By: R. Sanchez Deputy

1 Plaintiff Edgar Hernandez (“Plaintiff”) on behalf of himself, on a representative basis,
2 and on behalf of others similarly situated, complains and alleges as follows.

3 I. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

4 1. Plaintiff brings this action against his former employer(s), Room & Board, Inc.
5 and DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, (collectively, “Defendants”) on behalf of all current and 6 former nonexempt employees employed by Defendants in California (the “Class” or 7 “Represented Employees”), for Labor Code violations stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay
8 all wages owed, including minimum, regular, and overtime wages, failure to provide meal
9 periods, failure to provide rest breaks, failure to reimburse business expenses, failure to timely
10 pay wages upon separation of employment, and failure to provide accurate itemized wage 11 statements.

12 2. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants from approximately October 2020 through 13 July 2022.

14 3. Plaintiff alleges on information and belief that the Represented Employees were 15 subjected to the same policies, working conditions, and corresponding wage and hour violations
16 to which Plaintiff was subjected during employment.

17 4. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were not provided all minimum, regular,
18 and overtime wages due to Defendants’ failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours
19 worked. As one specific example, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were frequently
20 denied meal periods and/or forced to work through meal periods. However, despite that Plaintiff
21 and the Represented Employees did not take off-duty meal periods on these occasions,
22 Defendants deducted 30 minutes of compensable time from their shifts on each such occasion.
23 This resulted in a failure to pay minimum/regular wages (since Plaintiff and the Represented
24 Employees were not paid for all hours worked), as well as a failure to pay overtime wages (since 25 those 30 minutes were often in excess of 8 hours and had to be paid at the proper overtime rate).

26 5. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay proper overtime to Plaintiff and the 27 Represented Employees. For example, Defendants paid Plaintiff and the Represented 28 Employees on an hourly basis but also paid additional nondiscretionary compensation (such as bonuses). However, during workweeks where the Represented Employees worked overtime hours and earned additional nondiscretionary compensation, Defendants failed to include that compensation in the calculations for the regular rate of pay – violating the well-established rule that overtime must always be paid at time and one-half the regular rate of pay.

6. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were also denied 30-minute off-duty meal periods, as mandated by California law. As a result of Defendants’ policies and practices, the Represented Employees were subjected to meal period violations when they were: (1) unable to take a meal period due to workload, (2) forced to take an on-duty meal period while under the control of the Company, (3) forced to take a shortened meal period, (4) forced to take a meal period after the 5th hour of work, and (5) not provided mandated second meal periods for shifts in excess of 10 hours.

7. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Represented Employees with 10 minutes of net rest break time for every 4 hours worked, or major fraction thereof, as mandated by California law. Defendants did not schedule rest breaks for Plaintiff and the Represented Employees, the Represented Employees were unable to leave the premises for rest breaks, and the Represented Employees were often not authorized and/or permitted to take mandated rest breaks due to being overwhelmed by their hectic workload. Furthermore, on occasions when Plaintiff and the Represented Employees worked longer shifts, Defendants failed to authorize and/or permit mandated third rest breaks.

8. Moreover, at all relevant times, Defendants required Plaintiff and the Represented Employees to incur necessary business-related expenses and costs without reimbursement, including, but not limited to, acquiring and maintaining a smart phone and related monthly data plan to communicate with Defendants.

9. Plaintiff further alleges that he and the Represented Employees were not paid all wages due and owing each pay period (Labor Code § 204) and upon separation of employment within the time required by Labor Code §§ 201 – 203. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants engaged in the practice of failing to pay all wages due and owing to Plaintiff and the Represented Employees at the time their employment ended with Defendants, including, but not limited to 1 minimum, regular, and overtime wages, wage premiums, vacation and sick wages, among others.

2 10. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants failed to provide accurate itemized wage
3 statements that fully complied with the requirements of Labor Code § 226(a).

4 11. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' violations of the wage and hour components of 5 the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders enabled them to decrease expenses and to increase their 6 level of productivity and profits, thereby allowing Defendants to gain an unfair advantage over 7 its competitors.

8 12. At all material times, Defendants and DOES 1 through 20 were and/or are the 9 Represented Employees' employers or persons acting on behalf of the Represented Employees'
10 employer who violated or caused to be violated, a section of Part 2, Chapter 1 of the California
11 Labor Code or any provision regulating hours and days of work in an IWC Wage Order. As 12 such, Defendants and DOES 1 through 20 are subject to penalties for each underpaid employee
13 as set forth in Labor Code § 558 and are further liable as the employer under § 558.1.

14 13. Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking declaratory, injunctive, equitable, and 15 monetary relief against Defendants and each of them, on behalf of himself and the Represented
16 Employees to recover, among other things, unpaid wages and benefits, interest, attorneys' fees,
17 penalties, costs and expenses pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 208, 18 210, 218.6, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, and 19 2802, among possibly other sections inadvertently omitted. Plaintiff also reserves the right to 20 name additional representatives throughout the State of California.

21 II. JURISDICTION

22 14. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims for relief of Plaintiff and the 23 Represented Employees pursuant to the Labor Code and the IWC Wage Orders.

24 III. VENUE

25 15. Venue as to each Defendant is proper in this Court pursuant to Code of Civil 26 Procedure § 395(a). Defendants transact business in Los Angeles County, the unlawful acts
27 alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and the Represented Employees in LA County,
28 and Defendants employed or employ Plaintiff and Represented Employees in LA County.

1 IV. PARTIES

2 Plaintiff

3 16. Plaintiff and Class Representative Edgar Hernandez was employed by Defendants
4 from approximately October 2020 through July 2022 and performed work for Defendants in Los 5 Angeles County.

6 Defendants

7 17. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant Room &
8 Board, Inc. is a Minnesota corporation authorized to and doing business in Los Angeles County, 9 California. Plaintiff is also informed and believes that Defendant Room & Board, Inc. is and/or 10 was the legal employer of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees during the applicable
11 statutory periods.

12 18. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names, capacities, relationships, and extent of 13 participation in the conduct herein alleged, of Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 20, 14 inclusive, but on information and belief alleges that those Defendants are legally responsible for 15 the payment of penalties and damages to Plaintiff and all Represented Employees by virtue of 16 Defendants' unlawful actions and practices and therefore sue these Defendants by such fictitious
17 names. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the DOE
18 Defendants when ascertained.

19 19. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that he and the Represented
20 Employees worked under the joint direction and control of Defendants and that Defendants, and 21 each of them, acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants,
22 carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respect pertinent hereto, and the acts of 23 each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. On information and belief, a 24 unity of interest and ownership between each Defendant exists such that all Defendants acted as 25 a single employer of Plaintiff and other Represented Employees.

26 20. Furthermore, Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that 27 Defendants, and each of them, are an integrated enterprise and should be treated as a single 28 employer because these entities share an interrelation of operations, with common human resources and personnel policies and shared common offices and facilities. Additionally, Defendants also have a shared website, common management, a centralized control of labor operations, and common ownership or financial control.

21. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, in conducting themselves in the manner described herein, Defendants, and each of them, were acting in active concert with one another such that the acts of each were and are fully attributable to the others in all material respects. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that at all relevant times Defendants and each of them are now, and at all material times herein mentioned were, the agents, servants, employees, partners, affiliates, and/or representatives of each of their remaining co-Defendants, and were, at all times herein mentioned, acting within the course, scope, and purpose of such relationship(s) and with the knowledge, consent and/or ratification of each of their remaining co-Defendants.

22. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that at all relevant times, Defendants have been inadequately capitalized to conduct business, have failed to follow appropriate corporate formalities, and have simply been a shell and instrumentality through which Defendants DOES 11 through 20, inclusive, have conducted their personal affairs. Accordingly, the corporate veil should be pierced, and any liability attached to Defendants should be imposed jointly and severally against Defendants DOES 11 through 20. Adherence to the fiction of the separate existence of these corporate entities would permit abuse of the corporate privilege, thereby sanctioning fraud and promoting injustice.

V. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

23. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

24. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated as a class action, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

25. The relevant time period for this class action is defined as the period beginning four years prior to the filing of this action until class certification (the “Relevant Time Period”).

1 26. The Class, also referred to as the “Represented Employees,” that Plaintiff seeks to 2 represent is defined as follows:

3 All current and former nonexempt employees employed by 4 Defendants in California during the Relevant Time Period.

5 27. Plaintiff also seeks to represent the following subclasses:

6 Meal Break Subclass

7 All Represented Employees who worked a shift in excess of 8 5 hours during the Relevant Time Period.

9 Rest Break Subclass

10 All Represented Employees who worked a shift of at least
11 3.5 hours during the Relevant Time Period.

12 Unreimbursed Expense Subclass

13 All Represented Employees who were required to incur
14 expenses to discharge their duties for Defendants without 15 reimbursement during the Relevant Time Period.

16 Waiting Time Penalties Subclass

17 All Represented Employees who separated from their
18 employment with Defendants during the period three years
19 before the filing of this action and ending when final
20 judgment is entered.

21 Wage Statement Penalties Subclass

22 All Represented Employees during the period one year
23 before the filing of this action and ending when final
24 judgment is entered.

25 28. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend or modify the class description with greater 26 specificity or further division into subclasses or limitation to particular issues as appropriate.

27 29. Plaintiff, as Class Representative, is a member of the class and subclasses that he 28 seeks to represent.

1 30. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
2 under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there is a well-defined community of interest in the 3 litigation and the proposed class is easily ascertainable from Defendants' records.

4 31. Numerosity: The potential members of the Class as defined are so numerous that 5 a joinder of all Represented Employees is impracticable. Although the exact number is currently 6 unknown to Plaintiff, this information is easily ascertainable from Defendants' records.

7 32. Commonality: There are questions of law and fact common to the class which 8 predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the class, including 9 without limitation:

10 i. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
11 IWC Wage Order by failing to pay wages to Plaintiff and the Represented Employees for all 12 hours worked;

13 ii. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
14 IWC Wage Order by failing to pay proper overtime wages to Plaintiff and the Represented
15 Employees for hours above 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per week;

16 iii. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
17 IWC Wage Order by failing to provide compliant meal periods to Plaintiff and the Meal Break
18 Subclass and whether Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass
19 with one additional hour of wages at the regular rate of pay for each instance when a compliant
20 meal period was not provided;

21 iv. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
22 IWC Wage Order by failing to provide compliant rest breaks to Plaintiff and the Rest Break
23 Subclass and whether Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass
24 with one additional hour of wages at the regular rate of pay for each instance when a paid rest
25 break was not provided;

26 v. Whether Defendants violated the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage
27 Order by failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Unreimbursed Expense Subclass for business
28 expenses incurred discharging their duties or in obedience to the directions of their employer;

1 vi. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to 2 timely pay all wages due upon separation of employment between Defendants and Plaintiff and
3 the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass, whether such separation was voluntary or involuntary;

4 vii. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to 5 provide Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass with complete, accurate, itemized
6 wage statements;

7 viii. Whether Defendants violated California Business & Professions Code §§
8 17200 et seq. due to the: failure to pay all wages owed, failure to provide mandated paid rest 9 breaks, failure to provide mandated meal periods, and failure to timely pay final wages; and 10 ix. Whether Plaintiff and Represented Employees are entitled to equitable 11 relief pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.

12 33. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims, as the Class Representative, are typical of the 13 claims of The Class. Plaintiff, like other members of The Class, was subjected to Defendants'
14 ongoing Labor Code and Wage Order violations including pertaining to the failure to pay all
15 wages owed, failure to provide mandated meal periods, failure to provide mandated paid rest 16 breaks, failure to timely pay wages upon separation of employment, and failure to provide 17 accurate itemized wage statements.

18 34. Adequacy of Representation. Plaintiff, as the Class Representative, will fairly 19 and adequately represent and protect the interests of the Class. Plaintiff's interests are not in 20 conflict with those of the Class. Class Representative's counsel are competent and experienced in 21 litigating large employment class actions and other complex litigation matters, including cases 22 like this case.

23 35. Superiority of Class Action. Class certification is appropriate because a class
24 action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this 25 controversy. Individual joinder of all Represented Employees is not practicable, and questions of 26 law and fact common to the Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual 27 members of the Class. Each Represented Employee has been damaged and is entitled to 28 recovery by reason of Defendants' illegal policies and practices set forth above. Class action

1 treatment will allow those similarly situated persons to litigate their claims in the manner that is
2 most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.

3 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

4 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

5 (Labor Code §§ 200, 1194, 1194.2, 1197; IWC Wage Order § 4)

6 Plaintiff and the Represented Employees Against All Defendants

7 36. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
8 as if fully alleged herein.

9 37. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were not exempt from the requirement
10 to be paid at least the applicable California minimum wage throughout the statutory period for 11 each hour worked.

12 38. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were not provided proper minimum and 13 regular wages due to Defendants' failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours
14 worked. As a result of this policy and practice, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were 15 required to perform off-the-clock work that Defendants either knew or should have known they 16 were performing.

17 39. As one specific example, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were 18 frequently denied meal periods and/or forced to work through meal periods. However, despite 19 that Plaintiff and the Represented Employees did not take off-duty meal periods on these 20 occasions, Defendants deducted 30 minutes of compensable time from their shifts on each such 21 occasion. This resulted in a failure to pay minimum/regular wages since Plaintiff and the 22 Represented Employees were not paid for all hours worked.

23 40. As a result of this policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the 24 Represented Employees for all hours worked.

25 41. Consequently, Defendants violated California Labor Code laws and minimum
26 wage laws, inter alia, Labor Code §§ 200, 221, 222, 223, 1197, IWC Wage Order 9, § 4, and 27 Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8, section 11090, subds. 1 and 4(B).
28

1 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
2 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay wages to Plaintiff and the Represented
3 Employees for each hour worked in violation of Labor Code §§ 221-223, 1194 and 1197.

4 43. Defendants' conduct was willful, as Defendants knew that Plaintiff and the 5 Represented Employees were entitled to be paid wages throughout the statutory period for each
6 hour worked, including proper minimum and regular wages, yet Defendants chose not to pay
7 them in accordance thereto.

8 44. At all material times, Defendants DOES 1 through 20 were and/or are the 9 employer of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees or were persons acting on behalf of said
10 employer(s), within the meaning of California Labor Code § 558, who violated or caused to be
11 violated Labor Code § 204 and a provision or provisions of Part 2, Chapter 1 of the California
12 Labor Code regulating hours and days of work respectively.

13 45. During employment of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees, Defendants 14 failed to pay them all wages to which they were entitled, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

15 46. As a result of the Defendants' wrongful conduct, Plaintiff and the Represented
16 Employees have been damaged in amounts to be proven at trial.

17 47. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Represented Employees, seeks recovery of 18 all unpaid minimum wages, liquidated damages, penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs,
19 pursuant to Lab.Code §§ 1194 and 1194.2, against Defendants in an amount to be proven at trial.

20 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME WAGES

22 (Labor Code §§ 204 and 510; IWC Wage Order § 3(A))

23 Plaintiff and the Represented Employees Against All Defendants

24 48. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
25 as if fully alleged herein.

26 49. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were employees of Defendants who did 27 not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing payment of overtime wages.
28

1 50. Labor Code § 204 requires that the employer timely pay all overtime wages to its
2 employees. Labor Code § 510(a) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 3(A) provide that any
3 work performed in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in
4 any one workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the
5 regular rate of pay for an employee. Furthermore, any work performed in excess of twelve (12)
6 in one workday shall be compensated at twice the regular rate of pay for an employee.

7 51. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were required by 8 Defendants to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per week. However, due to 9 Defendants' failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours worked Plaintiff and the 10 Represented Employees did not receive proper overtime compensation.

11 52. As one specific example, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were 12 frequently denied meal periods and/or forced to work through meal periods. However, despite
13 that Plaintiff and the Represented Employees did not take off-duty meal periods on these
14 occasions, Defendants deducted 30 minutes of compensable time from their shifts on each such 15 occasion. This resulted in a failure to pay overtime wages since those 30 minutes were often in 16 excess of 8 hours, yet Defendants failed to pay proper overtime for such compensable time.

17 53. Additionally, Defendants paid Plaintiff and the Represented Employees on an 18 hourly basis but also paid additional nondiscretionary compensation (such as bonuses). However,
19 during workweeks where the Represented Employees worked overtime hours and earned
20 additional nondiscretionary compensation, Defendants failed to include that compensation in the 21 calculations for the regular rate of pay – violating the well-established rule that overtime must 22 always be paid at time and one-half the regular rate of pay.

23 54. As a result of this policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the 24 Represented Employees for all overtime hours worked.

25 55. Defendants violate Labor Code §§ 204 and 510 and the applicable IWC Wage
26 Order § 3(A) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff and the Represented Employees because 27 Defendants required its employees to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per 28 week without proper overtime compensation.

56. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay proper overtime wages to Plaintiff and the Represented Employees in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 221-223, 510, 1194 and 1197.

57. Defendants' conduct was willful, as Defendants knew that Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were entitled to be paid proper overtime wages throughout the statutory period, yet Defendants chose not to pay them in accordance thereto.

58. At all material times, Defendants DOES 1 through 20 were and/or are the employer of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees or were persons acting on behalf of said employer(s), within the meaning of California Labor Code § 558, who violated or caused to be violated Labor Code § 204 and a provision or provisions of Part 2, Chapter 1 of the California Labor Code regulating hours and days of work respectively.

59. During the employment of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees, Defendants failed to pay them all wages to which they were entitled, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

60. As a result of Defendants' wrongful conduct, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees have been damaged in amounts to be proven at trial.

61. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Represented Employees, seeks recovery of all unpaid overtime wages, penalties, interest, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit against Defendants in an amount to be proven at trial.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

(Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 11, 12)

Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass Against All Defendants

62. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

63. Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass are and/or were employees of Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory meal periods.

1 64. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide
2 employees with meal periods as mandated by the Industrial Welfare Commission.

3 65. Labor Code § 512(a), in part, provides that employers, including Defendants, may 4 not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing an
5 employee the opportunity to take an uninterrupted meal period of not less than 30 minutes,
6 except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal
7 period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee. Employers
8 may not employ an employee for a work period more than 10 hours per day without providing 9 the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes.

10 66. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 11(B),
11 Defendants shall pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 12 pay for each meal period that is missed.

13 67. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass were denied
14 the 30-minute meal periods to which they were entitled. As a result of Defendants' policies and
15 practices, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were subjected to meal period violations
16 when they were: (1) unable to take a meal period due to workload, (2) forced to take an on-duty
17 meal period while under the control of the Company, (3) forced to take a shortened meal period,
18 (4) forced to take a meal period after the 5th hour of work, and (5) not provided mandated 19 second meal periods for shifts in excess of 10 hours.

20 68. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
21 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass were not provided with all
22 mandatory meal periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass one 23 additional hour of compensation at the regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

24 69. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Meal
25 Break Subclass all mandated meal periods and failed to pay wage premiums in lieu of mandated 26 meal or rest periods, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

27 70. On information and belief, Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass did not
28 voluntarily or willfully waive the mandated meal periods. Any expressed or implied waivers

1 obtained from Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass were not willfully obtained, were not
2 voluntarily agreed to, were a condition of employment, or were a part of a contract of an
3 unlawful adhesion. Defendants did not permit or authorize Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass
4 to take meal periods in accordance with California law.

5 71. By their failure to provide Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass with meal
6 periods as required by California law, and failing to pay one hour of additional wages in lieu of 7 each meal period not provided, Defendants willfully violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and 8 IWC Wage Order § 11. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for one hour of additional wages at 9 the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that a meal period was not 10 lawfully provided in an amount to be proven at time of trial.

11 72. Also, as a direct result of Defendants' violations of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512,
12 and IWC Wage Order § 11, Defendants, and each of them, are liable to Plaintiff and the Meal
13 Break Subclass for unpaid wage premiums, penalties, costs, and interest.

14 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST BREAKS

16 (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 12)

17 Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass Against All Defendants

18 73. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
19 as if fully alleged herein.

20 74. Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass are and/or were employees of Defendants
21 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory rest breaks.

22 75. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide rest
23 breaks to its employees as mandated by Order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.

24 76. The IWC Wage Order § 12 states, in part, that every employer shall authorize and
25 permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of 26 each work period. Employees shall receive a 10-minute rest period every four hours or major
27 fraction thereof that they are required to work. Authorized rest period time shall be counted, as 28 hours worked, for which there shall be no deduction from wages.

1 77. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and Section 12(B) of the applicable Wage
2 Order, Defendants shall pay Plaintiff and the Represented Employees one additional hour of pay
3 at his regular rate of compensation for each day that the rest period is not provided.

4 78. At all relevant times, Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Rest
5 Break Subclass with 10 minutes of net rest break time for every 4 hours worked, or major
6 fraction thereof, as mandated by California law. Defendants did not schedule rest breaks for the 7 Rest Break Subclass, the Rest Break Subclass were unable to leave the premises for breaks, and 8 the Rest Break Subclass were often not authorized and/or permitted to take mandated rest breaks
9 due to being overwhelmed by their hectic workload. Furthermore, on occasions when the Rest
10 Break Subclass worked longer shifts, Defendants failed to authorize and/or permit mandated 11 third rest breaks.

12 79. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
13 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass were not provided with all
14 mandatory rest periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Represented Employees
15 one additional hour of compensation in lieu thereof.

16 80. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Rest
17 Break Subclass all mandated rest breaks and failed to pay wage premiums in lieu of mandated 18 rest periods, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

19 81. By their failure to provide Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass with rest breaks
20 as required by California law, and failing to pay one hour of additional wages in lieu of each rest
21 break not provided, Defendants willfully violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and IWC Wage
22 Order § 12. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for one hour of additional wages at the 23 employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a paid rest break was not 24 lawfully provided in an amount to be proven at time of trial.

25 82. Also, as a direct result of Defendants' violations of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512,
26 and IWC Wage Order § 12, Defendants, and each of them, are liable to Plaintiff and the Rest
27 Break Subclass for unpaid wage premiums, penalties, costs, and interest.

1 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE BUSINESS EXPENSES

3 (Labor Code § 2802)

4 Plaintiff and the Unreimbursed Expense Subclass Against All Defendants

5 83. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
6 as if fully alleged herein.

7 84. Plaintiff and the Unreimbursed Expense Subclass are and/or were employees of 8 Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing 9 reimbursement of business expenses.

10 85. Labor Code § 2802(a) requires that the employer indemnify its employees for 11 expenses and losses incurred while discharging their duties or in obedience to the directions of 12 their employer.

13 86. At all relevant times herein mentioned, as a condition of employment, Defendants
14 required Plaintiff and the Unreimbursed Expense Subclass to incur necessary business-related 15 expenses and costs without reimbursement, including, but not limited to, acquiring and 16 maintaining a smart phone and related monthly data plan to communicate with Defendants via 17 phone, text message, and e-mail.

18 87. At all relevant times herein, Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802(a) when they 19 failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the Unreimbursed Expense Subclass for expenses incurred as a 20 direct consequence of employment with Defendants and/or under the direction of Defendants.

21 88. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to reimburse the Unreimbursed
22 Expense Subclass, including Plaintiff, for expenses incurred while discharging duties to 23 Defendants, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

24 89. As a direct result of Defendants' violation of Labor Code § 2802 and IWC Wage 25 Order § 9(B), Plaintiff and the Unreimbursed Expense Subclass have suffered, and continue to 26 suffer, substantial losses related to such incurred expenses, expenses, and attorney's fees in 27 seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform their obligations under the law, all in an amount 28 to be proved at time of trial.

90. Labor Code § 2802(b) states that “[a]ll awards made by a Court for reimbursement of necessary expenditures” shall carry interest, at the same rate as judgments in civil actions, and said interest will accrue from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditure or loss including, but not limited to, reasonable costs and attorney’s fees incurred by the employee enforcing the rights granted pursuant to Labor Code § 2802. The exact amount of the necessary expenditures or losses is in an amount to be proven at time of trial.

91. Furthermore, Labor Code § 2802(c) states that “[f]or the purposes of this section, the term 'necessary expenditures or losses' shall include all reasonable costs, including, but not limited to, attorney’s fees incurred by the employee in enforcing the rights granted by this section.” Therefore, Plaintiff and the Unreimbursed Expense Subclass seek to recover the unreimbursed expenses, interest on the unreimbursed expenses, and the costs and attorney’s fees necessarily incurred in pursuing same. The exact amount of reimbursements, interest, costs, and attorney’s fees will be in an amount to be proved at the time of trial.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY FINAL WAGES

(Labor Code §§ 201 – 203)

Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass against All Defendants

92. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

93. Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass are and/or were employees of Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the timing and payment of wages.

94. Labor Code § 201 requires that the employer immediately pay any wages, without abatement or reduction, to any employee who is discharged.

95. Labor Code § 202 requires that the employer pay all wages earned and unpaid, without abatement or reduction, no later than 72 hours of receiving an employee's notice of intent to quit or immediately at the time of quitting if at least a 72-hour notice was provided.

1 96. Labor Code §§ 201-203 cause the unpaid wages of the employee to continue as a
2 penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefore is
3 commenced, but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

4 97. At all relevant times, Defendants employed a policy and practice whereby
5 Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass were not paid all wages due and owing upon 6 separation of employment within the time required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

7 98. Also, at all relevant times, Defendants engaged in the practice of failing to pay all
8 wages due and owing to Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass upon separation of 9 employment, including, but not limited to, minimum, regular, and overtime wages, meal and rest
10 period premiums, and vested vacation wages.

11 99. Additionally, at all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay all mandated sick
12 wages owed to the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass at the proper rate of pay.

13 100. Labor Code § 246(l)(1) provides that paid sick time for non-exempt employees 14 must be “calculated in the same manner as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the 15 employee uses paid sick time, whether or not the employee actually works overtime in that 16 workweek.” Additionally, Labor Code § 246(l)(2) states that the paid sick time must be 17 “calculated by dividing the employee’s total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the 18 employee’s total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.”

19 101. Here, Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass were compensated on an 20 hourly basis plus additional compensation (such as bonuses). However, on the occasions that the 21 Waiting Time Penalties Subclass took sick time and received paid sick leave, Defendants only 22 paid sick time at the base rate of pay (not factoring in the additional compensation as required by 23 Labor Code §§ 246(l)(1-2)), leading to unpaid wages at the time of separation of employment.

24 102. Plaintiff alleges that, at all times material to this action, Defendants had a planned
25 pattern and practice of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass all 26 wages due and owing upon separation of employment as required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 27 202. Consequently, pursuant to Labor Code § 203, Defendants owe Plaintiff and the Waiting
28

Time Penalties Subclass the above-described waiting time penalty, all in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial and within the jurisdiction of this Court.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

(Labor Code § 226)

Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass against All Defendants

103. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

104. Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass are and/or were employees of Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the provision of accurate itemized wage statements.

105. Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to provide its employees with itemized wage statements accurately stating gross wages earned, all deductions, net wages earned, the inclusive dates of the pay period, the employee's name and the last four digits of his or her Social Security number (or employee identification number), the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

106. Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass due to violations including: failure to accurately state total hours worked (for example, the wage statements failed to accurately reflect the correct compensable hours); failure to accurately state gross wages earned; failure to accurately state all deductions; failure to accurately state net wages earned; failure to state the applicable hourly rates (including the accurate overtime rate of pay); failure to state the inclusive dates of the pay period; failure to accurately state the name and address of the legal entity of the employer; and failure to accurately state the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

107. Additionally, Defendants' wage statements directly violated Labor Code § 226(a) each period due to the failure to pay and report premium wages for denied meal periods and rest breaks under § 226.7.

1 108. Therefore, Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect
2 to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass because Defendants failed to provide a
3 wage statement to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass that complied with the 4 requirements of Labor Code § 226(a).

5 109. Defendants' failure to provide the required writing deprived Plaintiff and the 6 Wage Statement Penalties Subclass of the ability to know, understand, and question the 7 calculation and rate of pay and hours used to calculate the wages paid by Defendants. Therefore,
8 Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass had no way to dispute the resulting 9 miscalculation of wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to said
10 Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass have suffered 11 and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost
12 interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully 13 perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damages in amounts according to 14 proof at trial.

15 110. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to comply with Labor
16 Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass have suffered an injury in 17 that each was prevented from knowing, understanding and disputing the wage payments paid to 18 them. Furthermore, Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass have each suffered an 19 injury in that the failure to show all wages earned on the itemized wage statements resulted in 20 Plaintiff and the Represented Employees being denied all necessary deductions, payments, and 21 withholdings owed by the employer, including, but not limited to, the failure to make all 22 necessary contributions for unemployment benefits, social security benefits, proper payment of 23 taxes and withholdings, and other mandated state and federal benefits.

24 111. Plaintiff has also been injured as a result of having to bring this action to attempt 25 to obtain correct wage information following Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the 26 mandates of California's Labor Code and related laws and regulations.

27 112. Labor Code § 226(e) requires Defendants to pay the greater of all actual damages 28 or fifty dollars ($50.00) per employee for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred, and one hundred dollars ($100.00) per employee for each violation in subsequent pay periods, plus attorney's fees and costs, to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass who were injured by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a). The exact amount of the applicable penalty is all in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

UNFAIR AND UNLAWFUL COMPETITION

(Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.)

Plaintiff and the Represented Employees against All Defendants

113. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

114. California Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq., prohibits acts of unfair competition, which includes any "unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice." The Represented Employees, including Plaintiff, have suffered and continue to suffer injuries in fact, due to the unfair and unlawful business practices of Defendants as alleged herein.

115. Defendants, and each of them, are "persons" as defined under Business & Professions Code § 17021.

116. As alleged herein, Defendants engaged in conduct that violated California's wage and hour laws, including failure to pay all wages owed, including minimum, regular, overtime, sick, and vacation wages, failure to provide mandated meal periods and rest breaks, failure to reimburse business expenses, and failure to timely pay wages upon separation of employment, all to decrease their costs and increase profits.

117. At all times relevant herein, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and the Represented Employees wages and monies and other financial obligations to which they were entitled.

118. As a result of Defendants' failure to comply with the Labor Code and IWC Orders, Represented Employees, including Plaintiff, suffered a loss of wages and monies, all in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. Defendants' ongoing violations of the foregoing statutes and laws constitute a violation of Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200, et seq.

119. Defendants' violations of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders and

1 its scheme to lower its payroll costs as alleged herein, constitute unlawful and unfair business
2 practices because it was done in a systematic manner over a period of time to the detriment of the 3 Plaintiff and all others similarly situated.

4 120. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
5 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Represented Employees, and to the general public.
6 Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of 7 Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

8 121. A violation of California Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. may be 9 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as 10 violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, are 11 unlawful and in violation of public policy, and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive,
12 fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business
13 practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

14 122. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Represented Employees, has no plain,
15 speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which they have suffered as a 16 consequence of Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a result of 17 the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiff, individually,
18 and on behalf of the Represented Employees, has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable
19 harm unless Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to engage in said
20 unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

21 123. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Represented Employees, is entitled to,
22 and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge the profits which Defendants have 23 acquired, or of which Plaintiff and Represented Employees have been deprived, by means of the 24 above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and the 25 Represented Employees are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the unfair
26 practices of Defendants in order to recover restitution.

27 124. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Represented Employees, is further 28 entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above described business practices are unfair,

1 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining Defendants, and each of them, from 2 engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in 3 the future.

4 125. Pursuant to Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and 5 Represented Employees are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 6 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a
7 permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and 8 Represented Employees; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil 9 Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

10 VI. PAGA CAUSES OF ACTION (Cal. Lab. Code. §§ 2698 – 2699.5)

11 126. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under the PAGA as he was employed by 12 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code
13 violations alleged herein. As such, Plaintiff may recover the remedies described herein in a civil 14 action filed on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated current and former aggrieved
15 employees in California against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed 16 (hereinafter the “Aggrieved Employees”).

17 127. Plaintiff seeks to recover all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to 18 Labor Code § 2699, as well as attorneys' fees, costs, and/or other damages as permitted by 19 PAGA through a representative action pursuant to the PAGA and the California Supreme Court
20 in Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal. 4th 969. Therefore, Plaintiff is not required to, nor 21 does she, seek class certification of the PAGA claims under Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

22 128. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3(a), Plaintiff gave written notice by online filing
23 to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to 24 Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including 25 the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. More than sixty-five (65) days have 26 elapsed since the date Plaintiff provided the written notice of the claims alleged herein without 27 the LWDA assuming jurisdiction over the claims alleged. Accordingly, Plaintiff has fully 28 satisfied the administrative prerequisites to suit under the PAGA.

1 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

3 (Labor Code §§ 200, 1194, 1194.2, 1197; IWC Wage Order § 4)

4 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

5 129. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
6 as if fully alleged herein.

7 130. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not exempt from the requirement to 8 be paid at least the applicable California minimum wage throughout the statutory period for each 9 hour worked.

10 131. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided proper minimum and 11 regular wages due to Defendants' failure to accurately record and Aggrieved for all hours
12 worked. As a result of this policy and practice, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were 13 required to perform off-the-clock work that Defendants either knew or should have known they 14 were performing.

15 132. As one specific example, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were frequently
16 denied meal periods and/or forced to work through meal periods. However, despite that Plaintiff
17 and the Aggrieved Employees did not take off-duty meal periods on these occasions, Defendants
18 deducted 30 minutes of compensable time from their shifts on each such occasion. This resulted
19 in a failure to pay minimum/regular wages since Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not 20 paid for all hours worked.

21 133. As a result of this policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the 22 Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked.

23 134. Consequently, Defendants violated California Labor Code laws and minimum
24 wage laws, inter alia, Labor Code §§ 200, 221, 222, 223, 1197, IWC Wage Order 9, § 4, and
25 Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8, section 11090, subds. 1 and 4(B).

26 135. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
27 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay wages to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
28 Employees for each hour worked in violation of Labor Code §§ 221-223, 1194 and 1197.

1 136. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
2 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
3 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

4 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME WAGES

6 (Labor Code §§ 204 and 510; IWC Wage Order § 3(A))

7 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

8 137. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
9 as if fully alleged herein.

10 138. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were employees of Defendants who did
11 not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing payment of overtime wages.

12 139. Labor Code § 204 requires that the employer timely pay all overtime wages to its 13 employees. Labor Code § 510(a) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 3(A) provide that any 14 work performed in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in
15 any one workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the 16 regular rate of pay for an employee. Furthermore, any work performed in excess of twelve (12)
17 in one workday shall be compensated at twice the regular rate of pay for an employee.

18 140. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required by 19 Defendants to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per week. However, due to
20 Defendants' failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours worked Plaintiff and the 21 Aggrieved Employees did not receive proper overtime compensation.

22 141. As one specific example, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were frequently
23 denied meal periods and/or forced to work through meal periods. However, despite that Plaintiff
24 and the Aggrieved Employees did not take off-duty meal periods on these occasions, Defendants
25 deducted 30 minutes of compensable time from their shifts on each such occasion. This resulted
26 in a failure to pay overtime wages since those 30 minutes were often in excess of 8 hours, yet
27 Defendants failed to pay proper overtime for such compensable time.

1 142. Additionally, Defendants paid Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees on an
2 hourly basis but also paid additional nondiscretionary compensation (such as bonuses). However,
3 during workweeks where the Aggrieved Employees worked overtime hours and earned
4 additional nondiscretionary compensation, Defendants failed to include that compensation in the
5 calculations for the regular rate of pay – violating the well-established rule that overtime must
6 always be paid at time and one-half the regular rate of pay.

7 143. As a result of these policies and practices, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and 8 the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked.

9 144. Defendants violate Labor Code §§ 204 and 510 and the applicable IWC Wage
10 Order § 3(A) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees because 11 Defendants required its employees to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per 12 week without proper overtime compensation.

13 145. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
14 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay proper overtime wages to Plaintiff and the 15 Aggrieved Employees in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 221-223, 510, 1194 and 1197.

16 146. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
17 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
18 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

19 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE COMPLIANT MEAL PERIODS

21 (Labor Code § 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 11, 12)

22 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

23 147. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
24 as if fully alleged herein.

25 148. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants
26 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing meal periods.

27 149. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide
28 employees with meal periods as mandated by the Industrial Welfare Commission.

1 150. Labor Code § 512(a), in part, provides that employers, including Defendants, may
2 not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing an
3 employee the opportunity to take an uninterrupted meal period of not less than 30 minutes,
4 except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal
5 period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee. Employers
6 may not employ an employee for a work period more than 10 hours per day without providing
7 the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes.

8 151. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 11(B),
9 Defendants shall pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 10 pay for each meal period that is missed.

11 152. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were denied
12 the 30-minute meal periods to which they were entitled. As a result of Defendants' policies and 13 practices, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were subjected to meal period violations when 14 they were: (1) unable to take a meal period due to workload, (2) forced to take an on-duty meal
15 period while under the control of the Company, (3) forced to take a shortened meal period, (4)
16 forced to take a meal period after the 5th hour of work, and (5) not provided mandated second 17 meal periods for shifts in excess of 10 hours.

18 153. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
19 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided with 20 all mandatory meal periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees
21 one additional hour of compensation at the regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

22 154. On information and belief, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees did not
23 voluntarily or willfully waive the mandated meal periods. Any expressed or implied waivers
24 obtained from Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not willfully obtained, were not 25 voluntarily agreed to, were a condition of employment, or were a part of a contract of an
26 unlawful adhesion. Defendants did not permit or authorize Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
27 Employees to take meal periods in accordance with California law.
28

1 155. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
2 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
3 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

4 TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST BREAKS

6 (Labor Code § 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 12)

7 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

8 156. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
9 as if fully alleged herein.

10 157. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants
11 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory rest breaks.

12 158. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide rest
13 breaks to its employees as mandated by Order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.

14 159. The IWC Wage Order § 12 states, in part, that every employer shall authorize and
15 permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of 16 each work period. Employees shall receive a 10-minute rest period every four hours or major
17 fraction thereof that they are required to work. Authorized rest period time shall be counted, as 18 hours worked, for which there shall be no deduction from wages.

19 160. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and Section 12(B) of the applicable Wage
20 Order, Defendants shall pay Plaintiff and the Represented Employees one additional hour of pay
21 at his regular rate of compensation for each day that the rest period is not provided.

22 161. At all relevant times, Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the 23 Aggrieved Employees with 10 minutes of net rest break time for every 4 hours worked, or major
24 fraction thereof, as mandated by California law. Defendants did not schedule rest breaks for the 25 Aggrieved Employees, the Aggrieved Employees were unable to leave the premises for breaks,
26 and the Aggrieved Employees were often not authorized and/or permitted to take mandated rest
27 breaks due to being overwhelmed by their hectic workload. Furthermore, on occasions when the 28

1 Aggrieved Employees worked longer shifts, Defendants failed to authorize and/or permit
2 mandated third rest breaks.

3 162. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
4 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided with
5 all mandatory rest periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees
6 one additional hour of compensation in lieu thereof.

7 163. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
8 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
9 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

10 THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO REIMBURSE BUSINESS EXPENSES

12 (Labor Code § 2802)

13 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees Against All Defendants

14 164. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
15 as if fully alleged herein.

16 165. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants
17 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing reimbursement of 18 business expenses.

19 166. Labor Code § 2802(a) requires that the employer indemnify its employees for 20 expenses and losses incurred while discharging their duties or in obedience to the directions of 21 their employer.

22 167. At all relevant times herein mentioned, as a condition of employment, Defendants
23 required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to incur necessary business-related expenses and 24 costs without reimbursement, including, but not limited to, acquiring and maintaining a smart
25 phone and monthly data plan to communicate with Defendants via phone, text, and e-mail.

26 168. At all relevant times herein, Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802(a) when they 27 failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for expenses incurred as a direct 28 consequence of employment with Defendants and/or under the direction of Defendants.

1 169. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
2 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
3 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

4 FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY WAGES EACH PERIOD

6 (Labor Code § 204)

7 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

8 170. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
9 as if fully alleged herein.

10 171. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were "nonexempt" employees
11 of Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws regarding the 12 timing of payment of wages each period.

13 172. Labor Code § 204(a) states that all wages earned by a person are due and payable 14 twice during each calendar month, and further states that wages earned during the first through 15 fifteenth days of the month must be paid no later than the twenty-sixth day of the month, and that 16 wages earned between the sixteenth and last day of the month must be paid by the tenth day of 17 the following month.

18 173. Furthermore, Labor Code § 204(d) states "[t]he requirements of this section shall 19 be deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if 20 the wages are paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period."

21 174. At all relevant times herein, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and the 22 Aggrieved Employees with all wages due and owing each period within the time required by 23 Labor Code § 204. Moreover, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
24 Employees with all wages due and owing each pay period, including, but not limited to,
25 minimum, regular, and overtime wages, as well as meal and rest period premiums and sick time
26 at the proper rate, within the time specified by Labor Code § 204.

1 175. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
2 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
3 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

4 FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY FINAL WAGES

6 (Labor Code §§ 201 – 203)

7 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

8 176. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
9 as if fully alleged herein.

10 177. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were “non-exempt” employees
11 of Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the 12 timing and payment of final wages.

13 178. Labor Code § 201 requires that the employer immediately pay any wages, without 14 abatement or reduction, to any employee who is discharged.

15 179. Labor Code § 202 requires that the employer pay all wages earned and unpaid, 16 without abatement or reduction, no later than 72 hours of receiving an employee's notice of 17 intent to quit or immediately at the time of quitting if at least a 72-hour notice was provided.

18 180. Labor Code §§ 201-203 cause the unpaid wages of the employee to continue as a
19 penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefore is 20 commenced, but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

21 181. At all relevant times here, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
22 Employees with all wages due and owing upon separation of employment, including, but not 23 limited to, minimum, regular, and overtime wages, vacation and sick pay at the proper rates, and 24 meal and rest period premiums, within the time specified by Labor Code §§ 201 – 203.

25 182. Plaintiff alleges that, at all times material to this action, Defendants had a planned
26 pattern and practice of failing to timely pay to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages
27 due and owing upon separation of employment as required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.
28

1 183. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
2 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
3 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

4 SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR
6 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

7 (Labor Code § 226)

8 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

9 184. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
10 as if fully alleged herein.

11 185. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants 12 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the provision of 13 accurate itemized wage statements.

14 186. Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to provide its employees with itemized 15 wage statements accurately stating gross wages earned, all deductions, net wages earned, the 16 inclusive dates of the pay period, the employee's name and the last four digits of his or her 17 Social Security number (or employee identification number), the name and address of the legal 18 entity that is the employer, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 19 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

20 187. Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff
21 and the Aggrieved Employees due to violations including: failure to accurately state total hours
22 worked (for example, the wage statements failed to accurately reflect the correct compensable 23 hours); failure to accurately state gross wages earned; failure to accurately state all deductions; 24 failure to accurately state net wages earned; failure to state the applicable hourly rates (including 25 the accurate overtime rate of pay); failure to state the inclusive dates of the pay period; failure to 26 accurately state the name and address of the legal entity of the employer; and failure to 27 accurately state the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

28 188. Additionally, Defendants' wage statements directly violated Labor Code § 226(a)

each period due to the failure to pay and report premium wages for denied meal periods and rest breaks under § 226.7.

189. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

VII. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, on a representative basis, and all others similarly situated, prays for judgment and relief against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

1. As to the Ninth through Sixteenth Causes of Action, the assessment of all applicable and available remedies under PAGA;

2. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs as permitted under PAGA;

3. That the First through Eighth Causes of Action be certified as a class action;

4. That Plaintiff be appointed as Class Representative;

5. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed Class Counsel;

6. For all applicable statutory penalties recoverable under the First through Eighth Causes of Action to the extent permitted by law, including those pursuant to Labor Code and Orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission;

7. For reasonable attorneys' fees, costs of suit, and interest to the extent permitted by law, including those pursuant to the Labor Code;

8. For injunctive relief and/or restitution as provided by the Labor Code and Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq.;

9. For a declaratory judgment that Defendants have violated Labor Code §§ 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 208, 210, 218.6, 221, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1194, 1197, 1198, and 1199, among other sections inadvertently omitted;

10. For an award of damages in the amount of unpaid compensation including, but not limited to, unpaid wages, benefits, and penalties according to proof, including interest thereon;

- 1 11. For pre- and post-judgment interest; and
2 12. For such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

3 DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

4 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, hereby 5 demands a jury trial as to the First through Eighth Causes of Action pled herein.
