaintiffs and the Class permission to take a rest period.
16 Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiff and the 17 Class to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

18 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely
19 pay Plaintiffs and the Class all final wages due at their termination of employment. In addition,
20 Plaintiffs' final paychecks did not include payment for all expenditures, minimum wages, straight
21 time wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages owed
22 to them by Defendants at the conclusion of their employment. On information and belief,
23 Defendants' failure to timely pay Plaintiffs' final wages when their employment terminated was 24 not a single, isolated incident, but was instead consistent with Defendants' policy and practice that 25 applied to Plaintiffs and the Class.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiffs and the Class with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law). As a result of these violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiffs and the Class suffered injury because, among other things:

- (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even though they were entitled;
- (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even though they had not been;
- (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct California rate even though they were entitled;
- (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct California rate even though they had not been;
- (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages owed to them;
- (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage statements contained the required accurate information;

(g) by understating the wages truly due to them, the violations caused them to lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;

(h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wage rates to which Plaintiffs and the Class were entitled, and Plaintiffs and the Class were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

Thus, Plaintiffs and the Class are owed the amounts provided for in California Labor Code § 226(e).

22. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully required Plaintiffs and the Class to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants. Plaintiffs and the Class regularly paid out-of-pocket for necessary employment-related expenses, including, without limitation, work attire, work tools, and use of personal cell phones.

23. Plaintiffs and the Class incurred substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendants, but Defendants failed to indemnify Plaintiffs and the Class for these employment-related expenses.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

24. Plaintiffs bring certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all other persons similarly situated, and thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

25. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiffs seek relief authorized by California law.

26. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years and 178 days before the filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.¹

¹ In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California adopted Emergency Rule 9(a) (California Rules of Court), whereby “statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020 to October 1, 2020.”

1 27. At all material times, Plaintiffs were members of the Class.

2 28. Plaintiffs undertake this concerted activity to improve the wages and working
3 conditions of all Class Members.

4 29. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is 5 readily ascertainable:

6 (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so
7 numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical.
8 The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiffs at this time;
9 however, the Class is estimated to be greater than forty (40) individuals and 10 the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of 11 Defendants' records.

12 (b) Typicality: Plaintiffs are qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect
13 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
14 defined community of interest, and Plaintiffs' claims (or defenses, if any)
15 are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

16 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiffs are qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect
17 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
18 defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated
19 herein. Plaintiffs have no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class 20 Member. Plaintiffs' attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the 21 rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
22 Plaintiffs have incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will 23 continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be 24 necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial
25 benefit of each class member.

26 (d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the 27 fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:
28

- 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and,
- 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is protected.

30. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages;
- (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to Class Members;
- (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages to Class Members;
- (d) Failed to provide Class Members with timely final wages;
- (e) Failed to provide Class Members with accurate wage statements;

- (f) Failed to indemnify Class Members for expenditures; and
- (g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a result of their illegal conduct as described above.

31. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any question affecting only individual members;
- (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the class before the Court;
- (d) Plaintiffs, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;
- (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;
- (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of:
 - 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or,
 - 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,

(g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the class as a whole.

32. Plaintiffs contemplate the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiffs contemplate the use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice, e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages for All Hours Worked)

33. Plaintiffs incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

34. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

35. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to Plaintiffs and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 1194, and any additional applicable Wage Orders, which require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

36. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover minimum and straight time wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

1 37. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiffs and the Class have been
2 deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

3 38. By virtue of the Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to 4 Plaintiffs and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiffs and the Class
5 suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 6 Plaintiffs and the Class and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

7 39. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code §
8 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage
9 compensation due Plaintiffs and the Class.

10 40. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to 11 recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages.

12 41. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all
13 wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to 14 this cause of action, Plaintiffs and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates required
15 by law, including minimum and straight time wages. However, during all such times, Defendants
16 systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiffs and the Class all such wages due and failed to 17 pay those wages twice a month.

18 42. Plaintiffs and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum and 19 straight time wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor
20 Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

21 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

22 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

23 43. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
24 paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

25 44. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be 26 employed more than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they 27 receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

28 ///

1 45. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California shall 2 not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional
3 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California
4 Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed
5 by the IWC is unlawful.

6 46. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiffs and the Class have worked more than eight
7 hours in a workday and/or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, as employees of Defendants.

8 47. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the Class
9 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours
10 permissible by law as required by California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198.

11 48. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate
12 compensation to the Plaintiffs and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiffs and the 13 Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown
14 to them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained
15 according to proof at trial.

16 49. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), 17 Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to 18 Plaintiffs and the Class.

19 50. Plaintiffs and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according 20 to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well
21 as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the 22 California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

23 51. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all
24 wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall 25 pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all
26 overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and the Class
27 with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

52. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

53. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the Plaintiffs and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the start of Plaintiffs and the Class' sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. California Labor Code § 512, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer provide unpaid meal periods of at least thirty (30) minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a violation of California Labor Code § 226.7 for an employer to require any employee to work during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

54. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiffs and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiffs and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders.

55. Under California law, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s), plus interest thereon.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

56. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

57. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). California Labor Code § 512, the applicable Wage Orders require that the employer

1 permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of ten minutes each for each 4-hour
2 period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the 3 employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself
4 a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of California Labor Code § 226.7 for
5 an employer to require any employee to work during any rest period mandated under any Wage
6 Order.

7 58. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiffs and the 8 Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than four hours in a
9 workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiffs and the Class to take rest periods as 10 alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these 11 uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code
12 § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders.

13 59. Under California law, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 14 premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s),
15 plus interest thereon.

16 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time 18 Penalties)

19 60. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs
20 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

21 61. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if 22 an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due
23 and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or 24 her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless 25 the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in 26 which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

27 62. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of many other members
28 of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will

1 be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continue to fail to pay
2 terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by California Labor
3 Code §§ 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their
4 leaving Defendants' employ.

5 63. Defendants' failure to pay those Class members who are no longer employed by 6 Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72)
7 hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 8 202.

9 64. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay
10 wages owed, in accordance with §§ 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as 11 a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced;
12 but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

13 65. The Class is entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages
14 for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum 15 pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

16 66. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, the Class is also 17 entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs incurred in this 18 action.

19 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and 21 Compliant Wage Records)

22 67. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs
23 1 through 22 in this Complaint.

24 68. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that 25 every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in 26 writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours
27 worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate
28 if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made

1 on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned,
2 (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee
3 and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number
4 other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the 5 employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding 6 number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

7 69. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with 8 complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure
9 to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiffs and the Class, the failure to list the true
10 “total hours worked by the employee,” and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

11 70. As a result of Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiffs 12 and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

13 71. Specifically, Plaintiffs and the members of the Class have been injured by 14 Defendants’ intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied both 15 their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage
16 statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

17 72. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiffs and the Class is difficult and 18 time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiffs and the Class were also injured as 19 a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following
20 Defendants’ refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California’s Labor Code and related 21 laws and regulations.

22 73. Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 23 actual damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), or 24 an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) per employee.

25 74. Plaintiffs and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 26 attorney’s fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code
27 § 226(h).
28

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Employees for Expenditures)

75. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 23 in this Complaint.

76. As set forth above, Plaintiffs and the Class were required to incur substantial necessary expenditures and losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

77. Defendants violated California Labor Code § 2802, by failing to pay and indemnify Plaintiffs and the Class for necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

78. As a result, Plaintiffs and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

79. Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to reasonable attorney's fees, expenses, and costs of suit pursuant to California Labor Code § 2802(c) and interest pursuant to California Labor Code § 2802(b).

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

80. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 22 in this Complaint.

81. Defendants, and each of them, are "persons" as defined under California Business & Professions Code § 17201.

82. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiffs, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiffs seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

83. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions

Code §§ 17200, et seq.

84. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of public policy; and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages

85. Defendants' failure to pay minimum and straight time wages, and other benefits in violation of the California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

86. Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

87. Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

88. Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Indemnify Business Expenses

89. Defendants' failure to reimburse expenses incurred in accordance with California Labor Code § 2802, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.

1 90. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described
2 herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from Plaintiffs, and
3 all persons similarly situated, and have deprived Plaintiffs, and all persons similarly situated, of 4 valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

5 91. Plaintiffs and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of 6 Defendants' wrongful conduct.

7 92. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled 8 to, and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the 9 Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiffs and the Class have been deprived, by 10 means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiffs and 11 the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of 12 Defendants in order to recover restitution.

13 93. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, are further 14 entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above-described business practices are unfair,
15 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them,
16 from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices
17 in the future.

18 94. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, have no
19 plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members
20 suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.
21 As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiffs,
22 individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, have suffered and will continue to 23 suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to 24 engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

25 95. Plaintiffs also allege that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth
26 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other
27 withholdings.

28 ///

96. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiffs and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years and 178 days prior to the filing of this complaint; a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiffs and Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.
