1 I, SCOTT M. LIDMAN, declare as follows:

2 1. I am a shareholder and principal of the law firm Lidman Law, APC, and counsel for the 3 named Plaintiff Moises Perez (“Plaintiff”) in the above-captioned matter. I am a member in good
4 standing of the bar of the State of California and am admitted to practice in this Court. I have personal 5 knowledge of the facts stated in this declaration and could testify competently to them if called upon to 6 do so.

7 2. I am a 1998 graduate of Santa Clara University School of Law, where I graduated summa
8 cum laude. During law school, I worked as a summer associate for the international employment law
9 firm of Littler Mendelson, P.C., located in Los Angeles, California.

10 3. Since graduating from law school, my practice has focused exclusively on employment 11 litigation. In September 1998, I began working as an associate attorney at the international law firm of 12 Littler Mendelson P.C., at its Los Angeles office, which according to its website is the largest law firm 13 in the world exclusively devoted to representing management in employment, employee benefits and 14 labor law matters.

15 4. In 2000, I left Littler Mendelson to work at the Los Angeles office of Jones Day, which 16 was at the time one of the largest international firms in the world. During my employment at Jones
17 Day, I worked exclusively in the labor and employment department. In or around 2003, I went to work 18 at the law firm of Loeb & Loeb, again working exclusively in the Labor & Employment department. In 19 2008, I returned to Littler Mendelson, was promoted to Shareholder in 2009, and from 2008 until the 20 end of 2017, I practiced exclusively labor and employment law, with a strong emphasis and most of my 21 time working on wage and hour class actions venued in both state and federal courts. During that time
22 and my legal career in general, I also worked on a number of single and multi-plaintiff wage and hour 23 matters as well.

24 5. During my employment at Littler Mendelson, I played a significant role in the class 25 actions that I was staffed on, and ran many on my own both as an Of Counsel and as a Shareholder. In 26 particular, I received a wide-array of wage and hour class action experience performing the following
27 types of tasks: drafting demurrers, motions to strike and/or dismiss; removing actions from state court
28

1 to federal court; drafting and responding to written discovery; drafting and opposing discovery related 2 motions; arguing discovery related motions; drafting motions to consolidate related matters;
3 interviewing putative class members and obtaining declarations in connection with class certification;
4 drafting oppositions to motions for class certification; drafting motions for decertification following
5 class certification; conducting exposure analyses to assess the strengths and weaknesses of asserted 6 claims, the likelihood of prevailing at class certification and potential damages resulting from such 7 claims; drafting mediation briefs; serving as the primary contact to in-house counsel; deposing named 8 plaintiffs and putative class members; deposing retained expert witnesses; and defending the depositions 9 of corporate witnesses. I also was involved in the negotiations and settlements of many large wage and 10 hour class actions. In short, I played an integral role in all aspects of litigation from the inception of a 11 matter through and beyond class certification. I also supervised the work of several junior attorneys 12 who were staffed on the same wage and hour class actions.

13 6. Although not exhaustive, below is a list of many of the wage and hour class and PAGA
14 actions that I performed substantial work on while I was a shareholder at Littler Mendelson:
